How to Use This eBible

What is the difference between an eBook and a print book?

eBook versions of Bibles contain all the content and supplementary materials found in the original print versions and are optimized for navigation in the various apps and devices used for display. eReaders recognize text as one fluid string and are formatted in a single column, which differs from the multi-column layout seen in many print version Bibles. Therefore, some content may not match the exact appearance of the original print version, but instead uses hyperlinks to navigate between related content.

How do I use the eBook Table of Contents?

Important Note: Be sure to consult your device manufacturer's User's Guide for device-specific navigation instructions.

The Table of Contents is generally formatted in the same order as the original print version and hyperlinked as follows:

- Front matter – Introductory articles
- Bible books and chapters
- Back matter – Supplementary materials

To navigate to specific Bible books, chapters, or verses, please note the following:

- Book links (Ex. "Genesis") go directly to the Introduction of each book, or the beginning of that Bible book if there is no introductory text.

- Chapter links go directly to the beginning of the chapter associated with a book.
- Use the device's "Next Page/Previous Page" buttons or functions to scroll through the verses in each chapter.
- Every Bible book and chapter hyperlink in the Bible text returns or goes back to the Table of Contents. Or, use the device's "back" button or function to go back to the last selection.

How do I navigate supplementary materials?

Within articles and supplementary materials, every Scripture reference or article title is hyperlinked directly to the location of that content. Use the device's "back" button or function to go back to the last selection. The following provides more specific instructions for specific types of content found in this ebook.

Footnotes (Translators' Notes) are marked with small, hyperlinked superscript letters "[a]".

- Select the hyperlinked superscript letter in the main Bible text to go to the corresponding footnote.
- Select the hyperlinked letter to the left of the footnote(s) and you are returned to the main Bible text, or use the device's "back" button or function to go back to the last selection.

Articles and Features related to Bible content are accessible through the pointer links that are interspersed throughout the Bible text.

- Select the hyperlinked title entry at the end of a paragraph where referenced Bible verse(s) appear to go to its location in the Annotations section at the end of each Bible book.

- Select the hyperlinked title entry to go back to the Bible verse location, or use the device's "back" button or function to go back to the last selection.

The Concordance includes an alphabetic list of important words.

- Select the hyperlinked letter of the alphabet to navigate to the corresponding list of entries.
- Selecting the letter heading from within the list of entries will return to the beginning of the Dictionary.
- Use the device's "Next Page/Previous Page" buttons or functions to scroll through the entries.
- Use the device's "back" button or function to go back to the last selection.

Color Maps are included as images and optimized for eReader device display.

- Select the hyperlinked entry in the Table of Contents to go to a specific map.
- The first image displays the entire map with 4 equal sections defined.
- Use the device's "Next Page/Previous Page" buttons or functions to scroll through larger versions of each individual section.
- Use the device's "back" button or function to go back to the last selection.

Foreword

The Bible. It's the book you're holding in your hands. Christians see this book as unique, the Book, because it is the only book in the world that truly presents God's heavenly message to mankind. Thus we appropriately call it the Holy Bible or Holy Scripture or God's Word. Think of it. God the Creator has provided a written communication to His creation telling us about Himself and His desires for all of us.

Yes, God desires something for us. He desires good for us, ultimately to restore us to the natural perfection humanity possessed at the moment He created the first man and woman. That event was a miracle more profound than the conception and birth of a human being. For while we see the newborn as precious and pure, the original state of mankind was one wherein a man and a woman intimately conversed with God and He with them in an exchange not only of words but also of heart and spirit.

So the Bible aims at the restoration of that relationship between God and people, showing how that restoration is accomplished and what that restoration means for us who live today. A fascinating scripture passage is Colossians 2:9, 10. "For in Him dwells all the fullness of the Godhead bodily, and you are complete in Him, who is the head of all principality and power." In Jesus of Nazareth, who delivered the Sermon on the Mount, who healed the blind, who miraculously fed five thousand men (besides women and children!), and who walked the streets of a hostile Jerusalem, God dwelt fully. Our privilege is to live the pattern of Jesus's life, do what He did, live as He taught, to follow in His steps.

The first place to start realizing this great privilege is the Bible, where we get the record of God's work, and His message that restores us to the completeness referred to in the Colossians passage above. So we read the Bible. We gather the information about God's work of making us complete in Him. But we have to take the next step. We have to respond to the message, act on it. We have to apply it personally.

To that end, the approach of the Apply the Word Study Bible is to do four things. First, it provides a reliable Bible text. The text of this Bible, the New King James Version, is a trustworthy translation of the Scriptures backed by more than four hundred years of integrity. You can be sure you're getting the truth of God's message, the right information, "the real story."

Second, by means of an extensive set of notes and articles, the Scriptures are explained against the setting of their biblical background and in the context of the whole of the Bible. These notes include commentary, maps, tables and charts. The purpose of these notes is to give emphasis to scripture passages of special interest in understanding God's message to us.

Third, the commentary and notes aim at practical points. The information given isn't given just because it's information about the Bible. It's given because the information relates to us who read it thousands of years after the Bible was written. What we discover is that in many respects life in Bible times really wasn't much different from life today. People still deal with families, friends, political systems, economic influences, social structures, cultural norms, generational shifts, and all such circumstances of life, just as people in the Bible did. The notes of the Apply the Word Study Bible are written with those circumstances in mind. The result is the matter of relevance—making our Bible study relevant to life.

Fourth, you'll find in the notes an invitation to get "up close and personal" with the Bible text. You'll encounter places where the notes challenge you to probe your own thinking about a subject. The freedom we have as Christians is to open ourselves to the challenges that make our faith stronger and that deepen our convictions about God and His sure work of salvation for us, teaching us to follow in His steps.

The goal of Bible study is to become more like Jesus Christ. The Apply the Word Study Bible is designed just for that. Our prayer is that your Bible study will have the effect of drawing you closer to Him.

THE PUBLISHERS

Preface

Purpose

In the preface to the 1611 edition, the translators of the Authorized Version, known popularly as the King James Bible, state that it was not their purpose “to make a new translation . . . but to make a good one better.” Indebted to the earlier work of William Tyndale and others, they saw their best contribution to consist in revising and enhancing the excellence of the English versions which had sprung from the Reformation of the sixteenth century. In harmony with the purpose of the King James scholars, the translators and editors of the present work have not pursued a goal of innovation. They have perceived the Holy Bible, New King James Version, as a continuation of the labors of the earlier translators, thus unlocking for today’s readers the spiritual treasures found especially in the Authorized Version of the Holy Scriptures.

A Living Legacy

For more than four hundred years, and throughout several revisions of its English form, the King James Bible has been deeply revered among the English-speaking peoples of the world. The precision of translation for which it is historically renowned, and its majesty of style, have enabled that monumental version of the Word of God to become the mainspring of the religion, language, and legal foundations of our civilization.

Although the Elizabethan period and our own era share in zeal for technical advance, the former period was more aggressively devoted to classical learning. Along with this awakened concern for the classics came a flourishing companion interest in the Scriptures, an interest that was enlivened by the conviction that the manuscripts were providentially handed down and were a trustworthy record of the inspired Word of God. The King James translators were committed to producing an English Bible that would be a precise translation, and by no means a paraphrase or a broadly approximate rendering. On the one hand, the scholars were almost as familiar with the original languages of the Bible as with their native English. On the other hand, their reverence for the divine Author and His Word assured a translation of the Scriptures in which only a principle of utmost accuracy could be accepted.

In 1786 Catholic scholar Alexander Geddes said of the King James Bible, “If accuracy and strictest attention to the letter of the text be supposed to constitute an excellent version, this is of all versions the most excellent.” George Bernard Shaw became a literary legend in the twentieth century because of his severe and often humorous criticisms of our most cherished values. Surprisingly, however, Shaw pays the following tribute to the scholars commissioned by King James: “The translation was extraordinarily well done because to the translators what they were translating was not merely a curious collection of ancient books written by different authors in different stages of culture, but the Word of God divinely revealed through His chosen and expressly inspired scribes. In this conviction they carried out their work with boundless reverence and care and achieved a beautifully artistic result.” History agrees with these estimates. Therefore, while seeking to unveil the excellent form of the traditional English Bible, special care has also been taken in the present edition to preserve the work of precision which is the legacy of the 1611 translators.

Complete Equivalence in Translation

Where new translation has been necessary in the New King James Version, the most complete representation of the original has been rendered by considering the history of usage and etymology of words in their contexts. This principle of complete equivalence seeks to preserve all of the information in the text, while presenting it in good literary form. Dynamic equivalence, a recent procedure in Bible translation, commonly results in paraphrasing where a more literal rendering is needed to reflect a specific and vital sense. For example, complete equivalence truly renders the original text in expressions such as "lifted her voice and wept" (Gen. 21:16); "I gave you cleanness of teeth" (Amos 4:6); "Jesus met them, saying, 'Rejoice!'" (Matt. 28:9); and "Woman, what does your concern have to do with Me?" (John 2:4). Complete equivalence translates fully, in order to provide an English text that is both accurate and readable.

In keeping with the principle of complete equivalence, it is the policy to translate interjections which are commonly omitted in modern language renderings of the Bible. As an example, the interjection behold, in the older King James editions, continues to have a place in English usage, especially in dramatically calling attention to a spectacular scene or an event of profound importance such as the Immanuel prophecy of Isaiah 7:14. Consequently, behold is retained for these occasions in the present edition. However, the Hebrew and Greek originals for this word can be translated variously, depending on the circumstances in the passage. Therefore, in addition to behold, words such as indeed, look, see, and surely are also rendered to convey the appropriate sense suggested by the context in each case.

In faithfulness to God and to our readers, it was deemed appropriate that all participating scholars sign a statement affirming their belief in the verbal and plenary inspiration of Scripture, and in the inerrancy of the original autographs.

Devotional Quality

The King James scholars readily appreciated the intrinsic beauty of divine revelation. They accordingly disciplined their talents to render well-chosen English words of their time, as well as a graceful, often musical arrangement of language, which has stirred the hearts of Bible readers through the years. The translators, the committees, and the editors of the present edition, while sensitive to the late-twentieth-century English idiom, and while adhering faithfully to the Hebrew, Aramaic, and Greek texts, have sought to maintain those lyrical and devotional qualities that are so highly regarded in the Authorized Version. This devotional quality is especially apparent in the poetic and prophetic books, although even the relatively plain style of the Gospels and Epistles cannot strictly be likened, as sometimes suggested, to modern newspaper style. The Koine Greek of the New Testament is influenced by the Hebrew background of the writers, for whom even the gospel narratives were not merely flat utterance, but often song in various degrees of rhythm.

The Style

Students of the Bible applaud the timeless devotional character of our historic Bible. Yet it is also universally understood that our language, like all living languages, has undergone profound change since 1611. Subsequent revisions of the King James Bible have sought to keep abreast of changes in English speech. The present work is a further step toward this objective. Where obsolescence and other reading difficulties exist, present-day vocabulary, punctuation, and grammar have been carefully integrated. Words representing ancient objects, such as chariot and phylactery, have no modern substitutes and are therefore retained.

A special feature of the New King James Version is its conformity to the thought flow of the 1611 Bible. The reader discovers that the sequence and selection of words, phrases, and clauses of the new edition, while much clearer, are so close to the traditional that there is remarkable ease in listening to the reading of either edition while following with the other.

In the discipline of translating biblical and other ancient languages, a standard method of transliteration, that is, the English spelling of untranslated words, such as names of persons and places, has never been commonly adopted. In keeping with the design of the present work, the King James spelling of untranslated words is retained, although made uniform throughout. For example, instead of the spellings Isaiah and Elijah in the Old Testament, and Esaias and Elias in the New Testament, Isaiah and Elijah now appear in both Testaments.

King James doctrinal and theological terms, for example, propitiation, justification, and sanctification, are generally familiar to English-speaking peoples. Such terms have been retained except where the original language indicates need for a more precise translation.

Readers of the Authorized Version will immediately be struck by the absence of several pronouns: thee, thou, and ye are replaced by the simple you, while your and yours are substituted for thy and thine as applicable. Thee, thou, thy, and thine were once forms of address to express a special relationship to human as well as divine persons. These pronouns are no longer part of our language. However, reverence for God in the present work is preserved by capitalizing pronouns, including You, Your, and Yours, which refer to Him. Additionally, capitalization of these pronouns benefits the reader by clearly distinguishing divine and human persons referred to in a passage. Without such capitalization the distinction is often obscure, because the antecedent of a pronoun is not always clear in the English translation.

In addition to the pronoun usages of the seventeenth century, the -eth and -est verb endings, so familiar in the earlier King James editions, are now obsolete. Unless a speaker is schooled in these verb endings, there is common difficulty in selecting the correct form to be used with a given subject of the verb in vocal prayer. That is, should we use love, loveth, or lovest? do, doeth, doest, or dost? have, hath, or hast? Because these forms are obsolete, contemporary English usage has been substituted for the previous verb endings.

In older editions of the King James Version, the frequency of the connective and far exceeded the limits of present English usage. Also, biblical linguists agree that the Hebrew and Greek original words for this conjunction may commonly be translated otherwise, depending on the immediate context. Therefore, instead of and, alternatives such as also, but, however, now, so, then, and thus are accordingly rendered in the present edition, when the original language permits.

The real character of the Authorized Version does not reside in its archaic pronouns or verbs or other grammatical forms of the seventeenth century, but rather in the care taken by its scholars to impart the letter and spirit of the original text in a majestic and reverent style.

The Format

The format of the New King James Version is designed to enhance the vividness and devotional quality of the Holy Scriptures:

- Subject headings assist the reader to identify topics and transitions in the biblical content.
- Words or phrases in italics indicate expressions in the original language which require clarification by additional English words, as also done throughout the history of the King James Bible.
- Oblique type in the New Testament indicates a quotation from the Old Testament.
- Verse numbers in bold type indicate the beginning of a paragraph.
- Poetry is structured as contemporary verse to reflect the poetic form and beauty of the passage in the original language.
- The covenant name of God was usually translated from the Hebrew as LORD or GOD (using capital letters as shown) in the King James Old Testament. This tradition is maintained. In the present edition the name is so capitalized whenever the covenant name is quoted in the New Testament from a passage in the Old Testament.

The Old Testament Text

The Hebrew Bible has come down to us through the scrupulous care of ancient scribes who copied the original text in successive generations. By the sixth century A.D. the scribes were succeeded by a group known as the Masoretes, who continued to preserve the sacred Scriptures for another five hundred years in a form known as the Masoretic Text. Babylonia, Palestine, and Tiberias were the main centers of Masoretic activity; but by the tenth century A.D. the Masoretes of Tiberias, led by the family of ben Asher, gained the ascendancy. Through subsequent editions, the ben Asher text became in the twelfth century the only recognized form of the Hebrew Scriptures.

Daniel Bomberg printed the first Rabbinic Bible in 1516–17; that work was followed in 1524–25 by a second edition prepared by Jacob ben Chayyim and also published by Bomberg. The text of ben Chayyim was adopted in most subsequent Hebrew Bibles, including those used by the King James translators. The ben Chayyim text was also used for the first two editions of Rudolph Kittel's Biblia Hebraica of 1906 and 1912. In 1937 Paul Kahle published a third edition of Biblia Hebraica. This edition was based on the oldest dated manuscript of the ben Asher text, the Leningrad Manuscript B19a (A.D. 1008), which Kahle regarded as superior to that used by ben Chayyim.

For the New King James Version the text used was the 1967/1977 Stuttgart edition of the Biblia Hebraica, with frequent comparisons being made with the Bomberg edition of 1524–25. The Septuagint (Greek) Version of the Old Testament and the Latin Vulgate also were consulted. In addition to referring to a variety of ancient versions of the Hebrew Scriptures, the New King James Version draws on the resources of relevant manuscripts from the Dead Sea caves. In the few places where the Hebrew was so obscure that the 1611 King James was compelled to follow one of the versions, but where information is now available to resolve the problems, the New King James Version follows the Hebrew text. Significant variations are recorded in the New King James translators' notes.

The New Testament Text

There is more manuscript support for the New Testament than for any other body of ancient literature. Over five thousand Greek, eight thousand Latin, and many more manuscripts in other languages attest the integrity of the New Testament. There is only one basic New Testament used by Protestants, Roman Catholics, and Orthodox, by conservatives and liberals. Minor variations in hand copying have appeared through the centuries, before mechanical printing began about A.D. 1450.

Some variations exist in the spelling of Greek words, in word order, and in similar details. These ordinarily do not show up in translation and do not affect the sense of the text in any way.

Other manuscript differences such as omission or inclusion of a word or a clause, and two paragraphs in the Gospels, should not overshadow the overwhelming degree of agreement which exists among the ancient records. Bible readers may be assured that the most important differences in English New Testaments of today are due, not to manuscript divergence, but to the way in which translators view the task of translation: How literally should the text be rendered? How does the translator view the matter of biblical inspiration? Does the translator adopt a paraphrase when a literal rendering would be quite clear and more to the point? The New King James Version follows the historic precedent of the Authorized Version in maintaining a literal approach to translation, except where the idiom of the original language cannot be translated directly into our tongue.

The King James New Testament was based on the traditional text of the Greek-speaking churches, first published in 1516, and later called the Textus Receptus or Received Text. Although based on the relatively few available manuscripts, these were representative of many more which existed at the time but only became known later. In the late nineteenth century, B. Westcott and F. Hort taught that this text had been officially edited by the fourth-century church, but a total lack of historical evidence for this event has forced a revision of the theory. It is now widely held that the Byzantine Text that largely supports the Textus Receptus has as much right as the Alexandrian or any other tradition to be weighed in determining the text of the New Testament.

Since the 1880s most contemporary translations of the New Testament have relied upon a relatively few manuscripts discovered chiefly in the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries. Such translations depend primarily on two manuscripts, Codex Vaticanus and Codex Sinaiticus, because of their greater age. The Greek text obtained by using these sources and the related papyri (our most ancient manuscripts) is known as the Alexandrian Text. However, some scholars have grounds for doubting the faithfulness of Vaticanus and Sinaiticus, since they often disagree with one another, and Sinaiticus exhibits excessive omission.

A third viewpoint of New Testament scholarship holds that the best text is based on the consensus of the majority of existing Greek manuscripts. This text is called the Majority Text. Most of these manuscripts are in substantial agreement. Even though many are late, and none is earlier than the fifth century, usually their readings are verified by papyri, ancient versions, quotations from the early church fathers, or a combination of these. The Majority Text is similar to the Textus Receptus, but it corrects those readings which have little or no support in the Greek manuscript tradition.

Today scholars agree that the science of New Testament textual criticism is in a state of flux. Very few scholars still favor the Textus Receptus as such, and then often for its historical prestige as the text of Luther, Calvin, Tyndale, and the King James Version. For about a century most have followed a Critical Text (so called because it is edited according to specific principles of textual criticism) which depends heavily upon the Alexandrian type of text. More recently many have abandoned this Critical Text (which is quite similar to the one edited by Westcott and Hort) for one that is more eclectic. Finally, a small but growing number of scholars prefer the Majority Text, which is close to the traditional text except in the Revelation.

In light of these facts, and also because the New King James Version is the fifth revision of a historic document translated from specific Greek texts, the editors decided to retain the traditional text in the body of the New Testament and to indicate major Critical and Majority Text variant readings in the translators' notes. Although these variations are duly indicated in the translators' notes of the present edition, it is most important to emphasize that fully eighty-five percent of the New Testament text is the same in the Textus Receptus, the Alexandrian Text, and the Majority Text.

New King James Translators' Notes

Significant textual explanations, alternate translations, and New Testament citations of Old Testament passages are supplied in the New King James translators' notes.

Important textual variants in the Old Testament are identified in a standard form.

The textual notes in the present edition of the New Testament make no evaluation of readings, but do clearly indicate the manuscript sources of readings. They objectively present the facts without such tendentious remarks as "the best manuscripts omit" or "the most reliable manuscripts read." Such notes are value judgments that differ according to varying viewpoints on the text. By giving a clearly defined set of variants the New King James Version benefits readers of all textual persuasions.

NU-Text

These variations from the traditional text generally represent the Alexandrian or Egyptian type of text described previously in "The New Testament Text." They are found in the Critical Text published in the twenty-seventh edition of the Nestle-Aland Greek New Testament (N) and in the United Bible Societies' fourth edition (U), hence the acronym, "NU-Text."

M-Text
This symbol indicates points of variation in the Majority Text from the traditional text, as also previously discussed in "The New Testament Text." It should be noted that M stands for whatever reading is printed in the published Greek New Testament According to the Majority Text, whether supported by overwhelming, strong, or only a divided majority textual tradition.

The textual notes reflect the scholarship of the past two centuries and will assist the reader to observe the variations between the different manuscript traditions of the New Testament. Such information is generally not available in English translations of the New Testament.

The Old Testament

Genesis sets the stage for everything that follows by taking us back to the beginning—the very beginning—of everything. Even though the Bible is made up of sixty-six books, it is actually one book presenting one complete story—the greatest story ever told. By exploring Genesis, we begin this account at the appropriate place: the beginning.

The book's earliest chapters provide background that make sense of the words and actions to come. Chronologically, the first three chapters of Genesis tell at least one-third of the Bible's story. Chapters 4–11 present the drama of human history up to about 2000 B.C.

The word genesis means "origin." This title is closely related to the first words in the book: "In the beginning" (Gen. 1:1). Origination is a major theme of Genesis. It narrates the start of . . .

- The universe (Gen. 1). The eternal God created a universe of space and time. Genesis declares what happened without necessarily detailing how it happened, so we can trust the account even as we encounter different ideas about the mechanics involved. Because God created the earth and its creatures, everything in the world belongs to Him. He reigns over the earth, and there He accomplishes His purposes.
- People (Gen. 1–2). God created human beings in His image. In its description of Eden, Genesis lets us glimpse God's original intent for us, how we were meant to relate to Him, to each other, and to our world. It shows that God designed us to carry out His work in the world, giving the gift of work prior to humanity's fall into sin, and that the mandate to serve continues after the Fall.

- Evil and sin (Gen. 3). When God made the world, He declared it "very good" (1:31). But evil entered this perfect creation when Adam and Eve chose to disobey (3:1–7). Genesis reveals the tragic consequences of their choice, showing that sin gives people an appalling ability to misuse every good thing, unleashes difficulties in all human relationships, brings shame and guilt, and eventually results in death.
- Salvation and redemption (Gen. 3, 12). God's ultimate response to sin would one day come through Jesus' death on the cross. Immediately following the Fall, God acted to rescue His world and its people. His words to Adam and Eve hinted at His plan (3:15), and the remainder of Genesis outlines how He began to work through Abraham and his descendants to bless all the people of the earth (12:3). Genesis shows that God's will, purpose, and grace continue to operate even in this broken world.

Genesis also begins to reveal the nature and character of God, showing Him as thoroughly good and without beginning. God always has been and always will be. Genesis 1:1 shows us how God already exists at the start of all things.

The God we meet at the opening of Genesis is known as Elohim, a plural form of a Hebrew word that reflects the fact that God is a triune God—three Persons in one Being—Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, each of whom is God. Thus God in His very nature exists in relationship, and He does His work in partnership (see "The Divine Partnership" at John 1:1–3).

The theme of the Trinity, or God in relationship, persists throughout Scripture. Among its most important implications is this: God's grace is not merely an individual or personal blessing. Because we are made in His image, He intends for us to make His blessings available to our communities—as Genesis shows—to a world of families, tribes, and nations. In Genesis, God began . . .

- Families (Gen. 2, 4). God created people as male and female, and established the institution of the family. Families in Genesis, as throughout the Bible, are not just relatives living under one roof. Families are bonded together across generational and geographic lines.
- Cities (Gen. 4). God established the rule of law, which led to the founding of the world's first city. Genesis shows that cities originated as a civilizing influence and means of protection.
- Nations (Gen. 10). The nations are a product of God's grand design. Genesis shows Him working out a plan that reaches to all the peoples of the world.
- Israel (Gen. 12). The nation of Israel resulted from the faith and obedience of Abraham when God enabled Abraham and his wife Sarah to produce a son through whom Israel was born (15:1–6; 18:10–15). Genesis discloses the origins of this nation and its special place in God's far-reaching plan.

Genesis covers more time than all of the rest of the Bible as it moves from ancient prehistory (Gen. 1–11) to the death of Joseph in Egypt around 1800 B.C. (50:26). From the earliest traditions, the Pentateuch—the first five books of the Bible, Genesis, Exodus, Leviticus, Numbers, and Deuteronomy—has been attributed to Moses (Lev. 1:1, 2; Neh. 13:1; Luke 24:27). To find out more about this man regarded as Israel's greatest prophet (Deut. 34:10), see his profile at Exodus 2:10.

The Land of Genesis

Most of the Genesis narrative takes place in three locations:

- The region of the Tigris and Euphrates River valleys, also known as the Fertile Crescent (Gen. 1–11).
- Canaan (Gen. 12–36).
- Egypt (Gen. 37–50).

Key Events in Genesis

- God creates the universe (Gen. 1–2).
- God pronounces the curse after Adam and Eve's sin (Gen. 3:14–19).
- Cain murders Abel (Gen. 4:1–15).
- Noah follows God's instructions to build an ark to save his family and the animals from the Flood (Gen. 6–9).
- People attempt to build the Tower of Babel (Gen. 11:1–9).
- God destroys Sodom and Gomorrah (Gen. 18–19).
- God commands Abraham to sacrifice his only son Isaac (Gen. 22).
- Jacob dreams about a ladder to heaven (Gen. 28:10–17).
- Joseph's father gives him a coat of many colors (Gen. 37:1–4).
- Joseph's brothers conspire to kill him, sell him into slavery, and lie about it (Gen. 38:18–36).
- Joseph rises to power in Egypt and saves the nation from famine (Gen. 41:37–57).

Genesis 1

The History of Creation

1 In the beginning God created the heavens and the earth.

God the Creator

2 The earth was without form, and void; and darkness was[a] on the face of the deep. And the Spirit of God was hovering over the face of the waters.

3 Then God said, “Let there be light”; and there was light.

4 And God saw the light, that it was good; and God divided the light from the darkness.

5 God called the light Day, and the darkness He called Night. So the evening and the morning were the first day.

6 Then God said, “Let there be a firmament in the midst of the waters, and let it divide the waters from the waters.”

7 Thus God made the firmament, and divided the waters which were under the firmament from the waters which were above the firmament; and it was so.

8 And God called the firmament Heaven. So the evening and the morning were the second day.

9 Then God said, “Let the waters under the heavens be gathered together into one place, and let the dry land appear”; and it was so.

10 And God called the dry land Earth, and the gathering together of the waters He called Seas. And God saw that it was good.

11 Then God said, “Let the earth bring forth grass, the herb that yields seed, and the fruit tree that yields fruit according to its kind, whose seed is in itself, on the earth”;
and it was so.

12 And the earth brought forth grass, the herb that yields seed according to its kind, and the tree that yields fruit, whose seed is in itself according to its kind. And God saw that it was good.

13 So the evening and the morning were the third day.

14 Then God said, “Let there be lights in the firmament of the heavens to divide the day from the night; and let them be for signs and seasons, and for days and years;

15 “and let them be for lights in the firmament of the heavens to give light on the earth”; and it was so.

16 Then God made two great lights: the greater light to rule the day, and the lesser light to rule the night. He made the stars also.

17 God set them in the firmament of the heavens to give light on the earth,

18 and to rule over the day and over the night, and to divide the light from the darkness. And God saw that it was good.

19 So the evening and the morning were the fourth day.

20 Then God said, “Let the waters abound with an abundance of living creatures, and let birds fly above the earth across the face of the firmament of the heavens.”

21 So God created great sea creatures and every living thing that moves, with which the waters abounded, according to their kind, and every winged bird according to its kind. And God saw that it was good.

22 And God blessed them, saying, “Be fruitful and multiply, and fill the waters in the seas, and let birds multiply on the earth.”

23 So the evening and the morning were the fifth day.

24 Then God said, “Let the earth bring forth the living creature according to its kind: cattle and creeping thing and beast of the earth, each according to its kind”; and it was so.

25 And God made the beast of the earth according to its kind, cattle according to its kind, and everything that creeps on the earth according to its kind. And God saw that it was good.

26Then God said, “Let Us make man in Our image, according to Our likeness; let them have dominion over the fish of the sea, over the birds of the air, and over the cattle, over all[b] the earth and over every creeping thing that creeps on the earth.” God in Relationship

27So God created man in His own image; in the image of God He created him; male and female He created them. Made in His Image

28Then God blessed them, and God said to them, “Be fruitful and multiply; fill the earth and subdue it; have dominion over the fish of the sea, over the birds of the air, and over every living thing that moves on the earth.” The Creation Mandate

29And God said, “See, I have given you every herb that yields seed which is on the face of all the earth, and every tree whose fruit yields seed; to you it shall be for food.

30“Also, to every beast of the earth, to every bird of the air, and to everything that creeps on the earth, in which there is life, I have given every green herb for food”; and it was so.

31Then God saw everything that He had made, and indeed it was very good. So the evening and the morning were the sixth day.

Genesis 2

1 Thus the heavens and the earth, and all the host of them, were finished. Weekly Day of Rest
2 And on the seventh day God ended His work which He had done, and He rested on the seventh day from all His work which He had done.
3 Then God blessed the seventh day and sanctified it, because in it He rested from all His work which God had created and made.
4 This is the history[a] of the heavens and the earth when they were created, in the day that the LORD God made the earth and the heavens,
5 before any plant of the field was in the earth and before any herb of the field had grown. For the LORD God had not caused it to rain on the earth, and there was no man to till the ground;
6 but a mist went up from the earth and watered the whole face of the ground.
7 And the LORD God formed man of the dust of the ground, and breathed into his nostrils the breath of life;
and man became a living being.

Life in God's Garden

8 The LORD God planted a garden eastward in Eden, and there He put the man whom He had formed.
9 And out of the ground the LORD God made every tree grow that is pleasant to the sight and good for food. The tree of life was also in the midst of the garden, and the tree of the knowledge of good and evil.
10 Now a river went out of Eden to water the garden, and from there it parted and became four riverheads.

11 The name of the first is Pishon; it is the one which skirts the whole land of Havilah, where there is gold.
12 And the gold of that land is good. Bdellium and the onyx stone are there.
13 The name of the second river is Gihon; it is the one which goes around the whole land of Cush.
14 The name of the third river is Hiddekel;[b] it is the one which goes toward the east of Assyria. The fourth river is the Euphrates.
15 Then the LORD God took the man and put him in the garden of Eden to tend and keep it.
16 And the LORD God commanded the man, saying, "Of every tree of the garden you may freely eat; 17 "but of the tree of the knowledge of good and evil you shall not eat, for in the day that you eat of it you shall surely die."
18 And the LORD God said, "It is not good that man should be alone; I will make him a helper comparable to him."
19 Out of the ground the LORD God formed every beast of the field and every bird of the air, and brought them to Adam to see what he would call them. And whatever Adam called each living creature, that was its name. Adam 20 So Adam gave names to all cattle, to the birds of the air, and to every beast of the field. But for Adam there was not found a helper comparable to him.
21 And the LORD God caused a deep sleep to fall on Adam, and he slept; and He took one of his ribs, and closed up the flesh in its place.
22 Then the rib which the LORD God had taken from man
He made into a woman, and He brought her to the man.
23 And Adam said:

"This is now bone of my bones

And flesh of my flesh;
She shall be called Woman,
Because she was taken out of Man.” Social Institutions: Family, State, and Church

24 Therefore a man shall leave his father and mother and be joined to his wife, and they shall become one flesh.
25 And they were both naked, the man and his wife, and were not ashamed.

Genesis 3

The Temptation and Fall of Man

1 Now the serpent was more cunning than any beast of the field which the LORD God had made. And he said to the woman, “Has God indeed said, ‘You shall not eat of every tree of the garden’?”
2 And the woman said to the serpent, “We may eat the fruit of the trees of the garden; 3 “but of the fruit of the tree which is in the midst of the garden, God has said, ‘You shall not eat it, nor shall you touch it, lest you die.” ’ 4 Then the serpent said to the woman, “You will not surely die.
5 “For God knows that in the day you eat of it your eyes will be opened, and you will be like God, knowing good and evil.”
6 So when the woman saw that the tree was good for food, that it was pleasant to the eyes, and a tree desirable to make one wise, she took of its fruit and ate. She also gave to her husband with her, and he ate. Sin and Redemption 7 Then the eyes of both of them were opened, and they knew that they were naked; and they sewed fig leaves together and made themselves coverings.
8 And they heard the sound of the LORD God walking in the garden in the cool of the day, and Adam and his wife hid themselves from the presence of the LORD God among the trees of the garden.
9 Then the LORD God called to Adam and said to him,
“Where are you?”
10 So he said, “I heard Your voice in the garden, and I was afraid because I was naked; and I hid myself.”

11 And He said, “Who told you that you were naked? Have you eaten from the tree of which I commanded you that you should not eat?”
12 Then the man said, “The woman whom You gave to be with me, she gave me of the tree, and I ate.” 13 And the LORD God said to the woman, “What is this you have done?” The woman said, “The serpent deceived me, and I ate.”
14 So the LORD God said to the serpent:

“Because you have done this,
You are cursed more than all cattle,
And more than every beast of the field;
On your belly you shall go,
And you shall eat dust
All the days of your life.
15 And I will put enmity
Between you and the woman,
And between your seed and her Seed;
He shall bruise your head,
And you shall bruise His heel.”

16 To the woman He said:

“I will greatly multiply your sorrow and your conception;
In pain you shall bring forth children;
Your desire shall be for your husband,
And he shall rule over you.”

17 Then to Adam He said, “Because you have heeded the voice of your wife, and have eaten from the tree of which I commanded you, saying, ‘You shall not eat of it’:

“Cursed is the ground for your sake;

In toil you shall eat of it
All the days of your life. Work Itself Is a Gift from God
18 Both thorns and thistles it shall bring forth
for you,
And you shall eat the herb of the field.
19 In the sweat of your face you shall eat bread
Till you return to the ground,
For out of it you were taken;
For dust you are,
And to dust you shall return."

20 And Adam called his wife's name Eve, because she was the mother of all living. Eve

21 Also for Adam and his wife the LORD God made tunics of skin, and clothed them.

22 Then the LORD God said, "Behold, the man has become like one of Us, to know good and evil. And now, lest he put out his hand and take also of the tree of life, and eat, and live forever"— God Limits Evil

23 therefore the LORD God sent him out of the garden of Eden to till the ground from which he was taken.

24 So He drove out the man; and He placed cherubim at the east of the garden of Eden, and a flaming sword which turned every way, to guard the way to the tree of life.

Genesis 4

Cain Murders Abel

1 Now Adam knew Eve his wife, and she conceived and bore Cain, and said, “I have acquired a man from the LORD.” Cain
2 Then she bore again, this time his brother Abel. Now Abel was a keeper of sheep, but Cain was a tiller of the ground. Abel
3 And in the process of time it came to pass that Cain brought an offering of the fruit of the ground to the LORD.
4 Abel also brought of the firstborn of his flock and of their fat. And the LORD respected Abel and his offering, 5 but He did not respect Cain and his offering. And Cain was very angry, and his countenance fell.
6 So the LORD said to Cain, “Why are you angry? And why has your countenance fallen?
7 “If you do well, will you not be accepted? And if you do not do well, sin lies at the door. And its desire is for you, but you should rule over it.”
8 Now Cain talked with Abel his brother;[a] and it came to pass, when they were in the field, that Cain rose up against Abel his brother and killed him.
9 Then the LORD said to Cain, “Where is Abel your brother?” He said, “I do not know. Am I my brother’s keeper?”
10 And He said, “What have you done? The voice of your brother’s blood cries out to Me from the ground.
11 “So now you are cursed from the earth, which has opened its mouth to receive your brother’s blood from your hand.
12 “When you till the ground, it shall no longer yield its strength to you. A fugitive and a vagabond you shall be on the earth.”

13 And Cain said to the LORD, “My punishment is greater than I can bear!

14 “Surely You have driven me out this day from the face of the ground; I shall be hidden from Your face; I shall be a fugitive and a vagabond on the earth, and it will happen that anyone who finds me will kill me.”

15 And the LORD said to him, “Therefore,[b] whoever kills Cain, vengeance shall be taken on him sevenfold.” And the LORD set a mark on Cain, lest anyone finding him should kill him.

The Family of Cain

16 Then Cain went out from the presence of the LORD and dwelt in the land of Nod on the east of Eden.

17 And Cain knew his wife, and she conceived and bore Enoch. And he built a city, and called the name of the city after the name of his son—Enoch.

18 To Enoch was born Irad; and Irad begot Mehujael, and Mehujael begot Methushael, and Methushael begot Lamech. The Birth of the City

19 Then Lamech took for himself two wives: the name of one was Adah, and the name of the second was Zillah.

20 And Adah bore Jabal. He was the father of those who dwell in tents and have livestock.

21 His brother’s name was Jubal. He was the father of all those who play the harp and flute.

22 And as for Zillah, she also bore Tubal-Cain, an instructor of every craftsman in bronze and iron. And the sister of Tubal-Cain was Naamah.

23 Then Lamech said to his wives:

> “Adah and Zillah, hear my voice;
> Wives of Lamech, listen to my speech!

For I have killed a man for wounding me,
Even a young man for hurting me.
24If Cain shall be avenged sevenfold,
Then Lamech seventy-sevenfold.”

A New Son

25And Adam knew his wife again, and she bore a son and named him Seth, “For God has appointed another seed for me instead of Abel, whom Cain killed.” Seth

26And as for Seth, to him also a son was born; and he named him Enosh.[c] Then men began to call on the name of the LORD.

Genesis 5

The Family of Adam

1This is the book of the genealogy of Adam. In the day that God created man, He made him in the likeness of God. The Purpose of Genealogies

2He created them male and female, and blessed them and called them Mankind in the day they were created.

3And Adam lived one hundred and thirty years, and begot a son in his own likeness, after his image, and named him Seth.

4After he begot Seth, the days of Adam were eight hundred years; and he had sons and daughters.

5So all the days that Adam lived were nine hundred and thirty years; and he died.

6Seth lived one hundred and five years, and begot Enosh.

7After he begot Enosh, Seth lived eight hundred and seven years, and had sons and daughters.

8So all the days of Seth were nine hundred and twelve years; and he died.

9Enosh lived ninety years, and begot Cainan.[a]

10After he begot Cainan, Enosh lived eight hundred and fifteen years, and had sons and daughters.

11So all the days of Enosh were nine hundred and five years; and he died.

12Cainan lived seventy years, and begot Mahalalel.

13After he begot Mahalalel, Cainan lived eight hundred and forty years, and had sons and daughters.

14So all the days of Cainan were nine hundred and ten years; and he died.

15Mahalalel lived sixty-five years, and begot Jared.

16 After he begot Jared, Mahalalel lived eight hundred and thirty years, and had sons and daughters.
17 So all the days of Mahalalel were eight hundred and ninety-five years; and he died.
18 Jared lived one hundred and sixty-two years, and begot
Enoch.
19 After he begot Enoch, Jared lived eight hundred years,
and had sons and daughters.
20 So all the days of Jared were nine hundred and sixty-two years; and he died.
21 Enoch lived sixty-five years, and begot Methuselah.
Enoch
22 After he begot Methuselah, Enoch walked with God three hundred years, and had sons and daughters.
23 So all the days of Enoch were three hundred and sixty-five years.
24 And Enoch walked with God; and he was not, for God took him.
25 Methuselah lived one hundred and eighty-seven years, and begot Lamech. Methuselah
26 After he begot Lamech, Methuselah lived seven hundred and eighty-two years, and had sons and daughters.
27 So all the days of Methuselah were nine hundred and sixty-nine years; and he died.
28 Lamech lived one hundred and eighty-two years, and had a son.
29 And he called his name Noah, saying, “This one will comfort us concerning our work and the toil of our hands, because of the ground which the LORD has cursed.” 30 After he begot Noah, Lamech lived five hundred and ninety-five years, and had sons and daughters.
31 So all the days of Lamech were seven hundred and seventy-seven years; and he died.

32And Noah was five hundred years old, and Noah begot Shem, Ham, and Japheth.

Genesis 6

The Wickedness and Judgment of Man

1 Now it came to pass, when men began to multiply on the face of the earth, and daughters were born to them,

2 that the sons of God saw the daughters of men, that they were beautiful; and they took wives for themselves of all whom they chose.

3 And the LORD said, “My Spirit shall not strive[a] with man forever, for he is indeed flesh; yet his days shall be one hundred and twenty years.”

4 There were giants on the earth in those days, and also afterward, when the sons of God came in to the daughters of men and they bore children to them. Those were the mighty men who were of old, men of renown.

5 Then the LORD[b] saw that the wickedness of man was great in the earth, and that every intent of the thoughts of his heart was only evil continually.

6 And the LORD was sorry that He had made man on the earth, and He was grieved in His heart.

7 So the LORD said, “I will destroy man whom I have created from the face of the earth, both man and beast, creeping thing and birds of the air, for I am sorry that I have made them.”

8 But Noah found grace in the eyes of the LORD.

Noah Pleases God

9 This is the genealogy of Noah. Noah was a just man, perfect in his generations. Noah walked with God. Noah

10 And Noah begot three sons: Shem, Ham, and Japheth.

11 The earth also was corrupt before God, and the earth was filled with violence.

12So God looked upon the earth, and indeed it was corrupt; for all flesh had corrupted their way on the earth.

The Ark Prepared

13And God said to Noah, “The end of all flesh has come before Me, for the earth is filled with violence through them; and behold, I will destroy them with the earth.
14“Make yourself an ark of gopherwood; make rooms in the ark, and cover it inside and outside with pitch.
15“And this is how you shall make it: The length of the ark shall be three hundred cubits, its width fifty cubits, and its height thirty cubits.
16“You shall make a window for the ark, and you shall finish it to a cubit from above; and set the door of the ark in its side. You shall make it with lower, second, and third decks.
17“And behold, I Myself am bringing floodwaters on the earth, to destroy from under heaven all flesh in which is the breath of life; everything that is on the earth shall die.
18“But I will establish My covenant with you; and you shall go into the ark—you, your sons, your wife, and your sons’ wives with you.
19“And of every living thing of all flesh you shall bring two of every sort into the ark, to keep them alive with you;
they shall be male and female.
20“Of the birds after their kind, of animals after their kind, and of every creeping thing of the earth after its kind, two of every kind will come to you to keep them alive.
21“And you shall take for yourself of all food that is eaten, and you shall gather it to yourself; and it shall be food for you and for them.”
22Thus Noah did; according to all that God commanded him, so he did.

Genesis 7

The Great Flood

1 Then the LORD said to Noah, “Come into the ark, you and all your household, because I have seen that you are righteous before Me in this generation.
2 “You shall take with you seven each of every clean animal, a male and his female; two each of animals that are unclean, a male and his female;
3 “also seven each of birds of the air, male and female, to keep the species alive on the face of all the earth.
4 “For after seven more days I will cause it to rain on the earth forty days and forty nights, and I will destroy from the face of the earth all living things that I have made.”
5 And Noah did according to all that the LORD commanded him.
6 Noah was six hundred years old when the floodwaters were on the earth.
7 So Noah, with his sons, his wife, and his sons’ wives, went into the ark because of the waters of the flood.
8 Of clean animals, of animals that are unclean, of birds,
and of everything that creeps on the earth, 9 two by two they went into the ark to Noah, male and female, as God had commanded Noah.
10 And it came to pass after seven days that the waters of the flood were on the earth.
11 In the six hundredth year of Noah’s life, in the second month, the seventeenth day of the month, on that day all the fountains of the great deep were broken up, and the windows of heaven were opened.
12 And the rain was on the earth forty days and forty nights.

13On the very same day Noah and Noah’s sons, Shem, Ham, and Japheth, and Noah’s wife and the three wives of his sons with them, entered the ark—

14they and every beast after its kind, all cattle after their kind, every creeping thing that creeps on the earth after its kind, and every bird after its kind, every bird of every sort.

15And they went into the ark to Noah, two by two, of all flesh in which is the breath of life. The Value of Life

16So those that entered, male and female of all flesh, went in as God had commanded him; and the LORD shut him in.

17Now the flood was on the earth forty days. The waters increased and lifted up the ark, and it rose high above the earth.

18The waters prevailed and greatly increased on the earth, and the ark moved about on the surface of the waters.

19And the waters prevailed exceedingly on the earth, and all the high hills under the whole heaven were covered.

20The waters prevailed fifteen cubits upward, and the mountains were covered.

21And all flesh died that moved on the earth: birds and cattle and beasts and every creeping thing that creeps on the earth, and every man.

22All in whose nostrils was the breath of the spirit[a] of life, all that was on the dry land, died.

23So He destroyed all living things which were on the face of the ground: both man and cattle, creeping thing and bird of the air. They were destroyed from the earth. Only Noah and those who were with him in the ark remained alive.

24And the waters prevailed on the earth one hundred and fifty days.

Genesis 8

Noah's Deliverance

1 Then God remembered Noah, and every living thing, and all the animals that were with him in the ark. And God made a wind to pass over the earth, and the waters subsided.
2 The fountains of the deep and the windows of heaven were also stopped, and the rain from heaven was restrained.
3 And the waters receded continually from the earth. At the end of the hundred and fifty days the waters decreased.
4 Then the ark rested in the seventh month, the seventeenth day of the month, on the mountains of Ararat.
5 And the waters decreased continually until the tenth month. In the tenth month, on the first day of the month, the tops of the mountains were seen.
6 So it came to pass, at the end of forty days, that Noah opened the window of the ark which he had made.
7 Then he sent out a raven, which kept going to and fro until the waters had dried up from the earth.
8 He also sent out from himself a dove, to see if the waters had receded from the face of the ground.
9 But the dove found no resting place for the sole of her foot, and she returned into the ark to him, for the waters were on the face of the whole earth. So he put out his hand and took her, and drew her into the ark to himself.
10 And he waited yet another seven days, and again he sent the dove out from the ark.
11 Then the dove came to him in the evening, and behold, a freshly plucked olive leaf was in her mouth; and Noah knew that the waters had receded from the earth.

12 So he waited yet another seven days and sent out the dove, which did not return again to him anymore.
13 And it came to pass in the six hundred and first year, in the first month, the first day of the month, that the waters were dried up from the earth; and Noah removed the covering of the ark and looked, and indeed the surface of the ground was dry.
14 And in the second month, on the twenty-seventh day of the month, the earth was dried.
15 Then God spoke to Noah, saying, 16 "Go out of the ark, you and your wife, and your sons and your sons' wives with you.
17 "Bring out with you every living thing of all flesh that is with you: birds and cattle and every creeping thing that creeps on the earth, so that they may abound on the earth, and be fruitful and multiply on the earth." 18 So Noah went out, and his sons and his wife and his sons' wives with him.
19 Every animal, every creeping thing, every bird, and whatever creeps on the earth, according to their families, went out of the ark.

God's Covenant with Creation

20 Then Noah built an altar to the LORD, and took of every clean animal and of every clean bird, and offered burnt offerings on the altar. Renewal 21 And the LORD smelled a soothing aroma. Then the LORD said in His heart, "I will never again curse the ground for man's sake, although the imagination of man's heart is evil from his youth; nor will I again destroy every living thing as I have done.

22 "While the earth remains,
Seedtime and harvest,

Cold and heat,
Winter and summer,
And day and night
Shall not cease.”

Genesis 9

1So God blessed Noah and his sons, and said to them: “Be fruitful and multiply, and fill the earth.[a]

2“And the fear of you and the dread of you shall be on every beast of the earth, on every bird of the air, on all that move on the earth, and on all the fish of the sea. They are given into your hand.

3“Every moving thing that lives shall be food for you. I have given you all things, even as the green herbs.

4“But you shall not eat flesh with its life, that is, its blood.

5“Surely for your lifeblood I will demand a reckoning; from the hand of every beast I will require it, and from the hand of man. From the hand of every man’s brother I will require the life of man.

6“Whoever sheds man’s blood,
By man his blood shall be shed;
For in the image of God
He made man.
7And as for you, be fruitful and multiply;
Bring forth abundantly in the earth
And multiply in it.”

8Then God spoke to Noah and to his sons with him, saying:

9“And as for Me, behold, I establish My covenant with you and with your descendants[b] after you,

10“and with every living creature that is with you: the birds, the cattle, and every beast of the earth with you, of all that go out of the ark, every beast of the earth.

11“Thus I establish My covenant with you: Never again shall all flesh be cut off by the waters of the flood; never again shall there be a flood to destroy the earth.”

12 And God said: “This is the sign of the covenant which I make between Me and you, and every living creature that is with you, for perpetual generations:

13 “I set My rainbow in the cloud, and it shall be for the sign of the covenant between Me and the earth.

14 “It shall be, when I bring a cloud over the earth, that the rainbow shall be seen in the cloud;

15 “and I will remember My covenant which is between Me and you and every living creature of all flesh; the waters shall never again become a flood to destroy all flesh.

16 “The rainbow shall be in the cloud, and I will look on it to remember the everlasting covenant between God and every living creature of all flesh that is on the earth.”

17 And God said to Noah, “This is the sign of the covenant which I have established between Me and all flesh that is on the earth.”

Noah and His Sons

18 Now the sons of Noah who went out of the ark were Shem, Ham, and Japheth. And Ham was the father of Canaan.

19 These three were the sons of Noah, and from these the whole earth was populated.

20 And Noah began to be a farmer, and he planted a vineyard.

21 Then he drank of the wine and was drunk, and became uncovered in his tent.

22 And Ham, the father of Canaan, saw the nakedness of his father, and told his two brothers outside.

23 But Shem and Japheth took a garment, laid it on both their shoulders, and went backward and covered the nakedness of their father. Their faces were turned away, and they did not see their father’s nakedness.

24So Noah awoke from his wine, and knew what his younger son had done to him.
25Then he said:

> “Cursed be Canaan;
> A servant of servants
> He shall be to his brethren.”

26And he said:

> “Blessed be the LORD,
> The God of Shem,
> And may Canaan be his servant.
> 27May God enlarge Japheth,
> And may he dwell in the tents of Shem;
> And may Canaan be his servant.”

28And Noah lived after the flood three hundred and fifty years.
29So all the days of Noah were nine hundred and fifty years; and he died.

Genesis 10

Nations Descended from Noah

1 Now this is the genealogy of the sons of Noah: Shem, Ham, and Japheth. And sons were born to them after the flood. The Birth of the Nations

2 The sons of Japheth were Gomer, Magog, Madai, Javan, Tubal, Meshech, and Tiras.

3 The sons of Gomer were Ashkenaz, Riphath,[a] and Togarmah.

4 The sons of Javan were Elishah, Tarshish, Kittim, and Dodanim.[b]

5 From these the coastland peoples of the Gentiles were separated into their lands, everyone according to his language, according to their families, into their nations.

6 The sons of Ham were Cush, Mizraim, Put,[c] and Canaan.

7 The sons of Cush were Seba, Havilah, Sabtah, Raamah, and Sabtechah; and the sons of Raamah were Sheba and Dedan.

8 Cush begot Nimrod; he began to be a mighty one on the earth.

9 He was a mighty hunter before the LORD; therefore it is said, “Like Nimrod the mighty hunter before the LORD.”

10 And the beginning of his kingdom was Babel, Erech, Accad, and Calneh, in the land of Shinar.

11 From that land he went to Assyria and built Nineveh, Rehoboth Ir, Calah,

12 and Resen between Nineveh and Calah (that is the principal city).

13 Mizraim begot Ludim, Anamim, Lehabim, Naphtuhim, 14 Pathrusim, and Casluhim (from whom came the Philistines and Caphtorim).

15Canaan begot Sidon his firstborn, and Heth;
16the Jebusite, the Amorite, and the Girgashite;
17the Hivite, the Arkite, and the Sinite;
18the Arvadite, the Zemarite, and the Hamathite. Afterward the families of the Canaanites were dispersed.
19And the border of the Canaanites was from Sidon as you go toward Gerar, as far as Gaza; then as you go toward Sodom, Gomorrah, Admah, and Zeboiim, as far as Lasha.
20These were the sons of Ham, according to their families, according to their languages, in their lands and in their nations.
21And children were born also to Shem, the father of all the children of Eber, the brother of Japheth the elder.
22The sons of Shem were Elam, Asshur, Arphaxad, Lud, and Aram.
23The sons of Aram were Uz, Hul, Gether, and Mash.[d] 24Arphaxad begot Salah,[e] and Salah begot Eber.
25To Eber were born two sons: the name of one was Peleg, for in his days the earth was divided; and his brother's name was Joktan.
26Joktan begot Almodad, Sheleph, Hazarmaveth, Jerah, 27Hadoram, Uzal, Diklah, 28Obal,[f] Abimael, Sheba, 29Ophir, Havilah, and Jobab. All these were the sons of Joktan.
30And their dwelling place was from Mesha as you go toward Sephar, the mountain of the east.
31These were the sons of Shem, according to their families, according to their languages, in their lands, according to their nations.
32These were the families of the sons of Noah, according to their generations, in their nations; and from these the nations were divided on the earth after the flood. Many Nations Under God

Genesis 11

The Tower of Babel

1 Now the whole earth had one language and one speech.
2 And it came to pass, as they journeyed from the east, that they found a plain in the land of Shinar, and they dwelt
there.
3 Then they said to one another, “Come, let us make bricks and bake them thoroughly.” They had brick for stone, and they had asphalt for mortar.
4 And they said, “Come, let us build ourselves a city, and a tower whose top is in the heavens; let us make a name for ourselves, lest we be scattered abroad over the face of the whole earth.”
5 But the LORD came down to see the city and the tower which the sons of men had built.
6 And the LORD said, “Indeed the people are one and they all have one language, and this is what they begin to do; now nothing that they propose to do will be withheld from
them.
7 “Come, let Us go down and there confuse their language, that they may not understand one another’s speech.”
8 So the LORD scattered them abroad from there over the face of all the earth, and they ceased building the city. From Babel to Pentecost: Scattering and Gathering 9 Therefore its name is called Babel, because there the LORD confused the language of all the earth; and from there the LORD scattered them abroad over the face of all the earth. Babel

Shem’s Descendants

10This is the genealogy of Shem: Shem was one hundred years old, and begot Arphaxad two years after the flood.

God's Plan Keeps Moving Forward

11After he begot Arphaxad, Shem lived five hundred years, and begot sons and daughters.

12Arphaxad lived thirty-five years, and begot Salah.

13After he begot Salah, Arphaxad lived four hundred and three years, and begot sons and daughters.

14Salah lived thirty years, and begot Eber.

15After he begot Eber, Salah lived four hundred and three years, and begot sons and daughters.

16Eber lived thirty-four years, and begot Peleg.

17After he begot Peleg, Eber lived four hundred and thirty years, and begot sons and daughters.

18Peleg lived thirty years, and begot Reu.

19After he begot Reu, Peleg lived two hundred and nine years, and begot sons and daughters.

20Reu lived thirty-two years, and begot Serug.

21After he begot Serug, Reu lived two hundred and seven years, and begot sons and daughters.

22Serug lived thirty years, and begot Nahor.

23After he begot Nahor, Serug lived two hundred years, and begot sons and daughters.

24Nahor lived twenty-nine years, and begot Terah.

25After he begot Terah, Nahor lived one hundred and nineteen years, and begot sons and daughters.

26Now Terah lived seventy years, and begot Abram, Nahor, and Haran.

Terah's Descendants

27This is the genealogy of Terah: Terah begot Abram, Nahor, and Haran. Haran begot Lot.

28 And Haran died before his father Terah in his native land, in Ur of the Chaldeans.
29 Then Abram and Nahor took wives: the name of Abram's wife was Sarai, and the name of Nahor's wife, Milcah, the daughter of Haran the father of Milcah and the father of Iscah.
30 But Sarai was barren; she had no child.
31 And Terah took his son Abram and his grandson Lot, the son of Haran, and his daughter-in-law Sarai, his son Abram's wife, and they went out with them from Ur of the Chaldeans to go to the land of Canaan; and they came to Haran and dwelt there. Abram's Journey
32 So the days of Terah were two hundred and five years, and Terah died in Haran.

Genesis 12

Promises to Abram

1 Now the LORD had said to Abram:

> "Get out of your country,
> From your family
> And from your father's house,
> To a land that I will show you. Abraham
> 2 I will make you a great nation;
> I will bless you
> And make your name great;
> And you shall be a blessing.
> 3 I will bless those who bless you,
> And I will curse him who curses you;
> And in you all the families of the earth shall > be blessed." The Families of the Old Testament

4 So Abram departed as the LORD had spoken to him, and Lot went with him. And Abram was seventy-five years old when he departed from Haran. The World of Abraham

5 Then Abram took Sarai his wife and Lot his brother's son, and all their possessions that they had gathered, and the people whom they had acquired in Haran, and they departed to go to the land of Canaan. So they came to the land of Canaan.

6 Abram passed through the land to the place of Shechem, as far as the terebinth tree of Moreh.[a] And the Canaanites were then in the land.

7 Then the LORD appeared to Abram and said, "To your descendants I will give this land." And there he built an altar to the LORD, who had appeared to him.

8 And he moved from there to the mountain east of Bethel, and he pitched his tent with Bethel on the west and Ai on the east; there he built an altar to the LORD and called on the name of the LORD.
9 So Abram journeyed, going on still toward the South.[b]

Abram in Egypt

10 Now there was a famine in the land, and Abram went down to Egypt to dwell there, for the famine was severe in the land.
11 And it came to pass, when he was close to entering Egypt, that he said to Sarai his wife, "Indeed I know that you are a woman of beautiful countenance.
12 "Therefore it will happen, when the Egyptians see you, that they will say, 'This is his wife'; and they will kill me,
but they will let you live.
13 "Please say you are my sister, that it may be well with me for your sake, and that I[c] may live because of you." 14 So it was, when Abram came into Egypt, that the Egyptians saw the woman, that she was very beautiful.
15 The princes of Pharaoh also saw her and commended her to Pharaoh. And the woman was taken to Pharaoh's house.
16 He treated Abram well for her sake. He had sheep, oxen, male donkeys, male and female servants, female donkeys, and camels.
17 But the LORD plagued Pharaoh and his house with great plagues because of Sarai, Abram's wife.
18 And Pharaoh called Abram and said, "What is this you have done to me? Why did you not tell me that she was your wife?
19 "Why did you say, 'She is my sister'? I might have taken her as my wife. Now therefore, here is your wife; take her and go your way."

[20]So Pharaoh commanded his men concerning him; and they sent him away, with his wife and all that he had.

Genesis 13

Abram Inherits Canaan

1 Then Abram went up from Egypt, he and his wife and all that he had, and Lot with him, to the South.[a] 2 Abram was very rich in livestock, in silver, and in gold.
3 And he went on his journey from the South as far as Bethel, to the place where his tent had been at the beginning, between Bethel and Ai, 4 to the place of the altar which he had made there at first. And there Abram called on the name of the LORD.
5 Lot also, who went with Abram, had flocks and herds and tents. Lot
6 Now the land was not able to support them, that they might dwell together, for their possessions were so great that they could not dwell together.
7 And there was strife between the herdsmen of Abram's livestock and the herdsmen of Lot's livestock. The Canaanites and the Perizzites then dwelt in the land.
8 So Abram said to Lot, "Please let there be no strife between you and me, and between my herdsmen and your herdsmen; for we are brethren.
9 "Is not the whole land before you? Please separate from me. If you take the left, then I will go to the right; or, if you go to the right, then I will go to the left." 10 And Lot lifted his eyes and saw all the plain of Jordan, that it was well watered everywhere (before the LORD destroyed Sodom and Gomorrah) like the garden of the LORD, like the land of Egypt as you go toward Zoar.
11 Then Lot chose for himself all the plain of Jordan, and Lot journeyed east. And they separated from each other.

12 Abram dwelt in the land of Canaan, and Lot dwelt in the cities of the plain and pitched his tent even as far as Sodom. The Cities of the Plain 13 But the men of Sodom were exceedingly wicked and sinful against the LORD.
14 And the LORD said to Abram, after Lot had separated from him: "Lift your eyes now and look from the place where you are—northward, southward, eastward, and westward; The Land of Promise 15 "for all the land which you see I give to you and your descendants[b] forever.
16 "And I will make your descendants as the dust of the earth; so that if a man could number the dust of the earth, then your descendants also could be numbered.
17 "Arise, walk in the land through its length and its width, for I give it to you." 18 Then Abram moved his tent, and went and dwelt by the terebinth trees of Mamre,[c] which are in Hebron, and built an altar there to the LORD.

Genesis 14

Lot's Captivity and Rescue

1 And it came to pass in the days of Amraphel king of Shinar, Arioch king of Ellasar, Chedorlaomer king of Elam, and Tidal king of nations,[a] 2 that they made war with Bera king of Sodom, Birsha king of Gomorrah, Shinab king of Admah, Shemeber king of Zeboiim, and the king of Bela (that is, Zoar).
3 All these joined together in the Valley of Siddim (that is, the Salt Sea).
4 Twelve years they served Chedorlaomer, and in the thirteenth year they rebelled.
5 In the fourteenth year Chedorlaomer and the kings that were with him came and attacked the Rephaim in Ashteroth Karnaim, the Zuzim in Ham, the Emim in Shaveh Kiriathaim,
6 and the Horites in their mountain of Seir, as far as El Paran, which is by the wilderness.
7 Then they turned back and came to En Mishpat (that is, Kadesh), and attacked all the country of the Amalekites, and also the Amorites who dwelt in Hazezon Tamar.
8 And the king of Sodom, the king of Gomorrah, the king of Admah, the king of Zeboiim, and the king of Bela (that is, Zoar) went out and joined together in battle in the Valley of Siddim
9 against Chedorlaomer king of Elam, Tidal king of nations,[b] Amraphel king of Shinar, and Arioch king of Ellasar—four kings against five.
10 Now the Valley of Siddim was full of asphalt pits; and the kings of Sodom and Gomorrah fled; some fell there, and the remainder fled to the mountains.

11 Then they took all the goods of Sodom and Gomorrah, and all their provisions, and went their way.
12 They also took Lot, Abram's brother's son who dwelt in Sodom, and his goods, and departed.
13 Then one who had escaped came and told Abram the Hebrew, for he dwelt by the terebinth trees of Mamre[c] the Amorite, brother of Eshcol and brother of Aner; and they were allies with Abram.
14 Now when Abram heard that his brother was taken captive, he armed his three hundred and eighteen trained servants who were born in his own house, and went in pursuit as far as Dan.
15 He divided his forces against them by night, and he and his servants attacked them and pursued them as far as Hobah, which is north of Damascus.
16 So he brought back all the goods, and also brought back his brother Lot and his goods, as well as the women and the people. Abraham's Actions Toward Unbelievers 17 And the king of Sodom went out to meet him at the Valley of Shaveh (that is, the King's Valley), after his return from the defeat of Chedorlaomer and the kings who were with him.

Abram and Melchizedek

18 Then Melchizedek king of Salem brought out bread and wine; he was the priest of God Most High.
19 And he blessed him and said:

> "Blessed be Abram of God Most High,
> Possessor of heaven and earth;
> 20 And blessed be God Most High,
> Who has delivered your enemies into your
> hand."

And he gave him a tithe of all.

21 Now the king of Sodom said to Abram, “Give me the persons, and take the goods for yourself.”

22 But Abram said to the king of Sodom, “I have raised my hand to the LORD, God Most High, the Possessor of heaven and earth,

23 “that I will take nothing, from a thread to a sandal strap, and that I will not take anything that is yours, lest you should say, ‘I have made Abram rich’—

24 “except only what the young men have eaten, and the portion of the men who went with me: Aner, Eshcol, and Mamre; let them take their portion.”

Genesis 15

God's Covenant with Abram

1 After these things the word of the LORD came to Abram in a vision, saying, "Do not be afraid, Abram. I am your shield, your exceedingly great reward."
2 But Abram said, "Lord GOD, what will You give me, seeing I go childless, and the heir of my house is Eliezer of Damascus?"
3 Then Abram said, "Look, You have given me no offspring; indeed one born in my house is my heir!"
4 And behold, the word of the LORD came to him, saying,
"This one shall not be your heir, but one who will come from your own body shall be your heir."
5 Then He brought him outside and said, "Look now toward heaven, and count the stars if you are able to number them." And He said to him, "So shall your descendants be."
6 And he believed in the LORD, and He accounted it to him for righteousness.
7 Then He said to him, "I am the LORD, who brought you out of Ur of the Chaldeans, to give you this land to inherit it."
8 And he said, "Lord GOD, how shall I know that I will inherit it?"
9 So He said to him, "Bring Me a three-year-old heifer, a three-year-old female goat, a three-year-old ram, a turtledove, and a young pigeon."
10 Then he brought all these to Him and cut them in two,
down the middle, and placed each piece opposite the other;
but he did not cut the birds in two.

11 And when the vultures came down on the carcasses, Abram drove them away.
12 Now when the sun was going down, a deep sleep fell upon Abram; and behold, horror and great darkness fell upon him.
13 Then He said to Abram: "Know certainly that your descendants will be strangers in a land that is not theirs, and will serve them, and they will afflict them four hundred years.
14 "And also the nation whom they serve I will judge;
afterward they shall come out with great possessions.
15 "Now as for you, you shall go to your fathers in peace;
you shall be buried at a good old age.
16 "But in the fourth generation they shall return here, for the iniquity of the Amorites is not yet complete." 17 And it came to pass, when the sun went down and it was dark, that behold, there appeared a smoking oven and a burning torch that passed between those pieces.
18 On the same day the LORD made a covenant with Abram, saying:
"To your descendants I have given this land, from the river of Egypt to the great river, the River Euphrates—19 "the Kenites, the Kenezzites, the Kadmonites, 20 "the Hittites, the Perizzites, the Rephaim, 21 "the Amorites, the Canaanites, the Girgashites, and the Jebusites."

Genesis 16

Hagar and Ishmael

1 Now Sarai, Abram's wife, had borne him no children. And she had an Egyptian maidservant whose name was Hagar.

Hagar

2 So Sarai said to Abram, "See now, the LORD has restrained me from bearing children. Please, go in to my maid; perhaps I shall obtain children by her." And Abram heeded the voice of Sarai.

3 Then Sarai, Abram's wife, took Hagar her maid, the Egyptian, and gave her to her husband Abram to be his wife, after Abram had dwelt ten years in the land of Canaan.

4 So he went in to Hagar, and she conceived. And when she saw that she had conceived, her mistress became despised in her eyes.

5 Then Sarai said to Abram, "My wrong be upon you! I gave my maid into your embrace; and when she saw that she had conceived, I became despised in her eyes. The LORD judge between you and me."

6 So Abram said to Sarai, "Indeed your maid is in your hand; do to her as you please." And when Sarai dealt harshly with her, she fled from her presence.

7 Now the Angel of the LORD found her by a spring of water in the wilderness, by the spring on the way to Shur.

8 And He said, "Hagar, Sarai's maid, where have you come from, and where are you going?" She said, "I am fleeing from the presence of my mistress Sarai."

9 The Angel of the LORD said to her, "Return to your mistress, and submit yourself under her hand."

10 Then the Angel of the LORD said to her, “I will multiply your descendants exceedingly, so that they shall not be counted for multitude.”
11 And the Angel of the LORD said to her:

“Behold, you are with child,
And you shall bear a son.
You shall call his name Ishmael,
Because the LORD has heard your affliction.
12 He shall be a wild man;
His hand shall be against every man,
And every man’s hand against him.
And he shall dwell in the presence of all his brethren.”

13 Then she called the name of the LORD who spoke to her, You-Are-the-God-Who-Sees; for she said, “Have I also here seen Him who sees me?”
14 Therefore the well was called Beer Lahai Roi;[a] observe, it is between Kadesh and Bered.
15 So Hagar bore Abram a son; and Abram named his son, whom Hagar bore, Ishmael. Ishmael 16 Abram was eighty-six years old when Hagar bore Ishmael to Abram.

Genesis 17

The Sign of the Covenant

1When Abram was ninety-nine years old, the LORD appeared to Abram and said to him, “I am Almighty God;
walk before Me and be blameless.
2“And I will make My covenant between Me and you, and will multiply you exceedingly.”
3Then Abram fell on his face, and God talked with him,
saying:
4“As for Me, behold, My covenant is with you, and you shall be a father of many nations.
5“No longer shall your name be called Abram, but your name shall be Abraham; for I have made you a father of many nations.
6“I will make you exceedingly fruitful; and I will make nations of you, and kings shall come from you.
7“And I will establish My covenant between Me and you and your descendants after you in their generations, for an everlasting covenant, to be God to you and your descendants after you.
8“Also I give to you and your descendants after you the land in which you are a stranger, all the land of Canaan, as an everlasting possession; and I will be their God.” 9And God said to Abraham: “As for you, you shall keep My covenant, you and your descendants after you throughout their generations. Circumcision
10“This is My covenant which you shall keep, between Me and you and your descendants after you: Every male child among you shall be circumcised; 11“and you shall be circumcised in the flesh of your foreskins, and it shall be a sign of the covenant between

Me and you.

12 “He who is eight days old among you shall be circumcised, every male child in your generations, he who is born in your house or bought with money from any foreigner who is not your descendant.

13 “He who is born in your house and he who is bought with your money must be circumcised, and My covenant shall be in your flesh for an everlasting covenant.

14 “And the uncircumcised male child, who is not circumcised in the flesh of his foreskin, that person shall be cut off from his people; he has broken My covenant.”

15 Then God said to Abraham, “As for Sarai your wife, you shall not call her name Sarai, but Sarah shall be her name.

Sarah

16 “And I will bless her and also give you a son by her;
then I will bless her, and she shall be a mother of nations;
kings of peoples shall be from her.”

17 Then Abraham fell on his face and laughed, and said in his heart, “Shall a child be born to a man who is one hundred years old? And shall Sarah, who is ninety years old, bear a child?”

18 And Abraham said to God, “Oh, that Ishmael might live before You!”

19 Then God said: “No, Sarah your wife shall bear you a son, and you shall call his name Isaac; I will establish My covenant with him for an everlasting covenant, and with his descendants after him.

20 “And as for Ishmael, I have heard you. Behold, I have blessed him, and will make him fruitful, and will multiply him exceedingly. He shall beget twelve princes, and I will make him a great nation.

21 “But My covenant I will establish with Isaac, whom Sarah shall bear to you at this set time next year.”

22 Then He finished talking with him, and God went up from Abraham.
23 So Abraham took Ishmael his son, all who were born in his house and all who were bought with his money, every male among the men of Abraham's house, and circumcised the flesh of their foreskins that very same day, as God had said to him.
24 Abraham was ninety-nine years old when he was circumcised in the flesh of his foreskin.
25 And Ishmael his son was thirteen years old when he was circumcised in the flesh of his foreskin.
26 That very same day Abraham was circumcised, and his son Ishmael;
27 and all the men of his house, born in the house or bought with money from a foreigner, were circumcised with him.

Genesis 18

The Son of Promise

1 Then the LORD appeared to him by the terebinth trees of Mamre,[a] as he was sitting in the tent door in the heat of the day.
2 So he lifted his eyes and looked, and behold, three men were standing by him; and when he saw them, he ran from the tent door to meet them, and bowed himself to the ground,
3 and said, “My Lord, if I have now found favor in Your sight, do not pass on by Your servant.
4 “Please let a little water be brought, and wash your feet,
and rest yourselves under the tree.
5 “And I will bring a morsel of bread, that you may refresh your hearts. After that you may pass by, inasmuch as you have come to your servant.” They said, “Do as you have said.”
6 So Abraham hurried into the tent to Sarah and said, “Quickly, make ready three measures of fine meal; knead it and make cakes.”
7 And Abraham ran to the herd, took a tender and good calf, gave it to a young man, and he hastened to prepare it.
8 So he took butter and milk and the calf which he had prepared, and set it before them; and he stood by them under the tree as they ate.
9 Then they said to him, “Where is Sarah your wife?” So he said, “Here, in the tent.”
10 And He said, “I will certainly return to you according to the time of life, and behold, Sarah your wife shall have a son.” (Sarah was listening in the tent door which was behind him.)

11 Now Abraham and Sarah were old, well advanced in age; and Sarah had passed the age of childbearing.[b] Barrenness 12 Therefore Sarah laughed within herself, saying, "After I have grown old, shall I have pleasure, my lord being old also?"
13 And the LORD said to Abraham, "Why did Sarah laugh, saying, 'Shall I surely bear a child, since I am old?' 14 "Is anything too hard for the LORD? At the appointed time I will return to you, according to the time of life, and Sarah shall have a son."
15 But Sarah denied it, saying, "I did not laugh," for she was afraid. And He said, "No, but you did laugh!"

Abraham Intercedes for Sodom

16 Then the men rose from there and looked toward Sodom, and Abraham went with them to send them on the way.
17 And the LORD said, "Shall I hide from Abraham what I am doing,
18 "since Abraham shall surely become a great and mighty nation, and all the nations of the earth shall be blessed in
him?
19 "For I have known him, in order that he may command his children and his household after him, that they keep the way of the LORD, to do righteousness and justice, that the LORD may bring to Abraham what He has spoken to him."
20 And the LORD said, "Because the outcry against Sodom and Gomorrah is great, and because their sin is very grave,

Sodom and Gomorrah
21 "I will go down now and see whether they have done altogether according to the outcry against it that has come to Me; and if not, I will know."

22Then the men turned away from there and went toward Sodom, but Abraham still stood before the LORD.
23And Abraham came near and said, “Would You also destroy the righteous with the wicked?
24“Suppose there were fifty righteous within the city; would You also destroy the place and not spare it for the fifty righteous that were in it?
25“Far be it from You to do such a thing as this, to slay the righteous with the wicked, so that the righteous should be as the wicked; far be it from You! Shall not the Judge of all the earth do right?”
26So the LORD said, “If I find in Sodom fifty righteous within the city, then I will spare all the place for their sakes.” 27Then Abraham answered and said, “Indeed now, I who am but dust and ashes have taken it upon myself to speak to the Lord:
28“Suppose there were five less than the fifty righteous; would You destroy all of the city for lack of five?” So He said, “If I find there forty-five, I will not destroy it.” 29And he spoke to Him yet again and said, “Suppose there should be forty found there?” So He said, “I will not do it for the sake of forty.”
30Then he said, “Let not the Lord be angry, and I will speak: Suppose thirty should be found there?” So He said, “I will not do it if I find thirty there.”
31And he said, “Indeed now, I have taken it upon myself to speak to the Lord: Suppose twenty should be found there?” So He said, “I will not destroy it for the sake of twenty.”
32Then he said, “Let not the Lord be angry, and I will speak but once more: Suppose ten should be found there?”
And He said, “I will not destroy it for the sake of ten.”

33So the LORD went His way as soon as He had finished speaking with Abraham; and Abraham returned to his place.

Genesis 19

Sodom's Depravity

1 Now the two angels came to Sodom in the evening, and Lot was sitting in the gate of Sodom. When Lot saw them, he rose to meet them, and he bowed himself with his face toward the ground.

2 And he said, "Here now, my lords, please turn in to your servant's house and spend the night, and wash your feet;
then you may rise early and go on your way." And they said,
"No, but we will spend the night in the open square."

3 But he insisted strongly; so they turned in to him and entered his house. Then he made them a feast, and baked unleavened bread, and they ate.

4 Now before they lay down, the men of the city, the men of Sodom, both old and young, all the people from every quarter, surrounded the house.

5 And they called to Lot and said to him, "Where are the men who came to you tonight? Bring them out to us that we may know them carnally."

6 So Lot went out to them through the doorway, shut the door behind him,

7 and said, "Please, my brethren, do not do so wickedly!

8 "See now, I have two daughters who have not known a man; please, let me bring them out to you, and you may do to them as you wish; only do nothing to these men, since this is the reason they have come under the shadow of my roof."

9 And they said, "Stand back!" Then they said, "This one came in to stay here, and he keeps acting as a judge; now we will deal worse with you than with them." So they pressed hard against the man Lot, and came near to break down the door.

10But the men reached out their hands and pulled Lot into the house with them, and shut the door.

11And they struck the men who were at the doorway of the house with blindness, both small and great, so that they became weary trying to find the door.

Sodom and Gomorrah Destroyed

12Then the men said to Lot, “Have you anyone else here? Son-in-law, your sons, your daughters, and whomever you have in the city—take them out of this place!

13“For we will destroy this place, because the outcry against them has grown great before the face of the LORD, and the LORD has sent us to destroy it.”

14So Lot went out and spoke to his sons-in-law, who had married his daughters, and said, “Get up, get out of this place; for the LORD will destroy this city!” But to his sons-in-law he seemed to be joking.

15When the morning dawned, the angels urged Lot to hurry, saying, “Arise, take your wife and your two daughters who are here, lest you be consumed in the punishment of the city.”

16And while he lingered, the men took hold of his hand, his wife’s hand, and the hands of his two daughters, the LORD being merciful to him, and they brought him out and set him outside the city.

17So it came to pass, when they had brought them outside, that he[a] said, “Escape for your life! Do not look behind you nor stay anywhere in the plain. Escape to the mountains, lest you be destroyed.”

18Then Lot said to them, “Please, no, my lords!

19“Indeed now, your servant has found favor in your sight, and you have increased your mercy which you have shown me by saving my life; but I cannot escape to the mountains, lest some evil overtake me and I die.

20 “See now, this city is near enough to flee to, and it is a little one; please let me escape there (is it not a little one?) and my soul shall live.”

21 And he said to him, “See, I have favored you concerning this thing also, in that I will not overthrow this city for which you have spoken.

22 “Hurry, escape there. For I cannot do anything until you arrive there.” Therefore the name of the city was called Zoar.

23 The sun had risen upon the earth when Lot entered Zoar.

24 Then the LORD rained brimstone and fire on Sodom and Gomorrah, from the LORD out of the heavens.

25 So He overthrew those cities, all the plain, all the inhabitants of the cities, and what grew on the ground.

26 But his wife looked back behind him, and she became a pillar of salt.

27 And Abraham went early in the morning to the place where he had stood before the LORD.

28 Then he looked toward Sodom and Gomorrah, and toward all the land of the plain; and he saw, and behold, the smoke of the land which went up like the smoke of a furnace.

29 And it came to pass, when God destroyed the cities of the plain, that God remembered Abraham, and sent Lot out of the midst of the overthrow, when He overthrew the cities in which Lot had dwelt. The Legacy of Sodom and Gomorrah

The Descendants of Lot

30 Then Lot went up out of Zoar and dwelt in the mountains, and his two daughters were with him; for he was afraid to dwell in Zoar. And he and his two daughters dwelt in a cave.

31 Now the firstborn said to the younger, “Our father is old, and there is no man on the earth to come in to us as is the custom of all the earth.

32 “Come, let us make our father drink wine, and we will lie with him, that we may preserve the lineage of our father.”

33 So they made their father drink wine that night. And the firstborn went in and lay with her father, and he did not know when she lay down or when she arose.

34 It happened on the next day that the firstborn said to the younger, “Indeed I lay with my father last night; let us make him drink wine tonight also, and you go in and lie with him, that we may preserve the lineage of our father.”

35 Then they made their father drink wine that night also. And the younger arose and lay with him, and he did not know when she lay down or when she arose.

36 Thus both the daughters of Lot were with child by their father.

37 The firstborn bore a son and called his name Moab; he is the father of the Moabites to this day.

38 And the younger, she also bore a son and called his name Ben-Ammi; he is the father of the people of Ammon to this day.

Genesis 20

Abraham and Abimelech

1 And Abraham journeyed from there to the South, and dwelt between Kadesh and Shur, and stayed in Gerar.
2 Now Abraham said of Sarah his wife, "She is my sister."
And Abimelech king of Gerar sent and took Sarah.
3 But God came to Abimelech in a dream by night, and said to him, "Indeed you are a dead man because of the woman whom you have taken, for she is a man's wife." 4 But Abimelech had not come near her; and he said,
"Lord, will You slay a righteous nation also?
5 "Did he not say to me, 'She is my sister'? And she, even she herself said, 'He is my brother.' In the integrity of my heart and innocence of my hands I have done this."
6 And God said to him in a dream, "Yes, I know that you did this in the integrity of your heart. For I also withheld you from sinning against Me; therefore I did not let you touch her.
7 "Now therefore, restore the man's wife; for he is a prophet, and he will pray for you and you shall live. But if you do not restore her, know that you shall surely die, you and all who are yours."
8 So Abimelech rose early in the morning, called all his servants, and told all these things in their hearing; and the men were very much afraid.
9 And Abimelech called Abraham and said to him, "What have you done to us? How have I offended you, that you have brought on me and on my kingdom a great sin? You have done deeds to me that ought not to be done." 10 Then Abimelech said to Abraham, "What did you have in view, that you have done this thing?"

11 And Abraham said, “Because I thought, surely the fear of God is not in this place; and they will kill me on account of my wife.
12 “But indeed she is truly my sister. She is the daughter of my father, but not the daughter of my mother; and she became my wife.
13 “And it came to pass, when God caused me to wander from my father’s house, that I said to her, ‘This is your kindness that you should do for me: in every place, wherever we go, say of me, “He is my brother.” ’ 14 Then Abimelech took sheep, oxen, and male and female servants, and gave them to Abraham; and he restored
Sarah his wife to him.
15 And Abimelech said, “See, my land is before you; dwell where it pleases you.” 16 Then to Sarah he said, “Behold, I have given your brother a thousand pieces of silver; indeed this vindicates you[a] before all who are with you and before everybody.”
Thus she was rebuked.
17 So Abraham prayed to God; and God healed Abimelech, his wife, and his female servants. Then they bore children;
18 for the LORD had closed up all the wombs of the house of Abimelech because of Sarah, Abraham’s wife.

Genesis 21

Isaac Is Born

1 And the LORD visited Sarah as He had said, and the LORD did for Sarah as He had spoken.
2 For Sarah conceived and bore Abraham a son in his old age, at the set time of which God had spoken to him.
3 And Abraham called the name of his son who was born to him—whom Sarah bore to him—Isaac.
4 Then Abraham circumcised his son Isaac when he was eight days old, as God had commanded him.
5 Now Abraham was one hundred years old when his son Isaac was born to him.
6 And Sarah said, "God has made me laugh, and all who hear will laugh with me."
7 She also said, "Who would have said to Abraham that Sarah would nurse children? For I have borne him a son in his old age."

Hagar and Ishmael Depart

8 So the child grew and was weaned. And Abraham made a great feast on the same day that Isaac was weaned.
9 And Sarah saw the son of Hagar the Egyptian, whom she had borne to Abraham, scoffing.
10 Therefore she said to Abraham, "Cast out this bondwoman and her son; for the son of this bondwoman shall not be heir with my son, namely with Isaac." 11 And the matter was very displeasing in Abraham's sight because of his son.
12 But God said to Abraham, "Do not let it be displeasing in your sight because of the lad or because of your bondwoman. Whatever Sarah has said to you, listen to her voice; for in Isaac your seed shall be called.

13 “Yet I will also make a nation of the son of the bondwoman, because he is your seed.”

14 So Abraham rose early in the morning, and took bread and a skin of water; and putting it on her shoulder, he gave it and the boy to Hagar, and sent her away. Then she departed and wandered in the Wilderness of Beersheba.

15 And the water in the skin was used up, and she placed the boy under one of the shrubs.

16 Then she went and sat down across from him at a distance of about a bowshot; for she said to herself, “Let me not see the death of the boy.” So she sat opposite him, and lifted her voice and wept.

17 And God heard the voice of the lad. Then the angel of God called to Hagar out of heaven, and said to her, “What ails you, Hagar? Fear not, for God has heard the voice of the lad where he is.

18 “Arise, lift up the lad and hold him with your hand, for I will make him a great nation.”

19 Then God opened her eyes, and she saw a well of water. And she went and filled the skin with water, and gave the lad a drink.

20 So God was with the lad; and he grew and dwelt in the wilderness, and became an archer.

21 He dwelt in the Wilderness of Paran; and his mother took a wife for him from the land of Egypt.

A Covenant with Abimelech

22 And it came to pass at that time that Abimelech and Phichol, the commander of his army, spoke to Abraham, saying, “God is with you in all that you do.

23 “Now therefore, swear to me by God that you will not deal falsely with me, with my offspring, or with my posterity; but that according to the kindness that I have done to you, you will do to me and to the land in which you have dwelt.”

24 And Abraham said, “I will swear.”

25 Then Abraham rebuked Abimelech because of a well of water which Abimelech’s servants had seized.

26 And Abimelech said, “I do not know who has done this thing; you did not tell me, nor had I heard of it until today.”

27 So Abraham took sheep and oxen and gave them to Abimelech, and the two of them made a covenant.

28 And Abraham set seven ewe lambs of the flock by themselves.

29 Then Abimelech asked Abraham, “What is the meaning of these seven ewe lambs which you have set by themselves?”

30 And he said, “You will take these seven ewe lambs from my hand, that they may be my witness that I have dug this well.”

31 Therefore he called that place Beersheba,[a] because the two of them swore an oath there. Beersheba

32 Thus they made a covenant at Beersheba. So Abimelech rose with Phichol, the commander of his army, and they returned to the land of the Philistines.

33 Then Abraham planted a tamarisk tree in Beersheba, and there called on the name of the LORD, the Everlasting God.

34 And Abraham stayed in the land of the Philistines many days.

Genesis 22

Abraham's Faith Confirmed

1 Now it came to pass after these things that God tested Abraham, and said to him, "Abraham!" And he said, "Here I am."
2 Then He said, "Take now your son, your only son Isaac, whom you love, and go to the land of Moriah, and offer him there as a burnt offering on one of the mountains of which I shall tell you." The Death of a Son Isaac 3 So Abraham rose early in the morning and saddled his donkey, and took two of his young men with him, and Isaac his son; and he split the wood for the burnt offering, and arose and went to the place of which God had told him.
4 Then on the third day Abraham lifted his eyes and saw the place afar off.
5 And Abraham said to his young men, "Stay here with the donkey; the lad[a] and I will go yonder and worship, and we will come back to you."
6 So Abraham took the wood of the burnt offering and laid it on Isaac his son; and he took the fire in his hand, and a knife, and the two of them went together.
7 But Isaac spoke to Abraham his father and said, "My father!" And he said, "Here I am, my son." Then he said, "Look, the fire and the wood, but where is the lamb for a burnt offering?"
8 And Abraham said, "My son, God will provide for Himself the lamb for a burnt offering." So the two of them went together.
9 Then they came to the place of which God had told him.
And Abraham built an altar there and placed the wood in order; and he bound Isaac his son and laid him on the altar, upon the wood.

10 And Abraham stretched out his hand and took the knife to slay his son.

11 But the Angel of the LORD called to him from heaven and said, “Abraham, Abraham!” So he said, “Here I am.”

12 And He said, “Do not lay your hand on the lad, or do anything to him; for now I know that you fear God, since you have not withheld your son, your only son, from Me.”

13 Then Abraham lifted his eyes and looked, and there behind him was a ram caught in a thicket by its horns. So Abraham went and took the ram, and offered it up for a burnt offering instead of his son.

14 And Abraham called the name of the place, The-LORD-Will-Provide;[b] as it is said to this day, “In the Mount of the LORD it shall be provided.”

15 Then the Angel of the LORD called to Abraham a second time out of heaven,

16 and said: “By Myself I have sworn, says the LORD, because you have done this thing, and have not withheld your son, your only son—

17 “blessing I will bless you, and multiplying I will multiply your descendants as the stars of the heaven and as the sand which is on the seashore; and your descendants shall possess the gate of their enemies.

18 “In your seed all the nations of the earth shall be blessed, because you have obeyed My voice.” Let the Nations Sing

19 So Abraham returned to his young men, and they rose and went together to Beersheba; and Abraham dwelt at Beersheba.

The Family of Nahor

20 Now it came to pass after these things that it was told Abraham, saying, “Indeed Milcah also has borne children to your brother Nahor:

21 “Huz his firstborn, Buz his brother, Kemuel the father of Aram,
22 “Chesed, Hazo, Pildash, Jidlaph, and Bethuel.” 23 And Bethuel begot Rebekah.[c] These eight Milcah bore to Nahor, Abraham’s brother.
24 His concubine, whose name was Reumah, also bore Tebah, Gaham, Thahash, and Maachah.

Genesis 23

Sarah's Death and Burial

1 Sarah lived one hundred and twenty-seven years; these were the years of the life of Sarah.
2 So Sarah died in Kirjath Arba (that is, Hebron) in the land of Canaan, and Abraham came to mourn for Sarah and to weep for her.
3 Then Abraham stood up from before his dead, and spoke to the sons of Heth, saying, 4 "I am a foreigner and a visitor among you. Give me property for a burial place among you, that I may bury my dead out of my sight."
5 And the sons of Heth answered Abraham, saying to him,
6 "Hear us, my lord: You are a mighty prince among us;
bury your dead in the choicest of our burial places. None of us will withhold from you his burial place, that you may bury your dead."
7 Then Abraham stood up and bowed himself to the people of the land, the sons of Heth.
8 And he spoke with them, saying, "If it is your wish that I bury my dead out of my sight, hear me, and meet with Ephron the son of Zohar for me, 9 "that he may give me the cave of Machpelah which he has, which is at the end of his field. Let him give it to me at the full price, as property for a burial place among you." 10 Now Ephron dwelt among the sons of Heth; and Ephron the Hittite answered Abraham in the presence of the sons of Heth, all who entered at the gate of his city,
saying,
11 "No, my lord, hear me: I give you the field and the cave that is in it; I give it to you in the presence of the sons of my people. I give it to you. Bury your dead!” 12Then Abraham bowed himself down before the people of the land;

13and he spoke to Ephron in the hearing of the people of the land, saying, “If you will give it, please hear me. I will give you money for the field; take it from me and I will bury my dead there.”
14And Ephron answered Abraham, saying to him, 15“My lord, listen to me; the land is worth four hundred shekels of silver. What is that between you and me? So bury your dead.”
16And Abraham listened to Ephron; and Abraham weighed out the silver for Ephron which he had named in the hearing of the sons of Heth, four hundred shekels of silver, currency of the merchants.
17So the field of Ephron which was in Machpelah, which was before Mamre, the field and the cave which was in it, and all the trees that were in the field, which were within all the surrounding borders, were deeded 18to Abraham as a possession in the presence of the sons of Heth, before all who went in at the gate of his city. A Public Transaction 19And after this, Abraham buried Sarah his wife in the cave of the field of Machpelah, before Mamre (that is, Hebron) in the land of Canaan.
20So the field and the cave that is in it were deeded to Abraham by the sons of Heth as property for a burial place.

Genesis 24

A Bride for Isaac

1 Now Abraham was old, well advanced in age; and the LORD had blessed Abraham in all things.
2 So Abraham said to the oldest servant of his house, who ruled over all that he had, “Please, put your hand under my thigh,
3 “and I will make you swear by the LORD, the God of heaven and the God of the earth, that you will not take a wife for my son from the daughters of the Canaanites, among whom I dwell;
4 “but you shall go to my country and to my family, and take a wife for my son Isaac.” 5 And the servant said to him, “Perhaps the woman will not be willing to follow me to this land. Must I take your son back to the land from which you came?”
6 But Abraham said to him, “Beware that you do not take my son back there.
7 “The LORD God of heaven, who took me from my father’s house and from the land of my family, and who spoke to me and swore to me, saying, ‘To your descendants[a] I give this land,’ He will send His angel before you, and you shall take a wife for my son from there.
8 “And if the woman is not willing to follow you, then you will be released from this oath; only do not take my son back there.”
9 So the servant put his hand under the thigh of Abraham his master, and swore to him concerning this matter.
10 Then the servant took ten of his master’s camels and departed, for all his master’s goods were in his hand. And he arose and went to Mesopotamia, to the city of Nahor.

11 And he made his camels kneel down outside the city by a well of water at evening time, the time when women go out to draw water.
12 Then he said, “O LORD God of my master Abraham, please give me success this day, and show kindness to my master Abraham. Praying for Success 13 “Behold, here I stand by the well of water, and the daughters of the men of the city are coming out to draw water.
14 “Now let it be that the young woman to whom I say, ‘Please let down your pitcher that I may drink,’ and she says, ‘Drink, and I will also give your camels a drink’—let her be the one You have appointed for Your servant Isaac.
And by this I will know that You have shown kindness to my master.”
15 And it happened, before he had finished speaking, that behold, Rebekah, who was born to Bethuel, son of Milcah, the wife of Nahor, Abraham’s brother, came out with her pitcher on her shoulder. Rebekah 16 Now the young woman was very beautiful to behold, a virgin; no man had known her. And she went down to the well, filled her pitcher, and came up.
17 And the servant ran to meet her and said, “Please let me drink a little water from your pitcher.” 18 So she said, “Drink, my lord.” Then she quickly let her pitcher down to her hand, and gave him a drink.
19 And when she had finished giving him a drink, she said, “I will draw water for your camels also, until they have finished drinking.”
20 Then she quickly emptied her pitcher into the trough, ran back to the well to draw water, and drew for all his camels.
21 And the man, wondering at her, remained silent so as to know whether the LORD had made his journey prosperous or not.

22So it was, when the camels had finished drinking, that the man took a golden nose ring weighing half a shekel, and two bracelets for her wrists weighing ten shekels of gold,

23and said, “Whose daughter are you? Tell me, please, is there room in your father’s house for us to lodge?”

24So she said to him, “I am the daughter of Bethuel, Milcah’s son, whom she bore to Nahor.”

25Moreover she said to him, “We have both straw and feed enough, and room to lodge.”

26Then the man bowed down his head and worshiped the LORD.

27And he said, “Blessed be the LORD God of my master Abraham, who has not forsaken His mercy and His truth toward my master. As for me, being on the way, the LORD led me to the house of my master’s brethren.”

28So the young woman ran and told her mother’s household these things.

29Now Rebekah had a brother whose name was Laban, and Laban ran out to the man by the well.

30So it came to pass, when he saw the nose ring, and the bracelets on his sister’s wrists, and when he heard the words of his sister Rebekah, saying, “Thus the man spoke to me,” that he went to the man. And there he stood by the camels at the well.

31And he said, “Come in, O blessed of the LORD! Why do you stand outside? For I have prepared the house, and a place for the camels.”

32Then the man came to the house. And he unloaded the camels, and provided straw and feed for the camels, and water to wash his feet and the feet of the men who were with him.

33 Food was set before him to eat, but he said, “I will not eat until I have told about my errand.” And he said, “Speak on.”
34 So he said, “I am Abraham’s servant.
35 “The LORD has blessed my master greatly, and he has become great; and He has given him flocks and herds, silver and gold, male and female servants, and camels and donkeys.
36 “And Sarah my master’s wife bore a son to my master when she was old; and to him he has given all that he has.
37 “Now my master made me swear, saying, ‘You shall not take a wife for my son from the daughters of the Canaanites, in whose land I dwell;
38 ‘but you shall go to my father’s house and to my family, and take a wife for my son.’
39 “And I said to my master, ‘Perhaps the woman will not follow me.’
40 “But he said to me, ‘The LORD, before whom I walk, will send His angel with you and prosper your way; and you shall take a wife for my son from my family and from my father’s house.
41 ‘You will be clear from this oath when you arrive among my family; for if they will not give her to you, then you will be released from my oath.’
42 “And this day I came to the well and said, ‘O LORD God of my master Abraham, if You will now prosper the way in which I go,
43 ‘behold, I stand by the well of water; and it shall come to pass that when the virgin comes out to draw water, and I say to her, “Please give me a little water from your pitcher to drink,” 44 ‘and she says to me, “Drink, and I will draw for your camels also,”—let her be the woman whom the LORD has appointed for my master’s son.’

45“But before I had finished speaking in my heart, there was Rebekah, coming out with her pitcher on her shoulder; and she went down to the well and drew water. And I said to her, ‘Please let me drink.’ 46“And she made haste and let her pitcher down from her shoulder, and said, ‘Drink, and I will give your camels a drink also.’ So I drank, and she gave the camels a drink
also.
47“Then I asked her, and said, ‘Whose daughter are you?’
And she said, ‘The daughter of Bethuel, Nahor’s son, whom Milcah bore to him.’ So I put the nose ring on her nose and the bracelets on her wrists.
48“And I bowed my head and worshiped the LORD, and blessed the LORD God of my master Abraham, who had led me in the way of truth to take the daughter of my master’s brother for his son.
49“Now if you will deal kindly and truly with my master, tell me. And if not, tell me, that I may turn to the right hand or to the left.”
50Then Laban and Bethuel answered and said, “The thing comes from the LORD; we cannot speak to you either bad or good.
51“Here is Rebekah before you; take her and go, and let her be your master’s son’s wife, as the LORD has spoken.” 52And it came to pass, when Abraham’s servant heard their words, that he worshiped the LORD, bowing himself to the earth.
53Then the servant brought out jewelry of silver, jewelry of gold, and clothing, and gave them to Rebekah. He also gave precious things to her brother and to her mother.
54And he and the men who were with him ate and drank and stayed all night. Then they arose in the morning, and he said, “Send me away to my master.”

55But her brother and her mother said, “Let the young woman stay with us a few days, at least ten; after that she may go.”
56And he said to them, “Do not hinder me, since the LORD has prospered my way; send me away so that I may go to my master.”
57So they said, “We will call the young woman and ask her personally.”
58Then they called Rebekah and said to her, “Will you go with this man?” And she said, “I will go.” 59So they sent away Rebekah their sister and her nurse, and Abraham’s servant and his men.
60And they blessed Rebekah and said to her:

> “Our sister, may you become
> The mother of thousands of ten thousands;
> And may your descendants possess
> The gates of those who hate them.”

61Then Rebekah and her maids arose, and they rode on the camels and followed the man. So the servant took Rebekah and departed.
62Now Isaac came from the way of Beer Lahai Roi, for he dwelt in the South.
63And Isaac went out to meditate in the field in the evening; and he lifted his eyes and looked, and there, the camels were coming.
64Then Rebekah lifted her eyes, and when she saw Isaac she dismounted from her camel; 65for she had said to the servant, “Who is this man walking in the field to meet us?” The servant said, “It is my master.” So she took a veil and covered herself.
66And the servant told Isaac all the things that he had done.

67 Then Isaac brought her into his mother Sarah’s tent;
and he took Rebekah and she became his wife, and he loved her. So Isaac was comforted after his mother’s death.

Genesis 25

Abraham and Keturah

1 Abraham again took a wife, and her name was Keturah.
2 And she bore him Zimran, Jokshan, Medan, Midian, Ishbak, and Shuah.
3 Jokshan begot Sheba and Dedan. And the sons of Dedan were Asshurim, Letushim, and Leummim.
4 And the sons of Midian were Ephah, Epher, Hanoch, Abidah, and Eldaah. All these were the children of Keturah.
5 And Abraham gave all that he had to Isaac.
6 But Abraham gave gifts to the sons of the concubines which Abraham had; and while he was still living he sent them eastward, away from Isaac his son, to the country of the east.

Abraham's Death and Burial

7 This is the sum of the years of Abraham's life which he lived: one hundred and seventy-five years.
8 Then Abraham breathed his last and died in a good old age, an old man and full of years, and was gathered to his people.
9 And his sons Isaac and Ishmael buried him in the cave of Machpelah, which is before Mamre, in the field of Ephron the son of Zohar the Hittite, 10 the field which Abraham purchased from the sons of Heth. There Abraham was buried, and Sarah his wife.
11 And it came to pass, after the death of Abraham, that God blessed his son Isaac. And Isaac dwelt at Beer Lahai Roi.

The Families of Ishmael and Isaac

12Now this is the genealogy of Ishmael, Abraham's son, whom Hagar the Egyptian, Sarah's maidservant, bore to Abraham.
13And these were the names of the sons of Ishmael, by their names, according to their generations: The firstborn of Ishmael, Nebajoth; then Kedar, Adbeel, Mibsam, 14Mishma, Dumah, Massa, 15Hadar,[a] Tema, Jetur, Naphish, and Kedemah.
16These were the sons of Ishmael and these were their names, by their towns and their settlements, twelve princes according to their nations.
17These were the years of the life of Ishmael: one hundred and thirty-seven years; and he breathed his last and died, and was gathered to his people.
18(They dwelt from Havilah as far as Shur, which is east of Egypt as you go toward Assyria.) He died in the presence of all his brethren.
19This is the genealogy of Isaac, Abraham's son.
Abraham begot Isaac.
20Isaac was forty years old when he took Rebekah as wife, the daughter of Bethuel the Syrian of Padan Aram, the sister of Laban the Syrian.
21Now Isaac pleaded with the LORD for his wife, because she was barren; and the LORD granted his plea, and Rebekah his wife conceived.
22But the children struggled together within her; and she said, "If all is well, why am I like this?" So she went to inquire of the LORD.
23And the LORD said to her:

"Two nations are in your womb,
Two peoples shall be separated from your body;
One people shall be stronger than the other,

And the older shall serve the younger.”

24So when her days were fulfilled for her to give birth, indeed there were twins in her womb.
25And the first came out red. He was like a hairy garment
all over; so they called his name Esau.[b] 26Afterward his brother came out, and his hand took hold of Esau’s heel; so his name was called Jacob.[c] Isaac was sixty years old when she bore them.
27So the boys grew. And Esau was a skillful hunter, a man of the field; but Jacob was a mild man, dwelling in tents. Esau 28And Isaac loved Esau because he ate of his game, but Rebekah loved Jacob.

Esau Sells His Birthright

29Now Jacob cooked a stew; and Esau came in from the field, and he was weary.
30And Esau said to Jacob, “Please feed me with that same red stew, for I am weary.” Therefore his name was called Edom.[d]
31But Jacob said, “Sell me your birthright as of this day.”

Birthrights

32And Esau said, “Look, I am about to die; so what is this birthright to me?”
33Then Jacob said, “Swear to me as of this day.” So he swore to him, and sold his birthright to Jacob.
34And Jacob gave Esau bread and stew of lentils; then he ate and drank, arose, and went his way. Thus Esau despised his birthright.

Genesis 26

Isaac and Abimelech

1There was a famine in the land, besides the first famine that was in the days of Abraham. And Isaac went to Abimelech king of the Philistines, in Gerar.
2Then the LORD appeared to him and said: “Do not go down to Egypt; live in the land of which I shall tell you.
3“Dwell in this land, and I will be with you and bless you;
for to you and your descendants I give all these lands, and I will perform the oath which I swore to Abraham your father.
4“And I will make your descendants multiply as the stars of heaven; I will give to your descendants all these lands;
and in your seed all the nations of the earth shall be blessed;
5“because Abraham obeyed My voice and kept My charge, My commandments, My statutes, and My laws.”
6So Isaac dwelt in Gerar.
7And the men of the place asked about his wife. And he said, “She is my sister”; for he was afraid to say, “She is my wife,” because he thought, “lest the men of the place kill me for Rebekah, because she is beautiful to behold.” 8Now it came to pass, when he had been there a long time, that Abimelech king of the Philistines looked through a window, and saw, and there was Isaac, showing endearment to Rebekah his wife.
9Then Abimelech called Isaac and said, “Quite obviously she is your wife; so how could you say, ‘She is my sister’?” Isaac said to him, “Because I said, ‘Lest I die on account of her.” ’

10 And Abimelech said, “What is this you have done to us?
One of the people might soon have lain with your wife, and you would have brought guilt on us.” 11 So Abimelech charged all his people, saying, “He who touches this man or his wife shall surely be put to death.” 12 Then Isaac sowed in that land, and reaped in the same year a hundredfold; and the LORD blessed him.
13 The man began to prosper, and continued prospering until he became very prosperous; 14 for he had possessions of flocks and possessions of herds and a great number of servants. So the Philistines envied him.
15 Now the Philistines had stopped up all the wells which his father’s servants had dug in the days of Abraham his father, and they had filled them with earth.
16 And Abimelech said to Isaac, “Go away from us, for you are much mightier than we.”
17 Then Isaac departed from there and pitched his tent in the Valley of Gerar, and dwelt there.
18 And Isaac dug again the wells of water which they had dug in the days of Abraham his father, for the Philistines had stopped them up after the death of Abraham. He called them by the names which his father had called them.
19 Also Isaac’s servants dug in the valley, and found a well of running water there.
20 But the herdsmen of Gerar quarreled with Isaac’s herdsmen, saying, “The water is ours.” So he called the name of the well Esek,[a] because they quarreled with him.
21 Then they dug another well, and they quarreled over that one also. So he called its name Sitnah.[b] 22 And he moved from there and dug another well, and they did not quarrel over it. So he called its name Rehoboth,[c] because he said, “For now the LORD has made room for us, and we shall be fruitful in the land.”

23Then he went up from there to Beersheba.

24And the LORD appeared to him the same night and said, “I am the God of your father Abraham; do not fear, for I am with you. I will bless you and multiply your descendants for My servant Abraham’s sake.”

25So he built an altar there and called on the name of the LORD, and he pitched his tent there; and there Isaac’s servants dug a well.

26Then Abimelech came to him from Gerar with Ahuzzath, one of his friends, and Phichol the commander of his army.

27And Isaac said to them, “Why have you come to me, since you hate me and have sent me away from you?”

28But they said, “We have certainly seen that the LORD is with you. So we said, ‘Let there now be an oath between us, between you and us; and let us make a covenant with you,

29‘that you will do us no harm, since we have not touched you, and since we have done nothing to you but good and have sent you away in peace. You are now the blessed of the LORD.” ’

30So he made them a feast, and they ate and drank.

31Then they arose early in the morning and swore an oath with one another; and Isaac sent them away, and they departed from him in peace.

32It came to pass the same day that Isaac’s servants came and told him about the well which they had dug, and said to him, “We have found water.”

33So he called it Shebah.[d] Therefore the name of the city is Beersheba[e] to this day.

34When Esau was forty years old, he took as wives Judith the daughter of Beeri the Hittite, and Basemath the daughter of Elon the Hittite.

35And they were a grief of mind to Isaac and Rebekah.

Genesis 27

Isaac Blesses Jacob

1 Now it came to pass, when Isaac was old and his eyes were so dim that he could not see, that he called Esau his older son and said to him, “My son.” And he answered him, “Here I am.”
2 Then he said, “Behold now, I am old. I do not know the day of my death.
3 “Now therefore, please take your weapons, your quiver and your bow, and go out to the field and hunt game for me.
4 “And make me savory food, such as I love, and bring it to me that I may eat, that my soul may bless you before I die.”
5 Now Rebekah was listening when Isaac spoke to Esau his son. And Esau went to the field to hunt game and to bring it.
6 So Rebekah spoke to Jacob her son, saying, “Indeed I heard your father speak to Esau your brother, saying, 7 ‘Bring me game and make savory food for me, that I may eat it and bless you in the presence of the LORD before my death.’
8 “Now therefore, my son, obey my voice according to what I command you.
9 “Go now to the flock and bring me from there two choice kids of the goats, and I will make savory food from them for your father, such as he loves.
10 “Then you shall take it to your father, that he may eat it, and that he may bless you before his death.” 11 And Jacob said to Rebekah his mother, “Look, Esau my brother is a hairy man, and I am a smooth-skinned man.
12 “Perhaps my father will feel me, and I shall seem to be a deceiver to him; and I shall bring a curse on myself and not a blessing.”

13But his mother said to him, “Let your curse be on me, my son; only obey my voice, and go, get them for me.” Family Member Misbehavior

14And he went and got them and brought them to his mother, and his mother made savory food, such as his father loved.

15Then Rebekah took the choice clothes of her elder son Esau, which were with her in the house, and put them on Jacob her younger son.

16And she put the skins of the kids of the goats on his hands and on the smooth part of his neck.

17Then she gave the savory food and the bread, which she had prepared, into the hand of her son Jacob.

18So he went to his father and said, “My father.” And he said, “Here I am. Who are you, my son?”

19Jacob said to his father, “I am Esau your firstborn; I have done just as you told me; please arise, sit and eat of my game, that your soul may bless me.”

20But Isaac said to his son, “How is it that you have found it so quickly, my son?” And he said, “Because the LORD your God brought it to me.”

21Then Isaac said to Jacob, “Please come near, that I may feel you, my son, whether you are really my son Esau or not.”

22So Jacob went near to Isaac his father, and he felt him and said, “The voice is Jacob’s voice, but the hands are the hands of Esau.”

23And he did not recognize him, because his hands were hairy like his brother Esau’s hands; so he blessed him.

24Then he said, “Are you really my son Esau?” He said, “I am.”

25He said, “Bring it near to me, and I will eat of my son’s game, so that my soul may bless you.” So he brought it near to him, and he ate; and he brought him wine, and he drank.

[26]Then his father Isaac said to him, “Come near now and kiss me, my son.”

[27]And he came near and kissed him; and he smelled the smell of his clothing, and blessed him and said:

> “Surely, the smell of my son
> Is like the smell of a field
> Which the LORD has blessed.
> [28]Therefore may God give you
> Of the dew of heaven,
> Of the fatness of the earth,
> And plenty of grain and wine.
> [29]Let peoples serve you,
> And nations bow down to you.
> Be master over your brethren,
> And let your mother’s sons bow down to you.
> Cursed be everyone who curses you,
> And blessed be those who bless you!”

Esau’s Lost Hope

30Now it happened, as soon as Isaac had finished blessing Jacob, and Jacob had scarcely gone out from the presence of Isaac his father, that Esau his brother came in from his hunting.

[31]He also had made savory food, and brought it to his father, and said to his father, “Let my father arise and eat of his son’s game, that your soul may bless me.”

[32]And his father Isaac said to him, “Who are you?” So he said, “I am your son, your firstborn, Esau.”

[33]Then Isaac trembled exceedingly, and said, “Who? Where is the one who hunted game and brought it to me? I ate all of it before you came, and I have blessed him—and indeed he shall be blessed."

34When Esau heard the words of his father, he cried with an exceedingly great and bitter cry, and said to his father, "Bless me—me also, O my father!"

35But he said, "Your brother came with deceit and has taken away your blessing."

36And Esau said, "Is he not rightly named Jacob? For he has supplanted me these two times. He took away my birthright, and now look, he has taken away my blessing!" And he said, "Have you not reserved a blessing for me?"

Jacob

37Then Isaac answered and said to Esau, "Indeed I have made him your master, and all his brethren I have given to him as servants; with grain and wine I have sustained him. What shall I do now for you, my son?"

38And Esau said to his father, "Have you only one blessing, my father? Bless me—me also, O my father!" And Esau lifted up his voice and wept.

39Then Isaac his father answered and said to him:

"Behold, your dwelling shall be of the fatness of the earth,
And of the dew of heaven from above.
40By your sword you shall live,
And you shall serve your brother;
And it shall come to pass, when you become restless,
That you shall break his yoke from your neck."

Jacob Escapes from Esau

41So Esau hated Jacob because of the blessing with which his father blessed him, and Esau said in his heart,

“The days of mourning for my father are at hand; then I will kill my brother Jacob.” Cease the Cover-Up

42 And the words of Esau her older son were told to Rebekah. So she sent and called Jacob her younger son, and said to him, “Surely your brother Esau comforts himself concerning you by intending to kill you.

43 “Now therefore, my son, obey my voice: arise, flee to my brother Laban in Haran.

44 “And stay with him a few days, until your brother’s fury turns away,

45 “until your brother’s anger turns away from you, and he forgets what you have done to him; then I will send and bring you from there. Why should I be bereaved also of you both in one day?”

46 And Rebekah said to Isaac, “I am weary of my life because of the daughters of Heth; if Jacob takes a wife of the daughters of Heth, like these who are the daughters of the land, what good will my life be to me?”

Genesis 28

[1]Then Isaac called Jacob and blessed him, and charged him, and said to him: “You shall not take a wife from the daughters of Canaan.

[2]“Arise, go to Padan Aram, to the house of Bethuel your mother’s father; and take yourself a wife from there of the daughters of Laban your mother’s brother.

[3]“May God Almighty bless you,
And make you fruitful and multiply you,
That you may be an assembly of peoples;
[4]And give you the blessing of Abraham,
To you and your descendants with you,
That you may inherit the land
In which you are a stranger,
Which God gave to Abraham.”

[5]So Isaac sent Jacob away, and he went to Padan Aram, to Laban the son of Bethuel the Syrian, the brother of Rebekah, the mother of Jacob and Esau.

Esau Marries Mahalath

6Esau saw that Isaac had blessed Jacob and sent him away to Padan Aram to take himself a wife from there, and that as he blessed him he gave him a charge, saying, “You shall not take a wife from the daughters of Canaan,”

[7]and that Jacob had obeyed his father and his mother and had gone to Padan Aram.

[8]Also Esau saw that the daughters of Canaan did not please his father Isaac.

[9]So Esau went to Ishmael and took Mahalath the daughter of Ishmael, Abraham’s son, the sister of Nebajoth, to be his wife in addition to the wives he had.

Jacob's Vow at Bethel

10 Now Jacob went out from Beersheba and went toward Haran.
11 So he came to a certain place and stayed there all night, because the sun had set. And he took one of the stones of that place and put it at his head, and he lay down in that place to sleep.
12 Then he dreamed, and behold, a ladder was set up on the earth, and its top reached to heaven; and there the angels of God were ascending and descending on it.
13 And behold, the LORD stood above it and said: "I am the LORD God of Abraham your father and the God of Isaac; the land on which you lie I will give to you and your descendants.
14 "Also your descendants shall be as the dust of the earth; you shall spread abroad to the west and the east, to the north and the south; and in you and in your seed all the families of the earth shall be blessed.
15 "Behold, I am with you and will keep you wherever you go, and will bring you back to this land; for I will not leave you until I have done what I have spoken to you." 16 Then Jacob awoke from his sleep and said, "Surely the LORD is in this place, and I did not know it." 17 And he was afraid and said, "How awesome is this place! This is none other than the house of God, and this is the gate of heaven!"
18 Then Jacob rose early in the morning, and took the stone that he had put at his head, set it up as a pillar, and poured oil on top of it.
19 And he called the name of that place Bethel;[a] but the name of that city had been Luz previously. Bethel

20 Then Jacob made a vow, saying, “If God will be with me, and keep me in this way that I am going, and give me bread to eat and clothing to put on, 21 “so that I come back to my father’s house in peace,
then the LORD shall be my God.
22 “And this stone which I have set as a pillar shall be God’s house, and of all that You give me I will surely give a tenth to You.” Sacred Space

Genesis 29

Jacob Meets Rachel

1 So Jacob went on his journey and came to the land of the people of the East.
2 And he looked, and saw a well in the field; and behold, there were three flocks of sheep lying by it; for out of that well they watered the flocks. A large stone was on the well's mouth.
3 Now all the flocks would be gathered there; and they would roll the stone from the well's mouth, water the sheep, and put the stone back in its place on the well's mouth.
4 And Jacob said to them, "My brethren, where are you from?" And they said, "We are from Haran." 5 Then he said to them, "Do you know Laban the son of Nahor?" And they said, "We know him." Laban 6 So he said to them, "Is he well?" And they said, "He is well. And look, his daughter Rachel is coming with the sheep."
7 Then he said, "Look, it is still high day; it is not time for the cattle to be gathered together. Water the sheep, and go and feed them."
8 But they said, "We cannot until all the flocks are gathered together, and they have rolled the stone from the well's mouth; then we water the sheep." 9 Now while he was still speaking with them, Rachel came with her father's sheep, for she was a shepherdess.
10 And it came to pass, when Jacob saw Rachel the daughter of Laban his mother's brother, and the sheep of Laban his mother's brother, that Jacob went near and rolled the stone from the well's mouth, and watered the flock of Laban his mother's brother.

11 Then Jacob kissed Rachel, and lifted up his voice and wept.

12 And Jacob told Rachel that he was her father's relative and that he was Rebekah's son. So she ran and told her father.

13 Then it came to pass, when Laban heard the report about Jacob his sister's son, that he ran to meet him, and embraced him and kissed him, and brought him to his house. So he told Laban all these things.

14 And Laban said to him, "Surely you are my bone and my flesh." And he stayed with him for a month.

Jacob Marries Leah and Rachel

15 Then Laban said to Jacob, "Because you are my relative, should you therefore serve me for nothing? Tell me, what should your wages be?"

16 Now Laban had two daughters: the name of the elder was Leah, and the name of the younger was Rachel. Leah

17 Leah's eyes were delicate, but Rachel was beautiful of form and appearance. Rachel

18 Now Jacob loved Rachel; so he said, "I will serve you seven years for Rachel your younger daughter."

19 And Laban said, "It is better that I give her to you than that I should give her to another man. Stay with me."

20 So Jacob served seven years for Rachel, and they seemed only a few days to him because of the love he had for her.

21 Then Jacob said to Laban, "Give me my wife, for my days are fulfilled, that I may go in to her."

22 And Laban gathered together all the men of the place and made a feast.

23 Now it came to pass in the evening, that he took Leah his daughter and brought her to Jacob; and he went in to her.
24 And Laban gave his maid Zilpah to his daughter Leah
as a maid.
25 So it came to pass in the morning, that behold, it was Leah. And he said to Laban, “What is this you have done to me? Was it not for Rachel that I served you? Why then have you deceived me?”
26 And Laban said, “It must not be done so in our country, to give the younger before the firstborn.
27 “Fulfill her week, and we will give you this one also for the service which you will serve with me still another seven years.”
28 Then Jacob did so and fulfilled her week. So he gave him his daughter Rachel as wife also.
29 And Laban gave his maid Bilhah to his daughter Rachel
as a maid.
30 Then Jacob also went in to Rachel, and he also loved Rachel more than Leah. And he served with Laban still another seven years.

The Children of Jacob

31 When the LORD saw that Leah was unloved, He opened her womb; but Rachel was barren. Women in the Ancient World 32 So Leah conceived and bore a son, and she called his name Reuben;[a] for she said, “The LORD has surely looked on my affliction. Now therefore, my husband will love me.”
33 Then she conceived again and bore a son, and said, “Because the LORD has heard that I am unloved, He has therefore given me this son also.” And she called his name Simeon.[b]

34She conceived again and bore a son, and said, “Now this time my husband will become attached to me, because I have borne him three sons.” Therefore his name was called Levi.[c]

35And she conceived again and bore a son, and said, “Now I will praise the LORD.” Therefore she called his name Judah.[d] Then she stopped bearing.

Genesis 30

1 Now when Rachel saw that she bore Jacob no children, Rachel envied her sister, and said to Jacob, “Give me children, or else I die!”
2 And Jacob’s anger was aroused against Rachel, and he said, “Am I in the place of God, who has withheld from you the fruit of the womb?”
3 So she said, “Here is my maid Bilhah; go in to her, and she will bear a child on my knees, that I also may have children by her.” Concubines
4 Then she gave him Bilhah her maid as wife, and Jacob went in to her.
5 And Bilhah conceived and bore Jacob a son.
6 Then Rachel said, “God has judged my case; and He has also heard my voice and given me a son.” Therefore she called his name Dan.[a] 7 And Rachel’s maid Bilhah conceived again and bore Jacob a second son.
8 Then Rachel said, “With great wrestlings I have wrestled with my sister, and indeed I have prevailed.” So she called his name Naphtali.[b] 9 When Leah saw that she had stopped bearing, she took Zilpah her maid and gave her to Jacob as wife.
10 And Leah’s maid Zilpah bore Jacob a son.
11 Then Leah said, “A troop comes!”[c] So she called his name Gad.[d]
12 And Leah’s maid Zilpah bore Jacob a second son.
13 Then Leah said, “I am happy, for the daughters will call me blessed.” So she called his name Asher.[e] 14 Now Reuben went in the days of wheat harvest and found mandrakes in the field, and brought them to his mother Leah. Then Rachel said to Leah, “Please give me some of your son’s mandrakes.”

15But she said to her, “Is it a small matter that you have taken away my husband? Would you take away my son’s mandrakes also?” And Rachel said, “Therefore he will lie with you tonight for your son’s mandrakes.”

16When Jacob came out of the field in the evening, Leah went out to meet him and said, “You must come in to me, for I have surely hired you with my son’s mandrakes.” And he lay with her that night.

17And God listened to Leah, and she conceived and bore Jacob a fifth son.

18Leah said, “God has given me my wages, because I have given my maid to my husband.” So she called his name Issachar.[f]

19Then Leah conceived again and bore Jacob a sixth son.

20And Leah said, “God has endowed me with a good endowment; now my husband will dwell with me, because I have borne him six sons.” So she called his name Zebulun.[g]

21Afterward she bore a daughter, and called her name Dinah.

22Then God remembered Rachel, and God listened to her and opened her womb.

23And she conceived and bore a son, and said, “God has taken away my reproach.”

24So she called his name Joseph,[h] and said, “The LORD shall add to me another son.”

Jacob’s Agreement with Laban

25And it came to pass, when Rachel had borne Joseph, that Jacob said to Laban, “Send me away, that I may go to my own place and to my country.

26“Give me my wives and my children for whom I have served you, and let me go; for you know my service which I have done for you.”

27And Laban said to him, “Please stay, if I have found favor in your eyes, for I have learned by experience that the LORD has blessed me for your sake.”

28Then he said, “Name me your wages, and I will give it.”

29So Jacob said to him, “You know how I have served you and how your livestock has been with me.

30“For what you had before I came was little, and it has increased to a great amount; the LORD has blessed you since my coming. And now, when shall I also provide for my own house?”

31So he said, “What shall I give you?” And Jacob said, “You shall not give me anything. If you will do this thing for me, I will again feed and keep your flocks:

32“Let me pass through all your flock today, removing from there all the speckled and spotted sheep, and all the brown ones among the lambs, and the spotted and speckled among the goats; and these shall be my wages.

33“So my righteousness will answer for me in time to come, when the subject of my wages comes before you: every one that is not speckled and spotted among the goats, and brown among the lambs, will be considered stolen, if it is with me.”

34And Laban said, “Oh, that it were according to your word!”

35So he removed that day the male goats that were speckled and spotted, all the female goats that were speckled and spotted, every one that had some white in it, and all the brown ones among the lambs, and gave them into the hand of his sons.

36Then he put three days’ journey between himself and Jacob, and Jacob fed the rest of Laban’s flocks.

37Now Jacob took for himself rods of green poplar and of the almond and chestnut trees, peeled white strips in them, and exposed the white which was in the rods.

38 And the rods which he had peeled, he set before the flocks in the gutters, in the watering troughs where the flocks came to drink, so that they should conceive when they came to drink.

39 So the flocks conceived before the rods, and the flocks brought forth streaked, speckled, and spotted.

40 Then Jacob separated the lambs, and made the flocks face toward the streaked and all the brown in the flock of Laban; but he put his own flocks by themselves and did not put them with Laban's flock.

41 And it came to pass, whenever the stronger livestock conceived, that Jacob placed the rods before the eyes of the livestock in the gutters, that they might conceive among the rods.

42 But when the flocks were feeble, he did not put them in; so the feebler were Laban's and the stronger Jacob's.

43 Thus the man became exceedingly prosperous, and had large flocks, female and male servants, and camels and donkeys.

Genesis 31

Jacob Flees from Laban

1 Now Jacob heard the words of Laban's sons, saying,
"Jacob has taken away all that was our father's, and from what was our father's he has acquired all this wealth."

Trusting God

2 And Jacob saw the countenance of Laban, and indeed it was not favorable toward him as before.

3 Then the LORD said to Jacob, "Return to the land of your fathers and to your family, and I will be with you."

4 So Jacob sent and called Rachel and Leah to the field, to his flock,

5 and said to them, "I see your father's countenance, that it is not favorable toward me as before; but the God of my father has been with me.

6 "And you know that with all my might I have served your father.

7 "Yet your father has deceived me and changed my wages ten times, but God did not allow him to hurt me.

8 "If he said thus: 'The speckled shall be your wages,' then all the flocks bore speckled. And if he said thus: 'The streaked shall be your wages,' then all the flocks bore streaked.

9 "So God has taken away the livestock of your father and given them to me.

10 "And it happened, at the time when the flocks conceived, that I lifted my eyes and saw in a dream, and behold, the rams which leaped upon the flocks were streaked, speckled, and gray-spotted.

11 "Then the Angel of God spoke to me in a dream, saying,
'Jacob.' And I said, 'Here I am.'

12 “And He said, ‘Lift your eyes now and see, all the rams which leap on the flocks are streaked, speckled, and gray-spotted; for I have seen all that Laban is doing to you.
13 ‘I am the God of Bethel, where you anointed the pillar and where you made a vow to Me. Now arise, get out of this land, and return to the land of your family.” ’ 14 Then Rachel and Leah answered and said to him, “Is there still any portion or inheritance for us in our father’s house?
15 “Are we not considered strangers by him? For he has sold us, and also completely consumed our money.
16 “For all these riches which God has taken from our father are really ours and our children’s; now then, whatever God has said to you, do it.”
17 Then Jacob rose and set his sons and his wives on camels.
18 And he carried away all his livestock and all his possessions which he had gained, his acquired livestock which he had gained in Padan Aram, to go to his father Isaac in the land of Canaan.
19 Now Laban had gone to shear his sheep, and Rachel had stolen the household idols that were her father’s.
20 And Jacob stole away, unknown to Laban the Syrian, in that he did not tell him that he intended to flee.
21 So he fled with all that he had. He arose and crossed the river, and headed toward the mountains of Gilead.

Laban Pursues Jacob

22 And Laban was told on the third day that Jacob had fled.
23 Then he took his brethren with him and pursued him for seven days’ journey, and he overtook him in the mountains of Gilead.

24 But God had come to Laban the Syrian in a dream by night, and said to him, “Be careful that you speak to Jacob neither good nor bad.”
25 So Laban overtook Jacob. Now Jacob had pitched his tent in the mountains, and Laban with his brethren pitched in the mountains of Gilead.
26 And Laban said to Jacob: “What have you done, that you have stolen away unknown to me, and carried away my daughters like captives taken with the sword?
27 “Why did you flee away secretly, and steal away from me, and not tell me; for I might have sent you away with joy and songs, with timbrel and harp?
28 “And you did not allow me to kiss my sons and my daughters. Now you have done foolishly in so doing.
29 “It is in my power to do you harm, but the God of your father spoke to me last night, saying, ‘Be careful that you speak to Jacob neither good nor bad.’ 30 “And now you have surely gone because you greatly long for your father’s house, but why did you steal my gods?”
31 Then Jacob answered and said to Laban, “Because I was afraid, for I said, ‘Perhaps you would take your daughters from me by force.’
32 “With whomever you find your gods, do not let him live.
In the presence of our brethren, identify what I have of yours and take it with you.” For Jacob did not know that Rachel had stolen them.
33 And Laban went into Jacob’s tent, into Leah’s tent, and into the two maids’ tents, but he did not find them. Then he went out of Leah’s tent and entered Rachel’s tent.
34 Now Rachel had taken the household idols, put them in the camel’s saddle, and sat on them. And Laban searched all about the tent but did not find them.

35 And she said to her father, “Let it not displease my lord that I cannot rise before you, for the manner of women is with me.” And he searched but did not find the household idols.
36 Then Jacob was angry and rebuked Laban, and Jacob answered and said to Laban: “What is my trespass? What is my sin, that you have so hotly pursued me?
37 “Although you have searched all my things, what part of your household things have you found? Set it here before my brethren and your brethren, that they may judge between us both!
38 “These twenty years I have been with you; your ewes and your female goats have not miscarried their young, and I have not eaten the rams of your flock.
39 “That which was torn by beasts I did not bring to you; I bore the loss of it. You required it from my hand, whether stolen by day or stolen by night.
40 “There I was! In the day the drought consumed me, and the frost by night, and my sleep departed from my eyes.
41 “Thus I have been in your house twenty years; I served you fourteen years for your two daughters, and six years for your flock, and you have changed my wages ten times.
42 “Unless the God of my father, the God of Abraham and the Fear of Isaac, had been with me, surely now you would have sent me away empty-handed. God has seen my affliction and the labor of my hands, and rebuked you last night.”

Laban’s Covenant with Jacob

43 And Laban answered and said to Jacob, “These daughters are my daughters, and these children are my children, and this flock is my flock; all that you see is mine.
But what can I do this day to these my daughters or to their children whom they have borne?

44 “Now therefore, come, let us make a covenant, you and I, and let it be a witness between you and me.”
45 So Jacob took a stone and set it up as a pillar.
46 Then Jacob said to his brethren, “Gather stones.” And they took stones and made a heap, and they ate there on the heap.
47 Laban called it Jegar Sahadutha,[a] but Jacob called it Galeed.[b]
48 And Laban said, “This heap is a witness between you and me this day.” Therefore its name was called Galeed, 49 also Mizpah,[c] because he said, “May the LORD watch between you and me when we are absent one from another.
50 “If you afflict my daughters, or if you take other wives besides my daughters, although no man is with us—see,
God is witness between you and me!”
51 Then Laban said to Jacob, “Here is this heap and here is this pillar, which I have placed between you and me.
52 “This heap is a witness, and this pillar is a witness, that I will not pass beyond this heap to you, and you will not pass beyond this heap and this pillar to me, for harm.
53 “The God of Abraham, the God of Nahor, and the God of their father judge between us.” And Jacob swore by the Fear of his father Isaac.
54 Then Jacob offered a sacrifice on the mountain, and called his brethren to eat bread. And they ate bread and stayed all night on the mountain.
55 And early in the morning Laban arose, and kissed his sons and daughters and blessed them. Then Laban departed and returned to his place.

Genesis 32

Esau Comes to Meet Jacob

1 So Jacob went on his way, and the angels of God met him.
2 When Jacob saw them, he said, “This is God’s camp.” And he called the name of that place Mahanaim.[a]
3 Then Jacob sent messengers before him to Esau his brother in the land of Seir, the country of Edom.
4 And he commanded them, saying, “Speak thus to my lord Esau, ‘Thus your servant Jacob says: “I have dwelt with Laban and stayed there until now.
5 “I have oxen, donkeys, flocks, and male and female servants; and I have sent to tell my lord, that I may find favor in your sight.” ’ ”
6 Then the messengers returned to Jacob, saying, “We came to your brother Esau, and he also is coming to meet you, and four hundred men are with him.” Unexpected Good
7 So Jacob was greatly afraid and distressed; and he divided the people that were with him, and the flocks and herds and camels, into two companies.
8 And he said, “If Esau comes to the one company and attacks it, then the other company which is left will escape.”
9 Then Jacob said, “O God of my father Abraham and God of my father Isaac, the LORD who said to me, ‘Return to your country and to your family, and I will deal well with you’:
10 “I am not worthy of the least of all the mercies and of all the truth which You have shown Your servant; for I crossed over this Jordan with my staff, and now I have become two companies.

11 “Deliver me, I pray, from the hand of my brother, from the hand of Esau; for I fear him, lest he come and attack me and the mother with the children.
12 “For You said, ‘I will surely treat you well, and make your descendants as the sand of the sea, which cannot be numbered for multitude.” ’ 13 So he lodged there that same night, and took what came to his hand as a present for Esau his brother:
14 two hundred female goats and twenty male goats, two hundred ewes and twenty rams, 15 thirty milk camels with their colts, forty cows and ten bulls, twenty female donkeys and ten foals.
16 Then he delivered them to the hand of his servants, every drove by itself, and said to his servants, “Pass over before me, and put some distance between successive droves.”
17 And he commanded the first one, saying, “When Esau my brother meets you and asks you, saying, ‘To whom do you belong, and where are you going? Whose are these in front of you?’
18 “then you shall say, ‘They are your servant Jacob’s. It is a present sent to my lord Esau; and behold, he also is behind us.” ’
19 So he commanded the second, the third, and all who followed the droves, saying, “In this manner you shall speak to Esau when you find him;
20 “and also say, ‘Behold, your servant Jacob is behind us.” ’ For he said, “I will appease him with the present that goes before me, and afterward I will see his face; perhaps he will accept me.”
21 So the present went on over before him, but he himself lodged that night in the camp.

Wrestling with God

22And he arose that night and took his two wives, his two female servants, and his eleven sons, and crossed over the ford of Jabbok.

23He took them, sent them over the brook, and sent over what he had.

24Then Jacob was left alone; and a Man wrestled with him until the breaking of day.

25Now when He saw that He did not prevail against him, He touched the socket of his hip; and the socket of Jacob's hip was out of joint as He wrestled with him.

26And He said, "Let Me go, for the day breaks." But he said, "I will not let You go unless You bless me!"

27So He said to him, "What is your name?" He said, "Jacob."

28And He said, "Your name shall no longer be called Jacob, but Israel;[b] for you have struggled with God and with men, and have prevailed."

29Then Jacob asked, saying, "Tell me Your name, I pray." And He said, "Why is it that you ask about My name?" And He blessed him there.

30So Jacob called the name of the place Peniel:[c] "For I have seen God face to face, and my life is preserved."

31Just as he crossed over Penuel[d] the sun rose on him, and he limped on his hip.

32Therefore to this day the children of Israel do not eat the muscle that shrank, which is on the hip socket, because He touched the socket of Jacob's hip in the muscle that shrank.

Genesis 33

Jacob and Esau Meet

1 Now Jacob lifted his eyes and looked, and there, Esau was coming, and with him were four hundred men. So he divided the children among Leah, Rachel, and the two maidservants.
2 And he put the maidservants and their children in front,
Leah and her children behind, and Rachel and Joseph last.
3 Then he crossed over before them and bowed himself to the ground seven times, until he came near to his brother.
4 But Esau ran to meet him, and embraced him, and fell on his neck and kissed him, and they wept.
5 And he lifted his eyes and saw the women and children, and said, "Who are these with you?" So he said, "The children whom God has graciously given your servant."
6 Then the maidservants came near, they and their children, and bowed down.
7 And Leah also came near with her children, and they bowed down. Afterward Joseph and Rachel came near, and they bowed down.
8 Then Esau said, "What do you mean by all this company which I met?" And he said, "These are to find favor in the sight of my lord."
9 But Esau said, "I have enough, my brother; keep what you have for yourself."
10 And Jacob said, "No, please, if I have now found favor in your sight, then receive my present from my hand, inasmuch as I have seen your face as though I had seen the face of God, and you were pleased with me.
11 "Please, take my blessing that is brought to you, because God has dealt graciously with me, and because I have enough.” So he urged him, and he took it.

12Then Esau said, “Let us take our journey; let us go, and I will go before you.”

13But Jacob said to him, “My lord knows that the children are weak, and the flocks and herds which are nursing are with me. And if the men should drive them hard one day, all the flock will die.

14“Please let my lord go on ahead before his servant. I will lead on slowly at a pace which the livestock that go before me, and the children, are able to endure, until I come to my lord in Seir.”

15And Esau said, “Now let me leave with you some of the people who are with me.” But he said, “What need is there? Let me find favor in the sight of my lord.”

16So Esau returned that day on his way to Seir.

17And Jacob journeyed to Succoth, built himself a house, and made booths for his livestock. Therefore the name of the place is called Succoth.[a]

Jacob Comes to Canaan

18Then Jacob came safely to the city of Shechem, which is in the land of Canaan, when he came from Padan Aram; and he pitched his tent before the city.

19And he bought the parcel of land, where he had pitched his tent, from the children of Hamor, Shechem’s father, for one hundred pieces of money.

20Then he erected an altar there and called it El Elohe Israel.[b]

Genesis 34

The Dinah Incident

1 Now Dinah the daughter of Leah, whom she had borne to Jacob, went out to see the daughters of the land.
2 And when Shechem the son of Hamor the Hivite, prince of the country, saw her, he took her and lay with her, and violated her. Manage Your Passion
3 His soul was strongly attracted to Dinah the daughter of Jacob, and he loved the young woman and spoke kindly to the young woman.
4 So Shechem spoke to his father Hamor, saying, "Get me this young woman as a wife."
5 And Jacob heard that he had defiled Dinah his daughter.
Now his sons were with his livestock in the field; so Jacob held his peace until they came.
6 Then Hamor the father of Shechem went out to Jacob to speak with him.
7 And the sons of Jacob came in from the field when they heard it; and the men were grieved and very angry, because he had done a disgraceful thing in Israel by lying with Jacob's daughter, a thing which ought not to be done.
8 But Hamor spoke with them, saying, "The soul of my son Shechem longs for your daughter. Please give her to him as a wife.
9 "And make marriages with us; give your daughters to us,
and take our daughters to yourselves.
10 "So you shall dwell with us, and the land shall be before you. Dwell and trade in it, and acquire possessions for yourselves in it." 11 Then Shechem said to her father and her brothers, "Let me find favor in your eyes, and whatever you say to me I will give.

12 “Ask me ever so much dowry and gift, and I will give according to what you say to me; but give me the young woman as a wife.”
13 But the sons of Jacob answered Shechem and Hamor his father, and spoke deceitfully, because he had defiled Dinah their sister.
14 And they said to them, “We cannot do this thing, to give our sister to one who is uncircumcised, for that would be a reproach to us.
15 “But on this condition we will consent to you: If you will become as we are, if every male of you is circumcised, 16 “then we will give our daughters to you, and we will take your daughters to us; and we will dwell with you, and we will become one people.
17 “But if you will not heed us and be circumcised, then we will take our daughter and be gone.”
18 And their words pleased Hamor and Shechem, Hamor’s son.
19 So the young man did not delay to do the thing, because he delighted in Jacob’s daughter. He was more honorable than all the household of his father.
20 And Hamor and Shechem his son came to the gate of their city, and spoke with the men of their city, saying: 21 “These men are at peace with us. Therefore let them dwell in the land and trade in it. For indeed the land is large enough for them. Let us take their daughters to us as wives, and let us give them our daughters.
22 “Only on this condition will the men consent to dwell with us, to be one people: if every male among us is circumcised as they are circumcised.
23 “Will not their livestock, their property, and every animal of theirs be ours? Only let us consent to them, and they will dwell with us.”

[24]And all who went out of the gate of his city heeded Hamor and Shechem his son; every male was circumcised, all who went out of the gate of his city.

25Now it came to pass on the third day, when they were in pain, that two of the sons of Jacob, Simeon and Levi, Dinah's brothers, each took his sword and came boldly upon the city and killed all the males.

[26]And they killed Hamor and Shechem his son with the edge of the sword, and took Dinah from Shechem's house, and went out.

[27]The sons of Jacob came upon the slain, and plundered the city, because their sister had been defiled.

[28]They took their sheep, their oxen, and their donkeys, what was in the city and what was in the field,

[29]and all their wealth. All their little ones and their wives they took captive; and they plundered even all that was in the houses.

[30]Then Jacob said to Simeon and Levi, "You have troubled me by making me obnoxious among the inhabitants of the land, among the Canaanites and the Perizzites; and since I am few in number, they will gather themselves together against me and kill me. I shall be destroyed, my household and I."

[31]But they said, "Should he treat our sister like a harlot?"

Genesis 35

Jacob's Return to Bethel

1 Then God said to Jacob, "Arise, go up to Bethel and dwell there; and make an altar there to God, who appeared to you when you fled from the face of Esau your brother." 2 And Jacob said to his household and to all who were with him, "Put away the foreign gods that are among you, purify yourselves, and change your garments.
3 "Then let us arise and go up to Bethel; and I will make an altar there to God, who answered me in the day of my distress and has been with me in the way which I have gone."
4 So they gave Jacob all the foreign gods which were in their hands, and the earrings which were in their ears; and Jacob hid them under the terebinth tree which was by Shechem.
5 And they journeyed, and the terror of God was upon the cities that were all around them, and they did not pursue the sons of Jacob.
6 So Jacob came to Luz (that is, Bethel), which is in the land of Canaan, he and all the people who were with him.
7 And he built an altar there and called the place El Bethel,[a] because there God appeared to him when he fled from the face of his brother.
8 Now Deborah, Rebekah's nurse, died, and she was buried below Bethel under the terebinth tree. So the name of it was called Allon Bachuth.[b] 9 Then God appeared to Jacob again, when he came from Padan Aram, and blessed him.
10 And God said to him, "Your name is Jacob; your name shall not be called Jacob anymore, but Israel shall be your name.” So He called his name Israel.

11 Also God said to him: “I am God Almighty. Be fruitful and multiply; a nation and a company of nations shall proceed from you, and kings shall come from your body.

12 “The land which I gave Abraham and Isaac I give to you; and to your descendants after you I give this land.”

13 Then God went up from him in the place where He talked with him.

14 So Jacob set up a pillar in the place where He talked with him, a pillar of stone; and he poured a drink offering on it, and he poured oil on it.

15 And Jacob called the name of the place where God spoke with him, Bethel.

Death of Rachel

16 Then they journeyed from Bethel. And when there was but a little distance to go to Ephrath, Rachel labored in childbirth, and she had hard labor.

17 Now it came to pass, when she was in hard labor, that the midwife said to her, “Do not fear; you will have this son also.”

18 And so it was, as her soul was departing (for she died), that she called his name Ben-Oni;[c] but his father called him Benjamin.[d] Benjamin

19 So Rachel died and was buried on the way to Ephrath (that is, Bethlehem).

20 And Jacob set a pillar on her grave, which is the pillar of Rachel’s grave to this day.

21 Then Israel journeyed and pitched his tent beyond the tower of Eder.

22 And it happened, when Israel dwelt in that land, that Reuben went and lay with Bilhah his father’s concubine;
and Israel heard about it.

Jacob's Twelve Sons

Now the sons of Jacob were twelve:

23 the sons of Leah were Reuben, Jacob's firstborn, and Simeon, Levi, Judah, Issachar, and Zebulun;

24 the sons of Rachel were Joseph and Benjamin;

25 the sons of Bilhah, Rachel's maidservant, were Dan and Naphtali;

26 and the sons of Zilpah, Leah's maidservant, were Gad and Asher. These were the sons of Jacob who were born to him in Padan Aram.

Death of Isaac

27 Then Jacob came to his father Isaac at Mamre, or Kirjath Arba[e] (that is, Hebron), where Abraham and Isaac had dwelt.

28 Now the days of Isaac were one hundred and eighty years.

29 So Isaac breathed his last and died, and was gathered to his people, being old and full of days. And his sons Esau and Jacob buried him.

Genesis 36

The Family of Esau

1 Now this is the genealogy of Esau, who is Edom.

2 Esau took his wives from the daughters of Canaan: Adah
the daughter of Elon the Hittite; Aholibamah the daughter of Anah, the daughter of Zibeon the Hivite;

3 and Basemath, Ishmael's daughter, sister of Nebajoth.

4 Now Adah bore Eliphaz to Esau, and Basemath bore Reuel.

5 And Aholibamah bore Jeush, Jaalam, and Korah. These were the sons of Esau who were born to him in the land of Canaan.

6 Then Esau took his wives, his sons, his daughters, and all the persons of his household, his cattle and all his animals, and all his goods which he had gained in the land of Canaan, and went to a country away from the presence of his brother Jacob.

7 For their possessions were too great for them to dwell together, and the land where they were strangers could not support them because of their livestock.

8 So Esau dwelt in Mount Seir. Esau is Edom. Edom

9 And this is the genealogy of Esau the father of the Edomites in Mount Seir. The Edomites: Perpetual Enemies of the Israelites

10 These were the names of Esau's sons: Eliphaz the son of Adah the wife of Esau, and Reuel the son of Basemath
the wife of Esau.

11 And the sons of Eliphaz were Teman, Omar, Zepho,[a] Gatam, and Kenaz.

12 Now Timna was the concubine of Eliphaz, Esau's son, and she bore Amalek to Eliphaz. These were the sons of Adah, Esau's wife.

13These were the sons of Reuel: Nahath, Zerah, Shammah, and Mizzah. These were the sons of Basemath, Esau's wife.

14These were the sons of Aholibamah, Esau's wife, the daughter of Anah, the daughter of Zibeon. And she bore to Esau: Jeush, Jaalam, and Korah.

The Chiefs of Edom

15These were the chiefs of the sons of Esau. The sons of Eliphaz, the firstborn son of Esau, were Chief Teman, Chief Omar, Chief Zepho, Chief Kenaz, 16Chief Korah,[b] Chief Gatam, and Chief Amalek. These were the chiefs of Eliphaz in the land of Edom. They were the sons of Adah.

17These were the sons of Reuel, Esau's son: Chief Nahath, Chief Zerah, Chief Shammah, and Chief Mizzah. These were the chiefs of Reuel in the land of Edom. These were the sons of Basemath, Esau's wife.

18And these were the sons of Aholibamah, Esau's wife: Chief Jeush, Chief Jaalam, and Chief Korah. These were the chiefs who descended from Aholibamah, Esau's wife, the daughter of Anah.

19These were the sons of Esau, who is Edom, and these were their chiefs.

The Sons of Seir

20These were the sons of Seir the Horite who inhabited the land: Lotan, Shobal, Zibeon, Anah, 21Dishon, Ezer, and Dishan. These were the chiefs of the Horites, the sons of Seir, in the land of Edom.

22And the sons of Lotan were Hori and Hemam.[c] Lotan's sister was Timna.

23These were the sons of Shobal: Alvan,[d] Manahath, Ebal, Shepho,[e] and Onam.
24These were the sons of Zibeon: both Ajah and Anah. This was the Anah who found the water[f] in the wilderness as he pastured the donkeys of his father Zibeon.
25These were the children of Anah: Dishon and Aholibamah the daughter of Anah.
26These were the sons of Dishon:[g] Hemdan,[h] Eshban, Ithran, and Cheran.
27These were the sons of Ezer: Bilhan, Zaavan, and Akan.[i] 28These were the sons of Dishan: Uz and Aran.
29These were the chiefs of the Horites: Chief Lotan, Chief Shobal, Chief Zibeon, Chief Anah, 30Chief Dishon, Chief Ezer, and Chief Dishan. These were the chiefs of the Horites, according to their chiefs in the land of Seir.

The Kings of Edom

31Now these were the kings who reigned in the land of Edom before any king reigned over the children of Israel:
32Bela the son of Beor reigned in Edom, and the name of his city was Dinhabah.
33And when Bela died, Jobab the son of Zerah of Bozrah reigned in his place.
34When Jobab died, Husham of the land of the Temanites reigned in his place.
35And when Husham died, Hadad the son of Bedad, who attacked Midian in the field of Moab, reigned in his place. And the name of his city was Avith.
36When Hadad died, Samlah of Masrekah reigned in his place.

37 And when Samlah died, Saul of Rehoboth-by-the-River reigned in his place.
38 When Saul died, Baal-Hanan the son of Achbor reigned in his place.
39 And when Baal-Hanan the son of Achbor died, Hadar[j] reigned in his place; and the name of his city was Pau.[k] His wife's name was Mehetabel, the daughter of Matred, the daughter of Mezahab.

The Chiefs of Esau

40 And these were the names of the chiefs of Esau, according to their families and their places, by their names:
Chief Timnah, Chief Alvah,[l] Chief Jetheth, 41 Chief Aholibamah, Chief Elah, Chief Pinon, 42 Chief Kenaz, Chief Teman, Chief Mibzar, 43 Chief Magdiel, and Chief Iram. These were the chiefs of Edom, according to their dwelling places in the land of their possession. Esau was the father of the Edomites.

Genesis 37

Joseph Dreams of Greatness

1 Now Jacob dwelt in the land where his father was a stranger, in the land of Canaan.
2 This is the history of Jacob. Joseph, being seventeen years old, was feeding the flock with his brothers. And the lad was with the sons of Bilhah and the sons of Zilpah, his father's wives; and Joseph brought a bad report of them to his father.
3 Now Israel loved Joseph more than all his children, because he was the son of his old age. Also he made him a tunic of many colors. Joseph 4 But when his brothers saw that their father loved him more than all his brothers, they hated him and could not speak peaceably to him.
5 Now Joseph had a dream, and he told it to his brothers;
and they hated him even more.
6 So he said to them, "Please hear this dream which I have dreamed:
7 "There we were, binding sheaves in the field. Then behold, my sheaf arose and also stood upright; and indeed your sheaves stood all around and bowed down to my sheaf."
8 And his brothers said to him, "Shall you indeed reign over us? Or shall you indeed have dominion over us?" So they hated him even more for his dreams and for his words.
9 Then he dreamed still another dream and told it to his brothers, and said, "Look, I have dreamed another dream.
And this time, the sun, the moon, and the eleven stars bowed down to me."

10 So he told it to his father and his brothers; and his father rebuked him and said to him, “What is this dream that you have dreamed? Shall your mother and I and your brothers indeed come to bow down to the earth before
you?”
11 And his brothers envied him, but his father kept the matter in mind. Sin Passed Through Generations

Joseph Sold by His Brothers

12 Then his brothers went to feed their father’s flock in Shechem.
13 And Israel said to Joseph, “Are not your brothers feeding the flock in Shechem? Come, I will send you to them.” So he said to him, “Here I am.” 14 Then he said to him, “Please go and see if it is well with your brothers and well with the flocks, and bring back word to me.” So he sent him out of the Valley of Hebron, and he went to Shechem.
15 Now a certain man found him, and there he was, wandering in the field. And the man asked him, saying,
“What are you seeking?”
16 So he said, “I am seeking my brothers. Please tell me where they are feeding their flocks.” 17 And the man said, “They have departed from here, for I heard them say, ‘Let us go to Dothan.” ’ So Joseph went after his brothers and found them in Dothan.
18 Now when they saw him afar off, even before he came near them, they conspired against him to kill him.
19 Then they said to one another, “Look, this dreamer is coming!
20 “Come therefore, let us now kill him and cast him into some pit; and we shall say, ‘Some wild beast has devoured him.’ We shall see what will become of his dreams!”

21 But Reuben heard it, and he delivered him out of their hands, and said, “Let us not kill him.” Reuben 22 And Reuben said to them, “Shed no blood, but cast him into this pit which is in the wilderness, and do not lay a hand on him”—that he might deliver him out of their hands, and bring him back to his father.
23 So it came to pass, when Joseph had come to his brothers, that they stripped Joseph of his tunic, the tunic of many colors that was on him.
24 Then they took him and cast him into a pit. And the pit was empty; there was no water in it.
25 And they sat down to eat a meal. Then they lifted their eyes and looked, and there was a company of Ishmaelites, coming from Gilead with their camels, bearing spices, balm, and myrrh, on their way to carry them down to Egypt.
26 So Judah said to his brothers, “What profit is there if we kill our brother and conceal his blood? Judah 27 “Come and let us sell him to the Ishmaelites, and let not our hand be upon him, for he is our brother and our flesh.” And his brothers listened.
28 Then Midianite traders passed by; so the brothers pulled Joseph up and lifted him out of the pit, and sold him to the Ishmaelites for twenty shekels of silver. And they took Joseph to Egypt.
29 Then Reuben returned to the pit, and indeed Joseph was not in the pit; and he tore his clothes.
30 And he returned to his brothers and said, “The lad is no more; and I, where shall I go?”
31 So they took Joseph’s tunic, killed a kid of the goats, and dipped the tunic in the blood.
32 Then they sent the tunic of many colors, and they brought it to their father and said, “We have found this. Do you know whether it is your son’s tunic or not?”

[33]And he recognized it and said, “It is my son’s tunic. A wild beast has devoured him. Without doubt Joseph is torn to pieces.”

[35]And all his sons and all his daughters arose to comfort him; but he refused to be comforted, and he said, “For I shall go down into the grave to my son in mourning.” Thus his father wept for him.

[36]Now the Midianites[a] had sold him in Egypt to Potiphar, an officer of Pharaoh and captain of the guard.

Genesis 38

Judah and Tamar

1It came to pass at that time that Judah departed from his brothers, and visited a certain Adullamite whose name was Hirah.
2And Judah saw there a daughter of a certain Canaanite whose name was Shua, and he married her and went in to her.
3So she conceived and bore a son, and he called his name
Er.
4She conceived again and bore a son, and she called his name Onan.
5And she conceived yet again and bore a son, and called his name Shelah. He was at Chezib when she bore him.
6Then Judah took a wife for Er his firstborn, and her name was Tamar. Tamar 7But Er, Judah's firstborn, was wicked in the sight of the LORD, and the LORD killed him.
8And Judah said to Onan, "Go in to your brother's wife and marry her, and raise up an heir to your brother." 9But Onan knew that the heir would not be his; and it came to pass, when he went in to his brother's wife, that he emitted on the ground, lest he should give an heir to his brother.
10And the thing which he did displeased the LORD;
therefore He killed him also.
11Then Judah said to Tamar his daughter-in-law, "Remain a widow in your father's house till my son Shelah is grown."
For he said, "Lest he also die like his brothers." And Tamar went and dwelt in her father's house.

12Now in the process of time the daughter of Shua, Judah's wife, died; and Judah was comforted, and went up to his sheepshearers at Timnah, he and his friend Hirah the Adullamite.

13And it was told Tamar, saying, "Look, your father-in-law is going up to Timnah to shear his sheep."

14So she took off her widow's garments, covered herself with a veil and wrapped herself, and sat in an open place which was on the way to Timnah; for she saw that Shelah was grown, and she was not given to him as a wife.

15When Judah saw her, he thought she was a harlot, because she had covered her face.

16Then he turned to her by the way, and said, "Please let me come in to you"; for he did not know that she was his daughter-in-law. So she said, "What will you give me, that you may come in to me?"

17And he said, "I will send a young goat from the flock." So she said, "Will you give me a pledge till you send it?"

18Then he said, "What pledge shall I give you?" So she said, "Your signet and cord, and your staff that is in your hand." Then he gave them to her, and went in to her, and she conceived by him.

19So she arose and went away, and laid aside her veil and put on the garments of her widowhood.

20And Judah sent the young goat by the hand of his friend the Adullamite, to receive his pledge from the woman's hand, but he did not find her.

21Then he asked the men of that place, saying, "Where is the harlot who was openly by the roadside?" And they said, "There was no harlot in this place."

22So he returned to Judah and said, "I cannot find her. Also, the men of the place said there was no harlot in this place."

23 Then Judah said, “Let her take them for herself, lest we be shamed; for I sent this young goat and you have not found her.”
24 And it came to pass, about three months after, that Judah was told, saying, “Tamar your daughter-in-law has played the harlot; furthermore she is with child by harlotry.” So Judah said, “Bring her out and let her be burned!”
25 When she was brought out, she sent to her father-in-law, saying, “By the man to whom these belong, I am with child.” And she said, “Please determine whose these are— the signet and cord, and staff.” 26 So Judah acknowledged them and said, “She has been more righteous than I, because I did not give her to Shelah my son.” And he never knew her again.
27 Now it came to pass, at the time for giving birth, that behold, twins were in her womb.
28 And so it was, when she was giving birth, that the one put out his hand; and the midwife took a scarlet thread and bound it on his hand, saying, “This one came out first.” 29 Then it happened, as he drew back his hand, that his brother came out unexpectedly; and she said, “How did you break through? This breach be upon you!” Therefore his name was called Perez.[a] 30 Afterward his brother came out who had the scarlet thread on his hand. And his name was called Zerah.

Genesis 39

Joseph a Slave in Egypt

1 Now Joseph had been taken down to Egypt. And Potiphar, an officer of Pharaoh, captain of the guard, an Egyptian, bought him from the Ishmaelites who had taken him down
there. Potiphar

2 The LORD was with Joseph, and he was a successful man; and he was in the house of his master the Egyptian.

3 And his master saw that the LORD was with him and that the LORD made all he did to prosper in his hand.

4 So Joseph found favor in his sight, and served him. Then he made him overseer of his house, and all that he had he put under his authority. Joseph the Manager

5 So it was, from the time that he had made him overseer of his house and all that he had, that the LORD blessed the Egyptian's house for Joseph's sake; and the blessing of the LORD was on all that he had in the house and in the field.

6 Thus he left all that he had in Joseph's hand, and he did not know what he had except for the bread which he ate.
Now Joseph was handsome in form and appearance.

7 And it came to pass after these things that his master's wife cast longing eyes on Joseph, and she said, "Lie with me."

8 But he refused and said to his master's wife, "Look, my master does not know what is with me in the house, and he has committed all that he has to my hand.

9 "There is no one greater in this house than I, nor has he kept back anything from me but you, because you are his wife. How then can I do this great wickedness, and sin against God?"

10So it was, as she spoke to Joseph day by day, that he did not heed her, to lie with her or to be with her.

11But it happened about this time, when Joseph went into the house to do his work, and none of the men of the house was inside, 12that she caught him by his garment, saying, “Lie with me.” But he left his garment in her hand, and fled and ran outside.

13And so it was, when she saw that he had left his garment in her hand and fled outside,

14that she called to the men of her house and spoke to them, saying, “See, he has brought in to us a Hebrew to mock us. He came in to me to lie with me, and I cried out with a loud voice.

15“And it happened, when he heard that I lifted my voice and cried out, that he left his garment with me, and fled and went outside.”

16So she kept his garment with her until his master came home.

17Then she spoke to him with words like these, saying, “The Hebrew servant whom you brought to us came in to me to mock me;

18“so it happened, as I lifted my voice and cried out, that he left his garment with me and fled outside.”

19So it was, when his master heard the words which his wife spoke to him, saying, “Your servant did to me after this manner,” that his anger was aroused.

20Then Joseph’s master took him and put him into the prison, a place where the king’s prisoners were confined. And he was there in the prison. Excellence Works Anywhere

21But the LORD was with Joseph and showed him mercy, and He gave him favor in the sight of the keeper of the prison.

22 And the keeper of the prison committed to Joseph's hand all the prisoners who were in the prison; whatever they did there, it was his doing.
23 The keeper of the prison did not look into anything that was under Joseph's[a] authority, because the LORD was with him; and whatever he did, the LORD made it prosper.

Genesis 40

The Prisoners' Dreams

1 It came to pass after these things that the butler and the baker of the king of Egypt offended their lord, the king of Egypt.
2 And Pharaoh was angry with his two officers, the chief butler and the chief baker. The Butler
3 So he put them in custody in the house of the captain of the guard, in the prison, the place where Joseph was confined.
4 And the captain of the guard charged Joseph with them, and he served them; so they were in custody for a while.
5 Then the butler and the baker of the king of Egypt, who were confined in the prison, had a dream, both of them, each man's dream in one night and each man's dream with its own interpretation.
6 And Joseph came in to them in the morning and looked at them, and saw that they were sad.
7 So he asked Pharaoh's officers who were with him in the custody of his lord's house, saying, "Why do you look so sad today?"
8 And they said to him, "We each have had a dream, and there is no interpreter of it." So Joseph said to them, "Do not interpretations belong to God? Tell them to me, please." 9 Then the chief butler told his dream to Joseph, and said to him, "Behold, in my dream a vine was before me, 10 "and in the vine were three branches; it was as though it budded, its blossoms shot forth, and its clusters brought forth ripe grapes.
11 "Then Pharaoh's cup was in my hand; and I took the grapes and pressed them into Pharaoh's cup, and placed the cup in Pharaoh's hand."

12 And Joseph said to him, "This is the interpretation of it: The three branches are three days.

13 "Now within three days Pharaoh will lift up your head and restore you to your place, and you will put Pharaoh's cup in his hand according to the former manner, when you were his butler.

14 "But remember me when it is well with you, and please show kindness to me; make mention of me to Pharaoh, and get me out of this house.

15 "For indeed I was stolen away from the land of the Hebrews; and also I have done nothing here that they should put me into the dungeon."

16 When the chief baker saw that the interpretation was good, he said to Joseph, "I also was in my dream, and there were three white baskets on my head.

17 "In the uppermost basket were all kinds of baked goods for Pharaoh, and the birds ate them out of the basket on my head."

18 So Joseph answered and said, "This is the interpretation of it: The three baskets are three days.

19 "Within three days Pharaoh will lift off your head from you and hang you on a tree; and the birds will eat your flesh from you."

20 Now it came to pass on the third day, which was Pharaoh's birthday, that he made a feast for all his servants; and he lifted up the head of the chief butler and of the chief baker among his servants.

21 Then he restored the chief butler to his butlership again, and he placed the cup in Pharaoh's hand.

22 But he hanged the chief baker, as Joseph had interpreted to them.

23 Yet the chief butler did not remember Joseph, but forgot him. Follow Through

Genesis 41

Pharaoh's Dreams

1 Then it came to pass, at the end of two full years, that Pharaoh had a dream; and behold, he stood by the river.
2 Suddenly there came up out of the river seven cows, fine looking and fat; and they fed in the meadow.
3 Then behold, seven other cows came up after them out of the river, ugly and gaunt, and stood by the other cows on the bank of the river.
4 And the ugly and gaunt cows ate up the seven fine looking and fat cows. So Pharaoh awoke.
5 He slept and dreamed a second time; and suddenly seven heads of grain came up on one stalk, plump and good.
6 Then behold, seven thin heads, blighted by the east wind, sprang up after them.
7 And the seven thin heads devoured the seven plump and full heads. So Pharaoh awoke, and indeed, it was a dream.
8 Now it came to pass in the morning that his spirit was troubled, and he sent and called for all the magicians of Egypt and all its wise men. And Pharaoh told them his dreams, but there was no one who could interpret them for Pharaoh. Pharaoh's Dilemma
9 Then the chief butler spoke to Pharaoh, saying: "I remember my faults this day.
10 "When Pharaoh was angry with his servants, and put me in custody in the house of the captain of the guard, both me and the chief baker, 11 "we each had a dream in one night, he and I. Each of us dreamed according to the interpretation of his own dream.

12 “Now there was a young Hebrew man with us there, a servant of the captain of the guard. And we told him, and he interpreted our dreams for us; to each man he interpreted according to his own dream.
13 “And it came to pass, just as he interpreted for us, so it happened. He restored me to my office, and he hanged
him.”
14 Then Pharaoh sent and called Joseph, and they brought him quickly out of the dungeon; and he shaved, changed his clothing, and came to Pharaoh.
15 And Pharaoh said to Joseph, “I have had a dream, and there is no one who can interpret it. But I have heard it said of you that you can understand a dream, to interpret
it.”
16 So Joseph answered Pharaoh, saying, “It is not in me;
God will give Pharaoh an answer of peace.”
17 Then Pharaoh said to Joseph: “Behold, in my dream I stood on the bank of the river.
18 “Suddenly seven cows came up out of the river, fine
looking and fat; and they fed in the meadow.
19 “Then behold, seven other cows came up after them, poor and very ugly and gaunt, such ugliness as I have never seen in all the land of Egypt.
20 “And the gaunt and ugly cows ate up the first seven, the fat cows.
21 “When they had eaten them up, no one would have known that they had eaten them, for they were just as ugly as at the beginning. So I awoke.
22 “Also I saw in my dream, and suddenly seven heads came up on one stalk, full and good.
23 “Then behold, seven heads, withered, thin, and blighted by the east wind, sprang up after them.
24 “And the thin heads devoured the seven good heads. So I told this to the magicians, but there was no one who could explain it to me.”

25 Then Joseph said to Pharaoh, “The dreams of Pharaoh are one; God has shown Pharaoh what He is about to do:

26 “The seven good cows are seven years, and the seven good heads are seven years; the dreams are one.

27 “And the seven thin and ugly cows which came up after them are seven years, and the seven empty heads blighted by the east wind are seven years of famine.

28 “This is the thing which I have spoken to Pharaoh. God has shown Pharaoh what He is about to do.

29 “Indeed seven years of great plenty will come throughout all the land of Egypt;

30 “but after them seven years of famine will arise, and all the plenty will be forgotten in the land of Egypt; and the famine will deplete the land.

31 “So the plenty will not be known in the land because of the famine following, for it will be very severe.

32 “And the dream was repeated to Pharaoh twice because the thing is established by God, and God will shortly bring it to pass.

33 “Now therefore, let Pharaoh select a discerning and wise man, and set him over the land of Egypt.

34 “Let Pharaoh do this, and let him appoint officers over the land, to collect one-fifth of the produce of the land of Egypt in the seven plentiful years.

35 “And let them gather all the food of those good years that are coming, and store up grain under the authority of Pharaoh, and let them keep food in the cities.

36 “Then that food shall be as a reserve for the land for the seven years of famine which shall be in the land of Egypt, that the land may not perish during the famine.”

Joseph’s Rise to Power

37So the advice was good in the eyes of Pharaoh and in the eyes of all his servants.

38And Pharaoh said to his servants, “Can we find such a one as this, a man in whom is the Spirit of God?”

39Then Pharaoh said to Joseph, “Inasmuch as God has shown you all this, there is no one as discerning and wise as you.

40“You shall be over my house, and all my people shall be ruled according to your word; only in regard to the throne will I be greater than you.”

41And Pharaoh said to Joseph, “See, I have set you over all the land of Egypt.”

42Then Pharaoh took his signet ring off his hand and put it on Joseph’s hand; and he clothed him in garments of fine linen and put a gold chain around his neck. Work in the Real World

43And he had him ride in the second chariot which he had; and they cried out before him, “Bow the knee!” So he set him over all the land of Egypt.

44Pharaoh also said to Joseph, “I am Pharaoh, and without your consent no man may lift his hand or foot in all the land of Egypt.”

45And Pharaoh called Joseph’s name Zaphnath-Paaneah. And he gave him as a wife Asenath, the daughter of Poti-Pherah priest of On. So Joseph went out over all the land of Egypt.

46Joseph was thirty years old when he stood before Pharaoh king of Egypt. And Joseph went out from the presence of Pharaoh, and went throughout all the land of Egypt.

47Now in the seven plentiful years the ground brought forth abundantly.

48So he gathered up all the food of the seven years which were in the land of Egypt, and laid up the food in the cities;

he laid up in every city the food of the fields which surrounded them.

49 Joseph gathered very much grain, as the sand of the sea, until he stopped counting, for it was immeasurable.

50 And to Joseph were born two sons before the years of famine came, whom Asenath, the daughter of Poti-Pherah priest of On, bore to him.

51 Joseph called the name of the firstborn Manasseh:[a] "For God has made me forget all my toil and all my father's house."

52 And the name of the second he called Ephraim:[b] "For God has caused me to be fruitful in the land of my affliction."

53 Then the seven years of plenty which were in the land of Egypt ended,

54 and the seven years of famine began to come, as Joseph had said. The famine was in all lands, but in all the land of Egypt there was bread.

55 So when all the land of Egypt was famished, the people cried to Pharaoh for bread. Then Pharaoh said to all the Egyptians, "Go to Joseph; whatever he says to you, do."

56 The famine was over all the face of the earth, and Joseph opened all the storehouses[c] and sold to the Egyptians. And the famine became severe in the land of Egypt.

57 So all countries came to Joseph in Egypt to buy grain, because the famine was severe in all lands. Feeding the World

Genesis 42

Joseph's Brothers Go to Egypt

1 When Jacob saw that there was grain in Egypt, Jacob said to his sons, "Why do you look at one another?"
2 And he said, "Indeed I have heard that there is grain in Egypt; go down to that place and buy for us there, that we may live and not die."
3 So Joseph's ten brothers went down to buy grain in Egypt.
4 But Jacob did not send Joseph's brother Benjamin with his brothers, for he said, "Lest some calamity befall him." 5 And the sons of Israel went to buy grain among those who journeyed, for the famine was in the land of Canaan.
6 Now Joseph was governor over the land; and it was he who sold to all the people of the land. And Joseph's brothers came and bowed down before him with their faces to the earth.
7 Joseph saw his brothers and recognized them, but he acted as a stranger to them and spoke roughly to them.
Then he said to them, "Where do you come from?" And they said, "From the land of Canaan to buy food." 8 So Joseph recognized his brothers, but they did not recognize him.
9 Then Joseph remembered the dreams which he had dreamed about them, and said to them, "You are spies! You have come to see the nakedness of the land!" 10 And they said to him, "No, my lord, but your servants have come to buy food.
11 "We are all one man's sons; we are honest men; your servants are not spies."

12 But he said to them, “No, but you have come to see the nakedness of the land.”
13 And they said, “Your servants are twelve brothers, the sons of one man in the land of Canaan; and in fact, the youngest is with our father today, and one is no more.” 14 But Joseph said to them, “It is as I spoke to you, saying,
‘You are spies!’
15 “In this manner you shall be tested: By the life of Pharaoh, you shall not leave this place unless your youngest brother comes here.
16 “Send one of you, and let him bring your brother; and you shall be kept in prison, that your words may be tested to see whether there is any truth in you; or else, by the life of Pharaoh, surely you are spies!”
17 So he put them all together in prison three days.
18 Then Joseph said to them the third day, “Do this and live, for I fear God:
19 “If you are honest men, let one of your brothers be confined to your prison house; but you, go and carry grain for the famine of your houses.
20 “And bring your youngest brother to me; so your words will be verified, and you shall not die.” And they did so.
21 Then they said to one another, “We are truly guilty concerning our brother, for we saw the anguish of his soul when he pleaded with us, and we would not hear; therefore this distress has come upon us.” 22 And Reuben answered them, saying, “Did I not speak to you, saying, ‘Do not sin against the boy’; and you would not listen? Therefore behold, his blood is now required of us.” 23 But they did not know that Joseph understood them, for he spoke to them through an interpreter.
24 And he turned himself away from them and wept. Then he returned to them again, and talked with them. And he took Simeon from them and bound him before their eyes.

The Brothers Return to Canaan

25Then Joseph gave a command to fill their sacks with grain, to restore every man's money to his sack, and to give them provisions for the journey. Thus he did for them.

26So they loaded their donkeys with the grain and departed from there.

27But as one of them opened his sack to give his donkey feed at the encampment, he saw his money; and there it was, in the mouth of his sack.

28So he said to his brothers, "My money has been restored, and there it is, in my sack!" Then their hearts failed them and they were afraid, saying to one another, "What is this that God has done to us?"

29Then they went to Jacob their father in the land of Canaan and told him all that had happened to them, saying:

30"The man who is lord of the land spoke roughly to us, and took us for spies of the country.

31"But we said to him, 'We are honest men; we are not spies.

32'We are twelve brothers, sons of our father; one is no more, and the youngest is with our father this day in the land of Canaan.'

33"Then the man, the lord of the country, said to us, 'By this I will know that you are honest men: Leave one of your brothers here with me, take food for the famine of your households, and be gone.

34'And bring your youngest brother to me; so I shall know that you are not spies, but that you are honest men. I will grant your brother to you, and you may trade in the land." '

35Then it happened as they emptied their sacks, that surprisingly each man's bundle of money was in his sack; and when they and their father saw the bundles of money, they were afraid.

36And Jacob their father said to them, “You have bereaved me: Joseph is no more, Simeon is no more, and you want to take Benjamin. All these things are against me.” Instead, Choose to Show Family Care

37Then Reuben spoke to his father, saying, “Kill my two sons if I do not bring him back to you; put him in my hands, and I will bring him back to you.”

38But he said, “My son shall not go down with you, for his brother is dead, and he is left alone. If any calamity should befall him along the way in which you go, then you would bring down my gray hair with sorrow to the grave.”

Genesis 43

Joseph's Brothers Return with Benjamin

1 Now the famine was severe in the land.

2 And it came to pass, when they had eaten up the grain which they had brought from Egypt, that their father said to them, "Go back, buy us a little food."

3 But Judah spoke to him, saying, "The man solemnly warned us, saying, 'You shall not see my face unless your brother is with you.'

4 "If you send our brother with us, we will go down and buy you food.

5 "But if you will not send him, we will not go down; for the man said to us, 'You shall not see my face unless your brother is with you." '

6 And Israel said, "Why did you deal so wrongfully with me as to tell the man whether you had still another
brother?"

7 But they said, "The man asked us pointedly about ourselves and our family, saying, 'Is your father still alive?
Have you another brother?' And we told him according to these words. Could we possibly have known that he would say, 'Bring your brother down'?"

8 Then Judah said to Israel his father, "Send the lad with me, and we will arise and go, that we may live and not die, both we and you and also our little ones.

9 "I myself will be surety for him; from my hand you shall require him. If I do not bring him back to you and set him before you, then let me bear the blame forever.

10 "For if we had not lingered, surely by now we would have returned this second time."

11 And their father Israel said to them, “If it must be so, then do this: Take some of the best fruits of the land in your vessels and carry down a present for the man—a little balm and a little honey, spices and myrrh, pistachio nuts and almonds.

12 “Take double money in your hand, and take back in your hand the money that was returned in the mouth of your sacks; perhaps it was an oversight.

13 “Take your brother also, and arise, go back to the man.

14 “And may God Almighty give you mercy before the man, that he may release your other brother and Benjamin. If I am bereaved, I am bereaved!”

15 So the men took that present and Benjamin, and they took double money in their hand, and arose and went down to Egypt; and they stood before Joseph.

16 When Joseph saw Benjamin with them, he said to the steward of his house, “Take these men to my home, and slaughter an animal and make ready; for these men will dine with me at noon.”

17 Then the man did as Joseph ordered, and the man brought the men into Joseph’s house.

18 Now the men were afraid because they were brought into Joseph’s house; and they said, “It is because of the money, which was returned in our sacks the first time, that we are brought in, so that he may make a case against us and seize us, to take us as slaves with our donkeys.”

19 When they drew near to the steward of Joseph’s house, they talked with him at the door of the house,

20 and said, “O sir, we indeed came down the first time to buy food;

21 “but it happened, when we came to the encampment, that we opened our sacks, and there, each man’s money was in the mouth of his sack, our money in full weight; so we have brought it back in our hand.

22 “And we have brought down other money in our hands to buy food. We do not know who put our money in our sacks.”
23 But he said, “Peace be with you, do not be afraid. Your God and the God of your father has given you treasure in your sacks; I had your money.” Then he brought Simeon out to them.
24 So the man brought the men into Joseph’s house and gave them water, and they washed their feet; and he gave their donkeys feed.
25 Then they made the present ready for Joseph’s coming at noon, for they heard that they would eat bread there.
26 And when Joseph came home, they brought him the present which was in their hand into the house, and bowed down before him to the earth.
27 Then he asked them about their well-being, and said, “Is your father well, the old man of whom you spoke? Is he still alive?”
28 And they answered, “Your servant our father is in good health; he is still alive.” And they bowed their heads down and prostrated themselves.
29 Then he lifted his eyes and saw his brother Benjamin, his mother’s son, and said, “Is this your younger brother of whom you spoke to me?” And he said, “God be gracious to you, my son.”
30 Now his heart yearned for his brother; so Joseph made haste and sought somewhere to weep. And he went into his chamber and wept there.
31 Then he washed his face and came out; and he restrained himself, and said, “Serve the bread.” 32 So they set him a place by himself, and them by themselves, and the Egyptians who ate with him by themselves; because the Egyptians could not eat food with the Hebrews, for that is an abomination to the Egyptians.

[33]And they sat before him, the firstborn according to his birthright and the youngest according to his youth; and the men looked in astonishment at one another.

[34]Then he took servings to them from before him, but Benjamin’s serving was five times as much as any of theirs. So they drank and were merry with him.

Genesis 44

Joseph's Cup

1 And he commanded the steward of his house, saying, "Fill the men's sacks with food, as much as they can carry, and put each man's money in the mouth of his sack.
2 "Also put my cup, the silver cup, in the mouth of the sack of the youngest, and his grain money." So he did according to the word that Joseph had spoken.
3 As soon as the morning dawned, the men were sent away, they and their donkeys.
4 When they had gone out of the city, and were not yet far off, Joseph said to his steward, "Get up, follow the men; and when you overtake them, say to them, 'Why have you repaid evil for good?
5 'Is not this the one from which my lord drinks, and with which he indeed practices divination? You have done evil in so doing." '
6 So he overtook them, and he spoke to them these same words.
7 And they said to him, "Why does my lord say these words? Far be it from us that your servants should do such a thing.
8 "Look, we brought back to you from the land of Canaan the money which we found in the mouth of our sacks. How then could we steal silver or gold from your lord's house?
9 "With whomever of your servants it is found, let him die, and we also will be my lord's slaves." 10 And he said, "Now also let it be according to your words; he with whom it is found shall be my slave, and you shall be blameless."

11 Then each man speedily let down his sack to the ground, and each opened his sack.
12 So he searched. He began with the oldest and left off with the youngest; and the cup was found in Benjamin's sack.
13 Then they tore their clothes, and each man loaded his donkey and returned to the city.
14 So Judah and his brothers came to Joseph's house, and he was still there; and they fell before him on the ground.
15 And Joseph said to them, "What deed is this you have done? Did you not know that such a man as I can certainly practice divination?" 16 Then Judah said, "What shall we say to my lord? What shall we speak? Or how shall we clear ourselves? God has found out the iniquity of your servants; here we are, my lord's slaves, both we and he also with whom the cup was found." 17 But he said, "Far be it from me that I should do so; the man in whose hand the cup was found, he shall be my slave. And as for you, go up in peace to your father."

Judah Intercedes for Benjamin

18 Then Judah came near to him and said: "O my lord, please let your servant speak a word in my lord's hearing, and do not let your anger burn against your servant; for you are even like Pharaoh.
19 "My lord asked his servants, saying, 'Have you a father or a brother?'
20 "And we said to my lord, 'We have a father, an old man, and a child of his old age, who is young; his brother is dead, and he alone is left of his mother's children, and his father loves him.'
21 "Then you said to your servants, 'Bring him down to me, that I may set my eyes on him.'

22 “And we said to my lord, ‘The lad cannot leave his father, for if he should leave his father, his father would die.’
23 “But you said to your servants, ‘Unless your youngest brother comes down with you, you shall see my face no more.’
24 “So it was, when we went up to your servant my father, that we told him the words of my lord.
25 “And our father said, ‘Go back and buy us a little food.’
26 “But we said, ‘We cannot go down; if our youngest brother is with us, then we will go down; for we may not see the man’s face unless our youngest brother is with us.’ 27 “Then your servant my father said to us, ‘You know that my wife bore me two sons; 28 ‘and the one went out from me, and I said, “Surely he is torn to pieces”; and I have not seen him since.
29 ‘But if you take this one also from me, and calamity befalls him, you shall bring down my gray hair with sorrow to the grave.’
30 “Now therefore, when I come to your servant my father, and the lad is not with us, since his life is bound up in the lad’s life, 31 “it will happen, when he sees that the lad is not with us, that he will die. So your servants will bring down the gray hair of your servant our father with sorrow to the grave.
32 “For your servant became surety for the lad to my father, saying, ‘If I do not bring him back to you, then I shall bear the blame before my father forever.’ 33 “Now therefore, please let your servant remain instead of the lad as a slave to my lord, and let the lad go up with his brothers.
34 “For how shall I go up to my father if the lad is not with me, lest perhaps I see the evil that would come upon my father?”

Genesis 45

Joseph Revealed to His Brothers

1 Then Joseph could not restrain himself before all those who stood by him, and he cried out, “Make everyone go out from me!” So no one stood with him while Joseph made himself known to his brothers. Work with the Power of God

2 And he wept aloud, and the Egyptians and the house of Pharaoh heard it.

3 Then Joseph said to his brothers, “I am Joseph; does my father still live?” But his brothers could not answer him, for they were dismayed in his presence.

4 And Joseph said to his brothers, “Please come near to me.” So they came near. Then he said: “I am Joseph your brother, whom you sold into Egypt.

5 “But now, do not therefore be grieved or angry with yourselves because you sold me here; for God sent me before you to preserve life. Discovering God’s Purpose for You

6 “For these two years the famine has been in the land, and there are still five years in which there will be neither plowing nor harvesting.

7 “And God sent me before you to preserve a posterity for you in the earth, and to save your lives by a great deliverance.

8 “So now it was not you who sent me here, but God; and He has made me a father to Pharaoh, and lord of all his house, and a ruler throughout all the land of Egypt.

9 “Hurry and go up to my father, and say to him, ‘Thus says your son Joseph: “God has made me lord of all Egypt; come down to me, do not tarry.

10 “You shall dwell in the land of Goshen, and you shall be near to me, you and your children, your children’s children, your flocks and your herds, and all that you have.

11 “There I will provide for you, lest you and your household, and all that you have, come to poverty; for there are still five years of famine.” ’
12 “And behold, your eyes and the eyes of my brother Benjamin see that it is my mouth that speaks to you.
13 “So you shall tell my father of all my glory in Egypt, and of all that you have seen; and you shall hurry and bring my father down here.”
14 Then he fell on his brother Benjamin’s neck and wept, and Benjamin wept on his neck.
15 Moreover he kissed all his brothers and wept over them, and after that his brothers talked with him.
16 Now the report of it was heard in Pharaoh’s house, saying, “Joseph’s brothers have come.” So it pleased Pharaoh and his servants well.
17 And Pharaoh said to Joseph, “Say to your brothers, ‘Do this: Load your animals and depart; go to the land of Canaan.
18 ‘Bring your father and your households and come to me; I will give you the best of the land of Egypt, and you will eat the fat of the land.
19 ‘Now you are commanded—do this: Take carts out of the land of Egypt for your little ones and your wives; bring your father and come.
20 ‘Also do not be concerned about your goods, for the best of all the land of Egypt is yours.’ ”
21 Then the sons of Israel did so; and Joseph gave them carts, according to the command of Pharaoh, and he gave them provisions for the journey.
22 He gave to all of them, to each man, changes of garments; but to Benjamin he gave three hundred pieces of silver and five changes of garments.

23 And he sent to his father these things: ten donkeys loaded with the good things of Egypt, and ten female donkeys loaded with grain, bread, and food for his father for the journey.
24 So he sent his brothers away, and they departed; and he said to them, “See that you do not become troubled along the way.”
25 Then they went up out of Egypt, and came to the land of Canaan to Jacob their father.
26 And they told him, saying, “Joseph is still alive, and he is governor over all the land of Egypt.” And Jacob’s heart stood still, because he did not believe them.
27 But when they told him all the words which Joseph had said to them, and when he saw the carts which Joseph had sent to carry him, the spirit of Jacob their father revived.
28 Then Israel said, “It is enough. Joseph my son is still alive. I will go and see him before I die.”

Genesis 46

Jacob's Journey to Egypt

1 So Israel took his journey with all that he had, and came to Beersheba, and offered sacrifices to the God of his father Isaac.
2 Then God spoke to Israel in the visions of the night, and said, "Jacob, Jacob!" And he said, "Here I am." 3 So He said, "I am God, the God of your father; do not fear to go down to Egypt, for I will make of you a great nation there.
4 "I will go down with you to Egypt, and I will also surely bring you up again; and Joseph will put his hand on your eyes."
5 Then Jacob arose from Beersheba; and the sons of Israel carried their father Jacob, their little ones, and their wives, in the carts which Pharaoh had sent to carry him.
6 So they took their livestock and their goods, which they had acquired in the land of Canaan, and went to Egypt, Jacob and all his descendants with him.
7 His sons and his sons' sons, his daughters and his sons' daughters, and all his descendants he brought with him to Egypt.
8 Now these were the names of the children of Israel, Jacob and his sons, who went to Egypt: Reuben was Jacob's firstborn.
9 The sons of Reuben were Hanoch, Pallu, Hezron, and Carmi.
10 The sons of Simeon were Jemuel,[a] Jamin, Ohad, Jachin,[b]
Zohar,[c] and Shaul, the son of a Canaanite woman.
11 The sons of Levi were Gershon, Kohath, and Merari.

12 The sons of Judah were Er, Onan, Shelah, Perez, and Zerah (but Er and Onan died in the land of Canaan). The sons of Perez were Hezron and Hamul.
13 The sons of Issachar were Tola, Puvah,[d] Job,[e] and Shimron.
14 The sons of Zebulun were Sered, Elon, and Jahleel.
15 These were the sons of Leah, whom she bore to Jacob in Padan Aram, with his daughter Dinah. All the persons, his sons and his daughters, were thirty-three.
16 The sons of Gad were Ziphion,[f] Haggi, Shuni, Ezbon,[g]
Eri, Arodi,[h] and Areli.
17 The sons of Asher were Jimnah, Ishuah, Isui, Beriah, and Serah, their sister. And the sons of Beriah were Heber and Malchiel.
18 These were the sons of Zilpah, whom Laban gave to Leah his daughter; and these she bore to Jacob: sixteen persons.
19 The sons of Rachel, Jacob's wife, were Joseph and Benjamin.
20 And to Joseph in the land of Egypt were born Manasseh and Ephraim, whom Asenath, the daughter of Poti-Pherah priest of On, bore to him.
21 The sons of Benjamin were Belah, Becher, Ashbel, Gera, Naaman, Ehi, Rosh, Muppim, Huppim,[i] and Ard.
22 These were the sons of Rachel, who were born to Jacob: fourteen persons in all.
23 The son of Dan was Hushim.[j]
24 The sons of Naphtali were Jahzeel,[k] Guni, Jezer, and Shillem.[l]
25 These were the sons of Bilhah, whom Laban gave to Rachel his daughter, and she bore these to Jacob: seven persons in all.

26All the persons who went with Jacob to Egypt, who came from his body, besides Jacob's sons' wives, were sixty-six persons in all.
27And the sons of Joseph who were born to him in Egypt were two persons. All the persons of the house of Jacob who went to Egypt were seventy.

Jacob Settles in Goshen

28Then he sent Judah before him to Joseph, to point out before him the way to Goshen. And they came to the land of Goshen.
29So Joseph made ready his chariot and went up to Goshen to meet his father Israel; and he presented himself to him, and fell on his neck and wept on his neck a good while.
30And Israel said to Joseph, "Now let me die, since I have seen your face, because you are still alive." 31Then Joseph said to his brothers and to his father's household, "I will go up and tell Pharaoh, and say to him,
'My brothers and those of my father's house, who were in the land of Canaan, have come to me. A Promising Opportunity 32'And the men are shepherds, for their occupation has been to feed livestock; and they have brought their flocks, their herds, and all that they have.'
33"So it shall be, when Pharaoh calls you and says, 'What is your occupation?'
34"that you shall say, 'Your servants' occupation has been with livestock from our youth even till now, both we and also our fathers,' that you may dwell in the land of Goshen;
for every shepherd is an abomination to the Egyptians."

Genesis 47

1Then Joseph went and told Pharaoh, and said, “My father and my brothers, their flocks and their herds and all that they possess, have come from the land of Canaan; and indeed they are in the land of Goshen.” 2And he took five men from among his brothers and presented them to Pharaoh.
3Then Pharaoh said to his brothers, “What is your occupation?” And they said to Pharaoh, “Your servants are shepherds, both we and also our fathers.” 4And they said to Pharaoh, “We have come to dwell in the land, because your servants have no pasture for their flocks, for the famine is severe in the land of Canaan. Now therefore, please let your servants dwell in the land of Goshen.” 5Then Pharaoh spoke to Joseph, saying, “Your father and your brothers have come to you.
6“The land of Egypt is before you. Have your father and brothers dwell in the best of the land; let them dwell in the land of Goshen. And if you know any competent men among them, then make them chief herdsmen over my livestock.” 7Then Joseph brought in his father Jacob and set him before Pharaoh; and Jacob blessed Pharaoh.
8Pharaoh said to Jacob, “How old are you?”
9And Jacob said to Pharaoh, “The days of the years of my pilgrimage are one hundred and thirty years; few and evil have been the days of the years of my life, and they have not attained to the days of the years of the life of my fathers in the days of their pilgrimage.”
10So Jacob blessed Pharaoh, and went out from before Pharaoh.

11And Joseph situated his father and his brothers, and gave them a possession in the land of Egypt, in the best of the land, in the land of Rameses, as Pharaoh had commanded.

12Then Joseph provided his father, his brothers, and all his father's household with bread, according to the number in their families.

Joseph Deals with the Famine

13Now there was no bread in all the land; for the famine was very severe, so that the land of Egypt and the land of Canaan languished because of the famine.

14And Joseph gathered up all the money that was found in the land of Egypt and in the land of Canaan, for the grain which they bought; and Joseph brought the money into Pharaoh's house.

15So when the money failed in the land of Egypt and in the land of Canaan, all the Egyptians came to Joseph and said, "Give us bread, for why should we die in your presence? For the money has failed."

16Then Joseph said, "Give your livestock, and I will give you bread for your livestock, if the money is gone."

17So they brought their livestock to Joseph, and Joseph gave them bread in exchange for the horses, the flocks, the cattle of the herds, and for the donkeys. Thus he fed them with bread in exchange for all their livestock that year.

18When that year had ended, they came to him the next year and said to him, "We will not hide from my lord that our money is gone; my lord also has our herds of livestock. There is nothing left in the sight of my lord but our bodies and our lands.

19"Why should we die before your eyes, both we and our land? Buy us and our land for bread, and we and our land will be servants of Pharaoh; give us seed, that we may live and not die, that the land may not be desolate."

20 Then Joseph bought all the land of Egypt for Pharaoh; for every man of the Egyptians sold his field, because the famine was severe upon them. So the land became Pharaoh's.

21 And as for the people, he moved them into the cities,[a] from one end of the borders of Egypt to the other end.

22 Only the land of the priests he did not buy; for the priests had rations allotted to them by Pharaoh, and they ate their rations which Pharaoh gave them; therefore they did not sell their lands.

23 Then Joseph said to the people, "Indeed I have bought you and your land this day for Pharaoh. Look, here is seed for you, and you shall sow the land.

24 "And it shall come to pass in the harvest that you shall give one-fifth to Pharaoh. Four-fifths shall be your own, as seed for the field and for your food, for those of your households and as food for your little ones."

25 So they said, "You have saved our lives; let us find favor in the sight of my lord, and we will be Pharaoh's servants."

26 And Joseph made it a law over the land of Egypt to this day, that Pharaoh should have one-fifth, except for the land of the priests only, which did not become Pharaoh's.

Joseph's Vow to Jacob

27 So Israel dwelt in the land of Egypt, in the country of Goshen; and they had possessions there and grew and multiplied exceedingly.

28 And Jacob lived in the land of Egypt seventeen years. So the length of Jacob's life was one hundred and forty-seven years.

29 When the time drew near that Israel must die, he called his son Joseph and said to him, "Now if I have found favor in your sight, please put your hand under my thigh, and deal kindly and truly with me. Please do not bury me in Egypt,

30 “but let me lie with my fathers; you shall carry me out of Egypt and bury me in their burial place.” And he said, “I will do as you have said.”

31 Then he said, “Swear to me.” And he swore to him. So Israel bowed himself on the head of the bed.

Genesis 48

Jacob Blesses Joseph's Sons

1 Now it came to pass after these things that Joseph was told, "Indeed your father is sick"; and he took with him his two sons, Manasseh and Ephraim.
2 And Jacob was told, "Look, your son Joseph is coming to you"; and Israel strengthened himself and sat up on the bed.
3 Then Jacob said to Joseph: "God Almighty appeared to me at Luz in the land of Canaan and blessed me, 4 "and said to me, 'Behold, I will make you fruitful and multiply you, and I will make of you a multitude of people, and give this land to your descendants after you as an everlasting possession.'
5 "And now your two sons, Ephraim and Manasseh, who were born to you in the land of Egypt before I came to you in Egypt, are mine; as Reuben and Simeon, they shall be mine.
6 "Your offspring whom you beget after them shall be yours; they will be called by the name of their brothers in their inheritance.
7 "But as for me, when I came from Padan, Rachel died beside me in the land of Canaan on the way, when there was but a little distance to go to Ephrath; and I buried her there on the way to Ephrath (that is, Bethlehem)." 8 Then Israel saw Joseph's sons, and said, "Who are these?"
9 Joseph said to his father, "They are my sons, whom God has given me in this place." And he said, "Please bring them to me, and I will bless them."

10 Now the eyes of Israel were dim with age, so that he could not see. Then Joseph brought them near him, and he kissed them and embraced them.
11 And Israel said to Joseph, “I had not thought to see your face; but in fact, God has also shown me your offspring!”
12 So Joseph brought them from beside his knees, and he bowed down with his face to the earth.
13 And Joseph took them both, Ephraim with his right hand toward Israel’s left hand, and Manasseh with his left hand toward Israel’s right hand, and brought them near
him.
14 Then Israel stretched out his right hand and laid it on Ephraim’s head, who was the younger, and his left hand on Manasseh’s head, guiding his hands knowingly, for Manasseh was the firstborn.
15 And he blessed Joseph, and said:

> “God, before whom my fathers Abraham and > Isaac walked,
> The God who has fed me all my life long to > this day,
> 16 The Angel who has redeemed me from all > evil,
> Bless the lads;
> Let my name be named upon them,
> And the name of my fathers Abraham and > Isaac;
> And let them grow into a multitude in the > midst of the earth.”

17 Now when Joseph saw that his father laid his right hand on the head of Ephraim, it displeased him; so he took hold of his father’s hand to remove it from Ephraim’s head to Manasseh’s head.

18 And Joseph said to his father, “Not so, my father, for this one is the firstborn; put your right hand on his head.” 19 But his father refused and said, “I know, my son, I know. He also shall become a people, and he also shall be great; but truly his younger brother shall be greater than he, and his descendants shall become a multitude of nations.” 20 So he blessed them that day, saying, “By you Israel will bless, saying, ‘May God make you as Ephraim and as Manasseh!’ ” And thus he set Ephraim before Manasseh.
21 Then Israel said to Joseph, “Behold, I am dying, but God will be with you and bring you back to the land of your fathers.
22 “Moreover I have given to you one portion above your brothers, which I took from the hand of the Amorite with my sword and my bow.”

Genesis 49

Jacob's Last Words to His Sons

1 And Jacob called his sons and said, "Gather together, that I may tell you what shall befall you in the last days:

2 "Gather together and hear, you sons of Jacob,
And listen to Israel your father.

3 "Reuben, you are my firstborn,
My might and the beginning of my strength,
The excellency of dignity and the excellency of power.
4 Unstable as water, you shall not excel,
Because you went up to your father's bed;
Then you defiled it—
He went up to my couch.

5 "Simeon and Levi are brothers;
Instruments of cruelty are in their dwelling place. Levi
6 Let not my soul enter their council;
Let not my honor be united to their assembly;
For in their anger they slew a man,
And in their self-will they hamstrung an ox.

Harness Anger for Good
7 Cursed be their anger, for it is fierce;
And their wrath, for it is cruel!
I will divide them in Jacob
And scatter them in Israel.

8 “Judah, you are he whom your brothers shall praise;
Your hand shall be on the neck of your enemies;
Your father’s children shall bow down before
you.
9 Judah is a lion’s whelp;
From the prey, my son, you have gone up.
He bows down, he lies down as a lion;
And as a lion, who shall rouse him?
10 The scepter shall not depart from Judah,
Nor a lawgiver from between his feet,
Until Shiloh comes;
And to Him shall be the obedience of the people.
11 Binding his donkey to the vine,
And his donkey’s colt to the choice vine,
He washed his garments in wine,
And his clothes in the blood of grapes.
12 His eyes are darker than wine,
And his teeth whiter than milk.

13 “Zebulun shall dwell by the haven of the sea;
He shall become a haven for ships,
And his border shall adjoin Sidon.

14 “Issachar is a strong donkey,
Lying down between two burdens;
15 He saw that rest was good,
And that the land was pleasant;
He bowed his shoulder to bear a burden,
And became a band of slaves.

16 “Dan shall judge his people

As one of the tribes of Israel.
17 Dan shall be a serpent by the way,
A viper by the path,
That bites the horse's heels
So that its rider shall fall backward.
18 I have waited for your salvation, O LORD!

19 "Gad, a troop shall tramp upon him,
But he shall triumph at last.

20 "Bread from Asher shall be rich,
And he shall yield royal dainties.

21 "Naphtali is a deer let loose;
He uses beautiful words.

22 "Joseph is a fruitful bough,
A fruitful bough by a well;
His branches run over the wall.
23 The archers have bitterly grieved him,
Shot at him and hated him.
24 But his bow remained in strength,
And the arms of his hands were made strong
By the hands of the Mighty God of Jacob
(From there is the Shepherd, the Stone of Israel),
25 By the God of your father who will help you,
And by the Almighty who will bless you
With blessings of heaven above,
Blessings of the deep that lies beneath,
Blessings of the breasts and of the womb.
26 The blessings of your father
Have excelled the blessings of my ancestors,

Up to the utmost bound of the everlasting hills.
They shall be on the head of Joseph,
And on the crown of the head of him who was separate from his brothers.

27 “Benjamin is a ravenous wolf;
In the morning he shall devour the prey,
And at night he shall divide the spoil.”

28 All these are the twelve tribes of Israel, and this is what their father spoke to them. And he blessed them; he blessed each one according to his own blessing. The Blessing

Jacob’s Death and Burial

29 Then he charged them and said to them: “I am to be gathered to my people; bury me with my fathers in the cave that is in the field of Ephron the Hittite, 30 “in the cave that is in the field of Machpelah, which is before Mamre in the land of Canaan, which Abraham bought with the field of Ephron the Hittite as a possession for a burial place.
31 “There they buried Abraham and Sarah his wife, there they buried Isaac and Rebekah his wife, and there I buried Leah.
32 “The field and the cave that is there were purchased from the sons of Heth.”
33 And when Jacob had finished commanding his sons, he drew his feet up into the bed and breathed his last, and was gathered to his people.

Genesis 50

1 Then Joseph fell on his father's face and wept over him, and kissed him.
2 And Joseph commanded his servants the physicians to embalm his father. So the physicians embalmed Israel.
3 Forty days were required for him, for such are the days required for those who are embalmed; and the Egyptians mourned for him seventy days.
4 Now when the days of his mourning were past, Joseph spoke to the household of Pharaoh, saying, "If now I have found favor in your eyes, please speak in the hearing of Pharaoh, saying,
5 'My father made me swear, saying, "Behold, I am dying;
in my grave which I dug for myself in the land of Canaan, there you shall bury me." Now therefore, please let me go up and bury my father, and I will come back.' " 6 And Pharaoh said, "Go up and bury your father, as he made you swear."
7 So Joseph went up to bury his father; and with him went up all the servants of Pharaoh, the elders of his house, and all the elders of the land of Egypt, 8 as well as all the house of Joseph, his brothers, and his father's house. Only their little ones, their flocks, and their herds they left in the land of Goshen.
9 And there went up with him both chariots and horsemen, and it was a very great gathering.
10 Then they came to the threshing floor of Atad, which is beyond the Jordan, and they mourned there with a great and very solemn lamentation. He observed seven days of mourning for his father.

11 And when the inhabitants of the land, the Canaanites, saw the mourning at the threshing floor of Atad, they said,
"This is a deep mourning of the Egyptians." Therefore its name was called Abel Mizraim,[a] which is beyond the Jordan.
12 So his sons did for him just as he had commanded
them.
13 For his sons carried him to the land of Canaan, and buried him in the cave of the field of Machpelah, before Mamre, which Abraham bought with the field from Ephron
the Hittite as property for a burial place.
14 And after he had buried his father, Joseph returned to Egypt, he and his brothers and all who went up with him to bury his father.

Joseph Reassures His Brothers

15 When Joseph's brothers saw that their father was dead, they said, "Perhaps Joseph will hate us, and may actually repay us for all the evil which we did to him." 16 So they sent messengers to Joseph, saying, "Before your father died he commanded, saying, 17 'Thus you shall say to Joseph: "I beg you, please forgive the trespass of your brothers and their sin; for they did evil to you.' " Now, please, forgive the trespass of the servants of the God of your father." And Joseph wept when they spoke to him.
18 Then his brothers also went and fell down before his face, and they said, "Behold, we are your servants." 19 Joseph said to them, "Do not be afraid, for am I in the place of God?
20 "But as for you, you meant evil against me; but God meant it for good, in order to bring it about as it is this day, to save many people alive.

21 “Now therefore, do not be afraid; I will provide for you and your little ones.” And he comforted them and spoke kindly to them.

Death of Joseph

22 So Joseph dwelt in Egypt, he and his father’s household. And Joseph lived one hundred and ten years.
23 Joseph saw Ephraim’s children to the third generation.
The children of Machir, the son of Manasseh, were also brought up on Joseph’s knees.
24 And Joseph said to his brethren, “I am dying; but God will surely visit you, and bring you out of this land to the land of which He swore to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob.” Career Change
25 Then Joseph took an oath from the children of Israel, saying, “God will surely visit you, and you shall carry up my bones from here.”
26 So Joseph died, being one hundred and ten years old;
and they embalmed him, and he was put in a coffin in Egypt.

God the Creator

Gen. 1:1–31

God is present from the Bible's first words. The first thing we see Him do is make "the heavens and the earth." In other words, God first appears as Creator. The theme of creation runs from the front of the Bible to its final pages, from the original creation of the heavens and the earth to the creation of a new heaven and earth (Rev. 21:1). God in Christ is Creator and Lord (Gen. 1:31; Col. 1:16, 17).

The Bible says God's initial work was "good" (Gen. 1:4, 10, 12, 18, 21, 25) and "very good" (1:31). Yet God's work did not end with the creation of Adam and Eve. He continues to labor by providing for His creatures (Ps. 104:27; 136:25; 145:15, 16; see also "God Is a Support" at Ps. 12:5), sustaining creation (Neh. 9:6; Ps. 36:6; Heb. 1:3; see also "Sustaining the World" at Col. 1:17), and bringing salvation to people (Eph. 1:7; see also "God: The Original Worker" at John 5:17).

God does not work alone. Because He has created and called people to oversee the earth as His managers (see "Made in His Image" at Gen. 1:27–30 and "People at Work" at Ps. 8:6), we have a mandate to care for the earth—to preserve, protect, and use it wisely. As His coworkers, we are called to accomplish meaningful tasks, for which He will hold us accountable (Gen. 2:8, 15; Eccl. 9:10; 12:13, 14). How we serve here and now in this present physical world matters deeply to God.

As we imitate God's work, we can identify with the jobs He undertakes. Consider the various jobs God did in forming the world. He was artist, designer, strategic planner, organizer, project manager, assessor, zoologist, biologist, chemist, linguist, programmer, materials specialist, human resources trainer, and engineer—to name but a few of His tasks. This picture of God as a worker impacts how we spend our hours today. It shows us that . . .

- Work is inherently good (see "Work Itself Is a Gift from God" at Gen. 3:17–19).
- Working with and reshaping what God has already created is important. It pleases God and matters to Him (see "People at Work" at Ps. 8:6).

- Few differences exist between work identified as “sacred” or “secular,” because all legitimate work reflects the activity of God (see “The Gift of Loving Well” at 1 Cor. 12:28–31 and “The Worth of Work” at Col. 3:1–4).

God gains honor through His own work, and we are to honor Him by doing the work He has given us. Pleasing God in our work is a critical way to worship Him (see “Your Workstyle” at Titus 2:9–11).

More: Some worldviews regard the earth as sacred and the universe itself as divine. Scripture opposes this view. See “The Weight of the World” at Heb. 11:3. When Genesis says that God “ended His work” (Gen. 2:2), it uses the same word for work that appears in the Ten Commandments: “Six days you shall labor and do all your work*” (Ex. 20:9, emphasis added). This informs us that work is inherently good since God Himself labors. For more on the value of work, see “God: The Original Worker” at John 5:17; “Workplace Myths” at 1 Cor. 3:9; “The Worth of Work” at Col. 3:1–4; and “Work in the Bible” at Rev. 22:1–11.*

God in Relationship
Gen. 1:26

When God says, “Let Us make man in Our image, according to Our likeness” (emphasis added), He speaks not as a solitary figure but as a plurality, a Being comprised of more than one Person. Christians trace the doctrine of the Trinity starting at this passage.

The picture that emerges throughout the Bible is that God exists in three Persons; not three Gods, but one God in three Persons. Here the text uses the Hebrew word Elohim, the plural form of Eloah (“God”), to name this communal, supreme Creator-God.

Later we discover the three Persons included in “Us”: the Father (James 1:17, 18), the Son, Jesus Christ (John 1:3; Col. 1:16), and the Holy Spirit (Gen. 1:2; Ps. 104:30).

Astonishingly, God is a community at the core of His Being. He exists in relationship within Himself. This important fact implies that God had no need to create anyone else. He was not lonely, nor was He somehow deficient and in need of help. He was and is completely self-sufficient, having no need of any creature to be complete. But He chose to give birth to the world and its people as a gift of His abundant love. In Genesis 1:26, God in effect is saying, "Let Us create Adam and Eve and their descendants as creatures who can share the love and community We already enjoy among Ourselves."

Thinking of God in the plural—as a community, in relationship—may stretch our understanding, but it also gives us a basis for how to do marriage and family as well as friendship and fellowship. Relationships matter more than we might think. As people created in God's image, we need each other. What have you learned from the nature of God—His love, His motives, His relationship actions, His character—that show you how to relate to the people around you?

More: Elohim is only one of many names by which God is known in Scripture. See "The Names of God" at Is. 41:14.

Made in His Image

Gen. 1:27–30

Human beings are a distinctive creation, crafted in God's image (Gen. 1:26; 5:1; 9:6; compare Eph. 4:24; Col. 3:10). Scripture never describes any other creatures or beings as bearers of God's image.

Some thinkers limit the concept of being made in God's image to our reason, will, or personality. Others link it to our authority to act, because immediately after God created people in His image, He granted them authority over the earth (Gen. 1:28). The image of God is likely all those things and more, but it certainly includes our unique capacity to relate to God and to express His character. The fact that we are uniquely like God teaches us that . . .

- As humans we can know God—a knowledge that transcends mere information about God into actually relating to Him as a Person (John 17:3).

- We can live out our meaning and purpose in life in light of His nature (Ps. 89:15; Eccl. 12:13, 14; Col. 3:10).
- We are moral beings with the capacity, and responsibility, to do rightly. This right and wrong are defined by God's own nature and expressed will (Rom. 1:17, 18; Eph. 4:24).
- We are capable of being holy—that is, of refraining from evil and seeking good with right motives and with right use of power—when we allow God to equip us to do so. This is wrapped up in truly knowing God and obeying Him (Eph. 4:24; 2 Pet. 1:3, 4).

Scripture also tells us that Jesus stands alone as the ultimate bearer of God's image. He is "the image of the invisible God" (Col. 1:15) and "the express image of His [God's] person" (Heb. 1:3). We can discover how to bear God's image by imitating how Jesus did so.

The Creation Mandate

Gen. 1:28–2:3

The Bible's description of humanity's creation (Gen. 1:26–30) is often called "the creation mandate" because it reveals God's intentions for humanity. Three of His fundamental purposes for us are . . .

- Family. God created people male and female (1:27) and called us to form families (1:28). Families are good.
- Work. God gave people responsibility (or "dominion") over the earth to subdue it by cultivating, developing, and managing it in a way that meets human needs, cares for the earth as a resource, and brings God glory. Work is good (see "People at Work" at Ps. 8:6).
- Worship. God's creation of the world culminated in a day of rest and worship, a pattern God laid out for us to follow (see "Weekly Day of Rest" at Gen. 2:1–3 and "Keeping the Sabbath" at Ex. 20:8–11). Patterns of work and then rest are good.

God established these three purposes before sin entered the world and He reinstituted these purposes after the Fall (Gen. 9:1–7; Ps. 8:6–8). They remain in force today.

Weekly Day of Rest
Gen. 2:1–3

When God "rested on the seventh day from all His work which He had done," He modeled for people His intention for a weekly day of rest. He did this for our sake, because unlike people, God does not tire or need to rest. The Lord rested in a way unique to Him, and He pointed the way for humans to find their own rest.

The term Sabbath has the root meaning of "cessation." On the seventh day God ceased His work of creating the world (Ex. 20:8–11). However, He did not stop His work of sustaining and maintaining the world (Ps. 145:15, 16; see also "Sustaining the World" at Col. 1:17). This distinction helps to clarify the significance of the Sabbath, a day which God set aside (or "sanctified") and blessed. He expressed His intention that people would emulate Him by pausing from their labors—the exercise of their dominion over creation (Gen. 1:28–30)—for one day out of seven.

This day of rest was not merely a day off. One of the most important purposes of the Sabbath was to fix a day for individuals and communities of believers to worship God (Is. 58:13, 14). We are not free to ignore God on the other six days, because every day belongs to Him (see "The Lord's Day" at Rom. 14:5–13). But designating one day as a regular opportunity to come together before the Lord demonstrates our dependence on Him as Lord and demonstrates our need for community (see "God in Relationship" at Gen. 1:26).

This means that the Sabbath—or, in the New Testament era, the Lord's Day—was not intended as a pause to catch up on chores or relax. Nothing is wrong with those pursuits, but God appointed this day for us to "stir up love and good works, not forsaking the assembling of ourselves together, as is the manner of some, but exhorting one another" (Heb. 10:24, 25).

Christians often struggle to know how to keep the Lord's Day as a day of rest. Significantly, Jesus pointed out that God established this day of rest for the sake of people, not people for the sake of the day (Mark 2:27). Sabbath observance is not a legalistic obligation.

Conditions occasionally require work on the Sabbath, like rescuing an ox stuck in a ditch (Luke 14:5). Basic human needs do not cease on Sundays (see "Doing Good on the Sabbath" at John 5:1–17). Yet the spirit of Sabbath observance implies we should take action to prevent getting stuck in the ditch with the ox on the Sabbath, or needing the Sabbath to complete routine tasks.

When God set aside the seventh day, He did not intend to turn Sabbath-keeping into a life-stealing rule. He meant for the Sabbath to provide life, to give liberty from work as tyranny, giving freedom to enjoy fellowship with God, neighbors, and loved ones.

The Sabbath also helps us understand what it means to trust in Christ's work on the cross rather than working to merit salvation. The famous sprinter Eric Liddell refrained from running preliminary heats in the Olympics because they were held on a Sunday.*

Adam

Gen. 2:19

Name means: "Red" or possibly "Ground," perhaps suggesting blood or the earthy origin of the human race.

Home: Originally the Garden of Eden, from which he and Eve were expelled after disobeying God.

Family: Husband of Eve; father of three known sons, Cain, Abel, and Seth, as well as many unnamed sons and daughters.

Occupation: Likely a gardener or farmer, placed in the Garden of Eden "to tend and keep it" (Gen. 2:15); also an early zoologist, the namer of the animals (2:19, 20).

Best known as: The first man, created in God's image, but also the first man to sin, bringing God's judgment and the penalty of death on humanity (3:17–19; Rom. 5:12).

Social Institutions: Family, State, and Church

Gen. 2:23

As the book of beginnings, Genesis presents the start of three foundational social institutions: the family, the state, and the community of faith.

The family is the primary institution established by God. Family existed before nations, cities, or other human communities. Chronologically and logically, family comes first.

When sin caused the world's first family to break down, God established the state. After Cain killed Abel (Gen. 4:8), there was no court of law or other government authority to deal with the case. The Lord Himself decreed judgment and punishment, and when God placed a mark on Cain as a protection, He established a law to prevent other people from killing Cain (4:9–15). This law was the start of the state. As with the family, however, it was not long before sinful people corrupted the state (for example, Gen. 4:23, 24).

The world's early days led to a third institution, the gathering of God's people, the church. After Adam and Eve buried their righteous son Abel, they gave birth to another son, Seth. This man and his son Enosh were linked with an increasing tendency to "call on the name of the LORD" (4:26). This commitment to righteousness was preserved in Noah (6:8) and continued with Abraham, through whom God promised to bless "all the families of the earth" (12:1–3). This promise was fulfilled in Jesus Christ, who brought not only the blessing of salvation from sin but also of a community based on a common faith (Eph. 2:14–22).

God designed these three institutions—

1. the family, based on biological association;
2. the state, based on geographical association; and
3. the church, based on spiritual association

—to reinforce each other and coexist in mutual dependence. Each needs the others to function well, and without cooperation, all three suffer. When one institution struggles or breaks down, the other two should offer support and assistance without attempting to become a replacement.

Sin and Redemption

Gen. 3:6, 7

Adam and Eve were created without sin, yet their God-given freedom to choose for or against God opened the possibility for sin to enter the world.

Sin entered Eve's life through her choice to believe a lie (Gen. 3:13; 2 Cor. 11:3; 1 Tim. 2:14). Adam surrendered to evil when he chose to ignore God's authoritative command (Gen. 3:17).

These two choices—self-deception and self-will—still complicate our lives, letting sin control and destroy us as well as create havoc for those around us. Thankfully, Jesus Christ breaks the bonds of sin, empowering us to resist.

Temptation prods us to practice false rationalization, to justify doing what we want even when we know our choice is wrong. Temptation also calls us to satisfy our needs and desires in self-serving or corrupt ways. Scripture frequently illustrates these twin afflictions of sin as self-deception and a willful choice of rebellion. Yet when Christ enters our lives, He regenerates our hearts; He sets us free to choose what is true and righteous (1 Cor. 6:9–11; James 1:26, 27; 1 John 3:7–9).

Genesis is where this grand biblical theme of redemption begins. As we trace this theme through Scripture we learn that . . .

- What we choose here and now affects us presently and has eternal consequences (Matt. 25:31–46).
- Salvation positively affects everything about us—our relationships, our character, and our conduct (Col. 3:17).
- God has committed Himself to reclaiming this fallen world and rescuing sinful people through His Son Jesus Christ (Gen. 3:15; Rom. 8:19–22).
- God desires that no one be lost, but that every person come to repentance and faith in Jesus (2 Pet. 3:9).
- As believers we have a mandate to spread the gospel to the ends of the earth (Mark 16:15; Acts 1:8).

More: Adam and Eve succumbed to the serpent's tempting offer (Gen. 3:1–7); later, Jesus urged us to pray that we would avoid the same outcome and resist the Evil One (Matt. 6:13). For more on temptation, see "Real Temptation" at Matt. 4:3 and "Escaping Temptation" at 1 Cor. 10:12, 13.

Work Itself Is a Gift from God

Gen. 3:17–19

A stubborn untruth in Western culture casts work as part of the Curse imposed by God to punish Adam and Eve's sin, which would make work inherently evil. That idea is not found in Scripture. Rather, these are the biblical facts about work:

- God works. The fact that God Himself labors shows that work is good, since God cannot do evil. God is always working. See "God: The Original Worker" at John 5:17.

- God created people in His image to be His coworkers. He gives us the authority and ability to manage His creation.
- God established work before the Fall. Genesis 1–2 records how God created the world, noting that He placed the first humans in a garden "to tend and keep it" (Gen. 2:15). Their assignment came before sin entered the world and before the Curse in chapter 3.
- God applauds work even after the Fall. If work were inherently evil, God would never encourage people to labor. But He repeated for Noah and his family the same command He gave Adam and Eve: to exercise dominion over the earth (9:1–7). God also commands New Testament Christians to work (Col. 3:23; 1 Thess. 4:11).
- Work itself was not cursed in the Fall. Genesis 3:17–19 shows that as a result of Adam's sin, God cursed not work but the ground: "Cursed is the ground for your sake; in toil you shall eat of it" (emphasis added).

This does not mean work remains unaffected by the Curse. Sin has three results:

1. Work that had been a joy became "toil." People would come to dread the burden of work.
2. "Thorns and thistles" would hamper human efforts to exercise dominion. In other words, the earth would not be as cooperative as it had been.
3. People would have to "sweat" to accomplish their tasks. Work would require greater effort.

Wherever and however we spend our days, work can be burdensome. Several evils connect with work—pressure and stress, physical hazards, office politics, boredom, unchanging routine, disappointments, setbacks, catastrophes, frustration, competition, fraud, deception, injustice. But these are not inherent to work and they can be refused.

Work and its fruit are a gift from God (Eccl. 3:13; 5:18, 19). Work is not a curse.

Eve

Gen. 3:20

Name means: “Life” or “Living.”

Also known as: Woman (Gen. 2:23).

Home: Originally the Garden of Eden, from which she and Adam were expelled after disobeying God’s command.

Family: Wife of Adam; mother of three known sons, Cain, Abel, and Seth, as well as many unnamed sons and daughters.

Occupation: Originally tended the Garden of Eden with Adam.

Best known as: The first woman and the first person to disobey God. She tasted the one fruit God forbade (3:1–6).

More: Adam honored the wife God gave him by calling her Eve, “because she was the mother of all living” (Gen. 3:20). Nevertheless, her name also recalls the tragic consequences of choosing to disobey God. See “The Legacy of Eve” at 1 Tim. 2:13, 14.

God Limits Evil

Gen. 3:22–24

By breaking God's rules, the first couple gained a heartbreaking new knowledge. After choosing to question God and to trust evil, Adam and Eve ate the forbidden fruit. Then, having known only good, Adam and Eve came to know evil.

One of the first results of their newfound knowledge was that they no longer lived unashamed of themselves as creatures made in God's image. They sensed their nakedness and immediately covered their bodies (Gen. 3:7; compare 2:25).

Self-hatred was a sad gain, and it was only the beginning of humanity's trouble for acting on the serpent's deception. Soon the loss of respect for God's ways and for human dignity led to evil running rampant in God's good creation (6:5, 6).

God refused to let evil go unchecked. His response to the intrusion of sin into His world and into the lives of human beings was to limit evil. God imposed several restraints:

- He provided clothing, perhaps to limit lust and sexual abuses (3:21).
- He drove Adam and Eve from the garden, cutting them off from the Tree of Life and thus preventing them from living forever in a fallen condition (3:22–24).
- He prevented the first murderer, Cain, from continuing to farm and reap the benefits of the earth, perhaps to keep him from exploiting its resources to cause further destruction (4:11, 12).
- He sent a flood to halt the wickedness of Noah's generation, preserving Noah and his family to repopulate the earth from an obedient people (6:1–22).
- After the Flood, He limited what Noah and his descendants could eat and established a penalty for murder and perhaps for other interpersonal abuses (9:1–7).
- When evil again gained momentum and the people of Babel banded together to establish their supremacy over the rest of the world, God frustrated their plans by confusing their language and halting their plan to build a tower (11:1–9).

Each instance of God limiting evil reveals the Creator as a kind and benevolent Sovereign who intervenes to protect people from succumbing to wickedness and consequently destroying themselves. From our perspective, God's ways may seem too severe or not severe enough. But He knows better than we do (Is. 55:8, 9). He will not allow evil to completely undo what He loves and wishes to redeem.

God's actions give us reason for hope in a world crying with pain, violence, and immorality. Evil and wickedness persist. But the Bible continually reminds us of God's intervening love, urging us to persevere (Heb. 10:35–39; James 1:2–4), to give thanks in the midst of every circumstance (Col. 3:17; 1 Tim. 4:4, 5), and to act as salt to preserve good and as light to show others the glory of God (Matt. 5:13–16).

Cain
Gen. 4:1

Name means: "Acquire."

Home: After wandering and finding nowhere to settle (Gen. 4:12, 14), he built Enoch, the first city mentioned in the Bible (4:17), named for his firstborn son.

Family: Son of Adam and Eve; brother of Abel; father of Enoch.

Occupation: Farmer.

Best known as: The world's first murderer (4:2–8).

More: God's discussion of Cain's anger (Gen. 4:6, 7) raises questions about the appropriateness of this fierce emotion. Paul (Eph. 4:26) suggests that some anger is legitimate when he cites Ps. 4:4, "Be angry, and do not sin." But feeding anger rather than letting God help with it leads to many sins, such as murder and

The Birth of the City

Gen. 4:18

Cain went down in history as the world's first murderer. But few remember Cain as the first builder of a city. Ironically, from this exile's lineage came the first signs of urban civilization.

Cain's motivation to found a settled town may have sprung from the punishment he received for killing his brother Abel. God cursed Cain and forced him to wander the earth (Gen. 4:10–12). But Cain feared for his life, so God put a mark on him to protect him from harm (4:13–15). He nevertheless fled east of Eden ("Delight") to the land of Nod ("Wandering")—a stark contrast!

Perhaps to end his fugitive status, offset the effects of God's judgment, and even recapture something of the original Eden, Cain founded Enoch, naming the settlement after his firstborn son.

Some regard the birth of the city as bad, pointing out that the city came from a man who "went out from the presence of the LORD" (4:16). They wonder how a man alienated from God could create anything positive. Yet Cain's descendants brought good into the world, although without totally escaping the effects of either Adam's fall or the curse placed on Cain. Cain's progeny included Irad (meaning uncertain), Mehujael ("Smitten of God"), Methushael ("Man of God"), and Lamech (meaning unknown) (4:18).

The sons born to Lamech included another nomad or wanderer, Jabal ("Moving"), but also a musician, Jubal ("Playing"), and a skilled craftsman, especially in metalwork, Tubal-Cain ("Smith") (4:20–22). Thus from Cain came both pastoral and urban descendants, with the artist perhaps moving between both worlds. Their sister was named Naamah ("Pleasant").

Before long, another tragedy struck the Cain family when Lamech admitted to murder. Pleading self-defense as his reason for killing a man (4:23, 24), Lamech insisted he be avenged ten times as much as his ancestor Cain, who committed premeditated murder. In reality, Lamech took the law into his own hands, perpetuating the violence and the curse of Cain.

In the end, Cain left a legacy of both good and evil, a dual heritage that lives on in cities today. For instance, European cities gave rise both to the Reformation and the Holocaust; they produced both Bonhoeffer and Hitler. This history reminds us of God's sobering words to Cain, "If you do not do well, sin lies at the door. And its desire is for you" (4:7).

Name means: "Appointed."

Family: Son of Adam and Eve; "appointed" as a replacement for their murdered son Abel.

Best known as: A symbol of a return to righteousness: replacing "righteous Abel" (Matt. 23:35); he fathered a son, Enosh, and "men began to call on the name of the LORD" (Gen. 4:26); ancestor of Noah (5:6–32; 6:9) and of Jesus Christ (Luke 3:38).

The Purpose of Genealogies

Gen. 5:1

It is tempting to skip over genealogies when reading the Scriptures, but these family trees serve several essential purposes. Some trace the ancestry of key people in a narrative. Others show connections between the people and nations of the world (Gen. 10:1). Still others reveal God's sovereign plan progressing through the generations (Ruth 4:18–22).

Generally speaking, there are two kinds of genealogies, linear and segmented.

A linear genealogy traces the history of a people to a particular goal, person, or office. For example, the extended genealogy of 1 Chronicles 1–9 highlights the royal line of David.

By contrast, a segmented genealogy shows how various social groups are related. For example, Genesis 25:1–4 gives the names of Abraham's sons through his wife Keturah, believed to be ancestors of some Arabian tribes.

The Bible's genealogies demonstrate that faith in God is not just a subjective experience but an objective, historical reality. And we people influence each other. We can root our beliefs in history, which God is moving toward a goal.

Genealogies also remind us that authentic faith often involves human beings linked together. Faith or disobedience is a living story handed down from parents to children, generation after generation, until it reaches its dramatic conclusion in God's good time. You and I can choose to be people of faith, deliberately modeling for our children how believers behave and speak.

Major Genealogies of the Bible

Genealogy	Purpose
The descendants of Adam (Gen. 5:1–32)	Shows the line from Adam to Noah, through whom God "started over again" to remake the world.
The descendants of Noah (Gen. 10:1–32)	Shows the origin of tribes and nations that play a major role in the biblical narrative (see "The Birth of the Nations" at Gen. 10:1).
The descendants of Shem (Gen. 11:10–	Traces the line from Noah's son Shem to Abraham.

32)
The descendants of Esau (Gen. 36:1–43)	Outlines the principal families of the Edomites, cousins of the Israelites, with whom they repeatedly feuded (see "The Edomites: Perpetual Enemies of Israel" at Gen. 36:9 and "The Lessons of Obadiah" at Obad. 10).
The descendants of Jacob (Gen. 46:8–27)	Lists the principal families of the Israelites.
Moses' first census of Israel (Num. 1:1–46)	Gives the heads of the families that left Egypt in the Exodus.
Moses' second census of Israel (Num. 26:1–65)	Gives the heads of the families of the generation that entered the Promised Land; also used to divide the land among the tribes.
The genealogy of Israel (1 Chr. 1–9)	Reviews the principal families of the Israelites after the Babylonian exile to recall the nation's history and set the stage for the account of David's kingdom.
The lists of people returning from the Babylonian exile (Ezra 2:1–63; 8:1–14; Neh. 7:6–72)	Lists the principal families that returned to rebuild Judah; probably used to establish ownership of lands to return them to their rightful owners.
Matthew's genealogy of Jesus Christ (Matt. 1:1–17)	Establishes Jesus as the Son of David.
Luke's genealogy of Jesus Christ (Luke 3:23–38)	Establishes Jesus as fully human yet also the Son of God.

Enoch
Gen. 5:21

Name means: “Dedicated” or “Initiated.”

Not to be confused with: The son of Cain, for whom a city was named (Gen. 4:17).

Family: Son of Jared, a descendant of Seth; father of Methuselah; ancestor of Noah (5:21–32; 6:9) and of Jesus Christ (Luke 3:37).

Of special note: After the Babylonian exile, legends began to circulate claiming that Enoch was the father of writing and that he had received divine revelations.

Best known for: Walking with God (Gen. 5:22) until “God took him” (5:24), meaning that he was translated into God’s presence without dying, as was the prophet Elijah (2 Kin. 2:11). The New Testament honors Enoch as an example of outstanding faith (Heb. 11:5, 6).

Methuselah
Gen. 5:25

Name means: “Man of the Javelin.”

Family: Son of Enoch; ancestor of Noah (Gen. 5:25–29) and of Jesus Christ (Luke 3:37).

Special interests: Perhaps hunting, given his name.

Best known as: The oldest man mentioned in the Bible—he lived 969 years (Gen. 5:27). Nevertheless, the phrase "and he died" is repeated eight times in Gen. 5, a reminder of the consequences of Adam's sin (2:17; 3:19).

Noah

Gen. 6:9

Name means: "Rest."

Home: After the Flood, Noah's ark came to rest on Mount Ararat in the mountainous kingdom of Assyrian Urartu, north of Mesopotamia (eastern region of modern-day Turkey).

Occupation: Known as a farmer after the Flood (Gen. 9:20); he also took care of the animals aboard the ark and planted a vineyard.

Special interests: Described by Peter as "a preacher of righteousness" (2 Pet. 2:5); he also became a boatbuilder.

Best known for: Building an ark large enough to float with animals of every kind and his family of eight for 150 days (Gen. 7:24); Scripture highlights his bold stand for righteousness.

Think About It: What would you imitate in the life of Noah? How will you do rightly even when no one around you is doing so?

The Value of Life

Gen. 7:15

When God instructed Noah to bring into the ark his immediate family along with two of every creature that possessed the "breath of life," He acted to preserve His creatures from destruction. This included not only the destruction caused by the Flood but also the destruction caused by mankind's way of life.

Scripture portrays humanity with realism: on the whole, we are plagued by sin, evil, and death. While at points biblical accounts of violence may offend us, the scenes are no more violent than what can be seen in most cultures throughout history or around the world today. Bloodshed and wickedness are the norm of human existence. Protracted periods of peace are the exception.

The Bible consistently reveals the high value our Creator places on life. By the days of Noah, human sin was rampant. God looked at man and saw that his wickedness was "great," and that "every intent of the thoughts of his heart was only evil continually" (Gen. 6:5). He was "grieved in His heart" to see people dedicate themselves to wrongdoing (6:6). People were hurting people. Yet rather than abandon His creation, He decided to start over, offering mankind a fresh beginning. After the Flood, God established a code to enforce protection over people's lives (9:5, 6). In the same spirit, Christ later appealed to His followers to engage in peacemaking (Matt. 5:9). The biblical record clearly shows that God cherishes life. And as one of God's greatest gifts, life deserves our respect and honor.

Renewal
Gen. 8:20–22

The eruption of a volcano or the passing of a hurricane is nothing compared to the overwhelming destruction that must have occurred as a result of the Flood. Yet once the waters subsided, Noah led his family in worship and thanksgiving. He reaffirmed for future generations the value of life and the necessity of following God's ways.

The story of Noah reminds us that all forms of life share a common fate in this world. Moreover, they all experience God's concern and care. After the Flood, the Lord resolved never again to curse the ground or destroy every living thing. He promised to renew the cycle of the seasons. He sent forth both people and animals to repopulate the earth (Gen. 9:7). He vowed never again to completely destroy the human race by a flood (9:11). Then God created a sign of His promise, a beautiful rainbow, as a permanent reminder of His covenant with every living creature (9:12–17).

People continue to rebel against God. The Lord nevertheless calls us to value creation and join Him in managing it wisely (Lev. 25:2; Ps. 24:1, 2).

The Birth of the Nations
Gen. 10:1

The Flood reduced the world's population to one family—Noah, his wife, his three sons, and their wives (Gen. 7:13, 20–23; 8:18). God had decided to start over, repopulating the world from the family of one righteous man. Genesis summarizes the nations born from that family.

Genesis 10 might look like a list of obscure names and long-forgotten places, but the details matter for the rest of the biblical account, with this list functioning like the cast of characters in the preface of a play. It lists players, their relationships to each other, and which have main roles.

Genesis 10 foreshadows God working out a plan that includes all peoples of the world. He first scatters them abroad by confusing their languages at Babel (11:1–9). He then chooses one family, the descendants of Abraham, through which He will bless every family on earth (12:1–3). Ultimately that blessing flows out to all people through Jesus Christ.

Many Nations Under God

Gen. 10:32

The list of peoples and nations in Genesis 10 reminds us that just as God's judgment came upon the earth through a flood, so God's blessings on Noah have spread through his descendants to the ends of the earth. God made "from one blood every nation" of the world (Acts 17:26), the outcome of His charge to Noah to "be fruitful and multiply, and fill the earth" (Gen. 9:1).

Genesis 10 shows that all nations exist under God. No nation has always served God or submitted itself completely to His sovereignty. Some have even violently opposed God's ways. Nevertheless, this passage implies that God is concerned about the whole world and loves all its peoples (compare John 3:16, 17). As we survey the many nations of our world, we can know we are ultimately all part of the same family, all descendants of one righteous man, Noah (Gen. 10:32). As such we treat one another with the concern God shows.

From Babel to Pentecost: Scattering and Gathering

Gen. 11:8, 9

The confusion of languages at Babel was an explosive moment in history, introducing linguistic and societal barriers that survive to this day. However, in breaking up the unified community at Babel, God was working out His beneficent purposes. He miraculously disrupted their communication as an act of grace, preventing humanity from totally committing itself to rebellion and eventual self-destruction. God knew that people had united around a sinful desire to thwart His will (Gen. 11:6).

Many centuries later, the same God who scattered the people at Babel began to gather them together again. At Pentecost, His Spirit birthed a new community unified around Jesus Christ (see "The Spirit Gave Birth to a Multilingual Church" at Acts 2:5). The Lord even breached linguistic barriers on that day, working a miracle to match the miracle of creating language barriers at Babel.

Since the beginning of history, God has endeavored to save people from choosing sin. He still uses the principles of scattering and gathering. He helps people overcome every barrier standing in the way of misunderstanding Him or disobeying Him (see "Connecting Sunday to Monday" at Acts 2:46, 47).

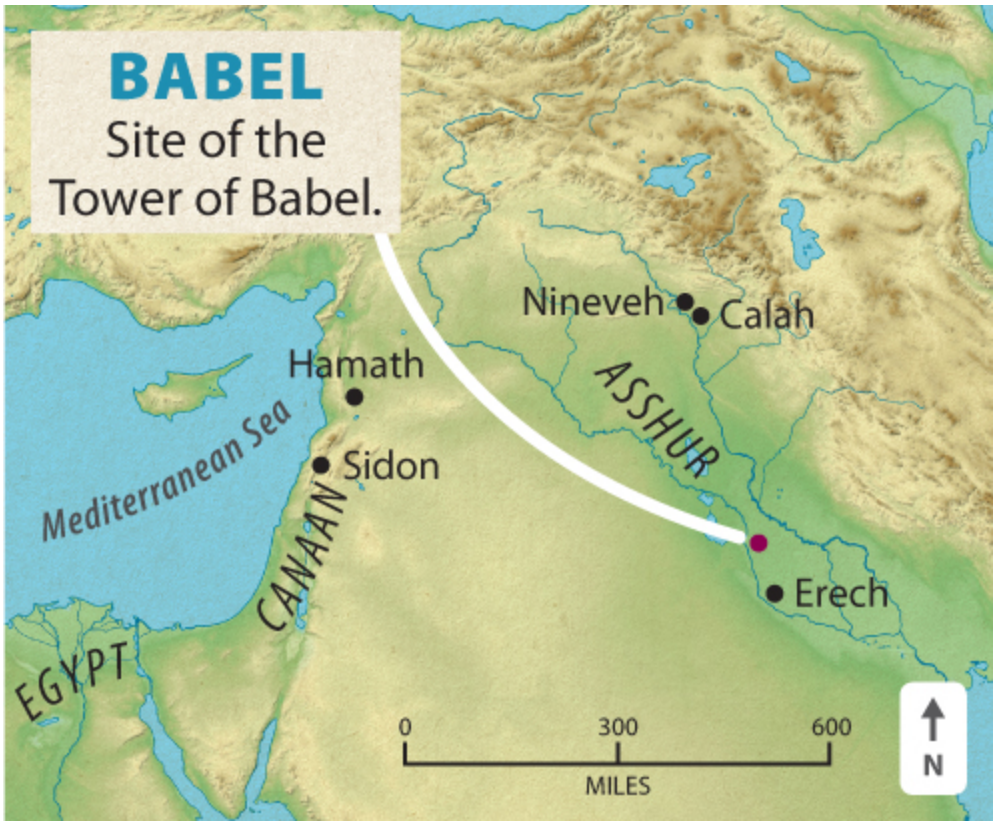
Babel

Gen. 11:9



- Name means “Confusion.” Elsewhere in the Old Testament the name is rendered as Babylon.
- Founded by Nimrod (Gen. 10:10).
- Site of the Tower of Babel (11:1–9), which may have been similar to the ziggurats common to the Sumerians, Babylonians, and Assyrians—lofty structures resembling pyramids, built in successive stages with outside staircases and a religious shrine at the top.
- Became a world-renowned city under Hammurabi (c. 1728–1686 B.C.), who made the city the home of Marduk, chief god in a pantheon of 1,300 deities.
- Assumed empire status under the Chaldean kings (625–539 B.C.), especially Nebuchadnezzar (605–563 B.C.).
- Famed for its wealth, commercial trade, and royal splendor. The city’s walls were so thick that chariots atop the walls could pass each other while traveling in opposite directions. Private homes were large, some with several courtyards and as many as two dozen rooms.
- Noted for its development of mythology, philology, medicine, mathematics, and astronomy.

More: Elsewhere in the Bible, Babylon often stands for more than just a city, but an entire world system in rebellion against God.

God's Plan Keeps Moving Forward

Gen. 11:10

A major turning point takes place in Genesis 11. For the second time, God offered a new beginning in the aftermath of judgment on a sinful humanity. Genesis outlined two cycles:

First cycle

- God created the world and its people (Gen. 1:1–2:25).
- Sin entered the world, and people became increasingly wicked; finally God destroyed them through the Flood (3:1–7:24).

Second cycle

- God started over again with Noah and his family (9:1–19); Noah's descendants multiplied (10:1–32).
- Eventually these descendants resisted God's mandate to "fill the earth" (1:28; 9:7); God scattered them abroad by confusing their language at Babel (11:1–9).

After God scattered Babel's inhabitants throughout the earth, He again singled out a man and his family through whom He would accomplish His purposes. He chose the family of Abram (later renamed Abraham), a descendant of Shem (11:10–26).

God told Abram to leave his country, his father's house, and his extended family, instructing him to travel to an unknown land (12:1). There God would grant Abram land, fame, and a family too large to number. This call of Abram narrows the focus of the Old Testament to one family, but through this clan, all the families of the earth would be blessed (12:3). When Abram responded in faith and began his walk toward God's promise, the Lord's long-term strategy to bless the entire world moved further forward.

God works to bring people into right relationship with Him. Ultimately that plan of redemption would be fulfilled in Abram's descendant Jesus Christ (Eph. 1:3, 4, 7–12; Col. 1:26, 27). Through Jesus, anyone can start over again in knowing God and living as He originally intended (2 Cor. 5:17). The Lord's plan will be complete in heaven, where He will be worshiped by a throng gathered from "every tribe and tongue and people and nation" (Rev. 5:9).

More: The promise of a blessing on "all the families of the earth" (Gen. 12:3) is fulfilled in Jesus Christ, the Savior of the world (Luke 2:29–32). Yet centuries before Jesus came, the psalmist wrote of God's salvation among all nations. See Ps. 67 for a song of international worship and worldwide blessing beginning with Israel.

Abram's Journey
Gen. 11:31

Abram's family left Ur, to the southeast of ancient Babylon, to embark on a journey of several hundred miles along the Fertile Crescent, a well-watered region amid the dry lands of the ancient Middle East. They settled in Haran, a flourishing trade center. God then sent Abram toward a new land that would be divulged only when he had arrived there. Abram eventually pitched his tent in Bethel (Gen 12:8). What have you discovered about following God even before you know all the steps?

Abraham

Gen. 12:1

Name means: "Father of a Multitude" (Gen. 17:5).

Also known as: Abram (“Exalted Father”).

Home: Ur of the Chaldeans; Haran (11:31); the land of Canaan (12:5); Egypt (12:10); Beersheba in the land of the Philistines (21:34).

Family: Husband to Sarah; father to Isaac; father to Ishmael.

Best known as: The patriarch of ancient Israel and the one to whom and through whom God promised a blessing to all nations (12:1–3; 13:14–16; 17:1–8; 18:17–19; 22:17, 18).

The Families of the Old Testament
Gen. 12:3

God promised to bless all the families of the earth through Abraham, and Scripture shows that God often used families to accomplish His purposes. The Old Testament relates the story of many families and how God worked them into His master plan. Some of the more notable Old Testament families are:

“The Family of Adam and Eve”	Gen. 5:3
“The Family of Noah”	Gen. 5:32
“The Family of Abraham”	Gen. 15:4–6
“The Family of Jacob”	Gen. 35:22–26
“The Family of Moses, Aaron, and Miriam”	Ex. 6:20–25

“The Family of Ruth and Boaz”	Ruth 4:13–22
“The Family of David”	2 Sam. 3:2–5

These families were not perfect. They experienced sibling rivalries, even murder (Gen. 4:5–8); lying and deception (Gen. 12:10–20); conflict over childlessness (Gen 30:1–2); loss and suffering (Ruth 1:1–18); marital unfaithfulness (2 Sam. 11:1–5). The good news is a family doesn’t have to be perfect to experience the blessings of God or to fulfill His purposes. The generations of families and their connections show what God was accomplishing in the ancient world. What might God say about your family actions in generations to come?

More: *God promised to bless all the families of the earth. This happens even amidst difficulties. See “Instead, Choose to Show Family Care” at Gen. 42:36. The families of Genesis grew into peoples, tribes, and nations. Lot
Gen. 13:5, 8

Name means: "Covering."

Home: Originally Ur of the Chaldeans; traveled with Abram to Haran, Canaan, Egypt, and back to Bethel; settled among the cities of the well-watered plain of Jordan (Gen. 11–13); moved to Sodom; eventually fled to the mountains by way of Zoar.

Family: Nephew of Abraham.

Occupation: Herdsman who owned many flocks and cattle.

Best known as: Abraham's nephew who enjoyed the comforts and customs of wicked Sodom. Lot paid dearly for his poor judgment, losing his home and possessions, his sons-in-law, and his wife (19:1–26). The New Testament nevertheless presents him as a righteous man whose soul was tormented day after day as he witnessed his neighbors' lawless deeds (2 Pet. 2:6–9).

More: The "plain of Jordan" which Lot chose for himself (Gen. 13:10–12) is described by the Hebrew word kikkar (meaning "circle" or "circuit"). This means that Lot chose a large area of the Jordan River plain from Succoth in the north to Sodom in the south. There are seven Hebrew words to translate the English word plain.

Think About It: What can you learn from the life of Lot? Who can help you make choices that are wise for the long run rather than simply convenient for the present? Why, based on Lot's experience, would the Bible urge us to flee evil, rather than put ourselves in proximity to it?

The Cities of the Plain
Gen. 13:12

Lot's decision to live among the cities of the plain and to pitch his tent near Sodom meant he was headed for trouble because he apparently ignored Sodom's well-known reputation for evil. The eventual destruction of Sodom became legendary throughout the ancient world as the fitting consequence of wickedness. Two other cities, Admah and Zeboiim, were destroyed along with Sodom and Gomorrah (Deut. 29:23). Only one of the five cities of the plain, Zoar, escaped judgment.

What makes us ignore evil actions or reputations? When do we come close to evil assuming it won't affect us, or assuming we can handle it?

The Land of Promise

Gen. 13:14, 15

Canaan was the land the Lord showed Abraham and promised to his descendants forever. In Abraham's day, the area was inhabited by various tribes known collectively as the Canaanites (see "The Canaanites" at Josh. 3:10). It would be several hundred years before Abraham's descendants took possession of most of the land, when "the iniquity of the Amorites" was complete (Gen. 15:16). Moses later carefully defined the borders of the land (Num. 34:1–12).

No one knows whether Abraham and the other patriarchs had maps to consult about the territory God promised them (Gen. 13:14, 15), and to date no maps have been unearthed from that era. Nevertheless, the Hebrew words indicating direction offer an idea of what such a map would have looked like:

- "forward" means east;
- "behind" means west;
- "right" means south; and
- "left" means north.

In other words, the Old Testament fathers looked to the east as their point of reference—not to the north, as is the usual practice today.

Abraham's Actions Toward Unbelievers
Gen. 14:16

Christians sometimes struggle to relate to people who might be called "committed unbelievers"—people who have made up their minds to have nothing to do with God. Christians might even treat these people with anger and animosity. Abraham offered a better model in Genesis 14 when he placed his life and property at risk to show kindness to his unbelieving neighbors.

Pushing Borders

The battles of Genesis 14 resulted from the expansionist visions of the Elamites. Elam was a notable world power in Abraham's day. For centuries the Elamites struggled with the Babylonians, Assyrians, Medes, and Persians for sovereignty over the territory around the Tigris and Euphrates Rivers (occupied today by Iran, Iraq, and Syria). Between about 2000 and 1800 B.C., the Elamites significantly expanded their kingdom, destroying Ur, Abraham's birthplace, in about 1950 B.C. It was likely shortly thereafter that King Chedorlaomer initiated a major military campaign to the west and south against the strongholds of the Canaanites (Gen. 14:1–3).

Chedorlaomer's design might have been to gain a foothold in Canaan in preparation for later advances against Egypt. Whatever his strategy, his coalition of forces was successful. For the next twelve years, the five cities of the plain headed by Sodom and Gomorrah became his vassal states (14:4).

Rebellion Crushed

When the Canaanites finally rebelled, Chedorlaomer responded by invading with full force. It appears the Elamite king planned not only to crush Sodom and its allies but also to lay claim to all of Canaan. His army swept down from the north until it came to the desert at El Paran. Then it turned back to the north and overran the Amalekites and Amorites (14:5–7). The Elamites controlled the entire land of Canaan from north to south. No one could stop them.

With the cities of the plain isolated from their allies, Chedorlaomer focused his attention on settling the score with his rebellious tributaries. After a fierce battle in which the Canaanite forces were thoroughly routed, the survivors ran for the mountains. Many did not make it (14:8–10). The Elamites plundered the cities before starting the thousand-mile trip back to Elam. Included among the captives was Lot, Abraham's nephew (14:11, 12).

Surprise Attack

With Lot held captive, Abraham acted. He mustered his servants along with a group of Amorite neighbors who had survived the Elamite invasion. The combined forces probably numbered no more than one or two thousand men. God enabled the small militia to launch a surprise attack against Chedorlaomer's army and send his troops running for their lives out of Canaan (14:14, 15).

Abraham's victory rescued Lot and his family from almost certain slavery and also delivered the Canaanites from Elamite control. This is significant in light of the fact that the Canaanites—those in the cities of the plain as well as those living elsewhere in Canaan, such as the Amorites—were idolaters whose wickedness would eventually result in their destruction (18:20, 21; 19:13, 24, 25; see also "Abominations: How Not to Act" at Lev. 18:24–30).

A Model of God's Grace

God could have used Chedorlaomer to destroy Sodom and the rest of the Canaanites. Instead, He blessed these godless people by prompting Abraham to chase away their enemies. Perhaps the Lord was giving the Canaanites an opportunity to repent. Certainly Abraham's behavior modeled grace for them, and this immigrant from Ur became their highly respected friend. In fact, his rout of Chedorlaomer may be why Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob lived in relative peace with their neighbors for the next two hundred years.

Abraham models how to show grace to unbelieving neighbors and associates. Even if they are unyielding in their resolve to reject God, the Lord nevertheless wants to bless them through us. Even if they never respond to God, we can bring them His care.

Hagar
Gen. 16:1

Name means: "Flight." The name, which is Semitic, may have been given to this Egyptian slave by her Hebrew owner Sarah.

Home: Originally Egypt; eventually Canaan.

Family: Concubine to Abraham, who fathered her son Ishmael.

Occupation: Slave.

Best known as: The woman through whom childless Sarah attempted to fulfill the Lord's promise of a son.

More: See "Barrenness" at Gen. 18:11, 12 and "Concubines" at Gen. 30:3–13. In the New Testament, Hagar is used as a warning against turning to the law for salvation rather than trusting in Christ alone (Gal. 4:24–31).

Ishmael
Gen. 16:15

Not to be confused with: Five other men in the Old Testament with the same name (1 Chr. 8:38; 2 Chr. 19:11; 23:1; Ezra 10:22; Jer. 41:1–15).

Home: Grew up in the Wilderness of Paran, south of Canaan.

Family: Son of Abraham by his wife Sarah's Egyptian handmaid Hagar; husband of an unnamed Egyptian woman (Gen. 21:21); father of twelve sons and one daughter, Mahalath, who married Esau, son of Isaac (28:9).

Special interests: Archery (21:20).

Best known as: A perceived competitor to Isaac, the "son of promise" (21:9, 10; Gal. 4:29), which brought about the banishment of Hagar and Ishmael from Abraham's family. God heard their prayers and eventually fulfilled His promise to make a great nation of Ishmael outside the covenant.

Circumcision

Gen. 17:9–14

The rite of circumcision formed a powerful, enduring symbol of God's covenant relationship with Abraham and his offspring.

The procedure of surgically removing the male foreskin was widely practiced in the ancient world, including in the Egyptian and Canaanite cultures. But they performed the rite at the start of puberty as an initiation into manhood. By contrast, Hebrews circumcised infant boys as a sign of their calling to serve God as His special, holy people in the midst of a pagan world. The reason we do a good act is often as important as the act itself.

God instructed Abraham to circumcise every male in his household, including servants. This was a physical sign of the covenant between the Lord and His people, and any male not circumcised was to be "cut off from his people" and regarded as a covenant breaker. The custom was performed on the eighth day after birth, when a son was named (Luke 1:59; 2:21). Early in Hebrew history, the rite was performed by the father, but the job eventually fell to specialists.

The Hebrew people unwisely took pride in circumcision as a badge of their spiritual and national superiority. This attitude fostered a spirit of exclusivism rather than a compassion to reach out to other nations as God intended. Gentiles came to be regarded as the "Uncircumcision" (Eph. 2:11), a term of disrespect implying non-Jewish peoples stood outside the circle of God's love. Eventually the terms circumcised and uncircumcised became charged with emotion, a fact obvious from the discord around the issue centuries later in the early church (see "The Circumcision" at Gal. 2:12). How does a good action turn into a divisive or hurtful action?

Also known as: Sarai ("My Princess").

Home: Originally Ur in Mesopotamia; later Haran; eventually Canaan.

Family: Half-sister to her husband Abraham—they had the same father but different mothers (Gen. 20:12); mother of Isaac.

Best known for: Bearing a promised son, Isaac, after she was well past childbearing years.

More: Just as Jewish men valued their connection with Abraham, so Jewish women tended to regard themselves as daughters of Sarah. In the New Testament, Peter used this to advantage in exhorting Christian wives about their relationship to their husbands (see 1 Pet. 3:1–6).

Barrenness
Gen. 18:11, 12

Sarah laughed at the thought of bearing children at an advanced age. She may have laughed more out of pain than surprise because in her day, barrenness was considered a curse (Gen. 16:2; 20:17, 18; Luke 1:25) and grounds for divorce. Several women in Scripture illustrate the pain and predicament of a childless woman.

Sodom and Gomorrah

Gen. 18:20

- Two of the five "cities of the plain" (Gen. 13:12) near the southern end of the Dead Sea in a fertile area said to be like Eden (13:10).
- Sodom means "Burning"; Gomorrah means "Submersion."
- Notorious in the Bible and elsewhere for wickedness and rebellion against God (for example, 2 Pet. 2:6).
- Chosen by Lot, Abraham's nephew, as the area to graze his flocks and pitch his tent (Gen. 13:11).
- Judged by God for a variety of sins, including failure to care for the poor despite much wealth (Ezek. 16:49) and for sexual immorality (Jude 7).
- Destroyed by brimstone and fire that rained from the sky (Gen. 19:24, 25). The region is still barren even though it was once "well watered everywhere" (13:10).

The Legacy of Sodom and Gomorrah

Gen. 19:29

Throughout Scripture and many extrabiblical works, Sodom and Gomorrah and the other cities of the plain (Gen. 13:12) stand as a symbol of divine judgment for collective wickedness.

What was once a well-watered, fertile region is today desolate, full of tar pits, mounds of asphalt, and marshes. These ill-fated cities remind us that wickedness will not go unpunished. They also show that God not only judges sinful individuals like Lot's wife (19:26) but also judges cities.

However, the story is not all bad news. After the tragic end of Sodom and Gomorrah, "God remembered Abraham" (19:29). When we recall the patriarch's righteous example, several lessons of the story become clear.

- Running away does not curtail sin—it only spreads it around. The behavior of Lot and his daughters after fleeing from Sodom shows sin is not confined by geographical barriers. The people brought Sodom-like immorality wherever they went (Gen. 19:19–22, 30–36). Running from a place to escape its problems and evils may be a way of avoiding God's call to stay and live as His representatives.
- Prayer matters. Abraham shows us that it is legitimate to pray for cities (18:22–33) even if we can never go there. Abraham prayed persistently for the city of Sodom, believing nothing was too hard for the Lord (18:14). His example challenges us to pray and to ask God to accomplish specific things.
- Righteousness makes a difference. Ten believing persons living in Sodom could have saved it (18:32). In other words, righteous persons acting as salt and light (Matt. 5:13–16) can preserve places where evil runs rampant. God spared Zoar for the sake of one righteous man, Lot (Gen. 19:16–22; 2 Pet. 2:6, 7). God's people should live boldly, humbly, and righteously in the places He calls us to.
- Pride goes before a fall. Sodom was destroyed not only because of sexual sin (Gen. 19:1–17; Jude 7) but also due to its pride and its hoarding of wealth while failing to care for the poor and needy (Ezek. 16:48–50). The city's example challenges us to use the resources God puts under our control with wisdom and generosity.
- God decides. God can and will decide when, where, and how judgment will fall. God can also rescue people from evil places. Those facts invite us to trust and respect God, living with the knowledge that we are accountable to Him.

More: The two beings described as angels (Gen. 19:1) were messengers from God sent to warn Lot of Sodom's impending destruction. Angels play important roles throughout the Bible, even when they remain in the background. See "Angels and Demons" at Matt. 8:29; and "Angels" at Rev. 7:1 for more on the nature and purpose of angels.

Beersheba

Gen. 21:31

- Site of a number of weighty encounters with God, including Hagar's (21:17), Isaac's (26:23–33), and Jacob's (46:1–5).
- Chief city of the Negev Desert at the southernmost extremity of the Promised Land, giving rise to the expression, "from Dan (in the north) to Beersheba" (for example, Judg. 20:1; 1 Chr. 21:2).
- Name means "Well of the Oath" or "Well of the Seven," referring to a covenant between Abraham and Abimelech concerning a well Abimelech had seized; the agreement was sealed with a gift of seven ewe lambs (Gen. 21:28–31). In swearing to assist a pagan king, Abraham demonstrated respect for other peoples in Canaan even though they did not worship the Lord.
- Identified by archaeologists as modern-day Tell es-Saba, two miles east of modern-day Beersheba.

The Death of a Son

Gen. 22:2

We don’t know what Abraham thought when he first heard God’s command to offer his only son Isaac as a sacrifice. But at some point Abraham chose to trust God, setting out on a three-day journey toward the mountain God named. Though the sacrifice of his beloved son seemed to negate God’s promise of an heir, Abraham obeyed God.

Numerous Old Testament passages teach that God abhors human sacrifice (for example, Lev. 18:21; 20:2; Deut. 12:31; Ps. 106:35–38; Ezek. 20:30, 31). When Abraham was about to slay his son, God stopped the raised knife and provided a non-human alternative in Isaac's place.

This scene gives us a glimpse of God's own anguish when He would one day offer up His own beloved Son on the cross. It proves that Abraham's faith in the God of mercy was well-placed. It also demonstrates the wisdom of God. He may make what seem like outrageous requests. But if, like Abraham, we believe and obey, He will reward our faith with His goodness and righteousness.

More: The sacrifice of Isaac mirrored the terrible suffering and death Christ endured to break the bondage holding all of God's creation in its vicious grip.

Isaac

Gen. 22:2

Name means: "Laughter."

Home: Possibly born at Gerar (Gen. 20:1; 21:1, 2); lived at Beer Lahai Roi ("The Well of the Living One Who Sees Me"; 25:11) after his father Abraham's death; famine prompted him to move his family back to Gerar, where he reopened the wells Abraham had dug (26:17, 18); eventually settled in the Wilderness of Beersheba.

Family: Son of Abraham and Sarah; husband of Rebekah; father of Jacob and Esau.

Best known as: The "child of promise" (18:14; Gal. 4:28) and the object of supreme testing for Abraham's faith (Gen. 22:1–18).

Think About It: What would you imitate in the life of Isaac? How will you treat people differently because of Isaac's experiences/choices?

Let the Nations Sing

Gen. 22:18

God's promise to bless "all the nations of the earth" through Abraham is still being fulfilled today. Throughout the world, people are finding the blessing of new life in Christ following salvation from sin. The descendant (or "seed") of Abraham is the one through whom God's blessing has come. This good news is worth celebrating, and Scripture urges the nations to "be glad and sing for joy" (Ps. 67:4). Each day brings us the opportunity to celebrate another believer in one of many nations, coming to blessing in Christ.

A Public Transaction

Gen. 23:18

Abraham's purchase of the field of Ephron was a public transaction, evident from the phrase "before all who went in at the gate of his city." In the ancient Middle East, civic business was often conducted at the city gates. Those who "went in at the gate" were primarily adult male property owners. A similar reference occurs in Genesis 34:24 to indicate the adult males of Shechem.

More: Gates became a metaphor signifying the economic and political life of walled cities. To learn more about the significance of this term, see "The Gates of Hell" at Matt. 16:18.

Praying for Success

Gen. 24:12–14

Innumerable people have prayed words like those spoken by Abraham's servant, asking God for success in finding the right spouse. Others have requested help with grades, sports, business, or other aspects of life, asking God to bless their efforts with success.

Surrounded by others pushing to succeed, people of faith often struggle with the place and pursuit of success. Some believe material success always represents a compromise of spiritual convictions. Others feel success signals God is pleased with them. Still others say they are not interested in success, yet their claim seems to be an excuse for poor performance in key areas of life.

The issue of success is complex and charged with emotion. But these observations may prove helpful:

- True success is defined by God. Thriving as defined by him is good and wise.
- Many successes imply striving to meet a set of standards established by a person or group. Those standards may be false or true.
- The pursuit of success is made or denied by each person. No one can make someone else pursue success.
- Obtaining success always exacts a cost. It requires time, ability, and resources that may have been better invested in other areas. For example working long hours may bring a temporary promotion but you'll lose the joy of working with a spouse or will weaken relationships with Christians who keep you joyful and accountable. At the same time investing long hours in a job may be exactly God's plan for this season and this job.

- Some successes are wise to pursue; others are foolish to pursue.

As we pursue success—and choose what success to pursue—we can ask three questions:

1. Who determines what success means for me?
2. What am I choosing by pursing this particular success?
3. What should I, and should I not, invest to achieve this success?

Rebekah

Gen. 24:15

Name means: Uncertain, possibly “Ensnaring Beauty.”

Home: Originally Haran (also called “the city of Nahor,” Gen. 24:10); then Beer Lahai Roi (24:61, 62), Gerar (26:17, 18), and other locations in Canaan after marrying Isaac.

Family: Daughter of Bethuel, Abraham’s nephew; wife of Isaac; mother of Esau and Jacob.

Occupation: Homemaker.

Best known for: Masterminding the deception by which Jacob obtained Isaac’s blessing instead of Esau (27:5–29).

Think About It: What motives fed Rebekah’s behavior? What actions would have led to love for her husband and sons? How will you do family differently because of Rebekah’s experiences and choices?

Esau

Gen. 25:27

Name means: "Hairy."

Also known as: Edom ("Red"), the name he was given after he traded his birthright to his brother Jacob.

Home: Settled near Mount Seir when his family and possessions grew too numerous to live comfortably near his brother Jacob (36:6–8).

Family: Son of Isaac and Rebekah; married Canaanite wives, a source of grief to his parents (26:34, 35); ancestor of the Edomites.

Special interests: Hunting and the outdoors (25:27, 28).

Best known for: Giving up his birthright in exchange for a meal (25:29–34) and being cheated out of his father's blessing (27:36). The latter was such a bitter loss he vowed to kill his brother. The birthright and blessing would have secured for Esau most of his father's property and the role as the family patriarch and priest.

More: Esau showed remarkable magnanimity in reconciling with Jacob. Even though Esau forgave his brother, the author of Hebrews used him as an illustration of the dire consequences of harboring bitterness. See "Spiritual Checkpoints" at Heb. 12:14–29.

Think About It: What would you imitate in the life of Esau? How would you manage the totally cruel betrayal he experienced? How will you do family differently because of Esau's experiences and choices?

Birthrights

Gen. 25:31

When Jacob asked Esau to sell him his birthright, he sought to obtain a position with both legal and spiritual benefits. A firstborn son in Bible times enjoyed a favored position by right of birth. He was privileged to inherit a double portion of his father's assets (Deut. 21:17) and could expect to receive a special blessing before the father died. After his father's death, a firstborn son became the head of the family, carrying on the family name and acting as the family priest.

These inheritance rights of the firstborn were protected by law; a father could not give his benefits to a younger son (21:15–17). However, the firstborn himself could lose, forfeit, or sell his birthright. Jacob's son Reuben lost his favored position because he committed incest with his father's concubine (Gen. 35:22; 1 Chr. 5:1, 2). Esau sold his birthright for a stew of lentils (Gen. 25:29–34), later described as "one morsel of food" (Heb. 12:16).

Esau's story serves as a cautionary tale, reminding us to cling to what God has promised. It was bad enough to squander his inheritance for a single meal. Far worse, he lost the blessing of God and His promise to make a great nation of Abraham (Gen. 22:15–18).

More: The oldest son's birthright should not be confused with the father's blessing, though the two are related. See "The Blessing" at Gen. 49:28.

Family Member Misbehavior

Gen. 27:13–17

As a patriarch neared death, a mother and a son schemed to get the elderly man's blessing and inheritance for themselves. As is often the case today, this early family was ripped apart over favoritism, greed, and an inheritance.

Jacob
Gen. 27:36

Name means: "Supplanter" or "Deceitful"; literally "One Who Takes the Heel."

Also known as: Israel ("Prince with God"), the name given him after struggling with God at Peniel near the river Jabbok (Gen. 32:28; 35:10).

Home: Originally Beersheba, later Bethel (28:10–22; 35:6, 7), Haran in Padan Aram (29:1–31:21), Shechem (33:18–20), and Hebron (35:27) before immigrating to Egypt, where he spent his final years (46:1–49:33).

Family: Son of Isaac and Rebekah; husband of Rachel and Leah; father of many children, including Joseph.

Occupation: Breeder and herdsman of livestock (30:29–43), which yielded him considerable wealth.

Known to be: A mild man and a homebody as a boy, favored by his mother over his brother Esau (25:27, 28).

Best known for: His scheming ways that affected nearly everyone in his life—Esau, Isaac, Laban, even God's angel; also for his dramatic dream of a ladder reaching to heaven and for being the father of twelve sons whose descendants became the twelve tribes of Israel.

Think About It: How will you do family life differently because of Jacob's actions? What damage is done by favoritism, or being favored? What are the solutions?

Cease the Cover-Up

Gen. 27:41

The cheating schemes of Esau's mother and brother left Esau deprived of lifelong blessing (Gen. 27:1–39). When he realized what his family had done to him, he was justifiably outraged (27:34–36; Heb. 12:16, 17). Though his anger later cooled, he initially dealt with his anger and hurt by letting it build into a deadly grudge. He was determined to retaliate by killing his brother once their father was dead (Gen. 27:41).

When Rebekah learned of Esau's plan, she helped Jacob escape. Rather than confront the deception she and Jacob had committed—and make things right with Esau—she merely suggested the anger would abate with time (27:42–45). Poor comfort coming from a guilty party.

This evil web of trickery and manipulation continued into the next generation. Jacob's sons committed evils that included vengefully destroying an entire city (34:1–31) and selling a brother into slavery, then staging his death to escape their father's anger (37:23–28, 31–35). Apparently Jacob's sons learned from their father and grandmother that the best way to deal with sin is to cover it up.

This is the nature of evil. It binds people like a spider wraps a fly, tighter and tighter in more and more threads until escape is impossible—impossible, that is, without divine intervention. God's response to sin was to offer Jesus Christ as a sacrifice for us. He took on Himself the penalty for sin that we deserve. He is therefore able to break the bonds of sin that ensnare us (Rom. 5:6–9). We can stop the cover-up.

God longs to set us free from ongoing patterns of evil and destruction. He stands ready to equip us to do so. Apart from Him we can be certain—things do not get better with time.

More: Esau and Jacob eventually repaired the conflict between them (Gen. 33:4, 10, 11). Nevertheless, the brothers set a precedent for their descendants that grew into a centuries-long feud between the Edomites and the Israelites. See "Pain That Leads to Prejudice" at Num. 20:14–21.

Bethel

Gen. 28:19

- A city in Palestine 12 miles north of Jerusalem.
- Originally called Luz (“Deceit” or “Perversion”); renamed Bethel (“House of God”) by Jacob; later derided by the prophets (for example, Jer. 48:13), especially Hosea, who called it Beth Aven (“House of Idols” or “House of Iniquity”; Hos. 4:15; 5:8; 10:5).
- Near the site of the altar Abraham built to remember God’s covenant (Gen. 12:8; 13:3).
- Place where Jacob erected a pillar to mark the spot where he dreamed of angels ascending and descending a ladder to heaven (28:10–22).

- Home of the ark of the covenant in the period of the judges (Judg. 20:26, 27).
- Place where King Jeroboam of Judah set up a golden calf to establish an idolatrous sanctuary rivaling the temple at Jerusalem, (1 Kin. 12:28–33; 13:1–32; 2 Kin. 10:29).
- Purged by King Josiah, the reformer who destroyed pagan shrines and idols (2 Kin. 23:15).
- Resettled after the Babylonian exile (Ezra 2:28; Neh. 7:32).
- Mentioned more in the Old Testament than any other city except Jerusalem, yet unmentioned in the New Testament.
- Site of the modern-day village of Beitin.
- Not to be confused with Bethel in the territory of Simeon (1 Sam. 30:27), which may be the same as Bethul (Josh. 19:4) or Bethuel (1 Chr. 4:30).

Sacred Space

Gen. 28:22

Wherever God touches the world, that place becomes sacred space.

For example, waking from a dream in which he saw and heard the Lord, Jacob cried, “Surely the LORD is in this place” (Gen. 28:16). He immediately built an altar and changed the name of the spot from Luz (“Deceit” or “Perversion”) to Bethel (“House of God”). Because God had appeared there, the place became holy ground.

Likewise, Abraham built an altar near Bethel to remember where God met him (12:8; 13:3, 4).

This Old Testament realization of sacred space assumed even greater meaning in the New Testament, where God Himself “became flesh and dwelt among us” (John 1:14, emphasis added). Jesus literally “tabernacled” or “pitched His tent” in our midst. He not only touched the earth but took up residence in the body of a man.

Jesus alluded to this Bethel-like visitation in a conversation with Nathanael, a man He recruited as one of His followers. Just as Jacob saw angels ascending and descending on a ladder between heaven and earth, so Nathanael would see “heaven open, and the angels of God ascending and descending upon the Son of Man" (1:51). Bethel, the house of God, had been superseded by Jesus, the Son of God.

Jesus was even more than sacred space. He was the sacred Person. Wherever He went, God went. Whatever place He visited became sacred.

But this holy ground expanded beyond Christ's bodily presence on earth. Jesus promised to send His Spirit to live in His followers no matter where or when they live (14:16, 17). In other words, we become "the house of God," the place where God lives (compare 1 Cor. 6:19, 20). Wherever we go, God goes.

As Christ lives in us and we live in the world, everywhere we move is a place God can do His work. Every street we walk is a Bethel. Every neighborhood, blighted or blooming, becomes sacred space. Because of God's presence in His people, there are no throwaway communities. There is no corner on earth—or in our hearts—we cannot reclaim for God.

Laban

Gen. 29:5

Name means: "White."

Also known as: "The Syrian" (Gen. 25:20; 31:20).

Home: City of Nahor in Padan Aram in northern Mesopotamia (modern-day Iraq).

Family: Father of Rachel and Leah.

Occupation: Breeder and herder of livestock.

Religious background: Apparently worshiped the Lord (24:31) but kept household idols (31:19).

Known to be: Shrewd in his dealings, from arrangements for marriage and dowries to labor and management.

Best known as: The father-in-law of Jacob who "outschemed the schemer." He forced Jacob to work seven years in hopes of marrying Rachel, only to give him Leah; he then forced Jacob to work seven more years for Rachel, then contracted for Jacob's services indefinitely, changing the price ten times (31:41).

Leah

Gen. 29:16

Family: Older daughter of Laban, a relative of Abraham; niece of Rebekah; first wife of Jacob; mother of six sons, Reuben, Simeon, Levi, Judah, Issachar, and Zebulun, and a daughter, Dinah.

who competed with her sister Rachel for the honor of bearing children to Jacob (30:1–24).

Women in the Ancient World

Gen. 29:31–35

Many ancient cultures regarded women as little more than property, and the men who wrote the literature of those times often overlooked women's presence and significance.

By contrast, the Bible recounts women's leadership, contributions, and innermost thoughts, detailing both failures and successes. Scripture provides an honest portrait of both men and women living in a fallen world.

Key Women in the Book of Genesis

Name	Description
Eve (Gen. 2:18–4:26)	The first woman; chose to deceive herself; consequently chose to eat what God had forbidden, resulting in expulsion from the Garden of Eden and separation from God.
Sarai/Sarah (Gen. 17:15–18:15; 20:1–21:13; 23:1, 2)	A woman whose child late in life was the fulfillment of God's covenant promise.
Hagar (Gen. 16:1–16; 21:9–21)	The first woman in the Bible to call out a name for God ("You-Are-the-God-Who-Sees," Gen. 16:13); also a slave abused by her mistress; God remembered and rescued her.
Lot's Daughters (Gen. 19:30–38)	Two women widowed by the destruction of Sodom and who chose incest rather than possible barrenness.
Rebekah (Gen. 24:1–67; 25:20–26; 27:5–46)	A cunning woman who perceived a way to obtain her husband's blessing for her favorite son.
Rachel and	Rival daughters of a manipulative father; rival wives

Leah (Gen. 29:9–30:24)	of the same husband.
Dinah (Gen. 34:1–31)	A victim of rape; avenged by her brothers, who considered the assault on her as an assault on their entire family.
Tamar (Gen. 38:1–20)	A widow who resorted to prostitution to obtain justice and support from her father-in-law.
Potiphar's Wife (Gen. 39:7–20)	The vindictive wife of Potiphar who used sexual harassment to slander an innocent man.

Concubines
Gen. 30:3–13

Leah and Rachel, competing for the favor of their husband Jacob, offered their maids to bear his children. Their maids Zilpah and Bilhah became Jacob's secondary wives, or concubines.

The practice of concubinage, a form of polygamy, was common throughout the ancient Middle East. A concubine was usually a female slave with whom the leading male of the family was free to have sexual relations. She was not considered equal to his full wife (or wives), but she could not be sold if the man lost interest in her. However, a concubine's rights varied from culture to culture.

One of the main justifications for taking a concubine was to give birth to children, particularly a son. The wives of the patriarchs used concubines to attain heirs, as the following table shows.

Examples of Concubines in the Bible

Concubines	Owners	Story
Hagar (Gen. 16)	Abram (Abraham) and Sarai (Sarah)	Functioned as a concubine through Sarah's insistence; gave birth to Ishmael.
Bilhah (Gen. 30:1–8)	Jacob and Rachel	Gave birth to two of Jacob's twelve sons; later became sexually involved with Reuben, Jacob's oldest son (Gen. 35:22).
Zilpah (Gen. 30:9–13)	Jacob and Leah	Gave birth to two of Jacob's twelve sons.
Unnamed (Judg. 19)	Unidentified Levite of Ephraim	Unfaithful to her husband; reconciled with her husband, but men from Gibeah, caused her death.
Rizpah (2 Sam. 3:7)	Saul	Bore two sons, Armoni and Mephibosheth; said by Ishbosheth, Saul's son, to have been sexually abused by Abner, Saul's commander-in-chief—an act that would have amounted to claiming the throne; kept vigil over the bodies of her sons for several months after their death (2 Sam. 21:10).
Ten unnamed women (2 Sam. 5:13; 15:16)	David	Bore David numerous children; violated by David's son Absalom (2 Sam. 16:21, 22); lived out their days in virtual widowhood (20:1–3).
Three hundred unnamed women (1 Kin. 11:3)	Solomon	Helped to turn Solomon's heart away from the Lord.
Esther (Esth. 2:13–16)	King Ahasuerus of Persia	Selected from the king's harem to become queen; used her position to help save her people, the Jews, from genocide.

Trusting God
Gen. 31:1–20

Laban, at best, must have been a difficult father-in-law. He constantly found new ways to cheat his son-in-law Jacob, whether through a bait-and-switch bride (Gen. 29:14–30) or manipulation in the family business (30:25–36). Jacob himself often resorted to scheming to get out of trouble. At times Jacob acted with principle, but at other times he responded with his own brand of deception.

Eventually God sent Jacob back to his homeland with the guarantee of His presence (31:3). But instead of trusting God and making a clean break with Laban, Jacob complained to his wives (31:4–16). The family stole away, taking some of Laban's property with them (31:17–21). Pursued and caught by Laban, Jacob grew angry and attempted to justify his dishonest behavior (31:36–42).

Jacob should have trusted and acted upon God's promise to go with him.

Rather than run from conflict, Jacob could have dealt with Laban out in the open. Instead, he further complicated his troubled family by encouraging Laban's daughters to treat their father in deceit and treachery.

Jacob illustrates the bad results of trying to further God's plans through human plots rather than following His clear commands.

Unexpected Good
Gen. 32:6

When Jacob learned Esau was approaching, he was terrified of what his estranged twin brother might do. This brother he and his mother had cheated out of his rightful portion of the family inheritance (Gen. 27:1–29) was coming toward him with four hundred men.

Jacob assumed the worst. He cried to God for mercy and deliverance (32:9–12).

To Jacob's surprise, Esau ran to him, embraced him, kissed him, and wept (33:4). This unexpected grace disarmed Jacob, and he could only respond by pressing gifts on Esau as a small remuneration for the lost inheritance (33:8–11).

What are ways you've responded to unexpected good? How would you respond if given a do-over for any of those blessings? How has God guided you to give unexpected good to someone?

More: Jesus would later tell another story about unexpected forgiveness in the Parable of the Lost Son (Luke 15:11–32). See "Confused Value" at Luke 15:1–31.

Manage Your Passion

Gen. 34:2

Pleasure makes a good slave but a poor master. Pleasure is excellent when fed according to God's direction.

But when self-gratification becomes our primary focus, the results become destructive not only for us but for everyone around us (Titus 3:3; James 4:1–4). Scripture makes clear that living for our own pleasures is both unacceptable and unhealthy.

The outcome of Shechem illustrates this point. When young Shechem saw the beautiful Dinah, he let lust rule his behavior. He raped her, putting sexual gratification before love for Dinah. He refused Dinah's dignity and right to say no. In the end he brought death upon himself and everyone around him (Gen. 34:25, 26).

By contrast, Scripture challenges God's people to exercise control over their sexuality (1 Thess. 4:3, 4). This often means delaying gratification, using patience to develop love and to put things into perspective. When we let important biological needs such as food, sex, and sleep direct our lives, they can become addictions that destroy us and others.

In Scripture two great poems address the theme of love: the Song of Solomon and 1 Corinthians 13. In the Song of Solomon, the writer repeats three times the wise words, “Do not stir up nor awaken love until it pleases” (Song 2:7; 3:5; 8:4). The message seems to be “Wait!” (see “True Love Waits” at Song 3:5).

Sexual passion can be powerful and beautiful. But it causes destruction if not guarded by commitment, discipline, and service toward one’s spouse. Our sexuality is not our own. It is a gift from God to be treasured and used for His glory (1 Cor. 6:18–20).

More: To gain a biblical perspective on the nature of love, see “Love Is as Strong as Death” at Song 8:6 and “A Lifestyle of Love” at 1 Cor. 13:1–13.

Benjamin
Gen. 35:18

Name means: “Son of the Right Hand” or “Son of the South.”

Also known as: Ben-Oni (“Son of My Sorrow”; Gen. 35:18).

Home: Born in southern Canaan, unlike Jacob’s other sons, who were born in the north.

Family: Son of Jacob and Rachel, who died giving birth to him (35:16–19); father of ten sons (46:21); descendants include Saul, Israel’s first king (1 Sam. 9:1, 2) and Saul of Tarsus, also known as Paul (Phil. 3:5).

Best known as: Jacob’s most beloved son after Joseph (Gen. 30:24; 37:3; 42:38). Joseph was able to use the family’s affection for Benjamin to keep his brothers coming back to Egypt and ultimately to bring their father, who remained there the rest of his life (45:4–28).

Think About It: What would you imitate about, or learn from, the life of Benjamin? How will you treat people differently because of Benjamin?

Edom

Gen. 36:8

- The land inhabited by the descendants of Esau, also known as Edom (“Red”).
- Located along the valley known as the Arabah, extending south of the Dead Sea to the Gulf of Aqaba; at times included the mountain ranges and fertile plateaus on the east and west of the Arabah.
- Inhabitants made strategic use of its rocky hillsides, including Mount Seir, a ridge of mountains east of the Arabah.
- Controlled the southern portion of the King’s Highway, a major trade route connecting Damascus in the north to Elath in the south.

- Established Sela at the southern end of a secluded valley as its capital during the days of the Israelite monarchy. Later, the site became the city of Petra.
- Possibly the region in which Job lived, since Teman was the home of Job's friend Eliphaz (Job 2:11).
- Denounced by the prophets for celebrating Jerusalem's fall (Jer. 49:17, 18; Lam. 4:21; Obad.) and eventually overrun by the Nabateans, a tribe from northern Arabia.

The Edomites: Perpetual Enemies of the Israelites

Gen. 36:9

Isaac's sons Esau and Jacob each fathered a nation—Esau the Edomites and Jacob the Israelites. Despite this kinship, their descendants feuded throughout biblical history, as the following table shows. What begins such lifelong feuds and bloodshed? What would God have us do in such cirucmstances, whether at the beginning or when we come into the midst of an ongoing war?

Israelites	Edomites
	Denied the Israelites access to the King's Highway during their journey to Canaan (Num. 20:14–21).
Harassed the Edomites during the time of Saul (1 Sam. 14:47).
	Doeg the Edomite, an official in Saul's administration, massacred 85 priests and their families at Nob (1 Sam. 22:9–19).
Conquered Edom under David and stationed troops there (2 Sam. 8:13, 14), fulfilling the prophecy of Balaam (Num. 24:18). David's general Joab then carried out a campaign of genocide (1 Kin. 11:15, 16).

Opposed Saul under Hadad, a member of the royal family who escaped Joab's massacre (1 Kin. 11:14–22).

Conspired with the Ammonites and Moabites to raid Judah during Jehoshaphat's reign but were turned back (2 Chr. 20:1, 10).

Rebelled against Judah's control during the reign of Joram (2 Kin. 8:20–22).

Reclaimed Edom when Amaziah captured Sela, the capital city (2 Kin. 14:7), and executed 10,000 prisoners by throwing them off a cliff (2 Chr. 25:11, 12).

Invaded Judah and seized captives while Judah was under attack by Pekah of Israel and Rezin of Syria (2 Kin. 16:5, 6; 2 Chr. 28:16, 17).

Rejoiced over Jerusalem's fall to the Babylonians (Ps. 137:7).

Took over portions of Judah's southern territory and established settlements as far north as Hebron.

In an attempt to kill the baby Jesus, Herod the Great, a descendant of the Edomites, ordered the massacre of baby boys in and around Bethlehem (Matt. 2:16–18).

More: The tribe of Edomites, descended from Amalek (Gen. 36:12), lived on the Sinai Peninsula and in the Negev. They roamed widely throughout the territory eventually settled by the Israelites, with whom they were bitter foes throughout the Old Testament.

Joseph
Gen. 37:3

Name means: "He Will Add."

Also known as: Zaphnath-Paaneah ("God Speaks and He Lives" or possibly "Revealer of Secrets"), a name given to him by Pharaoh (Gen. 41:45).

Home: Born in Canaan; sold to slave traders who resold him to an officer of Pharaoh in Egypt.

Family: Eleventh and favorite son of Jacob (30:24; 37:3), first son of Rachel; husband of Asenath, the daughter of an Egyptian priest (41:45); father of Manasseh and Ephraim (41:50–52; 46:20).

Occupations: Shepherd in Canaan; household manager in Egypt; warden's assistant; later made second-in-command under Pharaoh, responsible for economic development and famine relief. Skilled at interpreting dreams (37:5–8; 39:22, 23; 40:8–23; 41:1–36).

Best known for: His coat of many colors, which distinguished him as the favored son (37:3); also for rising to power in Egypt, where he eventually forgave his brothers for selling him into slavery (45:7, 8; 50:20).

More: Joseph's father and brothers derided him for the audacity of his dreams (Gen. 28:12–15; 37:10, 11). But something more than wishful thinking was going on. No wonder his father "kept the matter in mind" (37:11).

Think About It: How have you obeyed God no matter how painful life was or how persistently you were mistreated?

Sin Passed Through Generations

Gen. 37:11

Sin has a way of affecting everyone around us, especially family. That truth played out in three generations of Isaac's clan.

Isaac's wife Rebekah schemed to gain Isaac's blessing for her favorite son Jacob even though it meant deceiving her husband (Gen. 25:28; 27:5–29). She thus helped her son Jacob become a habitual deceiver (27:35, 36).

Years later, Jacob's second wife Rachel grew frustrated as her sister and rival Leah bore four sons to Jacob. Rachel's anguish deteriorated into such bitter envy that it made her husband tense and angry despite his deep love for her (29:34–30:2).

A bitter harvest of deception and envy was reaped in the third generation when Joseph's brothers became deeply envious of him (37:11). They sold him into slavery, then lied to their father, claiming Joseph had died (37:23–35).

Sin passes from generation to generation through both words and actions. We must change our broken ways for the sake of those around us, including our family. We must lay open our lives to find ways we may be harming future generations by harboring selfishness, embarrassment, envy, greed, lust, pride, or other sins. As we ask God if we need to repent and change attitudes and behavior, we find freedom as well as give it to others.

Reuben

Gen. 37:21

Name means: “See, a Son”; in Hebrew the name Reuben is a wordplay on “The Lord Has Seen My Oppression.”

Home: Born in Padan Aram; raised his family in Canaan; resettled with his father and brothers in Goshen, the eastern delta region of Egypt.

Family: Son of Jacob and Leah; father of four sons (Gen. 46:9).

Occupation: Like his brothers, a shepherd (37:2, 12).

Best known as: Jacob’s eldest son and the one who intervened to spare the life of Joseph (37:21, 22). He is also remembered for committing incest with Bilhah, his father’s concubine (35:22), which cost him the double inheritance usually reserved for the firstborn (49:3, 4; Deut. 21:17). Reuben’s descendants, the Reubenites, were a pastoral people who grazed their vast livestock herds east of the river Jordan (Num. 32:1–33).

Think About It: What would you imitate in the life of Reuben and how will you do it?

Judah
Gen. 37:26

Name means: "Praise."

Home: Raised in Canaan; resettled with his father and brothers in Goshen, the eastern delta region of Egypt.

Family: Son of Jacob and Leah; father of five sons (Gen. 38:3–5; 46:12), including Perez and Zerah by Tamar, his son Er's widow; through Perez, Judah was an ancestor of David (1 Chr. 2–4) and ultimately of Jesus Christ (Luke 3:23, 33).

Occupation: Like his brothers, a shepherd (Gen. 37:2, 12).

Best known as: The father of the Jewish tribe through which Jesus the Messiah was born, and a leader among Jacob's sons: for example, he helped save the life of Joseph (37:26, 27), was surety for the life of Benjamin (43:1–10), and negotiated the release of Benjamin in Egypt (44:16–34).

Tamar
Gen. 38:6

Name means: "Palm."

Not to be confused with: The daughter of David (2 Sam. 13:8–20).

Home: Near the road to Timnah (Gen. 38:11–14).

Family: Wife of Judah's son Er, who died (38:6, 7); was given to Judah's son Onan, who would not consummate the marriage and also died (38:8–10); mother of twin sons Perez and Zerah by her father-in-law Judah (38:14–30).

Best known for: Tricking her father-in-law, probably as a way to avoid being without a husband and therefore without a livelihood (38:14, 26).

Think About It: What apparent solutions, such as trickery, actually create more problems? How will you solve the fear, justification and other feelings that lead you to do things that bring pain? How will you put these aside before you do the wrong action?

Potiphar
Gen. 39:1

Home: Egypt.

Family: Husband of an unidentified woman (Gen. 39:7).

Occupation: Captain of the guard, a military position under Pharaoh. Because Potiphar was an officer of Pharaoh (Gen. 39:1), his household may have been large, with numerous servants.

Best known as: The Egyptian to whom Joseph was sold as a slave (39:1) and whose wife tried to seduce and then framed the young Israelite.

Think About It: Who have you believed even when they may have been lying or acting with selfish motives? Who have you accused who may have been honorable and innocent?

Joseph the Manager

Gen. 39:4, 5

Joseph eventually rose to second-in-command over all of Egypt (Gen. 41:39–41), but in his early years in that foreign nation he was a household servant (39:2). Joseph could have complained about having to "waste" time in such a position. Yet he was so faithful in the assignment God had given him that his master Potiphar elevated him to second-in-command over his household (39:3–6), a position that offered excellent preparation for responsibilities that eventually came his way. As overseer of Potiphar's household, Joseph likely had considerable management responsibility. When Joseph was imprisoned, he was assigned a similar role over his fellow inmates (39:20–23).

More: If you've ever felt impatient and frustrated with a lower level of responsibility, consider Joseph's example, along with several others in Scripture. See "The Value of Preparation" at Ex. 2:11. See also "Codes of Conduct for the Christian Worker" at Col. 3:22–4:1.

Excellence Works Anywhere

Gen. 39:20–23

Joseph's struggles and ultimate victory are encouragement for anyone who labors in a less than perfect world. Unjustly jailed for spurning the advances of his boss's wife (Gen. 39:6–18), he soon became a warden's assistant in the prison where he was sent (39:21–23). His performance was so flawless that his keepers did not need to check his work. They trusted him implicitly.

As a slave, Joseph likely had no means of appeal. So he turned hardships into opportunities for diligence and focus. He maintained his pursuit of excellence by dedicating himself to the task at hand rather than focusing on how he had been framed. God honored Joseph with achievements nothing less than amazing under the best of circumstances. Joseph, a foreign slave, rose to power and status as Egypt's second-in-command (41:41–45).

Many employees work their hardest as long as circumstances reward their efforts. But their efforts slide when they work for a less-than-ideal boss, or if a company seems satisfied with mediocrity, or if they are treated unfairly. Yet God challenges us to excellence no matter what. He notices how we work.

While there is no guarantee God will grant us power and prestige if we honor Him in our work and pursue excellence, Scripture does promise this: "Whatever you do, do it heartily, as to the Lord and not to men, knowing that from the Lord you will receive the reward of the inheritance" (Col. 3:23, 24).

More: The books of Esther and Philemon offer stories of God's people challenging unjust systems. Paul promised "the reward of the inheritance" to Christian slaves in Colosse (Col. 3:24), and by extension to all Christian workers. Find out what that means in "What's In It for Us?" at Eph. 1:11.

The Butler

Gen. 40:2

One of Pharaoh's officers is called a "butler," but the position was probably similar to Nehemiah's role as a cupbearer. This important assignment involved testing a ruler's food to guard against poisoning. Cupbearers often became trusted confidants of the rulers they served. They also put their lives at risk. Similarly, our work may give us opportunity to care or influence far beyond the simple job description. Find out more about the position in "Nehemiah the Cupbearer" at Nehemiah 1:11.

Follow Through
Gen. 40:23

The chief butler owed his life to Joseph, who had correctly interpreted his dream (Gen. 40:9–13). All that Joseph asked in return was to be remembered once the butler was reinstated to his position, and the account implies the butler agreed to this request. Yet once the butler was out of trouble, he forgot his promise. Not until two full years had gone by (41:1) and Pharaoh happened to have a puzzling dream of his own did the butler recall his commitment, apparently with some guilt (41:9).

We honor God not by our commitments to do things but by actually fulfilling those commitments. Sliding into the pattern of "out of sight, out of mind" takes no effort at all. Yet God wants us to be people of our word (Matt. 5:37).

More: Honoring our commitments is one of the most critical things we can do as Christians at work. See "Your Workstyle" at Titus 2:9–11.

Pharaoh's Dilemma
Gen. 41:8

Not only were Pharaoh's magicians and wise men unable to interpret his dream, but Pharaoh himself was unable to explain it. This was a revealing weakness for a man believed to be a god by his people. Suddenly this "god" found himself in a quandary.

Later in Scripture, God ridicules the idols and false gods of the pagan nations because of their inability to foretell the future (Is. 41:21–24) or even to speak at all (Ps. 115:4–7). God alone knows "the end from the beginning" (Is. 46:10). He alone is God and knows the meaning of dreams, as Joseph pointed out (Gen. 41:16). Even Pharaoh came to realize that the ability to predict future events by interpreting dreams comes only from God's indwelling Spirit (41:38).

The reason other "gods" are forbidden is that they can't help. What pulls you to worship a situation, a status, or any other god? What quandaries have you consequently found yourself in?

Centuries later, a new pharaoh would rule Egypt (Ex. 1:8). He too would have to learn that God alone is God and that before Him the so-called gods of Egypt were impotent (see "Pharaoh's Submission" at Ex. 12:29).

Work in the Real World

Gen. 41:42–46

When faith feels irrelevant to a tough work environment, we can turn to the life of Joseph.

Pharaoh appointed Joseph to command over Egypt. Some have equated his position with that of a prime minister, but he probably held far more authority than any modern prime minister since he was appointed to his rank rather than elected. He was the chief magistrate over Egypt, with wide-ranging powers, perhaps including oversight of legal, foreign, financial, military, civil, historical, agricultural, and commercial affairs.

Yet consider Joseph's circumstances. He was cut off from his family. He was part of a culture that worshiped pagan gods, and apparently he alone worshiped the true God. He had no support system for his beliefs or values, no one to turn to for godly counsel as he made far-reaching decisions. His boss, Pharaoh, was considered a god by the Egyptians. Even Joseph's own wife was an Egyptian, and his father-in-law was a priest of the sun-god.

Yet Joseph was able to diligently obey God in this environment. Consider his strategies:

- He maintained his integrity. Joseph steadfastly resisted the sexual advances of Potiphar's wife (Gen. 39:7–10), realizing that moral compromise would be an offense not only against his master, but worse, against God. He remained committed to what he knew was right despite the consequences.
- He did his best when his situations were at their worst. Unjustly thrown in prison, Joseph easily could have become bitter. He could have given up with the attitude, "What's the use?" Instead, he kept doing what God had designed him to do—exercise authority with patience and wisdom, even in prison (39:22, 23).
- He carried out the task he was given. Later promoted to Pharaoh's right hand, Joseph was faithful in his responsibilities. He wisely planned for the coming famine and managed the Egyptian economy in a way that saved many lives (41:46–49, 53–57). He recognized that this work was what God wanted him to do, and do well.
- He used his power and influence compassionately. Second-in-command under Pharaoh, Joseph could have used his position to get back at his enemies—his brothers, the slave traders, Potiphar's wife. But the record shows just the opposite: he used his power to bring about reconciliation (45:3–15; 50:20).

God used Joseph's faithfulness to preserve the children of Jacob, in fulfillment of God's promise to Abraham (45:5–8). In the same way, God intends to use us in positions great and small to accomplish His purposes. It is therefore crucial that we honor God through all our work. Like Joseph, we need to be people of whom there can be no doubt—we are those "in whom is the Spirit of God" (41:38).

More: Along with Daniel, Joseph stands among the best biblical models of how to honor God at work. (For others, see "Models of Faith in Hostile Societies" at Dan. 2:48, 49.) Joseph's wisdom proved so great that Pharaoh gave him the Egyptian name Zaphnath-Paaneah ("God Speaks and He Lives" or possibly "Revealer of Secrets"). See Joseph's profile at Gen. 37:3.

Feeding the World

Gen. 41:57

Joseph's well-executed strategy fed the entire Middle East during a seven-year famine. His economic strategies to alleviate world hunger and revitalize cities appear as background details in the larger account of how he reconciled with his brothers (Gen. 41:46–47:27). Yet his example invites us to work through business and political structures on behalf of human needs, particularly hunger.

Consider Joseph's accomplishment. He leveraged the massive institutions of a pagan government to develop two seven-year plans, one for a budget surplus, and another for a budget deficit. During years of plenty, Egypt set aside 20 percent of its harvest in preparation for years of scarcity, thanks to Joseph's initiative (41:34–36). When the years of famine came as predicted, the nation faced unusually severe shortfalls of food, yet Joseph and the people found creative, cooperative ways to avoid hunger. He managed what today would be called a food cooperative, a world food bank, a land bank, and urban housing projects (47:13–26).

Joseph's strategy utilized strong, centralized government control. The key, however, was not control but effective planning, a result of God's hand working through Joseph to carry out His purposes.

There is a world of human need, great and small, that God wants to meet through us. He has given skills to each of us that He wants us to use to carry out meaningful service to others. Given the history of Joseph, it seems clear that God wants some of His people involved in businesses and governments for humanitarian purposes, as a public witness, and to make an international impact.

Instead, Choose to Show Family Care

Gen. 42:36

Many families face bitter sorrow similar to what Jacob felt when his sons returned from Egypt. Despite the magnificent divine promises Jacob inherited from his parents and grandparents about land, descendants, and blessings (Gen. 12:1–3; 13:14–17; 15:18–21; 22:17, 18), Jacob's own family caused him much disappointment (42:36). This disappointment came as a result of family members choosing selfish actions rather than loving ones.

Our own family experiences might, or might not, seem to overshadow the fact that the family is God's idea from start to finish (see "Social Institutions: Family, State, and Church" at Gen. 2:23). As we consider what family is or is not, and how it should or should not function, we need to let God's perspective shape our actions. Our actions help, or hurt, our families for generations to come.

In Genesis, we discover not only God's original intention for marriage (2:15–25) but also the painful realities of how sinful choices affect home life. The Bible's earliest families provide an idea of what family life can be like for the rest of us; in their stories we find how we want to write, or not write, our own stories. The Bible is thus our most reliable source for developing habits to show love in family life, and habits to avoid at all cost.

As we shape our expectations for family, we need a heavy dose of realism, and the first lesson we can learn from the Bible's prominent families is this: A family is created by the choices of its members. The families in Genesis exhibit dozens of examples of deeply hurtful actions and relationships:

Sibling Rivalries and Conflicts

- An elder brother kills his younger brother (Cain and Abel, 4:5–8).
- An older brother resents the arrival of a half brother who receives special treatment from his father (Ishmael and Isaac, 21:8, 9).
- Twins fight over parental favors and inheritance (Jacob and Esau, 27:5–45).
- Twins struggle over the effects of past hurts (Jacob and Esau, chs. 32–33).
- Jealous siblings consider murdering their younger brother, but then sell him into slavery due to the influence of one caring brother (Jacob's sons, ch. 37).

- A younger brother manipulates his older brothers to make them regret their earlier abuse of him (Joseph, chs. 43–44).
- Early competition and wrongdoing haunt a family for years, even after the father's death (Jacob's family, 50:15–21).

Lying and Deception

- Fear causes a husband to lie about his marriage (Abraham, 12:10–20).
- A wife deceives her husband because she favors one son over the other (Rebekah, 27:1–40).
- Fear causes another husband to lie about his marriage (Isaac, 26:1–11).
- A father-in-law deceives his prospective son-in-law to lock him into his job, resulting in a dispute over the terms of a marriage (Laban and Jacob, 29:1–10; 31:22–55).
- Sons manufacture a lie to cover up their treachery (Jacob's sons, 37:25–35).
- A widow resorts to sexual trickery when her father-in-law fails to ensure that she is provided for (Tamar and Judah, ch. 38).

Spousal Abuse and Conflict

- Fear causes a husband to place his wife at risk in another man's household and to ask her to lie whenever they are in danger (Abraham, 12:10–20; 20:12, 13).
- A wife tries to hold on to her husband's love by bearing children for him (Leah, 29:31–35).
- A wife's envy and frustration over childlessness leads to tension and conflict with her husband (Rachel, 30:1, 2).

Problems About Childbearing

- A childless couple takes desperate measures to fulfill their hopes for a son, resulting in conflict and the oppression of a woman and her child (Abraham and Sarah, 16:1–16). This conflict continued for generations.
- Barrenness and disappointed expectations lead women into denial, unbelief, and rivalries for their husband's affection (Sarah, 18:1–15; Leah and Rachel, 29:31–30:24).
- A man fails to honor his obligation to his brother's widow, resulting in the lack of an heir and leaving the woman without any means of support (Onan and Tamar, 38:27–30).

Problems of Wealth, Inheritance, and Possessions

- A blended family's estate must be divided awkwardly, resulting in estrangement (Abraham, 25:5, 6).
- An older brother carelessly gives away his inheritance to his younger twin, causing himself great regret (Esau and Jacob, 25:27–34; Heb. 12:16, 17).
- A mother and son manipulate the family inheritance to their advantage (Rebekah and Jacob, Gen. 27:1–29).
- A man and his son-in-law strike a bargain to divide their property, with each scheming to take advantage of the other (Laban and Jacob, 30:25–43).
- Brothers compete with their brother-in-law for an inheritance, causing the in-law to run away (Laban's sons and Jacob, 31:1–21).

Sexual Abuses

- Fear, depravity, and spiritual blindness cause a father to place his daughters at risk in a sexually depraved community (Lot and his daughters in Sodom, 19:1–14).
- Family pride and a fear of not marrying cause two daughters to commit incest with their father (Lot and his daughters, 19:30–38).
- A woman is raped, leading to the destruction of a city (Shechem, Dinah, and Dinah's brothers, 34:1–31).
- A widowed woman resorts to prostitution to trick her father-in-law into providing for her (Tamar and Judah, 38:11–26).
- A wife tries to seduce her husband's slave, then uses her husband's power and position to retaliate when her advances are spurned (Potiphar's wife and Joseph, 39:7–20).

Substance Abuse

- A father's drunkenness becomes an occasion for sport for one of his sons and embarrassment for the other two (Noah, 9:20–23).
- Drunkenness combines with incest (Lot and his daughters, 19:30–38).
- A jealous wife uses a gift to entice her husband away from her rival (Leah, 30:14–16).

Retaliation and Vengeance

- Vengeance leads to extreme violence (Lamech, 4:23, 24).
- A mother's jealousy for her son causes her to mistreat her servant (Sarah and Hagar, 21:8–20).
- Revenge goes beyond justice, resulting in the death of many innocent people and a permanent rift between a family and its neighbors (Jacob's sons and the Shechemites, 34:13–31).

Stress Between Parents and Children

- A son creates a permanent break with his parents by killing his brother (Cain, 4:8, 16, 25).
- Parents' favoritism creates division between twin sons (Isaac and Rebekah, 25:27, 28).
- A son's unwise choice of wives causes grief for his parents (Esau, 26:34, 35; 27:46).
- A father's unwillingness to let his daughter go and the daughter's theft of family property lead to a difficult separation (Laban and Rachel, 30:25–27; 31:19, 20, 26–30, 43, 50).
- A father's favoritism creates jealousy among his sons (Jacob, Joseph, and Joseph's brothers, 37:3, 4).
- Treacherous sons create enormous grief for their father (Jacob's sons, 37:31–35; 42:36–38).

The Genesis record is sobering. In light of these family stories, it might seem hopeless to try to build a healthy, happy, God-honoring home. But we can learn from the mistakes of these men and women. Because of Jesus, and the cloud of witnesses surrounding us (Heb. 12:1), we have the wisdom and resources to make loving choices.

With God's help, it is possible to create a home life that comes much closer to God's intentions. Like Joseph, we can focus on God's plan in the midst of hardship and achieve reconciliation and peace within our families (50:15–21). Through the teaching and encouragement of Scripture, we can work toward making our families into shelters of hope, love, caring, restoration, and blessing.

Ultimately, the good news of the gospel of Christ extends the sobering definition of a family to a more hope-filled statement: A family is created by the choices of its members. who in Christ can show love to one another.

Work with the Power of God

Gen. 45:1

God's plan for Joseph took him from Canaan to Egypt, from boyhood to manhood, from arrogant brother to astute political leader. Many people created hardship in his life, and this hardship lasted for years. But God's goodness still came. All along the way Joseph could have fed his arrogance or could have expressed God's goodness. Even here, he could have chosen revenge against his brothers. But Joseph chose to honor God by choosing the good and right action.

When Joseph's brothers came to Egypt searching for food, Joseph could have had them executed for the evil they had done to him. Yet Joseph had been humbled by the fact that God had brought him to this place for the good of many (Gen. 45:7, 8). As he had done so many times during the unfairnesses of the intervening years, Joseph chose to do rightly. He told his brothers, "You meant evil against me; but God meant it for good" (50:20).

We might make it harder on ourselves by letting our circumstances excuse bad behavior. But God is powerful and can be trusted. Obeying Him helps, no matter what.

Discovering God's Purpose for You

Gen. 45:5–8

The Bible offers us specific direction for a host of everyday concerns —relationships, work, ethics, the church, marriage and family, decision-making, and many others. But Scripture does not directly address every situation we encounter. When we open the Bible and cannot find obvious counsel, we need to learn how to understand God's ways.

Many people in Scripture faced this problem. Sometimes God spoke to them directly to help them make sense of their circumstances. But often His purposes were not immediately obvious. The purposes only became clear after considerable thought. What we would call theological reflection allowed people to look back at how God had worked in their lives.

Joseph's remarks upon revealing himself to his brothers illustrate deep theological thought. Joseph wrestled with tough questions: Why did his jealous brothers disrupt his life? Why was he wrenched from his family and taken as a slave to Egypt? Why did he have to spend several years in prison on a fraudulent charge? Why should he suddenly find himself elevated to unparalleled power and prominence over one of the world's great empires? Where was God in all of this? Why had He allowed any of this to happen? And now, as he faced his brothers, why should he show them mercy? Why should he not avenge the suffering they had caused him?

Joseph didn't have a Bible to open for answers. Nor was he surrounded by wise, godly counselors. So he took what he knew of God and used it to interpret his experience of the world. His conclusion? "You meant evil against me; but God meant it for good" (Gen. 50:20).

That answer may sound naive. But it was not. Joseph never denied reality. He knew better than anyone that his enslavement and imprisonment were the result of wicked schemes. "You sold me here," he reminded his brothers (45:5). But Joseph coped by reflecting on his sufferings and discerning God's purposes in them: "God sent me before you to preserve life . . . to preserve a posterity for you in the earth, and to save your lives" (45:5, 7). Joseph saw the place of his pain in God's divine plan.

This after-the-fact recognition of God's will does not absolve wrongdoers of past sins, nor does it remove painful memories. But it affirms God's ability to work, no matter what. Even though we have a limited understanding, theological reflection weaves our human limitations into a broader tapestry.

Theological reflection is especially valuable if we live and work where the Bible is not upheld as a moral or theological compass. In such an environment, we need to think carefully about what God may be doing in, through, and around us.

Joseph was not the only person in the Bible who engaged in theological reflection. A number of people practiced this helpful habit. Examples:

Examples of Theological Reflection in Scripture

Character	Location	Conclusion
Joseph (Gen. 45:5–8; 50:20)	Egypt	God used Joseph's hardships to preserve His people.
Solomon (Eccl. 1:2)	Jerusalem	Apart from God, all of life is "vanity"—emptiness and futility.
Mordecai (Esth. 4:14)	Persia	God enabled Esther to become the queen of Persia to spare His people from genocide.
Paul (Philem. 15, 16)	Writing to Philemon in Colosse	After Onesimus the slave ran away, God brought him to salvation and returned him to his master as a brother in Christ (see "Asking Why" at Philem. 15, 16).

A Promising Opportunity
Gen. 46:31–34

Sometimes God puts a surprising opportunity in our path that could benefit our lives and the lives of others if we are brave enough to take it.

It happened to Jacob and his sons when they migrated to Egypt. They wanted to escape the famine in Canaan, and they relocated at Joseph's request. Once they arrived, unusual circumstances created a promising opportunity.

Joseph faced a problem: how to introduce his long-lost family to Pharaoh. Pharaoh held Joseph in high regard. But that might have ended with the news that Joseph's father and brothers were shepherds and ranchers, occupations the Egyptians considered an "abomination" fit only for slaves. Their low social status became clear when the brothers returned to Egypt along with Benjamin and were forced to eat by themselves, away from the Egyptians (Gen. 43:32).

But Joseph turned this potential embarrassment into an opportunity. He instructed his brothers to boldly declare their occupation. He knew Pharaoh was unlikely to change his opinion of shepherds, but the ruler might allow the family to live by themselves in the area called Goshen.

The plan worked (47:1–6). In addition, Pharaoh's respect for Joseph led the king to request that the brothers assume oversight of his own livestock. He still detested shepherds, but he apparently preferred to trust his animals to the kin of a man he trusted.

The assignment matched the skills and experience of the brothers, and like many immigrants around the world today, they did work that people in host cultures find unappealing, prospering as a result (47:27; compare Ex. 1:7).

What clever solutions might not only honorably solve your problem but bring unexpected bonuses?

Levi

Gen. 49:5

Name means: "Attached"; may have to do with Leah's hope of endearing herself to Jacob by bearing him three sons (Gen. 29:34); may have to do with the idea of being pledged for a debt or vow.

Not to be confused with: Levi the tax collector who followed Jesus, also known as Matthew.

Home: Originally Canaan, but relocated to Egypt with his family because of severe famine.

Family: Son of Jacob and Leah (29:34); father of Gershon, Kohath, and Merari (46:11; Ex. 6:16).

Reputation: Characterized by Jacob as cruel (Gen. 49:5), a trait displayed when Levi and Simeon joined to avenge their sister Dinah by persuading the men of Shechem to circumcise themselves and killing them while they recuperated (34:25–31).

Of special interest: Levi's descendants were given great responsibility as Israel's priests (Ex. 28:1) and assistants, called Levites. They received no inheritance in the Promised Land but instead were given a portion of the people's tithes (see "Share the Wealth" at Num. 18:20–24) and settled in cities designated to them (see "The Levitical Cities" at Josh. 21:1–3).

Best known as: The ancestor of the tribe of Levi.

Think About It: How might you give leadership to Christians, similar to the ways Levi's descendants did in Israel?

Harness Anger for Good

Gen. 49:6, 7

Jacob's sons Simeon and Levi were so controlled by anger that their father cursed them for it. On the other hand, Jesus became angry when religious leaders tried to prevent Him from helping a disabled person because of their religious traditions (Mark 3:5). Paul cited Psalm 4:4 in exhorting his readers to "be angry, and do not sin" (Eph. 4:26). And Hebrews says the Holy Spirit was angry at the deadening effects of sin on the Hebrew patriarchs (Heb. 3:7–19).

Anger can be destructive, but Scripture clearly deems some expressions of anger as right and good. Here are some characteristics to consider:

- Good anger grows from a sustained and thoughtful understanding of justice and mercy (Zech. 1:1–15). Impulsive anger is dangerous and should be avoided (Prov. 22:24; 29:22; 1 Cor. 13:4, 5).
- Good anger is often a response to injustice or pain. For example, Jesus grew angry at the misuse of the temple and the abuse of God's people (John 2:13–17; compare Is. 10:1, 2). His anger was not self-serving or vindictive, and it furthered His purpose of mercy. God's wrath against sin is another example of productive, righteous anger.
- Good anger often develops slowly. It increases as it encounters more and more wrong (Is. 4:4; Nah. 1:1–11; James 1:19).
- Good anger takes prompt, measured action when action is necessary. It doesn't let frustration fester and become destructive (Mic. 7:18; Eph. 4:26, 27).
- Good anger acts and then forgives. It doesn't keep a scorecard of past wrongs (Ps. 103:9).

Whether good or bad, anger is powerful (Ps. 18:7, Prov. 27:4; Jer. 10:10). It must be harnessed and used with calculated intent for good so that everyone benefits (Eph. 4:26).

The Blessing

Gen. 49:28

Being praised and told we are special. Receiving a family heirloom with special significance. Hearing wishes for a bright future. Gifts of goodness like these are examples of a blessing, not unlike the sacred words the elderly Jacob spoke to his twelve sons.

It was common for an Israelite father to pronounce a formal blessing on his children, especially the firstborn son. The pronouncement was meant to bestow goodwill and sometimes carried prophetic significance and conferred the weight of responsibility. Isaac gave the blessing of the firstborn to Jacob (Gen. 27:26–29). Jacob blessed two of his grandsons, Ephraim and Manasseh (48:8–20). Centuries later, an aged man named Simeon blessed the baby Jesus and His earthly parents (Luke 2:25–35).

Blessings were a cultural rite rather than a religious obligation. The Law did not mandate that parents pronounce a blessing. Yet the immense value of blessings still makes them gifts today. Our children and other loved ones benefit from hearing our formal declarations of their value and our thoughtful statements wishing them well.

By bestowing blessings, throughout life and for each person, we can pass along our godly heritage, reminding others of connections to family and to God.

Genesis 50

a 50:11 Literally Mourning of Egypt

Centuries before the era of the Book of Exodus, God had promised to make one man, Abraham, into a mighty nation, blessing his descendants to bless the whole world (Gen. 12:1–3). The migration to Egypt of Abraham's grandson Jacob and his family was part of a master plan that God had revealed to Abraham (15:12–21). In Egypt, Jacob's favorite son Joseph rose to second-in-command of the nation (Ex. 1:1–7; see also Gen. 41:39–41; 46:1–7), and in that foreign land the family multiplied.

As Israel grew from a family into a nation, Egypt transitioned from the Middle Kingdom to the New Kingdom (c. 1800–1570 B.C.; see "The Egyptians" at Ex. 11:7). Driving out the foreign Hyksos, who had reigned for hundreds of years, the Egyptians' reunited country reached the peak of its power and prosperity in the ancient world. When the nation's new pharaohs embarked on ambitious building programs, they conscripted the minority Israelites as workers. Before long, the Hebrews had become slaves of Egyptian taskmasters, and they cried out to God for deliverance (1:8–14; 2:23).

After a time, God heard and responded to His people's pleas (2:24, 25). Pharaoh finally capitulated to divine pressure and gave the Israelites permission to leave, only to change his mind and chase the fleeing slaves as far as the Red Sea. In a miraculous display of power, God parted the sea for the Israelites to cross, then released the waters, drowning the Egyptian charioteers and securing His people's freedom.

Israel's rescue from slavery in Egypt was a defining moment, a story of liberation that has given hope to countless oppressed peoples. The Exodus also foreshadows later biblical events when God delivered His people, especially our deliverance from sin through His Son Jesus Christ.

Anyone who has ever longed to be freed from political or economic oppression, from emotional or psychological bondage, or from slavery to sin can take comfort in the power of Moses' confident declaration, "Do not be afraid. Stand still, and see the salvation of the LORD" (14:13).

An important part of this powerful story of salvation is God's revelation of Himself and His will for His people. First He raised up a leader, Moses, to whom He revealed Himself by His name, "I AM WHO I AM" (3:14). God showed His power to the Egyptians through a series of ten plagues which devastated the economy and ecology of Egypt (see "An Ecological Disaster" at Ex. 8:8–15). Then God inaugurated a new covenant, an agreement that defined Israel as a nation and set forth expectations to govern the lives of God's chosen people. The Lord descended on Mount Sinai and gave Moses the Ten Commandments and the rest of the Law as well as instructions for worship (chs. 19–31, 35–40).

God continually demonstrated His claim on His people: "I am the LORD your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of bondage. You shall have no other gods before Me" (20:2, 3; for examples of similar statements, see Ex. 6:7; 16:12; Lev. 25:38; Num. 15:41; Deut. 5:6; Ps. 81:10; Is. 43:3; Ezek. 20:5–7; Hos. 13:4; Joel 2:27). The rest of the Old Testament largely revolves around Israel's difficulty in following this commandment.

Exodus is believed to have been written by Moses (see his profile at Ex. 2:10). The setting for the book includes two areas in the Middle East: the Nile River Delta in Egypt (chs. 1–15; see the map "The Egyptians" at Ex. 11:7) and the Sinai Peninsula (chs. 16–40; see the map at "Where God Meets Us" at Ex. 19:1, 20).

Exodus covers a time span of a little more than eighty years, beginning with the birth of Moses and ending with the early portion of the Israelites' journey to the Promised Land around 1400 B.C. It would be more than forty long years from the time the Israelites crossed the Red Sea until their children finally crossed the Jordan River. The events recorded here were not the end of that journey but merely the beginning.

Key People in Exodus

- Pharaoh, a powerful king believed by the Egyptians to be a god with a divine mandate to rule the land (Ex. 1:8).
- Shiphrah and Puah, midwives who refused to do Pharaoh's bidding to kill male Hebrew infants. Their disobedience marked the beginning of Israel's deliverance from oppression (Ex. 1:15–21).
- Jochebed, Moses' mother, who saved her newborn son by hiding him among the reeds along the banks of the Nile River (Ex. 2:1–10; 6:20).
- Moses, who for forty years lived as the adopted son of Pharaoh's daughter, uniquely preparing him to lead God's people (Ex. 2:10).
- Aaron, Moses' brother, who served as his spokesman and was later chosen by God to become the father of the Israelite priesthood (Ex. 4:27).
- Jethro, a wise father-in-law who taught Moses how to accomplish more by delegating some work to others (Ex. 18:1, 13–23).
- Bezalel and Aholiab, craftsmen who skillfully constructed the ark of the covenant and the tabernacle, which became the center of Israel's religious life for hundreds of years (Ex. 31:2–7).

Key Events in Exodus

- The Egyptians oppress the Israelites as slaves (Ex. 1).
- Moses' mother hides him in a basket of bulrushes (Ex. 2:1–10).
- Moses encounters the burning bush (Ex. 3:1–6).
- Ten plagues strike Egypt (Ex. 7–12).
- The Israelites observe the first Passover (Ex. 12).
- God parts the Red Sea (Ex. 14–15).
- God sends manna from heaven (Ex. 16).
- God gives the Ten Commandments (Ex. 19–20).
- Aaron and the people worship a golden calf (Ex. 32).

Exodus 1

Israel's Suffering in Egypt

1 Now these are the names of the children of Israel who came to Egypt; each man and his household came with Jacob:
2 Reuben, Simeon, Levi, and Judah;
3 Issachar, Zebulun, and Benjamin;
4 Dan, Naphtali, Gad, and Asher.
5 All those who were descendants[a] of Jacob were seventy[b] persons (for Joseph was in Egypt already).
6 And Joseph died, all his brothers, and all that generation.
7 But the children of Israel were fruitful and increased abundantly, multiplied and grew exceedingly mighty; and the land was filled with them.
8 Now there arose a new king over Egypt, who did not know Joseph.
9 And he said to his people, "Look, the people of the children of Israel are more and mightier than we;
10 "come, let us deal shrewdly with them, lest they multiply, and it happen, in the event of war, that they also join our enemies and fight against us, and so go up out of the land."
11 Therefore they set taskmasters over them to afflict them with their burdens. And they built for Pharaoh supply cities, Pithom and Raamses.
12 But the more they afflicted them, the more they multiplied and grew. And they were in dread of the children of Israel.
13 So the Egyptians made the children of Israel serve with rigor.

14 And they made their lives bitter with hard bondage—in mortar, in brick, and in all manner of service in the field. All their service in which they made them serve was with rigor.
15 Then the king of Egypt spoke to the Hebrew midwives, of whom the name of one was Shiphrah and the name of the other Puah; Civil Disobedience 16 and he said, "When you do the duties of a midwife for the Hebrew women, and see them on the birthstools, if it is a son, then you shall kill him; but if it is a daughter, then she shall live."
17 But the midwives feared God, and did not do as the king of Egypt commanded them, but saved the male children alive.
18 So the king of Egypt called for the midwives and said to them, "Why have you done this thing, and saved the male children alive?"
19 And the midwives said to Pharaoh, "Because the Hebrew women are not like the Egyptian women; for they are lively and give birth before the midwives come to
them."
20 Therefore God dealt well with the midwives, and the people multiplied and grew very mighty.
21 And so it was, because the midwives feared God, that He provided households for them. Fear God 22 So Pharaoh commanded all his people, saying, "Every son who is born[c] you shall cast into the river, and every daughter you shall save alive."

Exodus 2

Moses Is Born

1 And a man of the house of Levi went and took as wife a daughter of Levi.
2 So the woman conceived and bore a son. And when she saw that he was a beautiful child, she hid him three months.
3 But when she could no longer hide him, she took an ark of bulrushes for him, daubed it with asphalt and pitch, put the child in it, and laid it in the reeds by the river's bank.
4 And his sister stood afar off, to know what would be done to him.
5 Then the daughter of Pharaoh came down to bathe at the river. And her maidens walked along the riverside; and when she saw the ark among the reeds, she sent her maid to get it.
6 And when she opened it, she saw the child, and behold, the baby wept. So she had compassion on him, and said,
"This is one of the Hebrews' children."
7 Then his sister said to Pharaoh's daughter, "Shall I go and call a nurse for you from the Hebrew women, that she may nurse the child for you?"
8 And Pharaoh's daughter said to her, "Go." So the maiden went and called the child's mother. A Mother's Influence 9 Then Pharaoh's daughter said to her, "Take this child away and nurse him for me, and I will give you your wages." So the woman took the child and nursed him.
10 And the child grew, and she brought him to Pharaoh's daughter, and he became her son. So she called his name Moses,[a] saying, "Because I drew him out of the water." Moses

Moses Flees to Midian

11Now it came to pass in those days, when Moses was grown, that he went out to his brethren and looked at their burdens. And he saw an Egyptian beating a Hebrew, one of his brethren. The Value of Preparation

12So he looked this way and that way, and when he saw no one, he killed the Egyptian and hid him in the sand.

13And when he went out the second day, behold, two Hebrew men were fighting, and he said to the one who did the wrong, “Why are you striking your companion?”

14Then he said, “Who made you a prince and a judge over us? Do you intend to kill me as you killed the Egyptian?” So Moses feared and said, “Surely this thing is known!”

15When Pharaoh heard of this matter, he sought to kill Moses. But Moses fled from the face of Pharaoh and dwelt in the land of Midian; and he sat down by a well.

16Now the priest of Midian had seven daughters. And they came and drew water, and they filled the troughs to water their father’s flock.

17Then the shepherds came and drove them away; but Moses stood up and helped them, and watered their flock.

18When they came to Reuel their father, he said, “How is it that you have come so soon today?”

19And they said, “An Egyptian delivered us from the hand of the shepherds, and he also drew enough water for us and watered the flock.”

20So he said to his daughters, “And where is he? Why is it that you have left the man? Call him, that he may eat bread.”

21Then Moses was content to live with the man, and he gave Zipporah his daughter to Moses.

22And she bore him a son. He called his name Gershom,[b] for he said, “I have been a stranger in a foreign land.”

23Now it happened in the process of time that the king of Egypt died. Then the children of Israel groaned because of the bondage, and they cried out; and their cry came up to God because of the bondage.

24So God heard their groaning, and God remembered His covenant with Abraham, with Isaac, and with Jacob.

25And God looked upon the children of Israel, and God acknowledged them.

Exodus 3

Moses at the Burning Bush

1 Now Moses was tending the flock of Jethro his father-in-law, the priest of Midian. And he led the flock to the back of the desert, and came to Horeb, the mountain of God.
2 And the Angel of the LORD appeared to him in a flame of fire from the midst of a bush. So he looked, and behold, the bush was burning with fire, but the bush was not consumed. I AM WHO I AM 3 Then Moses said, “I will now turn aside and see this great sight, why the bush does not burn.” 4 So when the LORD saw that he turned aside to look, God called to him from the midst of the bush and said, “Moses, Moses!” And he said, “Here I am.”
5 Then He said, “Do not draw near this place. Take your sandals off your feet, for the place where you stand is holy ground.”
6 Moreover He said, “I am the God of your father—the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob.”
And Moses hid his face, for he was afraid to look upon God.
7 And the LORD said: “I have surely seen the oppression of My people who are in Egypt, and have heard their cry because of their taskmasters, for I know their sorrows. God
Rescues the Oppressed 8 “So I have come down to deliver them out of the hand of the Egyptians, and to bring them up from that land to a good and large land, to a land flowing with milk and honey, to the place of the Canaanites and the Hittites and the Amorites and the Perizzites and the Hivites and the Jebusites.

9 “Now therefore, behold, the cry of the children of Israel has come to Me, and I have also seen the oppression with which the Egyptians oppress them.
10 “Come now, therefore, and I will send you to Pharaoh that you may bring My people, the children of Israel, out of Egypt.”
11 But Moses said to God, “Who am I that I should go to Pharaoh, and that I should bring the children of Israel out of Egypt?” Crises of Confidence 12 So He said, “I will certainly be with you. And this shall be a sign to you that I have sent you: When you have brought the people out of Egypt, you shall serve God on this mountain.”
13 Then Moses said to God, “Indeed, when I come to the children of Israel and say to them, ‘The God of your fathers has sent me to you,’ and they say to me, ‘What is His name?’ what shall I say to them?” 14 And God said to Moses, “I AM WHO I AM.” And He said, “Thus you shall say to the children of Israel, ‘I AM has sent me to you.’ ” 15 Moreover God said to Moses, “Thus you shall say to the children of Israel: ‘The LORD God of your fathers, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob, has sent me to you. This is My name forever, and this is My memorial to all generations.’ 16 “Go and gather the elders of Israel together, and say to them, ‘The LORD God of your fathers, the God of Abraham, of Isaac, and of Jacob, appeared to me, saying, “I have surely visited you and seen what is done to you in Egypt;
17 “and I have said I will bring you up out of the affliction of Egypt to the land of the Canaanites and the Hittites and the Amorites and the Perizzites and the Hivites and the Jebusites, to a land flowing with milk and honey.” ’

18 “Then they will heed your voice; and you shall come, you and the elders of Israel, to the king of Egypt; and you shall say to him, ‘The LORD God of the Hebrews has met with us; and now, please, let us go three days’ journey into the wilderness, that we may sacrifice to the LORD our God.’
19 “But I am sure that the king of Egypt will not let you go, no, not even by a mighty hand.
20 “So I will stretch out My hand and strike Egypt with all My wonders which I will do in its midst; and after that he will let you go.
21 “And I will give this people favor in the sight of the Egyptians; and it shall be, when you go, that you shall not go empty-handed.
22 “But every woman shall ask of her neighbor, namely, of her who dwells near her house, articles of silver, articles of gold, and clothing; and you shall put them on your sons and on your daughters. So you shall plunder the Egyptians.”

Exodus 4

Miraculous Signs for Pharaoh

1 Then Moses answered and said, “But suppose they will not believe me or listen to my voice; suppose they say, ‘The LORD has not appeared to you.’ ”
2 So the LORD said to him, “What is that in your hand?”
He said, “A rod.”
3 And He said, “Cast it on the ground.” So he cast it on the ground, and it became a serpent; and Moses fled from
it.
4 Then the LORD said to Moses, “Reach out your hand and take it by the tail” (and he reached out his hand and caught it, and it became a rod in his hand), 5 “that they may believe that the LORD God of their fathers, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob, has appeared to you.”
6 Furthermore the LORD said to him, “Now put your hand in your bosom.” And he put his hand in his bosom, and when he took it out, behold, his hand was leprous, like snow.
7 And He said, “Put your hand in your bosom again.” So he put his hand in his bosom again, and drew it out of his bosom, and behold, it was restored like his other flesh.
8 “Then it will be, if they do not believe you, nor heed the message of the first sign, that they may believe the message of the latter sign.
9 “And it shall be, if they do not believe even these two signs, or listen to your voice, that you shall take water from the river[a] and pour it on the dry land. The water which you take from the river will become blood on the dry land.”

10Then Moses said to the LORD, “O my Lord, I am not eloquent, neither before nor since You have spoken to Your servant; but I am slow of speech and slow of tongue.”

11So the LORD said to him, “Who has made man’s mouth? Or who makes the mute, the deaf, the seeing, or the blind? Have not I, the LORD?

12“Now therefore, go, and I will be with your mouth and teach you what you shall say.”

13But he said, “O my Lord, please send by the hand of whomever else You may send.”

14So the anger of the LORD was kindled against Moses, and He said: “Is not Aaron the Levite your brother? I know that he can speak well. And look, he is also coming out to meet you. When he sees you, he will be glad in his heart.

15“Now you shall speak to him and put the words in his mouth. And I will be with your mouth and with his mouth, and I will teach you what you shall do.

16“So he shall be your spokesman to the people. And he himself shall be as a mouth for you, and you shall be to him as God.

17“And you shall take this rod in your hand, with which you shall do the signs.”

Moses Goes to Egypt

18So Moses went and returned to Jethro his father-in-law, and said to him, “Please let me go and return to my brethren who are in Egypt, and see whether they are still alive.” And Jethro said to Moses, “Go in peace.”

19Now the LORD said to Moses in Midian, “Go, return to Egypt; for all the men who sought your life are dead.”

20Then Moses took his wife and his sons and set them on a donkey, and he returned to the land of Egypt. And Moses took the rod of God in his hand.

21 And the LORD said to Moses, “When you go back to Egypt, see that you do all those wonders before Pharaoh which I have put in your hand. But I will harden his heart, so that he will not let the people go.
22 “Then you shall say to Pharaoh, ‘Thus says the LORD:
“Israel is My son, My firstborn.
23 “So I say to you, let My son go that he may serve Me.
But if you refuse to let him go, indeed I will kill your son, your firstborn.” ’ ”
24 And it came to pass on the way, at the encampment, that the LORD met him and sought to kill him.
25 Then Zipporah took a sharp stone and cut off the foreskin of her son and cast it at Moses’[b] feet, and said, “Surely you are a husband of blood to me!”
26 So He let him go. Then she said, “You are a husband of blood!”—because of the circumcision.
27 And the LORD said to Aaron, “Go into the wilderness to meet Moses.” So he went and met him on the mountain of God, and kissed him. Aaron 28 So Moses told Aaron all the words of the LORD who had sent him, and all the signs which He had commanded
him.
29 Then Moses and Aaron went and gathered together all the elders of the children of Israel. Chaotic Career Paths 30 And Aaron spoke all the words which the LORD had spoken to Moses. Then he did the signs in the sight of the people.
31 So the people believed; and when they heard that the LORD had visited the children of Israel and that He had looked on their affliction, then they bowed their heads and worshiped.

Exodus 5

First Encounter with Pharaoh

1 Afterward Moses and Aaron went in and told Pharaoh,
"Thus says the LORD God of Israel: 'Let My people go, that they may hold a feast to Me in the wilderness.' "

2 And Pharaoh said, "Who is the LORD, that I should obey His voice to let Israel go? I do not know the LORD, nor will I let Israel go."

3 So they said, "The God of the Hebrews has met with us.
Please, let us go three days' journey into the desert and sacrifice to the LORD our God, lest He fall upon us with pestilence or with the sword."

4 Then the king of Egypt said to them, "Moses and Aaron, why do you take the people from their work? Get back to your labor."

5 And Pharaoh said, "Look, the people of the land are many now, and you make them rest from their labor!"

6 So the same day Pharaoh commanded the taskmasters of the people and their officers, saying, Fear in the Workplace

7 "You shall no longer give the people straw to make brick as before. Let them go and gather straw for themselves.

8 "And you shall lay on them the quota of bricks which they made before. You shall not reduce it. For they are idle; therefore they cry out, saying, 'Let us go and sacrifice to our God.'

9 "Let more work be laid on the men, that they may labor in it, and let them not regard false words."

10 And the taskmasters of the people and their officers went out and spoke to the people, saying, "Thus says Pharaoh: 'I will not give you straw.

11 ‘Go, get yourselves straw where you can find it; yet none of your work will be reduced.’ ” 12 So the people were scattered abroad throughout all the land of Egypt to gather stubble instead of straw.
13 And the taskmasters forced them to hurry, saying, “Fulfill your work, your daily quota, as when there was straw.”
14 Also the officers of the children of Israel, whom Pharaoh’s taskmasters had set over them, were beaten and were asked, “Why have you not fulfilled your task in making brick both yesterday and today, as before?” 15 Then the officers of the children of Israel came and cried out to Pharaoh, saying, “Why are you dealing thus with your servants?
16 “There is no straw given to your servants, and they say to us, ‘Make brick!’ And indeed your servants are beaten, but the fault is in your own people.” 17 But he said, “You are idle! Idle! Therefore you say, ‘Let us go and sacrifice to the LORD.’ 18 “Therefore go now and work; for no straw shall be given you, yet you shall deliver the quota of bricks.” 19 And the officers of the children of Israel saw that they were in trouble after it was said, “You shall not reduce any bricks from your daily quota.” 20 Then, as they came out from Pharaoh, they met Moses and Aaron who stood there to meet them.
21 And they said to them, “Let the LORD look on you and judge, because you have made us abhorrent in the sight of Pharaoh and in the sight of his servants, to put a sword in their hand to kill us.”

Israel’s Deliverance Assured

22 So Moses returned to the LORD and said, “Lord, why have You brought trouble on this people? Why is it You have sent me?

23 “For since I came to Pharaoh to speak in Your name, he has done evil to this people; neither have You delivered Your people at all.”

Exodus 6

1 Then the LORD said to Moses, “Now you shall see what I will do to Pharaoh. For with a strong hand he will let them go, and with a strong hand he will drive them out of his land.”

2 And God spoke to Moses and said to him: “I am the LORD. From Strangers to Settlers

3 “I appeared to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob, as God Almighty, but by My name LORD[a] I was not known to them.

4 “I have also established My covenant with them, to give them the land of Canaan, the land of their pilgrimage, in which they were strangers.

5 “And I have also heard the groaning of the children of Israel whom the Egyptians keep in bondage, and I have remembered My covenant.

6 “Therefore say to the children of Israel: ‘I am the LORD;
I will bring you out from under the burdens of the Egyptians, I will rescue you from their bondage, and I will redeem you with an outstretched arm and with great judgments.

7 ‘I will take you as My people, and I will be your God.
Then you shall know that I am the LORD your God who brings you out from under the burdens of the Egyptians.

8 ‘And I will bring you into the land which I swore to give to Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob; and I will give it to you as a heritage: I am the LORD.’ ”

9 So Moses spoke thus to the children of Israel; but they did not heed Moses, because of anguish of spirit and cruel bondage.

10 And the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,

11 “Go in, tell Pharaoh king of Egypt to let the children of Israel go out of his land.”
12 And Moses spoke before the LORD, saying, “The children of Israel have not heeded me. How then shall Pharaoh heed me, for I am of uncircumcised lips?” 13 Then the LORD spoke to Moses and Aaron, and gave them a command for the children of Israel and for Pharaoh king of Egypt, to bring the children of Israel out of the land of Egypt. Positive Authority

The Family of Moses and Aaron

14 These are the heads of their fathers’ houses: The sons of Reuben, the firstborn of Israel, were Hanoch, Pallu, Hezron, and Carmi. These are the families of Reuben.
15 And the sons of Simeon were Jemuel,[b] Jamin, Ohad, Jachin, Zohar, and Shaul the son of a Canaanite woman.
These are the families of Simeon.
16 These are the names of the sons of Levi according to their generations: Gershon, Kohath, and Merari. And the years of the life of Levi were one hundred and thirty-seven.
17 The sons of Gershon were Libni and Shimi according to their families.
18 And the sons of Kohath were Amram, Izhar, Hebron, and Uzziel. And the years of the life of Kohath were one hundred and thirty-three.
19 The sons of Merari were Mahli and Mushi. These are the families of Levi according to their generations.
20 Now Amram took for himself Jochebed, his father’s sister, as wife; and she bore him Aaron and Moses. And the years of the life of Amram were one hundred and thirty-seven. Jochebed
21 The sons of Izhar were Korah, Nepheg, and Zichri.

22And the sons of Uzziel were Mishael, Elzaphan, and Zithri.
23Aaron took to himself Elisheba, daughter of Amminadab, sister of Nahshon, as wife; and she bore him Nadab, Abihu, Eleazar, and Ithamar.
24And the sons of Korah were Assir, Elkanah, and Abiasaph. These are the families of the Korahites.
25Eleazar, Aaron's son, took for himself one of the daughters of Putiel as wife; and she bore him Phinehas. These are the heads of the fathers' houses of the Levites according to their families.
26These are the same Aaron and Moses to whom the LORD said, "Bring out the children of Israel from the land of Egypt according to their armies."
27These are the ones who spoke to Pharaoh king of Egypt, to bring out the children of Israel from Egypt. These are the same Moses and Aaron.

Aaron Is Moses' Spokesman

28And it came to pass, on the day the LORD spoke to Moses in the land of Egypt, 29that the LORD spoke to Moses, saying, "I am the LORD. Speak to Pharaoh king of Egypt all that I say to you."
30But Moses said before the LORD, "Behold, I am of uncircumcised lips, and how shall Pharaoh heed me?"

Exodus 7

1So the LORD said to Moses: “See, I have made you as God to Pharaoh, and Aaron your brother shall be your prophet.

Moses as God

2“You shall speak all that I command you. And Aaron your brother shall tell Pharaoh to send the children of Israel out of his land.
3“And I will harden Pharaoh’s heart, and multiply My signs and My wonders in the land of Egypt.
4“But Pharaoh will not heed you, so that I may lay My hand on Egypt and bring My armies and My people, the children of Israel, out of the land of Egypt by great judgments.
5“And the Egyptians shall know that I am the LORD, when I stretch out My hand on Egypt and bring out the children of Israel from among them.”
6Then Moses and Aaron did so; just as the LORD commanded them, so they did.
7And Moses was eighty years old and Aaron eighty-three years old when they spoke to Pharaoh.

Aaron’s Miraculous Rod

8Then the LORD spoke to Moses and Aaron, saying,
9“When Pharaoh speaks to you, saying, ‘Show a miracle for yourselves,’ then you shall say to Aaron, ‘Take your rod and cast it before Pharaoh, and let it become a serpent.’ ” 10So Moses and Aaron went in to Pharaoh, and they did so, just as the LORD commanded. And Aaron cast down his rod before Pharaoh and before his servants, and it became a serpent.

11 But Pharaoh also called the wise men and the sorcerers; so the magicians of Egypt, they also did in like manner with their enchantments.
12 For every man threw down his rod, and they became serpents. But Aaron's rod swallowed up their rods.
13 And Pharaoh's heart grew hard, and he did not heed them, as the LORD had said.

The First Plague: Waters Become Blood

14 So the LORD said to Moses: "Pharaoh's heart is hard;
he refuses to let the people go.
15 "Go to Pharaoh in the morning, when he goes out to the water, and you shall stand by the river's bank to meet him; and the rod which was turned to a serpent you shall take in your hand.
16 "And you shall say to him, 'The LORD God of the Hebrews has sent me to you, saying, "Let My people go, that they may serve Me in the wilderness"; but indeed,
until now you would not hear!
17 'Thus says the LORD: "By this you shall know that I am the LORD. Behold, I will strike the waters which are in the river with the rod that is in my hand, and they shall be turned to blood.
18 "And the fish that are in the river shall die, the river shall stink, and the Egyptians will loathe to drink the water of the river." ' " 19 Then the LORD spoke to Moses, "Say to Aaron, 'Take your rod and stretch out your hand over the waters of Egypt, over their streams, over their rivers, over their ponds, and over all their pools of water, that they may become blood. And there shall be blood throughout all the land of Egypt, both in buckets of wood and pitchers of stone.' "

[20]And Moses and Aaron did so, just as the LORD commanded. So he lifted up the rod and struck the waters that were in the river, in the sight of Pharaoh and in the sight of his servants. And all the waters that were in the river were turned to blood.

[21]The fish that were in the river died, the river stank, and the Egyptians could not drink the water of the river. So there was blood throughout all the land of Egypt.

[22]Then the magicians of Egypt did so with their enchantments; and Pharaoh’s heart grew hard, and he did not heed them, as the LORD had said.

[23]And Pharaoh turned and went into his house. Neither was his heart moved by this.

[24]So all the Egyptians dug all around the river for water to drink, because they could not drink the water of the river.

[25]And seven days passed after the LORD had struck the river.

Exodus 8

The Second Plague: Frogs

1 And the LORD spoke to Moses, “Go to Pharaoh and say to him, ‘Thus says the LORD: “Let My people go, that they may serve Me. Set Free to Serve 2 “But if you refuse to let them go, behold, I will smite all your territory with frogs.
3 “So the river shall bring forth frogs abundantly, which shall go up and come into your house, into your bedroom, on your bed, into the houses of your servants, on your people, into your ovens, and into your kneading bowls.
4 “And the frogs shall come up on you, on your people, and on all your servants.” ’ ”
5 Then the LORD spoke to Moses, “Say to Aaron, ‘Stretch out your hand with your rod over the streams, over the rivers, and over the ponds, and cause frogs to come up on the land of Egypt.’ ”
6 So Aaron stretched out his hand over the waters of Egypt, and the frogs came up and covered the land of Egypt.
7 And the magicians did so with their enchantments, and brought up frogs on the land of Egypt.
8 Then Pharaoh called for Moses and Aaron, and said, “Entreat the LORD that He may take away the frogs from me and from my people; and I will let the people go, that they may sacrifice to the LORD.” An Ecological Disaster 9 And Moses said to Pharaoh, “Accept the honor of saying when I shall intercede for you, for your servants, and for your people, to destroy the frogs from you and your houses, that they may remain in the river only.”

10 So he said, “Tomorrow.” And he said, “Let it be according to your word, that you may know that there is no one like the LORD our God.

11 “And the frogs shall depart from you, from your houses, from your servants, and from your people. They shall remain in the river only.”

12 Then Moses and Aaron went out from Pharaoh. And Moses cried out to the LORD concerning the frogs which He had brought against Pharaoh.

13 So the LORD did according to the word of Moses. And the frogs died out of the houses, out of the courtyards, and out of the fields.

14 They gathered them together in heaps, and the land stank.

15 But when Pharaoh saw that there was relief, he hardened his heart and did not heed them, as the LORD had said.

The Third Plague: Lice

16 So the LORD said to Moses, “Say to Aaron, ‘Stretch out your rod, and strike the dust of the land, so that it may become lice throughout all the land of Egypt.’ ”

17 And they did so. For Aaron stretched out his hand with his rod and struck the dust of the earth, and it became lice on man and beast. All the dust of the land became lice throughout all the land of Egypt.

18 Now the magicians so worked with their enchantments to bring forth lice, but they could not. So there were lice on man and beast.

19 Then the magicians said to Pharaoh, “This is the finger of God.” But Pharaoh’s heart grew hard, and he did not heed them, just as the LORD had said.

The Fourth Plague: Flies

20And the LORD said to Moses, “Rise early in the morning and stand before Pharaoh as he comes out to the water. Then say to him, ‘Thus says the LORD: “Let My people go, that they may serve Me.

21“Or else, if you will not let My people go, behold, I will send swarms of flies on you and your servants, on your people and into your houses. The houses of the Egyptians shall be full of swarms of flies, and also the ground on which they stand.

22“And in that day I will set apart the land of Goshen, in which My people dwell, that no swarms of flies shall be there, in order that you may know that I am the LORD in the midst of the land.

23“I will make a difference[a] between My people and your people. Tomorrow this sign shall be.” ’ ”

24And the LORD did so. Thick swarms of flies came into the house of Pharaoh, into his servants’ houses, and into all the land of Egypt. The land was corrupted because of the swarms of flies.

25Then Pharaoh called for Moses and Aaron, and said, “Go, sacrifice to your God in the land.”

26And Moses said, “It is not right to do so, for we would be sacrificing the abomination of the Egyptians to the LORD our God. If we sacrifice the abomination of the Egyptians before their eyes, then will they not stone us?

27“We will go three days’ journey into the wilderness and sacrifice to the LORD our God as He will command us.”

28So Pharaoh said, “I will let you go, that you may sacrifice to the LORD your God in the wilderness; only you shall not go very far away. Intercede for me.”

29Then Moses said, “Indeed I am going out from you, and I will entreat the LORD, that the swarms of flies may depart tomorrow from Pharaoh, from his servants, and from his people. But let Pharaoh not deal deceitfully anymore in not letting the people go to sacrifice to the LORD.”

30So Moses went out from Pharaoh and entreated the LORD.

31And the LORD did according to the word of Moses; He removed the swarms of flies from Pharaoh, from his servants, and from his people. Not one remained.

32But Pharaoh hardened his heart at this time also; neither would he let the people go.

Exodus 9

The Fifth Plague: Livestock Diseased

1 Then the LORD said to Moses, “Go in to Pharaoh and tell him, ‘Thus says the LORD God of the Hebrews: “Let My people go, that they may serve Me.
2 “For if you refuse to let them go, and still hold them, 3 “behold, the hand of the LORD will be on your cattle in the field, on the horses, on the donkeys, on the camels, on the oxen, and on the sheep—a very severe pestilence.
4 “And the LORD will make a difference between the livestock of Israel and the livestock of Egypt. So nothing shall die of all that belongs to the children of Israel.” ’ ” 5 Then the LORD appointed a set time, saying, “Tomorrow the LORD will do this thing in the land.” 6 So the LORD did this thing on the next day, and all the livestock of Egypt died; but of the livestock of the children of Israel, not one died.
7 Then Pharaoh sent, and indeed, not even one of the livestock of the Israelites was dead. But the heart of Pharaoh became hard, and he did not let the people go.

The Sixth Plague: Boils

8 So the LORD said to Moses and Aaron, “Take for yourselves handfuls of ashes from a furnace, and let Moses scatter it toward the heavens in the sight of Pharaoh.
9 “And it will become fine dust in all the land of Egypt, and it will cause boils that break out in sores on man and beast throughout all the land of Egypt.”
10 Then they took ashes from the furnace and stood before Pharaoh, and Moses scattered them toward heaven.

And they caused boils that break out in sores on man and beast.

11 And the magicians could not stand before Moses because of the boils, for the boils were on the magicians and on all the Egyptians.

12 But the LORD hardened the heart of Pharaoh; and he did not heed them, just as the LORD had spoken to Moses.

The Hard Heart

The Seventh Plague: Hail

13 Then the LORD said to Moses, “Rise early in the morning and stand before Pharaoh, and say to him, ‘Thus says the LORD God of the Hebrews: “Let My people go, that they may serve Me, 14 “for at this time I will send all My plagues to your very heart, and on your servants and on your people, that you may know that there is none like Me in all the earth.

15 “Now if I had stretched out My hand and struck you and your people with pestilence, then you would have been cut off from the earth.

16 “But indeed for this purpose I have raised you up, that I may show My power in you, and that My name may be declared in all the earth.

17 “As yet you exalt yourself against My people in that you will not let them go.

18 “Behold, tomorrow about this time I will cause very heavy hail to rain down, such as has not been in Egypt since its founding until now.

19 “Therefore send now and gather your livestock and all that you have in the field, for the hail shall come down on every man and every animal which is found in the field and is not brought home; and they shall die.” ’ ”

20 He who feared the word of the LORD among the servants of Pharaoh made his servants and his livestock flee to the houses.

21 But he who did not regard the word of the LORD left his servants and his livestock in the field.

22 Then the LORD said to Moses, “Stretch out your hand toward heaven, that there may be hail in all the land of Egypt—on man, on beast, and on every herb of the field, throughout the land of Egypt.”

23 And Moses stretched out his rod toward heaven; and the LORD sent thunder and hail, and fire darted to the ground. And the LORD rained hail on the land of Egypt.

24 So there was hail, and fire mingled with the hail, so very heavy that there was none like it in all the land of Egypt since it became a nation.

25 And the hail struck throughout the whole land of Egypt, all that was in the field, both man and beast; and the hail struck every herb of the field and broke every tree of the field.

26 Only in the land of Goshen, where the children of Israel were, there was no hail.

27 And Pharaoh sent and called for Moses and Aaron, and said to them, “I have sinned this time. The LORD is righteous, and my people and I are wicked.

28 “Entreat the LORD, that there may be no more mighty thundering and hail, for it is enough. I will let you go, and you shall stay no longer.”

29 So Moses said to him, “As soon as I have gone out of the city, I will spread out my hands to the LORD; the thunder will cease, and there will be no more hail, that you may know that the earth is the LORD’s.

30 “But as for you and your servants, I know that you will not yet fear the LORD God.”

31 Now the flax and the barley were struck, for the barley was in the head and the flax was in bud.

[32]But the wheat and the spelt were not struck, for they are late crops.

[33]So Moses went out of the city from Pharaoh and spread out his hands to the LORD; then the thunder and the hail ceased, and the rain was not poured on the earth.

[34]And when Pharaoh saw that the rain, the hail, and the thunder had ceased, he sinned yet more; and he hardened his heart, he and his servants.

[35]So the heart of Pharaoh was hard; neither would he let the children of Israel go, as the LORD had spoken by Moses.

Exodus 10

The Eighth Plague: Locusts

1 Now the LORD said to Moses, “Go in to Pharaoh; for I have hardened his heart and the hearts of his servants, that I may show these signs of Mine before him, 2 “and that you may tell in the hearing of your son and your son’s son the mighty things I have done in Egypt, and My signs which I have done among them, that you may know that I am the LORD.”
3 So Moses and Aaron came in to Pharaoh and said to him, “Thus says the LORD God of the Hebrews: ‘How long will you refuse to humble yourself before Me? Let My people go, that they may serve Me.
4 ‘Or else, if you refuse to let My people go, behold, tomorrow I will bring locusts into your territory.
5 ‘And they shall cover the face of the earth, so that no one will be able to see the earth; and they shall eat the residue of what is left, which remains to you from the hail, and they shall eat every tree which grows up for you out of the field.
6 ‘They shall fill your houses, the houses of all your servants, and the houses of all the Egyptians—which neither your fathers nor your fathers’ fathers have seen, since the day that they were on the earth to this day.’ ” And he turned and went out from Pharaoh.
7 Then Pharaoh’s servants said to him, “How long shall this man be a snare to us? Let the men go, that they may serve the LORD their God. Do you not yet know that Egypt is destroyed?”
8 So Moses and Aaron were brought again to Pharaoh, and he said to them, “Go, serve the LORD your God. Who are the ones that are going?”

9And Moses said, “We will go with our young and our old; with our sons and our daughters, with our flocks and our herds we will go, for we must hold a feast to the LORD.”

10Then he said to them, “The LORD had better be with you when I let you and your little ones go! Beware, for evil is ahead of you. Overcoming Sarcasm

11“Not so! Go now, you who are men, and serve the LORD, for that is what you desired.” And they were driven out from Pharaoh’s presence.

12Then the LORD said to Moses, “Stretch out your hand over the land of Egypt for the locusts, that they may come upon the land of Egypt, and eat every herb of the land—all that the hail has left.”

13So Moses stretched out his rod over the land of Egypt, and the LORD brought an east wind on the land all that day and all that night. When it was morning, the east wind brought the locusts.

14And the locusts went up over all the land of Egypt and rested on all the territory of Egypt. They were very severe; previously there had been no such locusts as they, nor shall there be such after them.

15For they covered the face of the whole earth, so that the land was darkened; and they ate every herb of the land and all the fruit of the trees which the hail had left. So there remained nothing green on the trees or on the plants of the field throughout all the land of Egypt.

16Then Pharaoh called for Moses and Aaron in haste, and said, “I have sinned against the LORD your God and against
you.

17“Now therefore, please forgive my sin only this once, and entreat the LORD your God, that He may take away from me this death only.”

18So he went out from Pharaoh and entreated the LORD.

19 And the LORD turned a very strong west wind, which took the locusts away and blew them into the Red Sea.
There remained not one locust in all the territory of Egypt.
20 But the LORD hardened Pharaoh's heart, and he did not let the children of Israel go.

The Ninth Plague: Darkness

21 Then the LORD said to Moses, "Stretch out your hand toward heaven, that there may be darkness over the land of Egypt, darkness which may even be felt." 22 So Moses stretched out his hand toward heaven, and there was thick darkness in all the land of Egypt three days.
23 They did not see one another; nor did anyone rise from his place for three days. But all the children of Israel had light in their dwellings.
24 Then Pharaoh called to Moses and said, "Go, serve the LORD; only let your flocks and your herds be kept back. Let your little ones also go with you." 25 But Moses said, "You must also give us sacrifices and burnt offerings, that we may sacrifice to the LORD our God.
26 "Our livestock also shall go with us; not a hoof shall be left behind. For we must take some of them to serve the LORD our God, and even we do not know with what we must serve the LORD until we arrive there." 27 But the LORD hardened Pharaoh's heart, and he would not let them go.
28 Then Pharaoh said to him, "Get away from me! Take heed to yourself and see my face no more! For in the day you see my face you shall die!" 29 So Moses said, "You have spoken well. I will never see your face again."

Exodus 11

Death of the Firstborn Announced

1 And the LORD said to Moses, “I will bring one more plague on Pharaoh and on Egypt. Afterward he will let you go from here. When he lets you go, he will surely drive you out of here altogether. Give Change a Chance

2 “Speak now in the hearing of the people, and let every man ask from his neighbor and every woman from her neighbor, articles of silver and articles of gold.”

3 And the LORD gave the people favor in the sight of the Egyptians. Moreover the man Moses was very great in the land of Egypt, in the sight of Pharaoh’s servants and in the sight of the people.

4 Then Moses said, “Thus says the LORD: ‘About midnight
I will go out into the midst of Egypt;

5 ‘and all the firstborn in the land of Egypt shall die, from the firstborn of Pharaoh who sits on his throne, even to the firstborn of the female servant who is behind the handmill, and all the firstborn of the animals.

6 ‘Then there shall be a great cry throughout all the land of Egypt, such as was not like it before, nor shall be like it again.

7 ‘But against none of the children of Israel shall a dog move its tongue, against man or beast, that you may know that the LORD does make a difference between the Egyptians and Israel.’ The Egyptians

8 “And all these your servants shall come down to me and bow down to me, saying, ‘Get out, and all the people who follow you!’ After that I will go out.” Then he went out from Pharaoh in great anger.

9But the LORD said to Moses, “Pharaoh will not heed you, so that My wonders may be multiplied in the land of Egypt.”
10So Moses and Aaron did all these wonders before Pharaoh; and the LORD hardened Pharaoh’s heart, and he did not let the children of Israel go out of his land.

Exodus 12

The Passover Instituted

1 Now the LORD spoke to Moses and Aaron in the land of Egypt, saying,
2 "This month shall be your beginning of months; it shall be the first month of the year to you.
3 "Speak to all the congregation of Israel, saying: 'On the tenth of this month every man shall take for himself a lamb, according to the house of his father, a lamb for a household.
4 'And if the household is too small for the lamb, let him and his neighbor next to his house take it according to the number of the persons; according to each man's need you shall make your count for the lamb.
5 'Your lamb shall be without blemish, a male of the first year. You may take it from the sheep or from the goats.
6 'Now you shall keep it until the fourteenth day of the same month. Then the whole assembly of the congregation of Israel shall kill it at twilight.
7 'And they shall take some of the blood and put it on the two doorposts and on the lintel of the houses where they eat it.
8 'Then they shall eat the flesh on that night; roasted in fire, with unleavened bread and with bitter herbs they shall eat it.
9 'Do not eat it raw, nor boiled at all with water, but roasted in fire—its head with its legs and its entrails.
10 'You shall let none of it remain until morning, and what remains of it until morning you shall burn with fire.
11 'And thus you shall eat it: with a belt on your waist, your sandals on your feet, and your staff in your hand. So you shall eat it in haste. It is the LORD's Passover.

12 'For I will pass through the land of Egypt on that night, and will strike all the firstborn in the land of Egypt, both man and beast; and against all the gods of Egypt I will execute judgment: I am the LORD.

13 'Now the blood shall be a sign for you on the houses where you are. And when I see the blood, I will pass over you; and the plague shall not be on you to destroy you when I strike the land of Egypt.

14 'So this day shall be to you a memorial; and you shall keep it as a feast to the LORD throughout your generations. You shall keep it as a feast by an everlasting ordinance.

15 'Seven days you shall eat unleavened bread. On the first day you shall remove leaven from your houses. For whoever eats leavened bread from the first day until the seventh day, that person shall be cut off from Israel.

16 'On the first day there shall be a holy convocation, and on the seventh day there shall be a holy convocation for you. No manner of work shall be done on them; but that which everyone must eat—that only may be prepared by you.

17 'So you shall observe the Feast of Unleavened Bread, for on this same day I will have brought your armies out of the land of Egypt. Therefore you shall observe this day throughout your generations as an everlasting ordinance.

18 'In the first month, on the fourteenth day of the month at evening, you shall eat unleavened bread, until the twenty-first day of the month at evening.

19 'For seven days no leaven shall be found in your houses, since whoever eats what is leavened, that same person shall be cut off from the congregation of Israel, whether he is a stranger or a native of the land.

20 'You shall eat nothing leavened; in all your dwellings you shall eat unleavened bread.' "

21Then Moses called for all the elders of Israel and said to them, “Pick out and take lambs for yourselves according to your families, and kill the Passover lamb.

22“And you shall take a bunch of hyssop, dip it in the blood that is in the basin, and strike the lintel and the two doorposts with the blood that is in the basin. And none of you shall go out of the door of his house until morning.

23“For the LORD will pass through to strike the Egyptians; and when He sees the blood on the lintel and on the two doorposts, the LORD will pass over the door and not allow the destroyer to come into your houses to strike you.

24“And you shall observe this thing as an ordinance for you and your sons forever.

25“It will come to pass when you come to the land which the LORD will give you, just as He promised, that you shall keep this service.

26“And it shall be, when your children say to you, ‘What do you mean by this service?’ Remembering God’s Action

27“that you shall say, ‘It is the Passover sacrifice of the LORD, who passed over the houses of the children of Israel in Egypt when He struck the Egyptians and delivered our households.’ ” So the people bowed their heads and worshiped.

28Then the children of Israel went away and did so; just as the LORD had commanded Moses and Aaron, so they did.

The Tenth Plague: Death of the Firstborn

29And it came to pass at midnight that the LORD struck all the firstborn in the land of Egypt, from the firstborn of Pharaoh who sat on his throne to the firstborn of the captive who was in the dungeon, and all the firstborn of livestock. Pharaoh’s Submission

30 So Pharaoh rose in the night, he, all his servants, and all the Egyptians; and there was a great cry in Egypt, for there was not a house where there was not one dead.

The Exodus

31 Then he called for Moses and Aaron by night, and said,
"Rise, go out from among my people, both you and the children of Israel. And go, serve the LORD as you have said.
32 "Also take your flocks and your herds, as you have said,
and be gone; and bless me also."
33 And the Egyptians urged the people, that they might send them out of the land in haste. For they said, "We shall all be dead."
34 So the people took their dough before it was leavened, having their kneading bowls bound up in their clothes on their shoulders.
35 Now the children of Israel had done according to the word of Moses, and they had asked from the Egyptians articles of silver, articles of gold, and clothing.
36 And the LORD had given the people favor in the sight of the Egyptians, so that they granted them what they requested. Thus they plundered the Egyptians.
37 Then the children of Israel journeyed from Rameses to Succoth, about six hundred thousand men on foot, besides children.
38 A mixed multitude went up with them also, and flocks and herds—a great deal of livestock.
39 And they baked unleavened cakes of the dough which they had brought out of Egypt; for it was not leavened, because they were driven out of Egypt and could not wait,
nor had they prepared provisions for themselves.
40 Now the sojourn of the children of Israel who lived in Egypt[a] was four hundred and thirty years.

41 And it came to pass at the end of the four hundred and thirty years—on that very same day—it came to pass that all the armies of the LORD went out from the land of Egypt.
42 It is a night of solemn observance to the LORD for bringing them out of the land of Egypt. This is that night of the LORD, a solemn observance for all the children of Israel throughout their generations.

Passover Regulations

43 And the LORD said to Moses and Aaron, "This is the ordinance of the Passover: No foreigner shall eat it.
44 "But every man's servant who is bought for money,
when you have circumcised him, then he may eat it.
45 "A sojourner and a hired servant shall not eat it.
46 "In one house it shall be eaten; you shall not carry any of the flesh outside the house, nor shall you break one of its bones.
47 "All the congregation of Israel shall keep it.
48 "And when a stranger dwells with you and wants to keep the Passover to the LORD, let all his males be circumcised, and then let him come near and keep it; and he shall be as a native of the land. For no uncircumcised person shall eat it.
49 "One law shall be for the native-born and for the stranger who dwells among you."
50 Thus all the children of Israel did; as the LORD commanded Moses and Aaron, so they did.
51 And it came to pass, on that very same day, that the LORD brought the children of Israel out of the land of Egypt according to their armies.

Exodus 13

The Firstborn Consecrated

1 Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,
2 “Consecrate to Me all the firstborn, whatever opens the womb among the children of Israel, both of man and beast;
it is Mine.”

The Feast of Unleavened Bread

3 And Moses said to the people: “Remember this day in which you went out of Egypt, out of the house of bondage;
for by strength of hand the LORD brought you out of this place. No leavened bread shall be eaten.
4 “On this day you are going out, in the month Abib.
5 “And it shall be, when the LORD brings you into the land of the Canaanites and the Hittites and the Amorites and the Hivites and the Jebusites, which He swore to your fathers to give you, a land flowing with milk and honey, that you shall keep this service in this month.
6 “Seven days you shall eat unleavened bread, and on the seventh day there shall be a feast to the LORD.
7 “Unleavened bread shall be eaten seven days. And no leavened bread shall be seen among you, nor shall leaven be seen among you in all your quarters.
8 “And you shall tell your son in that day, saying, ‘This is done because of what the LORD did for me when I came up from Egypt.’
9 “It shall be as a sign to you on your hand and as a memorial between your eyes, that the LORD’s law may be in your mouth; for with a strong hand the LORD has brought you out of Egypt.

10 “You shall therefore keep this ordinance in its season from year to year.

The Law of the Firstborn

11 “And it shall be, when the LORD brings you into the land of the Canaanites, as He swore to you and your fathers, and gives it to you, 12 “that you shall set apart to the LORD all that open the womb, that is, every firstborn that comes from an animal which you have; the males shall be the LORD’s.
13 “But every firstborn of a donkey you shall redeem with a lamb; and if you will not redeem it, then you shall break its neck. And all the firstborn of man among your sons you shall redeem.
14 “So it shall be, when your son asks you in time to come, saying, ‘What is this?’ that you shall say to him, ‘By strength of hand the LORD brought us out of Egypt, out of the house of bondage.
15 ‘And it came to pass, when Pharaoh was stubborn about letting us go, that the LORD killed all the firstborn in the land of Egypt, both the firstborn of man and the firstborn of beast. Therefore I sacrifice to the LORD all males that open the womb, but all the firstborn of my sons I redeem.’ 16 “It shall be as a sign on your hand and as frontlets between your eyes, for by strength of hand the LORD brought us out of Egypt.”

The Wilderness Way

17 Then it came to pass, when Pharaoh had let the people go, that God did not lead them by way of the land of the Philistines, although that was near; for God said, “Lest perhaps the people change their minds when they see war, and return to Egypt.”

18 So God led the people around by way of the wilderness of the Red Sea. And the children of Israel went up in orderly ranks out of the land of Egypt.
19 And Moses took the bones of Joseph with him, for he had placed the children of Israel under solemn oath, saying, “God will surely visit you, and you shall carry up my bones from here with you.”[a] 20 So they took their journey from Succoth and camped in Etham at the edge of the wilderness.
21 And the LORD went before them by day in a pillar of cloud to lead the way, and by night in a pillar of fire to give them light, so as to go by day and night. The Leading of the Lord 22 He did not take away the pillar of cloud by day or the pillar of fire by night from before the people.

Exodus 14

The Red Sea Crossing

1 Now the LORD spoke to Moses, saying:

2 “Speak to the children of Israel, that they turn and camp before Pi Hahiroth, between Migdol and the sea, opposite Baal Zephon; you shall camp before it by the sea.

3 “For Pharaoh will say of the children of Israel, ‘They are bewildered by the land; the wilderness has closed them in.’

4 “Then I will harden Pharaoh’s heart, so that he will pursue them; and I will gain honor over Pharaoh and over all his army, that the Egyptians may know that I am the LORD.” And they did so.

5 Now it was told the king of Egypt that the people had fled, and the heart of Pharaoh and his servants was turned against the people; and they said, “Why have we done this,
that we have let Israel go from serving us?”

6 So he made ready his chariot and took his people with
him.

7 Also, he took six hundred choice chariots, and all the chariots of Egypt with captains over every one of them.

8 And the LORD hardened the heart of Pharaoh king of Egypt, and he pursued the children of Israel; and the children of Israel went out with boldness.

9 So the Egyptians pursued them, all the horses and chariots of Pharaoh, his horsemen and his army, and overtook them camping by the sea beside Pi Hahiroth, before Baal Zephon.

10 And when Pharaoh drew near, the children of Israel lifted their eyes, and behold, the Egyptians marched after them. So they were very afraid, and the children of Israel cried out to the LORD.

11 Then they said to Moses, “Because there were no graves in Egypt, have you taken us away to die in the wilderness? Why have you so dealt with us, to bring us up out of Egypt?
12 “Is this not the word that we told you in Egypt, saying,
‘Let us alone that we may serve the Egyptians’? For it would have been better for us to serve the Egyptians than that we should die in the wilderness.” 13 And Moses said to the people, “Do not be afraid. Stand still, and see the salvation of the LORD, which He will accomplish for you today. For the Egyptians whom you see today, you shall see again no more forever.
14 “The LORD will fight for you, and you shall hold your peace.”
15 And the LORD said to Moses, “Why do you cry to Me?
Tell the children of Israel to go forward.
16 “But lift up your rod, and stretch out your hand over the sea and divide it. And the children of Israel shall go on dry ground through the midst of the sea.
17 “And I indeed will harden the hearts of the Egyptians, and they shall follow them. So I will gain honor over Pharaoh and over all his army, his chariots, and his horsemen.
18 “Then the Egyptians shall know that I am the LORD, when I have gained honor for Myself over Pharaoh, his chariots, and his horsemen.” 19 And the Angel of God, who went before the camp of Israel, moved and went behind them; and the pillar of cloud went from before them and stood behind them.
20 So it came between the camp of the Egyptians and the camp of Israel. Thus it was a cloud and darkness to the one, and it gave light by night to the other, so that the one did not come near the other all that night.

21Then Moses stretched out his hand over the sea; and the LORD caused the sea to go back by a strong east wind all that night, and made the sea into dry land, and the waters were divided. Miracles Do Not Happen Every Day

22So the children of Israel went into the midst of the sea on the dry ground, and the waters were a wall to them on their right hand and on their left.

23And the Egyptians pursued and went after them into the midst of the sea, all Pharaoh's horses, his chariots, and his horsemen.

24Now it came to pass, in the morning watch, that the LORD looked down upon the army of the Egyptians through the pillar of fire and cloud, and He troubled the army of the Egyptians.

25And He took off[a] their chariot wheels, so that they drove them with difficulty; and the Egyptians said, "Let us flee from the face of Israel, for the LORD fights for them against the Egyptians."

26Then the LORD said to Moses, "Stretch out your hand over the sea, that the waters may come back upon the Egyptians, on their chariots, and on their horsemen."

27And Moses stretched out his hand over the sea; and when the morning appeared, the sea returned to its full depth, while the Egyptians were fleeing into it. So the LORD overthrew the Egyptians in the midst of the sea.

28Then the waters returned and covered the chariots, the horsemen, and all the army of Pharaoh that came into the sea after them. Not so much as one of them remained.

29But the children of Israel had walked on dry land in the midst of the sea, and the waters were a wall to them on their right hand and on their left.

30So the LORD saved Israel that day out of the hand of the Egyptians, and Israel saw the Egyptians dead on the seashore.

31 Thus Israel saw the great work which the LORD had done in Egypt; so the people feared the LORD, and believed the LORD and His servant Moses.

Exodus 15

The Song of Moses

1 Then Moses and the children of Israel sang this song to the LORD, and spoke, saying:

"I will sing to the LORD,
For He has triumphed gloriously!
The horse and its rider
He has thrown into the sea!
2 The LORD is my strength and song,
And He has become my salvation;
He is my God, and I will praise Him;
My father's God, and I will exalt Him.
3 The LORD is a man of war;
The LORD is His name.
4 Pharaoh's chariots and his army He has cast into the sea;
His chosen captains also are drowned in the Red Sea.
5 The depths have covered them;
They sank to the bottom like a stone.

6 "Your right hand, O LORD, has become glorious in power;
Your right hand, O LORD, has dashed the enemy in pieces. What Is God Like?
7 And in the greatness of Your excellence
You have overthrown those who rose against
You;
You sent forth Your wrath;
It consumed them like stubble.
8 And with the blast of Your nostrils

The waters were gathered together;
The floods stood upright like a heap;
The depths congealed in the heart of the sea.
9The enemy said, ‘I will pursue,
I will overtake,
I will divide the spoil;
My desire shall be satisfied on them.
I will draw my sword,
My hand shall destroy them.’
10You blew with Your wind,
The sea covered them;
They sank like lead in the mighty waters.

11“Who is like You, O LORD, among the gods?
Who is like You, glorious in holiness,
Fearful in praises, doing wonders?
12You stretched out Your right hand;
The earth swallowed them.
13You in Your mercy have led forth
The people whom You have redeemed;
You have guided them in Your strength
To Your holy habitation.

14“The people will hear and be afraid;
Sorrow will take hold of the inhabitants of Philistia.
15Then the chiefs of Edom will be dismayed;
The mighty men of Moab,
Trembling will take hold of them;
All the inhabitants of Canaan will melt away.
16Fear and dread will fall on them;
By the greatness of Your arm
They will be as still as a stone,

Till Your people pass over, O LORD,
Till the people pass over Whom You have purchased.
17 You will bring them in and plant them
In the mountain of Your inheritance,
In the place, O LORD, which You have made
For Your own dwelling,
The sanctuary, O Lord, which Your hands have established.

18 "The LORD shall reign forever and ever."

19 For the horses of Pharaoh went with his chariots and his horsemen into the sea, and the LORD brought back the waters of the sea upon them. But the children of Israel went on dry land in the midst of the sea.

The Song of Miriam

20 Then Miriam the prophetess, the sister of Aaron, took the timbrel in her hand; and all the women went out after her with timbrels and with dances.

21 And Miriam answered them:

"Sing to the LORD,
For He has triumphed gloriously!
The horse and its rider
He has thrown into the sea!"

Bitter Waters Made Sweet

22 So Moses brought Israel from the Red Sea; then they went out into the Wilderness of Shur. And they went three days in the wilderness and found no water.

23 Now when they came to Marah, they could not drink the waters of Marah, for they were bitter. Therefore the name of it was called Marah.[a]

[25]So he cried out to the LORD, and the LORD showed him a tree. When he cast it into the waters, the waters were made sweet. There He made a statute and an ordinance for them, and there He tested them,

[26]and said, “If you diligently heed the voice of the LORD your God and do what is right in His sight, give ear to His commandments and keep all His statutes, I will put none of the diseases on you which I have brought on the Egyptians. For I am the LORD who heals you.”

27Then they came to Elim, where there were twelve wells of water and seventy palm trees; so they camped there by the waters.

Exodus 16

Bread from Heaven

1 And they journeyed from Elim, and all the congregation of the children of Israel came to the Wilderness of Sin, which is between Elim and Sinai, on the fifteenth day of the second month after they departed from the land of Egypt.
2 Then the whole congregation of the children of Israel complained against Moses and Aaron in the wilderness.
3 And the children of Israel said to them, “Oh, that we had died by the hand of the LORD in the land of Egypt, when we sat by the pots of meat and when we ate bread to the full! For you have brought us out into this wilderness to kill this whole assembly with hunger.” 4 Then the LORD said to Moses, “Behold, I will rain bread from heaven for you. And the people shall go out and gather a certain quota every day, that I may test them, whether they will walk in My law or not.
5 “And it shall be on the sixth day that they shall prepare what they bring in, and it shall be twice as much as they gather daily.”
6 Then Moses and Aaron said to all the children of Israel, “At evening you shall know that the LORD has brought you out of the land of Egypt.
7 “And in the morning you shall see the glory of the LORD;
for He hears your complaints against the LORD. But what are we, that you complain against us?”
8 Also Moses said, “This shall be seen when the LORD gives you meat to eat in the evening, and in the morning bread to the full; for the LORD hears your complaints which you make against Him. And what are we? Your complaints are not against us but against the LORD.”

9Then Moses spoke to Aaron, “Say to all the congregation of the children of Israel, ‘Come near before the LORD, for He has heard your complaints.’ ”

10Now it came to pass, as Aaron spoke to the whole congregation of the children of Israel, that they looked toward the wilderness, and behold, the glory of the LORD appeared in the cloud.

11And the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,

12“I have heard the complaints of the children of Israel. Speak to them, saying, ‘At twilight you shall eat meat, and in the morning you shall be filled with bread. And you shall know that I am the LORD your God.’ ”

13So it was that quails came up at evening and covered the camp, and in the morning the dew lay all around the camp.

14And when the layer of dew lifted, there, on the surface of the wilderness, was a small round substance, as fine as frost on the ground.

15So when the children of Israel saw it, they said to one another, “What is it?” For they did not know what it was. And Moses said to them, “This is the bread which the LORD has given you to eat.

16“This is the thing which the LORD has commanded: ‘Let every man gather it according to each one’s need, one omer for each person, according to the number of persons; let every man take for those who are in his tent.’ ”

17Then the children of Israel did so and gathered, some more, some less.

18So when they measured it by omers, he who gathered much had nothing left over, and he who gathered little had no lack. Every man had gathered according to each one’s need.

19And Moses said, “Let no one leave any of it till morning.”

[20]Notwithstanding they did not heed Moses. But some of them left part of it until morning, and it bred worms and stank. And Moses was angry with them.

[21]So they gathered it every morning, every man according to his need. And when the sun became hot, it melted.

22And so it was, on the sixth day, that they gathered twice as much bread, two omers for each one. And all the rulers of the congregation came and told Moses.

[23]Then he said to them, “This is what the LORD has said: ‘Tomorrow is a Sabbath rest, a holy Sabbath to the LORD. Bake what you will bake today, and boil what you will boil; and lay up for yourselves all that remains, to be kept until morning.’ ”

[24]So they laid it up till morning, as Moses commanded; and it did not stink, nor were there any worms in it.

[25]Then Moses said, “Eat that today, for today is a Sabbath to the LORD; today you will not find it in the field.

[26]“Six days you shall gather it, but on the seventh day, the Sabbath, there will be none.”

[27]Now it happened that some of the people went out on the seventh day to gather, but they found none.

[28]And the LORD said to Moses, “How long do you refuse to keep My commandments and My laws?

[29]“See! For the LORD has given you the Sabbath; therefore He gives you on the sixth day bread for two days. Let every man remain in his place; let no man go out of his place on the seventh day.”

[30]So the people rested on the seventh day.

[31]And the house of Israel called its name Manna.[a] And it was like white coriander seed, and the taste of it was like wafers made with honey.

32Then Moses said, “This is the thing which the LORD has commanded: ‘Fill an omer with it, to be kept for your generations, that they may see the bread with which I fed you in the wilderness, when I brought you out of the land of Egypt.’ ”

33And Moses said to Aaron, “Take a pot and put an omer of manna in it, and lay it up before the LORD, to be kept for your generations.”

34As the LORD commanded Moses, so Aaron laid it up before the Testimony, to be kept.

35And the children of Israel ate manna forty years, until they came to an inhabited land; they ate manna until they came to the border of the land of Canaan.

36Now an omer is one-tenth of an ephah.

Exodus 17

Water from the Rock

1 Then all the congregation of the children of Israel set out on their journey from the Wilderness of Sin, according to the commandment of the LORD, and camped in Rephidim;
but there was no water for the people to drink.
2 Therefore the people contended with Moses, and said,
"Give us water, that we may drink." So Moses said to them,
"Why do you contend with me? Why do you tempt the LORD?" Leadership Challenges
3 And the people thirsted there for water, and the people complained against Moses, and said, "Why is it you have brought us up out of Egypt, to kill us and our children and our livestock with thirst?"
4 So Moses cried out to the LORD, saying, "What shall I do with this people? They are almost ready to stone me!" 5 And the LORD said to Moses, "Go on before the people, and take with you some of the elders of Israel. Also take in your hand your rod with which you struck the river, and go.
6 "Behold, I will stand before you there on the rock in Horeb; and you shall strike the rock, and water will come out of it, that the people may drink." And Moses did so in the sight of the elders of Israel.
7 So he called the name of the place Massah[a] and Meribah,[b] because of the contention of the children of Israel, and because they tempted the LORD, saying, "Is the LORD among us or not?"

Victory over the Amalekites

8 Now Amalek came and fought with Israel in Rephidim.

9 And Moses said to Joshua, “Choose us some men and go out, fight with Amalek. Tomorrow I will stand on the top of the hill with the rod of God in my hand.”
10 So Joshua did as Moses said to him, and fought with Amalek. And Moses, Aaron, and Hur went up to the top of the hill.
11 And so it was, when Moses held up his hand, that Israel prevailed; and when he let down his hand, Amalek prevailed.
12 But Moses’ hands became heavy; so they took a stone and put it under him, and he sat on it. And Aaron and Hur supported his hands, one on one side, and the other on the other side; and his hands were steady until the going down of the sun.
13 So Joshua defeated Amalek and his people with the edge of the sword.
14 Then the LORD said to Moses, “Write this for a memorial in the book and recount it in the hearing of Joshua, that I will utterly blot out the remembrance of Amalek from under heaven.” God’s Promise, Our Responsibility 15 And Moses built an altar and called its name, The-LORD-Is-My-Banner;[c]
16 for he said, “Because the LORD has sworn: the LORD will have war with Amalek from generation to generation.”

Exodus 18

Jethro's Advice

1And Jethro, the priest of Midian, Moses' father-in-law, heard of all that God had done for Moses and for Israel His people—that the LORD had brought Israel out of Egypt.

Jethro

2Then Jethro, Moses' father-in-law, took Zipporah, Moses' wife, after he had sent her back,

3with her two sons, of whom the name of one was Gershom (for he said, "I have been a stranger in a foreign land")[a]

4and the name of the other was Eliezer[b] (for he said, "The God of my father was my help, and delivered me from the sword of Pharaoh");

5and Jethro, Moses' father-in-law, came with his sons and his wife to Moses in the wilderness, where he was encamped at the mountain of God.

6Now he had said to Moses, "I, your father-in-law Jethro, am coming to you with your wife and her two sons with her."

7So Moses went out to meet his father-in-law, bowed down, and kissed him. And they asked each other about their well-being, and they went into the tent.

8And Moses told his father-in-law all that the LORD had done to Pharaoh and to the Egyptians for Israel's sake, all the hardship that had come upon them on the way, and how the LORD had delivered them.

9Then Jethro rejoiced for all the good which the LORD had done for Israel, whom He had delivered out of the hand of the Egyptians.

10 And Jethro said, “Blessed be the LORD, who has delivered you out of the hand of the Egyptians and out of the hand of Pharaoh, and who has delivered the people from under the hand of the Egyptians.
11 “Now I know that the LORD is greater than all the gods; for in the very thing in which they behaved proudly,
He was above them.”
12 Then Jethro, Moses’ father-in-law, took[c] a burnt offering and other sacrifices to offer to God. And Aaron came with all the elders of Israel to eat bread with Moses’ father-in-law before God.
13 And so it was, on the next day, that Moses sat to judge the people; and the people stood before Moses from morning until evening. Practical Principles for Leadership 14 So when Moses’ father-in-law saw all that he did for the people, he said, “What is this thing that you are doing for the people? Why do you alone sit, and all the people stand before you from morning until evening?” 15 And Moses said to his father-in-law, “Because the people come to me to inquire of God.
16 “When they have a difficulty, they come to me, and I judge between one and another; and I make known the statutes of God and His laws.” 17 So Moses’ father-in-law said to him, “The thing that you do is not good.
18 “Both you and these people who are with you will surely wear yourselves out. For this thing is too much for you; you are not able to perform it by yourself. A Workaholic Intervention
19 “Listen now to my voice; I will give you counsel, and God will be with you: Stand before God for the people, so that you may bring the difficulties to God.
20 “And you shall teach them the statutes and the laws, and show them the way in which they must walk and the work they must do.

21 “Moreover you shall select from all the people able men, such as fear God, men of truth, hating covetousness; and place such over them to be rulers of thousands, rulers of hundreds, rulers of fifties, and rulers of tens.

22 “And let them judge the people at all times. Then it will be that every great matter they shall bring to you, but every small matter they themselves shall judge. So it will be easier for you, for they will bear the burden with you.

23 “If you do this thing, and God so commands you, then you will be able to endure, and all this people will also go to their place in peace.”

24 So Moses heeded the voice of his father-in-law and did all that he had said.

25 And Moses chose able men out of all Israel, and made them heads over the people: rulers of thousands, rulers of hundreds, rulers of fifties, and rulers of tens.

26 So they judged the people at all times; the hard cases they brought to Moses, but they judged every small case themselves.

27 Then Moses let his father-in-law depart, and he went his way to his own land.

Exodus 19

Israel at Mount Sinai

1 In the third month after the children of Israel had gone out of the land of Egypt, on the same day, they came to the Wilderness of Sinai. Where God Meets Us

2 For they had departed from Rephidim, had come to the Wilderness of Sinai, and camped in the wilderness. So Israel camped there before the mountain.

3 And Moses went up to God, and the LORD called to him from the mountain, saying, "Thus you shall say to the house of Jacob, and tell the children of Israel: Mapping the Life of Moses

4 'You have seen what I did to the Egyptians, and how I bore you on eagles' wings and brought you to Myself.

5 'Now therefore, if you will indeed obey My voice and keep My covenant, then you shall be a special treasure to Me above all people; for all the earth is Mine.

6 'And you shall be to Me a kingdom of priests and a holy nation.' These are the words which you shall speak to the children of Israel."

7 So Moses came and called for the elders of the people, and laid before them all these words which the LORD
commanded him.

8 Then all the people answered together and said, "All that the LORD has spoken we will do." So Moses brought back the words of the people to the LORD.

9 And the LORD said to Moses, "Behold, I come to you in the thick cloud, that the people may hear when I speak with you, and believe you forever." So Moses told the words of the people to the LORD.

10 Then the LORD said to Moses, "Go to the people and consecrate them today and tomorrow, and let them wash their clothes.

11 “And let them be ready for the third day. For on the third day the LORD will come down upon Mount Sinai in the sight of all the people.

12 “You shall set bounds for the people all around, saying, ‘Take heed to yourselves that you do not go up to the mountain or touch its base. Whoever touches the mountain shall surely be put to death.

13 ‘Not a hand shall touch him, but he shall surely be stoned or shot with an arrow; whether man or beast, he shall not live.’ When the trumpet sounds long, they shall come near the mountain.”

14 So Moses went down from the mountain to the people and sanctified the people, and they washed their clothes.

15 And he said to the people, “Be ready for the third day;
do not come near your wives.” Holy Sex

16 Then it came to pass on the third day, in the morning, that there were thunderings and lightnings, and a thick cloud on the mountain; and the sound of the trumpet was very loud, so that all the people who were in the camp trembled.

17 And Moses brought the people out of the camp to meet with God, and they stood at the foot of the mountain.

18 Now Mount Sinai was completely in smoke, because the LORD descended upon it in fire. Its smoke ascended like the smoke of a furnace, and the whole mountain[a] quaked greatly.

19 And when the blast of the trumpet sounded long and became louder and louder, Moses spoke, and God answered him by voice.

20 Then the LORD came down upon Mount Sinai, on the top of the mountain. And the LORD called Moses to the top of the mountain, and Moses went up.

[21]And the LORD said to Moses, “Go down and warn the people, lest they break through to gaze at the LORD, and many of them perish.
[22]“Also let the priests who come near the LORD consecrate themselves, lest the LORD break out against them.”
[23]But Moses said to the LORD, “The people cannot come up to Mount Sinai; for You warned us, saying, ‘Set bounds around the mountain and consecrate it.’ ”
[24]Then the LORD said to him, “Away! Get down and then come up, you and Aaron with you. But do not let the priests and the people break through to come up to the LORD, lest He break out against them.”
[25]So Moses went down to the people and spoke to them.

Exodus 20

The Ten Commandments

1 And God spoke all these words, saying: The Ten Commandments: A Summary of God's Law

2 "I am the LORD your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of bondage.
3 "You shall have no other gods before Me.
4 "You shall not make for yourself a carved image—any likeness of anything that is in heaven above, or that is in the earth beneath, or that is in the water under the earth; God and Art
5 you shall not bow down to them nor serve them. For I, the LORD your God, am a jealous God, visiting the iniquity of the fathers upon the children to the third and fourth generations of those who hate Me, 6 but showing mercy to thousands, to those who love
Me and keep My commandments.
7 "You shall not take the name of the LORD your God in vain, for the LORD will not hold him guiltless who takes His name in vain.
8 "Remember the Sabbath day, to keep it holy. Keeping the Sabbath
9 Six days you shall labor and do all your work,
10 but the seventh day is the Sabbath of the LORD your God. In it you shall do no work: you, nor your son, nor your daughter, nor your male servant, nor your female servant, nor your cattle, nor your stranger who is within your gates.

11 For in six days the LORD made the heavens and the earth, the sea, and all that is in them, and rested the seventh day. Therefore the LORD blessed the Sabbath day and hallowed it.
12 "Honor your father and your mother, that your days may be long upon the land which the LORD your God is giving you.
13 "You shall not murder.
14 "You shall not commit adultery.
15 "You shall not steal.
16 "You shall not bear false witness against your neighbor.
17 "You shall not covet your neighbor's house; you shall not covet your neighbor's wife, nor his male servant, nor his female servant, nor his ox, nor his donkey, nor anything that is your neighbor's." You Shall Not Covet

The People Afraid of God's Presence

18 Now all the people witnessed the thunderings, the lightning flashes, the sound of the trumpet, and the mountain smoking; and when the people saw it, they trembled and stood afar off.
19 Then they said to Moses, "You speak with us, and we will hear; but let not God speak with us, lest we die." 20 And Moses said to the people, "Do not fear; for God has come to test you, and that His fear may be before you, so that you may not sin."
21 So the people stood afar off, but Moses drew near the thick darkness where God was.

The Law of the Altar

22 Then the LORD said to Moses, “Thus you shall say to the children of Israel: ‘You have seen that I have talked with you from heaven.
23 ‘You shall not make anything to be with Me—gods of silver or gods of gold you shall not make for yourselves.
24 ‘An altar of earth you shall make for Me, and you shall sacrifice on it your burnt offerings and your peace offerings, your sheep and your oxen. In every place where I record My name I will come to you, and I will bless you.
25 ‘And if you make Me an altar of stone, you shall not build it of hewn stone; for if you use your tool on it, you have profaned it.
26 ‘Nor shall you go up by steps to My altar, that your nakedness may not be exposed on it.’

Exodus 21

The Law Concerning Servants

1 “Now these are the judgments which you shall set before
them:
2 “If you buy a Hebrew servant, he shall serve six years;
and in the seventh he shall go out free and pay nothing.

Slavery Has Existed for Too Long

3 “If he comes in by himself, he shall go out by himself; if he comes in married, then his wife shall go out with him.
4 “If his master has given him a wife, and she has borne him sons or daughters, the wife and her children shall be her master’s, and he shall go out by himself.
5 “But if the servant plainly says, ‘I love my master, my wife, and my children; I will not go out free,’ 6 “then his master shall bring him to the judges. He shall also bring him to the door, or to the doorpost, and his master shall pierce his ear with an awl; and he shall serve him forever.
7 “And if a man sells his daughter to be a female slave, she shall not go out as the male slaves do.
8 “If she does not please her master, who has betrothed her to himself, then he shall let her be redeemed. He shall have no right to sell her to a foreign people, since he has dealt deceitfully with her.
9 “And if he has betrothed her to his son, he shall deal with her according to the custom of daughters.
10 “If he takes another wife, he shall not diminish her food, her clothing, and her marriage rights.
11 “And if he does not do these three for her, then she shall go out free, without paying money.

The Law Concerning Violence

12 “He who strikes a man so that he dies shall surely be put to death.
13 “However, if he did not lie in wait, but God delivered him into his hand, then I will appoint for you a place where he may flee.
14 “But if a man acts with premeditation against his neighbor, to kill him by treachery, you shall take him from My altar, that he may die.
15 “And he who strikes his father or his mother shall surely be put to death.
16 “He who kidnaps a man and sells him, or if he is found in his hand, shall surely be put to death.
17 “And he who curses his father or his mother shall surely be put to death.
18 “If men contend with each other, and one strikes the other with a stone or with his fist, and he does not die but is confined to his bed, 19 “if he rises again and walks about outside with his staff, then he who struck him shall be acquitted. He shall only pay for the loss of his time, and shall provide for him to be thoroughly healed.
20 “And if a man beats his male or female servant with a rod, so that he dies under his hand, he shall surely be punished.
21 “Notwithstanding, if he remains alive a day or two, he shall not be punished; for he is his property.
22 “If men fight, and hurt a woman with child, so that she gives birth prematurely, yet no harm follows, he shall surely be punished accordingly as the woman’s husband imposes on him; and he shall pay as the judges determine.
23 “But if any harm follows, then you shall give life for life,

24 “eye for eye, tooth for tooth, hand for hand, foot for foot,
25 “burn for burn, wound for wound, stripe for stripe.
26 “If a man strikes the eye of his male or female servant, and destroys it, he shall let him go free for the sake of his eye.
27 “And if he knocks out the tooth of his male or female servant, he shall let him go free for the sake of his tooth.

Animal Control Laws

28 “If an ox gores a man or a woman to death, then the ox shall surely be stoned, and its flesh shall not be eaten; but the owner of the ox shall be acquitted. Express Practical Justice 29 “But if the ox tended to thrust with its horn in times past, and it has been made known to his owner, and he has not kept it confined, so that it has killed a man or a woman, the ox shall be stoned and its owner also shall be put to death.
30 “If there is imposed on him a sum of money, then he shall pay to redeem his life, whatever is imposed on him.
31 “Whether it has gored a son or gored a daughter,
according to this judgment it shall be done to him.
32 “If the ox gores a male or female servant, he shall give to their master thirty shekels of silver, and the ox shall be stoned.
33 “And if a man opens a pit, or if a man digs a pit and does not cover it, and an ox or a donkey falls in it, 34 “the owner of the pit shall make it good; he shall give money to their owner, but the dead animal shall be his.
35 “If one man’s ox hurts another’s, so that it dies, then they shall sell the live ox and divide the money from it; and the dead ox they shall also divide.

36 “Or if it was known that the ox tended to thrust in time past, and its owner has not kept it confined, he shall surely pay ox for ox, and the dead animal shall be his own.

Exodus 22

Responsibility for Property

1 “If a man steals an ox or a sheep, and slaughters it or sells it, he shall restore five oxen for an ox and four sheep for a sheep. Make the Punishment Fit the Crime

2 “If the thief is found breaking in, and he is struck so that he dies, there shall be no guilt for his bloodshed. Killing in Self-Defense

3 “If the sun has risen on him, there shall be guilt for his bloodshed. He should make full restitution; if he has nothing, then he shall be sold for his theft.

4 “If the theft is certainly found alive in his hand, whether it is an ox or donkey or sheep, he shall restore double.

5 “If a man causes a field or vineyard to be grazed, and lets loose his animal, and it feeds in another man’s field, he shall make restitution from the best of his own field and the best of his own vineyard. Accidental Damage

6 “If fire breaks out and catches in thorns, so that stacked grain, standing grain, or the field is consumed, he who kindled the fire shall surely make restitution.

7 “If a man delivers to his neighbor money or articles to keep, and it is stolen out of the man’s house, if the thief is found, he shall pay double. Safekeeping

8 “If the thief is not found, then the master of the house shall be brought to the judges to see whether he has put his hand into his neighbor’s goods.

9 “For any kind of trespass, whether it concerns an ox, a donkey, a sheep, or clothing, or for any kind of lost thing which another claims to be his, the cause of both parties shall come before the judges; and whomever the judges condemn shall pay double to his neighbor.

10 “If a man delivers to his neighbor a donkey, an ox, a sheep, or any animal to keep, and it dies, is hurt, or driven away, no one seeing it, 11 “then an oath of the LORD shall be between them both, that he has not put his hand into his neighbor’s goods; and the owner of it shall accept that, and he shall not make it good.
12 “But if, in fact, it is stolen from him, he shall make restitution to the owner of it.
13 “If it is torn to pieces by a beast, then he shall bring it as evidence, and he shall not make good what was torn.
14 “And if a man borrows anything from his neighbor, and it becomes injured or dies, the owner of it not being with it, he shall surely make it good.
15 “If its owner was with it, he shall not make it good; if it was hired, it came for its hire.

Moral and Ceremonial Principles

16 “If a man entices a virgin who is not betrothed, and lies with her, he shall surely pay the bride-price for her to be his wife. The Bride-Price 17 “If her father utterly refuses to give her to him, he shall pay money according to the bride-price of virgins.
18 “You shall not permit a sorceress to live.
19 “Whoever lies with an animal shall surely be put to death.
20 “He who sacrifices to any god, except to the LORD only, he shall be utterly destroyed.
21 “You shall neither mistreat a stranger nor oppress him, for you were strangers in the land of Egypt.
22 “You shall not afflict any widow or fatherless child.

Protect the Widows and Orphans

23 “If you afflict them in any way, and they cry at all to Me, I will surely hear their cry; 24 “and My wrath will become hot, and I will kill you with the sword; your wives shall be widows, and your children fatherless.
25 “If you lend money to any of My people who are poor among you, you shall not be like a moneylender to him; you shall not charge him interest. Charitable Loans to the Poor 26 “If you ever take your neighbor’s garment as a pledge, you shall return it to him before the sun goes down.
27 “For that is his only covering, it is his garment for his skin. What will he sleep in? And it will be that when he cries to Me, I will hear, for I am gracious.
28 “You shall not revile God, nor curse a ruler of your people.
29 “You shall not delay to offer the first of your ripe produce and your juices. The firstborn of your sons you shall give to Me.
30 “Likewise you shall do with your oxen and your sheep.
It shall be with its mother seven days; on the eighth day
you shall give it to Me.
31 “And you shall be holy men to Me: you shall not eat meat torn by beasts in the field; you shall throw it to the dogs.

Exodus 23

Justice for All

1 “You shall not circulate a false report. Do not put your hand with the wicked to be an unrighteous witness.
2 “You shall not follow a crowd to do evil; nor shall you testify in a dispute so as to turn aside after many to pervert justice.
3 “You shall not show partiality to a poor man in his dispute.
4 “If you meet your enemy’s ox or his donkey going astray,
you shall surely bring it back to him again.
5 “If you see the donkey of one who hates you lying under its burden, and you would refrain from helping it, you shall surely help him with it.
6 “You shall not pervert the judgment of your poor in his dispute.
7 “Keep yourself far from a false matter; do not kill the innocent and righteous. For I will not justify the wicked.
8 “And you shall take no bribe, for a bribe blinds the discerning and perverts the words of the righteous.
9 “Also you shall not oppress a stranger, for you know the heart of a stranger, because you were strangers in the land of Egypt.

The Law of Sabbaths

10 “Six years you shall sow your land and gather in its produce, A Year Off
11 “but the seventh year you shall let it rest and lie fallow, that the poor of your people may eat; and what they leave, the beasts of the field may eat. In like manner you shall do with your vineyard and your olive grove.

12 “Six days you shall do your work, and on the seventh day you shall rest, that your ox and your donkey may rest, and the son of your female servant and the stranger may be refreshed. The Human Machine 13 “And in all that I have said to you, be circumspect and make no mention of the name of other gods, nor let it be heard from your mouth.

Three Annual Feasts

14 “Three times you shall keep a feast to Me in the year:
15 “You shall keep the Feast of Unleavened Bread (you shall eat unleavened bread seven days, as I commanded you, at the time appointed in the month of Abib, for in it you came out of Egypt; none shall appear before Me empty);
16 “and the Feast of Harvest, the firstfruits of your labors which you have sown in the field; and the Feast of Ingathering at the end of the year, when you have gathered in the fruit of your labors from the field.
17 “Three times in the year all your males shall appear before the Lord GOD.[a] 18 “You shall not offer the blood of My sacrifice with leavened bread; nor shall the fat of My sacrifice remain until morning.
19 “The first of the firstfruits of your land you shall bring into the house of the LORD your God. You shall not boil a young goat in its mother’s milk.

The Angel and the Promises

20 “Behold, I send an Angel before you to keep you in the way and to bring you into the place which I have prepared.
21 “Beware of Him and obey His voice; do not provoke Him, for He will not pardon your transgressions; for My name is in Him.

22 “But if you indeed obey His voice and do all that I speak, then I will be an enemy to your enemies and an adversary to your adversaries.
23 “For My Angel will go before you and bring you in to the Amorites and the Hittites and the Perizzites and the Canaanites and the Hivites and the Jebusites; and I will cut them off.
24 “You shall not bow down to their gods, nor serve them, nor do according to their works; but you shall utterly overthrow them and completely break down their sacred pillars.
25 “So you shall serve the LORD your God, and He will bless your bread and your water. And I will take sickness away from the midst of you.
26 “No one shall suffer miscarriage or be barren in your land; I will fulfill the number of your days.
27 “I will send My fear before you, I will cause confusion among all the people to whom you come, and will make all your enemies turn their backs to you.
28 “And I will send hornets before you, which shall drive out the Hivite, the Canaanite, and the Hittite from before
you.
29 “I will not drive them out from before you in one year, lest the land become desolate and the beasts of the field become too numerous for you.
30 “Little by little I will drive them out from before you, until you have increased, and you inherit the land.
31 “And I will set your bounds from the Red Sea to the sea, Philistia, and from the desert to the River.[b] For I will deliver the inhabitants of the land into your hand, and you shall drive them out before you.
32 “You shall make no covenant with them, nor with their gods.

33 “They shall not dwell in your land, lest they make you sin against Me. For if you serve their gods, it will surely be a snare to you.”

Exodus 24

Israel Affirms the Covenant

1 Now He said to Moses, “Come up to the LORD, you and Aaron, Nadab and Abihu, and seventy of the elders of Israel, and worship from afar.
2 “And Moses alone shall come near the LORD, but they shall not come near; nor shall the people go up with him.”
3 So Moses came and told the people all the words of the LORD and all the judgments. And all the people answered with one voice and said, “All the words which the LORD has said we will do.”
4 And Moses wrote all the words of the LORD. And he rose early in the morning, and built an altar at the foot of the mountain, and twelve pillars according to the twelve tribes of Israel.
5 Then he sent young men of the children of Israel, who offered burnt offerings and sacrificed peace offerings of oxen to the LORD.
6 And Moses took half the blood and put it in basins, and half the blood he sprinkled on the altar.
7 Then he took the Book of the Covenant and read in the hearing of the people. And they said, “All that the LORD has said we will do, and be obedient.”
8 And Moses took the blood, sprinkled it on the people, and said, “This is the blood of the covenant which the LORD has made with you according to all these words.”

On the Mountain with God

9 Then Moses went up, also Aaron, Nadab, and Abihu, and seventy of the elders of Israel,

10 and they saw the God of Israel. And there was under His feet as it were a paved work of sapphire stone, and it was like the very heavens in its clarity.
11 But on the nobles of the children of Israel He did not lay His hand. So they saw God, and they ate and drank.
12 Then the LORD said to Moses, “Come up to Me on the mountain and be there; and I will give you tablets of stone, and the law and commandments which I have written, that you may teach them.”
13 So Moses arose with his assistant Joshua, and Moses went up to the mountain of God.
14 And he said to the elders, “Wait here for us until we come back to you. Indeed, Aaron and Hur are with you. If any man has a difficulty, let him go to them.” 15 Then Moses went up into the mountain, and a cloud covered the mountain.
16 Now the glory of the LORD rested on Mount Sinai, and the cloud covered it six days. And on the seventh day He called to Moses out of the midst of the cloud.
17 The sight of the glory of the LORD was like a consuming fire on the top of the mountain in the eyes of the children of Israel.
18 So Moses went into the midst of the cloud and went up into the mountain. And Moses was on the mountain forty days and forty nights.

Exodus 25

Offerings for the Sanctuary

1 Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying:
2 “Speak to the children of Israel, that they bring Me an offering. From everyone who gives it willingly with his heart you shall take My offering.
3 “And this is the offering which you shall take from them:
gold, silver, and bronze;
4 “blue, purple, and scarlet thread, fine linen, and goats’
hair;
5 “ram skins dyed red, badger skins, and acacia wood;
6 “oil for the light, and spices for the anointing oil and for the sweet incense;
7 “onyx stones, and stones to be set in the ephod and in the breastplate.
8 “And let them make Me a sanctuary, that I may dwell among them. We Need Places to Worship 9 “According to all that I show you, that is, the pattern of the tabernacle and the pattern of all its furnishings, just so you shall make it.

The Ark of the Testimony

10 “And they shall make an ark of acacia wood; two and a half cubits shall be its length, a cubit and a half its width, and a cubit and a half its height.
11 “And you shall overlay it with pure gold, inside and out you shall overlay it, and shall make on it a molding of gold all around.
12 “You shall cast four rings of gold for it, and put them in its four corners; two rings shall be on one side, and two rings on the other side.

13 “And you shall make poles of acacia wood, and overlay them with gold.
14 “You shall put the poles into the rings on the sides of the ark, that the ark may be carried by them.
15 “The poles shall be in the rings of the ark; they shall not be taken from it.
16 “And you shall put into the ark the Testimony which I will give you. The Ark of the Covenant 17 “You shall make a mercy seat of pure gold; two and a half cubits shall be its length and a cubit and a half its width.
18 “And you shall make two cherubim of gold; of hammered work you shall make them at the two ends of the mercy seat.
19 “Make one cherub at one end, and the other cherub at the other end; you shall make the cherubim at the two ends of it of one piece with the mercy seat.
20 “And the cherubim shall stretch out their wings above, covering the mercy seat with their wings, and they shall face one another; the faces of the cherubim shall be toward the mercy seat.
21 “You shall put the mercy seat on top of the ark, and in the ark you shall put the Testimony that I will give you.
22 “And there I will meet with you, and I will speak with you from above the mercy seat, from between the two cherubim which are on the ark of the Testimony, about everything which I will give you in commandment to the children of Israel.

The Table for the Showbread

23 “You shall also make a table of acacia wood; two cubits shall be its length, a cubit its width, and a cubit and a half its height.

24 “And you shall overlay it with pure gold, and make a molding of gold all around.
25 “You shall make for it a frame of a handbreadth all around, and you shall make a gold molding for the frame all around.
26 “And you shall make for it four rings of gold, and put the rings on the four corners that are at its four legs.
27 “The rings shall be close to the frame, as holders for the poles to bear the table.
28 “And you shall make the poles of acacia wood, and overlay them with gold, that the table may be carried with
them.
29 “You shall make its dishes, its pans, its pitchers, and its bowls for pouring. You shall make them of pure gold.
30 “And you shall set the showbread on the table before Me always.

The Gold Lampstand

31 “You shall also make a lampstand of pure gold; the lampstand shall be of hammered work. Its shaft, its branches, its bowls, its ornamental knobs, and flowers shall be of one piece.
32 “And six branches shall come out of its sides: three branches of the lampstand out of one side, and three branches of the lampstand out of the other side.
33 “Three bowls shall be made like almond blossoms on one branch, with an ornamental knob and a flower, and three bowls made like almond blossoms on the other branch, with an ornamental knob and a flower—and so for the six branches that come out of the lampstand.
34 “On the lampstand itself four bowls shall be made like almond blossoms, each with its ornamental knob and flower.

35 “And there shall be a knob under the first two branches of the same, a knob under the second two branches of the same, and a knob under the third two branches of the same, according to the six branches that extend from the lampstand.
36 “Their knobs and their branches shall be of one piece;
all of it shall be one hammered piece of pure gold.
37 “You shall make seven lamps for it, and they shall arrange its lamps so that they give light in front of it.
38 “And its wick-trimmers and their trays shall be of pure gold.
39 “It shall be made of a talent of pure gold, with all these utensils.
40 “And see to it that you make them according to the pattern which was shown you on the mountain.

Exodus 26

The Tabernacle

1 “Moreover you shall make the tabernacle with ten curtains of fine woven linen, and blue, purple, and scarlet thread; with artistic designs of cherubim you shall weave
them.
2 “The length of each curtain shall be twenty-eight cubits, and the width of each curtain four cubits. And every one of the curtains shall have the same measurements.
3 “Five curtains shall be coupled to one another, and the other five curtains shall be coupled to one another.
4 “And you shall make loops of blue yarn on the edge of the curtain on the selvedge of one set, and likewise you shall do on the outer edge of the other curtain of the second set.
5 “Fifty loops you shall make in the one curtain, and fifty loops you shall make on the edge of the curtain that is on the end of the second set, that the loops may be clasped to one another.
6 “And you shall make fifty clasps of gold, and couple the curtains together with the clasps, so that it may be one tabernacle.
7 “You shall also make curtains of goats’ hair, to be a tent over the tabernacle. You shall make eleven curtains.
8 “The length of each curtain shall be thirty cubits, and the width of each curtain four cubits; and the eleven curtains shall all have the same measurements.
9 “And you shall couple five curtains by themselves and six curtains by themselves, and you shall double over the sixth curtain at the forefront of the tent.

10 “You shall make fifty loops on the edge of the curtain that is outermost in one set, and fifty loops on the edge of the curtain of the second set.
11 “And you shall make fifty bronze clasps, put the clasps into the loops, and couple the tent together, that it may be one.
12 “The remnant that remains of the curtains of the tent, the half curtain that remains, shall hang over the back of the tabernacle.
13 “And a cubit on one side and a cubit on the other side, of what remains of the length of the curtains of the tent, shall hang over the sides of the tabernacle, on this side and on that side, to cover it.
14 “You shall also make a covering of ram skins dyed red for the tent, and a covering of badger skins above that.
15 “And for the tabernacle you shall make the boards of acacia wood, standing upright.
16 “Ten cubits shall be the length of a board, and a cubit and a half shall be the width of each board.
17 “Two tenons shall be in each board for binding one to another. Thus you shall make for all the boards of the tabernacle.
18 “And you shall make the boards for the tabernacle, twenty boards for the south side.
19 “You shall make forty sockets of silver under the twenty boards: two sockets under each of the boards for its two tenons.
20 “And for the second side of the tabernacle, the north side, there shall be twenty boards 21 “and their forty sockets of silver: two sockets under each of the boards.
22 “For the far side of the tabernacle, westward, you shall make six boards.

23 “And you shall also make two boards for the two back corners of the tabernacle.
24 “They shall be coupled together at the bottom and they shall be coupled together at the top by one ring. Thus it shall be for both of them. They shall be for the two corners.
25 “So there shall be eight boards with their sockets of silver—sixteen sockets—two sockets under each of the boards.
26 “And you shall make bars of acacia wood: five for the boards on one side of the tabernacle, 27 “five bars for the boards on the other side of the tabernacle, and five bars for the boards of the side of the tabernacle, for the far side westward.
28 “The middle bar shall pass through the midst of the boards from end to end.
29 “You shall overlay the boards with gold, make their rings of gold as holders for the bars, and overlay the bars with gold.
30 “And you shall raise up the tabernacle according to its pattern which you were shown on the mountain.
31 “You shall make a veil woven of blue, purple, and scarlet thread, and fine woven linen. It shall be woven with an artistic design of cherubim.
32 “You shall hang it upon the four pillars of acacia wood overlaid with gold. Their hooks shall be gold, upon four sockets of silver.
33 “And you shall hang the veil from the clasps. Then you shall bring the ark of the Testimony in there, behind the veil. The veil shall be a divider for you between the holy place and the Most Holy.
34 “You shall put the mercy seat upon the ark of the Testimony in the Most Holy.
35 “You shall set the table outside the veil, and the lampstand across from the table on the side of the tabernacle toward the south; and you shall put the table on the north side.

36 “You shall make a screen for the door of the tabernacle, woven of blue, purple, and scarlet thread, and fine woven linen, made by a weaver.

37 “And you shall make for the screen five pillars of acacia wood, and overlay them with gold; their hooks shall be gold, and you shall cast five sockets of bronze for them.

Exodus 27

The Altar of Burnt Offering

1 “You shall make an altar of acacia wood, five cubits long and five cubits wide—the altar shall be square—and its height shall be three cubits.
2 “You shall make its horns on its four corners; its horns shall be of one piece with it. And you shall overlay it with bronze.
3 “Also you shall make its pans to receive its ashes, and its shovels and its basins and its forks and its firepans; you shall make all its utensils of bronze.
4 “You shall make a grate for it, a network of bronze; and on the network you shall make four bronze rings at its four corners.
5 “You shall put it under the rim of the altar beneath, that the network may be midway up the altar.
6 “And you shall make poles for the altar, poles of acacia wood, and overlay them with bronze.
7 “The poles shall be put in the rings, and the poles shall be on the two sides of the altar to bear it.
8 “You shall make it hollow with boards; as it was shown you on the mountain, so shall they make it.

The Court of the Tabernacle

9 “You shall also make the court of the tabernacle. For the south side there shall be hangings for the court made of fine woven linen, one hundred cubits long for one side.
10 “And its twenty pillars and their twenty sockets shall be bronze. The hooks of the pillars and their bands shall be silver.

11 “Likewise along the length of the north side there shall be hangings one hundred cubits long, with its twenty pillars and their twenty sockets of bronze, and the hooks of the pillars and their bands of silver.

12 “And along the width of the court on the west side shall be hangings of fifty cubits, with their ten pillars and their ten sockets.

13 “The width of the court on the east side shall be fifty cubits.

14 “The hangings on one side of the gate shall be fifteen cubits, with their three pillars and their three sockets.

15 “And on the other side shall be hangings of fifteen cubits, with their three pillars and their three sockets.

16 “For the gate of the court there shall be a screen twenty cubits long, woven of blue, purple, and scarlet thread, and fine woven linen, made by a weaver. It shall have four pillars and four sockets.

17 “All the pillars around the court shall have bands of silver; their hooks shall be of silver and their sockets of bronze.

18 “The length of the court shall be one hundred cubits, the width fifty throughout, and the height five cubits, made of fine woven linen, and its sockets of bronze.

19 “All the utensils of the tabernacle for all its service, all its pegs, and all the pegs of the court, shall be of bronze.

The Care of the Lampstand

20 “And you shall command the children of Israel that they bring you pure oil of pressed olives for the light, to cause the lamp to burn continually.

21 “In the tabernacle of meeting, outside the veil which is before the Testimony, Aaron and his sons shall tend it from evening until morning before the LORD. It shall be a statute forever to their generations on behalf of the children of Israel.

Exodus 28

Garments for the Priesthood

1 “Now take Aaron your brother, and his sons with him, from among the children of Israel, that he may minister to Me as priest, Aaron and Aaron’s sons: Nadab, Abihu, Eleazar, and Ithamar.
2 “And you shall make holy garments for Aaron your brother, for glory and for beauty.
3 “So you shall speak to all who are gifted artisans, whom I have filled with the spirit of wisdom, that they may make Aaron’s garments, to consecrate him, that he may minister to Me as priest.
4 “And these are the garments which they shall make: a breastplate, an ephod,[a] a robe, a skillfully woven tunic, a turban, and a sash. So they shall make holy garments for Aaron your brother and his sons, that he may minister to Me as priest.

The Ephod

5 “They shall take the gold, blue, purple, and scarlet thread, and the fine linen, 6 “and they shall make the ephod of gold, blue, purple, and scarlet thread, and fine woven linen, artistically worked.
7 “It shall have two shoulder straps joined at its two edges, and so it shall be joined together.
8 “And the intricately woven band of the ephod, which is on it, shall be of the same workmanship, made of gold, blue, purple, and scarlet thread, and fine woven linen.
9 “Then you shall take two onyx stones and engrave on them the names of the sons of Israel:

10 “six of their names on one stone and six names on the other stone, in order of their birth.
11 “With the work of an engraver in stone, like the engravings of a signet, you shall engrave the two stones with the names of the sons of Israel. You shall set them in settings of gold.
12 “And you shall put the two stones on the shoulders of the ephod as memorial stones for the sons of Israel. So Aaron shall bear their names before the LORD on his two shoulders as a memorial.
13 “You shall also make settings of gold, 14 “and you shall make two chains of pure gold like braided cords, and fasten the braided chains to the settings.

The Breastplate

15 “You shall make the breastplate of judgment.
Artistically woven according to the workmanship of the ephod you shall make it: of gold, blue, purple, and scarlet thread, and fine woven linen, you shall make it.
16 “It shall be doubled into a square: a span shall be its length, and a span shall be its width.
17 “And you shall put settings of stones in it, four rows of stones: The first row shall be a sardius, a topaz, and an emerald; this shall be the first row; 18 “the second row shall be a turquoise, a sapphire, and a diamond;
19 “the third row, a jacinth, an agate, and an amethyst;
20 “and the fourth row, a beryl, an onyx, and a jasper.
They shall be set in gold settings.
21 “And the stones shall have the names of the sons of Israel, twelve according to their names, like the engravings of a signet, each one with its own name; they shall be according to the twelve tribes.

22 “You shall make chains for the breastplate at the end,
like braided cords of pure gold.
23 “And you shall make two rings of gold for the breastplate, and put the two rings on the two ends of the breastplate.
24 “Then you shall put the two braided chains of gold in the two rings which are on the ends of the breastplate; 25 “and the other two ends of the two braided chains you shall fasten to the two settings, and put them on the shoulder straps of the ephod in the front.
26 “You shall make two rings of gold, and put them on the two ends of the breastplate, on the edge of it, which is on the inner side of the ephod.
27 “And two other rings of gold you shall make, and put them on the two shoulder straps, underneath the ephod toward its front, right at the seam above the intricately woven band of the ephod.
28 “They shall bind the breastplate by means of its rings to the rings of the ephod, using a blue cord, so that it is above the intricately woven band of the ephod, and so that the breastplate does not come loose from the ephod.
29 “So Aaron shall bear the names of the sons of Israel on the breastplate of judgment over his heart, when he goes into the holy place, as a memorial before the LORD continually.
30 “And you shall put in the breastplate of judgment the Urim and the Thummim,[b] and they shall be over Aaron’s heart when he goes in before the LORD. So Aaron shall bear the judgment of the children of Israel over his heart before the LORD continually. Seeking Guidance Through the Urim and Thummim

Other Priestly Garments

31 “You shall make the robe of the ephod all of blue.

32 “There shall be an opening for his head in the middle of it; it shall have a woven binding all around its opening, like the opening in a coat of mail, so that it does not tear.
33 “And upon its hem you shall make pomegranates of blue, purple, and scarlet, all around its hem, and bells of gold between them all around:
34 “a golden bell and a pomegranate, a golden bell and a pomegranate, upon the hem of the robe all around.
35 “And it shall be upon Aaron when he ministers, and its sound will be heard when he goes into the holy place before the LORD and when he comes out, that he may not die.
36 “You shall also make a plate of pure gold and engrave on it, like the engraving of a signet:

HOLINESS TO THE LORD.

37 “And you shall put it on a blue cord, that it may be on the turban; it shall be on the front of the turban.
38 “So it shall be on Aaron’s forehead, that Aaron may bear the iniquity of the holy things which the children of Israel hallow in all their holy gifts; and it shall always be on his forehead, that they may be accepted before the LORD.
39 “You shall skillfully weave the tunic of fine linen thread, you shall make the turban of fine linen, and you shall make the sash of woven work.
40 “For Aaron’s sons you shall make tunics, and you shall make sashes for them. And you shall make hats for them, for glory and beauty.
41 “So you shall put them on Aaron your brother and on his sons with him. You shall anoint them, consecrate them, and sanctify them, that they may minister to Me as priests.
42 “And you shall make for them linen trousers to cover their nakedness; they shall reach from the waist to the thighs.

43 “They shall be on Aaron and on his sons when they come into the tabernacle of meeting, or when they come near the altar to minister in the holy place, that they do not incur iniquity and die. It shall be a statute forever to him and his descendants after him.

Exodus 29

Aaron and His Sons Consecrated

1 “And this is what you shall do to them to hallow them for ministering to Me as priests: Take one young bull and two rams without blemish, 2 “and unleavened bread, unleavened cakes mixed with oil, and unleavened wafers anointed with oil (you shall make them of wheat flour).
3 “You shall put them in one basket and bring them in the basket, with the bull and the two rams.
4 “And Aaron and his sons you shall bring to the door of the tabernacle of meeting, and you shall wash them with water.
5 “Then you shall take the garments, put the tunic on Aaron, and the robe of the ephod, the ephod, and the breastplate, and gird him with the intricately woven band of the ephod.
6 “You shall put the turban on his head, and put the holy crown on the turban.
7 “And you shall take the anointing oil, pour it on his head,
and anoint him.
8 “Then you shall bring his sons and put tunics on them.
9 “And you shall gird them with sashes, Aaron and his sons, and put the hats on them. The priesthood shall be theirs for a perpetual statute. So you shall consecrate Aaron and his sons.
10 “You shall also have the bull brought before the tabernacle of meeting, and Aaron and his sons shall put their hands on the head of the bull.
11 “Then you shall kill the bull before the LORD, by the door of the tabernacle of meeting.

12 “You shall take some of the blood of the bull and put it on the horns of the altar with your finger, and pour all the blood beside the base of the altar.
13 “And you shall take all the fat that covers the entrails, the fatty lobe attached to the liver, and the two kidneys and the fat that is on them, and burn them on the altar.
14 “But the flesh of the bull, with its skin and its offal, you shall burn with fire outside the camp. It is a sin offering.
15 “You shall also take one ram, and Aaron and his sons shall put their hands on the head of the ram; 16 “and you shall kill the ram, and you shall take its blood and sprinkle it all around on the altar.
17 “Then you shall cut the ram in pieces, wash its entrails and its legs, and put them with its pieces and with its head.
18 “And you shall burn the whole ram on the altar. It is a burnt offering to the LORD; it is a sweet aroma, an offering made by fire to the LORD.
19 “You shall also take the other ram, and Aaron and his sons shall put their hands on the head of the ram.
20 “Then you shall kill the ram, and take some of its blood and put it on the tip of the right ear of Aaron and on the tip of the right ear of his sons, on the thumb of their right hand and on the big toe of their right foot, and sprinkle the blood all around on the altar.
21 “And you shall take some of the blood that is on the altar, and some of the anointing oil, and sprinkle it on Aaron and on his garments, on his sons and on the garments of his sons with him; and he and his garments shall be hallowed, and his sons and his sons’ garments with
him.
22 “Also you shall take the fat of the ram, the fat tail, the fat that covers the entrails, the fatty lobe attached to the liver, the two kidneys and the fat on them, the right thigh (for it is a ram of consecration),

23 “one loaf of bread, one cake made with oil, and one wafer from the basket of the unleavened bread that is before the LORD;
24 “and you shall put all these in the hands of Aaron and in the hands of his sons, and you shall wave them as a wave offering before the LORD.
25 “You shall receive them back from their hands and burn them on the altar as a burnt offering, as a sweet aroma before the LORD. It is an offering made by fire to the LORD.
26 “Then you shall take the breast of the ram of Aaron’s consecration and wave it as a wave offering before the LORD; and it shall be your portion.
27 “And from the ram of the consecration you shall consecrate the breast of the wave offering which is waved, and the thigh of the heave offering which is raised, of that which is for Aaron and of that which is for his sons.
28 “It shall be from the children of Israel for Aaron and his sons by a statute forever. For it is a heave offering; it shall be a heave offering from the children of Israel from the sacrifices of their peace offerings, that is, their heave offering to the LORD.
29 “And the holy garments of Aaron shall be his sons’ after him, to be anointed in them and to be consecrated in them.
30 “That son who becomes priest in his place shall put them on for seven days, when he enters the tabernacle of meeting to minister in the holy place.
31 “And you shall take the ram of the consecration and boil its flesh in the holy place.
32 “Then Aaron and his sons shall eat the flesh of the ram, and the bread that is in the basket, by the door of the tabernacle of meeting.
33 “They shall eat those things with which the atonement was made, to consecrate and to sanctify them; but an outsider shall not eat them, because they are holy.

34 “And if any of the flesh of the consecration offerings, or of the bread, remains until the morning, then you shall burn the remainder with fire. It shall not be eaten, because it is holy.

35 “Thus you shall do to Aaron and his sons, according to all that I have commanded you. Seven days you shall consecrate them.

36 “And you shall offer a bull every day as a sin offering for atonement. You shall cleanse the altar when you make atonement for it, and you shall anoint it to sanctify it.

37 “Seven days you shall make atonement for the altar and sanctify it. And the altar shall be most holy. Whatever touches the altar must be holy.[a]

The Daily Offerings

38 “Now this is what you shall offer on the altar: two lambs of the first year, day by day continually.

39 “One lamb you shall offer in the morning, and the other lamb you shall offer at twilight.

40 “With the one lamb shall be one-tenth of an ephah of flour mixed with one-fourth of a hin of pressed oil, and one-fourth of a hin of wine as a drink offering.

41 “And the other lamb you shall offer at twilight; and you shall offer with it the grain offering and the drink offering, as in the morning, for a sweet aroma, an offering made by fire to the LORD.

42 “This shall be a continual burnt offering throughout your generations at the door of the tabernacle of meeting before the LORD, where I will meet you to speak with you.

43 “And there I will meet with the children of Israel, and the tabernacle shall be sanctified by My glory.

44 “So I will consecrate the tabernacle of meeting and the altar. I will also consecrate both Aaron and his sons to minister to Me as priests.

45 “I will dwell among the children of Israel and will be their God.

46 “And they shall know that I am the LORD their God, who brought them up out of the land of Egypt, that I may dwell among them. I am the LORD their God.

Exodus 30

The Altar of Incense

1 “You shall make an altar to burn incense on; you shall make it of acacia wood.
2 “A cubit shall be its length and a cubit its width—it shall be square—and two cubits shall be its height. Its horns shall be of one piece with it.
3 “And you shall overlay its top, its sides all around, and its horns with pure gold; and you shall make for it a molding of gold all around.
4 “Two gold rings you shall make for it, under the molding on both its sides. You shall place them on its two sides, and they will be holders for the poles with which to bear it.
5 “You shall make the poles of acacia wood, and overlay
them with gold.
6 “And you shall put it before the veil that is before the ark of the Testimony, before the mercy seat that is over the Testimony, where I will meet with you.
7 “Aaron shall burn on it sweet incense every morning;
when he tends the lamps, he shall burn incense on it.
8 “And when Aaron lights the lamps at twilight, he shall burn incense on it, a perpetual incense before the LORD
throughout your generations.
9 “You shall not offer strange incense on it, or a burnt offering, or a grain offering; nor shall you pour a drink offering on it.
10 “And Aaron shall make atonement upon its horns once a year with the blood of the sin offering of atonement; once a year he shall make atonement upon it throughout your generations. It is most holy to the LORD.”

The Ransom Money

11 Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying:

12 “When you take the census of the children of Israel for their number, then every man shall give a ransom for himself to the LORD, when you number them, that there may be no plague among them when you number them.

Atonement Money

13 “This is what everyone among those who are numbered shall give: half a shekel according to the shekel of the sanctuary (a shekel is twenty gerahs). The half-shekel shall be an offering to the LORD.

14 “Everyone included among those who are numbered, from twenty years old and above, shall give an offering to the LORD.

15 “The rich shall not give more and the poor shall not give less than half a shekel, when you give an offering to the LORD, to make atonement for yourselves.

16 “And you shall take the atonement money of the children of Israel, and shall appoint it for the service of the tabernacle of meeting, that it may be a memorial for the children of Israel before the LORD, to make atonement for yourselves.”

The Bronze Laver

17 Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying:

18 “You shall also make a laver of bronze, with its base also of bronze, for washing. You shall put it between the tabernacle of meeting and the altar. And you shall put water in it,

19 “for Aaron and his sons shall wash their hands and their feet in water from it.

20 “When they go into the tabernacle of meeting, or when they come near the altar to minister, to burn an offering made by fire to the LORD, they shall wash with water, lest they die.

21 “So they shall wash their hands and their feet, lest they die. And it shall be a statute forever to them—to him and his descendants throughout their generations.”

The Holy Anointing Oil

22 Moreover the LORD spoke to Moses, saying:

23 “Also take for yourself quality spices—five hundred shekels of liquid myrrh, half as much sweet-smelling cinnamon (two hundred and fifty shekels), two hundred and fifty shekels of sweet-smelling cane,

24 “five hundred shekels of cassia, according to the shekel of the sanctuary, and a hin of olive oil.

25 “And you shall make from these a holy anointing oil, an ointment compounded according to the art of the perfumer. It shall be a holy anointing oil.

26 “With it you shall anoint the tabernacle of meeting and the ark of the Testimony;

27 “the table and all its utensils, the lampstand and its utensils, and the altar of incense;

28 “the altar of burnt offering with all its utensils, and the laver and its base.

29 “You shall consecrate them, that they may be most holy; whatever touches them must be holy.[a]

30 “And you shall anoint Aaron and his sons, and consecrate them, that they may minister to Me as priests.

31 “And you shall speak to the children of Israel, saying: ‘This shall be a holy anointing oil to Me throughout your generations.

32 ‘It shall not be poured on man’s flesh; nor shall you make any other like it, according to its composition. It is holy, and it shall be holy to you.

33‘Whoever compounds any like it, or whoever puts any of it on an outsider, shall be cut off from his people.’ ”

The Incense

34And the LORD said to Moses: “Take sweet spices, stacte and onycha and galbanum, and pure frankincense with these sweet spices; there shall be equal amounts of each.

35“You shall make of these an incense, a compound according to the art of the perfumer, salted, pure, and holy.

36“And you shall beat some of it very fine, and put some of it before the Testimony in the tabernacle of meeting where I will meet with you. It shall be most holy to you.

37“But as for the incense which you shall make, you shall not make any for yourselves, according to its composition. It shall be to you holy for the LORD.

38“Whoever makes any like it, to smell it, he shall be cut off from his people.”

Exodus 31

Artisans for Building the Tabernacle

1 Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying: Called by Name

2 “See, I have called by name Bezalel the son of Uri, the son of Hur, of the tribe of Judah. Bezalel and Aholiab

3 “And I have filled him with the Spirit of God, in wisdom, in understanding, in knowledge, and in all manner of workmanship, Filled with the Spirit

4 “to design artistic works, to work in gold, in silver, in bronze,

5 “in cutting jewels for setting, in carving wood, and to work in all manner of workmanship.

6 “And I, indeed I, have appointed with him Aholiab the son of Ahisamach, of the tribe of Dan; and I have put wisdom in the hearts of all the gifted artisans, that they may make all that I have commanded you:

7 “the tabernacle of meeting, the ark of the Testimony and the mercy seat that is on it, and all the furniture of the tabernacle—

8 “the table and its utensils, the pure gold lampstand with all its utensils, the altar of incense,

9 “the altar of burnt offering with all its utensils, and the laver and its base—

10 “the garments of ministry,[a] the holy garments for Aaron the priest and the garments of his sons, to minister as priests,

11 “and the anointing oil and sweet incense for the holy place. According to all that I have commanded you they shall do.”

The Sabbath Law

12And the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,

13“Speak also to the children of Israel, saying: ‘Surely My Sabbaths you shall keep, for it is a sign between Me and you throughout your generations, that you may know that I am the LORD who sanctifies you.

14‘You shall keep the Sabbath, therefore, for it is holy to you. Everyone who profanes it shall surely be put to death; for whoever does any work on it, that person shall be cut off from among his people.

15‘Work shall be done for six days, but the seventh is the Sabbath of rest, holy to the LORD. Whoever does any work on the Sabbath day, he shall surely be put to death.

16‘Therefore the children of Israel shall keep the Sabbath, to observe the Sabbath throughout their generations as a perpetual covenant.

17‘It is a sign between Me and the children of Israel forever; for in six days the LORD made the heavens and the earth, and on the seventh day He rested and was refreshed.’ ”

18And when He had made an end of speaking with him on Mount Sinai, He gave Moses two tablets of the Testimony, tablets of stone, written with the finger of God.

Exodus 32

The Gold Calf

1 Now when the people saw that Moses delayed coming down from the mountain, the people gathered together to Aaron, and said to him, “Come, make us gods that shall go before us; for as for this Moses, the man who brought us up out of the land of Egypt, we do not know what has become of him.” We Need More Than Seeing to Believe

2 And Aaron said to them, “Break off the golden earrings which are in the ears of your wives, your sons, and your daughters, and bring them to me.”

3 So all the people broke off the golden earrings which were in their ears, and brought them to Aaron.

4 And he received the gold from their hand, and he fashioned it with an engraving tool, and made a molded calf. Then they said, “This is your god, O Israel, that brought you out of the land of Egypt!”

5 So when Aaron saw it, he built an altar before it. And Aaron made a proclamation and said, “Tomorrow is a feast
to the LORD.”

6 Then they rose early on the next day, offered burnt offerings, and brought peace offerings; and the people sat down to eat and drink, and rose up to play.

7 And the LORD said to Moses, “Go, get down! For your people whom you brought out of the land of Egypt have corrupted themselves. Authority Is a Two-Way Street

8 “They have turned aside quickly out of the way which I commanded them. They have made themselves a molded calf, and worshiped it and sacrificed to it, and said, ‘This is your god, O Israel, that brought you out of the land of Egypt!’ ”

9 And the LORD said to Moses, “I have seen this people, and indeed it is a stiff-necked people!
10 “Now therefore, let Me alone, that My wrath may burn hot against them and I may consume them. And I will make of you a great nation.” Moses Matures
11 Then Moses pleaded with the LORD his God, and said:
“LORD, why does Your wrath burn hot against Your people whom You have brought out of the land of Egypt with great power and with a mighty hand?
12 “Why should the Egyptians speak, and say, ‘He brought them out to harm them, to kill them in the mountains, and to consume them from the face of the earth’? Turn from Your fierce wrath, and relent from this harm to Your people.
13 “Remember Abraham, Isaac, and Israel, Your servants, to whom You swore by Your own self, and said to them, ‘I will multiply your descendants as the stars of heaven; and all this land that I have spoken of I give to your descendants, and they shall inherit it forever.’ ”[a] 14 So the LORD relented from the harm which He said He would do to His people.
15 And Moses turned and went down from the mountain, and the two tablets of the Testimony were in his hand. The tablets were written on both sides; on the one side and on the other they were written.
16 Now the tablets were the work of God, and the writing was the writing of God engraved on the tablets.
17 And when Joshua heard the noise of the people as they shouted, he said to Moses, “There is a noise of war in the camp.”
18 But he said:

> “It is not the noise of the shout of victory,
> Nor the noise of the cry of defeat,
> But the sound of singing I hear.”

19So it was, as soon as he came near the camp, that he saw the calf and the dancing. So Moses' anger became hot, and he cast the tablets out of his hands and broke them at the foot of the mountain.

20Then he took the calf which they had made, burned it in the fire, and ground it to powder; and he scattered it on the water and made the children of Israel drink it.

21And Moses said to Aaron, "What did this people do to you that you have brought so great a sin upon them?"

22So Aaron said, "Do not let the anger of my lord become hot. You know the people, that they are set on evil. Aaron's Excuses

23"For they said to me, 'Make us gods that shall go before us; as for this Moses, the man who brought us out of the land of Egypt, we do not know what has become of him.'

24"And I said to them, 'Whoever has any gold, let them break it off.' So they gave it to me, and I cast it into the fire, and this calf came out."

25Now when Moses saw that the people were unrestrained (for Aaron had not restrained them, to their shame among their enemies), 26then Moses stood in the entrance of the camp, and said, "Whoever is on the LORD's side—come to me!" And all the sons of Levi gathered themselves together to him.

27And he said to them, "Thus says the LORD God of Israel: 'Let every man put his sword on his side, and go in and out from entrance to entrance throughout the camp, and let every man kill his brother, every man his companion, and every man his neighbor.' "

28So the sons of Levi did according to the word of Moses. And about three thousand men of the people fell that day.

29Then Moses said, "Consecrate yourselves today to the LORD, that He may bestow on you a blessing this day, for every man has opposed his son and his brother.”

30Now it came to pass on the next day that Moses said to the people, “You have committed a great sin. So now I will go up to the LORD; perhaps I can make atonement for your sin.”

31Then Moses returned to the LORD and said, “Oh, these people have committed a great sin, and have made for themselves a god of gold! Bring It to Him

32“Yet now, if You will forgive their sin—but if not, I pray, blot me out of Your book which You have written.”

33And the LORD said to Moses, “Whoever has sinned against Me, I will blot him out of My book.

34“Now therefore, go, lead the people to the place of which I have spoken to you. Behold, My Angel shall go before you. Nevertheless, in the day when I visit for punishment, I will visit punishment upon them for their sin.”

35So the LORD plagued the people because of what they did with the calf which Aaron made.

Exodus 33

The Command to Leave Sinai

1 Then the LORD said to Moses, “Depart and go up from here, you and the people whom you have brought out of the land of Egypt, to the land of which I swore to Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, saying, ‘To your descendants I will give
it.’
2 “And I will send My Angel before you, and I will drive out the Canaanite and the Amorite and the Hittite and the Perizzite and the Hivite and the Jebusite.
3 “Go up to a land flowing with milk and honey; for I will not go up in your midst, lest I consume you on the way, for you are a stiff-necked people.” 4 And when the people heard this bad news, they mourned, and no one put on his ornaments.
5 For the LORD had said to Moses, “Say to the children of Israel, ‘You are a stiff-necked people. I could come up into your midst in one moment and consume you. Now therefore, take off your ornaments, that I may know what to do to you.’ ”
6 So the children of Israel stripped themselves of their ornaments by Mount Horeb.

Moses Meets with the LORD

7 Moses took his tent and pitched it outside the camp, far from the camp, and called it the tabernacle of meeting. And it came to pass that everyone who sought the LORD went out to the tabernacle of meeting which was outside the camp.
8 So it was, whenever Moses went out to the tabernacle, that all the people rose, and each man stood at his tent

door and watched Moses until he had gone into the tabernacle.

9And it came to pass, when Moses entered the tabernacle, that the pillar of cloud descended and stood at the door of the tabernacle, and the LORD talked with Moses.

10All the people saw the pillar of cloud standing at the tabernacle door, and all the people rose and worshiped, each man in his tent door.

11So the LORD spoke to Moses face to face, as a man speaks to his friend. And he would return to the camp, but his servant Joshua the son of Nun, a young man, did not depart from the tabernacle. Friends of God

The Promise of God's Presence

12Then Moses said to the LORD, "See, You say to me, 'Bring up this people.' But You have not let me know whom You will send with me. Yet You have said, 'I know you by name, and you have also found grace in My sight.'

13"Now therefore, I pray, if I have found grace in Your sight, show me now Your way, that I may know You and that I may find grace in Your sight. And consider that this nation is Your people."

14And He said, "My Presence will go with you, and I will give you rest."

15Then he said to Him, "If Your Presence does not go with us, do not bring us up from here.

16"For how then will it be known that Your people and I have found grace in Your sight, except You go with us? So we shall be separate, Your people and I, from all the people who are upon the face of the earth."

17So the LORD said to Moses, "I will also do this thing that you have spoken; for you have found grace in My sight, and I know you by name."

18 And he said, “Please, show me Your glory.”
19 Then He said, “I will make all My goodness pass before you, and I will proclaim the name of the LORD before you. I will be gracious to whom I will be gracious, and I will have compassion on whom I will have compassion.”
20 But He said, “You cannot see My face; for no man shall see Me, and live.” Direct Encounters with God
21 And the LORD said, “Here is a place by Me, and you shall stand on the rock.
22 “So it shall be, while My glory passes by, that I will put you in the cleft of the rock, and will cover you with My hand while I pass by.
23 “Then I will take away My hand, and you shall see My back; but My face shall not be seen.”

Exodus 34

Moses Makes New Tablets

1 And the LORD said to Moses, “Cut two tablets of stone like the first ones, and I will write on these tablets the words that were on the first tablets which you broke.
2 “So be ready in the morning, and come up in the morning to Mount Sinai, and present yourself to Me there on the top of the mountain.
3 “And no man shall come up with you, and let no man be seen throughout all the mountain; let neither flocks nor herds feed before that mountain.”
4 So he cut two tablets of stone like the first ones. Then Moses rose early in the morning and went up Mount Sinai, as the LORD had commanded him; and he took in his hand
the two tablets of stone.
5 Now the LORD descended in the cloud and stood with him there, and proclaimed the name of the LORD.
6 And the LORD passed before him and proclaimed, “The LORD, the LORD God, merciful and gracious, longsuffering, and abounding in goodness and truth, Merciful and Just 7 “keeping mercy for thousands, forgiving iniquity and transgression and sin, by no means clearing the guilty, visiting the iniquity of the fathers upon the children and the children’s children to the third and the fourth generation.” 8 So Moses made haste and bowed his head toward the earth, and worshiped.
9 Then he said, “If now I have found grace in Your sight, O Lord, let my Lord, I pray, go among us, even though we are a stiff-necked people; and pardon our iniquity and our sin, and take us as Your inheritance.” The Lord’s Inheritance

The Covenant Renewed

10 And He said: “Behold, I make a covenant. Before all your people I will do marvels such as have not been done in all the earth, nor in any nation; and all the people among whom you are shall see the work of the LORD. For it is an awesome thing that I will do with you.

11 “Observe what I command you this day. Behold, I am driving out from before you the Amorite and the Canaanite and the Hittite and the Perizzite and the Hivite and the Jebusite.

12 “Take heed to yourself, lest you make a covenant with the inhabitants of the land where you are going, lest it be a snare in your midst.

13 “But you shall destroy their altars, break their sacred pillars, and cut down their wooden images

14 “(for you shall worship no other god, for the LORD, whose name is Jealous, is a jealous God),

15 “lest you make a covenant with the inhabitants of the land, and they play the harlot with their gods and make sacrifice to their gods, and one of them invites you and you eat of his sacrifice,

16 “and you take of his daughters for your sons, and his daughters play the harlot with their gods and make your sons play the harlot with their gods.

17 “You shall make no molded gods for yourselves.

18 “The Feast of Unleavened Bread you shall keep. Seven days you shall eat unleavened bread, as I commanded you, in the appointed time of the month of Abib; for in the month of Abib you came out from Egypt.

19 “All that open the womb are Mine, and every male firstborn among your livestock, whether ox or sheep.

20 “But the firstborn of a donkey you shall redeem with a lamb. And if you will not redeem him, then you shall break his neck. All the firstborn of your sons you shall redeem. And none shall appear before Me empty-handed.

21 "Six days you shall work, but on the seventh day you shall rest; in plowing time and in harvest you shall rest.

22 "And you shall observe the Feast of Weeks, of the firstfruits of wheat harvest, and the Feast of Ingathering at the year's end.

23 "Three times in the year all your men shall appear before the Lord, the LORD God of Israel.

24 "For I will cast out the nations before you and enlarge your borders; neither will any man covet your land when you go up to appear before the LORD your God three times in the year.

25 "You shall not offer the blood of My sacrifice with leaven, nor shall the sacrifice of the Feast of the Passover be left until morning.

26 "The first of the firstfruits of your land you shall bring to the house of the LORD your God. You shall not boil a young goat in its mother's milk."

27 Then the LORD said to Moses, "Write these words, for according to the tenor of these words I have made a covenant with you and with Israel."

28 So he was there with the LORD forty days and forty nights; he neither ate bread nor drank water. And He wrote on the tablets the words of the covenant, the Ten Commandments.[a]

The Shining Face of Moses

29 Now it was so, when Moses came down from Mount Sinai (and the two tablets of the Testimony were in Moses' hand when he came down from the mountain), that Moses did not know that the skin of his face shone while he talked with Him.

30 So when Aaron and all the children of Israel saw Moses, behold, the skin of his face shone, and they were afraid to come near him.
31 Then Moses called to them, and Aaron and all the rulers of the congregation returned to him; and Moses talked with them.
32 Afterward all the children of Israel came near, and he gave them as commandments all that the LORD had spoken with him on Mount Sinai.
33 And when Moses had finished speaking with them, he put a veil on his face.
34 But whenever Moses went in before the LORD to speak with Him, he would take the veil off until he came out; and he would come out and speak to the children of Israel whatever he had been commanded.
35 And whenever the children of Israel saw the face of Moses, that the skin of Moses' face shone, then Moses would put the veil on his face again, until he went in to speak with Him.

Exodus 35

Sabbath Regulations

1 Then Moses gathered all the congregation of the children of Israel together, and said to them, “These are the words which the LORD has commanded you to do: Take a Break

2 “Work shall be done for six days, but the seventh day shall be a holy day for you, a Sabbath of rest to the LORD.
Whoever does any work on it shall be put to death.

3 “You shall kindle no fire throughout your dwellings on the Sabbath day.”

Offerings for the Tabernacle

4 And Moses spoke to all the congregation of the children of Israel, saying, “This is the thing which the LORD commanded, saying:

5 ‘Take from among you an offering to the LORD. Whoever is of a willing heart, let him bring it as an offering to the LORD: gold, silver, and bronze;

6 ‘blue, purple, and scarlet thread, fine linen, and goats’
hair;

7 ‘ram skins dyed red, badger skins, and acacia wood;

8 ‘oil for the light, and spices for the anointing oil and for
the sweet incense;

9 ‘onyx stones, and stones to be set in the ephod and in
the breastplate.

Articles of the Tabernacle

10 ‘All who are gifted artisans among you shall come and make all that the LORD has commanded:

11 ‘the tabernacle, its tent, its covering, its clasps, its boards, its bars, its pillars, and its sockets; 12 ‘the ark and its poles, with the mercy seat, and the veil of the covering;
13 ‘the table and its poles, all its utensils, and the showbread;
14 ‘also the lampstand for the light, its utensils, its lamps,
and the oil for the light;
15 ‘the incense altar, its poles, the anointing oil, the sweet incense, and the screen for the door at the entrance of the tabernacle;
16 ‘the altar of burnt offering with its bronze grating, its poles, all its utensils, and the laver and its base; 17 ‘the hangings of the court, its pillars, their sockets, and the screen for the gate of the court; 18 ‘the pegs of the tabernacle, the pegs of the court, and their cords;
19 ‘the garments of ministry,[a] for ministering in the holy place—the holy garments for Aaron the priest and the garments of his sons, to minister as priests.’ ”

The Tabernacle Offerings Presented

20 And all the congregation of the children of Israel departed from the presence of Moses.
21 Then everyone came whose heart was stirred, and everyone whose spirit was willing, and they brought the LORD’s offering for the work of the tabernacle of meeting, for all its service, and for the holy garments.
22 They came, both men and women, as many as had a willing heart, and brought earrings and nose rings, rings and necklaces, all jewelry of gold, that is, every man who made an offering of gold to the LORD.
23 And every man, with whom was found blue, purple, and scarlet thread, fine linen, and goats’ hair, red skins of rams, and badger skins, brought them.

24 Everyone who offered an offering of silver or bronze brought the LORD's offering. And everyone with whom was found acacia wood for any work of the service, brought it.

25 All the women who were gifted artisans spun yarn with their hands, and brought what they had spun, of blue, purple, and scarlet, and fine linen.

26 And all the women whose hearts stirred with wisdom spun yarn of goats' hair.

27 The rulers brought onyx stones, and the stones to be set in the ephod and in the breastplate,

28 and spices and oil for the light, for the anointing oil, and for the sweet incense.

29 The children of Israel brought a freewill offering to the LORD, all the men and women whose hearts were willing to bring material for all kinds of work which the LORD, by the hand of Moses, had commanded to be done.

The Artisans Called by God

30 And Moses said to the children of Israel, "See, the LORD has called by name Bezalel the son of Uri, the son of Hur, of the tribe of Judah;

31 "and He has filled him with the Spirit of God, in wisdom and understanding, in knowledge and all manner of workmanship, The Spirit of God in the Workplace

32 "to design artistic works, to work in gold and silver and bronze, 33 "in cutting jewels for setting, in carving wood, and to work in all manner of artistic workmanship.

34 "And He has put in his heart the ability to teach, in him and Aholiab the son of Ahisamach, of the tribe of Dan.

35 "He has filled them with skill to do all manner of work of the engraver and the designer and the tapestry maker, in blue, purple, and scarlet thread, and fine linen, and of the weaver—those who do every work and those who design artistic works.

Exodus 36

1 “And Bezalel and Aholiab, and every gifted artisan in whom the LORD has put wisdom and understanding, to know how to do all manner of work for the service of the sanctuary, shall do according to all that the LORD has commanded.”

The People Give More than Enough

2 Then Moses called Bezalel and Aholiab, and every gifted artisan in whose heart the LORD had put wisdom, everyone whose heart was stirred, to come and do the work.
3 And they received from Moses all the offering which the children of Israel had brought for the work of the service of making the sanctuary. So they continued bringing to him freewill offerings every morning.
4 Then all the craftsmen who were doing all the work of the sanctuary came, each from the work he was doing, A Project Drew the People Together 5 and they spoke to Moses, saying, “The people bring much more than enough for the service of the work which the LORD commanded us to do.”
6 So Moses gave a commandment, and they caused it to be proclaimed throughout the camp, saying, “Let neither man nor woman do any more work for the offering of the sanctuary.” And the people were restrained from bringing, 7 for the material they had was sufficient for all the work to be done—indeed too much.

Building the Tabernacle

8 Then all the gifted artisans among them who worked on the tabernacle made ten curtains woven of fine linen, and of blue, purple, and scarlet thread; with artistic designs of cherubim they made them.

9 The length of each curtain was twenty-eight cubits, and the width of each curtain four cubits; the curtains were all the same size.

10 And he coupled five curtains to one another, and the other five curtains he coupled to one another.

11 He made loops of blue yarn on the edge of the curtain on the selvedge of one set; likewise he did on the outer edge of the other curtain of the second set.

12 Fifty loops he made on one curtain, and fifty loops he made on the edge of the curtain on the end of the second set; the loops held one curtain to another.

13 And he made fifty clasps of gold, and coupled the curtains to one another with the clasps, that it might be one tabernacle.

14 He made curtains of goats' hair for the tent over the tabernacle; he made eleven curtains.

15 The length of each curtain was thirty cubits, and the width of each curtain four cubits; the eleven curtains were the same size.

16 He coupled five curtains by themselves and six curtains by themselves.

17 And he made fifty loops on the edge of the curtain that is outermost in one set, and fifty loops he made on the edge of the curtain of the second set.

18 He also made fifty bronze clasps to couple the tent together, that it might be one.

19 Then he made a covering for the tent of ram skins dyed red, and a covering of badger skins above that.

20 For the tabernacle he made boards of acacia wood, standing upright.

21 The length of each board was ten cubits, and the width of each board a cubit and a half.

22 Each board had two tenons for binding one to another.
Thus he made for all the boards of the tabernacle.
23 And he made boards for the tabernacle, twenty boards for the south side.
24 Forty sockets of silver he made to go under the twenty boards: two sockets under each of the boards for its two tenons.
25 And for the other side of the tabernacle, the north side,
he made twenty boards
26 and their forty sockets of silver: two sockets under
each of the boards.
27 For the west side of the tabernacle he made six boards.
28 He also made two boards for the two back corners of the tabernacle.
29 And they were coupled at the bottom and coupled together at the top by one ring. Thus he made both of them for the two corners.
30 So there were eight boards and their sockets—sixteen sockets of silver—two sockets under each of the boards.
31 And he made bars of acacia wood: five for the boards on one side of the tabernacle, 32 five bars for the boards on the other side of the tabernacle, and five bars for the boards of the tabernacle on the far side westward.
33 And he made the middle bar to pass through the boards from one end to the other.
34 He overlaid the boards with gold, made their rings of gold to be holders for the bars, and overlaid the bars with gold.
35 And he made a veil of blue, purple, and scarlet thread, and fine woven linen; it was worked with an artistic design of cherubim.
36 He made for it four pillars of acacia wood, and overlaid them with gold, with their hooks of gold; and he cast four sockets of silver for them.

37He also made a screen for the tabernacle door, of blue, purple, and scarlet thread, and fine woven linen, made by a weaver, 38and its five pillars with their hooks. And he overlaid their capitals and their rings with gold, but their five sockets were bronze.

Exodus 37

Making the Ark of the Testimony

1 Then Bezalel made the ark of acacia wood; two and a half cubits was its length, a cubit and a half its width, and a cubit and a half its height. A World of Talent

2 He overlaid it with pure gold inside and outside, and made a molding of gold all around it.

3 And he cast for it four rings of gold to be set in its four corners: two rings on one side, and two rings on the other side of it.

4 He made poles of acacia wood, and overlaid them with gold.

5 And he put the poles into the rings at the sides of the ark, to bear the ark.

6 He also made the mercy seat of pure gold; two and a half cubits was its length and a cubit and a half its width.

7 He made two cherubim of beaten gold; he made them of one piece at the two ends of the mercy seat:

8 one cherub at one end on this side, and the other cherub at the other end on that side. He made the cherubim at the two ends of one piece with the mercy seat.

9 The cherubim spread out their wings above, and covered the mercy seat with their wings. They faced one another; the faces of the cherubim were toward the mercy seat.

Making the Table for the Showbread

10 He made the table of acacia wood; two cubits was its length, a cubit its width, and a cubit and a half its height.

11 And he overlaid it with pure gold, and made a molding of gold all around it.

12 Also he made a frame of a handbreadth all around it, and made a molding of gold for the frame all around it.
13 And he cast for it four rings of gold, and put the rings on the four corners that were at its four legs.
14 The rings were close to the frame, as holders for the poles to bear the table.
15 And he made the poles of acacia wood to bear the table, and overlaid them with gold.
16 He made of pure gold the utensils which were on the table: its dishes, its cups, its bowls, and its pitchers for pouring.

Making the Gold Lampstand

17 He also made the lampstand of pure gold; of hammered work he made the lampstand. Its shaft, its branches, its bowls, its ornamental knobs, and its flowers were of the same piece.
18 And six branches came out of its sides: three branches of the lampstand out of one side, and three branches of the lampstand out of the other side.
19 There were three bowls made like almond blossoms on one branch, with an ornamental knob and a flower, and three bowls made like almond blossoms on the other branch, with an ornamental knob and a flower—and so for the six branches coming out of the lampstand.
20 And on the lampstand itself were four bowls made like almond blossoms, each with its ornamental knob and flower.
21 There was a knob under the first two branches of the same, a knob under the second two branches of the same, and a knob under the third two branches of the same,
according to the six branches extending from it.
22 Their knobs and their branches were of one piece; all of it was one hammered piece of pure gold.

23 And he made its seven lamps, its wick-trimmers, and its trays of pure gold.
24 Of a talent of pure gold he made it, with all its utensils.

Making the Altar of Incense

25 He made the incense altar of acacia wood. Its length was a cubit and its width a cubit—it was square—and two cubits was its height. Its horns were of one piece with it.
26 And he overlaid it with pure gold: its top, its sides all around, and its horns. He also made for it a molding of gold all around it.
27 He made two rings of gold for it under its molding, by its two corners on both sides, as holders for the poles with which to bear it.
28 And he made the poles of acacia wood, and overlaid
them with gold.

Making the Anointing Oil and the Incense

29 He also made the holy anointing oil and the pure incense of sweet spices, according to the work of the perfumer.

Exodus 38

Making the Altar of Burnt Offering

1 He made the altar of burnt offering of acacia wood; five cubits was its length and five cubits its width—it was square—and its height was three cubits.
2 He made its horns on its four corners; the horns were of one piece with it. And he overlaid it with bronze.
3 He made all the utensils for the altar: the pans, the shovels, the basins, the forks, and the firepans; all its utensils he made of bronze.
4 And he made a grate of bronze network for the altar,
under its rim, midway from the bottom.
5 He cast four rings for the four corners of the bronze grating, as holders for the poles.
6 And he made the poles of acacia wood, and overlaid them with bronze.
7 Then he put the poles into the rings on the sides of the altar, with which to bear it. He made the altar hollow with boards.

Making the Bronze Laver

8 He made the laver of bronze and its base of bronze, from the bronze mirrors of the serving women who assembled at the door of the tabernacle of meeting.

Making the Court of the Tabernacle

9 Then he made the court on the south side; the hangings of the court were of fine woven linen, one hundred cubits long.
10 There were twenty pillars for them, with twenty bronze sockets. The hooks of the pillars and their bands were

silver.

11On the north side the hangings were one hundred cubits long, with twenty pillars and their twenty bronze sockets. The hooks of the pillars and their bands were silver.

12And on the west side there were hangings of fifty cubits, with ten pillars and their ten sockets. The hooks of the pillars and their bands were silver.

13For the east side the hangings were fifty cubits.

14The hangings of one side of the gate were fifteen cubits long, with their three pillars and their three sockets, 15and the same for the other side of the court gate; on this side and that were hangings of fifteen cubits, with their three pillars and their three sockets.

16All the hangings of the court all around were of fine woven linen.

17The sockets for the pillars were bronze, the hooks of the pillars and their bands were silver, and the overlay of their capitals was silver; and all the pillars of the court had bands of silver.

18The screen for the gate of the court was woven of blue, purple, and scarlet thread, and of fine woven linen. The length was twenty cubits, and the height along its width was five cubits, corresponding to the hangings of the court.

19And there were four pillars with their four sockets of bronze; their hooks were silver, and the overlay of their capitals and their bands was silver.

20All the pegs of the tabernacle, and of the court all around, were bronze.

Materials of the Tabernacle

21This is the inventory of the tabernacle, the tabernacle of the Testimony, which was counted according to the commandment of Moses, for the service of the Levites, by the hand of Ithamar, son of Aaron the priest. Teamwork

22 Bezalel the son of Uri, the son of Hur, of the tribe of Judah, made all that the LORD had commanded Moses.

23 And with him was Aholiab the son of Ahisamach, of the tribe of Dan, an engraver and designer, a weaver of blue, purple, and scarlet thread, and of fine linen.

24 All the gold that was used in all the work of the holy place, that is, the gold of the offering, was twenty-nine talents and seven hundred and thirty shekels, according to the shekel of the sanctuary.

25 And the silver from those who were numbered of the congregation was one hundred talents and one thousand seven hundred and seventy-five shekels, according to the shekel of the sanctuary:

26 a bekah for each man (that is, half a shekel, according to the shekel of the sanctuary), for everyone included in the numbering from twenty years old and above, for six hundred and three thousand, five hundred and fifty men.

27 And from the hundred talents of silver were cast the sockets of the sanctuary and the bases of the veil: one hundred sockets from the hundred talents, one talent for each socket.

28 Then from the one thousand seven hundred and seventy-five shekels he made hooks for the pillars, overlaid their capitals, and made bands for them.

29 The offering of bronze was seventy talents and two thousand four hundred shekels.

30 And with it he made the sockets for the door of the tabernacle of meeting, the bronze altar, the bronze grating for it, and all the utensils for the altar,

31 the sockets for the court all around, the bases for the court gate, all the pegs for the tabernacle, and all the pegs for the court all around.

Exodus 39

Making the Garments of the Priesthood

1 Of the blue, purple, and scarlet thread they made garments of ministry,[a] for ministering in the holy place, and made the holy garments for Aaron, as the LORD had commanded Moses.

Making the Ephod

2 He made the ephod of gold, blue, purple, and scarlet thread, and of fine woven linen.
3 And they beat the gold into thin sheets and cut it into threads, to work it in with the blue, purple, and scarlet thread, and the fine linen, into artistic designs.
4 They made shoulder straps for it to couple it together; it was coupled together at its two edges.
5 And the intricately woven band of his ephod that was on it was of the same workmanship, woven of gold, blue, purple, and scarlet thread, and of fine woven linen, as the LORD had commanded Moses.
6 And they set onyx stones, enclosed in settings of gold;
they were engraved, as signets are engraved, with the names of the sons of Israel.
7 He put them on the shoulders of the ephod as memorial stones for the sons of Israel, as the LORD had commanded Moses.

Making the Breastplate

8 And he made the breastplate, artistically woven like the workmanship of the ephod, of gold, blue, purple, and scarlet thread, and of fine woven linen.

9 They made the breastplate square by doubling it; a span was its length and a span its width when doubled.
10 And they set in it four rows of stones: a row with a sardius, a topaz, and an emerald was the first row; 11 the second row, a turquoise, a sapphire, and a diamond;
12 the third row, a jacinth, an agate, and an amethyst;
13 the fourth row, a beryl, an onyx, and a jasper. They were enclosed in settings of gold in their mountings.
14 There were twelve stones according to the names of the sons of Israel: according to their names, engraved like a signet, each one with its own name according to the twelve tribes. The Responsibility of Authority 15 And they made chains for the breastplate at the ends,
like braided cords of pure gold.
16 They also made two settings of gold and two gold rings, and put the two rings on the two ends of the breastplate.
17 And they put the two braided chains of gold in the two rings on the ends of the breastplate.
18 The two ends of the two braided chains they fastened in the two settings, and put them on the shoulder straps of the ephod in the front.
19 And they made two rings of gold and put them on the two ends of the breastplate, on the edge of it, which was on the inward side of the ephod.
20 They made two other gold rings and put them on the two shoulder straps, underneath the ephod toward its front, right at the seam above the intricately woven band of the ephod.
21 And they bound the breastplate by means of its rings to the rings of the ephod with a blue cord, so that it would be above the intricately woven band of the ephod, and that the breastplate would not come loose from the ephod, as the LORD had commanded Moses.

Making the Other Priestly Garments

22He made the robe of the ephod of woven work, all of blue.

23And there was an opening in the middle of the robe, like the opening in a coat of mail, with a woven binding all around the opening, so that it would not tear.

24They made on the hem of the robe pomegranates of blue, purple, and scarlet, and of fine woven linen.

25And they made bells of pure gold, and put the bells between the pomegranates on the hem of the robe all around between the pomegranates:

26a bell and a pomegranate, a bell and a pomegranate, all around the hem of the robe to minister in, as the LORD had commanded Moses.

27They made tunics, artistically woven of fine linen, for Aaron and his sons,

28a turban of fine linen, exquisite hats of fine linen, short trousers of fine woven linen,

29and a sash of fine woven linen with blue, purple, and scarlet thread, made by a weaver, as the LORD had commanded Moses.

30Then they made the plate of the holy crown of pure gold, and wrote on it an inscription like the engraving of a signet:

HOLINESS TO THE LORD.

31And they tied to it a blue cord, to fasten it above on the turban, as the LORD had commanded Moses.

The Work Completed

32Thus all the work of the tabernacle of the tent of meeting was finished. And the children of Israel did according to all that the LORD had commanded Moses; so they did.

33And they brought the tabernacle to Moses, the tent and all its furnishings: its clasps, its boards, its bars, its pillars, and its sockets;

34the covering of ram skins dyed red, the covering of badger skins, and the veil of the covering;

35the ark of the Testimony with its poles, and the mercy seat;

36the table, all its utensils, and the showbread;

37the pure gold lampstand with its lamps (the lamps set in order), all its utensils, and the oil for light;

38the gold altar, the anointing oil, and the sweet incense; the screen for the tabernacle door;

39the bronze altar, its grate of bronze, its poles, and all its utensils; the laver with its base;

40the hangings of the court, its pillars and its sockets, the screen for the court gate, its cords, and its pegs; all the utensils for the service of the tabernacle, for the tent of meeting;

41and the garments of ministry,[b] to minister in the holy place: the holy garments for Aaron the priest, and his sons' garments, to minister as priests.

42According to all that the LORD had commanded Moses, so the children of Israel did all the work. Celebrating Good Work

43Then Moses looked over all the work, and indeed they had done it; as the LORD had commanded, just so they had done it. And Moses blessed them.

Exodus 40

The Tabernacle Erected and Arranged

1 Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying:
2 “On the first day of the first month you shall set up the tabernacle of the tent of meeting.
3 “You shall put in it the ark of the Testimony, and partition off the ark with the veil.
4 “You shall bring in the table and arrange the things that are to be set in order on it; and you shall bring in the lampstand and light its lamps.
5 “You shall also set the altar of gold for the incense before the ark of the Testimony, and put up the screen for the door of the tabernacle.
6 “Then you shall set the altar of the burnt offering before the door of the tabernacle of the tent of meeting.
7 “And you shall set the laver between the tabernacle of meeting and the altar, and put water in it.
8 “You shall set up the court all around, and hang up the screen at the court gate.
9 “And you shall take the anointing oil, and anoint the tabernacle and all that is in it; and you shall hallow it and all its utensils, and it shall be holy.
10 “You shall anoint the altar of the burnt offering and all its utensils, and consecrate the altar. The altar shall be most holy.
11 “And you shall anoint the laver and its base, and consecrate it.
12 “Then you shall bring Aaron and his sons to the door of the tabernacle of meeting and wash them with water.
13 “You shall put the holy garments on Aaron, and anoint him and consecrate him, that he may minister to Me as priest.

14 “And you shall bring his sons and clothe them with tunics.
15 “You shall anoint them, as you anointed their father, that they may minister to Me as priests; for their anointing shall surely be an everlasting priesthood throughout their generations.”
16 Thus Moses did; according to all that the LORD had commanded him, so he did. Excellence Starts at the Top 17 And it came to pass in the first month of the second year, on the first day of the month, that the tabernacle was raised up.
18 So Moses raised up the tabernacle, fastened its sockets, set up its boards, put in its bars, and raised up its pillars.
19 And he spread out the tent over the tabernacle and put the covering of the tent on top of it, as the LORD had commanded Moses.
20 He took the Testimony and put it into the ark, inserted the poles through the rings of the ark, and put the mercy seat on top of the ark.
21 And he brought the ark into the tabernacle, hung up the veil of the covering, and partitioned off the ark of the Testimony, as the LORD had commanded Moses.
22 He put the table in the tabernacle of meeting, on the north side of the tabernacle, outside the veil; 23 and he set the bread in order upon it before the LORD,
as the LORD had commanded Moses.
24 He put the lampstand in the tabernacle of meeting, across from the table, on the south side of the tabernacle;
25 and he lit the lamps before the LORD, as the LORD had commanded Moses.
26 He put the gold altar in the tabernacle of meeting in front of the veil;

27 and he burned sweet incense on it, as the LORD had commanded Moses.
28 He hung up the screen at the door of the tabernacle.
29 And he put the altar of burnt offering before the door of the tabernacle of the tent of meeting, and offered upon it the burnt offering and the grain offering, as the LORD had commanded Moses.
30 He set the laver between the tabernacle of meeting and the altar, and put water there for washing; 31 and Moses, Aaron, and his sons would wash their hands and their feet with water from it.
32 Whenever they went into the tabernacle of meeting, and when they came near the altar, they washed, as the LORD had commanded Moses.
33 And he raised up the court all around the tabernacle and the altar, and hung up the screen of the court gate. So Moses finished the work.

The Cloud and the Glory

34 Then the cloud covered the tabernacle of meeting, and the glory of the LORD filled the tabernacle.
35 And Moses was not able to enter the tabernacle of meeting, because the cloud rested above it, and the glory of the LORD filled the tabernacle.
36 Whenever the cloud was taken up from above the tabernacle, the children of Israel would go onward in all their journeys.
37 But if the cloud was not taken up, then they did not journey till the day that it was taken up.
38 For the cloud of the LORD was above the tabernacle by day, and fire was over it by night, in the sight of all the house of Israel, throughout all their journeys.

Civil Disobedience

Ex. 1:15–21

The Exodus story of deliverance from oppression begins with political resistance. When two Hebrew midwives refused to do Pharaoh's bidding, they deliberately broke the law of the land. Their behavior suggests that God's will for His people sometimes includes acts of civil disobedience.

These women's actions may seem to contradict biblical teaching that believers should obey the law and respect governing authorities (Rom. 13:1, 2). But the Bible recognizes limits to human authority. When the laws of society come into direct conflict with God's law, it is more important to obey God than to risk doing the wrong thing by obeying human lawgivers (Acts 5:29).

In the days leading up to the Exodus, Pharaoh so feared the Israelites (Ex. 1:8–10, 12) that he established a policy of infanticide. Rather than fear Pharaoh, however, the midwives feared God (1:17, 21), keeping His command to respect and preserve human life (Gen. 9:3–7; compare Ex. 20:13).

The midwives may have even felt that God's promise to make Abraham into a great nation and to give his descendants the land of Canaan rested in their hands (Gen. 12:1, 2; 13:14–17). When Pharaoh's command conflicted with God's command, the midwives chose to obey God.

Thousands of children in the modern world suffer or die every day as a direct or indirect result of political, economic, social, or religious policies, some as coldly calculated as Pharaoh's command. These children are killed by the harsh decisions of people who do not fear God.

As Christians, the Hebrew midwives can be our model for how to resist and even peacefully disobey human commands in order to uphold God's ways. We may not escape retribution, but our consciences can be at rest, knowing we have feared God as our ultimate authority.

More: Pharaoh's command to kill the Hebrew boys foreshadowed the last of the ten plagues, when God sent an angel of death to kill all the Egyptian firstborn. See "Pharaoh's Submission" at Ex. 12:29. Pharaoh's edict also foreshadowed King Herod's order to execute all the baby boys around Bethlehem in an attempt to get rid of the baby Jesus. Both accounts remind us that the world's children need not die in vain. See "Grieving the Loss of a Child" at Matt. 2:16–18.

Fear God

Ex. 1:21

The Hebrew midwives exhibited a healthy fear of God, which enabled them to boldly risk Pharaoh's wrath. They exemplified what Christ taught His disciples about not fearing those who kill the body but instead fearing the One "who, after He has killed, has power to cast into hell" (Luke 12:4, 5).

Respect for the Lord gave them the courage, direction, and motivation to make godly choices.

As much as we depend on God's love, grace, and mercy, we cannot forget that God is to be feared. And this fear is designed to lead to right actions. God treats sin very seriously; He doesn't want the pain it causes. Therefore, we should take His holiness very seriously. We need not cringe before God as if He were a tyrant who delights in punishing us. But neither should we trivialize sin as if God were an indulgent grandfather who laughs at our mischief.

As both the Egyptians and the children of Israel discovered, "our God is a consuming fire" (Heb. 12:29; compare Deut. 4:24). And as the Bible points out, "The fear of the LORD is the beginning of wisdom" (Ps. 111:10; Prov. 9:10).

A Mother's Influence

Ex. 2:8–10

Despite her limited control over her son's future, Moses' mother Jochebed seized every opportunity to have an effect on his development. She exercised bold faith by refusing to put him to death (Ex. 1:15, 16; 2:2–4). God honored her trust by not only preserving the baby's life but also arranging the circumstances that allowed Jochebed to serve as his nurse (2:5–10).

Later developments in Moses' life show how thoroughly his mother shaped her son's character. Though he grew up as an adopted member of the royal family, Moses chose as an adult to unashamedly identify with the Hebrews and their God, a testament to Jochebed's influence during his formative years (Heb. 11:24–26).

Most modern mothers have far more opportunity than Jochebed to influence their children. But Jochebed's refusal to let a prevailing culture negatively impact her child's development is an inspiration for any mother who struggles to inspire her children to live Christlike lives in a fallen world.

Moses

Ex. 2:10

Name means: "Drawn Out"; may have been a pun (based on the circumstances of his discovery) that was recognizable to Hebrews but not to Egyptians; may have also been related to an Egyptian term meaning "Child" or "Son."

Family: Son of Amram and Jochebed; raised by the daughter of Pharaoh; husband of Zipporah and an unnamed Ethiopian woman (Num. 12:1); father of Gershom and Eliezer.

Occupation: Royal ruler in Egypt; shepherd in Midian; leader of God's people as they escaped slavery in Egypt; leader and prophet who received the Ten Commandments.

Best known as: The man God used to deliver Israel from bondage, and the communicator of God's law.

The Value of Preparation

Ex. 2:11

God does not waste our time. If we are willing to be led, He always leads us toward a purpose.

- Joseph possessed God-given abilities in leadership as well as the wisdom to interpret dreams. But he spent years as a household servant and as a prisoner accused of a crime he did not commit. Only after these hardships did he rise to the position of Pharaoh's second-in-command (Gen. 39:2–4; 41:37–39).
- Moses spent the first two-thirds of his life being shaped for the final third (see "Chaotic Career Paths" at Ex. 4:29). During his first forty years, he grew up in Egypt, mastering "all the wisdom of the Egyptians" and becoming "mighty in words and deeds" (Acts 7:22). Moses may have thought that this training qualified him for leadership over the Israelites, but his first attempt at taking charge ended in disaster

(Ex. 2:11–15). It would be yet another forty years before he was ready to assume the responsibilities God had planned for him.

- Daniel's schooling included "the language and literature of the Chaldeans" (see "A Secular Education" at Dan. 1:4). Much of this curriculum may have run counter to his Hebrew upbringing, yet Daniel mastered his studies without succumbing to pagan influences. He rose higher and higher in the government until he was advising kings.
- Paul grew up under the tutelage of the rabbi Gamaliel (Acts 22:3), obtaining training in the beliefs and practices of the Pharisees (Phil. 3:5), one of the leading religious and political groups of his day (see "Political Parties of Jesus' Day" at Matt. 16:1). After his conversion, Paul spent years privately developing his faith before becoming a leader in the early church (Gal. 1:14–2:2).

Many people feel they are always getting ready for something important but never getting to do it. Students, apprentices, entry-level employees, and even executives sometimes chafe at a position's limitations. But God always has a purpose for us, in both the present and in the future. Our progress may seem slow and our responsibilities beneath us, but what we do in those preparatory activities matters. It matters for today as well as sets the stage for tomorrow. Opportunities come when we make the most of our seasons of preparation.

I AM WHO I AM

Ex. 3:2–6

At first Moses was simply intrigued by the unusual sight of a bush that burned without being consumed. Then God spoke from the bush, calling Moses by name. The Lord warned Moses that he stood on holy ground, instructing him to remove his sandals as an act of respect.

God announced that He had heard the cries of His enslaved people and declared His plan to use Moses to free them. And then God told Moses His name. He is I AM WHO I AM (Ex. 3:14), the Eternal One who has always existed and will exist forever.

The name I AM conveys the meaning of God's name in Hebrew, Yahweh, a name usually indicated in English Bibles by the word LORD in small capital letters. I AM is also the One who is always present, for God has promised to be with His people always.

What do you do with more power, more love, and more confidence simply because God is with you?

Moses' encounter with God at the burning bush is one of many parallels between his life and that of the great prophet Elijah. See "Moses and Elijah" at 1 Kings 19:11 to learn more about their similarities.

More: Mount Horeb ("Waste") was appropriately named. Located in a remote part of the desert of the Sinai Peninsula (Ex. 3:1), it was nevertheless the site of another incident that forever impacted the world. See "Where God Meets Us" at Ex. 19:1, 20.

God Rescues the Oppressed

Ex. 3:7

Exodus tells the story of God's actions when Israel, His chosen people, cried out for justice and deliverance. The Bible also contains hundreds of other passages about deliverance for the poor and oppressed. Suffering people need not only mercy or relief, but also justice and reform. We Christians can be God's tools in these processes. Biblical teaching suggests several models of deliverance:

Biblical Models of Deliverance

Model	Example
The Exodus	God's rescue of the Hebrews from slavery. Famed for Model (deliverance by removal from oppressors)	its rallying cry of “Let My people go!” (Ex. 5:1; 7:16; 8:1; 9:1).

The Jubilee Model (land redistribution)	The periodic leveling of inequalities between the poor and the wealthy as mandated by Israel’s civil code (Lev. 25). Perhaps alluded to by Jesus (Luke 4:18, 19).
The Naboth Model (land reclamation)	Return of property after powerful King Ahab unjustly took land from a powerless Naboth (1 Kin. 21).
The Esther Model (social and political deliverance)	Queen Esther’s work within the political structures of a pagan society to save her people from genocide.
The Jonah Model (deliverance through preaching and repentance)	Prophets of both the Old and New Testaments worked through this model. Jonah’s preaching resulted in the Ninevites turning from sin to God.
The Cyrus Model (deliverance by pagan political leaders)	God’s sovereign appointment of Cyrus of Persia to accomplish His purposes (Is. 45:13).
The Kingdom Model (deliverance by, of, and from those in authority)	A New Testament view of governing authorities ranging from Paul’s optimism about the Roman empire (Rom. 13:1–6) to John’s pessimism about the same empire (Rev. 13). God’s people await Christ’s reign “on earth as it is in heaven” (Matt. 6:10).

The Lord takes note when people suffer oppression and abuse by governments, employers, and others in positions of power. We can rely on Him as a God of justice and the righter of wrongs—if not in this life, then in the life to come.

More: As children of a just and loving God, we are called to help others find freedom, both spiritually and practically. We can obey

Him as He guides us to right these wrongs. God gives us resources and opportunities to make a difference—but it's up to us to take advantage of them.

Crises of Confidence

Ex. 3:11–4:17

When Moses heard God call him to the task of liberating the Israelites from Egypt, he questioned his ability to carry out the assignment. Each of his excuses exposed an inner crisis:

A Crisis of Identity

When Moses asked "Who am I?" (Ex. 3:11), it seems he had already settled on an answer: I'm a nobody. Though he was a Hebrew by birth, he had been rejected by his people forty years earlier (2:11–14) and he had no reason to believe they would now accept his help. And though he was an Egyptian by upbringing, Moses had a reputation for rebellion and murder, leaving him with little or no influence among Egyptian royalty. Finally, he was a Midianite shepherd by vocation, and shepherds were considered an abomination by the Egyptians (Gen. 46:34).

Like many people today, Moses likely struggled due to his background and how he expected to be perceived by others, whether because of his ethnic or cultural heritage, his past mistakes, his low social status, or all of these. Yet God reassured Moses. He promised His presence, vowing to bring Moses back to the exact spot where he stood (Ex. 3:12).

A Crisis of Authority

Moses was concerned that he wouldn't know what to tell his fellow Hebrews. He wondered how to explain who had sent him (Ex. 3:13). Moses thought people would never listen to an outcast emerging from the wilderness claiming to speak for God, especially if he could not establish his authority by providing the name by which God had identified Himself.

God answered that concern with an extensive outline of His identity and authority as Lord: He stated His name (3:14); He recalled His promises to the Hebrews (3:15, 16); He declared Himself more powerful than the Egyptians and their king, as well as the Canaanites (3:16, 17, 19–22); and He reaffirmed His role as the God of the Hebrews (3:18). God reminded Moses that He rules over all the earth and its people.

A Crisis of Faith

Moses anticipated being met by unbelief. So God empowered Moses to do miraculous acts to demonstrate God's presence and power (4:2–9).

When people are prone to disbelief, miracles alone do not always prove convincing. Hearts often stay stubborn even in the presence of powerful signs (7:13, 22; Matt. 13:58; Luke 16:30, 31; John 12:37). On the other hand, miracles can strengthen the trust of those who want to believe. By studying God's supernatural acts, we can be sure that the God who performed them speaks to us (Ex. 4:5; John 20:30, 31).

A Crisis of Communication

Moses was certain he lacked ability as a spokesperson. "I am not eloquent," he confessed to the Lord. "I am slow of speech and slow of tongue" (Ex. 4:10). This contrasts sharply with Stephen's assertion that Moses was "mighty in words and deeds" (Acts 7:22)—because Stephen was describing Moses after God empowered him to stand before Pharaoh and lead the children of Israel. Whatever Moses' deficiencies as a speaker, God vowed to teach Moses what to say and to make his words understood (Ex. 4:11, 12). This can encourage us as we represent our faith through words (1 Pet. 3:15).

A Crisis of Obedience

Moses' final excuse was his simple unwillingness to carry out God's command. In effect, he asked, "Isn't there someone else You could send?" (Ex. 4:13). His question seems astonishing after all of God's promises and signs. Moses' statement kindled the Lord's anger (4:14), and we can only imagine how God must feel when we contradict His clearly revealed will for our lives.

Doing God's will is ultimately a matter of obedience. We may have concerns as we consider God's directives, but after God has addressed all our worries, only one question remains. Will we obey?

Moses' decision to obey (7:6) resulted in the Israelites' liberation from slavery under one of the most powerful empires of the ancient world. When we obey God's commands and find our confidence in Him, there is no limit to the good He may accomplish through us.

Aaron

Ex. 4:27

Name means: "Light."

Home: Probably Goshen, the eastern delta region of Egypt where the Israelites lived during their years of slavery.

Family: Son of Amram and Jochebed; brother of Miriam and Moses; his four sons and their descendants became high priests over Israel.

Occupation: Moses' spokesman (Ex. 4:14–16); later, the first high priest over Israel (chs. 28–29; Lev. 4:3, 4; 6:20–22).

Best known as: Moses' brother, who fashioned a golden calf at Mount Sinai (Ex. 32) yet later became the father of the Israelite priesthood.

Chaotic Career Paths

Ex. 4:29

Moses lived thousands of years ago in a vastly different society, yet his life offers significant insights for anyone with a changing or even chaotic career path. Like many of us, Moses went through a series of diverse jobs and unanticipated career changes:

- Member of the royal family. Raised in Pharaoh's court (Ex. 2:10), Moses mastered Egyptian culture and politics (Acts 7:22). He probably did not have the level of responsibility that Joseph had before him (Gen. 41:41), but his privileged position gave him access to the "treasures in Egypt" (Heb. 11:26). He may have thought his position would inevitably launch him into a leadership position over his people, but this forty-year phase of his life ended abruptly when Moses murdered an Egyptian and fled to Midian (Ex. 2:11–15).
- Shepherd. In stark contrast to his previous role, Moses spent the next forty years tending sheep for his father-in-law Jethro (Ex. 3:1). He went from royal splendor to rustic simplicity, from urban sophistication to rural isolation, from ruling an empire to chasing unintelligent sheep. Moses did not choose this season of reduced circumstances, but it was an important time of preparation during his overall story.
- Spiritual and political leader. During his last forty years, Moses led Israel out of Egypt (Ex. 4:27–12:36) and through the wilderness to the Promised Land (12:37–40:38; Lev.; Num.; Deut.). This final assignment utilized skills and experiences from his two previous jobs, with his roles as royal son and Midianite shepherd combining to make Moses the "servant of the LORD" (Deut. 34:5).

Moses lived the first two-thirds of his life in preparation for the final third. For eighty years Moses learned key truths about himself, his world, and his God. This accumulated wisdom proved invaluable as he led the Hebrews to freedom, particularly when the masses turned against God and were sent to wander in the wilderness (Num. 13–14). Moses would never have been fit for that leadership assignment without those eighty years of rigorous preparation.

As we transition through drastic, even unwelcome, career shifts, Moses' work history reminds us that God has a plan to bring us to maturity to accomplish the tasks He has set out for us. He challenges us to willingly accept new assignments and make the most of them.

More: Just as God made use of the natural talents He had built into Moses, He also wants to use the resources He has given us to accomplish His purposes. See "You Are Unique" at Ps. 33:15 and "Native Talent and Supernatural Ability" at Dan. 1:17.

Fear in the Workplace
Ex. 5:6–9

The abuse of fear as a motivating force in the workplace is nothing new; the conflict between Pharaoh and the Hebrews illustrates this. A crushing demand for increased output brought on a crisis in which fear directed the behavior of everyone involved.

- As the Egyptians watched Joseph's descendants rapidly multiply and fill the land, they dreaded an uprising if war should break out (Ex. 1:10, 12).
- When Moses asked for a long holiday for the laborers, Pharaoh's harsh inflexibility and increased demands were driven by fear (5:4, 5).
- Israelite supervisors reacted to Pharaoh's new policy by attacking their own leader, Moses (5:20, 21). They feared the consequences of not meeting Pharaoh's impossible demand (5:19).
- Moses must have deeply feared his people's rejection and the prospect of failure in his God-given mission. As soon as Moses heard the Hebrew supervisors' rebuke, he questioned God and complained that he was the wrong man for the job (5:22, 23).

Whenever investors and owners fear a loss of profit, managers fear a loss of productivity, or workers fear a loss of their livelihood, their fear can distort everyone's outlook, just as it did in this episode. Managing fear and anxiety can be difficult, but God will show us what to do to follow Him rather than to follow these untrustworthy emotions.

From Strangers to Settlers
Ex. 6:2–8

God's promise to give the land of Canaan to Abraham's descendants meant dispossessing the Canaanites, a group of tribes descended from Noah's grandson Canaan (Gen. 10:15–20). They had been Abraham's neighbors and still lived in the land at the time of the Exodus. In the intervening years, their idolatries and immoral behavior had increased to the point where God could no longer hold back His judgment. What actions has God taught you for responding to immoral behavior in your culture? To find out more about the Canaanites' background and civilization, see "The Canaanites" at Joshua 3:10.

Positive Authority
Ex. 6:13

Authority is too often seen as nothing more than keeping others in line and telling them what they cannot do. But God's instructions to Moses show that authority brings freedom when wisely applied under the Lord's direction.

For example, a judge can use authority to release an innocent person from jail. A school administrator can use authority to equip teachers with resources to educate their students more effectively. A manager can use authority to reward a worker's excellent performance and encourage creativity.

At its best, authority can affirm and support rather than control and punish, fostering liberty rather than limitation.

Moses as God

Ex. 7:1

The Lord's statement to Moses that "I have made you as God to Pharaoh" may seem puzzling. But the Egyptian pharaohs were revered as gods with absolute authority; their words were accepted as divine pronouncements. Moses had been raised in the royal court (Ex. 2:8–10), so he knew that Pharaoh would pay little heed to statements made by someone he saw as a mere human. Thus the Lord's message was a reassuring promise to Moses that Pharaoh would see him as a man worth listening to. When have you seen God grease the wheels of communication in a way unexpected?

Set Free to Serve

Ex. 8:1

When God commanded Pharaoh to "let My people go," His intention was not that the Hebrews would run wild but "that they may serve Me."

God doesn't liberate people from slavery—either to earthly oppressors or to sin—to allow them to indulge in selfishness. Instead, He "buys," or redeems, people for Himself to make them His treasured servants.

Biblical freedom does not set us free to do whatever we please. It ushers us into a life of obedient holiness, living as God would have us live (Rom. 6:15–22) and serving others out of love (Gal. 5:13, 14).

An Ecological Disaster
Ex. 8:8–15

The infestation of frogs and the other nine plagues God sent on Egypt created an ecological nightmare. The disruption of the region's natural balance impacted water resources, air quality, plants and animals, and many other environmental systems.

Yet the responsibility for these disasters fell not on God but on Pharaoh. His refusal to obey God—or even to treat his Hebrew laborers with compassion—invited these judgments. Each plague offered an opportunity for Pharaoh to yield, but it was only after God allowed the natural systems of Egypt to fail that Pharaoh finally relented.

The Creator knew exactly how to upset the delicate balance of Egypt's ecosystem to bring proud Pharaoh to his knees. The plagues were undeniable demonstrations of His power, and His sparing of the Israelites showed that God was in supreme control of every natural force.

More: The plagues of Egypt were a precursor to the destructive judgments that will rain down at the end of the world. See "Faith and the Environment" at Rev. 9:4.

The Hard Heart
Ex. 9:12

The statement that God "hardened" Pharaoh's heart may sound as if the king wasn't given the choice to submit to God's repeated demands to release the Israelites. But Pharaoh had the same ability as anyone else to obey God.

God did not intervene in Pharaoh's decisions in a way that took control of his free will. When the text says that God "hardened" or "strengthened" Pharaoh's heart, it is a way of saying that Pharaoh became even more determined. Pharaoh maintained complete responsibility for his decisions, and he made the poor decision to become increasingly determined to resist God and prove his own might.

Not every Egyptian responded to the plagues as Pharaoh did. Some of Pharaoh's own magicians confessed that the miracles of Moses and Aaron were the work of "the finger of God" (Ex. 8:19). A number of Egyptians even joined the Hebrews and left in the Exodus (12:38).

The New Testament presents hard-heartedness as a chronic refusal to respond to God, which can result in a hopeless condition for some believers (Heb. 6:4–12). The writer of Hebrews is careful to point out that "God is not unjust" and warns against sluggish obedience, encouraging readers to be diligent in their labors of love (6:10–12).

More: The Jewish Council was "stiff-necked" and hardhearted when they resisted God and His plans at the trial of Stephen. See Acts 7:51–53.

Overcoming Sarcasm

Ex. 10:10

Mustering the courage to approach a powerful leader is difficult. Encountering derision can make even the brave lose hope.

Pharaoh responded with sarcasm when Moses and Aaron warned of a plague of locusts. Scripture does not specifically state that the brothers felt disheartened by the ruler's taunts, but given Moses' earlier fears (see "Crises of Confidence" at Ex. 3:11–4:17), the two were probably not in high spirits as they left the Egyptian ruler.

The next time you encounter biting sarcasm, especially when it is directed against your faith, here are three ways to handle the situation:

- Know who your God is. If we do not understand God's purposes for us, it will not take much to knock us off course. Maintaining a close relationship with God and reminding ourselves of our mission as His children will ground us in peace despite hurtful comments.
- Know your own strengths and weaknesses. We need to be honest with ourselves about our vulnerabilities. Then we will be ready for the worst anyone can say about us. Being prepared to confront our weaknesses and utilize our strengths will help us identify opportunities for humility and grace.
- Know your enemy. We must not be naive. People will sometimes oppose us. And when they do, we are better prepared if we anticipate what they stand to gain by defeating us or to lose if we prevail. Moreover, we must remember our ultimate Enemy, who seeks to attack us through deceit and mockery.

No adversary can ever ultimately defeat us when we rest in the protection of the Lord.

Give Change a Chance

Ex. 11:1

God had an astonishing amount of patience with stubborn Pharaoh. He could have sent the final devastating plague immediately after Pharaoh's first refusal to free the Hebrews. Instead, He began a systematic course of action to give the ruler a chance to change his mind. Nonetheless, Pharaoh became increasingly hostile to his negotiations with Moses and Aaron (Ex. 7:13, 23; 8:15, 19, 28, 32; 9:7, 12, 34; 10:27, 28).

An agreement was finally reached after the last plague—the death of the firstborn (11:1)—though even then, Pharaoh's true character resurfaced as he pursued the fleeing Hebrews (14:5–9).

In spite of Pharaoh's stubbornness, the long and difficult process of persuasion was worth pursuing. Jumping immediately to the harshest acts of discipline eliminates the opportunity for people to come to their senses. God's treatment of Pharaoh shows how to apply pressure slowly when we confront an inflexible opponent, whether it be a family member, a coworker, or even an institution. By patiently meeting resistance with a carefully graduated series of consequences (always acting with others' best interests at heart), we create the best chance for the other person to grasp the benefits of changing.

The Egyptians
Ex. 11:7

The "difference between the Egyptians and Israel" was enormous.

- The Egyptians were an ancient people; the Israelites were relative newcomers to the Middle East.
- The Egyptians were masters; the Israelites were slaves.
- The Egyptians had a powerful, well-equipped army; the Israelites had no organized military at all.

Yet from the standpoint of Scripture, the most significant difference is that the Egyptians worshiped many gods while the Israelites worshiped the one true God.

Because Egyptian history spans nearly five thousand years (beginning almost three thousand years before the birth of Christ) we must be cautious about making generalizations about the ancient Egyptians. An ancient Egyptian priest named Manetho provided a helpful survey of his nation's history, dividing the kings of Egypt into 30 dynastic families who ruled between 3000 and 300 B.C. These dynasties suggest three major periods of cultural and political achievement, interspersed with periods of relative inactivity:

The Old Kingdom (c. 2700–2200 B.C.)

- Egypt unites as one nation under one king at Memphis (c. 3000 B.C.).
- Irrigation and the plow are introduced.
- The famous pyramids rise.
- People come to believe that the rulers, called pharaohs, are divine.
- The arts, especially painting, sculpture, and architecture, flourish.
- The Great Pyramids and Great Sphinx of Giza are built.
- Civil conflict, famine, and drought lead to the decline and collapse of the Old Kingdom, followed by a period of disunity and hardship.

The Middle Kingdom (c. 2000–1800 B.C.)

- Parallels the time of Abraham's migration to Canaan (Gen. 11:31–12:6) and sojourn in Egypt (12:10–20).
- New kings centralize the government and secure the nation's borders.
- Irrigation projects expand agricultural production.
- Trade with Phoenicia, mining in the Sinai Desert, and at least one military campaign indicate a close relationship with the land of Canaan.
- Growing instability leads to a second intermediate period of weakness (1750–1570 B.C.). During this time . . .
- Many non-Egyptians enter the country, including a group called the Hyksos who take control of the government.
- Joseph rises to a position of great authority (Gen. 39–50).
- The Hyksos are eventually driven out, leading to the New Kingdom era.

The New Kingdom (c. 1570–1100 B.C.)

- Parallels the biblical record from just before the birth of Moses until the time of Samuel.
- Egypt reaches the pinnacle of its power, ruled by kings who have no memory of Joseph (Ex. 1:8).
- The Hebrews experience persecution (1:11).
- Amenhotep II comes to power, possibly as the pharaoh of the Exodus.
- Several years after the Exodus, King Akhenaten abandons traditional Egyptian polytheism and introduces belief in one solar god, Aten, but his attempts at reform are not widely accepted.

- King Tutankhamen rises to power, restoring the worship of many gods at Thebes.
- The capital is relocated from Thebes to Raamses.
- Government corruption, strikes, inflation, and increasing power of the priests bring the New Kingdom to an end.

The Late Period (1100–330 B.C.)

- Fragmentation of Egyptian power allows David and Solomon to establish a strong Israelite kingdom.
- A political marriage is arranged between Solomon and the daughter of a pharaoh (1 Kin. 3:1; see also "Political Marriages" at 2 Sam. 3:13, 14).
- Lack of Egyptian military power forces greater emphasis on peaceful trade relations with neighboring states.
- Shortly after Solomon's death (c. 930 B.C.), King Shishak attacks Jerusalem and plunders gold from the palace and temple (1 Kin. 14:25–28).
- Rulers from Ethiopia and the Egyptian city of Sais govern Egypt for several hundred years until the Babylonians destroy Israel (587 B.C.).
- Assyrians attack Egypt (671 and 664 B.C.), as do the Babylonians (605 B.C.), Persians (525 B.C.), and Greeks (330 B.C.).
- The Ptolemies begin to rule Egypt (323 B.C.), developing Alexandria as a center of culture and learning (see Alexandria's profile and "The Septuagint" at Acts 18:24).

Think About It: How might each of these accomplishments played out differently if it had been accomplished according to God's guidelines?

Remembering God's Action

Ex. 12:26, 27

The Passover was the first of three great festivals of the Hebrews. Its name recalls how God rescued Israel from slavery in Egypt. When Pharaoh refused to free God's people, the Lord sent His angel to kill all of the Egyptians' firstborn sons. He told Hebrew families to sacrifice a lamb and smear its blood on the doorpost of their homes as a signal to God that His angel should "pass over" them and spare them from this punishment. Just as the blood of the lambs saved the Hebrews from destruction in Egypt, the blood of Jesus, the ultimate Passover Lamb, saves us from the power of sin and death (John 1:29).

God instituted the Passover to help succeeding generations of His people grasp what He accomplished in bringing Israel out of Egypt.

The best religious traditions remind us that we are a dependent people. We owe all that we are and have to God's grace. In times of prosperity, we can easily forget God's intervention and blessing. Traditions remind us of events we may not have personally experienced but still need to honor.

Like the ancient Hebrews, we need to remember God's work among us (Deut. 24:9–22; 1 Cor. 11:26). We share the Lord's Supper to recall Jesus' death on the cross. We can use celebrations, symbols, music, and other memorials to express reverence for what God has done for our ancestors and for us. Whether we adhere to detailed, year-long calendars of festivals and holy days, or follow less formal observances, celebrating God's work in previous generations is part of our precious heritage.

More: Passover was just one of Israel's annual celebrations. Over the centuries, Israel's religious leaders sometimes let tradition become more important than God's Word. See "Evaluating Tradition" at Matt. 15:1–3.

Pharaoh's Submission

Ex. 12:29

We may naturally assume that Pharaoh's grief over the loss of his firstborn child was what moved him to finally let the Hebrews go.

But his decision was probably also based on matters of politics and religion.

The tenth plague was the grand finale in a titanic contest to prove who was more powerful, the God of Israel or the god-king of Egypt. To the Egyptians, Pharaoh was not only a ruler but also a god who controlled their fate. When Moses and Aaron claimed to speak for a new god called "the LORD," Pharaoh inquired, "Who is the LORD, that I should obey His voice?" (Ex. 5:2). In effect, Pharaoh was throwing down a challenge to the Lord to prove Himself.

God responded by demonstrating His power through nine catastrophic plagues (see "An Ecological Disaster" at Ex. 8:8–15). Pharaoh resisted all nine. But in the tenth plague, God delivered the ultimate blow and struck down Pharaoh's supposedly divine child. This seriously undercut Pharaoh's credibility and authority as a god. As Scripture points out, this powerful, deified ruler was suddenly no different from the lowest prisoner in his dungeons or even the animals in his fields (12:29).

No wonder Pharaoh's last words convey submission and humility: "Be gone; and bless me also" (12:32). Realizing he had been beaten, the supposedly divine king of Egypt asked for pity from a God he now knew to be supreme.

More: Scripture tells of numerous other "battles" fought between the Lord and pagan gods. Two memorable contests occurred between David and Goliath (see "A Battle of the Gods" at 1 Sam. 17:40–54) and between Elijah and Baal's prophets (see "God Places Value on You" at 1 Kin. 18:37–19:14).

Think About It: What has convinced you that you are not a god? What tempts you to assume you know more than God?

The Leading of the Lord

Ex. 13:21

Miraculous pillars of fire by night and cloud by day (Ex. 13:21; 14:19, 20) must have been reassuring signs to a throng of escaped slaves that their God was present and actively intervening to lead them through the wilderness.

God employed a communication method often used by large traveling groups in the ancient world. Armies marching over long distances, with lines sometimes drawn out for miles, needed a way for troops leading the way to communicate with troops bringing up the rear. Leaders lit a brazier of burning coals to carry at the front of the march. At night, the fire provided a light that could be seen for miles. During the day, water poured on the coals produced a cloud of smoke and steam. Rear-guard troops traveling over unfamiliar terrain had only to march toward these beacons to stay on course. In Israel's case, God Himself was in the fire and cloud, which He produced supernaturally.

When we wish for clear direction today, we may not find pillars of fire and cloud in the skies, but we can be assured that God communicates to us through the Bible, His written revelation to humanity. The vast majority of what we need to know about God's will is laid out in Scripture. If we aim toward that, we usually end up in the right spot.

Scripture does not offer turn-by-turn directions for every detail of life—what job we should pursue, where we should live, how many hours we should sleep. For many decisions we are meant to exercise our practical intelligence, just as the Israelites had to make their own decisions about how to cross a particular stream, how much baggage to load on an animal, or how many layers of clothing to wear each day.

God still sometimes leads us through supernatural intervention, and we can also rely on prayer and the conviction of the Holy Spirit. But the Bible puts God's plans right in front of us, ready to provide answers to any who seek them.

More: Gideon is often cited as a model for godly decision-making, but he also exhibited hesitation and fear in his quest to know God's will. See "Fleece? Only One Believer Used It" at Judg. 6:36–40.

Miracles Do Not Happen Every Day

Ex. 14:21

The parting of the Red Sea is one of the Bible's most renowned miracles. A miracle might be defined as a supernatural intervention by God into the world's natural order to accomplish His purposes and glorify His name.

God usually allows the universe to operate according to the laws of physics that He ordained. The Red Sea, for example, normally obeys the law of gravity and its waters remain unparted. But at times God overrules natural law and causes extraordinary things to happen. These are true miracles (also called signs, wonders, or mighty acts), as when God pushed aside the waters of the Red Sea to allow the Hebrews to cross on dry ground.

Because Scripture records some 150 miracles, we might expect God to perform miracles on our behalf whenever the need arises. Yet miracles by definition are uncommon. Moreover, a study of the miracles in the Bible shows an interesting pattern of occurrence. Most miracles seem to be clustered around four key periods:

1. Israel's early history. During the Exodus from Egypt and the initial conquest of the Promised Land, God performed many miraculous acts. These are recorded in Exodus, Leviticus, Numbers, and Joshua.
2. The prophetic ministries of Elijah and Elisha. God performed numerous miracles to help Elijah and Elisha warn His people about their sinful ways. These are recorded in 1 and 2 Kings.
3. Jesus' life. When Jesus Christ came to show us God's character and to provide salvation through the Cross, dozens of miracles authenticated His ministry. These are recorded in the four Gospels: Matthew, Mark, Luke, and John.
4. The early church. As the Holy Spirit filled and mobilized the early church to spread the gospel to all peoples, another cluster of miracles took place, especially through founding leaders such as Peter and Paul. Many of these are recorded in Acts.

Without question, God performs miracles, intervening in the natural order of the universe whenever and however He chooses. But the biblical record of miracles should balance our expectations. On the one hand, we should avoid counting on a miracle when, by its very nature, it is not something to be expected. On the other hand, we should never say never to what God can accomplish.

More: Jesus refused to oblige His opponents' demands for miracles, yet He performed plenty of them for all to see. See "The Miracles of Jesus" at Mark 8:11, 12.

What Is God Like?
Ex. 15:6–13

Some people see two Gods in the Bible—a "God of the Old Testament" who is violent and retaliatory and a "God of the New Testament" who is loving and conciliatory. However, a careful reading of the Scriptures reveals one God who is good, true, powerful, pure, and compassionate—and never vindictive or brutal. Moses' song to the Lord describes Him as . . .

- Powerful (Ex. 15:6). Moses praised God's triumph in war. This victory should be seen in light of Pharaoh's evil record (chs. 1–14). God dispenses justice to all—and ultimately His just nature led Him to sacrifice His own Son on behalf of sinners (John 3:16–21; Rom. 5:8, 18–21). God uses His awesome power to show compassion to the lost or to render justice to those who resist His eternal reign (Ex. 15:18).
- Pure (15:11). God's character is holy, a moral perfection that sets Him apart from all selfish motives and from all other so-called gods (1 Sam. 2:2; Rev. 15:4). His holiness establishes consequences for sinful behavior. Created in the image of God, we find our joy in being the holy people God desires us to be (Is. 1:10–14; Mic. 6:6–8; Matt. 12:7).
- Compassionate (Ex. 15:13). God shows love and mercy toward us even though we turn from Him and disobey (Dan. 9:9; 1 Tim. 1:13, 16). None of us deserves this love (Rom. 3:9–20; 9:14–18), which can only come from God (John 3:11–21).

The Old Testament story is at times cruel and ugly. But the horror comes not from God but from human cruelty and rebellion. Nor does the New Testament tell only a peaceful and pleasant tale. Jesus' voluntary death on behalf of guilty sinners portrays human brutality at its worst. Scripture does not avoid the dark story of a fallen humanity, but it also offers bright hope. A good, true, powerful, pure, and compassionate God has reached out to us and provided a way to Himself.

Leadership Challenges
Ex. 17:2

Moses learned what countless leaders throughout history have discovered: life is hard at the top.

Lacking water, the people complained bitterly to their leader as if he had caused the situation or had the power to fix it.

This incident reminds us that our correctly exercising authority does not guarantee that others will treat us favorably. A good leader often must make a trade-off between being steadfast and being popular. When we are in charge, we should not be shocked when people complain despite our attempts to do right or simply to do our best.

Think About It: What other leadership principles definitely don't work? What ways have you found to redemptively manage complaints?

God's Promise, Our Responsibility
Ex. 17:14–16

The Lord vowed to "blot out the remembrance of Amalek" for the Amalekites' unprovoked attack on the Israelites at Rephidim. Years later, God gave Israel's first king an opportunity to fulfill this promise—a responsibility that he failed to carry out, leading to further conflict and destruction for Israel until another group of people took up the charge.

Jethro

Ex. 18:1

Name means: "Excellence."

Also known as: Reuel ("Friend of God"; Ex. 2:18), Raguel (variant form of Reuel; see footnote at Num. 10:29), and Hobab ("Beloved"; Judg. 4:11).

Home: Midian, near the Sinai Peninsula, east of the Gulf of Aqaba.

Family: Father of Zipporah; father-in-law of Moses.

Occupation: Priest of Midian.

Best known for: Offering wise management advice to his overburdened son-in-law Moses, helping him delegate judicial responsibilities to others (18:13–23).

Practical Principles for Leadership

Ex. 18:13–23

Organizations rise or fall with their leadership. And while the Bible was not composed as a management manual, it nevertheless offers marvelous principles to help leaders serve people more effectively. Several passages directly relate to leadership issues, and Moses' conversation with Jethro is one of the most significant. Several practical pointers may be drawn from their exchange:

- Moses, a man of authority, respected the authority of Jethro (Ex. 18:7, 24). Moses could have grown defensive when Jethro offered advice. Instead, he showed respect, listened, and responded willingly to his father-in-law's counsel. We cannot expect people to respect our authority if we disrespect authorities over us.
- Authority is intoxicating (18:14, 15). Moses apparently knew little about delegating responsibility. When Jethro asked him why "you alone sit, and all the people stand before you," Moses replied that "the people come to me to inquire of God." This statement could reflect the allure of being in charge. Fortunately, Moses gave up some of his control. We will never exercise authority wisely if we are addicted to the ego boost of having others depend on us.
- Authority should be invested in others prudently (18:21). Jethro did not suggest that Moses fill a handful of leadership positions with relatives and cronies. He described job qualifications based on proven character, offering a reminder that leadership is a privilege, not a right. We must consider the quality and ability of prospective appointees rather than make decisions based purely on personal preference.
- Authority is a resource, not a reserve (18:22, 23). By delegating authority to subordinates, Moses could take the people further as a community than if he retained control alone. Rather than thinking of authority as a position to be preserved, we should regard it as a resource to expend, empowering others to act more effectively.
- Effective leadership increases the health and longevity of an organization and its people (18:22, 23). Moses probably prolonged his own life and ensured the nation's progress by appointing effective judges. No organization can survive if only a handful of its workers shoulder the work. When we give each member a stake in the outcome, we bring far more eyes, ears, brains, and hands to bear on complex decisions. This contributes to the good of all.

More: Additional principles of leadership can be observed in Nehemiah. See "Leadership Principles from Nehemiah" at Neh. 1:1. One unique contribution of biblical leadership models is the idea that leadership starts with humility. See "Leading to Serve" at John 13:1–20.

A Workaholic Intervention

Ex. 18:18

Moses was a workaholic headed toward a breakdown. Fortunately, his astute father-in-law saw what Moses could not. Moses' failure to delegate authority would eventually exhaust him, decrease his effectiveness, and exasperate his people. Jethro saw the looming danger and spoke up to warn his son-in-law.

Workaholics may need deliberate intervention when they don't see the damage their compulsive work habits cause themselves and the people around them. Worse yet, when things go badly, they work harder, making the problem even more serious.

We may need to be a Jethro by taking someone aside and explaining the real cost of excessive work. We can offer strategies for change and suggest resources for help. If we ourselves tend toward overwork, chances are good that a Jethro is already prodding us to slow down.

Maybe our Jethro is a spouse we seldom engage in meaningful conversation. Maybe it is a son or daughter who long ago gave up expecting us to take time out to play or talk. Maybe it is a friend we avoid because we hate having our unhealthy habits called out.

Moses responded well and immediately to Jethro's suggestions (Ex. 18:24). Like Moses, we have the opportunity to let confrontations and caring advice roll off our backs, or to take action and make a change for the better.

More: God always intended for mankind to work, and He created work to be inherently good. See "God: The Original Worker" at John 5:17. However, God also intended for people to rest from their labors. See "Weekly Day of Rest" at Gen. 2:1–3 and "The Human Machine" at Ex. 23:12.

Where God Meets Us

Ex. 19:1, 20

God doesn't dwell on mountains, but He chose Mount Sinai as the place to meet Moses to deliver the Law. He also chose other sites as locations for special appearances. See "Sacred Space" at Genesis 28:22. Elijah also heard God's voice at Mount Sinai, but under radically different circumstances. See "The Mountain of God" at 1 Kings 19:8.

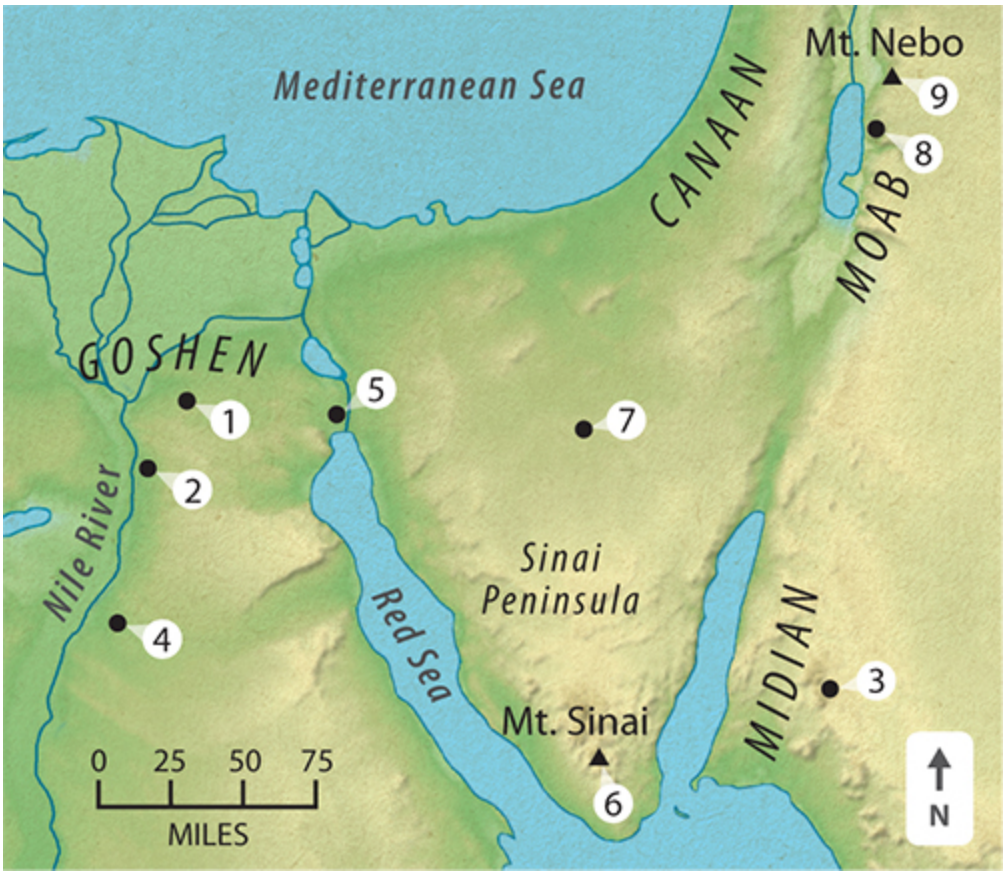
Mapping the Life of Moses

Ex. 19:3

The ascent of Mount Sinai to receive the Law may have been the climax of Moses' 120-year life, but there were many other important times spent in a wide variety of places:



1. Moses was born to Hebrew slaves in Egypt, possibly in the land of Goshen (Ex. 2:1, 2; compare Gen. 47:27; Ex. 8:22).
2. At three months of age, Moses was hidden by his mother in “the river,” presumably the Nile, where he was found by Pharaoh’s daughter. She adopted him and he grew up in the royal family, possibly at Thebes (Ex. 2:3–10).
3. Moses fled to Midian after killing a Egyptian (Ex. 2:11–15). He met Reuel (Jethro) and married his daughter (2:16–22). After 40 years, God called Moses to lead His people out of Egypt (3:1–4:17).
4. Moses returned to Egypt, where he called down ten plagues on the Egyptians until Pharaoh permitted the Israelites to leave (Ex. 5–13).
5. Moses led his people across the Red Sea (Ex. 14).
6. God gave Moses the Law and instructions concerning the tabernacle at Mount Sinai (Ex. 19–31).
7. For 40 years Moses led the people through the wilderness (Lev., Num.).
8. On the plains of Moab, Moses reviewed the Law and prepareed a new generation to enter the Promised Land (Deut. 1–33).

9. Moses viewed Canaan from the top of Mount Nebo before dying. God buried him in an unmarked grave near Beth Peor (Deut. 34).

Holy Sex

Ex. 19:15

After coming down from the mountain, Moses "sanctified" the people (Ex. 19:14), making them ritually clean to stand before God. Part of the ritual cleansing was abstaining from sexual relations for three days. As the people prepared to meet God at Sinai, Moses warned the men of Israel, "Do not come near your wives" (19:15).

This does not suggest that sex is somehow sinful or dirty, because ceremonial uncleanness is not the same as moral uncleanness. Part of the ceremonial cleansing also involved washing clothes (19:14), and dirty clothes obviously are not sinful.

When Moses instructed the people to refrain from sex as they prepared to meet God, perhaps the goal was to focus their minds and hearts on the important event they were about to witness. But one fact is certain: sex is not unholy. The Bible teaches that sexual intimacy between married partners is natural and expected, a sacred act that God has blessed (1 Cor. 7:1–5; Heb. 13:4).

The Ten Commandments: A Summary of God's Law

Ex. 20:1–17

In His divine Law, God gave the Israelites more than six hundred specific commandments. All of them were based on the Ten Commandments, the summary of the Law recorded on stone tablets and stored in the ark of the Testimony (25:16). To learn more about the practical implications of these ten fundamentals, see the articles here in Exodus 20 as well as the following:

God and Art

Ex. 20:4–6

Since the time God commanded His people not to make carved images, some people have wrongly concluded that He opposes all art. But the second Commandment simply prohibits creating or treating anything as a substitute for God, a point made clear by the command, "You shall not bow down to them nor serve them," meaning idols.

For four hundred long years, the Israelites had watched their Egyptian neighbors worship carvings of animals and other idolatrous images. Scripture denounces such foolish practices (Ps. 115:4–8), but Scripture never denounces art. God often called the Hebrews to use art in worshiping Him.

- Artists were to use costly materials to make exquisite tabernacle furnishings and priestly vestments (Ex. 25–28).
- The builders of the tabernacle were supervised by Bezalel and Aholiab, skilled artisans to whom the Spirit gave special artistic abilities and craftsmanship (28:3; 35:30–36:5).

- For the temple at Jerusalem, construction workers followed God's detailed instructions, creating an architectural masterpiece that dazzled all who saw it (see "Sparing No Expense" at 1 Kin. 5:5).
- Musicians and poets composed hymns and psalms that inspired Hebrew worship and later moved Christians to praise God (see "Psalms into Hymns" at Ps. 103:1).

These artistic achievements could not be more different from the golden calf the Israelites fashioned in the wilderness (Ex. 32:1–6). On that occasion, having been called and equipped by God to create a beautiful place of worship, they instead resorted to idolatry, breaking the second Commandment almost as soon as God had given it. The problem was not art itself but the rebellious twisting of creativity into an evil God never intended.

Keeping the Sabbath

Ex. 20:8–11

The fourth Commandment says to keep the Sabbath (literally the "Day of Cessation") "holy." To understand the power and meaning of this command, we must look back to the prologue to the Ten Commandments (Ex. 20:2). It is critical that we read each of God's commands in the context of the close relationship between God and His people:

- He is our sovereign Lord.
- He is our Almighty God.
- He is our Deliverer.
- He is our Savior.
- We are His children.

When God's people recognize and value our relationship to the Lord, we will exhibit the behaviors outlined in the Ten Commandments. We will, for example, set aside one day each week, the "Day of Cessation," to intentionally emulate what our Lord did on the seventh day of creation.

On that seventh day, God rested, or ceased, from His creative labors. He did not stop sustaining, maintaining, and redeeming the world, but He did pause from creating, shaping, and forming it.

That is what God asks His people to do: to set the day apart for Him, to savor our relationship with Him, to do what He loves and desires—everything except the routine labors meant for the other six days of the week.

Christians have some latitude in how they fulfill God's intentions for the Sabbath (see "The Lord's Day" at Rom. 14:5–13). But the spirit of keeping the Sabbath holy still means honoring God, focusing on others rather than ourselves, and pursuing fellowship, unity, and compassion for other believers.

More: To discover more about the origins of the Sabbath, see "Weekly Day of Rest" at Gen. 2:1–3.

You Shall Not Covet

Ex. 20:17

The biblical word translated covet refers to many different types of desire, including a wrong desire for something that belongs to someone else (Deut. 5:21) and an inordinate attachment to one's own property.

It is also possible to covet things that belong to God. When the Israelites entered the Promised Land, a man named Achan took treasure from the ruins of Jericho, items God had claimed as His own (Josh. 6:17–19; 7:20, 21). Such desire amounts to idolatry, elevating a thing above God. Scripture warns us to lay aside this kind of covetousness (see "Everyday Idolatry" at Col. 3:5).

The word sometimes translated covet can also refer to a good desire. For example, God's judgments are to be "desired" more than gold (Ps. 19:10). So whether a longing is right or wrong depends on the object of our desires. To desire the righteous gifts of God is an act of goodness, but to love anything more than God is to commit the sins of coveting and idolatry.

Slavery Has Existed for Too Long

Ex. 21:2

Slavery has existed across many cultures throughout most of the world's history. The Hebrews had been slaves in Egypt, and they held servants and slaves in the Promised Land. Biblical laws concerning slavery did not condone the practice, and they did limit its worst aspects. Early Christians rightly wrestled with the conflict between their faith and the institution of slavery (see "Who You Serve" at Rom. 6:16).

Express Practical Justice

Ex. 21:28–36

Because God gave His law to an agricultural society, the law includes detailed codes regarding open pits and goring oxen. Nevertheless, agrarian principles of caring for human life and safety, and of awarding restitution for personal injury carry over into any society.

God also took a strong interest in preventive health care (for example, Lev. 13:1–59), including community and workplace safety. An injured party was due restitution appropriate to the case: the penalties for injuring another person approximated the loss suffered by the injured party (for example, Ex. 21:23, 24; Lev. 24:17–22).

However, the Law did not allow for injured parties to profit from their losses.

These Old Testament prescriptions for settling property and injury cases can inform our perspective as citizens of a litigious society. While we are not bound by the same civil codes as the Hebrews, we can learn much from their practical approach to offering and seeking restitution.

Make the Punishment Fit the Crime

Ex. 22:1–4

Devising just penalties is a challenge in any legal system. But Old Testament laws concerning the theft of animals show how to make the punishment fit the crime. The penalty for stealing and slaughtering or selling an animal was more than double the penalty for stealing an animal and then getting caught, likely because slaughtering or selling the stolen goods increased the costs of apprehending, trying, and convicting the thief.

Disposing of stolen goods also demonstrated the thief's determination to avoid repayment. The heavier punishment provides a biblical basis for graduated penalties based on a criminal's attempt to evade capture and conviction.

Killing in Self-Defense

Ex. 22:2, 3

The Law explicitly permitted defensive use of lethal force by private citizens, but not in all situations. At night, one could kill an intruder, but after sunrise, one could not. Why? At night a homeowner could not tell whether an intruder meant to steal or to kill. In daylight, it would be easier to discern an intruder's intent. The homeowner could not kill a thief who merely threatened property because life is more valuable than any possession. But the homeowner was allowed to kill in response to a threat against human life.

This section of the Law dealt with theft, not murder. Self-defense against a potential murderer was permitted at any time, night or day, but killing a thief solely to protect property was not allowed. Citizens were to depend on community authorities to capture the thief, restore stolen property, and impose a penalty for the theft.

Accidental Damage
Ex. 22:5, 6

When people inflict harm on people or property unintentionally, laws concerning reckless injury set forth a principle of restitution. Modern insurance and other sources of financial aid may make our situation somewhat different, but Scripture strongly supports people's right to security for both their persons and their property.

Safekeeping
Ex. 22:7

Leaving valuables with a neighbor for safekeeping was common in Old Testament times. Institutional banking was not practiced in ancient Israel until the time of the Babylonian captivity (beginning in 587 B.C.). This lack of depositories may have shaped the monetary and lending policies of the Israelites. See "Banking in the Old Testament" at Deuteronomy 15:2.

The Bride-Price

Ex. 22:16, 17

The bride-price was a sum paid to a bride's family to acknowledge the financial loss created by the woman's marriage. Since a woman became part of her husband's family, her marriage caused her original family to lose a valuable worker. The bride-price repaid at least a portion of the family's loss. It was often a gift of substantial value.

In a few instances, the Bible reports that brides received gifts from their families when they married. Laban gave maids to his daughters Leah and Rachel when they married Jacob (Gen. 29:24, 29). Caleb gave springs of water to his daughter (Josh. 15:19). And when the daughter of Pharaoh married Solomon, she was given an entire city (1 Kin. 9:16).

Protect the Widows and Orphans

Ex. 22:22–24

James wrote in his New Testament letter that part of "pure and undefiled religion" was to "visit orphans and widows in their trouble" (James 1:27). He may have had in mind the Law's express prohibition against mistreating those without husbands or fathers.

Widows and orphans (along with aliens; Deut. 27:19) were more likely to be oppressed by evildoers because they had no one looking out for them. They may also have lacked means to seek legal recourse for wrongs they suffered even though systems existed to provide such protection.

God's people were commanded to pay special attention to these disadvantaged persons. The community was to ensure not only that they were free from oppression but also that their situation did not leave them without provisions (14:29; 16:11–14; 24:19–21; 26:12, 13). We too have a responsibility to care for those who have been left without means of support. Our responsibility begins, of course, with caring for our own relatives in distress (1 Tim. 5:8).

Charitable Loans to the Poor

Ex. 22:25–27

Some Christians believe that the Bible prohibits charging interest on any loan, citing texts such as Exodus 22:25–27. In applying biblical principles to modern financial transactions, it is crucial to remember that the Old Testament law helped structure a theocracy, a society fully dedicated to God. Societies and economies that operate on secular and pluralistic values have radically different systems.

Even so, God's people can still pursue the spirit of the Law. God prohibited charging interest on loans to the poor because doing so would cause oppression. The understanding was that the destitute had no choice but to seek a loan in order to survive, having nothing to offer as collateral but the clothes off their backs. Profiting from such a person's plight would be cruel. It meant making a poor person shiver in the cold for the sake of economic gain.

Lending at no interest requires a loss of value to us as lenders because of inflation, meaning that money's present value is greater than its future value. Furthermore, the money we loan cannot be used to buy goods or services. Yet our loss can be an appropriate gift to the poor borrower.

God promises to bless us if we live with open hands toward the needy, for He hears their cries (compare Deut. 15:11). God also promises to exact vengeance on those who torment the destitute (Ex. 22:22–24; James 5:1–6). He is their loving Protector, and as His representatives, we should work to emulate His generosity and compassion.

More: In a society dominated by the middle class, it can sometimes be hard to identify the proper recipients of charity and the best ways to help people at different levels of need. See "Who Are the Poor?" at 2 Cor. 9:9, 10.

A Year Off

Ex. 23:10, 11

It is hard to imagine an entire country halting work for twelve months. Yet that is exactly what God told Israel to do every seventh year. People were to quit working the land and rest from ordinary labor. Bondservants were to be set free (Ex. 21:2, 3; Deut. 15:12–18), and debt payments were to be suspended (15:1–3).

God's people were to survive during that twelve-month holiday through the Lord blessing their harvest in the sixth year. He promised to make their harvest during the sixth year produce enough for three years, enough to feed the country until the harvest of the eighth year. That gift had one condition: Israel had to faithfully follow sabbatical year regulations (Lev. 25:18–22).

We have no record that they ever did.

The Law's emphasis on rest challenges our compulsive habits. Our patterns of work and rest reveal, among other elements, how much we trust God's provision. We can ponder how we would have lived as an Israelite in Old Testament times—whether we would have trusted

God enough to rest one day each week (Ex. 23:12) and one year out of every seven. How does He want us to work six days in our times? How does He want us to rest one day each week in our times?

More: The Law established every fiftieth year as a Jubilee year, which, like a sabbatical year, mandated that fields lie fallow. If a sabbatical year and a Jubilee year came back-to-back, workers would enjoy two years off. To find out more about the Jubilee year, see Lev. 25:8–17.

The Human Machine

Ex. 23:12

God knew His creatures so well that His law granted people and animals a day of rest each week. Neither humans nor beasts are capable of working without ceasing. Yet the age we live in has a tendency to regard people as machines rather than living beings who require rest and refreshment. This trend is accelerated by an increasingly widespread belief system that reduces everything to the material and ignores the spiritual side of life.

The Law's amplification of the fourth Commandment to keep the Sabbath holy (20:8–11) reflects God's view of both work and humanity. We are not products of technology capable of nonstop activity. We are living souls made in God's image (Gen. 1:27). Consequently, just as He rested from His work, so should we.

More: As creatures made in God's image, we are God's coworkers in overseeing creation, a fact with profound implications for day-to-day work. See "People at Work" at Ps. 8:6.

We Need Places to Worship

Ex. 25:8

A sanctuary or place of worship is often referred to as "God's house," yet that term can be misleading. God, who is spirit and present everywhere (Ps. 139:7–10; John 4:24), does not need a house to live in. God instructed His people to build a worship center so He could "dwell among them" not because He needed a place to live but because they needed a place to worship. The sanctuary, or tabernacle, was for their benefit more than His, as evidenced by the details of its construction (Ex. 25–31).

The former slaves of Egypt had probably seen magnificent temples in the empire along the Nile. The Israelites may have even helped construct some of them. Yet as refugees in the wilderness, they had no central location for worshiping the God who had delivered them from bondage. They must have been awed to hear the Lord's plans for an exquisite sanctuary of their own, outfitted with finely crafted fixtures and ornaments.

The tabernacle was a true work of art. Craftsmen and artists led the project, demonstrating that they too were among Israel's Spirit-filled leaders, along with Moses and priests God appointed (31:1–11). The craftsmen's and artists' wisdom, management ability, and technical expertise made it possible for the entire community to join in the work (39:42).

Funding the tabernacle construction was also a community effort. Financed by freewill offerings (25:2–9) in addition to a mandatory tax (30:12–16), the rich and poor alike shared the cost, and therefore the ownership, of the project.

When we participate in financing and building our church facilities, we gain a deeper participation in the worship that happens there. We can know that we have built a sanctuary for God to dwell among us.

The Ark of the Covenant

Ex. 25:16

The ark, commonly known as the ark of the Testimony or the ark of the covenant, was the most sacred of all the furnishings in the tabernacle. A chest that measured approximately forty-five inches long, twenty-seven inches wide, and twenty-seven inches deep, it held three priceless items: a copy of the stone tablets on which the Ten Commandments were written (Ex. 25:16, 21), a golden pot of manna from the wilderness journey (16:32–34), and Aaron's rod, which blossomed when God chose the tribe of Levi to be priests among the Israelites (Num. 17:1–11).

More: During the latter years of the period of the judges, the Israelites suffered a major spiritual, political, and military defeat when they foolishly carried the ark into battle, where it was captured by the enemy. See "The Capture and Return of the Ark" at 1 Sam. 5:11.

Think About It: The ark symbolized God's presence. It wasn't the only way to meet God. What places and items remind you of God's presence? Why?

Seeking Guidance Through the Urim and Thummim

Ex. 28:30

God provided the Urim (meaning “Lights”) and Thummim (meaning “Perfections”) as a means of divine guidance for Israel. They involved gems or stones either attached to or carried inside the breastplate worn by the high priest when he consulted God. For this reason, the breastplate is often called the “breastplate of judgment” (Ex. 28:15, 29, 30).

While we know that this decision-making system existed, no one knows with certainty how it worked. The Urim and Thummim are mentioned only three other times in the Pentateuch (Lev. 8:8; Num. 27:21; Deut. 33:8), once during the early monarchy (1 Sam. 28:6), and twice after the Babylonian exile (Ezra 2:63; Neh. 7:65). There is no specific indication that the people used them to make decisions at other times.

There is wide speculation about how the Urim and Thummim delivered a verdict. Some believe that the gemstones were cast like dice. Others argue that the stones were engraved with symbols that signified yes or no, true or false. The Jewish historian Josephus (c. A.D. 37–100) believed that the Urim and Thummim had to do with the flashing of the precious stones in the breastplate. Other writers, theorizing that the Urim and Thummim were in fact the very same stones set into the breastplate, held that the letters in the names of the twelve tribes of Israel engraved on the stones stood out or flashed in succession to spell out God’s reply. Another theory says that by staring at the glow of the stones, the high priest went into a trance during which God spoke to him.

All of these theories are pure guesswork. However, it is obvious that in the days before much of the Scriptures were written or collected, the people needed some other form of divine guidance.

We now have God’s complete written revelation and therefore have no need for devices such as the Urim and Thummim.

Atonement Money
Ex. 30:12–16

As the children of Israel prepared to cross the wilderness, God told Moses to count them all. This first nationwide census of Israel counted everyone twenty years old and above (this likely included only men, who were the heads of their families). The count was followed by a levy of half a shekel of silver on each person numbered. That amount, perhaps about five dollars in the modern market, was small enough that every family could pay it, whether rich or poor.

The collection helped furnish the tabernacle, but it also had an important symbolic value: it was deemed a "ransom . . . to the LORD" and "atonement money." It represented the atonement for sin made by Christ, which was also foreshadowed by the "blood of the sin offering of atonement" (Ex. 30:10). The small size of the tax may have been a reminder that God does not desire money but instead desires that His followers experience the important act of giving and the uplifting discovery that when people work together, even small gifts can serve big needs.

Called by Name
Ex. 31:1–11

God is the Author and Enabler of every human ability.

He gives talents to each person on earth to accomplish important work. Here He names two specific men that He made to be craftsmen (Ex. 31:2, 6). He filled people like Bezalel and Aholiab with wisdom, understanding, and knowledge by His Spirit, enabling them to carry out wonderful tasks.

During the construction of the tabernacle, God took a strong interest in the beauty, craftsmanship, materials, artistry, design, function, colors, and other details of the work. Rather than leave the results to chance, He gave Moses instructions about every aspect of the job (35:25–35; 36:1–8; 38:22, 23; 39:3–27).

All of this shows that our personal abilities are special gifts designed by God, not to be taken for granted, viewed with pride, or compared unfavorably to the abilities of others (1 Cor. 4:7; 2 Cor. 10:12). God knows our names and every skill and task He has assigned to us. Every human ability is designed by God and matters to Him—whether playing the flute in a high school band or composing grand orchestral music; laying a straight line of bricks or designing an elaborate garden; cooking, drawing, teaching, encouraging—the list goes on and on (see "You Are Unique" at Ps. 33:15). Our job is to discover our gifts and make the most of them for His glory.

Bezalel and Aholiab

Ex. 31:2–7

Names mean: "In the Shadow of God" (Bezalel); "Tent of the Father" (Aholiab).

Family: Bezalel was from the tribe of Judah; son of Uri; descended from Perez. Aholiab was from the tribe of Dan; son of Ahisamach.

Occupation: Master craftsmen; both were skilled in working with metal, jewelry, and wood, as well as weaving and embroidering; they were also able to teach others (Ex. 35:30–35).

Best known for: The artisans skilled by the Spirit of God to design, embellish, and oversee the construction of the tabernacle (31:3; 36:1).

We Need More Than Seeing to Believe

Ex. 32:1–4

People sometimes say they would believe in God if they could just see Him. This common protest implies that God has not revealed Himself plainly enough for people to believe in and follow Him.

But we need more than seeing to believe. One of the prime occasions when God revealed Himself visibly to human beings took place atop Mount Sinai. God's presence descended on the mountain for days, producing a spectacular display of thunder, lightning, trumpet sounds, and smoke. The overwhelming sight caused people to tremble with fear (Ex. 19:16; 20:18).

Clearly people were convinced that they were standing before God—yet while this may have verified His existence, it did not change the people's hearts. Even as the Lord's presence hovered over the mountain, the Israelites fashioned an idol and began worshiping it in riotous abandon (32:1–6). What an incredible rejection of God!

History offers ample evidence of God's revelation of Himself to humanity. Creation reveals His existence (Ps. 19:1–4; Rom. 1:19, 20), the Bible reveals His will (John 5:46, 47), and Jesus Christ reveals His Person (1:14; 14:7–11). If these and countless other signs are not enough to persuade someone to turn to God in faith and obedience, probably nothing else will—not bolts of lightning, not the thunder of His voice, not even someone rising from the dead (Luke 16:31).

Authority Is a Two-Way Street

Ex. 32:7, 8

The success or failure of any venture often comes down to good leadership. Yet at Mount Sinai we find that even the ultimate leader—God Himself—experienced the disappointment of a mission gone awry.

Authority is a two-way street. It involves not only the exercise of a superior's authority but also a subordinate's willingness to follow. Israel declined to accept God's leadership not only here but on many other occasions. When we wish that our bosses, pastors, or political leaders were more assertive, we can help by respecting the authority they do exercise. Our following can help inspire their leading.

Moses Matures

Ex. 32:10

Moses is widely considered one of the greatest heroes of the Bible. Yet his life was marked not only by success but also by failures and mistakes. When we struggle with our own personal growth and spiritual development, we can look to the life of Moses for encouragement.

Moses did not start out as a giant of the faith. Nor did he end his career in a blaze of glory. Yet God honored this man's lifelong quest for godliness. The record of this quest resembles the path we are called to walk as followers of Christ (Eph. 4:15; Col. 1:10; 2 Pet. 3:18).

First Forty Years

- Born to minority parents enslaved to cruel Egyptian masters (Ex. 1:7–14; 2:1, 2; Acts 7:19, 20);
- Raised by his mother, who had become his nurse (Ex. 2:4, 7–9);
- Adopted by Pharaoh's daughter (2:5, 6; Acts 7:21, 22);
- Given the name Moses ("Drawn Out"; Ex. 2:10);
- Presumably became a bicultural member of the Egyptian court;
- Educated in Egyptian culture and language, making him uniquely gifted in words and deeds (Acts 7:22).

First Transition

- Rescued a Hebrew slave by killing an Egyptian (Ex. 2:11, 12; Acts 7:23, 24);
- Feared for his life and fled to the desert (Ex. 2:13–15; Acts 7:25–29).

Second Forty Years

- Arrived in Midian and showed compassion by protecting and helping rural shepherdesses (Ex. 2:15–17);
- Appeared to be an Egyptian to the Midianites (2:19);
- Invited to join Jethro's family; married Jethro's daughter Zipporah, who bore him a son named Gershom (2:21, 22) and a son named Eliezer (18:4);
- Rediscovered his Hebrew roots and learned shepherding, a despised vocation among his Egyptian stepfamily (3:1; compare Gen. 46:34).

Second Transition

- Received a call from God to deliver the Hebrews from slavery (Ex. 3:7–10);
- Resisted the assignment, citing a lack of credentials, an inability to communicate well, and other excuses (3:11–4:17);
- Finally obeyed and returned to Egypt (4:18–20), almost losing his life on the way (4:24–26);
- Rejoined his older brother Aaron, who became his partner in the task of freeing the Hebrews (4:27, 28);
- Stated his demand for freedom to Pharaoh, ended up making life worse for the Hebrews (5:1–19), and faced severe criticism from the people for their new troubles (5:20–23);
- Challenged the Egyptian power structure and its beneficiaries through a series of heaven-sent plagues (7:14–12:32).

Third Forty Years

- Led his people out of Egypt after plundering their former masters (Ex. 12:31–51);
- Confronted by complaints from the people about his leadership and their desert trials (15:22–16:36);
- Received the Law from God and presented it to the people (chs. 20–23);
- Interceded for the people after they committed idolatry (32:1–35);
- Delegated authority and established arbitration procedures (Num. 11:1–35);
- Survived opposition from his sister Miriam and his brother Aaron (12:1–16);
- Made a major mistake by striking a rock instead of speaking to it as God had instructed (20:11–13);
- Named Joshua as his successor (27:12–23);
- Committed the Law to the priests as its teachers and administrators when the people settled the Promised Land (Deut. 31:9, 26);
- Gave his farewell address to the people (chs. 32–33);
- Viewed the Land of Promise from a distance (34:1–4);
- Died and was mourned by the people (34:5–8).

Aaron's Excuses

Ex. 32:22–24

Aaron started out as a competent leader. But the incident with the golden calf shows him abdicating his leadership role and allowing the people to corrupt themselves in Moses' absence. His excuses did not justify the situation or let him escape responsibility. For insight into Aaron as a strong leader who nevertheless displayed tragic weaknesses and fell into sin, see "Falling Short" at Leviticus 10:19.

Bring It to Him

Ex. 32:31–35

The episode of the people bowing before the golden calf brought the Israelites very close to being instantly consumed by the Lord's wrath. Only Moses' earnest intervention averted immediate judgment. This scene is one of many in Scripture showing the necessity of bringing our sins before God to seek His mercy and forgiveness. Friends of God

Ex. 33:11

Moses spoke to God as his friend. And thanks to Jesus Christ, Christians are also God's friends: "No longer do I call you servants," He told His followers, "for a servant does not know what his master is doing; but I have called you friends" (John 15:15, emphasis added). We need never think that we are alone in our problems. God is right here with us. He is the Friend "who sticks closer than a brother" (Prov. 18:24).

More: Moses spoke with God "face-to-face" (Ex. 33:11), yet Scripture says that Christians can have an even closer relationship with God because the Spirit of God lives in our hearts (2 Cor. 3:7–11). God also continues to speak clearly to us through His written Word, the Bible.

Direct Encounters with God

Ex. 33:20

The infinite God exceeds our limited ability to know Him, so that no human knows exactly what God looks like. In fact, we cannot even say that God "looks like" anything. As Spirit, He has no body (John 4:24).

God told Moses that no one can see Him and live (Ex. 33:20). Even if we cannot see God directly, Scripture records that people have encountered other manifestations of God. Moses was able to see God's "back" (33:23). Isaiah saw the Lord sitting on His throne

(Is. 6:1–8). Ezekiel had a vision in which God appeared as a man clothed in fire standing above a storm cloud that resembled a chariot (Ezek. 1:1–28). We should keep in mind that these human reporters related what they experienced as best they could. But no one can fully describe or explain God. He exceeds human comprehension.

We might feel that our inability to perceive God with our physical eyes limits our ability to know Him. But God has transcended those limits by sending Jesus, who is God in human form (John 1:14; 14:8, 9; Col. 1:15). Through Him, we can understand a God we cannot see and relate to a God whose infinite nature lies far beyond our knowledge (John 20:29; Eph. 1:15–21; 3:14–19).

Merciful and Just

Ex. 34:6, 7

When God showed Himself to Moses, He revealed not only His appearance but also His character. He declared Himself a God of mercy, grace, patience, and goodness who also executes justice, forgiving sin but not allowing wrongdoers to go unpunished. This stands as solid proof that there are not two Gods in Scripture but one (see "What Is God Like?" at Ex. 15:6–13).

These two aspects of God's moral character—the merciful and the just—complement rather than contradict each other. For God to be merciful, He must right the wrongs that people do; that calls for justice. For God to be just, He must allow for the weakness and limitations of His creatures; that demands mercy.

We too must balance mercy and justice in our dealings with others. Our mercy should not give way to indulgence (see "Merciful Kings" at 1 Kin. 20:31), nor should our justice degenerate into vengeance.

The Lord's Inheritance
Ex. 34:9

Moses asked God to forgive the people's sin and "take us as Your inheritance," perhaps referring to God's promises to Abraham (Gen. 17:19) and His statements elsewhere naming Israel as His chosen people (Deut. 4:20).

Scripture describes three kinds of inheritance: the earthly inheritance of children receiving the estate of their parents, the Christian's inheritance "in Christ" (see "What's In It for Us?" at Eph. 1:11), and Christ's inheritance of the redeemed children of God (see "A Perfect Inheritance" at Eph. 1:18). Moses' prayer had close connections with this last type of inheritance.

Ex. 35:1–3

We can be sure we are trapped by our jobs when we cannot take a break or if we grow anxious when we think we are not accomplishing something concrete. Work is a gift from God essential to our nature (see "People at Work" at Ps. 8:6). Even so, God never intended for work to define us. He does not measure our worth by our productivity. He loves us for who we are, the way He has made us to be.

By establishing a Sabbath, or a day of rest, God put work into its proper perspective. Taking a break from our routines reminds us that . . .

- Work has limits and does not totally define who we are (Ex. 20:9, 10; Ps. 127:1, 2).
- God has created all things and gives us the gift of life (Ex. 20:11; Ps. 104).
- God delivers His people from bondage (Deut. 5:15; Heb. 4:1–11).

God meant this regular day of rest for our good. It allows us to restore our mind, body, and spirit after the demands of our labors. It gives us time to celebrate what we have accomplished as we gather with others to worship God. If we ignore the Sabbath principle, we may lose our health, become addicted to our work, and develop an inflated sense of self-importance.

If we practice the Sabbath principle, we can use our days off to benefit ourselves, our families, our work, and our faith.

More: Modern Christians are not the only ones who struggle with observing a Sabbath rest. The people of Jesus' day abused the Sabbath, and the Lord often had to challenge their misunderstandings. See "Jesus Confronts the Legalists" at Luke 6:1–11 and "Doing Good on the Sabbath" at John 5:1–17.

The Spirit of God in the Workplace

Ex. 35:31–36:1

As the people of Israel labored to build the tabernacle, the Spirit was actively involved with them and their project, imparting all the skills needed to design and construct the tabernacle—metalwork, carpentry, engraving, weaving, jewelry-making, and other talents. Notice the characteristics of these Spirit-driven workers:

- They were women and men (Ex. 35:20–22, 25).
- Their hearts were "willing" or "stirred" (35:5, 21, 22, 26); that is, they were motivated to accomplish their tasks.
- They were skilled or "gifted" by God to do their various assignments (35:10, 25, 34, 35; 36:1, 2).
- They were generous with their skills and possessions to get the job done (35:5, 22, 29; 36:3–7).
- They were hard and loyal workers.
- The finished product showed that they did their work with excellence.

No matter what we do with our days, God cares about our work. He is constantly present with us as we labor, imparting both talent and character, making us fit to demonstrate the fruit of the Holy Spirit (Gal. 5:16–26). The same Spirit that was present with ancient Israelite workers longs to help us carry out our work to the glory of God.

A Project Drew the People Together

Ex. 36:4–7

Not long after escaping from Egypt, the children of Israel struggled with problems in the desert that threatened the cohesiveness of their community.

- They complained about a lack of good food (Ex. 16:2, 3).
- They quarreled with Moses about water (17:2, 3).
- Their many needs for arbitration brought Moses to the point of exhaustion (18:13–27).
- They fell into idolatry after becoming impatient over Moses' lengthy stay on Mount Sinai, incurring judgment from God (32:1–35).

When Moses finally started the monumental task of constructing the tabernacle and its furnishings, the project rallied the people around a unifying cause and unleashed a tide of generosity (36:2–7). The whole community came together in encouraging ways. Suddenly the people showed willing hearts (35:21, 26), diligence at work, and openhandedness that exceeded the needs of the project. Their leaders even had to restrain them from bringing more resources!

When our workplaces are consumed with conflict and complaining, we can ask God to show us a project or cause that might draw everyone together and result in generous service toward others.

A World of Talent

Ex. 37:1

The world has never lacked talented people, thanks to God's distribution of a marvelous diversity of gifts and skills to help us accomplish meaningful work. The experience of Israel in the wilderness testifies to this fact.

God started by elevating Moses as a gifted leader. When it came time to construct the tabernacle, however, Moses lacked the right skills. He was not a builder or an artist. But God had already scattered among the migrants from Egypt skilled workers such as Bezalel and Aholiab (Ex. 36:1) and countless more, including women who wove yarns and fine linen (35:25, 26) and others who gave freely and worked hard (35:10, 21, 29; 36:3–7). All of these people labored according to the abilities the Spirit had given them.

Moses exercised his own skill as a leader when he (1) identified these people as skilled craftsmen, (2) affirmed them in their responsibilities, and (3) freed them to do their jobs under expert supervision. By delegating tasks wisely, Moses followed God's own example, who boldly entrusted responsibility to the human race at the beginning of creation (Gen. 1:29; 9:2–3; 12:7; 13:15–17).

Teamwork

Ex. 38:21–23

Moses assembled a trio to form a leadership team for the complex project of tabernacle construction:

- Ithamar, the youngest son of Aaron and Elisheba (Ex. 6:23). He functioned as a comptroller or accountant, tracking the articles and resources collected for the building (38:21). Later, he supervised two priestly families of Levites (Num. 4:21–33).
- Bezalel, the son of Uri of the tribe of Judah. He was the designer and lead architect, providing designs and giving instructions for craftspeople working with stone, metal, wood, and cloth (Ex. 35:30–36:1; 38:22).
- Aholiab, the son of Ahisamach of the tribe of Dan. He was a skilled artisan who also served as a designer and provided instruction for the decorative elements needed for the project, especially in the art of engraving, design, and embroidery (35:34–36:1; 38:23).

These leaders and their teams did their work "according to all that the LORD had commanded Moses" (39:32, 42). This ultimate stamp of approval shows why Moses was so pleased (39:43).

Like this leadership group, we are designed to function in community, where various temperaments, skills, resources, and strengths come together to produce products and services that benefit others.

The Responsibility of Authority

Ex. 39:14

People in positions of power hold their authority as a trust on behalf of others, a fact symbolized by the stones on Aaron's breastplate. The gems were a reminder that the priests represented the tribes of Israel. Whatever Aaron and his descendants did, whatever choices they made, the breastplate helped them keep the people in mind. Whenever we are in authority, we should likewise weigh carefully and frequently our responsibility to those who depend on us. We may enjoy the perks of being in power, but our primary task is to fulfill the obligations and honor the trust that others have given us.

Celebrating Good Work

Ex. 39:42, 43

Good work deserves to be acknowledged. After the tabernacle's organizers and workforce had completed the project according to the Lord's exact specifications, Moses blessed them. A blessing is a sign of approval that can be as refreshing to the recipient as fresh rain or dew that renews faded grass (Ps. 133:3). A thorough performance review or quality check can bring tremendous blessing to an employee who has done a good job. We don't have to wait until the quality check or performance review. We can regularly offer the revitalizing gift of a blessing.

Excellence Starts at the Top

Ex. 40:16

Moses set an excellent example for all who followed him by doing his job "according to all that the LORD had commanded him." His persistence and precision set the pace for everyone else and reaped invaluable rewards. For example, the management team in charge of constructing the tabernacle emulated Moses' example by performing their tasks with "wisdom and understanding, in knowledge and all manner of workmanship," so that they completed the project "according to all that the LORD had commanded" (Ex. 35:30, 31, 35; 36:1). Likewise, all of the workers under them carried out their tasks "as the LORD had commanded" (39:1, 5, 7, 21, 26, 29, 31, 32, 43).

Excellence in Israel began with Moses. It spread to managers supervising and coordinating the project. Then the workers followed suit.

Excellence has a way of catching on. When we model excellence and quality in our lives, others will imitate us.

More: The three managers who led the complicated project of building the tabernacle were handpicked for the assignment not only by Moses but also by God Himself. See "Teamwork" at Ex. 38:21–23 and "Called by Name" at Ex. 31:1–11.

In all the universe, only God possesses flawless character. He cannot be measured against a higher moral standard—He is the absolute standard of all love, perfection, and purity. As fallen human beings, we can barely begin to understand God's complete goodness; in fact, the closer we draw to Him, the more aware we become of our own sinful condition. In a day when sin may seem like a long-outmoded concept, Leviticus reminds us that God's holiness is real, undeniable, and just as deserving of our trust, reverence, respect, and worship today as in ages past.

Leviticus details how the Israelites were to relate to their holy God, living out commands conveyed in what Bible scholars call the Holiness Code. The Lord admonished His people, "You shall be holy; for I am holy" (Lev. 11:44, 45; see also 19:2; 20:26). God expected His people to be noticeably different from their neighbors in all the right ways. He sharply distinguished between proper worship of Himself and the offensive customs of neighboring peoples who served gods usually portrayed as behaving little better than human beings, and sometimes much worse. The rituals of many local religions were often cruel, degrading, and dehumanizing (see "Abominations: How Not to Act" at Lev. 18:24–30). God rejected such worship rituals and instructed His people to shun these things.

When the Israelites left Egypt, God gave them careful instructions for conduct, diet, and ritual. Most of these laws are contained in Leviticus, which derives its name from the name of the tribe of Levi. The Levites were called to be priests and religious leaders, and Leviticus was the nation's manual for worship and religious life. It contains several categories of instruction:

- Worship through offerings and sacrifices (Lev. 1–7).
- The relationship between physical / biological matters and religious life (Lev. 11–15).
- The Day of Atonement, the annual ceremony that dealt with the nation's sin (Lev. 16).
- The spiritual implications of day-to-day life (Lev. 17–24).
- The Year of Jubilee, when property and lands were returned to their owners and servants to their families (Lev. 25).
- The implications of obeying or disobeying the Law (Lev. 26).
- Vows (Lev. 27).

The letter of these laws applied primarily to ancient Israel, but their spirit continues to be relevant to God's people today. The New Testament repeats this book's call to holiness in every area of life (1 Pet. 1:14–16). Jesus drew on a command found in Leviticus when He said that to "love your neighbor as yourself" (Lev. 19:18) is second only to loving God (Matt. 22:37–39).

Leviticus lists strict laws concerning blood sacrifices, regulations that may seem far removed from modern life. But they remind us of the heavy penalty sin exacts and the necessity of the atoning death of Jesus Christ. He is the Lamb of God whose death made atonement for all sins, an act anticipated by sacrifices offered on the Day of Atonement (Lev. 16:11–34; Heb. 9:6–28). Making this connection helps us see what it cost Jesus to reconcile us with God. And as we begin to understand His sacrifice, we picture what our response should be—a life of devoted holiness.

Leviticus is believed to have been written by Moses (see his profile at Ex. 2:10). The events of the book took place in the Wilderness of Sinai (see the map at "Where God Meets Us" at Ex. 19:1, 20) after the Israelites received the Law at Mount Sinai and built the tabernacle (Ex. 19–31, 35–40), sometime around 1400 B.C.

Key Events in Leviticus

- The priesthood is established (Lev. 8–10).
- The Lord gives instructions about the Day of Atonement (Lev. 16).
- God gives laws regarding sexuality (Lev. 18).
- Festivals and holidays are established (Lev. 23).
- God speaks blessings for obedience and judgments for disobedience (Lev. 26).

Leviticus 1

The Burnt Offering

1 Now the LORD called to Moses, and spoke to him from the tabernacle of meeting, saying,
2 "Speak to the children of Israel, and say to them: 'When any one of you brings an offering to the LORD, you shall bring your offering of the livestock—of the herd and of the flock.
3 'If his offering is a burnt sacrifice of the herd, let him offer a male without blemish; he shall offer it of his own free will at the door of the tabernacle of meeting before the LORD. Take Sin Seriously
4 'Then he shall put his hand on the head of the burnt offering, and it will be accepted on his behalf to make atonement for him.
5 'He shall kill the bull before the LORD; and the priests, Aaron's sons, shall bring the blood and sprinkle the blood all around on the altar that is by the door of the tabernacle of meeting.
6 'And he shall skin the burnt offering and cut it into its pieces.
7 'The sons of Aaron the priest shall put fire on the altar,
and lay the wood in order on the fire.
8 'Then the priests, Aaron's sons, shall lay the parts, the head, and the fat in order on the wood that is on the fire upon the altar;
9 'but he shall wash its entrails and its legs with water.
And the priest shall burn all on the altar as a burnt sacrifice, an offering made by fire, a sweet aroma to the LORD.

10 ‘If his offering is of the flocks—of the sheep or of the goats—as a burnt sacrifice, he shall bring a male without blemish.
11 ‘He shall kill it on the north side of the altar before the LORD; and the priests, Aaron’s sons, shall sprinkle its blood all around on the altar.
12 ‘And he shall cut it into its pieces, with its head and its fat; and the priest shall lay them in order on the wood that is on the fire upon the altar;
13 ‘but he shall wash the entrails and the legs with water.
Then the priest shall bring it all and burn it on the altar; it is a burnt sacrifice, an offering made by fire, a sweet aroma
to the LORD.
14 ‘And if the burnt sacrifice of his offering to the LORD is of birds, then he shall bring his offering of turtledoves or young pigeons.
15 ‘The priest shall bring it to the altar, wring off its head, and burn it on the altar; its blood shall be drained out at the side of the altar.
16 ‘And he shall remove its crop with its feathers and cast it beside the altar on the east side, into the place for ashes.
17 ‘Then he shall split it at its wings, but shall not divide it completely; and the priest shall burn it on the altar, on the wood that is on the fire. It is a burnt sacrifice, an offering made by fire, a sweet aroma to the LORD. Pay Attention to Worship

Leviticus 2

The Grain Offering

1 ‘When anyone offers a grain offering to the LORD, his offering shall be of fine flour. And he shall pour oil on it, and put frankincense on it.
2 ‘He shall bring it to Aaron’s sons, the priests, one of whom shall take from it his handful of fine flour and oil with all the frankincense. And the priest shall burn it as a memorial on the altar, an offering made by fire, a sweet aroma to the LORD.
3 ‘The rest of the grain offering shall be Aaron’s and his sons’. It is most holy of the offerings to the LORD made by fire.
4 ‘And if you bring as an offering a grain offering baked in the oven, it shall be unleavened cakes of fine flour mixed with oil, or unleavened wafers anointed with oil.
5 ‘But if your offering is a grain offering baked in a pan, it shall be of fine flour, unleavened, mixed with oil.
6 ‘You shall break it in pieces and pour oil on it; it is a grain offering.
7 ‘If your offering is a grain offering baked in a covered pan, it shall be made of fine flour with oil.
8 ‘You shall bring the grain offering that is made of these things to the LORD. And when it is presented to the priest, he shall bring it to the altar.
9 ‘Then the priest shall take from the grain offering a memorial portion, and burn it on the altar. It is an offering made by fire, a sweet aroma to the LORD.
10 ‘And what is left of the grain offering shall be Aaron’s and his sons’. It is most holy of the offerings to the LORD made by fire.

11 ‘No grain offering which you bring to the LORD shall be made with leaven, for you shall burn no leaven nor any honey in any offering to the LORD made by fire.
12 ‘As for the offering of the firstfruits, you shall offer them to the LORD, but they shall not be burned on the altar for a sweet aroma.
13 ‘And every offering of your grain offering you shall season with salt; you shall not allow the salt of the covenant of your God to be lacking from your grain offering. With all your offerings you shall offer salt.
14 ‘If you offer a grain offering of your firstfruits to the LORD, you shall offer for the grain offering of your firstfruits green heads of grain roasted on the fire, grain beaten from full heads.
15 ‘And you shall put oil on it, and lay frankincense on it. It is a grain offering.
16 ‘Then the priest shall burn the memorial portion: part of its beaten grain and part of its oil, with all the frankincense, as an offering made by fire to the LORD.

Leviticus 3

The Peace Offering

1 ‘When his offering is a sacrifice of a peace offering, if he offers it of the herd, whether male or female, he shall offer it without blemish before the LORD. Old Testament Sacrifices

2 ‘And he shall lay his hand on the head of his offering, and kill it at the door of the tabernacle of meeting; and Aaron’s sons, the priests, shall sprinkle the blood all around on the altar.

3 ‘Then he shall offer from the sacrifice of the peace offering an offering made by fire to the LORD. The fat that covers the entrails and all the fat that is on the entrails,

4 ‘the two kidneys and the fat that is on them by the flanks, and the fatty lobe attached to the liver above the kidneys, he shall remove;

5 ‘and Aaron’s sons shall burn it on the altar upon the burnt sacrifice, which is on the wood that is on the fire, as an offering made by fire, a sweet aroma to the LORD.

6 ‘If his offering as a sacrifice of a peace offering to the LORD is of the flock, whether male or female, he shall offer it without blemish.

7 ‘If he offers a lamb as his offering, then he shall offer it before the LORD.

8 ‘And he shall lay his hand on the head of his offering,
and kill it before the tabernacle of meeting; and Aaron’s sons shall sprinkle its blood all around on the altar.

9 ‘Then he shall offer from the sacrifice of the peace offering, as an offering made by fire to the LORD, its fat and the whole fat tail which he shall remove close to the backbone. And the fat that covers the entrails and all the fat that is on the entrails,

10 ‘the two kidneys and the fat that is on them by the flanks, and the fatty lobe attached to the liver above the kidneys, he shall remove;
11 ‘and the priest shall burn them on the altar as food, an offering made by fire to the LORD.
12 ‘And if his offering is a goat, then he shall offer it before the LORD.
13 ‘He shall lay his hand on its head and kill it before the tabernacle of meeting; and the sons of Aaron shall sprinkle its blood all around on the altar.
14 ‘Then he shall offer from it his offering, as an offering made by fire to the LORD. The fat that covers the entrails and all the fat that is on the entrails, 15 ‘the two kidneys and the fat that is on them by the flanks, and the fatty lobe attached to the liver above the kidneys, he shall remove;
16 ‘and the priest shall burn them on the altar as food, an offering made by fire for a sweet aroma; all the fat is the LORD’s.
17 ‘This shall be a perpetual statute throughout your generations in all your dwellings: you shall eat neither fat nor blood.’ ”

Leviticus 4

The Sin Offering

1 Now the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,

2 “Speak to the children of Israel, saying: ‘If a person sins unintentionally against any of the commandments of the LORD in anything which ought not to be done, and does any of them,

3 ‘if the anointed priest sins, bringing guilt on the people, then let him offer to the LORD for his sin which he has sinned a young bull without blemish as a sin offering.

4 ‘He shall bring the bull to the door of the tabernacle of meeting before the LORD, lay his hand on the bull’s head, and kill the bull before the LORD.

5 ‘Then the anointed priest shall take some of the bull’s blood and bring it to the tabernacle of meeting.

6 ‘The priest shall dip his finger in the blood and sprinkle some of the blood seven times before the LORD, in front of the veil of the sanctuary.

7 ‘And the priest shall put some of the blood on the horns of the altar of sweet incense before the LORD, which is in the tabernacle of meeting; and he shall pour the remaining blood of the bull at the base of the altar of the burnt offering, which is at the door of the tabernacle of meeting.

8 ‘He shall take from it all the fat of the bull as the sin offering. The fat that covers the entrails and all the fat which is on the entrails,

9 ‘the two kidneys and the fat that is on them by the flanks, and the fatty lobe attached to the liver above the kidneys, he shall remove,

10 ‘as it was taken from the bull of the sacrifice of the peace offering; and the priest shall burn them on the altar of the burnt offering.

11 ‘But the bull’s hide and all its flesh, with its head and legs, its entrails and offal—12 ‘the whole bull he shall carry outside the camp to a clean place, where the ashes are poured out, and burn it on wood with fire; where the ashes are poured out it shall be burned.
13 ‘Now if the whole congregation of Israel sins unintentionally, and the thing is hidden from the eyes of the assembly, and they have done something against any of the commandments of the LORD in anything which should not be done, and are guilty; Group Sin 14 ‘when the sin which they have committed becomes known, then the assembly shall offer a young bull for the sin, and bring it before the tabernacle of meeting.
15 ‘And the elders of the congregation shall lay their hands on the head of the bull before the LORD. Then the bull shall be killed before the LORD.
16 ‘The anointed priest shall bring some of the bull’s blood to the tabernacle of meeting.
17 ‘Then the priest shall dip his finger in the blood and sprinkle it seven times before the LORD, in front of the veil.
18 ‘And he shall put some of the blood on the horns of the altar which is before the LORD, which is in the tabernacle of meeting; and he shall pour the remaining blood at the base of the altar of burnt offering, which is at the door of the tabernacle of meeting.
19 ‘He shall take all the fat from it and burn it on the altar.
20 ‘And he shall do with the bull as he did with the bull as a sin offering; thus he shall do with it. So the priest shall make atonement for them, and it shall be forgiven them.
21 ‘Then he shall carry the bull outside the camp, and burn it as he burned the first bull. It is a sin offering for the assembly.

22 ‘When a ruler has sinned, and done something unintentionally against any of the commandments of the LORD his God in anything which should not be done, and is guilty, When a Leader Sins

23 ‘or if his sin which he has committed comes to his knowledge, he shall bring as his offering a kid of the goats, a male without blemish.

24 ‘And he shall lay his hand on the head of the goat, and kill it at the place where they kill the burnt offering before the LORD. It is a sin offering.

25 ‘The priest shall take some of the blood of the sin offering with his finger, put it on the horns of the altar of burnt offering, and pour its blood at the base of the altar of burnt offering.

26 ‘And he shall burn all its fat on the altar, like the fat of the sacrifice of the peace offering. So the priest shall make atonement for him concerning his sin, and it shall be forgiven him.

27 ‘If anyone of the common people sins unintentionally by doing something against any of the commandments of the LORD in anything which ought not to be done, and is guilty,

28 ‘or if his sin which he has committed comes to his knowledge, then he shall bring as his offering a kid of the goats, a female without blemish, for his sin which he has committed.

29 ‘And he shall lay his hand on the head of the sin offering, and kill the sin offering at the place of the burnt offering.

30 ‘Then the priest shall take some of its blood with his finger, put it on the horns of the altar of burnt offering, and pour all the remaining blood at the base of the altar.

31 ‘He shall remove all its fat, as fat is removed from the sacrifice of the peace offering; and the priest shall burn it on the altar for a sweet aroma to the LORD. So the priest shall make atonement for him, and it shall be forgiven him.

32 ‘If he brings a lamb as his sin offering, he shall bring a female without blemish.

33 ‘Then he shall lay his hand on the head of the sin offering, and kill it as a sin offering at the place where they kill the burnt offering.

34 ‘The priest shall take some of the blood of the sin offering with his finger, put it on the horns of the altar of burnt offering, and pour all the remaining blood at the base of the altar.

35 ‘He shall remove all its fat, as the fat of the lamb is removed from the sacrifice of the peace offering. Then the priest shall burn it on the altar, according to the offerings made by fire to the LORD. So the priest shall make atonement for his sin that he has committed, and it shall be forgiven him.

Leviticus 5

The Trespass Offering

1 ‘If a person sins in hearing the utterance of an oath, and is a witness, whether he has seen or known of the matter—if he does not tell it, he bears guilt.

2 ‘Or if a person touches any unclean thing, whether it is the carcass of an unclean beast, or the carcass of unclean livestock, or the carcass of unclean creeping things, and he is unaware of it, he also shall be unclean and guilty.

3 ‘Or if he touches human uncleanness—whatever uncleanness with which a man may be defiled, and he is unaware of it—when he realizes it, then he shall be guilty.

4 ‘Or if a person swears, speaking thoughtlessly with his lips to do evil or to do good, whatever it is that a man may pronounce by an oath, and he is unaware of it—when he realizes it, then he shall be guilty in any of these matters.

5 ‘And it shall be, when he is guilty in any of these matters, that he shall confess that he has sinned in that thing;

6 ‘and he shall bring his trespass offering to the LORD for his sin which he has committed, a female from the flock, a lamb or a kid of the goats as a sin offering. So the priest shall make atonement for him concerning his sin.

7 ‘If he is not able to bring a lamb, then he shall bring to the LORD, for his trespass which he has committed, two turtledoves or two young pigeons: one as a sin offering and the other as a burnt offering. Giving the Best We Can

8 ‘And he shall bring them to the priest, who shall offer that which is for the sin offering first, and wring off its head from its neck, but shall not divide it completely.

9 ‘Then he shall sprinkle some of the blood of the sin offering on the side of the altar, and the rest of the blood shall be drained out at the base of the altar. It is a sin offering.
10 ‘And he shall offer the second as a burnt offering according to the prescribed manner. So the priest shall make atonement on his behalf for his sin which he has committed, and it shall be forgiven him.
11 ‘But if he is not able to bring two turtledoves or two young pigeons, then he who sinned shall bring for his offering one-tenth of an ephah of fine flour as a sin offering.
He shall put no oil on it, nor shall he put frankincense on it, for it is a sin offering.
12 ‘Then he shall bring it to the priest, and the priest shall take his handful of it as a memorial portion, and burn it on the altar according to the offerings made by fire to the LORD. It is a sin offering.
13 ‘The priest shall make atonement for him, for his sin that he has committed in any of these matters; and it shall be forgiven him. The rest shall be the priest’s as a grain offering.’ ”

Offerings with Restitution

14 Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying:
15 “If a person commits a trespass, and sins unintentionally in regard to the holy things of the LORD, then he shall bring to the LORD as his trespass offering a ram without blemish from the flocks, with your valuation in shekels of silver according to the shekel of the sanctuary, as a trespass offering.
16 “And he shall make restitution for the harm that he has done in regard to the holy thing, and shall add one-fifth to it and give it to the priest. So the priest shall make atonement for him with the ram of the trespass offering, and it shall be forgiven him.

17 “If a person sins, and commits any of these things which are forbidden to be done by the commandments of the LORD, though he does not know it, yet he is guilty and shall bear his iniquity.

18 “And he shall bring to the priest a ram without blemish from the flock, with your valuation, as a trespass offering. So the priest shall make atonement for him regarding his ignorance in which he erred and did not know it, and it shall be forgiven him.

19 “It is a trespass offering; he has certainly trespassed against the LORD.”

Leviticus 6

1 And the LORD spoke to Moses, saying: Making Restitution

2 “If a person sins and commits a trespass against the LORD by lying to his neighbor about what was delivered to him for safekeeping, or about a pledge, or about a robbery, or if he has extorted from his neighbor,

3 “or if he has found what was lost and lies concerning it, and swears falsely—in any one of these things that a man may do in which he sins:

4 “then it shall be, because he has sinned and is guilty, that he shall restore what he has stolen, or the thing which he has extorted, or what was delivered to him for safekeeping, or the lost thing which he found,

5 “or all that about which he has sworn falsely. He shall restore its full value, add one-fifth more to it, and give it to whomever it belongs, on the day of his trespass offering.

6 “And he shall bring his trespass offering to the LORD, a ram without blemish from the flock, with your valuation, as a trespass offering, to the priest.

7 “So the priest shall make atonement for him before the LORD, and he shall be forgiven for any one of these things that he may have done in which he trespasses.”

The Law of the Burnt Offering

8 Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,

9 “Command Aaron and his sons, saying, ‘This is the law of the burnt offering: The burnt offering shall be on the hearth upon the altar all night until morning, and the fire of the altar shall be kept burning on it.

10 ‘And the priest shall put on his linen garment, and his linen trousers he shall put on his body, and take up the ashes of the burnt offering which the fire has consumed on the altar, and he shall put them beside the altar.

11 ‘Then he shall take off his garments, put on other garments, and carry the ashes outside the camp to a clean place.

12 ‘And the fire on the altar shall be kept burning on it; it shall not be put out. And the priest shall burn wood on it every morning, and lay the burnt offering in order on it; and he shall burn on it the fat of the peace offerings.

13 ‘A fire shall always be burning on the altar; it shall never go out.

The Law of the Grain Offering

14 ‘This is the law of the grain offering: The sons of Aaron shall offer it on the altar before the LORD.

15 ‘He shall take from it his handful of the fine flour of the grain offering, with its oil, and all the frankincense which is on the grain offering, and shall burn it on the altar for a sweet aroma, as a memorial to the LORD.

16 ‘And the remainder of it Aaron and his sons shall eat; with unleavened bread it shall be eaten in a holy place; in the court of the tabernacle of meeting they shall eat it.

17 ‘It shall not be baked with leaven. I have given it as their portion of My offerings made by fire; it is most holy, like the sin offering and the trespass offering.

18 ‘All the males among the children of Aaron may eat it. It shall be a statute forever in your generations concerning the offerings made by fire to the LORD. Everyone who touches them must be holy.’ ”[a]

19 And the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,

20 “This is the offering of Aaron and his sons, which they shall offer to the LORD, beginning on the day when he is anointed: one-tenth of an ephah of fine flour as a daily grain offering, half of it in the morning and half of it at night.

21 “It shall be made in a pan with oil. When it is mixed, you shall bring it in. The baked pieces of the grain offering you shall offer for a sweet aroma to the LORD.

22 “The priest from among his sons, who is anointed in his place, shall offer it. It is a statute forever to the LORD. It shall be wholly burned.

23 “For every grain offering for the priest shall be wholly burned. It shall not be eaten.”

The Law of the Sin Offering

24 Also the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,

25 “Speak to Aaron and to his sons, saying, ‘This is the law of the sin offering: In the place where the burnt offering is killed, the sin offering shall be killed before the LORD. It is most holy.

26 ‘The priest who offers it for sin shall eat it. In a holy place it shall be eaten, in the court of the tabernacle of meeting.

27 ‘Everyone who touches its flesh must be holy.[b] And when its blood is sprinkled on any garment, you shall wash that on which it was sprinkled, in a holy place.

28 ‘But the earthen vessel in which it is boiled shall be broken. And if it is boiled in a bronze pot, it shall be both scoured and rinsed in water.

29 ‘All the males among the priests may eat it. It is most holy.

30 ‘But no sin offering from which any of the blood is brought into the tabernacle of meeting, to make atonement in the holy place,[c] shall be eaten. It shall be burned in the fire.

Leviticus 7

The Law of the Trespass Offering

1 ‘Likewise this is the law of the trespass offering (it is most holy):
2 ‘In the place where they kill the burnt offering they shall kill the trespass offering. And its blood he shall sprinkle all around on the altar.
3 ‘And he shall offer from it all its fat. The fat tail and the fat that covers the entrails, 4 ‘the two kidneys and the fat that is on them by the flanks, and the fatty lobe attached to the liver above the kidneys, he shall remove;
5 ‘and the priest shall burn them on the altar as an offering made by fire to the LORD. It is a trespass offering.
6 ‘Every male among the priests may eat it. It shall be eaten in a holy place. It is most holy.
7 ‘The trespass offering is like the sin offering; there is one law for them both: the priest who makes atonement with it shall have it.
8 ‘And the priest who offers anyone’s burnt offering, that priest shall have for himself the skin of the burnt offering which he has offered.
9 ‘Also every grain offering that is baked in the oven and all that is prepared in the covered pan, or in a pan, shall be the priest’s who offers it.
10 ‘Every grain offering, whether mixed with oil or dry, shall belong to all the sons of Aaron, to one as much as the other.

The Law of Peace Offerings

11 ‘This is the law of the sacrifice of peace offerings which he shall offer to the LORD:
12 ‘If he offers it for a thanksgiving, then he shall offer, with the sacrifice of thanksgiving, unleavened cakes mixed with oil, unleavened wafers anointed with oil, or cakes of blended flour mixed with oil.
13 ‘Besides the cakes, as his offering he shall offer leavened bread with the sacrifice of thanksgiving of his peace offering.
14 ‘And from it he shall offer one cake from each offering as a heave offering to the LORD. It shall belong to the priest who sprinkles the blood of the peace offering.
15 ‘The flesh of the sacrifice of his peace offering for thanksgiving shall be eaten the same day it is offered. He shall not leave any of it until morning.
16 ‘But if the sacrifice of his offering is a vow or a voluntary offering, it shall be eaten the same day that he offers his sacrifice; but on the next day the remainder of it also may be eaten;
17 ‘the remainder of the flesh of the sacrifice on the third day must be burned with fire.
18 ‘And if any of the flesh of the sacrifice of his peace offering is eaten at all on the third day, it shall not be accepted, nor shall it be imputed to him; it shall be an abomination to him who offers it, and the person who eats of it shall bear guilt.
19 ‘The flesh that touches any unclean thing shall not be eaten. It shall be burned with fire. And as for the clean flesh, all who are clean may eat of it.
20 ‘But the person who eats the flesh of the sacrifice of the peace offering that belongs to the LORD, while he is unclean, that person shall be cut off from his people.
21 ‘Moreover the person who touches any unclean thing, such as human uncleanness, an unclean animal, or any abominable unclean thing,[a] and who eats the flesh of the sacrifice of the peace offering that belongs to the LORD, that person shall be cut off from his people.' "

Fat and Blood May Not Be Eaten

22And the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,

23"Speak to the children of Israel, saying: 'You shall not eat any fat, of ox or sheep or goat.

24'And the fat of an animal that dies naturally, and the fat of what is torn by wild beasts, may be used in any other way; but you shall by no means eat it.

25'For whoever eats the fat of the animal of which men offer an offering made by fire to the LORD, the person who eats it shall be cut off from his people.

26'Moreover you shall not eat any blood in any of your dwellings, whether of bird or beast.

27'Whoever eats any blood, that person shall be cut off from his people.' "

The Portion of Aaron and His Sons

28Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,

29"Speak to the children of Israel, saying: 'He who offers the sacrifice of his peace offering to the LORD shall bring his offering to the LORD from the sacrifice of his peace offering.

30'His own hands shall bring the offerings made by fire to the LORD. The fat with the breast he shall bring, that the breast may be waved as a wave offering before the LORD.

31'And the priest shall burn the fat on the altar, but the breast shall be Aaron's and his sons'.

32'Also the right thigh you shall give to the priest as a heave offering from the sacrifices of your peace offerings.

33‘He among the sons of Aaron, who offers the blood of the peace offering and the fat, shall have the right thigh for his part.
34‘For the breast of the wave offering and the thigh of the heave offering I have taken from the children of Israel, from the sacrifices of their peace offerings, and I have given them to Aaron the priest and to his sons from the children of Israel by a statute forever.’ ” 35This is the consecrated portion for Aaron and his sons, from the offerings made by fire to the LORD, on the day when Moses presented them to minister to the LORD as priests.
36The LORD commanded this to be given to them by the children of Israel, on the day that He anointed them, by a statute forever throughout their generations.
37This is the law of the burnt offering, the grain offering,
the sin offering, the trespass offering, the consecrations, and the sacrifice of the peace offering, Putting Words into Action 38which the LORD commanded Moses on Mount Sinai, on the day when He commanded the children of Israel to offer their offerings to the LORD in the Wilderness of Sinai.

Leviticus 8

Aaron and His Sons Consecrated

1 And the LORD spoke to Moses, saying:

2 “Take Aaron and his sons with him, and the garments, the anointing oil, a bull as the sin offering, two rams, and a basket of unleavened bread; What It Takes to Serve God

3 “and gather all the congregation together at the door of the tabernacle of meeting.”

4 So Moses did as the LORD commanded him. And the congregation was gathered together at the door of the tabernacle of meeting.

5 And Moses said to the congregation, “This is what the LORD commanded to be done.”

6 Then Moses brought Aaron and his sons and washed them with water.

7 And he put the tunic on him, girded him with the sash, clothed him with the robe, and put the ephod on him; and he girded him with the intricately woven band of the ephod, and with it tied the ephod on him.

8 Then he put the breastplate on him, and he put the Urim and the Thummim[a] in the breastplate.

9 And he put the turban on his head. Also on the turban, on its front, he put the golden plate, the holy crown, as the LORD had commanded Moses.

10 Also Moses took the anointing oil, and anointed the tabernacle and all that was in it, and consecrated them.

11 He sprinkled some of it on the altar seven times, anointed the altar and all its utensils, and the laver and its base, to consecrate them.

12 And he poured some of the anointing oil on Aaron’s head and anointed him, to consecrate him.

13 Then Moses brought Aaron’s sons and put tunics on them, girded them with sashes, and put hats on them, as the LORD had commanded Moses.
14 And he brought the bull for the sin offering. Then Aaron and his sons laid their hands on the head of the bull for the sin offering, 15 and Moses killed it. Then he took the blood, and put some on the horns of the altar all around with his finger, and purified the altar. And he poured the blood at the base of the altar, and consecrated it, to make atonement for it.
16 Then he took all the fat that was on the entrails, the fatty lobe attached to the liver, and the two kidneys with their fat, and Moses burned them on the altar.
17 But the bull, its hide, its flesh, and its offal, he burned with fire outside the camp, as the LORD had commanded Moses.
18 Then he brought the ram as the burnt offering. And Aaron and his sons laid their hands on the head of the ram, 19 and Moses killed it. Then he sprinkled the blood all around on the altar.
20 And he cut the ram into pieces; and Moses burned the head, the pieces, and the fat.
21 Then he washed the entrails and the legs in water. And Moses burned the whole ram on the altar. It was a burnt sacrifice for a sweet aroma, an offering made by fire to the LORD, as the LORD had commanded Moses.
22 And he brought the second ram, the ram of consecration. Then Aaron and his sons laid their hands on the head of the ram, 23 and Moses killed it. Also he took some of its blood and put it on the tip of Aaron’s right ear, on the thumb of his right hand, and on the big toe of his right foot.
24 Then he brought Aaron’s sons. And Moses put some of the blood on the tips of their right ears, on the thumbs of their right hands, and on the big toes of their right feet. And Moses sprinkled the blood all around on the altar.

25 Then he took the fat and the fat tail, all the fat that was on the entrails, the fatty lobe attached to the liver, the two kidneys and their fat, and the right thigh;

26 and from the basket of unleavened bread that was before the LORD he took one unleavened cake, a cake of bread anointed with oil, and one wafer, and put them on the fat and on the right thigh;

27 and he put all these in Aaron's hands and in his sons' hands, and waved them as a wave offering before the LORD.

28 Then Moses took them from their hands and burned them on the altar, on the burnt offering. They were consecration offerings for a sweet aroma. That was an offering made by fire to the LORD.

29 And Moses took the breast and waved it as a wave offering before the LORD. It was Moses' part of the ram of consecration, as the LORD had commanded Moses.

30 Then Moses took some of the anointing oil and some of the blood which was on the altar, and sprinkled it on Aaron, on his garments, on his sons, and on the garments of his sons with him; and he consecrated Aaron, his garments, his sons, and the garments of his sons with him.

31 And Moses said to Aaron and his sons, "Boil the flesh at the door of the tabernacle of meeting, and eat it there with the bread that is in the basket of consecration offerings, as I commanded, saying, 'Aaron and his sons shall eat it.'

32 "What remains of the flesh and of the bread you shall burn with fire.

33 "And you shall not go outside the door of the tabernacle of meeting for seven days, until the days of your consecration are ended. For seven days he shall consecrate you.

34 “As he has done this day, so the LORD has commanded to do, to make atonement for you.
35 “Therefore you shall stay at the door of the tabernacle of meeting day and night for seven days, and keep the charge of the LORD, so that you may not die; for so I have been commanded.”
36 So Aaron and his sons did all the things that the LORD had commanded by the hand of Moses.

Leviticus 9

The Priestly Ministry Begins

1It came to pass on the eighth day that Moses called Aaron and his sons and the elders of Israel.
2And he said to Aaron, “Take for yourself a young bull as a sin offering and a ram as a burnt offering, without blemish, and offer them before the LORD.
3“And to the children of Israel you shall speak, saying, ‘Take a kid of the goats as a sin offering, and a calf and a lamb, both of the first year, without blemish, as a burnt offering,
4‘also a bull and a ram as peace offerings, to sacrifice before the LORD, and a grain offering mixed with oil; for today the LORD will appear to you.’ ” 5So they brought what Moses commanded before the tabernacle of meeting. And all the congregation drew near and stood before the LORD. A Place to Meet God 6Then Moses said, “This is the thing which the LORD commanded you to do, and the glory of the LORD will appear to you.”
7And Moses said to Aaron, “Go to the altar, offer your sin offering and your burnt offering, and make atonement for yourself and for the people. Offer the offering of the people, and make atonement for them, as the LORD commanded.” 8Aaron therefore went to the altar and killed the calf of the sin offering, which was for himself.
9Then the sons of Aaron brought the blood to him. And he dipped his finger in the blood, put it on the horns of the altar, and poured the blood at the base of the altar.
10But the fat, the kidneys, and the fatty lobe from the liver of the sin offering he burned on the altar, as the LORD had commanded Moses.

11 The flesh and the hide he burned with fire outside the camp.
12 And he killed the burnt offering; and Aaron's sons presented to him the blood, which he sprinkled all around
on the altar.
13 Then they presented the burnt offering to him, with its pieces and head, and he burned them on the altar.
14 And he washed the entrails and the legs, and burned them with the burnt offering on the altar.
15 Then he brought the people's offering, and took the goat, which was the sin offering for the people, and killed it and offered it for sin, like the first one.
16 And he brought the burnt offering and offered it according to the prescribed manner.
17 Then he brought the grain offering, took a handful of it, and burned it on the altar, besides the burnt sacrifice of the morning.
18 He also killed the bull and the ram as sacrifices of peace offerings, which were for the people. And Aaron's sons presented to him the blood, which he sprinkled all around on the altar,
19 and the fat from the bull and the ram—the fatty tail, what covers the entrails and the kidneys, and the fatty lobe attached to the liver;
20 and they put the fat on the breasts. Then he burned the fat on the altar;
21 but the breasts and the right thigh Aaron waved as a wave offering before the LORD, as Moses had commanded.
22 Then Aaron lifted his hand toward the people, blessed them, and came down from offering the sin offering, the burnt offering, and peace offerings.
23 And Moses and Aaron went into the tabernacle of meeting, and came out and blessed the people. Then the glory of the LORD appeared to all the people, 24 and fire came out from before the LORD and consumed the burnt offering and the fat on the altar. When all the people saw it, they shouted and fell on their faces.

Leviticus 10

The Profane Fire of Nadab and Abihu

1 Then Nadab and Abihu, the sons of Aaron, each took his censer and put fire in it, put incense on it, and offered profane fire before the LORD, which He had not commanded them. Advice Without Assurance Nadab and Abihu 2 So fire went out from the LORD and devoured them, and they died before the LORD.
3 And Moses said to Aaron, "This is what the LORD spoke,
saying:

> 'By those who come near Me
> I must be regarded as holy;
> And before all the people
> I must be glorified.' "

So Aaron held his peace. A Good or Bad Example

4 Then Moses called Mishael and Elzaphan, the sons of Uzziel the uncle of Aaron, and said to them, "Come near, carry your brethren from before the sanctuary out of the camp."
5 So they went near and carried them by their tunics out of the camp, as Moses had said.
6 And Moses said to Aaron, and to Eleazar and Ithamar, his sons, "Do not uncover your heads nor tear your clothes, lest you die, and wrath come upon all the people. But let your brethren, the whole house of Israel, bewail the burning which the LORD has kindled.
7 "You shall not go out from the door of the tabernacle of meeting, lest you die, for the anointing oil of the LORD is upon you." And they did according to the word of Moses.

Conduct Prescribed for Priests

8Then the LORD spoke to Aaron, saying:

9"Do not drink wine or intoxicating drink, you, nor your sons with you, when you go into the tabernacle of meeting, lest you die. It shall be a statute forever throughout your generations,

10"that you may distinguish between holy and unholy, and between unclean and clean,

11"and that you may teach the children of Israel all the statutes which the LORD has spoken to them by the hand of Moses."

12And Moses spoke to Aaron, and to Eleazar and Ithamar, his sons who were left: "Take the grain offering that remains of the offerings made by fire to the LORD, and eat it without leaven beside the altar; for it is most holy.

13"You shall eat it in a holy place, because it is your due and your sons' due, of the sacrifices made by fire to the LORD; for so I have been commanded.

14"The breast of the wave offering and the thigh of the heave offering you shall eat in a clean place, you, your sons, and your daughters with you; for they are your due and your sons' due, which are given from the sacrifices of peace offerings of the children of Israel.

15"The thigh of the heave offering and the breast of the wave offering they shall bring with the offerings of fat made by fire, to offer as a wave offering before the LORD. And it shall be yours and your sons' with you, by a statute forever, as the LORD has commanded."

16Then Moses made careful inquiry about the goat of the sin offering, and there it was—burned up. And he was angry with Eleazar and Ithamar, the sons of Aaron who were left, saying,

17"Why have you not eaten the sin offering in a holy place, since it is most holy, and God has given it to you to bear the guilt of the congregation, to make atonement for them before the LORD?

18 “See! Its blood was not brought inside the holy place;[a] indeed you should have eaten it in a holy place, as I commanded.”

19 And Aaron said to Moses, “Look, this day they have offered their sin offering and their burnt offering before the LORD, and such things have befallen me! If I had eaten the sin offering today, would it have been accepted in the sight of the LORD?” Falling Short 20 So when Moses heard that, he was content.

Leviticus 11

Foods Permitted and Forbidden

1 Now the LORD spoke to Moses and Aaron, saying to them,
2 “Speak to the children of Israel, saying, ‘These are the animals which you may eat among all the animals that are on the earth:
3 ‘Among the animals, whatever divides the hoof, having cloven hooves and chewing the cud—that you may eat.
4 ‘Nevertheless these you shall not eat among those that chew the cud or those that have cloven hooves: the camel, because it chews the cud but does not have cloven hooves, is unclean to you;
5 ‘the rock hyrax, because it chews the cud but does not have cloven hooves, is unclean to you;
6 ‘the hare, because it chews the cud but does not have cloven hooves, is unclean to you;
7 ‘and the swine, though it divides the hoof, having cloven hooves, yet does not chew the cud, is unclean to you. Healthy Food, Holy Food
8 ‘Their flesh you shall not eat, and their carcasses you shall not touch. They are unclean to you.
9 ‘These you may eat of all that are in the water: whatever in the water has fins and scales, whether in the seas or in the rivers—that you may eat.
10 ‘But all in the seas or in the rivers that do not have fins and scales, all that move in the water or any living thing which is in the water, they are an abomination to you.
11 ‘They shall be an abomination to you; you shall not eat their flesh, but you shall regard their carcasses as an abomination.

12 ‘Whatever in the water does not have fins or scales—that shall be an abomination to you.
13 ‘And these you shall regard as an abomination among the birds; they shall not be eaten, they are an abomination:
the eagle, the vulture, the buzzard,
14 ‘the kite, and the falcon after its kind;
15 ‘every raven after its kind,
16 ‘the ostrich, the short-eared owl, the sea gull, and the hawk after its kind;
17 ‘the little owl, the fisher owl, and the screech owl;
18 ‘the white owl, the jackdaw, and the carrion vulture;
19 ‘the stork, the heron after its kind, the hoopoe, and the bat.
20 ‘All flying insects that creep on all fours shall be an abomination to you.
21 ‘Yet these you may eat of every flying insect that creeps on all fours: those which have jointed legs above their feet with which to leap on the earth.
22 ‘These you may eat: the locust after its kind, the destroying locust after its kind, the cricket after its kind,
and the grasshopper after its kind.
23 ‘But all other flying insects which have four feet shall be an abomination to you.

Unclean Animals

24 ‘By these you shall become unclean; whoever touches
the carcass of any of them shall be unclean until evening; 25 ‘whoever carries part of the carcass of any of them shall wash his clothes and be unclean until evening:
26 ‘The carcass of any animal which divides the foot, but is not cloven-hoofed or does not chew the cud, is unclean to you. Everyone who touches it shall be unclean.

27 ‘And whatever goes on its paws, among all kinds of animals that go on all fours, those are unclean to you.
Whoever touches any such carcass shall be unclean until evening.
28 ‘Whoever carries any such carcass shall wash his clothes and be unclean until evening. It is unclean to you.
29 ‘These also shall be unclean to you among the creeping things that creep on the earth: the mole, the mouse, and the large lizard after its kind; Clean v. Unclean 30 ‘the gecko, the monitor lizard, the sand reptile, the sand lizard, and the chameleon.
31 ‘These are unclean to you among all that creep.
Whoever touches them when they are dead shall be unclean until evening.
32 ‘Anything on which any of them falls, when they are dead shall be unclean, whether it is any item of wood or clothing or skin or sack, whatever item it is, in which any work is done, it must be put in water. And it shall be unclean until evening; then it shall be clean.
33 ‘Any earthen vessel into which any of them falls you shall break; and whatever is in it shall be unclean:
34 ‘in such a vessel, any edible food upon which water falls becomes unclean, and any drink that may be drunk from it becomes unclean.
35 ‘And everything on which a part of any such carcass falls shall be unclean; whether it is an oven or cooking stove, it shall be broken down; for they are unclean, and shall be unclean to you.
36 ‘Nevertheless a spring or a cistern, in which there is plenty of water, shall be clean, but whatever touches any such carcass becomes unclean.
37 ‘And if a part of any such carcass falls on any planting seed which is to be sown, it remains clean.

38 ‘But if water is put on the seed, and if a part of any such carcass falls on it, it becomes unclean to you.

39 ‘And if any animal which you may eat dies, he who touches its carcass shall be unclean until evening.

40 ‘He who eats of its carcass shall wash his clothes and be unclean until evening. He also who carries its carcass shall wash his clothes and be unclean until evening.

41 ‘And every creeping thing that creeps on the earth shall be an abomination. It shall not be eaten.

42 ‘Whatever crawls on its belly, whatever goes on all fours, or whatever has many feet among all creeping things that creep on the earth—these you shall not eat, for they are an abomination.

43 ‘You shall not make yourselves abominable with any creeping thing that creeps; nor shall you make yourselves unclean with them, lest you be defiled by them.

44 ‘For I am the LORD your God. You shall therefore consecrate yourselves, and you shall be holy; for I am holy. Neither shall you defile yourselves with any creeping thing that creeps on the earth. Be Holy, for I Am Holy 45 ‘For I am the LORD who brings you up out of the land of Egypt, to be your God. You shall therefore be holy, for I am holy.

46 ‘This is the law of the animals and the birds and every living creature that moves in the waters, and of every creature that creeps on the earth,

47 ‘to distinguish between the unclean and the clean, and between the animal that may be eaten and the animal that may not be eaten.’ ”

Leviticus 12

The Ritual After Childbirth

1 Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,

2 “Speak to the children of Israel, saying: ‘If a woman has conceived, and borne a male child, then she shall be unclean seven days; as in the days of her customary impurity she shall be unclean.

3 ‘And on the eighth day the flesh of his foreskin shall be circumcised.

4 ‘She shall then continue in the blood of her purification thirty-three days. She shall not touch any hallowed thing, nor come into the sanctuary until the days of her purification are fulfilled.

5 ‘But if she bears a female child, then she shall be unclean two weeks, as in her customary impurity, and she shall continue in the blood of her purification sixty-six days.

6 ‘When the days of her purification are fulfilled, whether for a son or a daughter, she shall bring to the priest a lamb of the first year as a burnt offering, and a young pigeon or a turtledove as a sin offering, to the door of the tabernacle of meeting. Body and Soul

7 ‘Then he shall offer it before the LORD, and make atonement for her. And she shall be clean from the flow of her blood. This is the law for her who has borne a male or a female.

8 ‘And if she is not able to bring a lamb, then she may bring two turtledoves or two young pigeons—one as a burnt offering and the other as a sin offering. So the priest shall make atonement for her, and she will be clean.’ ”

Leviticus 13

The Law Concerning Leprosy

1 And the LORD spoke to Moses and Aaron, saying: God Shows How to Promote Good Health

2 “When a man has on the skin of his body a swelling, a scab, or a bright spot, and it becomes on the skin of his body like a leprous[a] sore, then he shall be brought to Aaron the priest or to one of his sons the priests. Priests as Physicians

3 “The priest shall examine the sore on the skin of the body; and if the hair on the sore has turned white, and the sore appears to be deeper than the skin of his body, it is a leprous sore. Then the priest shall examine him, and pronounce him unclean.

4 “But if the bright spot is white on the skin of his body, and does not appear to be deeper than the skin, and its hair has not turned white, then the priest shall isolate the one who has the sore seven days.

5 “And the priest shall examine him on the seventh day; and indeed if the sore appears to be as it was, and the sore has not spread on the skin, then the priest shall isolate him another seven days.

6 “Then the priest shall examine him again on the seventh day; and indeed if the sore has faded, and the sore has not spread on the skin, then the priest shall pronounce him clean; it is only a scab, and he shall wash his clothes and be clean.

7 “But if the scab should at all spread over the skin, after he has been seen by the priest for his cleansing, he shall be seen by the priest again.

8 “And if the priest sees that the scab has indeed spread on the skin, then the priest shall pronounce him unclean. It is leprosy.

9 “When the leprous sore is on a person, then he shall be brought to the priest.

10 “And the priest shall examine him; and indeed if the swelling on the skin is white, and it has turned the hair white, and there is a spot of raw flesh in the swelling,

11 “it is an old leprosy on the skin of his body. The priest shall pronounce him unclean, and shall not isolate him, for he is unclean.

12 “And if leprosy breaks out all over the skin, and the leprosy covers all the skin of the one who has the sore, from his head to his foot, wherever the priest looks, Unclean! Unclean!

13 “then the priest shall consider; and indeed if the leprosy has covered all his body, he shall pronounce him clean who has the sore. It has all turned white. He is clean.

14 “But when raw flesh appears on him, he shall be unclean.

15 “And the priest shall examine the raw flesh and pronounce him to be unclean; for the raw flesh is unclean. It is leprosy.

16 “Or if the raw flesh changes and turns white again, he shall come to the priest.

17 “And the priest shall examine him; and indeed if the sore has turned white, then the priest shall pronounce him clean who has the sore. He is clean.

18 “If the body develops a boil in the skin, and it is healed,

19 “and in the place of the boil there comes a white swelling or a bright spot, reddish-white, then it shall be shown to the priest;

20 “and if, when the priest sees it, it indeed appears deeper than the skin, and its hair has turned white, the priest shall pronounce him unclean. It is a leprous sore which has broken out of the boil.

21 “But if the priest examines it, and indeed there are no white hairs in it, and it is not deeper than the skin, but has faded, then the priest shall isolate him seven days; 22 “and if it should at all spread over the skin, then the priest shall pronounce him unclean. It is a leprous sore.
23 “But if the bright spot stays in one place, and has not spread, it is the scar of the boil; and the priest shall pronounce him clean.
24 “Or if the body receives a burn on its skin by fire, and the raw flesh of the burn becomes a bright spot, reddish-white or white,
25 “then the priest shall examine it; and indeed if the hair of the bright spot has turned white, and it appears deeper than the skin, it is leprosy broken out in the burn.
Therefore the priest shall pronounce him unclean. It is a leprous sore.
26 “But if the priest examines it, and indeed there are no white hairs in the bright spot, and it is not deeper than the skin, but has faded, then the priest shall isolate him seven days.
27 “And the priest shall examine him on the seventh day. If it has at all spread over the skin, then the priest shall pronounce him unclean. It is a leprous sore.
28 “But if the bright spot stays in one place, and has not spread on the skin, but has faded, it is a swelling from the burn. The priest shall pronounce him clean, for it is the scar from the burn.
29 “If a man or woman has a sore on the head or the beard,
30 “then the priest shall examine the sore; and indeed if it appears deeper than the skin, and there is in it thin yellow hair, then the priest shall pronounce him unclean. It is a scaly leprosy of the head or beard.

31 “But if the priest examines the scaly sore, and indeed it does not appear deeper than the skin, and there is no black hair in it, then the priest shall isolate the one who has the scale seven days.
32 “And on the seventh day the priest shall examine the sore; and indeed if the scale has not spread, and there is no yellow hair in it, and the scale does not appear deeper than the skin, 33 “he shall shave himself, but the scale he shall not shave. And the priest shall isolate the one who has the scale another seven days.
34 “On the seventh day the priest shall examine the scale; and indeed if the scale has not spread over the skin, and does not appear deeper than the skin, then the priest shall pronounce him clean. He shall wash his clothes and be clean.
35 “But if the scale should at all spread over the skin after his cleansing, 36 “then the priest shall examine him; and indeed if the scale has spread over the skin, the priest need not seek for yellow hair. He is unclean.
37 “But if the scale appears to be at a standstill, and there is black hair grown up in it, the scale has healed. He is clean, and the priest shall pronounce him clean.
38 “If a man or a woman has bright spots on the skin of the body, specifically white bright spots, 39 “then the priest shall look; and indeed if the bright spots on the skin of the body are dull white, it is a white spot that grows on the skin. He is clean.
40 “As for the man whose hair has fallen from his head, he is bald, but he is clean.
41 “He whose hair has fallen from his forehead, he is bald on the forehead, but he is clean.

42 “And if there is on the bald head or bald forehead a reddish-white sore, it is leprosy breaking out on his bald head or his bald forehead.
43 “Then the priest shall examine it; and indeed if the swelling of the sore is reddish-white on his bald head or on his bald forehead, as the appearance of leprosy on the skin of the body, 44 “he is a leprous man. He is unclean. The priest shall surely pronounce him unclean; his sore is on his head.
45 “Now the leper on whom the sore is, his clothes shall be torn and his head bare; and he shall cover his mustache, and cry, ‘Unclean! Unclean!’ 46 “He shall be unclean. All the days he has the sore he shall be unclean. He is unclean, and he shall dwell alone;
his dwelling shall be outside the camp.

The Law Concerning Leprous Garments

47 “Also, if a garment has a leprous plague[b] in it, whether it is a woolen garment or a linen garment, 48 “whether it is in the warp or woof of linen or wool, whether in leather or in anything made of leather, 49 “and if the plague is greenish or reddish in the garment or in the leather, whether in the warp or in the woof, or in anything made of leather, it is a leprous plague and shall be shown to the priest.
50 “The priest shall examine the plague and isolate that which has the plague seven days.
51 “And he shall examine the plague on the seventh day. If the plague has spread in the garment, either in the warp or in the woof, in the leather or in anything made of leather, the plague is an active leprosy. It is unclean.
52 “He shall therefore burn that garment in which is the plague, whether warp or woof, in wool or in linen, or anything of leather, for it is an active leprosy; the garment shall be burned in the fire.

53 “But if the priest examines it, and indeed the plague has not spread in the garment, either in the warp or in the woof, or in anything made of leather,

54 “then the priest shall command that they wash the thing in which is the plague; and he shall isolate it another seven days.

55 “Then the priest shall examine the plague after it has been washed; and indeed if the plague has not changed its color, though the plague has not spread, it is unclean, and you shall burn it in the fire; it continues eating away, whether the damage is outside or inside.

56 “If the priest examines it, and indeed the plague has faded after washing it, then he shall tear it out of the garment, whether out of the warp or out of the woof, or out of the leather.

57 “But if it appears again in the garment, either in the warp or in the woof, or in anything made of leather, it is a spreading plague; you shall burn with fire that in which is the plague.

58 “And if you wash the garment, either warp or woof, or whatever is made of leather, if the plague has disappeared from it, then it shall be washed a second time, and shall be clean.

59 “This is the law of the leprous plague in a garment of wool or linen, either in the warp or woof, or in anything made of leather, to pronounce it clean or to pronounce it unclean.”

Leviticus 14

The Ritual for Cleansing Healed Lepers

1 Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,

2 “This shall be the law of the leper for the day of his cleansing: He shall be brought to the priest.

3 “And the priest shall go out of the camp, and the priest shall examine him; and indeed, if the leprosy is healed in the leper,

4 “then the priest shall command to take for him who is to be cleansed two living and clean birds, cedar wood, scarlet, and hyssop.

5 “And the priest shall command that one of the birds be killed in an earthen vessel over running water.

6 “As for the living bird, he shall take it, the cedar wood and the scarlet and the hyssop, and dip them and the living bird in the blood of the bird that was killed over the running water.

7 “And he shall sprinkle it seven times on him who is to be cleansed from the leprosy, and shall pronounce him clean, and shall let the living bird loose in the open field.

8 “He who is to be cleansed shall wash his clothes, shave off all his hair, and wash himself in water, that he may be clean. After that he shall come into the camp, and shall stay outside his tent seven days.

9 “But on the seventh day he shall shave all the hair off his head and his beard and his eyebrows—all his hair he shall shave off. He shall wash his clothes and wash his body in water, and he shall be clean.

10 “And on the eighth day he shall take two male lambs without blemish, one ewe lamb of the first year without blemish, three-tenths of an ephah of fine flour mixed with oil as a grain offering, and one log of oil.

11 “Then the priest who makes him clean shall present the man who is to be made clean, and those things, before the LORD, at the door of the tabernacle of meeting.

12 “And the priest shall take one male lamb and offer it as a trespass offering, and the log of oil, and wave them as a wave offering before the LORD.

13 “Then he shall kill the lamb in the place where he kills the sin offering and the burnt offering, in a holy place; for as the sin offering is the priest’s, so is the trespass offering. It is most holy.

14 “The priest shall take some of the blood of the trespass offering, and the priest shall put it on the tip of the right ear of him who is to be cleansed, on the thumb of his right hand, and on the big toe of his right foot.

15 “And the priest shall take some of the log of oil, and pour it into the palm of his own left hand.

16 “Then the priest shall dip his right finger in the oil that is in his left hand, and shall sprinkle some of the oil with his finger seven times before the LORD.

17 “And of the rest of the oil in his hand, the priest shall put some on the tip of the right ear of him who is to be cleansed, on the thumb of his right hand, and on the big toe of his right foot, on the blood of the trespass offering.

18 “The rest of the oil that is in the priest’s hand he shall put on the head of him who is to be cleansed. So the priest shall make atonement for him before the LORD.

19 “Then the priest shall offer the sin offering, and make atonement for him who is to be cleansed from his uncleanness. Afterward he shall kill the burnt offering.

20 “And the priest shall offer the burnt offering and the grain offering on the altar. So the priest shall make atonement for him, and he shall be clean.

21“But if he is poor and cannot afford it, then he shall take one male lamb as a trespass offering to be waved, to make atonement for him, one-tenth of an ephah of fine flour mixed with oil as a grain offering, a log of oil,

22“and two turtledoves or two young pigeons, such as he is able to afford: one shall be a sin offering and the other a burnt offering.

23“He shall bring them to the priest on the eighth day for his cleansing, to the door of the tabernacle of meeting, before the LORD.

24“And the priest shall take the lamb of the trespass offering and the log of oil, and the priest shall wave them as a wave offering before the LORD.

25“Then he shall kill the lamb of the trespass offering, and the priest shall take some of the blood of the trespass offering and put it on the tip of the right ear of him who is to be cleansed, on the thumb of his right hand, and on the big toe of his right foot.

26“And the priest shall pour some of the oil into the palm of his own left hand.

27“Then the priest shall sprinkle with his right finger some of the oil that is in his left hand seven times before the LORD.

28“And the priest shall put some of the oil that is in his hand on the tip of the right ear of him who is to be cleansed, on the thumb of the right hand, and on the big toe of his right foot, on the place of the blood of the trespass offering.

29“The rest of the oil that is in the priest’s hand he shall put on the head of him who is to be cleansed, to make atonement for him before the LORD.

30“And he shall offer one of the turtledoves or young pigeons, such as he can afford—

31 “such as he is able to afford, the one as a sin offering and the other as a burnt offering, with the grain offering.
So the priest shall make atonement for him who is to be cleansed before the LORD.
32 “This is the law for one who had a leprous sore, who cannot afford the usual cleansing.”

The Law Concerning Leprous Houses

33 And the LORD spoke to Moses and Aaron, saying:
34 “When you have come into the land of Canaan, which I give you as a possession, and I put the leprous plague[a] in a house in the land of your possession, 35 “and he who owns the house comes and tells the priest, saying, ‘It seems to me that there is some plague in the house,’ 36 “then the priest shall command that they empty the house, before the priest goes into it to examine the plague, that all that is in the house may not be made unclean; and afterward the priest shall go in to examine the house.
37 “And he shall examine the plague; and indeed if the plague is on the walls of the house with ingrained streaks, greenish or reddish, which appear to be deep in the wall, 38 “then the priest shall go out of the house, to the door of the house, and shut up the house seven days.
39 “And the priest shall come again on the seventh day and look; and indeed if the plague has spread on the walls of the house, 40 “then the priest shall command that they take away the stones in which is the plague, and they shall cast them into an unclean place outside the city.
41 “And he shall cause the house to be scraped inside, all around, and the dust that they scrape off they shall pour out in an unclean place outside the city.

42 “Then they shall take other stones and put them in the place of those stones, and he shall take other mortar and plaster the house.
43 “Now if the plague comes back and breaks out in the house, after he has taken away the stones, after he has scraped the house, and after it is plastered, 44 “then the priest shall come and look; and indeed if the plague has spread in the house, it is an active leprosy in the house. It is unclean.
45 “And he shall break down the house, its stones, its timber, and all the plaster of the house, and he shall carry them outside the city to an unclean place.
46 “Moreover he who goes into the house at all while it is shut up shall be unclean until evening.
47 “And he who lies down in the house shall wash his clothes, and he who eats in the house shall wash his clothes.
48 “But if the priest comes in and examines it, and indeed the plague has not spread in the house after the house was plastered, then the priest shall pronounce the house clean, because the plague is healed.
49 “And he shall take, to cleanse the house, two birds, cedar wood, scarlet, and hyssop.
50 “Then he shall kill one of the birds in an earthen vessel over running water; 51 “and he shall take the cedar wood, the hyssop, the scarlet, and the living bird, and dip them in the blood of the slain bird and in the running water, and sprinkle the house seven times.
52 “And he shall cleanse the house with the blood of the bird and the running water and the living bird, with the cedar wood, the hyssop, and the scarlet.
53 “Then he shall let the living bird loose outside the city in the open field, and make atonement for the house, and it shall be clean.

54 “This is the law for any leprous sore and scale,

55 “for the leprosy of a garment and of a house,

56 “for a swelling and a scab and a bright spot,

57 “to teach when it is unclean and when it is clean. This is the law of leprosy.”

Leviticus 15

The Law Concerning Bodily Discharges

1 And the LORD spoke to Moses and Aaron, saying,

2 “Speak to the children of Israel, and say to them: ‘When any man has a discharge from his body, his discharge is unclean.

3 ‘And this shall be his uncleanness in regard to his discharge—whether his body runs with his discharge, or his body is stopped up by his discharge, it is his uncleanness.

4 ‘Every bed is unclean on which he who has the discharge lies, and everything on which he sits shall be unclean.

5 ‘And whoever touches his bed shall wash his clothes and bathe in water, and be unclean until evening.

6 ‘He who sits on anything on which he who has the discharge sat shall wash his clothes and bathe in water, and be unclean until evening.

7 ‘And he who touches the body of him who has the discharge shall wash his clothes and bathe in water, and be unclean until evening.

8 ‘If he who has the discharge spits on him who is clean, then he shall wash his clothes and bathe in water, and be unclean until evening.

9 ‘Any saddle on which he who has the discharge rides shall be unclean.

10 ‘Whoever touches anything that was under him shall be unclean until evening. He who carries any of those things shall wash his clothes and bathe in water, and be unclean
until evening.

11 ‘And whomever the one who has the discharge touches, and has not rinsed his hands in water, he shall wash his clothes and bathe in water, and be unclean until evening.

12 ‘The vessel of earth that he who has the discharge touches shall be broken, and every vessel of wood shall be rinsed in water.

13 ‘And when he who has a discharge is cleansed of his discharge, then he shall count for himself seven days for his cleansing, wash his clothes, and bathe his body in running water; then he shall be clean.

14 ‘On the eighth day he shall take for himself two turtledoves or two young pigeons, and come before the LORD, to the door of the tabernacle of meeting, and give them to the priest.

15 ‘Then the priest shall offer them, the one as a sin offering and the other as a burnt offering. So the priest shall make atonement for him before the LORD because of his discharge.

16 ‘If any man has an emission of semen, then he shall wash all his body in water, and be unclean until evening.

17 ‘And any garment and any leather on which there is semen, it shall be washed with water, and be unclean until evening.

18 ‘Also, when a woman lies with a man, and there is an emission of semen, they shall bathe in water, and be unclean until evening.

19 ‘If a woman has a discharge, and the discharge from her body is blood, she shall be set apart seven days; and whoever touches her shall be unclean until evening.

20 ‘Everything that she lies on during her impurity shall be unclean; also everything that she sits on shall be unclean.

21 ‘Whoever touches her bed shall wash his clothes and bathe in water, and be unclean until evening.

22 ‘And whoever touches anything that she sat on shall wash his clothes and bathe in water, and be unclean until evening.

23 ‘If anything is on her bed or on anything on which she sits, when he touches it, he shall be unclean until evening.
24 ‘And if any man lies with her at all, so that her impurity is on him, he shall be unclean seven days; and every bed on which he lies shall be unclean.
25 ‘If a woman has a discharge of blood for many days, other than at the time of her customary impurity, or if it runs beyond her usual time of impurity, all the days of her unclean discharge shall be as the days of her customary impurity. She shall be unclean.
26 ‘Every bed on which she lies all the days of her discharge shall be to her as the bed of her impurity; and whatever she sits on shall be unclean, as the uncleanness of her impurity.
27 ‘Whoever touches those things shall be unclean; he shall wash his clothes and bathe in water, and be unclean
until evening.
28 ‘But if she is cleansed of her discharge, then she shall count for herself seven days, and after that she shall be clean.
29 ‘And on the eighth day she shall take for herself two turtledoves or two young pigeons, and bring them to the priest, to the door of the tabernacle of meeting.
30 ‘Then the priest shall offer the one as a sin offering and the other as a burnt offering, and the priest shall make atonement for her before the LORD for the discharge of her uncleanness.
31 ‘Thus you shall separate the children of Israel from their uncleanness, lest they die in their uncleanness when they defile My tabernacle that is among them.
32 ‘This is the law for one who has a discharge, and for him who emits semen and is unclean thereby,

33‘and for her who is indisposed because of her customary impurity, and for one who has a discharge, either man or woman, and for him who lies with her who is unclean.’ ”

Leviticus 16

The Day of Atonement

1 Now the LORD spoke to Moses after the death of the two sons of Aaron, when they offered profane fire before the LORD, and died; The Day of Atonement

2 and the LORD said to Moses: “Tell Aaron your brother not to come at just any time into the Holy Place inside the veil, before the mercy seat which is on the ark, lest he die;
for I will appear in the cloud above the mercy seat.

3 “Thus Aaron shall come into the Holy Place: with the blood of a young bull as a sin offering, and of a ram as a burnt offering.

4 “He shall put the holy linen tunic and the linen trousers on his body; he shall be girded with a linen sash, and with the linen turban he shall be attired. These are holy garments. Therefore he shall wash his body in water, and put them on.

5 “And he shall take from the congregation of the children of Israel two kids of the goats as a sin offering, and one ram as a burnt offering.

6 “Aaron shall offer the bull as a sin offering, which is for himself, and make atonement for himself and for his house.

7 “He shall take the two goats and present them before the LORD at the door of the tabernacle of meeting.

8 “Then Aaron shall cast lots for the two goats: one lot for the LORD and the other lot for the scapegoat.

9 “And Aaron shall bring the goat on which the LORD’s lot fell, and offer it as a sin offering.

10 “But the goat on which the lot fell to be the scapegoat shall be presented alive before the LORD, to make atonement upon it, and to let it go as the scapegoat into the wilderness.

11 “And Aaron shall bring the bull of the sin offering, which is for himself, and make atonement for himself and for his house, and shall kill the bull as the sin offering which is for himself.

12 “Then he shall take a censer full of burning coals of fire from the altar before the LORD, with his hands full of sweet incense beaten fine, and bring it inside the veil.

13 “And he shall put the incense on the fire before the LORD, that the cloud of incense may cover the mercy seat that is on the Testimony, lest he die.

14 “He shall take some of the blood of the bull and sprinkle it with his finger on the mercy seat on the east side; and before the mercy seat he shall sprinkle some of the blood with his finger seven times.

15 “Then he shall kill the goat of the sin offering, which is for the people, bring its blood inside the veil, do with that blood as he did with the blood of the bull, and sprinkle it on the mercy seat and before the mercy seat.

16 “So he shall make atonement for the Holy Place, because of the uncleanness of the children of Israel, and because of their transgressions, for all their sins; and so he shall do for the tabernacle of meeting which remains among them in the midst of their uncleanness.

17 “There shall be no man in the tabernacle of meeting when he goes in to make atonement in the Holy Place, until he comes out, that he may make atonement for himself, for his household, and for all the assembly of Israel.

18 “And he shall go out to the altar that is before the LORD, and make atonement for it, and shall take some of the blood of the bull and some of the blood of the goat, and put it on the horns of the altar all around.

19 “Then he shall sprinkle some of the blood on it with his finger seven times, cleanse it, and consecrate it from the uncleanness of the children of Israel.
20 “And when he has made an end of atoning for the Holy Place, the tabernacle of meeting, and the altar, he shall bring the live goat.
21 “Aaron shall lay both his hands on the head of the live goat, confess over it all the iniquities of the children of Israel, and all their transgressions, concerning all their sins, putting them on the head of the goat, and shall send it away into the wilderness by the hand of a suitable man.
22 “The goat shall bear on itself all their iniquities to an uninhabited land; and he shall release the goat in the wilderness.
23 “Then Aaron shall come into the tabernacle of meeting, shall take off the linen garments which he put on when he went into the Holy Place, and shall leave them there.
24 “And he shall wash his body with water in a holy place, put on his garments, come out and offer his burnt offering and the burnt offering of the people, and make atonement for himself and for the people.
25 “The fat of the sin offering he shall burn on the altar.
26 “And he who released the goat as the scapegoat shall wash his clothes and bathe his body in water, and afterward he may come into the camp.
27 “The bull for the sin offering and the goat for the sin offering, whose blood was brought in to make atonement in the Holy Place, shall be carried outside the camp. And they shall burn in the fire their skins, their flesh, and their offal.
28 “Then he who burns them shall wash his clothes and bathe his body in water, and afterward he may come into the camp.
29 “This shall be a statute forever for you: In the seventh month, on the tenth day of the month, you shall afflict your souls, and do no work at all, whether a native of your own country or a stranger who dwells among you.

30 “For on that day the priest shall make atonement for you, to cleanse you, that you may be clean from all your sins before the LORD.

31 “It is a sabbath of solemn rest for you, and you shall afflict your souls. It is a statute forever.

32 “And the priest, who is anointed and consecrated to minister as priest in his father’s place, shall make atonement, and put on the linen clothes, the holy garments;

33 “then he shall make atonement for the Holy Sanctuary,[a] and he shall make atonement for the tabernacle of meeting and for the altar, and he shall make atonement for the priests and for all the people of the assembly.

34 “This shall be an everlasting statute for you, to make atonement for the children of Israel, for all their sins, once a year.” And he did as the LORD commanded Moses.

Leviticus 17

The Sanctity of Blood

1 And the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,

2 “Speak to Aaron, to his sons, and to all the children of Israel, and say to them, ‘This is the thing which the LORD has commanded, saying:

3 “Whatever man of the house of Israel who kills an ox or lamb or goat in the camp, or who kills it outside the camp,

4 “and does not bring it to the door of the tabernacle of meeting to offer an offering to the LORD before the tabernacle of the LORD, the guilt of bloodshed shall be imputed to that man. He has shed blood; and that man shall be cut off from among his people,

5 “to the end that the children of Israel may bring their sacrifices which they offer in the open field, that they may bring them to the LORD at the door of the tabernacle of meeting, to the priest, and offer them as peace offerings to the LORD.

6 “And the priest shall sprinkle the blood on the altar of the LORD at the door of the tabernacle of meeting, and burn the fat for a sweet aroma to the LORD.

7 “They shall no more offer their sacrifices to demons, after whom they have played the harlot. This shall be a statute forever for them throughout their generations.” ’

8 “Also you shall say to them: ‘Whatever man of the house of Israel, or of the strangers who dwell among you, who offers a burnt offering or sacrifice, A Place to Be Forgiven

9 ‘and does not bring it to the door of the tabernacle of meeting, to offer it to the LORD, that man shall be cut off from among his people.

10 ‘And whatever man of the house of Israel, or of the strangers who dwell among you, who eats any blood, I will set My face against that person who eats blood, and will cut him off from among his people.

11 ‘For the life of the flesh is in the blood, and I have given it to you upon the altar to make atonement for your souls; for it is the blood that makes atonement for the soul.’

12 “Therefore I said to the children of Israel, ‘No one among you shall eat blood, nor shall any stranger who dwells among you eat blood.’

13 “Whatever man of the children of Israel, or of the strangers who dwell among you, who hunts and catches any animal or bird that may be eaten, he shall pour out its blood and cover it with dust;

14 “for it is the life of all flesh. Its blood sustains its life. Therefore I said to the children of Israel, ‘You shall not eat the blood of any flesh, for the life of all flesh is its blood. Whoever eats it shall be cut off.’

15 “And every person who eats what died naturally or what was torn by beasts, whether he is a native of your own country or a stranger, he shall both wash his clothes and bathe in water, and be unclean until evening. Then he shall be clean.

16 “But if he does not wash them or bathe his body, then he shall bear his guilt.”

Leviticus 18

Laws of Sexual Morality

1 Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,

2 “Speak to the children of Israel, and say to them: ‘I am the LORD your God.

3 ‘According to the doings of the land of Egypt, where you dwelt, you shall not do; and according to the doings of the land of Canaan, where I am bringing you, you shall not do; nor shall you walk in their ordinances.

4 ‘You shall observe My judgments and keep My ordinances, to walk in them: I am the LORD your God.

5 ‘You shall therefore keep My statutes and My judgments, which if a man does, he shall live by them: I am the LORD. Saved by Grace

6 ‘None of you shall approach anyone who is near of kin to him, to uncover his nakedness: I am the LORD. Cherish the Gift of Human Sexuality

7 ‘The nakedness of your father or the nakedness of your mother you shall not uncover. She is your mother; you shall not uncover her nakedness.

8 ‘The nakedness of your father’s wife you shall not uncover; it is your father’s nakedness.

9 ‘The nakedness of your sister, the daughter of your father, or the daughter of your mother, whether born at home or elsewhere, their nakedness you shall not uncover.

10 ‘The nakedness of your son’s daughter or your daughter’s daughter, their nakedness you shall not uncover; for theirs is your own nakedness.

11 ‘The nakedness of your father’s wife’s daughter, begotten by your father—she is your sister—you shall not uncover her nakedness.

12 ‘You shall not uncover the nakedness of your father’s sister; she is near of kin to your father.
13 ‘You shall not uncover the nakedness of your mother’s sister, for she is near of kin to your mother.
14 ‘You shall not uncover the nakedness of your father’s brother. You shall not approach his wife; she is your aunt.
15 ‘You shall not uncover the nakedness of your daughter-in-law—she is your son’s wife—you shall not uncover her nakedness.
16 ‘You shall not uncover the nakedness of your brother’s wife; it is your brother’s nakedness.
17 ‘You shall not uncover the nakedness of a woman and her daughter, nor shall you take her son’s daughter or her daughter’s daughter, to uncover her nakedness. They are near of kin to her. It is wickedness.
18 ‘Nor shall you take a woman as a rival to her sister, to uncover her nakedness while the other is alive.
19 ‘Also you shall not approach a woman to uncover her nakedness as long as she is in her customary impurity.
20 ‘Moreover you shall not lie carnally with your neighbor’s wife, to defile yourself with her.
21 ‘And you shall not let any of your descendants pass through the fire to Molech, nor shall you profane the name of your God: I am the LORD.
22 ‘You shall not lie with a male as with a woman. It is an abomination.
23 ‘Nor shall you mate with any animal, to defile yourself with it. Nor shall any woman stand before an animal to mate with it. It is perversion.
24 ‘Do not defile yourselves with any of these things; for by all these the nations are defiled, which I am casting out before you. Abominations: How Not to Act 25 ‘For the land is defiled; therefore I visit the punishment of its iniquity upon it, and the land vomits out its inhabitants.

26 ‘You shall therefore keep My statutes and My judgments, and shall not commit any of these abominations, either any of your own nation or any stranger who dwells among you

27 ‘(for all these abominations the men of the land have done, who were before you, and thus the land is defiled),

28 ‘lest the land vomit you out also when you defile it, as it vomited out the nations that were before you.

29 ‘For whoever commits any of these abominations, the persons who commit them shall be cut off from among their people.

30 ‘Therefore you shall keep My ordinance, so that you do not commit any of these abominable customs which were committed before you, and that you do not defile yourselves by them: I am the LORD your God.’ ”

Leviticus 19

Moral and Ceremonial Laws

1 And the LORD spoke to Moses, saying, Our Reason to Obey

2 “Speak to all the congregation of the children of Israel, and say to them: ‘You shall be holy, for I the LORD your God am holy.

3 ‘Every one of you shall revere his mother and his father, and keep My Sabbaths: I am the LORD your God.

4 ‘Do not turn to idols, nor make for yourselves molded gods: I am the LORD your God.

5 ‘And if you offer a sacrifice of a peace offering to the LORD, you shall offer it of your own free will.

6 ‘It shall be eaten the same day you offer it, and on the next day. And if any remains until the third day, it shall be burned in the fire.

7 ‘And if it is eaten at all on the third day, it is an abomination. It shall not be accepted.

8 ‘Therefore everyone who eats it shall bear his iniquity, because he has profaned the hallowed offering of the LORD; and that person shall be cut off from his people.

9 ‘When you reap the harvest of your land, you shall not wholly reap the corners of your field, nor shall you gather the gleanings of your harvest. Gleaning and the Poor

10 ‘And you shall not glean your vineyard, nor shall you gather every grape of your vineyard; you shall leave them for the poor and the stranger: I am the LORD your God. Modern Gleaning

11 ‘You shall not steal, nor deal falsely, nor lie to one another.

12 ‘And you shall not swear by My name falsely, nor shall you profane the name of your God: I am the LORD.
13 ‘You shall not cheat your neighbor, nor rob him. The wages of him who is hired shall not remain with you all night until morning.
14 ‘You shall not curse the deaf, nor put a stumbling block before the blind, but shall fear your God: I am the LORD.
15 ‘You shall do no injustice in judgment. You shall not be partial to the poor, nor honor the person of the mighty. In righteousness you shall judge your neighbor.
16 ‘You shall not go about as a talebearer among your people; nor shall you take a stand against the life of your neighbor: I am the LORD.
17 ‘You shall not hate your brother in your heart. You shall surely rebuke your neighbor, and not bear sin because of
him.
18 ‘You shall not take vengeance, nor bear any grudge against the children of your people, but you shall love your neighbor as yourself: I am the LORD. Love Your Neighbor as Yourself 19 ‘You shall keep My statutes. You shall not let your livestock breed with another kind. You shall not sow your field with mixed seed. Nor shall a garment of mixed linen and wool come upon you.
20 ‘Whoever lies carnally with a woman who is betrothed to a man as a concubine, and who has not at all been redeemed nor given her freedom, for this there shall be scourging; but they shall not be put to death, because she was not free.
21 ‘And he shall bring his trespass offering to the LORD, to the door of the tabernacle of meeting, a ram as a trespass offering.
22 ‘The priest shall make atonement for him with the ram of the trespass offering before the LORD for his sin which he has committed. And the sin which he has committed shall be forgiven him.

23 ‘When you come into the land, and have planted all kinds of trees for food, then you shall count their fruit as uncircumcised. Three years it shall be as uncircumcised to you. It shall not be eaten.

24 ‘But in the fourth year all its fruit shall be holy, a praise to the LORD.

25 ‘And in the fifth year you may eat its fruit, that it may yield to you its increase: I am the LORD your God.

26 ‘You shall not eat anything with the blood, nor shall you practice divination or soothsaying.

27 ‘You shall not shave around the sides of your head, nor shall you disfigure the edges of your beard.

28 ‘You shall not make any cuttings in your flesh for the dead, nor tattoo any marks on you: I am the LORD.

29 ‘Do not prostitute your daughter, to cause her to be a harlot, lest the land fall into harlotry, and the land become full of wickedness.

30 ‘You shall keep My Sabbaths and reverence My sanctuary: I am the LORD.

31 ‘Give no regard to mediums and familiar spirits; do not seek after them, to be defiled by them: I am the LORD your God.

32 ‘You shall rise before the gray headed and honor the presence of an old man, and fear your God: I am the LORD.

33 ‘And if a stranger dwells with you in your land, you shall not mistreat him.

34 ‘The stranger who dwells among you shall be to you as one born among you, and you shall love him as yourself; for you were strangers in the land of Egypt: I am the LORD your God.

35 “You shall do no injustice in judgment, in measurement of length, weight, or volume. Theology for the Marketplace

36 “You shall have honest scales, honest weights, an honest ephah, and an honest hin: I am the LORD your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt.

37 “Therefore you shall observe all My statutes and all My judgments, and perform them: I am the LORD.’ ”

Leviticus 20

Penalties for Breaking the Law

1 Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,

2 “Again, you shall say to the children of Israel: ‘Whoever of the children of Israel, or of the strangers who dwell in Israel, who gives any of his descendants to Molech, he shall surely be put to death. The people of the land shall stone him with stones.

3 ‘I will set My face against that man, and will cut him off from his people, because he has given some of his descendants to Molech, to defile My sanctuary and profane My holy name.

4 ‘And if the people of the land should in any way hide their eyes from the man, when he gives some of his descendants to Molech, and they do not kill him,

5 ‘then I will set My face against that man and against his family; and I will cut him off from his people, and all who prostitute themselves with him to commit harlotry with Molech.

6 ‘And the person who turns to mediums and familiar spirits, to prostitute himself with them, I will set My face against that person and cut him off from his people. Reliable Truth

7 ‘Consecrate yourselves therefore, and be holy, for I am the LORD your God.

8 ‘And you shall keep My statutes, and perform them: I am the LORD who sanctifies you.

9 ‘For everyone who curses his father or his mother shall surely be put to death. He has cursed his father or his mother. His blood shall be upon him. Respecting Parents

10 ‘The man who commits adultery with another man’s wife, he who commits adultery with his neighbor’s wife, the adulterer and the adulteress, shall surely be put to death.
11 ‘The man who lies with his father’s wife has uncovered his father’s nakedness; both of them shall surely be put to death. Their blood shall be upon them.
12 ‘If a man lies with his daughter-in-law, both of them shall surely be put to death. They have committed perversion. Their blood shall be upon them.
13 ‘If a man lies with a male as he lies with a woman, both of them have committed an abomination. They shall surely be put to death. Their blood shall be upon them.
14 ‘If a man marries a woman and her mother, it is wickedness. They shall be burned with fire, both he and they, that there may be no wickedness among you.
15 ‘If a man mates with an animal, he shall surely be put to death, and you shall kill the animal.
16 ‘If a woman approaches any animal and mates with it, you shall kill the woman and the animal. They shall surely be put to death. Their blood is upon them.
17 ‘If a man takes his sister, his father’s daughter or his mother’s daughter, and sees her nakedness and she sees his nakedness, it is a wicked thing. And they shall be cut off in the sight of their people. He has uncovered his sister’s nakedness. He shall bear his guilt.
18 ‘If a man lies with a woman during her sickness and uncovers her nakedness, he has exposed her flow, and she has uncovered the flow of her blood. Both of them shall be cut off from their people.
19 ‘You shall not uncover the nakedness of your mother’s sister nor of your father’s sister, for that would uncover his near of kin. They shall bear their guilt.
20 ‘If a man lies with his uncle’s wife, he has uncovered his uncle’s nakedness. They shall bear their sin; they shall die childless.

21 ‘If a man takes his brother’s wife, it is an unclean thing.
He has uncovered his brother’s nakedness. They shall be childless.

22 ‘You shall therefore keep all My statutes and all My judgments, and perform them, that the land where I am bringing you to dwell may not vomit you out.

23 ‘And you shall not walk in the statutes of the nation which I am casting out before you; for they commit all these things, and therefore I abhor them.

24 ‘But I have said to you, “You shall inherit their land, and I will give it to you to possess, a land flowing with milk and honey.” I am the LORD your God, who has separated you from the peoples.

25 ‘You shall therefore distinguish between clean animals and unclean, between unclean birds and clean, and you shall not make yourselves abominable by beast or by bird, or by any kind of living thing that creeps on the ground, which I have separated from you as unclean.

26 ‘And you shall be holy to Me, for I the LORD am holy, and have separated you from the peoples, that you should be Mine.

27 ‘A man or a woman who is a medium, or who has familiar spirits, shall surely be put to death; they shall stone them with stones. Their blood shall be upon them.’ ”

Leviticus 21

Regulations for Conduct of Priests

1 And the LORD said to Moses, “Speak to the priests, the sons of Aaron, and say to them: ‘None shall defile himself for the dead among his people, 2 ‘except for his relatives who are nearest to him: his mother, his father, his son, his daughter, and his brother;
3 ‘also his virgin sister who is near to him, who has had no husband, for her he may defile himself.
4 ‘Otherwise he shall not defile himself, being a chief man among his people, to profane himself.
5 ‘They shall not make any bald place on their heads, nor shall they shave the edges of their beards nor make any cuttings in their flesh.
6 ‘They shall be holy to their God and not profane the name of their God, for they offer the offerings of the LORD made by fire, and the bread of their God; therefore they shall be holy.
7 ‘They shall not take a wife who is a harlot or a defiled woman, nor shall they take a woman divorced from her husband; for the priest[a] is holy to his God.
8 ‘Therefore you shall consecrate him, for he offers the bread of your God. He shall be holy to you, for I the LORD, who sanctify you, am holy.
9 ‘The daughter of any priest, if she profanes herself by playing the harlot, she profanes her father. She shall be burned with fire.
10 ‘He who is the high priest among his brethren, on whose head the anointing oil was poured and who is consecrated to wear the garments, shall not uncover his head nor tear his clothes;

11 ‘nor shall he go near any dead body, nor defile himself for his father or his mother; 12 ‘nor shall he go out of the sanctuary, nor profane the sanctuary of his God; for the consecration of the anointing oil of his God is upon him: I am the LORD.
13 ‘And he shall take a wife in her virginity.
14 ‘A widow or a divorced woman or a defiled woman or a harlot—these he shall not marry; but he shall take a virgin of his own people as wife.
15 ‘Nor shall he profane his posterity among his people, for I the LORD sanctify him.’ ”
16 And the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,
17 “Speak to Aaron, saying: ‘No man of your descendants in succeeding generations, who has any defect, may approach to offer the bread of his God.
18 ‘For any man who has a defect shall not approach: a man blind or lame, who has a marred face or any limb too long,
19 ‘a man who has a broken foot or broken hand, 20 ‘or is a hunchback or a dwarf, or a man who has a defect in his eye, or eczema or scab, or is a eunuch.
21 ‘No man of the descendants of Aaron the priest, who has a defect, shall come near to offer the offerings made by fire to the LORD. He has a defect; he shall not come near to offer the bread of his God.
22 ‘He may eat the bread of his God, both the most holy and the holy;
23 ‘only he shall not go near the veil or approach the altar, because he has a defect, lest he profane My sanctuaries;
for I the LORD sanctify them.’ ” 24 And Moses told it to Aaron and his sons, and to all the children of Israel.

Leviticus 22

[1]Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,

[2]“Speak to Aaron and his sons, that they separate themselves from the holy things of the children of Israel, and that they do not profane My holy name by what they dedicate to Me: I am the LORD.

[3]“Say to them: ‘Whoever of all your descendants throughout your generations, who goes near the holy things which the children of Israel dedicate to the LORD, while he has uncleanness upon him, that person shall be cut off from My presence: I am the LORD.

[4]‘Whatever man of the descendants of Aaron, who is a leper or has a discharge, shall not eat the holy offerings until he is clean. And whoever touches anything made unclean by a corpse, or a man who has had an emission of semen,

[5]‘or whoever touches any creeping thing by which he would be made unclean, or any person by whom he would become unclean, whatever his uncleanness may be—

[6]‘the person who has touched any such thing shall be unclean until evening, and shall not eat the holy offerings unless he washes his body with water.

[7]‘And when the sun goes down he shall be clean; and afterward he may eat the holy offerings, because it is his food.

[8]‘Whatever dies naturally or is torn by beasts he shall not eat, to defile himself with it: I am the LORD.

[9]‘They shall therefore keep My ordinance, lest they bear sin for it and die thereby, if they profane it: I the LORD sanctify them.

10‘No outsider shall eat the holy offering; one who dwells with the priest, or a hired servant, shall not eat the holy thing.

11 ‘But if the priest buys a person with his money, he may eat it; and one who is born in his house may eat his food.

12 ‘If the priest’s daughter is married to an outsider, she may not eat of the holy offerings.

13 ‘But if the priest’s daughter is a widow or divorced, and has no child, and has returned to her father’s house as in her youth, she may eat her father’s food; but no outsider shall eat it.

14 ‘And if a man eats the holy offering unintentionally, then he shall restore a holy offering to the priest, and add one-fifth to it.

15 ‘They shall not profane the holy offerings of the children of Israel, which they offer to the LORD,

16 ‘or allow them to bear the guilt of trespass when they eat their holy offerings; for I the LORD sanctify them.’ ”

Offerings Accepted and Not Accepted

17 And the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,

18 “Speak to Aaron and his sons, and to all the children of Israel, and say to them: ‘Whatever man of the house of Israel, or of the strangers in Israel, who offers his sacrifice for any of his vows or for any of his freewill offerings, which they offer to the LORD as a burnt offering—

19 ‘you shall offer of your own free will a male without blemish from the cattle, from the sheep, or from the goats.

20 ‘Whatever has a defect, you shall not offer, for it shall not be acceptable on your behalf. Choosing Our Best

21 ‘And whoever offers a sacrifice of a peace offering to the LORD, to fulfill his vow, or a freewill offering from the cattle or the sheep, it must be perfect to be accepted; there shall be no defect in it.

22 ‘Those that are blind or broken or maimed, or have an ulcer or eczema or scabs, you shall not offer to the LORD, nor make an offering by fire of them on the altar to the LORD.

23 ‘Either a bull or a lamb that has any limb too long or too short you may offer as a freewill offering, but for a vow it shall not be accepted.

24 ‘You shall not offer to the LORD what is bruised or crushed, or torn or cut; nor shall you make any offering of them in your land.

25 ‘Nor from a foreigner’s hand shall you offer any of these as the bread of your God, because their corruption is in them, and defects are in them. They shall not be accepted on your behalf.’ ”

26 And the LORD spoke to Moses, saying:

27 “When a bull or a sheep or a goat is born, it shall be seven days with its mother; and from the eighth day and thereafter it shall be accepted as an offering made by fire to the LORD.

28 “Whether it is a cow or ewe, do not kill both her and her young on the same day.

29 “And when you offer a sacrifice of thanksgiving to the LORD, offer it of your own free will.

30 “On the same day it shall be eaten; you shall leave none of it until morning: I am the LORD.

31 “Therefore you shall keep My commandments, and perform them: I am the LORD.

32 “You shall not profane My holy name, but I will be hallowed among the children of Israel. I am the LORD who sanctifies you,

33 “who brought you out of the land of Egypt, to be your God: I am the LORD.”

Leviticus 23

Feasts of the LORD

1 And the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,

2 "Speak to the children of Israel, and say to them: 'The feasts of the LORD, which you shall proclaim to be holy convocations, these are My feasts.

The Sabbath

3 'Six days shall work be done, but the seventh day is a Sabbath of solemn rest, a holy convocation. You shall do no work on it; it is the Sabbath of the LORD in all your dwellings.

The Passover and Unleavened Bread

4 'These are the feasts of the LORD, holy convocations which you shall proclaim at their appointed times.

5 'On the fourteenth day of the first month at twilight is the LORD's Passover.

6 'And on the fifteenth day of the same month is the Feast of Unleavened Bread to the LORD; seven days you must eat unleavened bread.

7 'On the first day you shall have a holy convocation; you shall do no customary work on it.

8 'But you shall offer an offering made by fire to the LORD for seven days. The seventh day shall be a holy convocation; you shall do no customary work on it.' "

The Feast of Firstfruits

9 And the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,

10 “Speak to the children of Israel, and say to them: ‘When you come into the land which I give to you, and reap its harvest, then you shall bring a sheaf of the firstfruits of your harvest to the priest.
11 ‘He shall wave the sheaf before the LORD, to be accepted on your behalf; on the day after the Sabbath the priest shall wave it.
12 ‘And you shall offer on that day, when you wave the sheaf, a male lamb of the first year, without blemish, as a burnt offering to the LORD.
13 ‘Its grain offering shall be two-tenths of an ephah of fine flour mixed with oil, an offering made by fire to the LORD, for a sweet aroma; and its drink offering shall be of wine, one-fourth of a hin.
14 ‘You shall eat neither bread nor parched grain nor fresh grain until the same day that you have brought an offering to your God; it shall be a statute forever throughout your generations in all your dwellings.

The Feast of Weeks

15 ‘And you shall count for yourselves from the day after the Sabbath, from the day that you brought the sheaf of the wave offering: seven Sabbaths shall be completed.
16 ‘Count fifty days to the day after the seventh Sabbath; then you shall offer a new grain offering to the LORD.
17 ‘You shall bring from your dwellings two wave loaves of two-tenths of an ephah. They shall be of fine flour; they shall be baked with leaven. They are the firstfruits to the LORD.
18 ‘And you shall offer with the bread seven lambs of the first year, without blemish, one young bull, and two rams. They shall be as a burnt offering to the LORD, with their grain offering and their drink offerings, an offering made by fire for a sweet aroma to the LORD.

19 ‘Then you shall sacrifice one kid of the goats as a sin offering, and two male lambs of the first year as a sacrifice of a peace offering.
20 ‘The priest shall wave them with the bread of the firstfruits as a wave offering before the LORD, with the two lambs. They shall be holy to the LORD for the priest.
21 ‘And you shall proclaim on the same day that it is a holy convocation to you. You shall do no customary work on it. It shall be a statute forever in all your dwellings throughout your generations.
22 ‘When you reap the harvest of your land, you shall not wholly reap the corners of your field when you reap, nor shall you gather any gleaning from your harvest. You shall leave them for the poor and for the stranger: I am the LORD your God.’ ”

The Feast of Trumpets

23 Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,
24 “Speak to the children of Israel, saying: ‘In the seventh month, on the first day of the month, you shall have a sabbath-rest, a memorial of blowing of trumpets, a holy convocation.
25 ‘You shall do no customary work on it; and you shall offer an offering made by fire to the LORD.’ ”

The Day of Atonement

26 And the LORD spoke to Moses, saying:
27 “Also the tenth day of this seventh month shall be the Day of Atonement. It shall be a holy convocation for you;
you shall afflict your souls, and offer an offering made by fire to the LORD.
28 “And you shall do no work on that same day, for it is the Day of Atonement, to make atonement for you before the LORD your God.

29 “For any person who is not afflicted in soul on that same day shall be cut off from his people.
30 “And any person who does any work on that same day,
that person I will destroy from among his people.
31 “You shall do no manner of work; it shall be a statute forever throughout your generations in all your dwellings.
32 “It shall be to you a sabbath of solemn rest, and you shall afflict your souls; on the ninth day of the month at evening, from evening to evening, you shall celebrate your sabbath.”

The Feast of Tabernacles

33 Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,
34 “Speak to the children of Israel, saying: ‘The fifteenth day of this seventh month shall be the Feast of Tabernacles for seven days to the LORD.
35 ‘On the first day there shall be a holy convocation. You shall do no customary work on it.
36 ‘For seven days you shall offer an offering made by fire to the LORD. On the eighth day you shall have a holy convocation, and you shall offer an offering made by fire to the LORD. It is a sacred assembly, and you shall do no customary work on it.
37 ‘These are the feasts of the LORD which you shall proclaim to be holy convocations, to offer an offering made by fire to the LORD, a burnt offering and a grain offering, a sacrifice and drink offerings, everything on its day—38 ‘besides the Sabbaths of the LORD, besides your gifts, besides all your vows, and besides all your freewill offerings which you give to the LORD.
39 ‘Also on the fifteenth day of the seventh month, when you have gathered in the fruit of the land, you shall keep the feast of the LORD for seven days; on the first day there shall be a sabbath-rest, and on the eighth day a sabbath-rest.

40 ‘And you shall take for yourselves on the first day the fruit of beautiful trees, branches of palm trees, the boughs of leafy trees, and willows of the brook; and you shall rejoice before the LORD your God for seven days.

41 ‘You shall keep it as a feast to the LORD for seven days in the year. It shall be a statute forever in your generations. You shall celebrate it in the seventh month.

42 ‘You shall dwell in booths for seven days. All who are native Israelites shall dwell in booths,

43 ‘that your generations may know that I made the children of Israel dwell in booths when I brought them out of the land of Egypt: I am the LORD your God.’ ”

44 So Moses declared to the children of Israel the feasts of the LORD.

Leviticus 24

Care of the Tabernacle Lamps

1 Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying:

2 “Command the children of Israel that they bring to you pure oil of pressed olives for the light, to make the lamps burn continually.

3 “Outside the veil of the Testimony, in the tabernacle of meeting, Aaron shall be in charge of it from evening until morning before the LORD continually; it shall be a statute forever in your generations.

4 “He shall be in charge of the lamps on the pure gold lampstand before the LORD continually.

The Bread of the Tabernacle

5 “And you shall take fine flour and bake twelve cakes with it. Two-tenths of an ephah shall be in each cake.

6 “You shall set them in two rows, six in a row, on the pure gold table before the LORD.

7 “And you shall put pure frankincense on each row, that it may be on the bread for a memorial, an offering made by fire to the LORD.

8 “Every Sabbath he shall set it in order before the LORD continually, being taken from the children of Israel by an everlasting covenant.

9 “And it shall be for Aaron and his sons, and they shall eat it in a holy place; for it is most holy to him from the offerings of the LORD made by fire, by a perpetual statute.”

The Penalty for Blasphemy

10 Now the son of an Israelite woman, whose father was an Egyptian, went out among the children of Israel; and this Israelite woman's son and a man of Israel fought each other in the camp.

11 And the Israelite woman's son blasphemed the name of the LORD and cursed; and so they brought him to Moses. (His mother's name was Shelomith the daughter of Dibri, of the tribe of Dan.) Samples of Blasphemy

12 Then they put him in custody, that the mind of the LORD might be shown to them.

13 And the LORD spoke to Moses, saying, Hold to Your Word

14 "Take outside the camp him who has cursed; then let all who heard him lay their hands on his head, and let all the congregation stone him.

15 "Then you shall speak to the children of Israel, saying: 'Whoever curses his God shall bear his sin.

16 'And whoever blasphemes the name of the LORD shall surely be put to death. All the congregation shall certainly stone him, the stranger as well as him who is born in the land. When he blasphemes the name of the LORD, he shall be put to death.

17 'Whoever kills any man shall surely be put to death.

18 'Whoever kills an animal shall make it good, animal for animal.

19 'If a man causes disfigurement of his neighbor, as he has done, so shall it be done to him—

20 'fracture for fracture, eye for eye, tooth for tooth; as he has caused disfigurement of a man, so shall it be done to him.

21 'And whoever kills an animal shall restore it; but whoever kills a man shall be put to death.

22 'You shall have the same law for the stranger and for one from your own country; for I am the LORD your God.' "

23 Then Moses spoke to the children of Israel; and they took outside the camp him who had cursed, and stoned him with stones. So the children of Israel did as the LORD commanded Moses.

Leviticus 25

The Sabbath of the Seventh Year

1 And the LORD spoke to Moses on Mount Sinai, saying,

2 “Speak to the children of Israel, and say to them: ‘When you come into the land which I give you, then the land shall keep a sabbath to the LORD. The Sabbath Year

3 ‘Six years you shall sow your field, and six years you shall prune your vineyard, and gather its fruit;

4 ‘but in the seventh year there shall be a sabbath of solemn rest for the land, a sabbath to the LORD. You shall neither sow your field nor prune your vineyard.

5 ‘What grows of its own accord of your harvest you shall not reap, nor gather the grapes of your untended vine, for it is a year of rest for the land. A Conservation Law

6 ‘And the sabbath produce of the land shall be food for you: for you, your male and female servants, your hired man, and the stranger who dwells with you,

7 ‘for your livestock and the beasts that are in your land—all its produce shall be for food.

The Year of Jubilee

8 ‘And you shall count seven sabbaths of years for yourself, seven times seven years; and the time of the seven sabbaths of years shall be to you forty-nine years. The Year of Jubilee

9 ‘Then you shall cause the trumpet of the Jubilee to sound on the tenth day of the seventh month; on the Day of Atonement you shall make the trumpet to sound throughout all your land.

10 ‘And you shall consecrate the fiftieth year, and proclaim liberty throughout all the land to all its inhabitants. It shall be a Jubilee for you; and each of you shall return to his possession, and each of you shall return to his family.
11 ‘That fiftieth year shall be a Jubilee to you; in it you shall neither sow nor reap what grows of its own accord, nor gather the grapes of your untended vine.
12 ‘For it is the Jubilee; it shall be holy to you; you shall eat its produce from the field.
13 ‘In this Year of Jubilee, each of you shall return to his possession.
14 ‘And if you sell anything to your neighbor or buy from your neighbor’s hand, you shall not oppress one another.
15 ‘According to the number of years after the Jubilee you shall buy from your neighbor, and according to the number of years of crops he shall sell to you.
16 ‘According to the multitude of years you shall increase its price, and according to the fewer number of years you shall diminish its price; for he sells to you according to the number of the years of the crops.
17 ‘Therefore you shall not oppress one another, but you shall fear your God; for I am the LORD your God.

Provisions for the Seventh Year

18 ‘So you shall observe My statutes and keep My judgments, and perform them; and you will dwell in the land in safety.
19 ‘Then the land will yield its fruit, and you will eat your fill, and dwell there in safety.
20 ‘And if you say, “What shall we eat in the seventh year, since we shall not sow nor gather in our produce?” 21 ‘Then I will command My blessing on you in the sixth year, and it will bring forth produce enough for three years.

22 ‘And you shall sow in the eighth year, and eat old produce until the ninth year; until its produce comes in,
you shall eat of the old harvest.

Redemption of Property

23 ‘The land shall not be sold permanently, for the land is Mine; for you are strangers and sojourners with Me.
24 ‘And in all the land of your possession you shall grant redemption of the land.
25 ‘If one of your brethren becomes poor, and has sold some of his possession, and if his redeeming relative comes to redeem it, then he may redeem what his brother sold.
26 ‘Or if the man has no one to redeem it, but he himself becomes able to redeem it, 27 ‘then let him count the years since its sale, and restore the remainder to the man to whom he sold it, that he may return to his possession.
28 ‘But if he is not able to have it restored to himself, then what was sold shall remain in the hand of him who bought it until the Year of Jubilee; and in the Jubilee it shall be released, and he shall return to his possession.
29 ‘If a man sells a house in a walled city, then he may redeem it within a whole year after it is sold; within a full year he may redeem it.
30 ‘But if it is not redeemed within the space of a full year, then the house in the walled city shall belong permanently to him who bought it, throughout his generations. It shall not be released in the Jubilee.
31 ‘However the houses of villages which have no wall around them shall be counted as the fields of the country.
They may be redeemed, and they shall be released in the Jubilee.
32 ‘Nevertheless the cities of the Levites, and the houses in the cities of their possession, the Levites may redeem at any time.

33 ‘And if a man purchases a house from the Levites, then the house that was sold in the city of his possession shall be released in the Jubilee; for the houses in the cities of the Levites are their possession among the children of Israel.

34 ‘But the field of the common-land of their cities may not be sold, for it is their perpetual possession.

Lending to the Poor

35 ‘If one of your brethren becomes poor, and falls into poverty among you, then you shall help him, like a stranger or a sojourner, that he may live with you. Freely Received, Freely Given

36 ‘Take no usury or interest from him; but fear your God, that your brother may live with you.

37 ‘You shall not lend him your money for usury, nor lend him your food at a profit.

38 ‘I am the LORD your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt, to give you the land of Canaan and to be your God.

The Law Concerning Slavery

39 ‘And if one of your brethren who dwells by you becomes poor, and sells himself to you, you shall not compel him to serve as a slave.

40 ‘As a hired servant and a sojourner he shall be with you, and shall serve you until the Year of Jubilee.

41 ‘And then he shall depart from you—he and his children with him—and shall return to his own family. He shall return to the possession of his fathers.

42 ‘For they are My servants, whom I brought out of the land of Egypt; they shall not be sold as slaves.

43 ‘You shall not rule over him with rigor, but you shall fear your God.
44 ‘And as for your male and female slaves whom you may have—from the nations that are around you, from them you may buy male and female slaves.
45 ‘Moreover you may buy the children of the strangers who dwell among you, and their families who are with you, which they beget in your land; and they shall become your property.
46 ‘And you may take them as an inheritance for your children after you, to inherit them as a possession; they shall be your permanent slaves. But regarding your brethren, the children of Israel, you shall not rule over one another with rigor.
47 ‘Now if a sojourner or stranger close to you becomes rich, and one of your brethren who dwells by him becomes poor, and sells himself to the stranger or sojourner close to you, or to a member of the stranger’s family, 48 ‘after he is sold he may be redeemed again. One of his brothers may redeem him;
49 ‘or his uncle or his uncle’s son may redeem him; or anyone who is near of kin to him in his family may redeem him; or if he is able he may redeem himself.
50 ‘Thus he shall reckon with him who bought him: The price of his release shall be according to the number of years, from the year that he was sold to him until the Year of Jubilee; it shall be according to the time of a hired servant for him.
51 ‘If there are still many years remaining, according to them he shall repay the price of his redemption from the money with which he was bought.
52 ‘And if there remain but a few years until the Year of Jubilee, then he shall reckon with him, and according to his years he shall repay him the price of his redemption.

53 ‘He shall be with him as a yearly hired servant, and he shall not rule with rigor over him in your sight.
54 ‘And if he is not redeemed in these years, then he shall be released in the Year of Jubilee—he and his children with
him.
55 ‘For the children of Israel are servants to Me; they are My servants whom I brought out of the land of Egypt: I am the LORD your God.

Leviticus 26

Promise of Blessing and Retribution

1 ‘You shall not make idols for yourselves;
neither a carved image nor a sacred pillar shall you rear up for yourselves;
nor shall you set up an engraved stone in your land, to bow down to it;
for I am the LORD your God.
2 You shall keep My Sabbaths and reverence My sanctuary:
I am the LORD.

3 ‘If you walk in My statutes and keep My commandments, and perform them, Exercising Authority
4 then I will give you rain in its season, the land shall yield its produce, and the trees of the field shall yield their fruit.
5 Your threshing shall last till the time of vintage, and the vintage shall last till the time of sowing;
you shall eat your bread to the full, and dwell in your land safely.
6 I will give peace in the land, and you shall lie down, and none will make you afraid;
I will rid the land of evil beasts,
and the sword will not go through your land.
7 You will chase your enemies, and they shall fall by the sword before you.
8 Five of you shall chase a hundred, and a hundred of you shall put ten thousand to flight;
your enemies shall fall by the sword before you.

9 ‘For I will look on you favorably and make you fruitful, multiply you and confirm My covenant with
you.
10 You shall eat the old harvest, and clear out the old because of the new.
11 I will set My tabernacle among you, and My soul shall not abhor you.
12 I will walk among you and be your God, and you shall be My people.
13 I am the LORD your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt, that you should not be their slaves;
I have broken the bands of your yoke and made you walk upright.

14 ‘But if you do not obey Me, and do not observe all these commandments, The Price of Disobedience
15 and if you despise My statutes, or if your soul abhors My judgments, so that you do not perform all My commandments, but break My covenant, 16 I also will do this to you:
I will even appoint terror over you, wasting disease and fever which shall consume the eyes and cause sorrow of heart.
And you shall sow your seed in vain, for your enemies shall eat it.
17 I will set My face against you, and you shall be defeated by your enemies.
Those who hate you shall reign over you, and you shall flee when no one pursues you.

18 ‘And after all this, if you do not obey Me, then I will punish you seven times more for your sins.
19 I will break the pride of your power;
I will make your heavens like iron and your earth like bronze.

20 And your strength shall be spent in vain;
for your land shall not yield its produce, nor shall the trees of the land yield their fruit.

21 "Then, if you walk contrary to Me, and are not willing to obey Me, I will bring on you seven times more plagues, according to your sins.
22 I will also send wild beasts among you, which shall rob you of your children, destroy your livestock, and make you few in number;
and your highways shall be desolate.

23 "And if by these things you are not reformed by Me, but walk contrary to Me,
24 then I also will walk contrary to you, and I will punish you yet seven times for your sins.
25 And I will bring a sword against you that will execute the vengeance of the covenant;
when you are gathered together within your cities I will send pestilence among you;
and you shall be delivered into the hand of the enemy.
26 When I have cut off your supply of bread, ten women shall bake your bread in one oven, and they shall bring back your bread by weight, and you shall eat and not be satisfied.

27 "And after all this, if you do not obey Me, but walk contrary to Me, 28 then I also will walk contrary to you in fury;
and I, even I, will chastise you seven times for your sins.
29 You shall eat the flesh of your sons, and you shall eat the flesh of your daughters.
30 I will destroy your high places, cut down your incense altars, and cast your carcasses on the lifeless forms of your idols;

and My soul shall abhor you.
31I will lay your cities waste and bring your sanctuaries to desolation, and I will not smell the fragrance of your sweet aromas.
32I will bring the land to desolation, and your enemies who dwell in it shall be astonished at it.
33I will scatter you among the nations and draw out a sword after you;
your land shall be desolate and your cities waste.
34Then the land shall enjoy its sabbaths as long as it lies desolate and you are in your enemies' land;
then the land shall rest and enjoy its sabbaths. God's Concern for the Land 35As long as it lies desolate it shall rest—for the time it did not rest on your sabbaths when you dwelt in it.

36'And as for those of you who are left, I will send faintness into their hearts in the lands of their enemies;
the sound of a shaken leaf shall cause them to flee;
they shall flee as though fleeing from a sword, and they shall fall when no one pursues.
37They shall stumble over one another, as it were before a sword, when no one pursues;
and you shall have no power to stand before your enemies.
38You shall perish among the nations, and the land of your enemies shall eat you up.
39And those of you who are left shall waste away in their iniquity in your enemies' lands;
also in their fathers' iniquities, which are with them, they shall waste away.

40 ‘But if they confess their iniquity and the iniquity of their fathers, with their unfaithfulness in which they were unfaithful to Me, and that they also have walked contrary to Me, How God Deals with Disobedience 41 and that I also have walked contrary to them and have brought them into the land of their enemies;
if their uncircumcised hearts are humbled, and they accept their guilt—
42 then I will remember My covenant with Jacob, and My covenant with Isaac and My covenant with Abraham I will remember;
I will remember the land.
43 The land also shall be left empty by them, and will enjoy its sabbaths while it lies desolate without them;
they will accept their guilt, because they despised My judgments and because their soul abhorred My statutes.
44 Yet for all that, when they are in the land of their enemies, I will not cast them away, nor shall I abhor them, to utterly destroy them and break My covenant with them;
for I am the LORD their God.
45 But for their sake I will remember the covenant of their ancestors, whom I brought out of the land of Egypt in the sight of the nations, that I might be their God:
I am the LORD.’ ”

46 These are the statutes and judgments and laws which the LORD made between Himself and the children of Israel on Mount Sinai by the hand of Moses.

Leviticus 27

Redeeming Persons and Property Dedicated to God

1 Now the LORD spoke to Moses, saying, The Value of a Thank You

2 “Speak to the children of Israel, and say to them: ‘When a man consecrates by a vow certain persons to the LORD,
according to your valuation,

3 ‘if your valuation is of a male from twenty years old up to sixty years old, then your valuation shall be fifty shekels of silver, according to the shekel of the sanctuary.

4 ‘If it is a female, then your valuation shall be thirty shekels;

5 ‘and if from five years old up to twenty years old, then your valuation for a male shall be twenty shekels, and for a female ten shekels;

6 ‘and if from a month old up to five years old, then your valuation for a male shall be five shekels of silver, and for a female your valuation shall be three shekels of silver;

7 ‘and if from sixty years old and above, if it is a male, then your valuation shall be fifteen shekels, and for a female ten shekels.

8 ‘But if he is too poor to pay your valuation, then he shall present himself before the priest, and the priest shall set a value for him; according to the ability of him who vowed,
the priest shall value him.

9 ‘If it is an animal that men may bring as an offering to the LORD, all that anyone gives to the LORD shall be holy.

10 ‘He shall not substitute it or exchange it, good for bad or bad for good; and if he at all exchanges animal for animal, then both it and the one exchanged for it shall be holy.

11 ‘If it is an unclean animal which they do not offer as a sacrifice to the LORD, then he shall present the animal before the priest;
12 ‘and the priest shall set a value for it, whether it is good or bad; as you, the priest, value it, so it shall be.
13 ‘But if he wants at all to redeem it, then he must add one-fifth to your valuation.
14 ‘And when a man dedicates his house to be holy to the LORD, then the priest shall set a value for it, whether it is good or bad; as the priest values it, so it shall stand.
15 ‘If he who dedicated it wants to redeem his house, then he must add one-fifth of the money of your valuation to it, and it shall be his.
16 ‘If a man dedicates to the LORD part of a field of his possession, then your valuation shall be according to the seed for it. A homer of barley seed shall be valued at fifty shekels of silver.
17 ‘If he dedicates his field from the Year of Jubilee, according to your valuation it shall stand.
18 ‘But if he dedicates his field after the Jubilee, then the priest shall reckon to him the money due according to the years that remain till the Year of Jubilee, and it shall be deducted from your valuation.
19 ‘And if he who dedicates the field ever wishes to redeem it, then he must add one-fifth of the money of your valuation to it, and it shall belong to him.
20 ‘But if he does not want to redeem the field, or if he has sold the field to another man, it shall not be redeemed anymore;
21 ‘but the field, when it is released in the Jubilee, shall be holy to the LORD, as a devoted field; it shall be the possession of the priest.
22 ‘And if a man dedicates to the LORD a field which he has bought, which is not the field of his possession,

23 ‘then the priest shall reckon to him the worth of your valuation, up to the Year of Jubilee, and he shall give your valuation on that day as a holy offering to the LORD.
24 ‘In the Year of Jubilee the field shall return to him from whom it was bought, to the one who owned the land as a possession.
25 ‘And all your valuations shall be according to the shekel of the sanctuary: twenty gerahs to the shekel.
26 ‘But the firstborn of the animals, which should be the LORD’s firstborn, no man shall dedicate; whether it is an ox or sheep, it is the LORD’s.
27 ‘And if it is an unclean animal, then he shall redeem it according to your valuation, and shall add one-fifth to it; or if it is not redeemed, then it shall be sold according to your valuation.
28 ‘Nevertheless no devoted offering that a man may devote to the LORD of all that he has, both man and beast, or the field of his possession, shall be sold or redeemed;
every devoted offering is most holy to the LORD.
29 ‘No person under the ban, who may become doomed to destruction among men, shall be redeemed, but shall surely be put to death.
30 ‘And all the tithe of the land, whether of the seed of the land or of the fruit of the tree, is the LORD’s. It is holy to the LORD.
31 ‘If a man wants at all to redeem any of his tithes, he shall add one-fifth to it.
32 ‘And concerning the tithe of the herd or the flock, of whatever passes under the rod, the tenth one shall be holy
to the LORD.
33 ‘He shall not inquire whether it is good or bad, nor shall he exchange it; and if he exchanges it at all, then both it and the one exchanged for it shall be holy; it shall not be redeemed.’ ”

34These are the commandments which the LORD commanded Moses for the children of Israel on Mount Sinai.

Take Sin Seriously

Lev. 1:3–5

Many people regard sin as little more than a quaint term for inevitable human failings. Even Christians sometimes regard sin casually, thinking that wrongs can be remedied by a cursory prayer for forgiveness. Leviticus shows that God takes sin far more seriously. Consider the impact of carrying out the Lord's instructions for offering burnt sacrifices:

- The psychological impact. God-fearing Hebrews at the time of Moses slaughtered their own sacrifices. Placing a hand on the animal's head, they slit its throat and felt its life drain away, all the while knowing that an innocent animal was symbolically dying in their place.
- The financial impact. The requirement for a burnt offering was a flawless bull. Even wealthy Israelites felt the financial burden of losing a prize bull—a tangible reminder of sin's penalty. Those who could not afford a bull had to make other sacrifices scaled to their means (Lev. 1:10, 14; see also "Giving the Best We Can" at Lev. 5:7, 8).
- The social impact. As a throng of worshipers killed their animals, the death cries of cattle, sheep, and birds drove home the truth that all who were present—relatives, neighbors, even spiritual leaders—were sinners who needed God's forgiveness.
- The spiritual impact. The sacrificial system reminded participants that sin created a barrier between human beings and God, and that death was the appropriate penalty for sin. Sacrifices also called to mind God's mercy because He accepted the death of an animal in place of human lives.

The vivid reality of animal sacrifices made it difficult to take sin lightly. As we reflect on these instructions for ancient offerings, we can recall how they foreshadowed a far more precious substitutionary sacrifice, the body and blood of Jesus Christ, God's only begotten Son. Because God takes our sin that seriously, so should we.

Pay Attention to Worship

Lev. 1:17

The Book of Leviticus was Israel's worship manual. It dictated in extraordinary detail the procedures of Israel's religious life, down to the correct procedure for sacrificing a bird—split at its wings but not divided completely. The book outlined everything Israel needed to know about worshiping God, including:

- Who. The participants who were to bring the sacrifices (the people) and those who were to offer the sacrifices (a line of hereditary priests made up of Aaron and his descendants).
- What. The mandatory quality and cost of sacrifices and elements involved in different events.
- When. An order and sequence for various offerings and the seasons when sacrifices should be made.
- Where. The places in or around the tabernacle where rituals were performed.
- How. The procedures required for proper worship, such as methods for slaughtering animals and the preparation of materials.
- Why. Reasons for worship, capped by the most important: "You shall be holy, for I the LORD your God am holy" (Lev. 19:2).

Modern readers may find the religious laws of Leviticus tedious and irrelevant. But we can discover why Leviticus was essential to the Israelites, and consequently apply these reasons to our own worship. While Christians no longer practice the rites outlined here, our careful study of this ancient worship manual can still give us insight into worshiping and serving God.

Old Testament Sacrifices

Lev. 3:1

The peace offering was one of several sacrifices and offerings God required of Israel. See more in the table below. Because these sacrifices and offerings took place day and night all year long, this elaborate system focused Israel's attention on God.

Christians have similar around-the-clock access to God, but our access is more immediate. Instead of following the detailed procedures outlined in Leviticus, we approach directly through Christ (Heb. 10:19–22). Nevertheless, each of these Old Testament sacrifices can inform the ways we worship God—dedicating ourselves to Him, thanking Him, celebrating Him, confessing our sins, and restoring relationships with others.

Offering: Burnt (Lev. 1:1–17; 6:8–13)
Purpose: Dedication to God
Sacrifice Required: Bulls, sheep, goats, turtledoves, pigeons Procedure: Kill and burn all except the skin.

Offering: Grain (Lev. 2:1–16; 6:14–23)
Purpose: Thanksgiving
Sacrifice Required: Breads, cereals, and other grain products Procedure: Burn part; priests eat the remainder.

Offering: Peace (Lev. 3:1–17; 7:11–18)

Group Sin

Lev. 4:13, 14

Sin often involves more than individual acts of wrongdoing.

God held the Israelites responsible for harm they caused others as a group, not letting them off the hook even for unintentional sins. God likewise holds us accountable for our part in group sins. For example, God calls us not to look the other way if our family treats some members unfairly or if our employer pollutes the environment, abuses workers, or promotes unhealthy competition, intentionally or not.

While our options and ability to bring about change may be limited, we can't excuse ourselves from acting. We should be respectful and constructive, but when a group we belong to sins, we must speak up.

When a Leader Sins

Lev. 4:22–26

Most people take for granted that leaders are fallible, and citizens of many nations expect crookedness and even outright evil from their government officials. In the ancient world, many cultures believed their rulers to be gods whose pronouncements were sacrosanct. Israel was an exception to this rule. By commanding rulers to bring sin offerings, God made clear that leaders were not gods. Like everyone else, human authorities would fail morally and spiritually, and they needed atonement for their sins.

Giving the Best We Can

Lev. 5:7, 8

God ensured that the cost of a sacrificial animal would not prevent poor families from worshiping Him or making a trespass offering. If a family could not spare a lamb, they could instead bring turtledoves or pigeons. Destitute individuals could bring grain (Lev. 5:11). In the New Testament, Jesus' family was poor enough to afford only birds. But their offering was enough because it was exactly what God required. See "A Lowly Sacrifice for the Highest" at Luke 2:22–24.

More: Jesus presented a similar idea about the merits of giving the best we can even when we can only give a little, for personal sacrifice and faith in God's provision is more valuable to Him than gifts offered out of abundance. See "Moral Value of Offerings" at Mark 12:41–44.

Making Restitution

Lev. 6:1–7

Scripture is sober and realistic about our human inclination to sin. Rather than brushing aside offenses, God commanded offenders to bring sacrifices for sin and make restitution to anyone they had harmed. He devised a system that restored relationships with both Himself and with other people.

As a refugee nation traversing the desert, the Israelites faced the daily challenge of limited resources. Their situation could have made it easy to rationalize deception and theft. Yet God mandated that anyone who deceived another in a transaction was required to sacrifice a ram and repay the loss with 20 percent interest. The guiding principle behind this law was that of loving others as much as oneself (Lev. 19:18). Jesus later reaffirmed this as the guiding principle for all moral and social issues (Matt. 5:43, 44; 19:19).

Putting Words into Action

Lev. 7:37, 38

Leviticus, along with the rest of the Law, outlined practical ways for Israel to show its dedication to God and commitment to each other as a covenant community. One of the most important of these practical steps was the sacrificial system. Performing these inconvenient and expensive sacrifices turned words into actions.

We too need to follow through on our spoken commitments, even when it comes at a cost. The apostle John declared, “My little children, let us not love in word or in tongue, but in deed and in truth. And by this we know that we are of the truth, and shall assure our hearts before Him” (1 John 3:18, 19).

What It Takes to Serve God

Lev. 8:2, 3

Moses prepared Aaron and his sons for the priesthood according to God’s command, assembling them in front of the tabernacle, where he initiated their ministry with sacrifices that atoned for their sins (Lev. 8:14–36). Prospective priests also had to be trained in elaborate rituals detailed in the Law. But the Bible makes plain that neither special ability nor the simple fact of being born into the tribe of Levi fully qualified a man to serve the Lord as a priest. A man was fit for service only after his sins had been forgiven. Of all the requirements for serving in ministry today, the necessity of being cleansed from sin remains at the top of the list (2 Tim. 2:1, 20, 21).

A Place to Meet God

Lev. 9:5

Israel meticulously constructed a worship center called the "tabernacle [or tent] of meeting" where they could gather to worship God. While the Book of Exodus records facts about the place of worship (Ex. 36–39), Leviticus details God's prescribed procedures for the worship itself.

Other ancient cultures also used tents to worship their gods. The Egyptians, among whom the Israelites had lived for four hundred years, took portable shrines on military campaigns. Placed in the center of their military encampments, these worship headquarters were both command posts and communication centers. Professional priests sought divine instructions for the operations of war.

The Israelites' tent of meeting had a more peaceful purpose as a visible reminder to the Israelites that God was among them and longed for them to worship Him. There He gave His people access to His life, grace, and power. When Jesus Christ came, revealing God in the flesh, He was described as having "dwelt [literally tabernacled] among us" (John 1:14). When we come to Jesus, we come to God. He is our tent of meeting.

Advice Without Assurance

Lev. 10:1–3

While Scripture gives ample practical advice for raising children, it offers no guarantees. Consider Aaron, the high priest and leader of Israel's worship. His two older sons, Nadab and Abihu, violated God's commands when they "offered profane fire before the LORD." This occurred immediately after the ceremonial initiation of the sacrificial system, led by Aaron (Lev. 9:22–24). Soon after Nadab and Abihu paid for their sinful actions with their lives, Aaron's two remaining sons, Eleazar and Ithamar, also violated the sacrificial code and faced Moses' discipline (10:12–18).

The incident with the golden calf at Sinai shows that Aaron himself sometimes wavered under pressure (Ex. 32). Aaron's imperfections as a parent aside, the account of Aaron's children suggests that we cannot be certain how our children will turn out. We are all sinners who have been given free will. Every individual must make his or her own choice about what path to take in life.

More: The Bible shapes our hopes and expectations about family life. See "Instead, Choose to Show Family Care" at Gen. 42:36 and "Help for Families" at Heb. 12:3–13. God has used families to accomplish His purposes. Indeed, the Old Testament is a story of families. See "The Families of the Old Testament" at Gen. 12:3. Aaron's disappointing sons resemble other children of religious figures in the Bible, including the sons of Eli (1 Sam. 2:12–17, 22–25) and Samuel (8:1–3).

Nadab and Abihu

Lev. 10:1

Names mean: “Generous” (Nadab) and “He Is My Father” (Abihu).

Not to be confused with: Nadab, a king of Israel, successor to Jeroboam (1 Kin. 14:20; 15:25–28).

Family: Oldest sons of Aaron.

Occupation: Priests of Israel.

Best known for: Offering “profane fire” before the Lord and being swiftly put to death as a result (Lev. 10:1, 2).

Think About It: What holy-looking but disobedient action might you have done, or been tempted to do? How do we know what is right to do and when to do it?

A Good or Bad Example

Lev. 10:3

God severely judged Nadab and Abihu not only for offering “profane fire” but also for dishonoring Him before “all the people.” God knew that leaders are always scrutinized for the example they set, whether good or bad. As followers of Christ, we too are constantly examined by others, especially people who do not share our faith. Our call to shine as light in the world (Matt. 5:14–16) may be a weighty burden at times. But God wants us to take seriously the privilege of representing Him in our homes, schools, communities, and workplaces.

Falling Short
Lev. 10:19

Aaron had reason to pause when his sons' misbehavior cast doubt on his fitness for ministry. His situation demonstrates that even good people have weaknesses, shortcomings, and a sinful side—failures often caused by our neglect of God and bondage to evil.

A gifted speaker, Aaron answered God's call to assist Moses, his brother, in leading Israel out of slavery in Egypt (Ex. 4:14). God also appointed Aaron and his descendants as priests over Israel's worship (28:1–4). But the Bible also shows that Aaron faced significant struggles on several occasions.

- Even though Aaron was aware of God's holiness and jealous love, he gave in to the masses at Sinai and led them into idolatry (32:1–4). He later avoided taking responsibility for this lapse in leadership (32:21–25).
- Aaron joined his sister in speaking against Moses, taking offense at Moses' possibly interracial marriage to an Ethiopian woman. Only after God exercised His judgment on Aaron and Miriam did Aaron express remorse and seek forgiveness (Num. 12:1–16).
- The Bible doesn't specifically comment on Aaron's parenting skills, but back-to-back incidents involving all four of his sons raise doubts about his effectiveness as a family leader (Lev. 10:1–3, 16–20).

No one can completely avoid failure and sin. Fortunately, God doesn't make us His children on the basis of our ability to abstain from sin but on Christ's ability to deal with it. Every spiritual giant of the Bible fell short of God's holiness. Yet, like us, they found forgiveness and restoration. A frail, human servant of a powerful, merciful God, Aaron experienced God's favor through reflection, repentance, and recovery.

Healthy Food, Holy Food

Lev. 11:7

Some wonder if God banned the consumption of certain foods, including pork, for more than religious reasons. Although the larger context of the Book of Leviticus includes many issues of health and hygiene, we cannot be sure of the primary motivation behind God's dietary mandates. In the text, pigs are described only as "unclean," meaning ceremonially unclean. Eating pork made worshipers unfit to approach a holy God. We do know that God has a deep concern for His people's health. See "God Shows How to Promote Good Health" at Leviticus 13:1–59.

Clean v. Unclean
Lev. 11:29

God's list of "creeping things" is among some one hundred laws dealing with cleanliness and itemized in Leviticus 11–15. These laws had both spiritual and hygienic applications.

As early as Noah, God designated certain animals as "clean" or "unclean" (Gen. 7:2), "clean" meaning they were suitable for sacrifice. In the Law given to Moses, God later labeled certain practices and bodily functions as "unclean," including touching a corpse, menstruation, and eating the flesh of an "unclean" animal. These rendered a person ritually unfit to participate in religious ceremonies—without any suggestion of moral defilement. They were not sins.

In Leviticus, however, God linked the notions of "clean" and "unclean" with additional laws. These laws addressed not only questions about food (Lev. 11) but also childbirth issues (ch. 12); bodily functions (ch. 15); contagious skin diseases, especially leprosy (chs. 13–14); and related matters such as mildew and contamination. This section of the Law in effect became Israel's national health policy.

Since Christians don't live under the Mosaic system of sacrifices, the ceremonial implications of "clean" and "unclean" may not specifically apply. But the overall principle of "clean" and "unclean" reflects God's holiness (11:44), and Christians need to pursue a holy lifestyle (1 Pet. 1:15). Furthermore, we need to respect the moral convictions of others, who may view certain things as "clean" or "unclean" (Rom. 14:14–19).

Christians today are not subject to the dietary laws. However, because these laws looked after the best interests of individuals and the community, they give us precedent to promote public policies that benefit community health, protect the environment, and prevent and treat diseases.

Think About It: What might be God's heart and reasoning for these specific labels of "clean" and "unclean?" Then, based on that reasoning, how might we apply that principle today? For example, touching a corpse who died from a communicable disease could spread that disease if someone touched others before washing. So God's heart is to care for people by preventing illness.

Be Holy, for I Am Holy

Lev. 11:44, 45

God's own holiness is both the basis and the goal of all His ethical requirements. God is purely good, and each of us crave this pure goodness unpolluted by ulterior motives. As His followers, we become holy to reflect His character. God has chosen to conform us to His image (Rom. 8:29–30). That is His goal in saving us: that we should be "holy and without blame before Him" (Eph. 1:4).

We are often tempted to put intense effort into fitting in with friends and colleagues, adopting the opinions of popular leaders, and imitating celebrity styles. But God challenges us not to be like certain people. In the Old Testament, He instructed Israel not to pattern itself after neighboring nations. Instead we are to pattern ourselves after God, the one in whose image we are created. In that way we will truly be able to form excellent relationships with people. The Israelites were to consecrate themselves (or set themselves apart) and be holy, for He, the Lord their God, was holy (Lev. 11:44, 45).

One of the many ways in which Israel was to be distinct was in its worship. The religions of surrounding cultures included rituals that Israel was not to follow. These forbidden practices reflected untrustworthy values. Among them were . . .

- divination or magic,
- frenzied, chaotic dances,
- self-mutilation,
- ritual prostitution,
- promiscuity and orgiastic fertility rites,
- human sacrifice, and
- sacrifices made on behalf of the dead.

By contrast, Israel's worship revealed God's moral perfection. The closing song at the end of Leviticus, Israel's manual for ritual and worship, says: "I will walk among you and be your God, and you shall be My people" (26:12). God repeated this treasured promise to Israel again and again (for example, Jer. 30:22; 31:33; Ezek. 36:28). Generations later, the church also defined itself as God's own, a people called to holy worship and holy living (1 Pet. 1:13–16; 2:9, 10).

When we feel pressured to imitate the patterns of certain people around us, we can ask God for strength to be like Him, not anyone who differs from Him.

Body and Soul

Lev. 12:6, 7

The connection between human physiology and the need for a sin offering is one of several laws in Leviticus showing that Israel's priests had to pay as much attention to the body as they did to the soul.

Priests had to be concerned with childbirth (Lev. 12); actual, potential, and false cases of leprosy (chs. 13–14); bodily discharges and emissions, including those related to reproduction (ch. 15); dietary matters (ch. 11); and the disposal of dead bodies (Num. 19:11–22). Priests were required to be aware of both physical and spiritual needs. They could not separate the two; the Law forced them to see the connection.

In our world, the body is often seen as disconnected from the soul. Disciplines dealing with the body (such as medicine and health) often have little crossover with those that treat the soul (such as ministry and religion). But there is no biblical basis for this division. God created us as whole people whose bodies and souls both need integrated and compassionate care. Healthcare providers have a strategic opportunity to raise spiritual issues, and religious professionals should not ignore physical needs.

God Shows How to Promote Good Health

Lev. 13:1–59

God has a persistent interest in both individual and community health. He cares not only about curing illness but also preventing it.

The detailed laws of Leviticus 13 are concerned with detecting, examining, quarantining, cleansing, and restoring to health people suffering from leprosy, skin diseases, boils, burns, skin spots, sores, and other skin-related maladies. These laws demonstrate God's concern for those who suffer from illness as well as those who can be spared from it through proper hygiene.

Earlier in the Law, the Lord outlined dietary restrictions the Israelites were to follow (for example, Ex. 22:31; Lev. 11:1–47). While the text does not mention the health-related aspects of these statutes, we now know that several of them promoted good health. The same is true for God's instructions about the cleanliness of garments and the walls, floors, and ceilings of houses, and even the stones used for building (13:47–59; 14:33–53).

We cannot read these and other similar passages without concluding that the environment where people live and work matters to God. Moreover, these scriptures should cause us to look closely at the tradeoffs we often accept between environmental health hazards and the opportunity for economic gain. Knowing that God cares about good health, we should always consider how we might glorify Him through the way we cultivate our environment and promote bodily health.

Priests as Physicians

Lev. 13:2

Skin maladies in the ancient world had to be contained quickly to prevent them from spreading. The Bible gives no indication that Israel had medical professionals. Instead, priests fulfilled a double role as both religious leaders and physicians. When leprosy was suspected, priests were to . . .

- Diagnose the disease. The word examine is used numerous times in Leviticus 13–14. God gave meticulous instructions for identifying the disease, which suggests that priests were to show patient, thorough care for its victims.
- Prescribe treatment. Isolation of the infected person protected others from the dreaded contagion while intricate processes were used to counteract the ravaging effects of the sickness (Lev. 13–14).
- Preserve possessions. Many of the Israelites were poor. God designed the sanitizing process to keep infected people from losing their property unnecessarily. A leper's clothes were thoroughly cleaned rather than destroyed, preserving what might be his or her only possession (13:47–59). Similarly, the person's house was carefully purged if possible rather than demolished (14:33–57).

- Sanitize the environment. In addition to preserving possessions, concern about the spread of the disease is evident in the careful process of cleaning and checking the patient's possessions and residence (13:47–58; 14:34–47).

Think About It: Parents also serve a role in illness diagnosing, treating, and preventing. What actions, based on these biblical principles, have you taken in your own home and workplace? How does a godly person work hand-in-hand with medical professionals?

Unclean! Unclean!

Lev. 13:12

Leprosy was one of the ancient world's most dreaded diseases. Lepers suffered from a debilitating, progressive skin disease believed to be incurable and highly contagious. Anyone who appeared to have leprosy was banished from the community, even if the symptoms resulted from another condition.

True leprosy is caused by a type of bacteria that spreads across the skin, creating sores, scabs, and white shining spots. The disease's most serious symptom, however, is a loss of sensation. Without the ability to feel, lepers injure themselves, leading to further infection. Lepers can also suffer from deformity, muscle loss, and paralysis. Fortunately, modern medicine has all but eliminated this disease.

Old Testament law was comprehensive in its instructions regarding the recognition and quarantine of leprous persons. Priests became the central figures for diagnosis, patient care, and sanitary precautions for the protection of the rest of the community (see "Priests as Physicians" at Lev. 13:2). The Law required lepers to be isolated from the rest of society and excluded from worship (13:45, 46). Infected persons were required to wear mourning clothes, leave their hair unkempt, cover their beards, and cry "Unclean! Unclean!" so that others could avoid them. Any physical contact with a leper could not only spread the disease, but was also considered defilement.

Sometimes lepers were miraculously cured, as in the case of Moses (Ex. 4:7), his sister Miriam (Num. 12:10), and Naaman (2 Kin. 5:1, 10). In the New Testament, Jesus intentionally healed lepers as a sign to vindicate His ministry. On one occasion He healed ten men suffering from the disease, but only one returned to thank Him (Luke 17:11–15).

More: In addition to healing people of leprosy, Jesus cured numerous other maladies, reinforcing His claim of being the Messiah. See "He Healed So Many" at Luke 4:40. Lepers were ostracized in the ancient world, but we still find plenty of reasons to treat other people like outcasts. See "The Leper's Burden" at Luke 5:12–15.

Think About It: For what illnesses might you need to stay home, or to warn others not to come near you or touch you? How is this a loving action rather than an odd one?

The Day of Atonement

Lev. 16:1–34

Once each year, the Israelites were to "afflict their souls," humbling themselves by fasting and ceasing from work in observance of the Day of Atonement (Lev. 16:29, 30). This most solemn of Israel's holy days was held on the tenth day of the seventh month, Tishri (September/October).

The Day of Atonement reminded the people that the regular sacrifices made in the tabernacle were inadequate to cleanse them from sin. The tabernacle itself, the priests, and the people all needed further purification in order to stand before a holy God.

This nationwide atonement for sin required several steps. The high priest first carefully washed himself, then dressed in white linen garments rather than his usual ceremonial robes (16:4). He slaughtered a bull for himself and the other priests, then entered the Most Holy Place, the inner sanctuary inside the tabernacle (the text of Lev. 16 refers simply to the "Holy Place," the area inside the tabernacle in front of the veil, but the context indicates that this actually refers to the Most Holy Place beyond the veil, where the mercy seat was located). This was the only occasion when he was allowed to enter the tabernacle's most sacred space. Once inside, he sprinkled the blood of the bull on the mercy seat to make atonement for himself and the other priests (16:11–14).

The high priest next sacrificed a male goat on behalf of the people and sprinkled its blood on the mercy seat. This sprinkling also purified the Most Holy Place (16:15–19). Then a second goat, called the scapegoat, was led to the edge of the camp, where the high priest laid his hands on its head and confessed over it all the sins of the nation. The goat was then driven into the wilderness as a symbol of the people's sins being carried away (16:20–22). Finally, the bodies of the slaughtered animals were taken outside the camp and burned (16:27).

The Day of Atonement must have been sobering. The annual event reminded every Israelite of the serious nature of sin and of God's grace in dealing with it. Centuries later, Isaiah drew on the ceremony's symbolism as he described the sacrifice of the Messiah: "He was wounded for our transgressions, He was bruised for our iniquities . . . the LORD has laid on Him the iniquities of us all" (Is. 53:5–6). The New Testament connects this prophecy to Jesus Christ (for example, John 12:38; Acts 8:32, 33). He is the "Lamb of God who takes away the sin of the world" (John 1:29). As a result of Christ's atoning work, Christians . . .

- have redemption from sin's penalty (1 Pet. 1:18, 19);
- receive forgiveness for their sins (Eph. 1:7);
- enter God's presence with full justification, as if they had never sinned (Rom. 5:9);
- enjoy peace with God (5:1; Col. 1:20); and
- begin the process of sanctification, being made holy like God (Heb. 13:12).

The ancient Israelites set aside one day each year to atone for their sins, in addition to daily, weekly, and monthly sacrifices and offerings. Now, every day of the year, Christians can praise God for the completed work of atonement that Jesus accomplished once and for all (Heb. 9:11–15).

More: Those who accept Christ enjoy benefits that perfect those of the Mosaic law and the sacrificial system described in the Old Testament. See "Better Than Before" at Heb. 7:19–22.

Think About It: What is the value to the believer of regular celebrations of this nature?

A Place to Be Forgiven

Lev. 17:8, 9

The Hebrews had only one place to worship God by offering sacrifices—the tabernacle. This doesn't mean they couldn't worship God elsewhere. But to make atonement for sin, they were required to come to the altar. Only there could a priest offer up a sacrifice according to the highly detailed instructions in the Law.

As Christians, we look to Jesus as our high priest. When Jesus died on the cross, He offered the final, everlasting sacrifice for our sins (Heb. 10:11–14). We can now receive forgiveness at any time and any place. We are not required to travel to a specific location, nor does the Bible prescribe a certain ritual. We need only draw near to God through Christ with a "true heart" and the faith to confess our sins and receive His forgiveness (10:19–22).

Saved by Grace

Lev. 18:5

God promised that whoever kept His statutes and judgments "shall live by them" (compare Gal. 3:10–12). What exactly did God meant by the term live? The context makes it doubtful that He was speaking of eternal salvation. Scripture is clear that eternal life does not depend on human effort. It is always a gift of God's grace (Rom. 10:12, 13; Eph. 2:8, 9).

God was more likely indicating a quality of life that those who honor His ways will experience (see "Two Paths" at Ps. 1:1, 2).

The Lord wanted His people to live in the delight of purity, unlike their old Egyptian masters, whose ordinances and customs were "abominable" (Lev. 18:3, 30). To help the Israelites avoid those practices, God gave them His holy statutes, which He said would produce life—life in the sense of fulfillment, joy, and prosperity of spirit.

Cherish the Gift of Human Sexuality

Lev. 18:6–30

God created sexuality as one of the most powerful facets of human life. Sexual union can create cherished bonds of intimacy and trust for a loving couple, and it can lead to the conception of a human being formed in God's image.

But when the gift of sex is misused, it can destroy. Infidelity, an out-of-control sexual addiction, and the terrible tragedy of rape and other forms of sexual abuse even within marriage are swift harbingers of heartbreak and destruction.

God wants people to use sexuality rightly, in its proper context, and with love. So He spoke clear warnings about its misuse. The commands given in Leviticus 18:6–30 also reflect the nomadic, tent-dwelling life of ancient Israelite families. How should they conduct themselves while living in such close proximity? God gave a number of principles to guide them:

1. The people were not to engage in incest. God commanded them not to "uncover the nakedness" of other family members, including one's . . .

   • father or mother (Lev. 18:7),
   • stepmother (18:8),
   • sister or half sister (18:9, 11; 20:17),

- grandchild (18:10, 17),
- aunt (18:12–14; 20:19, 20),
- daughter-in-law (18:15; 20:12),
- sister-in-law (18:16; 20:21), except in the case of a widowed sister-in-law (Deut. 25:5–10), and
- mother-in-law (Lev. 20:14).

Following these guidelines would eliminate many of the dangers of inbreeding for the Israelites. Yet this opposition to incest was presented in terms of reflecting God's holiness in marriage. While God certainly cares about the physical health of His people (see "God Shows How to Promote Good Health" at Lev. 13:1–59), He is also deeply interested in their spiritual and emotional health.

2. People outside the marriage relationship, including the spouses of neighbors, were not appropriate sexual partners. Such intercourse amounted to adultery (18:20; 20:10).
3. A woman's menstrual period was to be respected (18:19; 20:18).
4. People were not to participate in sexual relations with others of their sex (18:22; 20:13).
5. People were not to engage in bestiality, sexual intercourse with animals (18:23; 20:15, 16).

God acknowledged that surrounding nations routinely violated His design by practicing the things that He commanded Israel not to do (18:24–26; 20:22, 23). God called their offenses an "abomination" and a cause of those nations' "defilement" (18:27–30; 20:23).

God never intended nakedness to be a danger for humankind. In the beginning, it posed no threat at all (Gen. 2:25). But Adam and Eve's rebellion and subsequent separation from God led to the misuse of all good things, including sex. Human sexuality has suffered and caused untold damage, for its power is largely uncontrollable outside of God's guidance and help.

Leviticus sounds a call to holy sexuality (Lev. 20:26). The Lord's commands present sex as a beautiful and powerful gift from God worthy of dignity and respect.

Abominations: How Not to Act

Lev. 18:24–30

Occult rituals are nothing new. They were common in the ancient world and took place in Canaan at the time Israel left Egypt. God referred to the Canaanite practices as "abominations" for which "the land vomits out its inhabitants."

The historical context of Leviticus 18 shows that God is concerned for both ritualistic and sexual goodness. The chapter opens and closes with warnings to avoid the ways of the Canaanites (Lev. 18:3, 30). The practices mentioned—incest, adultery, fornication, intercourse during a woman's menstrual flow, child sacrifice, sodomy, bestiality—were all acts committed as part of Canaanite religious rites. Worshipers in this fertility cult made sexual intercourse central to their religion, appealing to their gods to help women reproduce and to make their land fertile.

We can thank God that He wants no one victimized or otherwise hurt in these ways.

The Canaanites practiced other "abominations," including idolatry and the use of mediums and witchcraft. For all of these things, the Lord promised to drive the Canaanites from the land. In their place, He planned to install His people, who would live according to His ways and worship according to His holy practices.

The Canaanites were a model of how the Israelites should not act. Their outrages became a measure of evil against which God later evaluated Israelite kings (2 Chr. 33:2).

More: The Canaanites worshiped more than seventy deities. See "The Gods of the Canaanites" at Deut. 32:39. Canaan was divided into city-states ruled by powerful kings. Find out how these ancient tribes influenced the Hebrews in "The Canaanites" at Josh. 3:10.

Our Reason to Obey

Lev. 19:1, 2

God's commands always flow from God's good character. The commands in Leviticus 19 mandate several ways to express holiness. We see in them the pure beauty of God's holiness. As the Lord declared, "I the LORD your God am holy." Here are a few of the standards our holy God enacted for His people:

- respect for parents (Lev. 19:3),
- keeping the Sabbath (19:3, 30),
- forsaking idolatry (19:4),
- concern for the poor (19:10),
- honesty and integrity in business (19:11, 12, 35, 36),
- protection of the physically challenged (19:14),
- justice and truth in speech (19:16),
- loving one's neighbor as oneself (19:18),
- waiting five years before harvesting a fruit tree for food (19:25),
- dignified mourning (19:28),
- forsaking magic and witchcraft (19:31),
- respect for the elderly (19:32),
- loving treatment of foreign visitors and immigrants (the "stranger," 19:34), and
- keeping the Law fully (19:37).

A holy God makes a visible difference in people's everyday lives. The single, all-sufficient reason to obey His statutes? "I am the LORD your God!" We absolutely can trust that God loves us and has our best interest at heart.

Gleaning and the Poor

Lev. 19:9, 10

Gleaning was the process of going back over a field, orchard, or vineyard after the main harvest was completed to gather every last bit of produce. Gleaners reap thoroughly and strip bare every stalk or branch (Lev. 19:9, 10; 23:22).

By prohibiting landowners from gleaning their lands after harvest, God showed His concern for the poor. In leaving their fields ungleaned, landowners gave the poor a way to honorably care for their needs. The poor could glean the corners of a field and whatever the harvesters missed. To emphasize this statute, God punctuated it with the reminder, "I am the LORD your God" (19:10).

That final word reminded Israel that God stood behind the commandment and He was the actual owner of the land. The poor obviously did not own it—but neither did the "landowners." The land belonged to God. He graciously gave it to people to grow food, also giving strength for plowing, sowing, cultivating, irrigating, and harvesting. The produce of the land, therefore, belonged to God. The Lord graciously gave it to His people to provide for their needs, but the gift came with conditions, including the command that the poor be allowed to benefit from gathering leftover produce. If the people followed God's ways, He promised there would be more than enough food for everyone (26:4, 5).

More: One poor woman who used gleaning to keep herself alive was Ruth, the great-grandmother of King David. See the Book of Ruth.

Modern Gleaning

Lev. 19:10

Allowing the poor to glean fields after the main harvest was ideally suited to the agriculturally-based society of ancient Israel. Yet there are ways to allow the poor to live off the excess of a modern, information-based culture. Homes, offices, churches, factories, restaurants, hospitals, military installations, airports, and farms generate tons of valuable leftovers. Some fill up online auctions, garage sales, used goods stores, and used car lots. Some is recycled, burned, or buried in landfills. Many of these leftovers could instead be used to benefit the poor. The spirit of gleaning at least encourages us to consider our options.

- How could programs, organizations, and establishments that give (or sell at thrift rates) used clothing and other goods to the poor be expanded and made more efficient?

- Is there excess public transportation capacity that could be made available to the poor at low cost or no cost?
- What laws could make it easier for the poor to pursue higher education or self-employment?
- What projects and processes might intentionally use human muscle to give more people the opportunity to work?
- Where could local churches develop partnerships with businesses to channel remaindered, returned, and used goods to the poor?
- How could the food industry better coordinate with soup kitchens and homeless shelters to use excess food rather than throw it away?

As Christians, it is our duty to love our neighbors as ourselves. Working to involve the poor in improving their lives is an important way for us to follow this commandment. What might we do in our individual personal lives to help the less fortunate, knowing that another day we may be in their shoes?

Love Your Neighbor as Yourself

Lev. 19:18

Included among this book's detailed laws for religious ritual and daily living is a principle that shines brighter than almost any other command in Scripture. Jesus called the command to "love your neighbor as yourself" one of the two preeminent laws of the covenant (Matt. 22:36–40). By properly keeping this commandment —and the commandment to love God above everything and everyone else—we fulfill every other law.

More: Of the Ten Commandments given in Ex. 20:1–17, four teach us how to revere God. Six tell us how to love other people as we love ourselves. See the diagram in "Love God, Love People" at Deut. 5:6–21.

Theology for the Marketplace

Lev. 19:35, 36

How we conduct ourselves in business must reflect the character of the God we serve. We live in a complex society, yet Old Testament law still conveys important principles for Christians. Here are some ways that God's ancient law continues to apply to our contemporary world of business:

Ancient Law	Modern Application
Prohibited theft and robbery (Lev 19:11, 13).	• Pilfering supplies and equipment • Stealing time through extended lunch breaks, idleness, and faking illness
Prohibited fraud (Lev. 19:11).	• False advertising • Deceptive trade practices
Prohibited deception (Lev. 19:11).	• Lying to a customer, vendor, or coworker
Prohibited false oaths (Lev. 19:12).	• Lying on a resume • Writing bad checks
Prohibited "profaning" the name of the Lord (Lev. 19:12).	• Swearing and blaspheming • Taking the Lord's name in vain • Causing unbelievers to disdain Christ because of our hypocrisy
Prohibited cheating one's neighbor (Lev. 19:13).	• Poor workmanship • Overcharging
Demanded timely payment of wages (Lev. 19:13).	• Delayed payments • Using bureaucratic procedures as an excuse to stall
Prohibited spreading rumors and lies (Lev. 19:16).	• Gossiping and false accusations • Incorrect credit reports
Demanded accurate measurements and honest scales (Lev. 19:35, 36).	• Dishonest accounting • Inaccurate test scores and unfair use of results

Reliable Truth

Lev. 20:6–8

"You can believe anything you want."

"We each have to determine what is right for ourselves."

"That may be true for you but not for me."

Each of these statements makes its proponent the ultimate definer of truth and reality, leaving no room for absolutes or objective truth. Yet if there are no absolutes determined by a Source higher than human beings, then we are all gods. And if no absolute truth exists, there is nothing to bind us together or define how we should treat each other.

God did not leave His people in such a philosophical morass. He clearly spelled out moral and spiritual absolutes, warning His people to seek ultimate truth from Him rather than from other sources.

God's unchanging Word still stands as absolute truth. Apart from Him, we have no hope of peace. We lack standards to define issues of community, honesty, ethics, truth, morality, crime, and justice. Apart from His help, we are on a destructive path toward a world where everyone is always right and no one is ever wrong.

Respecting Parents

Lev. 20:9

One of the Ten Commandments that God gave to Moses was to honor one's father and mother. Here we find a related command to refrain from cursing one's parents. Dishonoring parents—and in the process, turning away from God—was punishable by death (see "Juvenile Delinquents" at Deut. 21:18–21). By Jesus' day, some religious leaders had found a way around the commands to respect and obey one's parents—or so they thought (see "Honor Your Parents" at Mark 7:9–13).

Choosing Our Best

Lev. 22:20–23

When the Israelites brought sacrifices and offerings, God required their best animals and goods. Nothing with a defect was allowed to be given to God who was worthy of the best that His people could bring. In the end, everything they had belonged to Him anyway (compare Deut. 8:18; 1 Chr. 29:14, 15). As we contemplate this command, we can ask ourselves the following questions:

- Do we honor God with the best of what we have—time, talent, and treasure—or do we just offer Him the leftovers?
- Do we serve God with our best effort at work, using the resources and abilities that He has given us as best we can?
- Do we worship God in an alert, active way, with all our mind, emotions, and will?
- Do we treat others—who are made in God's image—with good intentions, honor, respect, and love, just as we would treat Christ?

Samples of Blasphemy
Lev. 24:11

As the incident with Shelomith's son reveals, God takes His name and character seriously (Lev. 24:10–23). The young man "went out among the children of Israel," perhaps taunted by racial insults because of his Egyptian roots. That would help explain his fighting with an Israelite and reviling Israel's God. By dishonoring God, the son committed the sin of blasphemy.

In the Ten Commandments, God had warned His people that He would "not hold him guiltless who takes [My] name in vain" (Ex. 20:7). In the case of Shelomith's son, God followed through on His Word. He told Moses to remind the people that blasphemy carried the death penalty (Lev. 24:15, 16); then the children of Israel carried out the horrible sentence (24:23).

This sobering incident prompts us to consider ways we might dishonor God's name:

- Blaming God for evil. If we charge God with responsibility for troubles that result from human sin, that amounts to blasphemy. God gives only good gifts and cannot be the author of evil (James 1:13, 17). We are wrong when we hold Him responsible for acts unworthy of Him.
- Dishonoring another person. Many who would never curse God still readily curse others with actions and words. James 3:9, 10 strongly warns against cursing any human being, because dishonoring a human being created in God's image dishonors the Creator.
- Persistent rebellion and unbelief. The ultimate insult to God is turning our backs on His clearly revealed will, especially scorning Christ's work on our behalf and the spiritual growth that ought to result from having faith in Him.

Religious leaders accused Jesus of blasphemy, but He warned that it was they who were blaspheming by resisting the Holy Spirit (see "The Unpardonable Sin" at Matt. 12:31, 32). The Book of Hebrews similarly cautions believers against "falling away" from a vital relationship with God into unbelief and disobedience (see "Knowing About God" at Heb. 6:1–20).

Hold to Your Word

Lev. 24:13, 14

Anyone in authority faces the difficult task of disciplining others. Whether the discipline involves a mild verbal warning to a child or a career-ending firing of an employee, it's never easy. Yet God's severe correction of a blasphemer demonstrates two principles that may help us make our discipline more effective.

1. Enforce standards from the beginning. God had already informed His people that blasphemy was a capital offense (Ex. 20:7), and the case involving Shelomith's son (Lev. 24:10–12) was the first major test of that law. God followed through on His warning by instructing Moses to carry out a sentence of stoning. God made His expectations clear and held tough. If we let improper behavior slide—hoping it won't happen again—we are certain to face the same problem again. When people in our charge see that we meet noncompliance with definite consequences, they are less likely to disobey.
2. Hold everyone to the same standard. It is significant that the text names the offender's father as an Egyptian (24:10). Perhaps some Israelites thought the man was punished severely because of his ethnic background. After all, he was the son of a foreigner and had cursed Israel's God. But God made clear that there was no double standard: "Whoever curses his God . . . whoever blasphemes the name of the LORD . . . the stranger as well as him who is born in the land" would be punished (24:15, 16). God had no intention of playing favorites. Justice for all means justice for each one. There are times for mercy and making adjustments for extenuating circumstances. But fairness demands that even our exceptions be exercised evenly.

More: God modeled additional principles for the effective use of authority at the conclusion of Leviticus. See "Exercise Authority Well" at Lev. 26:3, 4.

The Sabbath Year

Lev. 25:2–8

One of the most unusual laws that God imposed on Israel was a requirement to let the Promised Land lie fallow every seventh year. This was not unlike the requirement for the people to rest every seventh day, or Sabbath (Lev. 23:3), and therefore was called the Sabbath year or sabbatical year.

The Sabbath year was important for two reasons. First, it taught the people that the land belonged to God (25:23). He created it and put it under humanity's management to "tend and keep" (Gen. 2:15). Even after people sinned, God charged them with responsibility for restoring the earth, so far as that is possible, from the effects of the Curse, such as natural infertility, weeds, pests, germs, and pollution. Letting the land lie fallow would help restore the ground's nutrients.

Second, the Sabbath year forced dependence on God. Forgoing a harvest every seventh year would remind the nation of its complete reliance on God, who promised to send three years' worth of harvest in the sixth year—food enough for the remainder of the sixth year, for the unplanted seventh year, and for the first year of the next cycle (Lev. 25:20).

In a technological society, the idea of a Sabbath year seems completely out of date. Yet the truths behind the Sabbath year have not changed. Ultimately, God still owns the means of production, and we are simply workers using His resources. Likewise, saving from the overflow takes care of future needs. Finally, we are still ultimately dependent on Him.

A Conservation Law

Lev. 25:5

God appointed the Sabbath year primarily to bring the people's focus back to Him. But the concept of letting the land rest every seven years yielded significant environmental benefits, allowing the soil to replenish itself and conserving resources. This is just one of many indications that God cares deeply about the environment where His people live, and that He knows how His creation operates. See "God and the Environment" at Psalm 104:14–23, 35 and "Faith and the Environment" at Revelation 9:4.

The Year of Jubilee

Lev. 25:8–17

Israel's Jubilee year occurred every fiftieth year. It was like a Sabbath year except that it had the additional purpose of returning property and lands to their owners and servants to their families. The result was that twice each century, the wealth of Israel was leveled though not equally redistributed. The goal was that no family's lands would be permanently lost to creditors and no person's freedom would be forever lost to servitude.

Freely Received, Freely Given

Lev. 25:35–38

Charging interest on loans is expected in the modern world. But in ancient Israel, the law prohibited charging interest on at least one category of loans: money loaned to the poor.

This law had broad social, financial, and spiritual implications, but two are especially significant. First, the law assisted the poor by not making their situation worse. It was bad to have fallen into poverty. It was humiliating to seek assistance. But crushing interest payments would make a loan more hurtful than helpful.

Second, the law taught a vital spiritual lesson. To forgo interest on a loan was an act of mercy. Losing the use of that money during the term of a loan was a lender's tangible expression of gratitude to God for freely extending grace. Just as God brought a throng of poor slaves out of Egypt and gave them a land of their own, so He expected the Israelites to show similar kindness to the poor among them.

We can joyfully help others in ways that do not escalate their troubles. Jesus instructed us that because "freely [we] have received," we should "freely give" (Matt. 10:8).

More: The law prohibiting interest on loans to the poor assumed that the borrower was so destitute he had nothing to offer as collateral but the clothes off his back. See "Charitable Loans to the Poor" at Ex. 22:25–27. Jesus once told a parable about two creditors and their attitude toward forgiveness. See Matt. 18:23–35.

Think About It: The Bible also teaches that there are times to not loan, or to co-sign. When are wise times to loan? When do loans actually deepen financial woes?

Exercising Authority

Lev. 26:3, 4

God carefully defined rewards for obedience (Lev. 26:3–13) and punishments for disobedience (26:14–39).

He also promised to remember His people when they repented from disobedience (26:40–45).

God's pattern modeled three principles for us as we effectively exercise authority. First, leaders must establish and clearly communicate what they expect others to do and to refrain from doing. Second, leaders need to clarify the consequences for fulfilling or not fulfilling those expectations. Third, leaders must follow through with rewards and punishments.

The Price of Disobedience

Lev. 26:14–46

Every society has rules, along with penalties for violating those rules. It is a pattern of morality deeply rooted in God's design for the people He made. At the end of Leviticus, we find that the intricate relationship between creation and its Creator cannot be violated without costly consequences to His people.

- God will be known as a "terror" rather than as a Friend and Companion (Lev. 26:16, 23, 24).
- Life will become painful and fleeting (26:16).
- Work will become futile for them as others profit from their labors (26:16, 20).
- Enemies will create both real and imaginary fears to dominate others (26:17, 25, 36–38).
- Reputations will suffer (26:19).
- Violence will become their destiny (26:22).
- Children will die before their parents (26:22).
- Food will be limited and unsatisfying, and in extreme circumstances people will become cannibals (26:26–29).
- Dwellings and cities will become repulsive, smelling foul and lying devastated (26:30–34).
- The people will become refugees (26:34, 39).

This bleak passage ends with God repeating His offer to forgive and receive His people back. He wants them to enter into life as He planned it, with all the blessings He intended for a holy and obedient people (26:40–46). Forgiveness and holy living would bring stable, gratifying life to God's people.

More: To see an example of the terrible, long-term price of sin, read the Book of Ecclesiastes. The writer turned from God to idols (1 Kin. 11:1–8). As a result, he came to the sad conclusion that "all is vanity" (Eccl. 1:2).

Think About It: Ponder this reality from the positive side: What, in turn, are the rewards of obedience?

God's Concern for the Land

Lev. 26:34, 35

God cared about the land that He provided for Israel, and He judged the nation for abusing it. Centuries after warning His people not to forsake the Sabbath years, He sent their descendants into exile. The length of Israel's stay in Babylon was seventy years, exactly the number of Sabbath years Israel had failed to let the land rest (2 Chr. 36:20, 21).

How God Deals with Disobedience

Lev. 26:40–46

Israel did not do well keeping God's commandments. Within a generation or two of entering the Promised Land, idol worship was rampant (Judg. 2:10–13). The nation failed to keep the sabbatical and Jubilee years (Jer. 34:12–16). And the people repeatedly dishonored the Lord's sanctuary (1 Sam. 4:3, 4, 11; 13:7–13). These were direct violations of the covenant (Lev. 26:1, 2), and Israel broke almost every other law as well.

God always responded with firm correction, just as He had warned (26:14–39; compare Judg. 2:14, 15; Jer. 34:17–22; 1 Sam. 7:2; 13:14). The people continued to disobey, and God finally allowed foreigners to take them into exile (2 Chr. 36:17–21). Even so, God's relationship with His recalcitrant people always held out a promise of forgiveness and restoration if they repented:

- He would remember His covenant with Israel's ancestors, Jacob and Abraham (Lev. 26:42, 45).
- He would remember the Promised Land (26:42).
- He would not cast His people away completely, or "abhor" them (26:44).
- He would not destroy them or break His covenant with them (26:44).
- He would remain their God (26:44, 45).

God shows how a leader must practice loyalty toward disobedient followers even when correcting them. Rather than explode in anger, we can find methods that benefit the offender and bring renewed goodness. Whether we are dealing with children, subordinates, students, or others, by following God's example, we can discipline in ways that help people rather than hurt them.

The Value of a Thank You

Lev. 27:1–25

Vows were offerings the Israelites pledged to God to thank Him for His blessing or help. Vows were strictly voluntary, but once they were made, their fulfillment became obligatory.

The Israelites had several common ways to pay vows. One was by "consecrating" or setting apart a person from the household for religious servitude (Lev. 27:2). These individuals may have been servants or family members; the text does not say. Other vows were paid with animals, houses, or land. God established a scale for the value of vows as follows:

- Vow of a person for service (27:2–8):

Age	Female	Male
1 month–5 years	3 shekels	5 shekels
5–20 years	10 shekels	20 shekels
20–60 years	30 shekels	50 shekels
60+ years	10 shekels	15 shekels

- Vow of an animal for sacrifice and consumption (27:9–13): value to be assessed by a priest.
- Vow of a home for God's use (27:14, 15): value to be assessed by a priest. Buy-back included a 20 percent increase in value.
- Vow of land for God's use (27:16–25): value to be assessed in light of the productivity records of the land. Buy-back included a 20 percent increase in value.

The psalmist asked, "What shall I render to the LORD for all His benefits toward me?" (Ps. 116:12). It is a question every follower of God should ponder. God never demands that we pay Him vows, but it seems reasonable to consider tangible ways to thank God for "all His benefits."

After escaping from slavery in Egypt and traveling to Mount Sinai to receive the Law from God (Ex. 19:1), the Israelites made their way to Canaan's southern boundary. At Kadesh Barnea, God intended for His people to enter the land He had promised to Abraham (Gen. 15:12–21). As the nation readied an attack, Moses counted the adult men of fighting age, a census that gives the Book of Numbers its name.

In early times the book was sometimes known by one of its first words, bemidbar, meaning "in the desert" or "in the wilderness" (Num. 1:1), a name that hints at the tragedy that occurred at Kadesh: Scouts found that Canaan was "flowing with milk and honey" just as God had said, but it was also well-fortified and inhabited by giants (13:27–33). Unconvinced of God's ability to help them capture the land, the people rebelled against the Lord and refused to enter. In response, God condemned them to wander in the wilderness and die there (14:32–35).

This image of the Israelites wandering across desert sands for the next forty years sums up their spiritual condition. Having lost faith in God, they drifted aimlessly through life. When they should have been enjoying the fruit of a bountiful land, they subsisted on manna. When they should have been delighting in trees and grass and flowers, they lived and died in a desert wasteland.

God released these stubborn sinners to their own foolish wills and raised up a new generation to complete His plan. He allowed Caleb and Joshua, two faithful men, to enter the Promised Land because they held fast to His promises while the rest of the Israelites succumbed to fear.

We should read Numbers alongside Psalm 90, a song composed by Moses perhaps during this period. As the great leader watched the nation fall to the dust, he prayed, "So teach us to number our days, that we may gain a heart of wisdom" (Ps. 90:12). We read Numbers to witness what happens when people disbelieve and disobey God. The apostle Paul told Christians to pay special attention to this book and heed its warnings (1 Cor. 10:11).

Numbers is the fourth of Moses' books (Num. 1:1; see also Moses' profile at Ex. 2:10). His narrative of the Israelites' physical and spiritual journey through the Wilderness of Sinai (see the map at "Where God Meets Us" at Ex. 19:1, 20) ends with the nation camped in the plains of Moab, east of the Jordan River (36:13). These events likely took place sometime around 1400 B.C.

Key People in Numbers

- Eleazar, the third son of Aaron and his successor as high priest (Num. 3:32).
- The congregation, the entire population of Israel (Num. 10:2, 3).
- The mixed multitude, a group that fled Egypt with the Israelites, possibly gladly expelled by the Egyptians (Num. 11:4).
- Miriam, the older sister of Aaron and Moses (Num. 12:1).
- Moses' Ethiopian wife, whose ethnicity may have contributed to a leadership conflict between Moses and his siblings (Num. 12:1–3).
- Korah, a rebel whose challenge of Moses' and Aaron's authority was dramatically judged (Num. 16:1).
- Balaam, a soothsayer hired to curse God's people but who instead blessed them (Num. 22:5).

- Phinehas, a man whose integrity and passion for God elevated him to leadership (Num. 25:7).
- The daughters of Zelophehad, sisters who were guaranteed territory in the Promised Land after appealing to Moses for fair treatment (Num. 27:1–11).

Key Events in Numbers

- Aaron and Miriam challenge their brother Moses' leadership (Num. 12).
- Spies bring a negative report of Canaan and the people then rebel (Num. 13–14).
- Korah leads a rebellion (Num. 16).
- Aaron's rod buds (Num. 17).
- Moses strikes a rock and is denied entry into the Promised Land (Num. 20:2–13).
- Balaam's donkey speaks (Num. 22:28–35).
- God defines the boundaries of the Promised Land (Num. 34:1–12).
- The Lord establishes cities of refuge (Num. 35).

Numbers 1

The First Census of Israel

1 Now the LORD spoke to Moses in the Wilderness of Sinai, in the tabernacle of meeting, on the first day of the second month, in the second year after they had come out of the land of Egypt, saying:
2 "Take a census of all the congregation of the children of Israel, by their families, by their fathers' houses, according to the number of names, every male individually, Finding Women in the Bible's Family Trees 3 "from twenty years old and above—all who are able to go to war in Israel. You and Aaron shall number them by their armies.
4 "And with you there shall be a man from every tribe,
each one the head of his father's house.
5 "These are the names of the men who shall stand with you: from Reuben, Elizur the son of Shedeur;
6 "from Simeon, Shelumiel the son of Zurishaddai;
7 "from Judah, Nahshon the son of Amminadab;
8 "from Issachar, Nethanel the son of Zuar;
9 "from Zebulun, Eliab the son of Helon; 10 "from the sons of Joseph: from Ephraim, Elishama the son of Ammihud; from Manasseh, Gamaliel the son of Pedahzur;
11 "from Benjamin, Abidan the son of Gideoni;
12 "from Dan, Ahiezer the son of Ammishaddai;
13 "from Asher, Pagiel the son of Ocran;
14 "from Gad, Eliasaph the son of Deuel;[a] 15 "from Naphtali, Ahira the son of Enan."

16These were chosen from the congregation, leaders of their fathers' tribes, heads of the divisions in Israel.

17Then Moses and Aaron took these men who had been mentioned by name, 18and they assembled all the congregation together on the first day of the second month; and they recited their ancestry by families, by their fathers' houses, according to the number of names, from twenty years old and above, each one individually.

19As the LORD commanded Moses, so he numbered them in the Wilderness of Sinai.

20Now the children of Reuben, Israel's oldest son, their genealogies by their families, by their fathers' house, according to the number of names, every male individually, from twenty years old and above, all who were able to go to war:

21those who were numbered of the tribe of Reuben were forty-six thousand five hundred.

22From the children of Simeon, their genealogies by their families, by their fathers' house, of those who were numbered, according to the number of names, every male individually, from twenty years old and above, all who were able to go to war:

23those who were numbered of the tribe of Simeon were fifty-nine thousand three hundred.

24From the children of Gad, their genealogies by their families, by their fathers' house, according to the number of names, from twenty years old and above, all who were able to go to war:

25those who were numbered of the tribe of Gad were forty-five thousand six hundred and fifty.

26From the children of Judah, their genealogies by their families, by their fathers' house, according to the number of names, from twenty years old and above, all who were able to go to war:

[27]those who were numbered of the tribe of Judah were seventy-four thousand six hundred.

[28]From the children of Issachar, their genealogies by their families, by their fathers' house, according to the number of names, from twenty years old and above, all who were able to go to war:

[29]those who were numbered of the tribe of Issachar were fifty-four thousand four hundred.

[30]From the children of Zebulun, their genealogies by their families, by their fathers' house, according to the number of names, from twenty years old and above, all who were able to go to war:

[31]those who were numbered of the tribe of Zebulun were fifty-seven thousand four hundred.

[32]From the sons of Joseph, the children of Ephraim, their genealogies by their families, by their fathers' house, according to the number of names, from twenty years old and above, all who were able to go to war:

[33]those who were numbered of the tribe of Ephraim were forty thousand five hundred.

[34]From the children of Manasseh, their genealogies by their families, by their fathers' house, according to the number of names, from twenty years old and above, all who were able to go to war:

[35]those who were numbered of the tribe of Manasseh were thirty-two thousand two hundred.

[36]From the children of Benjamin, their genealogies by their families, by their fathers' house, according to the number of names, from twenty years old and above, all who were able to go to war:

[37]those who were numbered of the tribe of Benjamin were thirty-five thousand four hundred.

38From the children of Dan, their genealogies by their families, by their fathers' house, according to the number of names, from twenty years old and above, all who were able to go to war:

39those who were numbered of the tribe of Dan were sixty-two thousand seven hundred.

40From the children of Asher, their genealogies by their families, by their fathers' house, according to the number of names, from twenty years old and above, all who were able to go to war:

41those who were numbered of the tribe of Asher were forty-one thousand five hundred.

42From the children of Naphtali, their genealogies by their families, by their fathers' house, according to the number of names, from twenty years old and above, all who were able to go to war:

43those who were numbered of the tribe of Naphtali were fifty-three thousand four hundred.

44These are the ones who were numbered, whom Moses and Aaron numbered, with the leaders of Israel, twelve men, each one representing his father's house.

45So all who were numbered of the children of Israel, by their fathers' houses, from twenty years old and above, all who were able to go to war in Israel—

46all who were numbered were six hundred and three thousand five hundred and fifty.

47But the Levites were not numbered among them by their fathers' tribe;

48for the LORD had spoken to Moses, saying:

49"Only the tribe of Levi you shall not number, nor take a census of them among the children of Israel;

50"but you shall appoint the Levites over the tabernacle of the Testimony, over all its furnishings, and over all things that belong to it; they shall carry the tabernacle and all its furnishings; they shall attend to it and camp around the tabernacle.

51 “And when the tabernacle is to go forward, the Levites shall take it down; and when the tabernacle is to be set up, the Levites shall set it up. The outsider who comes near shall be put to death.

52 “The children of Israel shall pitch their tents, everyone by his own camp, everyone by his own standard, according to their armies;

53 “but the Levites shall camp around the tabernacle of the Testimony, that there may be no wrath on the congregation of the children of Israel; and the Levites shall keep charge of the tabernacle of the Testimony.”

54 Thus the children of Israel did; according to all that the LORD commanded Moses, so they did.

Numbers 2

The Tribes and Leaders by Armies

1 And the LORD spoke to Moses and Aaron, saying:

2 “Everyone of the children of Israel shall camp by his own standard, beside the emblems of his father’s house;
they shall camp some distance from the tabernacle of meeting.

3 “On the east side, toward the rising of the sun, those of the standard of the forces with Judah shall camp according to their armies; and Nahshon the son of Amminadab shall be the leader of the children of Judah.”

4 And his army was numbered at seventy-four thousand six hundred.

5 “Those who camp next to him shall be the tribe of Issachar, and Nethanel the son of Zuar shall be the leader of the children of Issachar.”

6 And his army was numbered at fifty-four thousand four hundred.

7 “Then comes the tribe of Zebulun, and Eliab the son of Helon shall be the leader of the children of Zebulun.”

8 And his army was numbered at fifty-seven thousand four hundred.

9 “All who were numbered according to their armies of the forces with Judah, one hundred and eighty-six thousand four hundred—these shall break camp first.

10 “On the south side shall be the standard of the forces with Reuben according to their armies, and the leader of the children of Reuben shall be Elizur the son of Shedeur.”

11 And his army was numbered at forty-six thousand five hundred.

12 “Those who camp next to him shall be the tribe of Simeon, and the leader of the children of Simeon shall be Shelumiel the son of Zurishaddai.”
13 And his army was numbered at fifty-nine thousand three hundred.
14 “Then comes the tribe of Gad, and the leader of the children of Gad shall be Eliasaph the son of Reuel.”[a] 15 And his army was numbered at forty-five thousand six hundred and fifty.
16 “All who were numbered according to their armies of the forces with Reuben, one hundred and fifty-one thousand four hundred and fifty—they shall be the second to break camp.
17 “And the tabernacle of meeting shall move out with the camp of the Levites in the middle of the camps; as they camp, so they shall move out, everyone in his place, by their standards.
18 “On the west side shall be the standard of the forces with Ephraim according to their armies, and the leader of the children of Ephraim shall be Elishama the son of Ammihud.”
19 And his army was numbered at forty thousand five hundred.
20 “Next to him comes the tribe of Manasseh, and the leader of the children of Manasseh shall be Gamaliel the son of Pedahzur.”
21 And his army was numbered at thirty-two thousand two hundred.
22 “Then comes the tribe of Benjamin, and the leader of the children of Benjamin shall be Abidan the son of Gideoni.”
23 And his army was numbered at thirty-five thousand four hundred.

24 “All who were numbered according to their armies of the forces with Ephraim, one hundred and eight thousand one hundred—they shall be the third to break camp.
25 “The standard of the forces with Dan shall be on the north side according to their armies, and the leader of the children of Dan shall be Ahiezer the son of Ammishaddai.” 26 And his army was numbered at sixty-two thousand seven hundred.
27 “Those who camp next to him shall be the tribe of Asher, and the leader of the children of Asher shall be Pagiel the son of Ocran.”
28 And his army was numbered at forty-one thousand five hundred.
29 “Then comes the tribe of Naphtali, and the leader of the children of Naphtali shall be Ahira the son of Enan.” 30 And his army was numbered at fifty-three thousand four hundred.
31 “All who were numbered of the forces with Dan, one hundred and fifty-seven thousand six hundred—they shall break camp last, with their standards.” 32 These are the ones who were numbered of the children of Israel by their fathers’ houses. All who were numbered according to their armies of the forces were six hundred and three thousand five hundred and fifty.
33 But the Levites were not numbered among the children of Israel, just as the LORD commanded Moses.
34 Thus the children of Israel did according to all that the LORD commanded Moses; so they camped by their standards and so they broke camp, each one by his family, according to their fathers’ houses.

Numbers 3

The Sons of Aaron

1 Now these are the records of Aaron and Moses when the LORD spoke with Moses on Mount Sinai.
2 And these are the names of the sons of Aaron: Nadab, the firstborn, and Abihu, Eleazar, and Ithamar.
3 These are the names of the sons of Aaron, the anointed priests, whom he consecrated to minister as priests.
4 Nadab and Abihu had died before the LORD when they offered profane fire before the LORD in the Wilderness of Sinai; and they had no children. So Eleazar and Ithamar ministered as priests in the presence of Aaron their father.

The Levites Serve in the Tabernacle

5 And the LORD spoke to Moses, saying:
6 "Bring the tribe of Levi near, and present them before Aaron the priest, that they may serve him.
7 "And they shall attend to his needs and the needs of the whole congregation before the tabernacle of meeting, to do the work of the tabernacle.
8 "Also they shall attend to all the furnishings of the tabernacle of meeting, and to the needs of the children of Israel, to do the work of the tabernacle.
9 "And you shall give the Levites to Aaron and his sons;
they are given entirely to him[a] from among the children of Israel.
10 "So you shall appoint Aaron and his sons, and they shall attend to their priesthood; but the outsider who comes near shall be put to death."
11 Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying:

12 “Now behold, I Myself have taken the Levites from among the children of Israel instead of every firstborn who opens the womb among the children of Israel. Therefore the Levites shall be Mine, 13 “because all the firstborn are Mine. On the day that I struck all the firstborn in the land of Egypt, I sanctified to Myself all the firstborn in Israel, both man and beast. They shall be Mine: I am the LORD.”

Census of the Levites Commanded

14 Then the LORD spoke to Moses in the Wilderness of Sinai, saying:
15 “Number the children of Levi by their fathers’ houses, by their families; you shall number every male from a month old and above.”
16 So Moses numbered them according to the word of the LORD, as he was commanded.
17 These were the sons of Levi by their names: Gershon, Kohath, and Merari.
18 And these are the names of the sons of Gershon by their families: Libni and Shimei.
19 And the sons of Kohath by their families: Amram, Izehar, Hebron, and Uzziel.
20 And the sons of Merari by their families: Mahli and Mushi. These are the families of the Levites by their fathers’ houses.
21 From Gershon came the family of the Libnites and the family of the Shimites; these were the families of the Gershonites.
22 Those who were numbered, according to the number of all the males from a month old and above—of those who were numbered there were seven thousand five hundred.
23 The families of the Gershonites were to camp behind the tabernacle westward.

[24]And the leader of the father’s house of the Gershonites was Eliasaph the son of Lael.

[25]The duties of the children of Gershon in the tabernacle of meeting included the tabernacle, the tent with its covering, the screen for the door of the tabernacle of meeting,

[26]the screen for the door of the court, the hangings of the court which are around the tabernacle and the altar, and their cords, according to all the work relating to them.

27From Kohath came the family of the Amramites, the family of the Izharites, the family of the Hebronites, and the family of the Uzzielites; these were the families of the Kohathites.

[28]According to the number of all the males, from a month old and above, there were eight thousand six[b] hundred keeping charge of the sanctuary.

[29]The families of the children of Kohath were to camp on the south side of the tabernacle.

[30]And the leader of the fathers’ house of the families of the Kohathites was Elizaphan the son of Uzziel.

[31]Their duty included the ark, the table, the lampstand, the altars, the utensils of the sanctuary with which they ministered, the screen, and all the work relating to them.

[32]And Eleazar the son of Aaron the priest was to be chief over the leaders of the Levites, with oversight of those who kept charge of the sanctuary. Eleazar 33From Merari came the family of the Mahlites and the family of the Mushites; these were the families of Merari.

[34]And those who were numbered, according to the number of all the males from a month old and above, were six thousand two hundred.

[35]The leader of the fathers’ house of the families of Merari was Zuriel the son of Abihail. These were to camp on the north side of the tabernacle.

36 And the appointed duty of the children of Merari included the boards of the tabernacle, its bars, its pillars, its sockets, its utensils, all the work relating to them, 37 and the pillars of the court all around, with their sockets, their pegs, and their cords.
38 Moreover those who were to camp before the tabernacle on the east, before the tabernacle of meeting, were Moses, Aaron, and his sons, keeping charge of the sanctuary, to meet the needs of the children of Israel; but the outsider who came near was to be put to death.
39 All who were numbered of the Levites, whom Moses and Aaron numbered at the commandment of the LORD, by their families, all the males from a month old and above, were twenty-two thousand.

Levites Dedicated Instead of the Firstborn

40 Then the LORD said to Moses: "Number all the firstborn males of the children of Israel from a month old and above, and take the number of their names.
41 "And you shall take the Levites for Me—I am the LORD
—instead of all the firstborn among the children of Israel, and the livestock of the Levites instead of all the firstborn among the livestock of the children of Israel." 42 So Moses numbered all the firstborn among the children of Israel, as the LORD commanded him.
43 And all the firstborn males, according to the number of names from a month old and above, of those who were numbered of them, were twenty-two thousand two hundred and seventy-three.
44 Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying:
45 "Take the Levites instead of all the firstborn among the children of Israel, and the livestock of the Levites instead of their livestock. The Levites shall be Mine: I am the LORD.

46 “And for the redemption of the two hundred and seventy-three of the firstborn of the children of Israel, who are more than the number of the Levites, 47 “you shall take five shekels for each one individually;
you shall take them in the currency of the shekel of the sanctuary, the shekel of twenty gerahs.
48 “And you shall give the money, with which the excess number of them is redeemed, to Aaron and his sons.” 49 So Moses took the redemption money from those who were over and above those who were redeemed by the Levites.
50 From the firstborn of the children of Israel he took the money, one thousand three hundred and sixty-five shekels,
according to the shekel of the sanctuary.
51 And Moses gave their redemption money to Aaron and his sons, according to the word of the LORD, as the LORD commanded Moses.

Numbers 4

Duties of the Sons of Kohath

1 Then the LORD spoke to Moses and Aaron, saying:

2 “Take a census of the sons of Kohath from among the children of Levi, by their families, by their fathers’ house,

3 “from thirty years old and above, even to fifty years old, all who enter the service to do the work in the tabernacle of meeting.

4 “This is the service of the sons of Kohath in the tabernacle of meeting, relating to the most holy things:

5 “When the camp prepares to journey, Aaron and his sons shall come, and they shall take down the covering veil and cover the ark of the Testimony with it.

6 “Then they shall put on it a covering of badger skins, and spread over that a cloth entirely of blue; and they shall insert its poles.

7 “On the table of showbread they shall spread a blue cloth, and put on it the dishes, the pans, the bowls, and the pitchers for pouring; and the showbread[a] shall be on it.

8 “They shall spread over them a scarlet cloth, and cover the same with a covering of badger skins; and they shall insert its poles.

9 “And they shall take a blue cloth and cover the lampstand of the light, with its lamps, its wick-trimmers, its trays, and all its oil vessels, with which they service it.

10 “Then they shall put it with all its utensils in a covering of badger skins, and put it on a carrying beam.

11 “Over the golden altar they shall spread a blue cloth, and cover it with a covering of badger skins; and they shall insert its poles.

12 “Then they shall take all the utensils of service with which they minister in the sanctuary, put them in a blue cloth, cover them with a covering of badger skins, and put them on a carrying beam.
13 “Also they shall take away the ashes from the altar, and spread a purple cloth over it.
14 “They shall put on it all its implements with which they minister there—the firepans, the forks, the shovels, the basins, and all the utensils of the altar—and they shall spread on it a covering of badger skins, and insert its poles.
15 “And when Aaron and his sons have finished covering the sanctuary and all the furnishings of the sanctuary, when the camp is set to go, then the sons of Kohath shall come to carry them; but they shall not touch any holy thing, lest they die. These are the things in the tabernacle of meeting which the sons of Kohath are to carry. Project Management 16 “The appointed duty of Eleazar the son of Aaron the priest is the oil for the light, the sweet incense, the daily grain offering, the anointing oil, the oversight of all the tabernacle, of all that is in it, with the sanctuary and its furnishings.”
17 Then the LORD spoke to Moses and Aaron, saying:
18 “Do not cut off the tribe of the families of the Kohathites from among the Levites; 19 “but do this in regard to them, that they may live and not die when they approach the most holy things: Aaron and his sons shall go in and appoint each of them to his service and his task.
20 “But they shall not go in to watch while the holy things are being covered, lest they die.”

Duties of the Sons of Gershon

21 Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying:

22 “Also take a census of the sons of Gershon, by their fathers’ house, by their families.
23 “From thirty years old and above, even to fifty years old, you shall number them, all who enter to perform the service, to do the work in the tabernacle of meeting.
24 “This is the service of the families of the Gershonites, in serving and carrying:
25 “They shall carry the curtains of the tabernacle and the tabernacle of meeting with its covering, the covering of badger skins that is on it, the screen for the door of the tabernacle of meeting, 26 “the screen for the door of the gate of the court, the hangings of the court which are around the tabernacle and altar, and their cords, all the furnishings for their service and all that is made for these things: so shall they serve.
27 “Aaron and his sons shall assign all the service of the sons of the Gershonites, all their tasks and all their service.
And you shall appoint to them all their tasks as their duty.
28 “This is the service of the families of the sons of Gershon in the tabernacle of meeting. And their duties shall be under the authority[b] of Ithamar the son of Aaron the priest.

Duties of the Sons of Merari

29 “As for the sons of Merari, you shall number them by their families and by their fathers’ house.
30 “From thirty years old and above, even to fifty years old, you shall number them, everyone who enters the service to do the work of the tabernacle of meeting.
31 “And this is what they must carry as all their service for the tabernacle of meeting: the boards of the tabernacle, its bars, its pillars, its sockets, 32 “and the pillars around the court with their sockets, pegs, and cords, with all their furnishings and all their service; and you shall assign to each man by name the items he must carry.

33"This is the service of the families of the sons of Merari, as all their service for the tabernacle of meeting, under the authority[c] of Ithamar the son of Aaron the priest."

Census of the Levites

34And Moses, Aaron, and the leaders of the congregation numbered the sons of the Kohathites by their families and by their fathers' house,

36and those who were numbered by their families were two thousand seven hundred and fifty.

37These were the ones who were numbered of the families of the Kohathites, all who might serve in the tabernacle of meeting, whom Moses and Aaron numbered according to the commandment of the LORD by the hand of Moses.

38And those who were numbered of the sons of Gershon, by their families and by their fathers' house,

40those who were numbered by their families, by their fathers' house, were two thousand six hundred and thirty.

41These are the ones who were numbered of the families of the sons of Gershon, of all who might serve in the tabernacle of meeting, whom Moses and Aaron numbered according to the commandment of the LORD.

42Those of the families of the sons of Merari who were numbered, by their families, by their fathers' house,

43 from thirty years old and above, even to fifty years old, everyone who entered the service for work in the tabernacle of meeting—
44 those who were numbered by their families were three thousand two hundred.
45 These are the ones who were numbered of the families of the sons of Merari, whom Moses and Aaron numbered according to the word of the LORD by the hand of Moses.
46 All who were numbered of the Levites, whom Moses, Aaron, and the leaders of Israel numbered, by their families and by their fathers' houses, 47 from thirty years old and above, even to fifty years old, everyone who came to do the work of service and the work of bearing burdens in the tabernacle of meeting—48 those who were numbered were eight thousand five hundred and eighty.
49 According to the commandment of the LORD they were numbered by the hand of Moses, each according to his service and according to his task; thus were they numbered by him, as the LORD commanded Moses.

Numbers 5

Ceremonially Unclean Persons Isolated

1 And the LORD spoke to Moses, saying:
2 "Command the children of Israel that they put out of the camp every leper, everyone who has a discharge, and whoever becomes defiled by a corpse.
3 "You shall put out both male and female; you shall put them outside the camp, that they may not defile their camps in the midst of which I dwell."
4 And the children of Israel did so, and put them outside the camp; as the LORD spoke to Moses, so the children of Israel did.

Confession and Restitution

5 Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,
6 "Speak to the children of Israel: 'When a man or woman commits any sin that men commit in unfaithfulness against the LORD, and that person is guilty, 7 'then he shall confess the sin which he has committed.
He shall make restitution for his trespass in full, plus one-fifth of it, and give it to the one he has wronged. A Law for Criminals—and Their Victims
8 'But if the man has no relative to whom restitution may be made for the wrong, the restitution for the wrong must go to the LORD for the priest, in addition to the ram of the atonement with which atonement is made for him.
9 'Every offering of all the holy things of the children of Israel, which they bring to the priest, shall be his.
10 'And every man's holy things shall be his; whatever any man gives the priest shall be his.' "

Concerning Unfaithful Wives

11 And the LORD spoke to Moses, saying, Jealousy and Justice

12 “Speak to the children of Israel, and say to them: ‘If any man’s wife goes astray and behaves unfaithfully toward him,

13 ‘and a man lies with her carnally, and it is hidden from the eyes of her husband, and it is concealed that she has defiled herself, and there was no witness against her, nor was she caught—

14 ‘if the spirit of jealousy comes upon him and he becomes jealous of his wife, who has defiled herself; or if the spirit of jealousy comes upon him and he becomes jealous of his wife, although she has not defiled herself—

15 ‘then the man shall bring his wife to the priest. He shall bring the offering required for her, one-tenth of an ephah of barley meal; he shall pour no oil on it and put no frankincense on it, because it is a grain offering of jealousy, an offering for remembering, for bringing iniquity to remembrance.

16 ‘And the priest shall bring her near, and set her before the LORD.

17 ‘The priest shall take holy water in an earthen vessel, and take some of the dust that is on the floor of the tabernacle and put it into the water.

18 ‘Then the priest shall stand the woman before the LORD, uncover the woman’s head, and put the offering for remembering in her hands, which is the grain offering of jealousy. And the priest shall have in his hand the bitter water that brings a curse.

19 ‘And the priest shall put her under oath, and say to the woman, “If no man has lain with you, and if you have not gone astray to uncleanness while under your husband’s authority, be free from this bitter water that brings a curse.

20 “But if you have gone astray while under your husband’s authority, and if you have defiled yourself and some man other than your husband has lain with you”— 21 ‘then the priest shall put the woman under the oath of the curse, and he shall say to the woman—“the LORD make you a curse and an oath among your people, when the LORD makes your thigh rot and your belly swell; 22 “and may this water that causes the curse go into your stomach, and make your belly swell and your thigh rot.”
Then the woman shall say, “Amen, so be it.” 23 ‘Then the priest shall write these curses in a book, and he shall scrape them off into the bitter water.
24 ‘And he shall make the woman drink the bitter water that brings a curse, and the water that brings the curse shall enter her to become bitter.
25 ‘Then the priest shall take the grain offering of jealousy from the woman’s hand, shall wave the offering before the LORD, and bring it to the altar; 26 ‘and the priest shall take a handful of the offering, as its memorial portion, burn it on the altar, and afterward make the woman drink the water.
27 ‘When he has made her drink the water, then it shall be, if she has defiled herself and behaved unfaithfully toward her husband, that the water that brings a curse will enter her and become bitter, and her belly will swell, her thigh will rot, and the woman will become a curse among her people.
28 ‘But if the woman has not defiled herself, and is clean, then she shall be free and may conceive children.
29 ‘This is the law of jealousy, when a wife, while under her husband’s authority, goes astray and defiles herself, 30 ‘or when the spirit of jealousy comes upon a man, and he becomes jealous of his wife; then he shall stand the woman before the LORD, and the priest shall execute all this law upon her.

31 ‘Then the man shall be free from iniquity, but that woman shall bear her guilt.’ ”

Numbers 6

The Law of the Nazirite

1 Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,

2 “Speak to the children of Israel, and say to them: ‘When either a man or woman consecrates an offering to take the vow of a Nazirite, to separate himself to the LORD, The Nazirite Vow

3 ‘he shall separate himself from wine and similar drink; he shall drink neither vinegar made from wine nor vinegar made from similar drink; neither shall he drink any grape juice, nor eat fresh grapes or raisins.

4 ‘All the days of his separation he shall eat nothing that is produced by the grapevine, from seed to skin.

5 ‘All the days of the vow of his separation no razor shall come upon his head; until the days are fulfilled for which he separated himself to the LORD, he shall be holy. Then he shall let the locks of the hair of his head grow.

6 ‘All the days that he separates himself to the LORD he shall not go near a dead body.

7 ‘He shall not make himself unclean even for his father or his mother, for his brother or his sister, when they die, because his separation to God is on his head.

8 ‘All the days of his separation he shall be holy to the LORD.

9 ‘And if anyone dies very suddenly beside him, and he defiles his consecrated head, then he shall shave his head on the day of his cleansing; on the seventh day he shall shave it.

10 ‘Then on the eighth day he shall bring two turtledoves or two young pigeons to the priest, to the door of the tabernacle of meeting;

11 ‘and the priest shall offer one as a sin offering and the other as a burnt offering, and make atonement for him, because he sinned in regard to the corpse; and he shall sanctify his head that same day.

12 ‘He shall consecrate to the LORD the days of his separation, and bring a male lamb in its first year as a trespass offering; but the former days shall be lost, because his separation was defiled.

13 ‘Now this is the law of the Nazirite: When the days of his separation are fulfilled, he shall be brought to the door of the tabernacle of meeting.

14 ‘And he shall present his offering to the LORD: one male lamb in its first year without blemish as a burnt offering, one ewe lamb in its first year without blemish as a sin offering, one ram without blemish as a peace offering,

15 ‘a basket of unleavened bread, cakes of fine flour mixed with oil, unleavened wafers anointed with oil, and their grain offering with their drink offerings.

16 ‘Then the priest shall bring them before the LORD and offer his sin offering and his burnt offering;

17 ‘and he shall offer the ram as a sacrifice of a peace offering to the LORD, with the basket of unleavened bread; the priest shall also offer its grain offering and its drink offering.

18 ‘Then the Nazirite shall shave his consecrated head at the door of the tabernacle of meeting, and shall take the hair from his consecrated head and put it on the fire which is under the sacrifice of the peace offering.

19 ‘And the priest shall take the boiled shoulder of the ram, one unleavened cake from the basket, and one unleavened wafer, and put them upon the hands of the Nazirite after he has shaved his consecrated hair,

20 ‘and the priest shall wave them as a wave offering before the LORD; they are holy for the priest, together with the breast of the wave offering and the thigh of the heave offering. After that the Nazirite may drink wine.’

21“This is the law of the Nazirite who vows to the LORD the offering for his separation, and besides that, whatever else his hand is able to provide; according to the vow which he takes, so he must do according to the law of his separation.”

The Priestly Blessing

22And the LORD spoke to Moses, saying:

23“Speak to Aaron and his sons, saying, ‘This is the way you shall bless the children of Israel. Say to them:

24“The LORD bless you and keep you; Blessings and Benedictions

25The LORD make His face shine upon you,
And be gracious to you;
26The LORD lift up His countenance upon you,
And give you peace.” ’

27“So they shall put My name on the children of Israel, and I will bless them.”

Numbers 7

Offerings of the Leaders

1 Now it came to pass, when Moses had finished setting up the tabernacle, that he anointed it and consecrated it and all its furnishings, and the altar and all its utensils; so he anointed them and consecrated them. The Value of Ritual

2 Then the leaders of Israel, the heads of their fathers' houses, who were the leaders of the tribes and over those who were numbered, made an offering.

3 And they brought their offering before the LORD, six covered carts and twelve oxen, a cart for every two of the leaders, and for each one an ox; and they presented them before the tabernacle.

4 Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,

5 "Accept these from them, that they may be used in doing the work of the tabernacle of meeting; and you shall give them to the Levites, to every man according to his service."

6 So Moses took the carts and the oxen, and gave them to the Levites.

7 Two carts and four oxen he gave to the sons of Gershon, according to their service;

8 and four carts and eight oxen he gave to the sons of Merari, according to their service, under the authority[a] of Ithamar the son of Aaron the priest.

9 But to the sons of Kohath he gave none, because theirs was the service of the holy things, which they carried on their shoulders.

10 Now the leaders offered the dedication offering for the altar when it was anointed; so the leaders offered their offering before the altar. The Importance of Offerings

11 For the LORD said to Moses, “They shall offer their offering, one leader each day, for the dedication of the altar.”

66On the tenth day Ahiezer the son of Ammishaddai, leader of the children of Dan, presented an offering.
67His offering was one silver platter, the weight of which

89 Now when Moses went into the tabernacle of meeting to speak with Him, he heard the voice of One speaking to him from above the mercy seat that was on the ark of the Testimony, from between the two cherubim; thus He spoke to him.

Numbers 8

Arrangement of the Lamps

1 And the LORD spoke to Moses, saying:

2 "Speak to Aaron, and say to him, 'When you arrange the lamps, the seven lamps shall give light in front of the lampstand.' "

3 And Aaron did so; he arranged the lamps to face toward the front of the lampstand, as the LORD commanded Moses.

4 Now this workmanship of the lampstand was hammered gold; from its shaft to its flowers it was hammered work.
According to the pattern which the LORD had shown Moses, so he made the lampstand.

Cleansing and Dedication of the Levites

5 Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying:

6 "Take the Levites from among the children of Israel and cleanse them ceremonially.

7 "Thus you shall do to them to cleanse them: Sprinkle water of purification on them, and let them shave all their body, and let them wash their clothes, and so make themselves clean.

8 "Then let them take a young bull with its grain offering of fine flour mixed with oil, and you shall take another young bull as a sin offering.

9 "And you shall bring the Levites before the tabernacle of meeting, and you shall gather together the whole congregation of the children of Israel.

10 "So you shall bring the Levites before the LORD, and the children of Israel shall lay their hands on the Levites;

11 “and Aaron shall offer the Levites before the LORD, like a wave offering from the children of Israel, that they may perform the work of the LORD.

12 “Then the Levites shall lay their hands on the heads of the young bulls, and you shall offer one as a sin offering and the other as a burnt offering to the LORD, to make atonement for the Levites.

13 “And you shall stand the Levites before Aaron and his sons, and then offer them like a wave offering to the LORD.

14 “Thus you shall separate the Levites from among the children of Israel, and the Levites shall be Mine.

15 “After that the Levites shall go in to service the tabernacle of meeting. So you shall cleanse them and offer them, like a wave offering.

16 “For they are wholly given to Me from among the children of Israel; I have taken them for Myself instead of all who open the womb, the firstborn of all the children of Israel.

17 “For all the firstborn among the children of Israel are Mine, both man and beast; on the day that I struck all the firstborn in the land of Egypt I sanctified them to Myself.

18 “I have taken the Levites instead of all the firstborn of the children of Israel.

19 “And I have given the Levites as a gift to Aaron and his sons from among the children of Israel, to do the work for the children of Israel in the tabernacle of meeting, and to make atonement for the children of Israel, that there be no plague among the children of Israel when the children of Israel come near the sanctuary.”

20 Thus Moses and Aaron and all the congregation of the children of Israel did to the Levites; according to all that the LORD commanded Moses concerning the Levites, so the children of Israel did to them.

21 And the Levites purified themselves and washed their clothes; then Aaron presented them, like a wave offering before the LORD, and Aaron made atonement for them to cleanse them.
22 After that the Levites went in to do their work in the tabernacle of meeting before Aaron and his sons; as the LORD commanded Moses concerning the Levites, so they did to them.
23 Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,
24 "This is what pertains to the Levites: From twenty-five years old and above one may enter to perform service in the work of the tabernacle of meeting; 25 "and at the age of fifty years they must cease performing this work, and shall work no more.
26 "They may minister with their brethren in the tabernacle of meeting, to attend to needs, but they themselves shall do no work. Thus you shall do to the Levites regarding their duties."

Numbers 9

The Second Passover

1 Now the LORD spoke to Moses in the Wilderness of Sinai, in the first month of the second year after they had come out of the land of Egypt, saying:
2 "Let the children of Israel keep the Passover at its appointed time.
3 "On the fourteenth day of this month, at twilight, you shall keep it at its appointed time. According to all its rites and ceremonies you shall keep it." 4 So Moses told the children of Israel that they should keep the Passover.
5 And they kept the Passover on the fourteenth day of the first month, at twilight, in the Wilderness of Sinai;
according to all that the LORD commanded Moses, so the children of Israel did.
6 Now there were certain men who were defiled by a human corpse, so that they could not keep the Passover on that day; and they came before Moses and Aaron that day.
7 And those men said to him, "We became defiled by a human corpse. Why are we kept from presenting the offering of the LORD at its appointed time among the children of Israel?"
8 And Moses said to them, "Stand still, that I may hear what the LORD will command concerning you."
9 Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,
10 "Speak to the children of Israel, saying: 'If anyone of you or your posterity is unclean because of a corpse, or is far away on a journey, he may still keep the LORD's Passover.

11 ‘On the fourteenth day of the second month, at twilight, they may keep it. They shall eat it with unleavened bread and bitter herbs.
12 ‘They shall leave none of it until morning, nor break one of its bones. According to all the ordinances of the Passover they shall keep it.
13 ‘But the man who is clean and is not on a journey, and ceases to keep the Passover, that same person shall be cut off from among his people, because he did not bring the offering of the LORD at its appointed time; that man shall bear his sin.
14 ‘And if a stranger dwells among you, and would keep the LORD’s Passover, he must do so according to the rite of the Passover and according to its ceremony; you shall have one ordinance, both for the stranger and the native of the land.’ ”

The Cloud and the Fire

15 Now on the day that the tabernacle was raised up, the cloud covered the tabernacle, the tent of the Testimony; from evening until morning it was above the tabernacle like the appearance of fire. Starting and Stopping 16 So it was always: the cloud covered it by day, and the appearance of fire by night.
17 Whenever the cloud was taken up from above the tabernacle, after that the children of Israel would journey; and in the place where the cloud settled, there the children of Israel would pitch their tents.
18 At the command of the LORD the children of Israel would journey, and at the command of the LORD they would camp; as long as the cloud stayed above the tabernacle they remained encamped.
19 Even when the cloud continued long, many days above the tabernacle, the children of Israel kept the charge of the LORD and did not journey.

20 So it was, when the cloud was above the tabernacle a few days: according to the command of the LORD they would remain encamped, and according to the command of the LORD they would journey.

21 So it was, when the cloud remained only from evening until morning: when the cloud was taken up in the morning, then they would journey; whether by day or by night, whenever the cloud was taken up, they would journey.

22 Whether it was two days, a month, or a year that the cloud remained above the tabernacle, the children of Israel would remain encamped and not journey; but when it was taken up, they would journey.

23 At the command of the LORD they remained encamped, and at the command of the LORD they journeyed; they kept the charge of the LORD, at the command of the LORD by the hand of Moses.

Numbers 10

Two Silver Trumpets

1 And the LORD spoke to Moses, saying:

2 “Make two silver trumpets for yourself; you shall make them of hammered work; you shall use them for calling the congregation and for directing the movement of the camps.

The Assembly

3 “When they blow both of them, all the congregation shall gather before you at the door of the tabernacle of meeting.

4 “But if they blow only one, then the leaders, the heads of the divisions of Israel, shall gather to you.

5 “When you sound the advance, the camps that lie on the east side shall then begin their journey.

6 “When you sound the advance the second time, then the camps that lie on the south side shall begin their journey;
they shall sound the call for them to begin their journeys.

7 “And when the assembly is to be gathered together, you shall blow, but not sound the advance.

8 “The sons of Aaron, the priests, shall blow the trumpets;
and these shall be to you as an ordinance forever
throughout your generations.

9 “When you go to war in your land against the enemy who oppresses you, then you shall sound an alarm with the trumpets, and you will be remembered before the LORD your God, and you will be saved from your enemies.

10 “Also in the day of your gladness, in your appointed feasts, and at the beginning of your months, you shall blow the trumpets over your burnt offerings and over the sacrifices of your peace offerings; and they shall be a memorial for you before your God: I am the LORD your God.”

Departure from Sinai

11Now it came to pass on the twentieth day of the second month, in the second year, that the cloud was taken up from above the tabernacle of the Testimony.

12And the children of Israel set out from the Wilderness of Sinai on their journeys; then the cloud settled down in the Wilderness of Paran.

13So they started out for the first time according to the command of the LORD by the hand of Moses.

14The standard of the camp of the children of Judah set out first according to their armies; over their army was Nahshon the son of Amminadab.

15Over the army of the tribe of the children of Issachar was Nethanel the son of Zuar.

16And over the army of the tribe of the children of Zebulun was Eliab the son of Helon.

17Then the tabernacle was taken down; and the sons of Gershon and the sons of Merari set out, carrying the tabernacle.

18And the standard of the camp of Reuben set out according to their armies; over their army was Elizur the son of Shedeur.

19Over the army of the tribe of the children of Simeon was Shelumiel the son of Zurishaddai.

20And over the army of the tribe of the children of Gad was Eliasaph the son of Deuel.

21Then the Kohathites set out, carrying the holy things. (The tabernacle would be prepared for their arrival.)

22And the standard of the camp of the children of Ephraim set out according to their armies; over their army was Elishama the son of Ammihud.

23 Over the army of the tribe of the children of Manasseh was Gamaliel the son of Pedahzur.
24 And over the army of the tribe of the children of Benjamin was Abidan the son of Gideoni.
25 Then the standard of the camp of the children of Dan (the rear guard of all the camps) set out according to their armies; over their army was Ahiezer the son of Ammishaddai.
26 Over the army of the tribe of the children of Asher was Pagiel the son of Ocran.
27 And over the army of the tribe of the children of Naphtali was Ahira the son of Enan.
28 Thus was the order of march of the children of Israel, according to their armies, when they began their journey.
29 Now Moses said to Hobab the son of Reuel[a] the Midianite, Moses' father-in-law, "We are setting out for the place of which the LORD said, 'I will give it to you.' Come with us, and we will treat you well; for the LORD has promised good things to Israel." Divine and Human Guidance 30 And he said to him, "I will not go, but I will depart to my own land and to my relatives." 31 So Moses said, "Please do not leave, inasmuch as you know how we are to camp in the wilderness, and you can be our eyes.
32 "And it shall be, if you go with us—indeed it shall be—that whatever good the LORD will do to us, the same we will do to you."
33 So they departed from the mountain of the LORD on a journey of three days; and the ark of the covenant of the LORD went before them for the three days' journey, to search out a resting place for them.
34 And the cloud of the LORD was above them by day when they went out from the camp.
35 So it was, whenever the ark set out, that Moses said:

“Rise up, O LORD!
Let Your enemies be scattered,
And let those who hate You flee before You.”

36 And when it rested, he said:

“Return, O LORD,
To the many thousands of Israel.”

Numbers 11

The People Complain

1 Now when the people complained, it displeased the LORD; for the LORD heard it, and His anger was aroused. So the fire of the LORD burned among them, and consumed some in the outskirts of the camp.

2 Then the people cried out to Moses, and when Moses prayed to the LORD, the fire was quenched.

3 So he called the name of the place Taberah,[a] because the fire of the LORD had burned among them.

4 Now the mixed multitude who were among them yielded to intense craving; so the children of Israel also wept again and said: “Who will give us meat to eat?

5 “We remember the fish which we ate freely in Egypt, the cucumbers, the melons, the leeks, the onions, and the garlic;

6 “but now our whole being is dried up; there is nothing at all except this manna before our eyes!”

7 Now the manna was like coriander seed, and its color like the color of bdellium.

8 The people went about and gathered it, ground it on millstones or beat it in the mortar, cooked it in pans, and made cakes of it; and its taste was like the taste of pastry prepared with oil.

9 And when the dew fell on the camp in the night, the manna fell on it.

10 Then Moses heard the people weeping throughout their families, everyone at the door of his tent; and the anger of the LORD was greatly aroused; Moses also was displeased.

11So Moses said to the LORD, “Why have You afflicted
Your servant? And why have I not found favor in Your sight, that You have laid the burden of all these people on me?
12“Did I conceive all these people? Did I beget them, that You should say to me, ‘Carry them in your bosom, as a guardian carries a nursing child,’ to the land which You swore to their fathers?
13“Where am I to get meat to give to all these people?
For they weep all over me, saying, ‘Give us meat, that we may eat.’
14“I am not able to bear all these people alone, because the burden is too heavy for me.
15“If You treat me like this, please kill me here and now—if I have found favor in Your sight—and do not let me see my wretchedness!”

The Seventy Elders

16So the LORD said to Moses: “Gather to Me seventy men of the elders of Israel, whom you know to be the elders of the people and officers over them; bring them to the tabernacle of meeting, that they may stand there with you.
17“Then I will come down and talk with you there. I will take of the Spirit that is upon you and will put the same upon them; and they shall bear the burden of the people with you, that you may not bear it yourself alone.
18“Then you shall say to the people, ‘Consecrate yourselves for tomorrow, and you shall eat meat; for you have wept in the hearing of the LORD, saying, “Who will give us meat to eat? For it was well with us in Egypt.”
Therefore the LORD will give you meat, and you shall eat.
19‘You shall eat, not one day, nor two days, nor five days, nor ten days, nor twenty days, 20‘but for a whole month, until it comes out of your nostrils and becomes loathsome to you, because you have despised the LORD who is among you, and have wept before Him, saying, “Why did we ever come up out of Egypt?” ’ ”

21 And Moses said, “The people whom I am among are six hundred thousand men on foot; yet You have said, ‘I will give them meat, that they may eat for a whole month.’

22 “Shall flocks and herds be slaughtered for them, to provide enough for them? Or shall all the fish of the sea be gathered together for them, to provide enough for them?”

23 And the LORD said to Moses, “Has the LORD’s arm been shortened? Now you shall see whether what I say will happen to you or not.”

24 So Moses went out and told the people the words of the LORD, and he gathered the seventy men of the elders of the people and placed them around the tabernacle.

25 Then the LORD came down in the cloud, and spoke to him, and took of the Spirit that was upon him, and placed the same upon the seventy elders; and it happened, when the Spirit rested upon them, that they prophesied, although they never did so again.[b]

26 But two men had remained in the camp: the name of one was Eldad, and the name of the other Medad. And the Spirit rested upon them. Now they were among those listed, but who had not gone out to the tabernacle; yet they prophesied in the camp.

27 And a young man ran and told Moses, and said, “Eldad and Medad are prophesying in the camp.”

28 So Joshua the son of Nun, Moses’ assistant, one of his choice men, answered and said, “Moses my lord, forbid them!”

29 Then Moses said to him, “Are you zealous for my sake? Oh, that all the LORD’s people were prophets and that the LORD would put His Spirit upon them!”

30 And Moses returned to the camp, both he and the elders of Israel.

The LORD Sends Quail

31 Now a wind went out from the LORD, and it brought quail from the sea and left them fluttering near the camp, about a day's journey on this side and about a day's journey on the other side, all around the camp, and about two cubits above the surface of the ground.

32 And the people stayed up all that day, all night, and all the next day, and gathered the quail (he who gathered least gathered ten homers); and they spread them out for themselves all around the camp.

33 But while the meat was still between their teeth, before it was chewed, the wrath of the LORD was aroused against the people, and the LORD struck the people with a very great plague.

34 So he called the name of that place Kibroth Hattaavah,[c] because there they buried the people who had yielded to craving.

35 From Kibroth Hattaavah the people moved to Hazeroth, and camped at Hazeroth.

Numbers 12

Dissension of Aaron and Miriam

1 Then Miriam and Aaron spoke against Moses because of the Ethiopian woman whom he had married; for he had married an Ethiopian woman. Miriam

2 So they said, “Has the LORD indeed spoken only through Moses? Has He not spoken through us also?” And the LORD heard it. Family Crisis, Leadership Crisis

3 (Now the man Moses was very humble, more than all men who were on the face of the earth.) The Humblest Man on the Face of the Earth

4 Suddenly the LORD said to Moses, Aaron, and Miriam, “Come out, you three, to the tabernacle of meeting!” So the three came out.

5 Then the LORD came down in the pillar of cloud and stood in the door of the tabernacle, and called Aaron and Miriam. And they both went forward.

6 Then He said,

> “Hear now My words:
> If there is a prophet among you,
> I, the LORD, make Myself known to him in a > vision;
> I speak to him in a dream.
> 7 Not so with My servant Moses;
> He is faithful in all My house.
> 8 I speak with him face to face,
> Even plainly, and not in dark sayings;
> And he sees the form of the LORD.
> Why then were you not afraid
> To speak against My servant Moses?”

9So the anger of the LORD was aroused against them, and He departed.
10And when the cloud departed from above the tabernacle, suddenly Miriam became leprous, as white as snow. Then Aaron turned toward Miriam, and there she was, a leper.
11So Aaron said to Moses, “Oh, my lord! Please do not lay this sin on us, in which we have done foolishly and in which we have sinned.
12“Please do not let her be as one dead, whose flesh is half consumed when he comes out of his mother’s womb!” 13So Moses cried out to the LORD, saying, “Please heal her, O God, I pray!” Lessons on Authority 14Then the LORD said to Moses, “If her father had but spit in her face, would she not be shamed seven days? Let her be shut out of the camp seven days, and afterward she may be received again.”
15So Miriam was shut out of the camp seven days, and the people did not journey till Miriam was brought in again.
16And afterward the people moved from Hazeroth and camped in the Wilderness of Paran.

Numbers 13

Spies Sent into Canaan

1 And the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,

2 "Send men to spy out the land of Canaan, which I am giving to the children of Israel; from each tribe of their fathers you shall send a man, every one a leader among
them."

3 So Moses sent them from the Wilderness of Paran
according to the command of the LORD, all of them men who were heads of the children of Israel.

4 Now these were their names: from the tribe of Reuben, Shammua the son of Zaccur;

5 from the tribe of Simeon, Shaphat the son of Hori;

6 from the tribe of Judah, Caleb the son of Jephunneh;

7 from the tribe of Issachar, Igal the son of Joseph;

8 from the tribe of Ephraim, Hoshea[a] the son of Nun;

9 from the tribe of Benjamin, Palti the son of Raphu;

10 from the tribe of Zebulun, Gaddiel the son of Sodi;

11 from the tribe of Joseph, that is, from the tribe of Manasseh, Gaddi the son of Susi;

12 from the tribe of Dan, Ammiel the son of Gemalli;

13 from the tribe of Asher, Sethur the son of Michael;

14 from the tribe of Naphtali, Nahbi the son of Vophsi;

15 from the tribe of Gad, Geuel the son of Machi.

16 These are the names of the men whom Moses sent to spy out the land. And Moses called Hoshea[b] the son of Nun, Joshua.

17 Then Moses sent them to spy out the land of Canaan, and said to them, "Go up this way into the South, and go up to the mountains,

18 “and see what the land is like: whether the people who dwell in it are strong or weak, few or many; 19 “whether the land they dwell in is good or bad; whether the cities they inhabit are like camps or strongholds; 20 “whether the land is rich or poor; and whether there are forests there or not. Be of good courage. And bring some of the fruit of the land.” Now the time was the season of the first ripe grapes.
21 So they went up and spied out the land from the Wilderness of Zin as far as Rehob, near the entrance of Hamath.
22 And they went up through the South and came to Hebron; Ahiman, Sheshai, and Talmai, the descendants of Anak, were there. (Now Hebron was built seven years before Zoan in Egypt.)
23 Then they came to the Valley of Eshcol, and there cut down a branch with one cluster of grapes; they carried it between two of them on a pole. They also brought some of the pomegranates and figs.
24 The place was called the Valley of Eshcol,[c] because of the cluster which the men of Israel cut down there.
25 And they returned from spying out the land after forty days.
26 Now they departed and came back to Moses and Aaron and all the congregation of the children of Israel in the Wilderness of Paran, at Kadesh; they brought back word to them and to all the congregation, and showed them the fruit of the land.
27 Then they told him, and said: “We went to the land where you sent us. It truly flows with milk and honey, and this is its fruit. Seeing Beyond the Hurdles 28 “Nevertheless the people who dwell in the land are strong; the cities are fortified and very large; moreover we saw the descendants of Anak there.

29 “The Amalekites dwell in the land of the South; the Hittites, the Jebusites, and the Amorites dwell in the mountains; and the Canaanites dwell by the sea and along the banks of the Jordan.”
30 Then Caleb quieted the people before Moses, and said, “Let us go up at once and take possession, for we are well able to overcome it.”
31 But the men who had gone up with him said, “We are not able to go up against the people, for they are stronger than we.”
32 And they gave the children of Israel a bad report of the land which they had spied out, saying, “The land through which we have gone as spies is a land that devours its inhabitants, and all the people whom we saw in it are men of great stature.
33 “There we saw the giants[d] (the descendants of Anak came from the giants); and we were like grasshoppers in our own sight, and so we were in their sight.”

Numbers 14

Israel Refuses to Enter Canaan

1 So all the congregation lifted up their voices and cried, and the people wept that night. Dangers of Chronic Complainers
2 And all the children of Israel complained against Moses and Aaron, and the whole congregation said to them, “If only we had died in the land of Egypt! Or if only we had died in this wilderness!
3 “Why has the LORD brought us to this land to fall by the sword, that our wives and children should become victims?
Would it not be better for us to return to Egypt?” 4 So they said to one another, “Let us select a leader and return to Egypt.”
5 Then Moses and Aaron fell on their faces before all the assembly of the congregation of the children of Israel.
6 But Joshua the son of Nun and Caleb the son of Jephunneh, who were among those who had spied out the land, tore their clothes;
7 and they spoke to all the congregation of the children of Israel, saying: “The land we passed through to spy out is an exceedingly good land.
8 “If the LORD delights in us, then He will bring us into this land and give it to us, ‘a land which flows with milk and honey.’[a] 9 “Only do not rebel against the LORD, nor fear the people of the land, for they are our bread; their protection has departed from them, and the LORD is with us. Do not fear them.” Fear God, Not the Giants 10 And all the congregation said to stone them with stones. Now the glory of the LORD appeared in the tabernacle of meeting before all the children of Israel.

Moses Intercedes for the People

11 Then the LORD said to Moses: “How long will these people reject Me? And how long will they not believe Me, with all the signs which I have performed among them?
12 “I will strike them with the pestilence and disinherit them, and I will make of you a nation greater and mightier than they.”
13 And Moses said to the LORD: “Then the Egyptians will hear it, for by Your might You brought these people up from among them, 14 “and they will tell it to the inhabitants of this land. They have heard that You, LORD, are among these people; that You, LORD, are seen face to face and Your cloud stands above them, and You go before them in a pillar of cloud by day and in a pillar of fire by night.
15 “Now if You kill these people as one man, then the nations which have heard of Your fame will speak, saying, 16 ‘Because the LORD was not able to bring this people to the land which He swore to give them, therefore He killed them in the wilderness.’
17 “And now, I pray, let the power of my Lord be great,
just as You have spoken, saying, 18 ‘The LORD is longsuffering and abundant in mercy, forgiving iniquity and transgression; but He by no means clears the guilty, visiting the iniquity of the fathers on the children to the third and fourth generation.’[b] 19 “Pardon the iniquity of this people, I pray, according to the greatness of Your mercy, just as You have forgiven this people, from Egypt even until now.” 20 Then the LORD said: “I have pardoned, according to your word;
21 “but truly, as I live, all the earth shall be filled with the glory of the LORD—

22“because all these men who have seen My glory and the signs which I did in Egypt and in the wilderness, and have put Me to the test now these ten times, and have not heeded My voice, 23“they certainly shall not see the land of which I swore to their fathers, nor shall any of those who rejected Me see it.
24“But My servant Caleb, because he has a different spirit in him and has followed Me fully, I will bring into the land where he went, and his descendants shall inherit it.
25“Now the Amalekites and the Canaanites dwell in the valley; tomorrow turn and move out into the wilderness by the Way of the Red Sea.”

Death Sentence on the Rebels

26And the LORD spoke to Moses and Aaron, saying, 27“How long shall I bear with this evil congregation who complain against Me? I have heard the complaints which the children of Israel make against Me.
28“Say to them, ‘As I live,’ says the LORD, ‘just as you have spoken in My hearing, so I will do to you:
29‘The carcasses of you who have complained against Me shall fall in this wilderness, all of you who were numbered, according to your entire number, from twenty years old and above.
30‘Except for Caleb the son of Jephunneh and Joshua the son of Nun, you shall by no means enter the land which I swore I would make you dwell in.
31‘But your little ones, whom you said would be victims, I will bring in, and they shall know the land which you have despised.
32‘But as for you, your carcasses shall fall in this wilderness.

33‘And your sons shall be shepherds in the wilderness forty years, and bear the brunt of your infidelity, until your carcasses are consumed in the wilderness.
34‘According to the number of the days in which you spied out the land, forty days, for each day you shall bear your guilt one year, namely forty years, and you shall know My rejection.
35‘I the LORD have spoken this. I will surely do so to all this evil congregation who are gathered together against Me. In this wilderness they shall be consumed, and there they shall die.’ ”
36Now the men whom Moses sent to spy out the land, who returned and made all the congregation complain against him by bringing a bad report of the land, 37those very men who brought the evil report about the land, died by the plague before the LORD.
38But Joshua the son of Nun and Caleb the son of Jephunneh remained alive, of the men who went to spy out
the land.

A Futile Invasion Attempt

39Then Moses told these words to all the children of Israel, and the people mourned greatly. Acting Without God’s Blessing 40And they rose early in the morning and went up to the top of the mountain, saying, “Here we are, and we will go up to the place which the LORD has promised, for we have sinned!” 41And Moses said, “Now why do you transgress the command of the LORD? For this will not succeed.
42“Do not go up, lest you be defeated by your enemies, for the LORD is not among you.
43“For the Amalekites and the Canaanites are there before you, and you shall fall by the sword; because you have turned away from the LORD, the LORD will not be with you.”

44But they presumed to go up to the mountaintop. Nevertheless, neither the ark of the covenant of the LORD nor Moses departed from the camp.

45Then the Amalekites and the Canaanites who dwelt in that mountain came down and attacked them, and drove them back as far as Hormah.

Numbers 15

Laws of Grain and Drink Offerings

1 And the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,

2 “Speak to the children of Israel, and say to them: ‘When you have come into the land you are to inhabit, which I am giving to you,

3 ‘and you make an offering by fire to the LORD, a burnt offering or a sacrifice, to fulfill a vow or as a freewill offering or in your appointed feasts, to make a sweet aroma to the LORD, from the herd or the flock,

4 ‘then he who presents his offering to the LORD shall bring a grain offering of one-tenth of an ephah of fine flour mixed with one-fourth of a hin of oil;

5 ‘and one-fourth of a hin of wine as a drink offering you shall prepare with the burnt offering or the sacrifice, for each lamb.

6 ‘Or for a ram you shall prepare as a grain offering two-tenths of an ephah of fine flour mixed with one-third of a hin of oil;

7 ‘and as a drink offering you shall offer one-third of a hin of wine as a sweet aroma to the LORD.

8 ‘And when you prepare a young bull as a burnt offering, or as a sacrifice to fulfill a vow, or as a peace offering to the
LORD,

9 ‘then shall be offered with the young bull a grain offering of three-tenths of an ephah of fine flour mixed with half a hin of oil;

10 ‘and you shall bring as the drink offering half a hin of wine as an offering made by fire, a sweet aroma to the LORD.

11 ‘Thus it shall be done for each young bull, for each ram, or for each lamb or young goat.
12 ‘According to the number that you prepare, so you shall do with everyone according to their number.
13 ‘All who are native-born shall do these things in this manner, in presenting an offering made by fire, a sweet aroma to the LORD.
14 ‘And if a stranger dwells with you, or whoever is among you throughout your generations, and would present an offering made by fire, a sweet aroma to the LORD, just as you do, so shall he do.
15 ‘One ordinance shall be for you of the assembly and for the stranger who dwells with you, an ordinance forever throughout your generations; as you are, so shall the stranger be before the LORD.
16 ‘One law and one custom shall be for you and for the stranger who dwells with you.’ ”[a] 17 Again the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,
18 “Speak to the children of Israel, and say to them:
‘When you come into the land to which I bring you,
19 ‘then it will be, when you eat of the bread of the land, that you shall offer up a heave offering to the LORD.
20 ‘You shall offer up a cake of the first of your ground meal as a heave offering; as a heave offering of the threshing floor, so shall you offer it up.
21 ‘Of the first of your ground meal you shall give to the LORD a heave offering throughout your generations.

Laws Concerning Unintentional Sin

22 ‘If you sin unintentionally, and do not observe all these commandments which the LORD has spoken to Moses—23 ‘all that the LORD has commanded you by the hand of Moses, from the day the LORD gave commandment and onward throughout your generations—

24 ‘then it will be, if it is unintentionally committed, without the knowledge of the congregation, that the whole congregation shall offer one young bull as a burnt offering, as a sweet aroma to the LORD, with its grain offering and its drink offering, according to the ordinance, and one kid of the goats as a sin offering.

25 ‘So the priest shall make atonement for the whole congregation of the children of Israel, and it shall be forgiven them, for it was unintentional; they shall bring their offering, an offering made by fire to the LORD, and their sin offering before the LORD, for their unintended sin.

26 ‘It shall be forgiven the whole congregation of the children of Israel and the stranger who dwells among them, because all the people did it unintentionally.

27 ‘And if a person sins unintentionally, then he shall bring a female goat in its first year as a sin offering.

28 ‘So the priest shall make atonement for the person who sins unintentionally, when he sins unintentionally before the LORD, to make atonement for him; and it shall be forgiven him.

29 ‘You shall have one law for him who sins unintentionally, for him who is native-born among the children of Israel and for the stranger who dwells among them.

Law Concerning Presumptuous Sin

30 ‘But the person who does anything presumptuously, whether he is native-born or a stranger, that one brings reproach on the LORD, and he shall be cut off from among his people.

31 ‘Because he has despised the word of the LORD, and has broken His commandment, that person shall be completely cut off; his guilt shall be upon him.’ ”

Penalty for Violating the Sabbath

32 Now while the children of Israel were in the wilderness, they found a man gathering sticks on the Sabbath day.
33 And those who found him gathering sticks brought him to Moses and Aaron, and to all the congregation.
34 They put him under guard, because it had not been explained what should be done to him.
35 Then the LORD said to Moses, "The man must surely be put to death; all the congregation shall stone him with stones outside the camp." The Dangers of Ignoring God 36 So, as the LORD commanded Moses, all the congregation brought him outside the camp and stoned him with stones, and he died.

Tassels on Garments

37 Again the LORD spoke to Moses, saying, A Reminder 38 "Speak to the children of Israel: Tell them to make tassels on the corners of their garments throughout their generations, and to put a blue thread in the tassels of the corners.
39 "And you shall have the tassel, that you may look upon it and remember all the commandments of the LORD and do them, and that you may not follow the harlotry to which your own heart and your own eyes are inclined, 40 "and that you may remember and do all My commandments, and be holy for your God.
41 "I am the LORD your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt, to be your God: I am the LORD your God."

Numbers 16

Rebellion Against Moses and Aaron

1Now Korah the son of Izhar, the son of Kohath, the son of Levi, with Dathan and Abiram the sons of Eliab, and On the son of Peleth, sons of Reuben, took men; [Korah]

2and they rose up before Moses with some of the children of Israel, two hundred and fifty leaders of the congregation, representatives of the congregation, men of renown.

3They gathered together against Moses and Aaron, and said to them, "You take too much upon yourselves, for all the congregation is holy, every one of them, and the LORD is among them. Why then do you exalt yourselves above the assembly of the LORD?"

4So when Moses heard it, he fell on his face;

5and he spoke to Korah and all his company, saying, "Tomorrow morning the LORD will show who is His and who is holy, and will cause him to come near to Him. That one whom He chooses He will cause to come near to Him.

6"Do this: Take censers, Korah and all your company;

7"put fire in them and put incense in them before the LORD tomorrow, and it shall be that the man whom the LORD chooses is the holy one. You take too much upon yourselves, you sons of Levi!"

8Then Moses said to Korah, "Hear now, you sons of Levi:

9"Is it a small thing to you that the God of Israel has separated you from the congregation of Israel, to bring you near to Himself, to do the work of the tabernacle of the LORD, and to stand before the congregation to serve them;

10"and that He has brought you near to Himself, you and all your brethren, the sons of Levi, with you? And are you seeking the priesthood also?

11 “Therefore you and all your company are gathered together against the LORD. And what is Aaron that you complain against him?”
12 And Moses sent to call Dathan and Abiram the sons of Eliab, but they said, “We will not come up! When Stubbornness Won’t Work 13 “Is it a small thing that you have brought us up out of a land flowing with milk and honey, to kill us in the wilderness, that you should keep acting like a prince over us? Twisting the Facts
14 “Moreover you have not brought us into a land flowing with milk and honey, nor given us inheritance of fields and vineyards. Will you put out the eyes of these men? We will not come up!”
15 Then Moses was very angry, and said to the LORD, “Do not respect their offering. I have not taken one donkey from them, nor have I hurt one of them.” 16 And Moses said to Korah, “Tomorrow, you and all your company be present before the LORD—you and they, as well as Aaron.
17 “Let each take his censer and put incense in it, and each of you bring his censer before the LORD, two hundred and fifty censers; both you and Aaron, each with his censer.”
18 So every man took his censer, put fire in it, laid incense on it, and stood at the door of the tabernacle of meeting with Moses and Aaron.
19 And Korah gathered all the congregation against them at the door of the tabernacle of meeting. Then the glory of the LORD appeared to all the congregation.
20 And the LORD spoke to Moses and Aaron, saying,
21 “Separate yourselves from among this congregation, that I may consume them in a moment.”

22 Then they fell on their faces, and said, “O God, the God of the spirits of all flesh, shall one man sin, and You be angry with all the congregation?”
23 So the LORD spoke to Moses, saying, 24 “Speak to the congregation, saying, ‘Get away from the tents of Korah, Dathan, and Abiram.’ ” 25 Then Moses rose and went to Dathan and Abiram, and the elders of Israel followed him.
26 And he spoke to the congregation, saying, “Depart now from the tents of these wicked men! Touch nothing of theirs, lest you be consumed in all their sins.”
27 So they got away from around the tents of Korah, Dathan, and Abiram; and Dathan and Abiram came out and stood at the door of their tents, with their wives, their sons, and their little children.
28 And Moses said: “By this you shall know that the LORD has sent me to do all these works, for I have not done them of my own will.
29 “If these men die naturally like all men, or if they are visited by the common fate of all men, then the LORD has not sent me.
30 “But if the LORD creates a new thing, and the earth opens its mouth and swallows them up with all that belongs to them, and they go down alive into the pit, then you will understand that these men have rejected the LORD.” 31 Now it came to pass, as he finished speaking all these words, that the ground split apart under them, 32 and the earth opened its mouth and swallowed them up, with their households and all the men with Korah, with all their goods.
33 So they and all those with them went down alive into the pit; the earth closed over them, and they perished from among the assembly.

34 Then all Israel who were around them fled at their cry, for they said, “Lest the earth swallow us up also!”
35 And a fire came out from the LORD and consumed the two hundred and fifty men who were offering incense.
36 Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying:
37 “Tell Eleazar, the son of Aaron the priest, to pick up the censers out of the blaze, for they are holy, and scatter the fire some distance away.
38 “The censers of these men who sinned against their own souls, let them be made into hammered plates as a covering for the altar. Because they presented them before the LORD, therefore they are holy; and they shall be a sign to the children of Israel.”
39 So Eleazar the priest took the bronze censers, which those who were burned up had presented, and they were hammered out as a covering on the altar, 40 to be a memorial to the children of Israel that no outsider, who is not a descendant of Aaron, should come near to offer incense before the LORD, that he might not become like Korah and his companions, just as the LORD had said to him through Moses.

Complaints of the People

41 On the next day all the congregation of the children of Israel complained against Moses and Aaron, saying, “You have killed the people of the LORD.” 42 Now it happened, when the congregation had gathered against Moses and Aaron, that they turned toward the tabernacle of meeting; and suddenly the cloud covered it, and the glory of the LORD appeared.
43 Then Moses and Aaron came before the tabernacle of meeting.
44 And the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,

45 “Get away from among this congregation, that I may consume them in a moment.” And they fell on their faces.
46 So Moses said to Aaron, “Take a censer and put fire in it from the altar, put incense on it, and take it quickly to the congregation and make atonement for them; for wrath has gone out from the LORD. The plague has begun.” 47 Then Aaron took it as Moses commanded, and ran into the midst of the assembly; and already the plague had begun among the people. So he put in the incense and made atonement for the people.
48 And he stood between the dead and the living; so the plague was stopped.
49 Now those who died in the plague were fourteen thousand seven hundred, besides those who died in the Korah incident.
50 So Aaron returned to Moses at the door of the tabernacle of meeting, for the plague had stopped.

Numbers 17

The Budding of Aaron's Rod

1 And the LORD spoke to Moses, saying:

2 "Speak to the children of Israel, and get from them a rod from each father's house, all their leaders according to their fathers' houses—twelve rods. Write each man's name on his rod.

3 "And you shall write Aaron's name on the rod of Levi.
For there shall be one rod for the head of each father's house.

4 "Then you shall place them in the tabernacle of meeting before the Testimony, where I meet with you.

5 "And it shall be that the rod of the man whom I choose will blossom; thus I will rid Myself of the complaints of the children of Israel, which they make against you."

6 So Moses spoke to the children of Israel, and each of their leaders gave him a rod apiece, for each leader according to their fathers' houses, twelve rods; and the rod of Aaron was among their rods.

7 And Moses placed the rods before the LORD in the tabernacle of witness.

8 Now it came to pass on the next day that Moses went into the tabernacle of witness, and behold, the rod of Aaron, of the house of Levi, had sprouted and put forth buds, had produced blossoms and yielded ripe almonds.

9 Then Moses brought out all the rods from before the LORD to all the children of Israel; and they looked, and each man took his rod.

10 And the LORD said to Moses, "Bring Aaron's rod back before the Testimony, to be kept as a sign against the rebels, that you may put their complaints away from Me, lest they die.” The Advocate

11 Thus did Moses; just as the LORD had commanded him, so he did.

12 So the children of Israel spoke to Moses, saying, “Surely we die, we perish, we all perish!

13 “Whoever even comes near the tabernacle of the LORD must die. Shall we all utterly die?”

Numbers 18

Duties of Priests and Levites

1 Then the LORD said to Aaron: “You and your sons and your father’s house with you shall bear the iniquity related to the sanctuary, and you and your sons with you shall bear the iniquity associated with your priesthood.
2 “Also bring with you your brethren of the tribe of Levi, the tribe of your father, that they may be joined with you and serve you while you and your sons are with you before the tabernacle of witness.
3 “They shall attend to your needs and all the needs of the tabernacle; but they shall not come near the articles of the sanctuary and the altar, lest they die—they and you also.
4 “They shall be joined with you and attend to the needs of the tabernacle of meeting, for all the work of the tabernacle; but an outsider shall not come near you.
5 “And you shall attend to the duties of the sanctuary and the duties of the altar, that there may be no more wrath on the children of Israel.
6 “Behold, I Myself have taken your brethren the Levites from among the children of Israel; they are a gift to you, given by the LORD, to do the work of the tabernacle of meeting.
7 “Therefore you and your sons with you shall attend to your priesthood for everything at the altar and behind the veil; and you shall serve. I give your priesthood to you as a gift for service, but the outsider who comes near shall be put to death.”

Offerings for Support of the Priests

8And the LORD spoke to Aaron: “Here, I Myself have also given you charge of My heave offerings, all the holy gifts of the children of Israel; I have given them as a portion to you and your sons, as an ordinance forever.
9“This shall be yours of the most holy things reserved from the fire: every offering of theirs, every grain offering and every sin offering and every trespass offering which they render to Me, shall be most holy for you and your sons.
10“In a most holy place you shall eat it; every male shall eat it. It shall be holy to you.
11“This also is yours: the heave offering of their gift, with all the wave offerings of the children of Israel; I have given them to you, and your sons and daughters with you, as an ordinance forever. Everyone who is clean in your house may eat it.
12“All the best of the oil, all the best of the new wine and the grain, their firstfruits which they offer to the LORD, I have given them to you.
13“Whatever first ripe fruit is in their land, which they bring to the LORD, shall be yours. Everyone who is clean in your house may eat it.
14“Every devoted thing in Israel shall be yours.
15“Everything that first opens the womb of all flesh, which they bring to the LORD, whether man or beast, shall be yours; nevertheless the firstborn of man you shall surely redeem, and the firstborn of unclean animals you shall redeem.
16“And those redeemed of the devoted things you shall redeem when one month old, according to your valuation, for five shekels of silver, according to the shekel of the sanctuary, which is twenty gerahs.
17“But the firstborn of a cow, the firstborn of a sheep, or the firstborn of a goat you shall not redeem; they are holy.

You shall sprinkle their blood on the altar, and burn their fat as an offering made by fire for a sweet aroma to the LORD.

18 “And their flesh shall be yours, just as the wave breast and the right thigh are yours.

19 “All the heave offerings of the holy things, which the children of Israel offer to the LORD, I have given to you and your sons and daughters with you as an ordinance forever; it is a covenant of salt forever before the LORD with you and your descendants with you.”

20 Then the LORD said to Aaron: “You shall have no inheritance in their land, nor shall you have any portion among them; I am your portion and your inheritance among the children of Israel. Share the Wealth

Tithes for Support of the Levites

21 “Behold, I have given the children of Levi all the tithes in Israel as an inheritance in return for the work which they perform, the work of the tabernacle of meeting.

22 “Hereafter the children of Israel shall not come near the tabernacle of meeting, lest they bear sin and die.

23 “But the Levites shall perform the work of the tabernacle of meeting, and they shall bear their iniquity; it shall be a statute forever, throughout your generations, that among the children of Israel they shall have no inheritance.

24 “For the tithes of the children of Israel, which they offer up as a heave offering to the LORD, I have given to the Levites as an inheritance; therefore I have said to them, ‘Among the children of Israel they shall have no inheritance.’ ”

The Tithe of the Levites

25 Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,

26 “Speak thus to the Levites, and say to them: ‘When you take from the children of Israel the tithes which I have given you from them as your inheritance, then you shall offer up a heave offering of it to the LORD, a tenth of the tithe.
27 ‘And your heave offering shall be reckoned to you as though it were the grain of the threshing floor and as the fullness of the winepress.
28 ‘Thus you shall also offer a heave offering to the LORD from all your tithes which you receive from the children of Israel, and you shall give the LORD’s heave offering from it to Aaron the priest.
29 ‘Of all your gifts you shall offer up every heave offering due to the LORD, from all the best of them, the consecrated part of them.’
30 “Therefore you shall say to them: ‘When you have lifted up the best of it, then the rest shall be accounted to the Levites as the produce of the threshing floor and as the produce of the winepress.
31 ‘You may eat it in any place, you and your households, for it is your reward for your work in the tabernacle of meeting.
32 ‘And you shall bear no sin because of it, when you have lifted up the best of it. But you shall not profane the holy gifts of the children of Israel, lest you die.’ ”

Numbers 19

Laws of Purification

1 Now the LORD spoke to Moses and Aaron, saying,

2 “This is the ordinance of the law which the LORD has commanded, saying: ‘Speak to the children of Israel, that they bring you a red heifer without blemish, in which there is no defect and on which a yoke has never come.

3 ‘You shall give it to Eleazar the priest, that he may take it outside the camp, and it shall be slaughtered before him;

4 ‘and Eleazar the priest shall take some of its blood with his finger, and sprinkle some of its blood seven times directly in front of the tabernacle of meeting.

5 ‘Then the heifer shall be burned in his sight: its hide, its flesh, its blood, and its offal shall be burned.

6 ‘And the priest shall take cedar wood and hyssop and scarlet, and cast them into the midst of the fire burning the heifer.

7 ‘Then the priest shall wash his clothes, he shall bathe in water, and afterward he shall come into the camp; the priest shall be unclean until evening.

8 ‘And the one who burns it shall wash his clothes in water, bathe in water, and shall be unclean until evening.

9 ‘Then a man who is clean shall gather up the ashes of the heifer, and store them outside the camp in a clean place; and they shall be kept for the congregation of the children of Israel for the water of purification;[a] it is for purifying from sin.

10 ‘And the one who gathers the ashes of the heifer shall wash his clothes, and be unclean until evening. It shall be a statute forever to the children of Israel and to the stranger who dwells among them.

11 ‘He who touches the dead body of anyone shall be unclean seven days. Hygiene and Holiness 12 ‘He shall purify himself with the water on the third day and on the seventh day; then he will be clean. But if he does not purify himself on the third day and on the seventh day, he will not be clean.
13 ‘Whoever touches the body of anyone who has died, and does not purify himself, defiles the tabernacle of the LORD. That person shall be cut off from Israel. He shall be unclean, because the water of purification was not sprinkled on him; his uncleanness is still on him.
14 ‘This is the law when a man dies in a tent: All who come into the tent and all who are in the tent shall be unclean seven days;
15 ‘and every open vessel, which has no cover fastened on it, is unclean.
16 ‘Whoever in the open field touches one who is slain by a sword or who has died, or a bone of a man, or a grave, shall be unclean seven days.
17 ‘And for an unclean person they shall take some of the ashes of the heifer burnt for purification from sin, and running water shall be put on them in a vessel.
18 ‘A clean person shall take hyssop and dip it in the water, sprinkle it on the tent, on all the vessels, on the persons who were there, or on the one who touched a bone,
the slain, the dead, or a grave.
19 ‘The clean person shall sprinkle the unclean on the third day and on the seventh day; and on the seventh day he shall purify himself, wash his clothes, and bathe in water; and at evening he shall be clean.
20 ‘But the man who is unclean and does not purify himself, that person shall be cut off from among the assembly, because he has defiled the sanctuary of the LORD. The water of purification has not been sprinkled on him; he is unclean.

21 ‘It shall be a perpetual statute for them. He who sprinkles the water of purification shall wash his clothes; and he who touches the water of purification shall be unclean until evening.

22 ‘Whatever the unclean person touches shall be unclean; and the person who touches it shall be unclean until evening.’ ”

Numbers 20

Moses' Error at Kadesh

1 Then the children of Israel, the whole congregation, came into the Wilderness of Zin in the first month, and the people stayed in Kadesh; and Miriam died there and was buried there. Kadesh: Backdrop to Death and Disaster

2 Now there was no water for the congregation; so they gathered together against Moses and Aaron.

3 And the people contended with Moses and spoke, saying: "If only we had died when our brethren died before
the LORD!

4 "Why have you brought up the assembly of the LORD into this wilderness, that we and our animals should die here?

5 "And why have you made us come up out of Egypt, to bring us to this evil place? It is not a place of grain or figs or vines or pomegranates; nor is there any water to drink."

6 So Moses and Aaron went from the presence of the assembly to the door of the tabernacle of meeting, and they fell on their faces. And the glory of the LORD appeared to them.

7 Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,

8 "Take the rod; you and your brother Aaron gather the congregation together. Speak to the rock before their eyes, and it will yield its water; thus you shall bring water for them out of the rock, and give drink to the congregation and their animals."

9 So Moses took the rod from before the LORD as He commanded him.

10 And Moses and Aaron gathered the assembly together before the rock; and he said to them, "Hear now, you rebels! Must we bring water for you out of this rock?”

Overcome Impulses

11Then Moses lifted his hand and struck the rock twice with his rod; and water came out abundantly, and the congregation and their animals drank.

12Then the LORD spoke to Moses and Aaron, “Because you did not believe Me, to hallow Me in the eyes of the children of Israel, therefore you shall not bring this assembly into the land which I have given them.”

13This was the water of Meribah,[a] because the children of Israel contended with the LORD, and He was hallowed among them.

Passage Through Edom Refused

14Now Moses sent messengers from Kadesh to the king of Edom. “Thus says your brother Israel: ‘You know all the hardship that has befallen us,

Pain That Leads to Prejudice

15‘how our fathers went down to Egypt, and we dwelt in Egypt a long time, and the Egyptians afflicted us and our fathers.

16‘When we cried out to the LORD, He heard our voice and sent the Angel and brought us up out of Egypt; now here we are in Kadesh, a city on the edge of your border.

17‘Please let us pass through your country. We will not pass through fields or vineyards, nor will we drink water from wells; we will go along the King’s Highway; we will not turn aside to the right hand or to the left until we have passed through your territory.’ ”

18Then Edom said to him, “You shall not pass through my land, lest I come out against you with the sword.”

19So the children of Israel said to him, “We will go by the Highway, and if I or my livestock drink any of your water, then I will pay for it; let me only pass through on foot, nothing more.”

20 Then he said, “You shall not pass through.” So Edom came out against them with many men and with a strong
hand.
21 Thus Edom refused to give Israel passage through his territory; so Israel turned away from him.

Death of Aaron

22 Now the children of Israel, the whole congregation, journeyed from Kadesh and came to Mount Hor. Leadership Changes
23 And the LORD spoke to Moses and Aaron in Mount Hor
by the border of the land of Edom, saying:
24 “Aaron shall be gathered to his people, for he shall not enter the land which I have given to the children of Israel, because you rebelled against My word at the water of Meribah.
25 “Take Aaron and Eleazar his son, and bring them up to Mount Hor;
26 “and strip Aaron of his garments and put them on Eleazar his son; for Aaron shall be gathered to his people and die there.”
27 So Moses did just as the LORD commanded, and they went up to Mount Hor in the sight of all the congregation.
28 Moses stripped Aaron of his garments and put them on Eleazar his son; and Aaron died there on the top of the mountain. Then Moses and Eleazar came down from the mountain.
29 Now when all the congregation saw that Aaron was dead, all the house of Israel mourned for Aaron thirty days.

Numbers 21

Canaanites Defeated at Hormah

1 The king of Arad, the Canaanite, who dwelt in the South, heard that Israel was coming on the road to Atharim. Then he fought against Israel and took some of them prisoners.
2 So Israel made a vow to the LORD, and said, "If You will indeed deliver this people into my hand, then I will utterly destroy their cities."
3 And the LORD listened to the voice of Israel and delivered up the Canaanites, and they utterly destroyed them and their cities. So the name of that place was called Hormah.[a]

The Bronze Serpent

4 Then they journeyed from Mount Hor by the Way of the Red Sea, to go around the land of Edom; and the soul of the people became very discouraged on the way.
5 And the people spoke against God and against Moses:
"Why have you brought us up out of Egypt to die in the wilderness? For there is no food and no water, and our soul loathes this worthless bread." 6 So the LORD sent fiery serpents among the people, and they bit the people; and many of the people of Israel died.
7 Therefore the people came to Moses, and said, "We have sinned, for we have spoken against the LORD and against you; pray to the LORD that He take away the serpents from us." So Moses prayed for the people.
8 Then the LORD said to Moses, "Make a fiery serpent, and set it on a pole; and it shall be that everyone who is bitten, when he looks at it, shall live." Symbol of Healing

9 So Moses made a bronze serpent, and put it on a pole; and so it was, if a serpent had bitten anyone, when he looked at the bronze serpent, he lived.

From Mount Hor to Moab

10 Now the children of Israel moved on and camped in Oboth.
11 And they journeyed from Oboth and camped at Ije Abarim, in the wilderness which is east of Moab, toward the sunrise.
12 From there they moved and camped in the Valley of Zered.
13 From there they moved and camped on the other side of the Arnon, which is in the wilderness that extends from the border of the Amorites; for the Arnon is the border of Moab, between Moab and the Amorites.
14 Therefore it is said in the Book of the Wars of the LORD:

> "Waheb in Suphah,[b]
> The brooks of the Arnon,
> 15 And the slope of the brooks
> That reaches to the dwelling of Ar,
> And lies on the border of Moab."

16 From there they went to Beer, which is the well where the LORD said to Moses, "Gather the people together, and I will give them water."
17 Then Israel sang this song:

> "Spring up, O well!
> All of you sing to it—> 18 The well the leaders sank,
> Dug by the nation's nobles,

By the lawgiver, with their staves.”

And from the wilderness they went to Mattanah, 19 from Mattanah to Nahaliel, from Nahaliel to Bamoth, 20 and from Bamoth, in the valley that is in the country of Moab, to the top of Pisgah which looks down on the wasteland.[c]

King Sihon Defeated

21 Then Israel sent messengers to Sihon king of the Amorites, saying,
22 “Let me pass through your land. We will not turn aside into fields or vineyards; we will not drink water from wells. We will go by the King’s Highway until we have passed through your territory.”
23 But Sihon would not allow Israel to pass through his territory. So Sihon gathered all his people together and went out against Israel in the wilderness, and he came to Jahaz and fought against Israel.
24 Then Israel defeated him with the edge of the sword, and took possession of his land from the Arnon to the Jabbok, as far as the people of Ammon; for the border of the people of Ammon was fortified.
25 So Israel took all these cities, and Israel dwelt in all the cities of the Amorites, in Heshbon and in all its villages.
26 For Heshbon was the city of Sihon king of the Amorites, who had fought against the former king of Moab, and had taken all his land from his hand as far as the Arnon.
27 Therefore those who speak in proverbs say:

“Come to Heshbon, let it be built;
Let the city of Sihon be repaired.

28 “For fire went out from Heshbon,

A flame from the city of Sihon;
It consumed Ar of Moab,
The lords of the heights of the Arnon.
29 Woe to you, Moab!
You have perished, O people of Chemosh!
He has given his sons as fugitives,
And his daughters into captivity,
To Sihon king of the Amorites.

30 "But we have shot at them;
Heshbon has perished as far as Dibon.
Then we laid waste as far as Nophah,
Which reaches to Medeba."

31 Thus Israel dwelt in the land of the Amorites.

32 Then Moses sent to spy out Jazer; and they took its villages and drove out the Amorites who were there.

King Og Defeated

33 And they turned and went up by the way to Bashan. So Og king of Bashan went out against them, he and all his people, to battle at Edrei.

34 Then the LORD said to Moses, "Do not fear him, for I have delivered him into your hand, with all his people and his land; and you shall do to him as you did to Sihon king of the Amorites, who dwelt at Heshbon."

35 So they defeated him, his sons, and all his people, until there was no survivor left him; and they took possession of his land.

Numbers 22

Balak Sends for Balaam

1 Then the children of Israel moved, and camped in the plains of Moab on the side of the Jordan across from Jericho.

2 Now Balak the son of Zippor saw all that Israel had done to the Amorites. Balak

3 And Moab was exceedingly afraid of the people because they were many, and Moab was sick with dread because of the children of Israel.

4 So Moab said to the elders of Midian, "Now this company will lick up everything around us, as an ox licks up the grass of the field." And Balak the son of Zippor was king of the Moabites at that time.

5 Then he sent messengers to Balaam the son of Beor at Pethor, which is near the River[a] in the land of the sons of his people,[b] to call him, saying: "Look, a people has come from Egypt. See, they cover the face of the earth, and are settling next to me! Balaam

6 "Therefore please come at once, curse this people for me, for they are too mighty for me. Perhaps I shall be able to defeat them and drive them out of the land, for I know that he whom you bless is blessed, and he whom you curse is cursed." The Unscrupulous Prophet

7 So the elders of Moab and the elders of Midian departed with the diviner's fee in their hand, and they came to Balaam and spoke to him the words of Balak.

8 And he said to them, "Lodge here tonight, and I will bring back word to you, as the LORD speaks to me." So the princes of Moab stayed with Balaam.

9 Then God came to Balaam and said, “Who are these men with you?”
10 So Balaam said to God, “Balak the son of Zippor, king of Moab, has sent to me, saying, 11 ‘Look, a people has come out of Egypt, and they cover the face of the earth. Come now, curse them for me;
perhaps I shall be able to overpower them and drive them out.’ ”
12 And God said to Balaam, “You shall not go with them;
you shall not curse the people, for they are blessed.” 13 So Balaam rose in the morning and said to the princes of Balak, “Go back to your land, for the LORD has refused to give me permission to go with you.” 14 And the princes of Moab rose and went to Balak, and said, “Balaam refuses to come with us.” 15 Then Balak again sent princes, more numerous and more honorable than they.
16 And they came to Balaam and said to him, “Thus says Balak the son of Zippor: ‘Please let nothing hinder you from coming to me;
17 ‘for I will certainly honor you greatly, and I will do whatever you say to me. Therefore please come, curse this people for me.’ ”
18 Then Balaam answered and said to the servants of Balak, “Though Balak were to give me his house full of silver and gold, I could not go beyond the word of the LORD my God, to do less or more.
19 “Now therefore, please, you also stay here tonight, that I may know what more the LORD will say to me.” 20 And God came to Balaam at night and said to him, “If the men come to call you, rise and go with them; but only the word which I speak to you—that you shall do.” 21 So Balaam rose in the morning, saddled his donkey, and went with the princes of Moab.

Balaam, the Donkey, and the Angel

22Then God's anger was aroused because he went, and the Angel of the LORD took His stand in the way as an adversary against him. And he was riding on his donkey, and his two servants were with him.

23Now the donkey saw the Angel of the LORD standing in the way with His drawn sword in His hand, and the donkey turned aside out of the way and went into the field. So Balaam struck the donkey to turn her back onto the road.

24Then the Angel of the LORD stood in a narrow path between the vineyards, with a wall on this side and a wall on that side.

25And when the donkey saw the Angel of the LORD, she pushed herself against the wall and crushed Balaam's foot against the wall; so he struck her again.

26Then the Angel of the LORD went further, and stood in a narrow place where there was no way to turn either to the right hand or to the left.

27And when the donkey saw the Angel of the LORD, she lay down under Balaam; so Balaam's anger was aroused, and he struck the donkey with his staff.

28Then the LORD opened the mouth of the donkey, and she said to Balaam, "What have I done to you, that you have struck me these three times?"

29And Balaam said to the donkey, "Because you have abused me. I wish there were a sword in my hand, for now I would kill you!"

30So the donkey said to Balaam, "Am I not your donkey on which you have ridden, ever since I became yours, to this day? Was I ever disposed to do this to you?" And he said, "No."

31Then the LORD opened Balaam's eyes, and he saw the Angel of the LORD standing in the way with His drawn sword in His hand; and he bowed his head and fell flat on his face.

32And the Angel of the LORD said to him, “Why have you struck your donkey these three times? Behold, I have come out to stand against you, because your way is perverse before Me.

33“The donkey saw Me and turned aside from Me these three times. If she had not turned aside from Me, surely I would also have killed you by now, and let her live.”

34And Balaam said to the Angel of the LORD, “I have sinned, for I did not know You stood in the way against me. Now therefore, if it displeases You, I will turn back.”

35Then the Angel of the LORD said to Balaam, “Go with the men, but only the word that I speak to you, that you shall speak.” So Balaam went with the princes of Balak.

36Now when Balak heard that Balaam was coming, he went out to meet him at the city of Moab, which is on the border at the Arnon, the boundary of the territory.

37Then Balak said to Balaam, “Did I not earnestly send to you, calling for you? Why did you not come to me? Am I not able to honor you?”

38And Balaam said to Balak, “Look, I have come to you! Now, have I any power at all to say anything? The word that God puts in my mouth, that I must speak.”

39So Balaam went with Balak, and they came to Kirjath Huzoth.

40Then Balak offered oxen and sheep, and he sent some to Balaam and to the princes who were with him.

Balaam’s First Prophecy

41So it was, the next day, that Balak took Balaam and brought him up to the high places of Baal, that from there he might observe the extent of the people.

Numbers 23

[1]Then Balaam said to Balak, “Build seven altars for me here, and prepare for me here seven bulls and seven rams.”
[2]And Balak did just as Balaam had spoken, and Balak and Balaam offered a bull and a ram on each altar.
[3]Then Balaam said to Balak, “Stand by your burnt offering, and I will go; perhaps the LORD will come to meet me, and whatever He shows me I will tell you.” So he went to a desolate height.
[4]And God met Balaam, and he said to Him, “I have prepared the seven altars, and I have offered on each altar a bull and a ram.”
[5]Then the LORD put a word in Balaam’s mouth, and said, “Return to Balak, and thus you shall speak.”
[6]So he returned to him, and there he was, standing by his burnt offering, he and all the princes of Moab.
[7]And he took up his oracle and said:

“Balak the king of Moab has brought me from Aram,
From the mountains of the east.
‘Come, curse Jacob for me,
And come, denounce Israel!’

[8]“How shall I curse whom God has not cursed?
And how shall I denounce whom the LORD has not denounced?
[9]For from the top of the rocks I see him,
And from the hills I behold him;
There! A people dwelling alone,
Not reckoning itself among the nations.

10 “Who can count the dust[a] of Jacob,
Or number one-fourth of Israel?
Let me die the death of the righteous,
And let my end be like his!”

11 Then Balak said to Balaam, “What have you done to me? I took you to curse my enemies, and look, you have blessed them bountifully!” The Better Story

12 So he answered and said, “Must I not take heed to speak what the LORD has put in my mouth?”

Balaam’s Second Prophecy

13 Then Balak said to him, “Please come with me to another place from which you may see them; you shall see only the outer part of them, and shall not see them all; curse them for me from there.”

14 So he brought him to the field of Zophim, to the top of Pisgah, and built seven altars, and offered a bull and a ram on each altar.

15 And he said to Balak, “Stand here by your burnt offering while I meet[b] the LORD over there.”

16 Then the LORD met Balaam, and put a word in his mouth, and said, “Go back to Balak, and thus you shall speak.”

17 So he came to him, and there he was, standing by his burnt offering, and the princes of Moab were with him. And Balak said to him, “What has the LORD spoken?”

18 Then he took up his oracle and said:

“Rise up, Balak, and hear!
Listen to me, son of Zippor!

19 “God is not a man, that He should lie,
Nor a son of man, that He should repent.

Has He said, and will He not do?
Or has He spoken, and will He not make it good?
20Behold, I have received a command to bless;
He has blessed, and I cannot reverse it.

21"He has not observed iniquity in Jacob,
Nor has He seen wickedness in Israel.
The LORD his God is with him,
And the shout of a King is among them.
22God brings them out of Egypt;
He has strength like a wild ox.

23"For there is no sorcery against Jacob,
Nor any divination against Israel.
It now must be said of Jacob
And of Israel, 'Oh, what God has done!'
24Look, a people rises like a lioness,
And lifts itself up like a lion;
It shall not lie down until it devours the prey,
And drinks the blood of the slain."

25Then Balak said to Balaam, "Neither curse them at all, nor bless them at all!"

26So Balaam answered and said to Balak, "Did I not tell you, saying, 'All that the LORD speaks, that I must do'?"

Balaam's Third Prophecy

27Then Balak said to Balaam, "Please come, I will take you to another place; perhaps it will please God that you may curse them for me from there."

28So Balak took Balaam to the top of Peor, that overlooks the wasteland.[c]

29 Then Balaam said to Balak, “Build for me here seven altars, and prepare for me here seven bulls and seven rams.”
30 And Balak did as Balaam had said, and offered a bull and a ram on every altar.

Numbers 24

[1]Now when Balaam saw that it pleased the LORD to bless Israel, he did not go as at other times, to seek to use sorcery, but he set his face toward the wilderness.
[2]And Balaam raised his eyes, and saw Israel encamped according to their tribes; and the Spirit of God came upon
him.
[3]Then he took up his oracle and said:

"The utterance of Balaam the son of Beor,
The utterance of the man whose eyes are opened,
[4]The utterance of him who hears the words of God,
Who sees the vision of the Almighty,
Who falls down, with eyes wide open:

[5]"How lovely are your tents, O Jacob!
Your dwellings, O Israel!
[6]Like valleys that stretch out,
Like gardens by the riverside,
Like aloes planted by the LORD,
Like cedars beside the waters.
[7]He shall pour water from his buckets,
And his seed shall be in many waters.

"His king shall be higher than Agag,
And his kingdom shall be exalted.

[8]"God brings him out of Egypt;
He has strength like a wild ox;
He shall consume the nations, his enemies;
He shall break their bones

And pierce them with his arrows.
9‘He bows down, he lies down as a lion;
And as a lion, who shall rouse him?’[a]

“Blessed is he who blesses you,
And cursed is he who curses you.”

10Then Balak’s anger was aroused against Balaam, and he struck his hands together; and Balak said to Balaam, “I called you to curse my enemies, and look, you have bountifully blessed them these three times! No Amount of Money
11“Now therefore, flee to your place. I said I would greatly honor you, but in fact, the LORD has kept you back from honor.”
12So Balaam said to Balak, “Did I not also speak to your messengers whom you sent to me, saying,
13‘If Balak were to give me his house full of silver and gold, I could not go beyond the word of the LORD, to do good or bad of my own will. What the LORD says, that I must speak’?
14“And now, indeed, I am going to my people. Come, I will advise you what this people will do to your people in the latter days.”

Balaam’s Fourth Prophecy

15So he took up his oracle and said:

“The utterance of Balaam the son of Beor,
And the utterance of the man whose eyes are opened;
16The utterance of him who hears the words of God,
And has the knowledge of the Most High,
Who sees the vision of the Almighty,
Who falls down, with eyes wide open:

17 “I see Him, but not now;
I behold Him, but not near;
A Star shall come out of Jacob;
A Scepter shall rise out of Israel,
And batter the brow of Moab,
And destroy all the sons of tumult.[b]

18 “And Edom shall be a possession;
Seir also, his enemies, shall be a possession,
While Israel does valiantly.
19 Out of Jacob One shall have dominion,
And destroy the remains of the city.”

20 Then he looked on Amalek, and he took up his oracle and said:

“Amalek was first among the nations,
But shall be last until he perishes.”

21 Then he looked on the Kenites, and he took up his oracle and said:

“Firm is your dwelling place,
And your nest is set in the rock;
22 Nevertheless Kain shall be burned.
How long until Asshur carries you away captive?”

23 Then he took up his oracle and said:

“Alas! Who shall live when God does this?
24 But ships shall come from the coasts of Cyprus,[c]
And they shall afflict Asshur and afflict Eber,
And so shall Amalek,[d] until he perishes.”

25So Balaam rose and departed and returned to his place;
Balak also went his way.

Numbers 25

Israel's Harlotry in Moab

1 Now Israel remained in Acacia Grove,[a] and the people began to commit harlotry with the women of Moab.
2 They invited the people to the sacrifices of their gods,
and the people ate and bowed down to their gods.
3 So Israel was joined to Baal of Peor, and the anger of the LORD was aroused against Israel.
4 Then the LORD said to Moses, "Take all the leaders of the people and hang the offenders before the LORD, out in the sun, that the fierce anger of the LORD may turn away from Israel."
5 So Moses said to the judges of Israel, "Every one of you kill his men who were joined to Baal of Peor." 6 And indeed, one of the children of Israel came and presented to his brethren a Midianite woman in the sight of Moses and in the sight of all the congregation of the children of Israel, who were weeping at the door of the tabernacle of meeting.
7 Now when Phinehas the son of Eleazar, the son of Aaron the priest, saw it, he rose from among the congregation and took a javelin in his hand; Phinehas 8 and he went after the man of Israel into the tent and thrust both of them through, the man of Israel, and the woman through her body. So the plague was stopped among the children of Israel.
9 And those who died in the plague were twenty-four thousand.
10 Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying:
11 "Phinehas the son of Eleazar, the son of Aaron the priest, has turned back My wrath from the children of Israel, because he was zealous with My zeal among them, so that I did not consume the children of Israel in My zeal.

12 “Therefore say, ‘Behold, I give to him My covenant of peace;

13 ‘and it shall be to him and his descendants after him a covenant of an everlasting priesthood, because he was zealous for his God, and made atonement for the children of Israel.’ ”

14 Now the name of the Israelite who was killed, who was killed with the Midianite woman, was Zimri the son of Salu, a leader of a father’s house among the Simeonites.

15 And the name of the Midianite woman who was killed was Cozbi the daughter of Zur; he was head of the people of a father’s house in Midian.

16 Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying:

17 “Harass the Midianites, and attack them; The Midianites

18 “for they harassed you with their schemes by which they seduced you in the matter of Peor and in the matter of Cozbi, the daughter of a leader of Midian, their sister, who was killed in the day of the plague because of Peor.”

Numbers 26

The Second Census of Israel

1 And it came to pass, after the plague, that the LORD spoke to Moses and Eleazar the son of Aaron the priest, saying:
2 "Take a census of all the congregation of the children of Israel from twenty years old and above, by their fathers' houses, all who are able to go to war in Israel." 3 So Moses and Eleazar the priest spoke with them in the plains of Moab by the Jordan, across from Jericho, saying:
4 "Take a census of the people from twenty years old and above, just as the LORD commanded Moses and the children of Israel who came out of the land of Egypt."
5 Reuben was the firstborn of Israel. The children of Reuben were: of Hanoch, the family of the Hanochites; of Pallu, the family of the Palluites;
6 of Hezron, the family of the Hezronites; of Carmi, the 7 These are the families of the Reubenites: those who were numbered of them were forty-three thousand seven hundred and thirty.

8 And the son of Pallu was Eliab.
9 The sons of Eliab were Nemuel, Dathan, and Abiram.
These are the Dathan and Abiram, representatives of the congregation, who contended against Moses and Aaron in the company of Korah, when they contended against the
LORD;
10 and the earth opened its mouth and swallowed them up together with Korah when that company died, when the fire devoured two hundred and fifty men; and they became a sign.
11 Nevertheless the children of Korah did not die.

12The sons of Simeon according to their families were: of Nemuel,[a] the family of the Nemuelites; of Jamin, the family of the Jaminites; of Jachin,[b] the family of the Jachinites;

18These are the families of the sons of Gad according to those who were numbered of them: forty thousand five hundred.
19The sons of Judah were Er and Onan; and Er and Onan died in the land of Canaan.
20And the sons of Judah according to their families were: of Shelah, the family of the Shelanites; of Perez, the family of the Parzites; of Zerah, the family of the Zarhites.
21And the sons of Perez were: of Hezron, the family of the Hezronites; of Hamul, the family of the Hamulites.
22These are the families of Judah according to those who were numbered of them: seventy-six thousand five hundred.
23The sons of Issachar according to their families were: of Tola, the family of the Tolaites; of Puah,[g] the family of the Punites;[h] 24of Jashub, the family of the Jashubites; of Shimron, the family of the Shimronites.
25These are the families of Issachar according to those who were numbered of them: sixty-four thousand three hundred.

26The sons of Zebulun according to their families were: of Sered, the family of the Sardites; of Elon, the family of the Elonites; of Jahleel, the family of the Jahleelites.

27These are the families of the Zebulunites according to those who were numbered of them: sixty thousand five hundred.

28The sons of Joseph according to their families, by Manasseh and Ephraim, were:

29The sons of Manasseh: of Machir, the family of the Machirites; and Machir begot Gilead; of Gilead, the family of the Gileadites.

30These are the sons of Gilead: of Jeezer,[i] the family of the Jeezerites; of Helek, the family of the Helekites;

31*of* Asriel, the family of the Asrielites; of Shechem, the family of the Shechemites;

32*of* Shemida, the family of the Shemidaites; of Hepher, the family of the Hepherites.

33Now Zelophehad the son of Hepher had no sons, but daughters; and the names of the daughters of Zelophehad were Mahlah, Noah, Hoglah, Milcah, and Tirzah.

34These are the families of Manasseh; and those who were numbered of them were fifty-two thousand seven hundred.

35These are the sons of Ephraim according to their families: of Shuthelah, the family of the Shuthalhites; of Becher,[j] the family of the Bachrites; of Tahan, the family of the Tahanites.

36And these are the sons of Shuthelah: of Eran, the family of the Eranites.

37These are the families of the sons of Ephraim according to those who were numbered of them: thirty-two thousand five hundred. These are the sons of Joseph according to their families.

38The sons of Benjamin according to their families were:
of Bela, the family of the Belaites; of Ashbel, the family of the Ashbelites; of Ahiram, the family of the Ahiramites; 39of Shupham,[k] the family of the Shuphamites; of Hupham,[l] the family of the Huphamites.
40And the sons of Bela were Ard[m] and Naaman: of Ard, the family of the Ardites; of Naaman, the family of the Naamites.
41These are the sons of Benjamin according to their families; and those who were numbered of them were forty-five thousand six hundred.
42These are the sons of Dan according to their families:
of Shuham,[n] the family of the Shuhamites. These are the families of Dan according to their families.
43All the families of the Shuhamites, according to those who were numbered of them, were sixty-four thousand four hundred.
44The sons of Asher according to their families were: of Jimna, the family of the Jimnites; of Jesui, the family of the Jesuites; of Beriah, the family of the Beriites.
45Of the sons of Beriah: of Heber, the family of the Heberites; of Malchiel, the family of the Malchielites.
46And the name of the daughter of Asher was Serah.
47These are the families of the sons of Asher according to those who were numbered of them: fifty-three thousand four hundred.
48The sons of Naphtali according to their families were:

of the Gunites;
49of Jezer, the family of the Jezerites; of Shillem, the 50These are the families of Naphtali according to their families; and those who were numbered of them were forty-five thousand four hundred.

51These are those who were numbered of the children of Israel: six hundred and one thousand seven hundred and thirty.

52Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying:

53"To these the land shall be divided as an inheritance, according to the number of names.

54"To a large tribe you shall give a larger inheritance, and to a small tribe you shall give a smaller inheritance. Each shall be given its inheritance according to those who were numbered of them.

55"But the land shall be divided by lot; they shall inherit according to the names of the tribes of their fathers.

56"According to the lot their inheritance shall be divided between the larger and the smaller."

57And these are those who were numbered of the Levites according to their families: of Gershon, the family of the Gershonites; of Kohath, the family of the Kohathites; of Merari, the family of the Merarites.

58These are the families of the Levites: the family of the Libnites, the family of the Hebronites, the family of the Mahlites, the family of the Mushites, and the family of the Korathites. And Kohath begot Amram.

59The name of Amram's wife was Jochebed the daughter of Levi, who was born to Levi in Egypt; and to Amram she bore Aaron and Moses and their sister Miriam.

60To Aaron were born Nadab and Abihu, Eleazar and Ithamar.

61And Nadab and Abihu died when they offered profane fire before the LORD.

62Now those who were numbered of them were twenty-three thousand, every male from a month old and above; for they were not numbered among the other children of Israel, because there was no inheritance given to them among the children of Israel.

63These are those who were numbered by Moses and Eleazar the priest, who numbered the children of Israel in the plains of Moab by the Jordan, across from Jericho.

64But among these there was not a man of those who were numbered by Moses and Aaron the priest when they numbered the children of Israel in the Wilderness of Sinai.

65For the LORD had said of them, “They shall surely die in the wilderness.” So there was not left a man of them, except Caleb the son of Jephunneh and Joshua the son of Nun.

Numbers 27

Inheritance Laws

1 Then came the daughters of Zelophehad the son of Hepher, the son of Gilead, the son of Machir, the son of Manasseh, from the families of Manasseh the son of Joseph;
and these were the names of his daughters: Mahlah, Noah, Hoglah, Milcah, and Tirzah. New Laws for a New World

2 And they stood before Moses, before Eleazar the priest, and before the leaders and all the congregation, by the doorway of the tabernacle of meeting, saying:

3 "Our father died in the wilderness; but he was not in the company of those who gathered together against the LORD, in company with Korah, but he died in his own sin;
and he had no sons.

4 "Why should the name of our father be removed from among his family because he had no son? Give us a possession among our father's brothers." Family Responsibilities

5 So Moses brought their case before the LORD.

6 And the LORD spoke to Moses, saying:

7 "The daughters of Zelophehad speak what is right; you shall surely give them a possession of inheritance among their father's brothers, and cause the inheritance of their father to pass to them.

8 "And you shall speak to the children of Israel, saying: 'If a man dies and has no son, then you shall cause his inheritance to pass to his daughter.

9 'If he has no daughter, then you shall give his inheritance to his brothers.

10 'If he has no brothers, then you shall give his inheritance to his father's brothers.

11 ‘And if his father has no brothers, then you shall give his inheritance to the relative closest to him in his family, and he shall possess it.’ ” And it shall be to the children of Israel a statute of judgment, just as the LORD commanded Moses.

Joshua the Next Leader of Israel

12 Now the LORD said to Moses: “Go up into this Mount Abarim, and see the land which I have given to the children of Israel.
13 “And when you have seen it, you also shall be gathered to your people, as Aaron your brother was gathered.
14 “For in the Wilderness of Zin, during the strife of the congregation, you rebelled against My command to hallow Me at the waters before their eyes.” (These are the waters of Meribah, at Kadesh in the Wilderness of Zin.) 15 Then Moses spoke to the LORD, saying: Learn to Pray with Moses 16 “Let the LORD, the God of the spirits of all flesh, set a man over the congregation, 17 “who may go out before them and go in before them, who may lead them out and bring them in, that the congregation of the LORD may not be like sheep which have no shepherd.”
18 And the LORD said to Moses: “Take Joshua the son of Nun with you, a man in whom is the Spirit, and lay your hand on him;
19 “set him before Eleazar the priest and before all the congregation, and inaugurate him in their sight.
20 “And you shall give some of your authority to him, that all the congregation of the children of Israel may be obedient.
21 “He shall stand before Eleazar the priest, who shall inquire before the LORD for him by the judgment of the Urim. At his word they shall go out, and at his word they shall come in, he and all the children of Israel with him—all the congregation.”

22So Moses did as the LORD commanded him. He took Joshua and set him before Eleazar the priest and before all the congregation.

23And he laid his hands on him and inaugurated him, just as the LORD commanded by the hand of Moses.

Numbers 28

Daily Offerings

1 Now the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,

2 "Command the children of Israel, and say to them, 'My offering, My food for My offerings made by fire as a sweet aroma to Me, you shall be careful to offer to Me at their appointed time.' A Habit of Worship

3 "And you shall say to them, 'This is the offering made by fire which you shall offer to the LORD: two male lambs in their first year without blemish, day by day, as a regular burnt offering.

4 'The one lamb you shall offer in the morning, the other lamb you shall offer in the evening,

5 'and one-tenth of an ephah of fine flour as a grain offering mixed with one-fourth of a hin of pressed oil.

6 'It is a regular burnt offering which was ordained at Mount Sinai for a sweet aroma, an offering made by fire to the LORD.

7 'And its drink offering shall be one-fourth of a hin for each lamb; in a holy place you shall pour out the drink to the LORD as an offering.

8 'The other lamb you shall offer in the evening; as the morning grain offering and its drink offering, you shall offer it as an offering made by fire, a sweet aroma to the LORD.

Sabbath Offerings

9 'And on the Sabbath day two lambs in their first year, without blemish, and two-tenths of an ephah of fine flour as a grain offering, mixed with oil, with its drink offering—

10 'this is the burnt offering for every Sabbath, besides the regular burnt offering with its drink offering.

Monthly Offerings

11 ‘At the beginnings of your months you shall present a burnt offering to the LORD: two young bulls, one ram, and offering, mixed with oil, for each bull; two-tenths of an ephah of fine flour as a grain offering, mixed with oil, for the one ram;

as a grain offering for each lamb, as a burnt offering of sweet aroma, an offering made by fire to the LORD.
14 ‘Their drink offering shall be half a hin of wine for a bull, one-third of a hin for a ram, and one-fourth of a hin for throughout the months of the year.

15 ‘Also one kid of the goats as a sin offering to the LORD shall be offered, besides the regular burnt offering and its drink offering.

Offerings at Passover

16 ‘On the fourteenth day of the first month is the Passover of the LORD.
17 ‘And on the fifteenth day of this month is the feast;
unleavened bread shall be eaten for seven days.
18 ‘On the first day you shall have a holy convocation. You shall do no customary work.
19 ‘And you shall present an offering made by fire as a 21 ‘you shall offer one-tenth of an ephah for each of the seven lambs;

22 ‘also one goat as a sin offering, to make atonement for
you.
23 ‘You shall offer these besides the burnt offering of the morning, which is for a regular burnt offering.
24 ‘In this manner you shall offer the food of the offering made by fire daily for seven days, as a sweet aroma to the LORD; it shall be offered besides the regular burnt offering and its drink offering.
25 ‘And on the seventh day you shall have a holy convocation. You shall do no customary work.

Offerings at the Feast of Weeks

26 ‘Also on the day of the firstfruits, when you bring a new grain offering to the LORD at your Feast of Weeks, you shall have a holy convocation. You shall do no customary work.
27 ‘You shall present a burnt offering as a sweet aroma to the LORD: two young bulls, one ram, and seven lambs in their first year,
28 ‘with their grain offering of fine flour mixed with oil:
three-tenths of an ephah for each bull, two-tenths for the one ram,
29 ‘and one-tenth for each of the seven lambs;
30 ‘also one kid of the goats, to make atonement for you.
31 ‘Be sure they are without blemish. You shall present them with their drink offerings, besides the regular burnt offering with its grain offering.

Numbers 29

1 ‘And in the seventh month, on the first day of the month, you shall have a holy convocation. You shall do no customary work. For you it is a day of blowing the trumpets.
2 ‘You shall offer a burnt offering as a sweet aroma to the LORD: one young bull, one ram, and seven lambs in their first year, without blemish.
3 ‘Their grain offering shall be fine flour mixed with oil:
three-tenths of an ephah for the bull, two-tenths for the ram,
4 ‘and one-tenth for each of the seven lambs;
5 ‘also one kid of the goats as a sin offering, to make atonement for you;
6 ‘besides the burnt offering with its grain offering for the New Moon, the regular burnt offering with its grain offering, and their drink offerings, according to their ordinance, as a sweet aroma, an offering made by fire to the LORD.

Offerings on the Day of Atonement

7 ‘On the tenth day of this seventh month you shall have a holy convocation. You shall afflict your souls; you shall not do any work.
8 ‘You shall present a burnt offering to the LORD as a sweet aroma: one young bull, one ram, and seven lambs in their first year. Be sure they are without blemish.
9 ‘Their grain offering shall be of fine flour mixed with oil:
three-tenths of an ephah for the bull, two-tenths for the one
ram,

10 ‘and one-tenth for each of the seven lambs;
11 ‘also one kid of the goats as a sin offering, besides the sin offering for atonement, the regular burnt offering with its grain offering, and their drink offerings.

Offerings at the Feast of Tabernacles

12 ‘On the fifteenth day of the seventh month you shall have a holy convocation. You shall do no customary work, and you shall keep a feast to the LORD seven days.
13 ‘You shall present a burnt offering, an offering made by fire as a sweet aroma to the LORD: thirteen young bulls, two rams, and fourteen lambs in their first year. They shall be without blemish.
14 ‘Their grain offering shall be of fine flour mixed with oil: three-tenths of an ephah for each of the thirteen bulls, two-tenths for each of the two rams,
15 ‘and one-tenth for each of the fourteen lambs;
16 ‘also one kid of the goats as a sin offering, besides the regular burnt offering, its grain offering, and its drink offering.
17 ‘On the second day present twelve young bulls, two rams, fourteen lambs in their first year without blemish,
18 ‘and their grain offering and their drink offerings for the bulls, for the rams, and for the lambs, by their number, according to the ordinance;
19 ‘also one kid of the goats as a sin offering, besides the regular burnt offering with its grain offering, and their drink offerings.
20 ‘On the third day present eleven bulls, two rams, fourteen lambs in their first year without blemish,
21 ‘and their grain offering and their drink offerings for the bulls, for the rams, and for the lambs, by their number, according to the ordinance;

22 ‘also one goat as a sin offering, besides the regular burnt offering, its grain offering, and its drink offering.
23 ‘On the fourth day present ten bulls, two rams, and
fourteen lambs in their first year, without blemish, 24 ‘and their grain offering and their drink offerings for the bulls, for the rams, and for the lambs, by their number,
according to the ordinance;
25 ‘also one kid of the goats as a sin offering, besides the regular burnt offering, its grain offering, and its drink offering.
26 ‘On the fifth day present nine bulls, two rams, and
fourteen lambs in their first year without blemish, 27 ‘and their grain offering and their drink offerings for
the bulls, for the rams, and for the lambs, by their number,
according to the ordinance;
28 ‘also one goat as a sin offering, besides the regular burnt offering, its grain offering, and its drink offering.
29 ‘On the sixth day present eight bulls, two rams, and
fourteen lambs in their first year without blemish, 30 ‘and their grain offering and their drink offerings for
the bulls, for the rams, and for the lambs, by their number,
according to the ordinance;
31 ‘also one goat as a sin offering, besides the regular burnt offering, its grain offering, and its drink offering.
32 ‘On the seventh day present seven bulls, two rams, and
fourteen lambs in their first year without blemish, 33 ‘and their grain offering and their drink offerings for
the bulls, for the rams, and for the lambs, by their number,
according to the ordinance;
34 ‘also one goat as a sin offering, besides the regular burnt offering, its grain offering, and its drink offering.
35 ‘On the eighth day you shall have a sacred assembly.
You shall do no customary work.

36 ‘You shall present a burnt offering, an offering made by fire as a sweet aroma to the LORD: one bull, one ram, seven lambs in their first year without blemish, 37 ‘and their grain offering and their drink offerings for the bull, for the ram, and for the lambs, by their number,
according to the ordinance;
38 ‘also one goat as a sin offering, besides the regular burnt offering, its grain offering, and its drink offering.
39 ‘These you shall present to the LORD at your appointed feasts (besides your vowed offerings and your freewill offerings) as your burnt offerings and your grain offerings, as your drink offerings and your peace offerings.’ ” 40 So Moses told the children of Israel everything, just as the LORD commanded Moses.

Numbers 30

The Law Concerning Vows

1 Then Moses spoke to the heads of the tribes concerning the children of Israel, saying, “This is the thing which the LORD has commanded:
2 “If a man makes a vow to the LORD, or swears an oath to bind himself by some agreement, he shall not break his word; he shall do according to all that proceeds out of his mouth. Watch the Promises You Make 3 “Or if a woman makes a vow to the LORD, and binds herself by some agreement while in her father’s house in her youth,
4 “and her father hears her vow and the agreement by which she has bound herself, and her father holds his peace, then all her vows shall stand, and every agreement with which she has bound herself shall stand.
5 “But if her father overrules her on the day that he hears, then none of her vows nor her agreements by which she has bound herself shall stand; and the LORD will release her, because her father overruled her.
6 “If indeed she takes a husband, while bound by her vows or by a rash utterance from her lips by which she bound herself, 7 “and her husband hears it, and makes no response to her on the day that he hears, then her vows shall stand, and her agreements by which she bound herself shall stand.
8 “But if her husband overrules her on the day that he hears it, he shall make void her vow which she took and what she uttered with her lips, by which she bound herself, and the LORD will release her.

9 “Also any vow of a widow or a divorced woman, by which she has bound herself, shall stand against her.
10 “If she vowed in her husband’s house, or bound herself
by an agreement with an oath, 11 “and her husband heard it, and made no response to her and did not overrule her, then all her vows shall stand, and every agreement by which she bound herself shall stand.
12 “But if her husband truly made them void on the day he heard them, then whatever proceeded from her lips concerning her vows or concerning the agreement binding her, it shall not stand; her husband has made them void,
and the LORD will release her.
13 “Every vow and every binding oath to afflict her soul, her husband may confirm it, or her husband may make it void.
14 “Now if her husband makes no response whatever to her from day to day, then he confirms all her vows or all the agreements that bind her; he confirms them, because he made no response to her on the day that he heard them.
15 “But if he does make them void after he has heard them, then he shall bear her guilt.”
16 These are the statutes which the LORD commanded Moses, between a man and his wife, and between a father and his daughter in her youth in her father’s house.

Numbers 31

Vengeance on the Midianites

1 And the LORD spoke to Moses, saying:
2 “Take vengeance on the Midianites for the children of Israel. Afterward you shall be gathered to your people.”
3 So Moses spoke to the people, saying, “Arm some of yourselves for war, and let them go against the Midianites to take vengeance for the LORD on Midian.
4 “A thousand from each tribe of all the tribes of Israel you shall send to the war.”
5 So there were recruited from the divisions of Israel one thousand from each tribe, twelve thousand armed for war.
6 Then Moses sent them to the war, one thousand from each tribe; he sent them to the war with Phinehas the son of Eleazar the priest, with the holy articles and the signal trumpets in his hand.
7 And they warred against the Midianites, just as the LORD commanded Moses, and they killed all the males.
8 They killed the kings of Midian with the rest of those who were killed—Evi, Rekem, Zur, Hur, and Reba, the five kings of Midian. Balaam the son of Beor they also killed with the sword.
9 And the children of Israel took the women of Midian captive, with their little ones, and took as spoil all their cattle, all their flocks, and all their goods.
10 They also burned with fire all the cities where they dwelt, and all their forts.
11 And they took all the spoil and all the booty—of man and beast.

Return from the War

12Then they brought the captives, the booty, and the spoil to Moses, to Eleazar the priest, and to the congregation of the children of Israel, to the camp in the plains of Moab by the Jordan, across from Jericho.

13And Moses, Eleazar the priest, and all the leaders of the congregation, went to meet them outside the camp.

14But Moses was angry with the officers of the army, with the captains over thousands and captains over hundreds, who had come from the battle.

15And Moses said to them: “Have you kept all the women alive? Playing with Fire

16“Look, these women caused the children of Israel, through the counsel of Balaam, to trespass against the LORD in the incident of Peor, and there was a plague among the congregation of the LORD.

17“Now therefore, kill every male among the little ones, and kill every woman who has known a man intimately.

18“But keep alive for yourselves all the young girls who have not known a man intimately.

19“And as for you, remain outside the camp seven days; whoever has killed any person, and whoever has touched any slain, purify yourselves and your captives on the third day and on the seventh day.

20“Purify every garment, everything made of leather, everything woven of goats’ hair, and everything made of wood.”

21Then Eleazar the priest said to the men of war who had gone to the battle, “This is the ordinance of the law which the LORD commanded Moses:

22“Only the gold, the silver, the bronze, the iron, the tin, and the lead,

23“everything that can endure fire, you shall put through the fire, and it shall be clean; and it shall be purified with the water of purification. But all that cannot endure fire you shall put through water.

24 “And you shall wash your clothes on the seventh day and be clean, and afterward you may come into the camp.”

Division of the Plunder

25 Now the LORD spoke to Moses, saying:

26 “Count up the plunder that was taken—of man and beast—you and Eleazar the priest and the chief fathers of the congregation;

27 “and divide the plunder into two parts, between those who took part in the war, who went out to battle, and all the congregation.

28 “And levy a tribute for the LORD on the men of war who went out to battle: one of every five hundred of the persons, the cattle, the donkeys, and the sheep;

29 “take it from their half, and give it to Eleazar the priest as a heave offering to the LORD.

30 “And from the children of Israel’s half you shall take one of every fifty, drawn from the persons, the cattle, the donkeys, and the sheep, from all the livestock, and give them to the Levites who keep charge of the tabernacle of the LORD.”

31 So Moses and Eleazar the priest did as the LORD commanded Moses.

32 The booty remaining from the plunder, which the men of war had taken, was six hundred and seventy-five thousand sheep,

33 seventy-two thousand cattle,

34 sixty-one thousand donkeys,

35 and thirty-two thousand persons in all, of women who had not known a man intimately.

36 And the half, the portion for those who had gone out to war, was in number three hundred and thirty-seven thousand five hundred sheep; 37 and the LORD's tribute of the sheep was six hundred and seventy-five.

38 The cattle were thirty-six thousand, of which the LORD's tribute was seventy-two.
39 The donkeys were thirty thousand five hundred, of which the LORD's tribute was sixty-one.
40 The persons were sixteen thousand, of which the LORD's tribute was thirty-two persons.
41 So Moses gave the tribute which was the LORD's heave offering to Eleazar the priest, as the LORD commanded Moses.
42 And from the children of Israel's half, which Moses separated from the men who fought—43 now the half belonging to the congregation was three hundred and thirty-seven thousand five hundred sheep, 44 thirty-six thousand cattle,
45 thirty thousand five hundred donkeys,
46 and sixteen thousand persons—47 and from the children of Israel's half Moses took one of every fifty, drawn from man and beast, and gave them to the Levites, who kept charge of the tabernacle of the LORD, as the LORD commanded Moses.
48 Then the officers who were over thousands of the army, the captains of thousands and captains of hundreds, came near to Moses;
49 and they said to Moses, "Your servants have taken a count of the men of war who are under our command, and not a man of us is missing.
50 "Therefore we have brought an offering for the LORD, what every man found of ornaments of gold: armlets and bracelets and signet rings and earrings and necklaces, to make atonement for ourselves before the LORD."

51So Moses and Eleazar the priest received the gold from them, all the fashioned ornaments.
52And all the gold of the offering that they offered to the LORD, from the captains of thousands and captains of hundreds, was sixteen thousand seven hundred and fifty shekels.
53(The men of war had taken spoil, every man for himself.)
54And Moses and Eleazar the priest received the gold from the captains of thousands and of hundreds, and brought it into the tabernacle of meeting as a memorial for the children of Israel before the LORD.

Numbers 32

The Tribes Settling East of the Jordan

1 Now the children of Reuben and the children of Gad had a very great multitude of livestock; and when they saw the land of Jazer and the land of Gilead, that indeed the region was a place for livestock, 2 the children of Gad and the children of Reuben came and spoke to Moses, to Eleazar the priest, and to the leaders of the congregation, saying, 3 "Ataroth, Dibon, Jazer, Nimrah, Heshbon, Elealeh, Shebam, Nebo, and Beon,
4 "the country which the LORD defeated before the congregation of Israel, is a land for livestock, and your servants have livestock."
5 Therefore they said, "If we have found favor in your sight, let this land be given to your servants as a possession. Do not take us over the Jordan." 6 And Moses said to the children of Gad and to the children of Reuben: "Shall your brethren go to war while you sit here? Faith Is a Risk Worth Taking 7 "Now why will you discourage the heart of the children of Israel from going over into the land which the LORD has given them?
8 "Thus your fathers did when I sent them away from Kadesh Barnea to see the land.
9 "For when they went up to the Valley of Eshcol and saw the land, they discouraged the heart of the children of Israel, so that they did not go into the land which the LORD had given them.
10 "So the LORD's anger was aroused on that day, and He swore an oath, saying,

11 ‘Surely none of the men who came up from Egypt, from twenty years old and above, shall see the land of which I swore to Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, because they have not wholly followed Me, 12 ‘except Caleb the son of Jephunneh, the Kenizzite, and Joshua the son of Nun, for they have wholly followed the
LORD.’
13 “So the LORD’s anger was aroused against Israel, and He made them wander in the wilderness forty years, until all the generation that had done evil in the sight of the LORD was gone.
14 “And look! You have risen in your fathers’ place, a brood of sinful men, to increase still more the fierce anger of the LORD against Israel.
15 “For if you turn away from following Him, He will once again leave them in the wilderness, and you will destroy all these people.”
16 Then they came near to him and said: “We will build sheepfolds here for our livestock, and cities for our little ones, 17 “but we ourselves will be armed, ready to go before the children of Israel until we have brought them to their place; and our little ones will dwell in the fortified cities because of the inhabitants of the land.
18 “We will not return to our homes until every one of the children of Israel has received his inheritance.
19 “For we will not inherit with them on the other side of the Jordan and beyond, because our inheritance has fallen to us on this eastern side of the Jordan.” 20 Then Moses said to them: “If you do this thing, if you arm yourselves before the LORD for the war, 21 “and all your armed men cross over the Jordan before the LORD until He has driven out His enemies from before
Him,

22 “and the land is subdued before the LORD, then afterward you may return and be blameless before the LORD and before Israel; and this land shall be your possession before the LORD.
23 “But if you do not do so, then take note, you have sinned against the LORD; and be sure your sin will find you out.
24 “Build cities for your little ones and folds for your sheep, and do what has proceeded out of your mouth.”
25 And the children of Gad and the children of Reuben spoke to Moses, saying: “Your servants will do as my lord commands.
26 “Our little ones, our wives, our flocks, and all our livestock will be there in the cities of Gilead; 27 “but your servants will cross over, every man armed for war, before the LORD to battle, just as my lord says.” 28 So Moses gave command concerning them to Eleazar the priest, to Joshua the son of Nun, and to the chief fathers of the tribes of the children of Israel.
29 And Moses said to them: “If the children of Gad and the children of Reuben cross over the Jordan with you, every man armed for battle before the LORD, and the land is subdued before you, then you shall give them the land of Gilead as a possession.
30 “But if they do not cross over armed with you, they shall have possessions among you in the land of Canaan.” 31 Then the children of Gad and the children of Reuben answered, saying: “As the LORD has said to your servants, so we will do.
32 “We will cross over armed before the LORD into the land of Canaan, but the possession of our inheritance shall remain with us on this side of the Jordan.” 33 So Moses gave to the children of Gad, to the children of Reuben, and to half the tribe of Manasseh the son of Joseph, the kingdom of Sihon king of the Amorites and the kingdom of Og king of Bashan, the land with its cities within the borders, the cities of the surrounding country.

34 And the children of Gad built Dibon and Ataroth and Aroer,

35 Atroth and Shophan and Jazer and Jogbehah,

36 Beth Nimrah and Beth Haran, fortified cities, and folds for sheep.

37 And the children of Reuben built Heshbon and Elealeh and Kirjathaim, 38 Nebo and Baal Meon (their names being changed) and Shibmah; and they gave other names to the cities which they built.

39 And the children of Machir the son of Manasseh went to Gilead and took it, and dispossessed the Amorites who were in it.

40 So Moses gave Gilead to Machir the son of Manasseh, and he dwelt in it.

41 Also Jair the son of Manasseh went and took its small towns, and called them Havoth Jair.[a]

42 Then Nobah went and took Kenath and its villages, and he called it Nobah, after his own name.

Numbers 33

Israel's Journey from Egypt Reviewed

1 These are the journeys of the children of Israel, who went out of the land of Egypt by their armies under the hand of Moses and Aaron.
2 Now Moses wrote down the starting points of their journeys at the command of the LORD. And these are their journeys according to their starting points:
3 They departed from Rameses in the first month, on the fifteenth day of the first month; on the day after the Passover the children of Israel went out with boldness in the sight of all the Egyptians.
4 For the Egyptians were burying all their firstborn, whom the LORD had killed among them. Also on their gods the LORD had executed judgments.
5 Then the children of Israel moved from Rameses and camped at Succoth.
6 They departed from Succoth and camped at Etham, which is on the edge of the wilderness.
7 They moved from Etham and turned back to Pi Hahiroth, which is east of Baal Zephon; and they camped near Migdol.
8 They departed from before Hahiroth[a] and passed through the midst of the sea into the wilderness, went three days' journey in the Wilderness of Etham, and camped at Marah.
9 They moved from Marah and came to Elim. At Elim were twelve springs of water and seventy palm trees; so they camped there.
10 They moved from Elim and camped by the Red Sea.

[11]They moved from the Red Sea and camped in the Wilderness of Sin.
[12]They journeyed from the Wilderness of Sin and camped at Dophkah.
[13]They departed from Dophkah and camped at Alush.
[14]They moved from Alush and camped at Rephidim, where there was no water for the people to drink.
[15]They departed from Rephidim and camped in the Wilderness of Sinai.
[16]They moved from the Wilderness of Sinai and camped at Kibroth Hattaavah.
[17]They departed from Kibroth Hattaavah and camped at Hazeroth.
[18]They departed from Hazeroth and camped at Rithmah.
[19]They departed from Rithmah and camped at Rimmon Perez.
[20]They departed from Rimmon Perez and camped at Libnah.
[21]They moved from Libnah and camped at Rissah.
[22]They journeyed from Rissah and camped at Kehelathah.
[23]They went from Kehelathah and camped at Mount Shepher.
[24]They moved from Mount Shepher and camped at Haradah.
[25]They moved from Haradah and camped at Makheloth.
[26]They moved from Makheloth and camped at Tahath.
[27]They departed from Tahath and camped at Terah.
[28]They moved from Terah and camped at Mithkah.
[29]They went from Mithkah and camped at Hashmonah.
[30]They departed from Hashmonah and camped at Moseroth.
[31]They departed from Moseroth and camped at Bene Jaakan.

32They moved from Bene Jaakan and camped at Hor Hagidgad.
33They went from Hor Hagidgad and camped at Jotbathah.
34They moved from Jotbathah and camped at Abronah.
35They departed from Abronah and camped at Ezion Geber.
36They moved from Ezion Geber and camped in the Wilderness of Zin, which is Kadesh.
37They moved from Kadesh and camped at Mount Hor, on the boundary of the land of Edom.
38Then Aaron the priest went up to Mount Hor at the command of the LORD, and died there in the fortieth year after the children of Israel had come out of the land of Egypt, on the first day of the fifth month.
39Aaron was one hundred and twenty-three years old when he died on Mount Hor.
40Now the king of Arad, the Canaanite, who dwelt in the South in the land of Canaan, heard of the coming of the children of Israel.
41So they departed from Mount Hor and camped at Zalmonah.
42They departed from Zalmonah and camped at Punon.
43They departed from Punon and camped at Oboth.
44They departed from Oboth and camped at Ije Abarim, at the border of Moab.
45They departed from Ijim[b] and camped at Dibon Gad.
46They moved from Dibon Gad and camped at Almon Diblathaim.
47They moved from Almon Diblathaim and camped in the mountains of Abarim, before Nebo.
48They departed from the mountains of Abarim and camped in the plains of Moab by the Jordan, across from

Jericho.

49 They camped by the Jordan, from Beth Jesimoth as far as the Abel Acacia Grove[c] in the plains of Moab.

Instructions for the Conquest of Canaan

50 Now the LORD spoke to Moses in the plains of Moab by the Jordan, across from Jericho, saying,

51 "Speak to the children of Israel, and say to them: 'When you have crossed the Jordan into the land of Canaan,

52 'then you shall drive out all the inhabitants of the land from before you, destroy all their engraved stones, destroy all their molded images, and demolish all their high places;

53 'you shall dispossess the inhabitants of the land and dwell in it, for I have given you the land to possess.

54 'And you shall divide the land by lot as an inheritance among your families; to the larger you shall give a larger inheritance, and to the smaller you shall give a smaller inheritance; there everyone's inheritance shall be whatever falls to him by lot. You shall inherit according to the tribes of your fathers.

55 'But if you do not drive out the inhabitants of the land from before you, then it shall be that those whom you let remain shall be irritants in your eyes and thorns in your sides, and they shall harass you in the land where you dwell.

56 'Moreover it shall be that I will do to you as I thought to do to them.' "

Numbers 34

The Appointed Boundaries of Canaan

1 Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,

2 “Command the children of Israel, and say to them: ‘When you come into the land of Canaan, this is the land that shall fall to you as an inheritance—the land of Canaan to its boundaries.

3 ‘Your southern border shall be from the Wilderness of Zin along the border of Edom; then your southern border shall extend eastward to the end of the Salt Sea;

4 ‘your border shall turn from the southern side of the Ascent of Akrabbim, continue to Zin, and be on the south of Kadesh Barnea; then it shall go on to Hazar Addar, and continue to Azmon;

5 ‘the border shall turn from Azmon to the Brook of Egypt, and it shall end at the Sea.

6 ‘As for the western border, you shall have the Great Sea for a border; this shall be your western border.

7 ‘And this shall be your northern border: From the Great Sea you shall mark out your border line to Mount Hor;

8 ‘from Mount Hor you shall mark out your border to the entrance of Hamath; then the direction of the border shall be toward Zedad;

9 ‘the border shall proceed to Ziphron, and it shall end at Hazar Enan. This shall be your northern border.

10 ‘You shall mark out your eastern border from Hazar Enan to Shepham;

11 ‘the border shall go down from Shepham to Riblah on the east side of Ain; the border shall go down and reach to the eastern side of the Sea of Chinnereth;

12 ‘the border shall go down along the Jordan, and it shall end at the Salt Sea. This shall be your land with its surrounding boundaries.’ ”
13 Then Moses commanded the children of Israel, saying:
“This is the land which you shall inherit by lot, which the LORD has commanded to give to the nine tribes and to the half-tribe.
14 “For the tribe of the children of Reuben according to the house of their fathers, and the tribe of the children of Gad according to the house of their fathers, have received their inheritance; and the half-tribe of Manasseh has received its inheritance.
15 “The two tribes and the half-tribe have received their inheritance on this side of the Jordan, across from Jericho eastward, toward the sunrise.”

The Leaders Appointed to Divide the Land

16 And the LORD spoke to Moses, saying, 17 “These are the names of the men who shall divide the land among you as an inheritance: Eleazar the priest and Joshua the son of Nun.
18 “And you shall take one leader of every tribe to divide the land for the inheritance.
19 “These are the names of the men: from the tribe of Judah, Caleb the son of Jephunneh; 20 “from the tribe of the children of Simeon, Shemuel the son of Ammihud;
21 “from the tribe of Benjamin, Elidad the son of Chislon;
22 “a leader from the tribe of the children of Dan, Bukki
the son of Jogli;
23 “from the sons of Joseph: a leader from the tribe of the children of Manasseh, Hanniel the son of Ephod, 24 “and a leader from the tribe of the children of Ephraim,
Kemuel the son of Shiphtan;

25 “a leader from the tribe of the children of Zebulun, Elizaphan the son of Parnach;
26 “a leader from the tribe of the children of Issachar, Paltiel the son of Azzan;
27 “a leader from the tribe of the children of Asher, Ahihud the son of Shelomi;
28 “and a leader from the tribe of the children of Naphtali, Pedahel the son of Ammihud.” 29 These are the ones the LORD commanded to divide the inheritance among the children of Israel in the land of Canaan.

Numbers 35

Cities for the Levites

1 And the LORD spoke to Moses in the plains of Moab by the Jordan across from Jericho, saying:
2 "Command the children of Israel that they give the Levites cities to dwell in from the inheritance of their possession, and you shall also give the Levites common-land around the cities.
3 "They shall have the cities to dwell in; and their common-land shall be for their cattle, for their herds, and for all their animals.
4 "The common-land of the cities which you will give the Levites shall extend from the wall of the city outward a thousand cubits all around.
5 "And you shall measure outside the city on the east side two thousand cubits, on the south side two thousand cubits, on the west side two thousand cubits, and on the north side two thousand cubits. The city shall be in the middle. This shall belong to them as common-land for the cities.
6 "Now among the cities which you will give to the Levites you shall appoint six cities of refuge, to which a manslayer may flee. And to these you shall add forty-two cities.
7 "So all the cities you will give to the Levites shall be forty-eight; these you shall give with their common-land.
8 "And the cities which you will give shall be from the possession of the children of Israel; from the larger tribe you shall give many, from the smaller you shall give few.
Each shall give some of its cities to the Levites, in proportion to the inheritance that each receives."

Cities of Refuge

9Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,

10"Speak to the children of Israel, and say to them: 'When you cross the Jordan into the land of Canaan,

11'then you shall appoint cities to be cities of refuge for you, that the manslayer who kills any person accidentally may flee there. Cities of Refuge

12'They shall be cities of refuge for you from the avenger, that the manslayer may not die until he stands before the congregation in judgment.

13'And of the cities which you give, you shall have six cities of refuge.

14'You shall appoint three cities on this side of the Jordan, and three cities you shall appoint in the land of Canaan, which will be cities of refuge.

15'These six cities shall be for refuge for the children of Israel, for the stranger, and for the sojourner among them, that anyone who kills a person accidentally may flee there.

16'But if he strikes him with an iron implement, so that he dies, he is a murderer; the murderer shall surely be put to death.

17'And if he strikes him with a stone in the hand, by which one could die, and he does die, he is a murderer; the murderer shall surely be put to death.

18'Or if he strikes him with a wooden hand weapon, by which one could die, and he does die, he is a murderer; the murderer shall surely be put to death.

19'The avenger of blood himself shall put the murderer to death; when he meets him, he shall put him to death.

20'If he pushes him out of hatred or, while lying in wait, hurls something at him so that he dies, 21'or in enmity he strikes him with his hand so that he dies, the one who struck him shall surely be put to death. He is a murderer. The avenger of blood shall put the murderer to death when he meets him.

22‘However, if he pushes him suddenly without enmity, or throws anything at him without lying in wait, 23‘or uses a stone, by which a man could die, throwing it at him without seeing him, so that he dies, while he was not his enemy or seeking his harm, 24‘then the congregation shall judge between the manslayer and the avenger of blood according to these judgments.
25‘So the congregation shall deliver the manslayer from the hand of the avenger of blood, and the congregation shall return him to the city of refuge where he had fled, and he shall remain there until the death of the high priest who was anointed with the holy oil.
26‘But if the manslayer at any time goes outside the limits of the city of refuge where he fled, 27‘and the avenger of blood finds him outside the limits of his city of refuge, and the avenger of blood kills the manslayer, he shall not be guilty of blood, 28‘because he should have remained in his city of refuge until the death of the high priest. But after the death of the high priest the manslayer may return to the land of his possession.
29‘And these things shall be a statute of judgment to you throughout your generations in all your dwellings.
30‘Whoever kills a person, the murderer shall be put to death on the testimony of witnesses; but one witness is not sufficient testimony against a person for the death penalty.
31‘Moreover you shall take no ransom for the life of a murderer who is guilty of death, but he shall surely be put to death.
32‘And you shall take no ransom for him who has fled to his city of refuge, that he may return to dwell in the land before the death of the priest.

33 ‘So you shall not pollute the land where you are; for blood defiles the land, and no atonement can be made for the land, for the blood that is shed on it, except by the blood of him who shed it.
34 ‘Therefore do not defile the land which you inhabit, in the midst of which I dwell; for I the LORD dwell among the children of Israel.’ ”

Numbers 36

Marriage of Female Heirs

1 Now the chief fathers of the families of the children of Gilead the son of Machir, the son of Manasseh, of the families of the sons of Joseph, came near and spoke before Moses and before the leaders, the chief fathers of the children of Israel.

2 And they said: “The LORD commanded my lord Moses to give the land as an inheritance by lot to the children of Israel, and my lord was commanded by the LORD to give the inheritance of our brother Zelophehad to his daughters.

3 “Now if they are married to any of the sons of the other tribes of the children of Israel, then their inheritance will be taken from the inheritance of our fathers, and it will be added to the inheritance of the tribe into which they marry;
so it will be taken from the lot of our inheritance.

4 “And when the Jubilee of the children of Israel comes, then their inheritance will be added to the inheritance of the tribe into which they marry; so their inheritance will be taken away from the inheritance of the tribe of our fathers.” The Jubilee Factor

5 Then Moses commanded the children of Israel according to the word of the LORD, saying: “What the tribe of the sons of Joseph speaks is right.

6 “This is what the LORD commands concerning the daughters of Zelophehad, saying, ‘Let them marry whom they think best, but they may marry only within the family of their father’s tribe.’

7 “So the inheritance of the children of Israel shall not change hands from tribe to tribe, for every one of the children of Israel shall keep the inheritance of the tribe of his fathers.

8 “And every daughter who possesses an inheritance in any tribe of the children of Israel shall be the wife of one of the family of her father’s tribe, so that the children of Israel each may possess the inheritance of his fathers.

9 “Thus no inheritance shall change hands from one tribe to another, but every tribe of the children of Israel shall keep its own inheritance.”

10 Just as the LORD commanded Moses, so did the daughters of Zelophehad;

11 for Mahlah, Tirzah, Hoglah, Milcah, and Noah, the daughters of Zelophehad, were married to the sons of their father’s brothers.

12 They were married into the families of the children of Manasseh the son of Joseph, and their inheritance remained in the tribe of their father’s family.

13 These are the commandments and the judgments which the LORD commanded the children of Israel by the hand of Moses in the plains of Moab by the Jordan, across from Jericho.

Finding Women in the Bible's Family Trees

Num. 1:2

Moses' census recorded only male names, with families listed "by their fathers' houses." We expect modern family trees to show both male and female ancestors, so it is natural to wonder what it means that women were excluded here.

In the patriarchal societies of the ancient world, it was customary to trace ancestry through males, and Moses' census followed the conventions of its time. However, this does not mean that God considers women inferior or less important than men.

On the contrary, the high value God places on women is evident throughout Scripture in the stories of women who played integral roles in the accomplishment of God's purposes. Some of these women exhibited the highest human virtues. Others did not. None were perfect.

Women in the Bible are portrayed just as they are. They are neither overly exalted nor unfairly vilified. They are God's children, capable of good yet struggling with sin just like their male counterparts. From the very beginning, the creation record of Genesis 1–2 gives men and women equal standing before God, for both Adam and Eve were created in God's image and were declared "very good" (Gen. 1:31).

Unlike Moses' census, Matthew's New Testament genealogy of Jesus' ancestors does include women as well as men (Matt. 1:1–17; see also "The Women in Jesus' Genealogy" at Matt. 1:3–6). Their inclusion reminds readers that Jesus is the Messiah not only for men but also for women. As the apostle Paul wrote, "There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither slave nor free, there is neither male nor female; for you are all one in Christ Jesus" (Gal. 3:28).

Although mothers are not always listed in family trees, their identities and accomplishments have been passed down through the stories of the Bible.

Eleazar

Num. 3:32

Name means: “God Has Helped.”

Not to be confused with: Six other men in the Bible with the same name, as well as eleven others named Eliezer.

Family: Third son of Aaron and Elisheba.

Occupation: Priest.

Best known as: Successor to Aaron as chief of the Levites and loyal lieutenant to Moses and, later, Joshua. He fathered and mentored Phinehas (Josh. 22:13; Judg. 20:28), through whom the family line extended to Ezra (Ezra 7:1–5) and beyond.

Think About It: What elements of loyalty will you express as Eleazar did?

Project Management

Num. 4:15

God instructed Moses to handle the mammoth effort of moving the tabernacle by organizing teams around specific tasks. He assigned various units to this delicate and important job:

- Aaron and the priests wrapped the ark, lampstand, utensils, and furniture according to detailed instructions (Num. 4:5–16).
- The Kohathite division carefully transported the items Aaron and the priests had packed (4:15).
- The Gershonite unit collected and carried all the hangings, screens, and remaining utensils under strict supervision (4:21–28).
- The Merarite group loaded and transported the bases, pillars, bars, cords, and pegs, with a specific worker assigned to each item (4:29–33).

In the New Testament, Paul advocated a cooperative model of the church by which the body of Christ functions according to each member's gifts (1 Cor. 12:4–26). By planning ahead, working together, and overcoming competition and conflict, Christians can manage projects in a way that honors the Lord.

Think About It: When have you seen teams used well? Used in ungodly ways or for ungodly purposes?

A Law for Criminals—and Their Victims

Num. 5:7

Because wandering Israel had no jails, justice was often served not by locking up offenders but by making sure that offenders made restitution to victims, restoring or repaying losses. The Law regarded crimes against property and persons to be "unfaithfulness against the LORD" (Num. 5:6) and set formulas of restitution for different situations.

Situation	Repayment
Loss or theft of an animal:
• A beast of burden (for example, an ox) is killed.	• Five times the value (Ex. 22:1).
• A sheep is killed.	• Four times the value (22:1).
• Animal is stolen but alive and returnable.	• Twice the value (22:4).
• Criminal cannot repay.	• Criminal is sold to make repayment (22:3).
Animal grazes in another's field or vineyard.	• Restitution made from offender's field or vineyard (Ex. 22:5).
Causing a crop-destroying fire on a neighbor's land.	• Full restitution of the loss (Ex. 22:6).
Theft of property being held for safekeeping.	• Double remuneration for the victim (Ex. 22:7, 8).
Borrowed animal dies or is injured (in the owner's absence).	• Payment of full value to the owner (Ex. 22:14, 15).
General crimes against persons.	• Full restitution plus 20 percent, payable to the victim, next of kin, or the priest (Num. 5:7–9).

Although our own laws handle both criminal and civil cases very differently, the ancient Israelites' concept of restitution is still alive today not only in our legal system but also in our personal interactions. When we want to make things right with people we have wronged, there are some situations in which repayment is not only a nice thing to do. It is the right thing to do.

More: Restitution in ancient Israel involved more than satisfying a wronged neighbor. It also required atonement before God. See "Making Restitution" at Lev. 6:1–7. One of Jesus' followers voluntarily obeyed these ancient laws of restitution as soon as he recognized his former crimes as sins against God and his neighbors. See "Startling Change" at Luke 19:1–10.

Think About It: Where might you like to see restitution practiced well? If you can't change this system today, what does God want you to do to change it for the future? What restitution practices can you implement yourself in your own actions?

Jealousy and Justice

Num. 5:11–31

Healing never comes easily when a marriage partner breaks faith. In the case of an Israelite wife suspected of adultery, the Law acknowledged the pain of the offended spouse (Num. 5:14) and the destructive potential of jealousy. It instructed the offended husband to bring his wife before the priest, who would "set her before the LORD" (5:15, 16), who alone could be trusted to detect the sin.

This ritual for determining guilt or innocence did not take place amid a crowd of hostile examiners or curious spectators. The woman was brought quietly before God, where the priest placed her under oath and gave her a drink of "bitter water" to assess her guilt or innocence.

We all have a hard time being fair when we are hurt, angry, or jealous. Wounded love usually tempts a person toward vengeance. Only God can be trusted to dispense justice no matter the situation (Deut. 32:35–39; Rom. 12:19).

More: Jesus counseled a sensitive approach in dealing with sin among believers. He cautioned His followers to privately confront an alleged offender rather than creating a public spectacle, and to seek restoration and reconciliation rather than revenge. See Matt. 18:15–22.

Think About It: How does this private and thoughtful approach increase the chances of healing without scars? Of better behavior in the future by both spouses? How would a public approach work against these purposes?

The Nazirite Vow
Num. 6:2

The Nazirite vow was a means for ancient Israelites to dedicate themselves to God in a special way for a specific time. Just as the Israelites could vow their possessions (see "The Value of a Thank You" at Lev. 27:1–25), they could also vow their lives.

The term Nazirite meant "one separated or consecrated." As a sign of this commitment, the Nazirite abstained from consuming any product of the vine (grapes, raisins, wine, and vinegar), from using a razor, and from touching the dead (Num. 6:3–7).

The text does not explain why a person might make this vow, but it may have been an act of penitence or devotion. Parents could also make a Nazirite vow on behalf of an unborn child. When Hannah, a childless woman, "poured out [her] soul before the Lord," she promised to dedicate to Him the son she prayed He would allow her to bear. Her vow suggests that her son Samuel became a Nazirite for life (1 Sam. 1:11, 15, 27, 28). Before the judge Samson was born, the Angel of the Lord told his father Manoah that his wife would bear a son who would be a Nazirite (Judg. 13:3–5).

These lifetime vows seem to be the exception rather than the rule. The Book of Numbers implies that the Nazirite vow normally lasted a shorter period of time (Num. 6:13), making it achievable for an average person. Israelites could show special devotion to God for days, weeks, months, or even years without dropping out of society or practicing extreme abstinence.

Like many expressions of religious devotion, the Nazirite vow became corrupted over time by those who thought it could be exploited to gain God's favor. They set a minimum duration of the vow, asked wealthy people to pay for the offerings, or wagered on how long the vow could be kept.

Although the New Testament offers no equivalent to the Nazirite vow, Christians today can still voluntarily devote themselves to God in unique ways. Some traditions call for fasting and intensified devotional activity during the Lenten season. But we are not bound by this seasonal observance; the disciplines of prayer and fasting can help us focus on God at any time.

One thing should remain clear: nothing we ever do forces God to act on our behalf. Vows exist to remind us of our debt to Him.

More: Old Testament vows were voluntary, yet once a vow was made, it needed to be fulfilled without delay. See "Watch the Promises You Make" at Num. 30:2.

Blessings and Benedictions

Num. 6:24–26

People have been giving each other expressions of goodwill since the beginning of time. Benedictions express good wishes and invoke the Lord's blessing. They remind their recipients of God's intent to care for us in both good and bad circumstances. Scripture contains many passages originally intended as benedictions as well as others that have been adapted through usage to serve as benedictions today.

The Value of Ritual

Num. 7:1–3

The first five books of the Bible, known as the Pentateuch, invite us into the ceremonial rites of a struggling people. Through their God-given regulations for worship, instructions for building the tabernacle, rules about offerings and sacrifices, and laws for daily life, we learn about the value of ritual.

The books of Moses show why we pass our traditions on to succeeding generations. Elders impart the meaning and oversee the observance of rituals, ensuring that younger generations do not forget their heritage and become culturally bankrupt, or worse, pervert their traditions.

In the modern world, we often participate in rituals without considering their prescribed patterns and the significance behind them. We work our way through births, graduations, weddings, deaths, holidays, and reunions with well-worn habits. We have a vague inkling of the penalties of missing out on these important events. But what would happen if we embraced with freshness the rituals of these moments and celebrated the values they represent?

More: Faith is always one generation away from extinction. Rituals and traditions can help parents instill godly beliefs and values in the lives of their children. See "The Faith of Our Children" at Deut. 6:7–9.

Think About It: How would you describe the value of ritual? What is one ritual you do that brings this value?

The Importance of Offerings

Num. 7:10

Israel's leaders dedicated the tabernacle by giving offerings from among their material possessions. Their gifts signified their allegiance to God and dedication to serving Him. And this was not a one-time experience. Sacrifices and offerings continued day and night all year long, never stopping as long as the Israelites worshiped in the tabernacle. See "Old Testament Sacrifices" at Leviticus 3:1.

Starting and Stopping

Num. 9:15–23

As God led Israel through the wilderness, He used the cloud of His presence to prod His people into motion or to make them stop. Many of us may assume that having a physical manifestation of God's presence would make life much easier, but we have something the Israelites did not: God's complete written Word—and the wisdom it imparts.

Armed with this wisdom, men and women today can sense when and how to act—and when to hold back. Through His infallible Word, God provides guidance for how to lead our families, churches, and businesses. He also teaches us how to pace our individual professional and personal lives: when to hunt for a new job or career, when to stay where we are, how long to keep working, when to stop and rest. Just as God guided the Israelites, He leads us, giving us the principles of His Word so we can make responsible choices.

More: God used the fiery cloud and other forms of direct communication to guide Israel. But even then, most day-to-day decisions required human judgment. See "Divine and Human Guidance" at Num. 10:29–34.

The Assembly

Num. 10:2, 3

The congregation Moses summoned by blowing the silver trumpets included the entire population of Israel as God's chosen people. This group was often called the assembly (Hebrew: edah or qahal), especially when coming together at an appointed time and place for religious purposes. Centuries later, a synagogue gathering (see "The Synagogue" at Mark 1:21) was likewise referred to as an assembly.

The Greeks also described gatherings as assemblies. When the Old Testament was translated into Greek (see "The Septuagint" at Acts 18:24), the Hebrew word for "assembly" was often rendered ekklēsia, a term that early Christians adopted. Eventually ekklēsia was translated into English as church.

Think About It: What's your role in making your church the assembly, the ekklēsia, that God wants your particular church to be?

Divine and Human Guidance

Num. 10:29–34

As Moses led Israel across the wilderness to the Promised Land, he used both divine and human help, inviting a relative, Hobab, to act as a guide, while also continuing to follow the fiery cloud of the Lord's presence (compare Num. 9:15–23).

The fiery cloud, the tablets of stone, the Law, and other direct communications from God were Israel's primary means of guidance. In addition, God also communicates wisdom on day-to-day decisions through human insight such as Hobab's knowledge of the wilderness.

Moses' father-in-law had advised him to appoint judges to help lead the people (Ex. 18:17–23). Now Moses appealed to Hobab on behalf of the people to "be our eyes" (Num. 10:31). The text does not say whether Hobab accepted this role. Yet even if Hobab returned to his own land and people as he originally intended (10:30), Moses continued to rely on both human and divine guidance, seeking input from Aaron, Miriam, and others.

Moses' reliance on common sense and human judgment didn't arise from doubt in God's leadership. On the contrary, it demonstrates that God uses a variety of methods to lead His people—sometimes through direct intervention, sometimes through people to whom He has given unique abilities. As we seek guidance, we should pay attention to divine revelation—especially God's written Word—but we should also consult people whom God has gifted—perhaps with our benefit in mind! And we may be the gifted one others call upon.

Miriam

Num. 12:1

Name means: "Stubbornness" or "Rebellion."

Home: Born in Egypt, where she lived for more than 80 years before the Exodus; died at Kadesh in the Wilderness of Zin (Num. 20:1).

Family: Daughter of Amram and Jochebed; older sister of Aaron and Moses.

Of special interest: The name Miriam (or Mary) became popular among the Jews, perhaps in honor of Miriam's role in the Exodus.

Notable achievements: Led the women of Israel in song and dance after God led them across the Red Sea on dry land (Ex. 15:20, 21).

Best known as: Moses' sister, likely the one who stood watch while his mother placed him in a basket and who told Pharaoh's daughter of a Hebrew nurse, thus arranging for Moses to be nursed by his mother (2:3–8); remembered for being struck with leprosy after siding with her brother Aaron in challenging Moses' marriage (Num. 12:1–15).

Family Crisis, Leadership Crisis

Num. 12:2, 3

Moses, Aaron, and Miriam exercised wide-ranging power over Israel. This trio of siblings experienced ups and downs. One especially dramatic crisis erupted when Miriam and Aaron sided together against their younger brother, an attack possibly rooted in racial hostility toward Moses' Ethiopian wife.

The region of Ethiopia, sometimes referred to in Scripture as Nubia or Cush, lay south of Egypt. The history of Egypt often intertwined with that of this dark-skinned African people (Jer. 13:23). Moses may have met his wife during his years in Egypt, or she may have been among the "mixed multitude" that fled with the Israelites out of Egypt (Num. 11:4). Or the term used in Numbers 12:1, rendered in some translations as Cushite, may be a form of the word Cushan, another name for Midian, implying that the Ethiopian woman was Zipporah (Ex. 2:21).

There may have been more to Miriam and Aaron's attack on Moses than racism. The older brother and sister may have been vying for leadership over Israel much like James and John argued over who was most favored by Jesus (Mark 10:35–44).

It seems likely that the conflict was motivated by sibling rivalry because although Miriam and Aaron framed their opposition in terms of race, the result was a crisis of authority. Miriam and Aaron disputed Moses' right to speak for God.

God was thoroughly displeased with this behavior (Num. 12:9) and made clear that He would communicate through whomever He chose (12:6). Moses was His chosen representative, and Miriam and Aaron were secondary.

Miriam was immediately struck with leprosy, apparently as punishment for her part in this rebellion. The fact that Aaron escaped this affliction may indicate that she was the primary instigator. In any case, the entire nation halted its journey until she was healed (12:15).

Jealousy, power plays, and racism are sins that God detests. Because they occur among even the best of His followers, we followers must guard against expressing jealousy, power plays or racism. True leadership is servanthood—to God's will instead of our own selfish impulses, to a life of humility and grace rather than flawed human agendas.

More: The issue of racial and ethnic barriers surfaced centuries later when Peter brought the gospel to the Roman centurion

Cornelius. Two conversions took place: Cornelius came to faith, and Peter changed his attitude toward Gentiles in the church. See "Ethnic Walls Break Down" at Acts 10:44, 45.

The Humblest Man on the Face of the Earth

Num. 12:3

When someone claims to be humble, most people believe the opposite. Yet Numbers, which was written by Moses, states that Moses was the humblest man on the face of the earth. What are we to make of that?

There are at least two possible explanations. One possibility is that the comment was inserted by a later writer. Indeed, someone besides Moses had to have written about his death and burial in the final chapter of Deuteronomy (another book authored by Moses). Since Joshua, Moses' successor, is believed to have composed the book that bears his name (Josh. 24:26), it is possible that he completed Deuteronomy and also added this editorial comment to Numbers.

Another possibility is that the word translated humble does not denote a lack of pride but rather a state of affliction. This fits with the relentless attacks Moses endured from the Israelites, such that he was overwhelmed (Num. 11:14). Numbers 12:3 may be an honest confession of Moses' weariness as he faced yet another assault, this time from his own brother and sister (12:1, 2).

Whatever the explanation, Moses was indeed a humble man. He put up with enormous griefs and rarely complained. It is no surprise he was remembered as the foremost of Israel's prophets (Deut. 34:10).

And his example challenges us to evaluate our own response to harsh treatment. Few of us could be considered humble in the way we deal with people who mistreat us. Yet God is opposed to the proud and gives grace to the humble (Prov. 3:34; James 4:6).

More: For more on Moses, see his profile at Ex. 2:10. Humility is not optional if we want to live close to God. See "Humility: The Scandalous Virtue" at Phil. 2:3.

Lessons on Authority

Num. 12:13

Every leader faces challenges to his or her authority. Moses fought opposition from two fellow leaders who also happened to be his siblings. His management of the situation, including his plea for God to deliver his sister from leprosy, offers insights on godly authority and the challenges facing people in positions of leadership:

- Christians are called to extend mercy even as they administer authority. Christ responded mercifully to the attacks of angry people, even when He used strong words. We can accept challenges to authority as opportunities for correction and clarification, and Christ's mercy, love, and power can use conflict to build resilient relationships.
- Rejection of authority can be contagious. Miriam and Aaron's challenge immediately preceded both the people's refusal to enter Canaan (Num. 13–14) and Korah's rebellion (ch. 16). Rebellion spreads through gossip, half-truths, and volatile emotions. As sinful people, we have a tendency to join in rebellion even when it is unwarranted. Rebel leaders often become folk heroes whether their actions were brave or just plain foolhardy.
- Subordinates often dislike authority. Even outwardly supportive associates may harbor jealousy and suspicions about an authority figure. Even unspoken issues can create discontent.
- Authority must be tempered by humility. Moses was a leader with ample humility (12:3). Leaders squaring off against rebels need to respond with prayer, humility, and dependence on God's wisdom and strength. Reasserting power or overcoming opponents is not the end goal. Honoring God is.

- Rebellion against authority may have nothing to do with the authority figure. Resisting authority is not always a reasoned response to an actual lapse of leadership. It may result from imagined grievances.

Seeing Beyond the Hurdles

Num. 13:27–33

Humanity has never accumulated as much knowledge as today, in the information age. Yet possessing the facts does not always lead to understanding them.

Wisdom requires vision. Apparently only two of the men sent to spy out Canaan possessed vision. The rest were overwhelmed by the challenges of conquering the land.

The term spy is misleading. The twelve tribal representatives who scouted the land were not engaged in espionage. They were explorers and surveyors. Their detailed work became the basis of land distribution forty years later (Num. 34).

Although these men had skills to assess the land, most lacked the vision and courage to take hold of it. Despite God's repeated promises to help His people drive out the Canaanites, most lost trust in the Lord. They also lost faith in themselves, scorning the Israelites as "grasshoppers" next to the Canaanite "giants" (13:33).

Twelve experts examined the same data, but two reached a unique conclusion. All twelve spies saw the land flowing with milk and honey. All twelve noted the powerful forces that had to be overcome to take possession of the land. Ten could not see past those obstacles. Two did. They looked to a God more powerful than all of the Canaanites put together. They trusted a God who pledged to give the land to His people. Having the greater vision made all the difference.

Today we have no lack of data. But we must choose between interpreting what we see according to our own human limitations or deferring to God's promises and power. If we allow ourselves the vision to see beyond the hurdles to God's revealed plans, we will see the finish line ahead. But without vision, we doom ourselves to aimless wandering.

Dangers of Chronic Complainers

Num. 14:1–4

We might expect the Israelites who escaped slavery in Egypt to overflow with gratitude to the Lord, but in reality there were many who grumbled again and again against God and His appointed representative, Moses. After the spies returned with a negative report of the Promised Land, these complainers actually began looking for someone to lead them back to Egypt. This rebellion was merely the worst in a long series of complaints:

Israel's Perpetual Protests

Location	Complaint
The Red Sea (Ex. 14:12)	Pursued by the armies of Pharaoh, the people complained that they would rather have remained slaves in Egypt.
The Wilderness of Sin (Ex. 16:3)	Lacking food, the people wished that they had died in Egypt.
Rephidim (Ex. 17:3)	Lacking water, the people argued that Moses had brought them out of Egypt and into the wilderness to die.
Kibroth Hattaavah	Weary of manna, the "mixed multitude" among the Israelites groaned that they had eaten better food in Egypt.

(Num. 11:5–18)
Kadesh Barnea (Num. 14:1–4)	Despondent over the report of giants in the Promised Land, the people complained that they would rather have died in Egypt—and even looked for a leader to take them back.
The Wilderness of Zin (Num. 20:3–5)	Lacking water, the people grumbled that they would rather have died in Egypt, where the provisions had been better.
On the way around Edom (Num. 21:5)	Weary of the journey, the people claimed that Moses had brought them out of Egypt and into the wilderness to die.

Whenever we feel threatened, tired, or dissatisfied, it's easy to ignore God's goodness. We look at our immediate circumstances with a longing for the past, even if those days were far worse than anything we face in the present.

Paul reminded the Christians in Corinth of this scene from ancient Israel and warned them to watch out when they felt tempted to complain (1 Cor. 10:1–13). Complaining makes difficult circumstances less bearable, saps the energy of those around us, and insults our God who has promised to lead us. Our challenge is to keep faith in His faithfulness to us.

More: The Corinthian Christians were some of the New Testament's biggest complainers. See the introduction to 1 Corinthians.

Think About It: Who is in the most danger during chronic complaining: The complainer? Those around the complainer? The leaders?

Fear God, Not the Giants

Num. 14:9

Joshua and Caleb were not intimidated by the enormous size of the "giants" (Num. 13:33) living in southern Canaan. Instead of fearing the people of the land, they were determined to fear the Lord. Joshua and Caleb eventually inherited the lands of the giants, while the other ten spies died by plague (14:36, 37).

Think About It: What dangers do we put ourselves in when we fail to fear God, and consequently fail to act in obedience to Him?

Acting Without God's Blessing

Num. 14:39–45

After the Israelites rejected God's promise to help them take the land, they decided to attack it on their own, moving ahead even after Moses warned them that their plans would fail. The futile battle ended with the Canaanites driving them off.

This episode invites us to ask where we have resisted God's will and authority, then gone ahead and acted without His direction or power. We should do everything we can to avoid this presumption. How could we possibly know more than God?

As we consider how to discover and do God's will, these actions will help:

- We might search Scripture to find situations similar to what we face and study the actions of everyone involved.
- We might discuss our situation with a close friend who can give us godly counsel, challenging our thinking rather than simply agreeing with us.
- And we might ask whether we would be hurt or helped by delaying a decision until we are more certain of God's direction.

The Dangers of Ignoring God

Num. 15:35, 36

Some passages in the Bible are difficult to read, not because they are hard to understand but because they are hard to accept. The execution of a man for picking up sticks on the Sabbath may seem like a cruel and unusual punishment demanded by a harsh God—but we must consider the context. This man's offense followed the Lord's warning about presumptuous sins (Num. 15:30, 31), and apparently this man still knowingly and willfully ignored God's explicit instructions concerning the Sabbath (Ex. 20:8–10). This and similar examples in Scripture prevented God's people from concluding that His laws did not matter and that they could do as they pleased.

Now, as in the past, God is generally patient and longsuffering. But the Bible—including Numbers 15—was written for our instruction (Rom. 15:4; 1 Cor. 10:6, 11). We need to learn from what God has said and done, and in this episode God shows that He cannot be ignored without devastating consequences.

Only the grace we receive in Jesus lets us escape the punishment we all deserve for ignoring His commands. And only coming into right relationship with Him can heal our own tragedies and bring us back to life. Though we have not experienced physical death like the man in Numbers 15, we all suffer from spiritual death when we ignore or deny Christ's redeeming grace. The good news is that while we may choose to ignore God, we don't have to stay there. We can turn our attention back to Him—Scripture promises that we need only seek Him out, and He will be found (Luke 11:9–10). We'll find He has never ignored us.

A Reminder
Num. 15:37–41

At times God's people forgot things as important as the instructions they received at Mount Sinai (Lev. 10:1–3, 16–18; 24:10, 11; Num. 11:1–3; 15:32–36). To remind them of the Law, God instructed them to sew tassels with a blue thread onto all their garments.

Today it is still important to remind ourselves of God's instructions. There are countless ways to do this: a token we carry, daily reading and memorization of Scripture, prayer, works of charity, or artistic expression as a labor of loving remembrance and obedience. How else might we find ways to remind ourselves of God's commands?

Korah
Num. 16:1

Name means: "Baldness."

Not to be confused with: Two Edomites of the same name (Gen. 36:5, 16).

Home: Born in Egypt; traveled during the Exodus into the Sinai Desert.

Family: Relative of Moses; possibly the ancestor of the sons of Korah, a group of professional musicians during the reigns of David and Solomon (see "Overcoming Family History" at Ps. 42, heading).

Best known for: Leading a rebellion against Moses, for which Korah, his family, and other conspirators and their families were swallowed by the earth (Num. 16:1–35).

Think About It: How will you refuse rebellion because of Korah? Negatively, how much would it help to fear being swallowed up? Positively, how much would it help to know you'll influence your descendants for generations?

When Stubbornness Won't Work

Num. 16:12

Moses invited Dathan and Abiram to meet to settle differences raised by Korah (Num. 16:1–3). But the two men refused even to show up. Their resistance led to further conflict and a dramatic ending for Korah, Dathan, Abiram, and other rebels (16:31–33, 35).

Stubbornness can be a valuable asset when overcoming obstacles. But when the obstacle is a divinely appointed authority, resistance is not the right choice. Had Korah and the others brought their concerns to Moses and the Lord for an honest discussion, their story's tragic ending may have been avoided. As we encounter obstacles today, let us take heed not to dig in our heels until the ground caves in under us. Instead, let us take the first steps toward meeting conflict with patience and the desire for peaceful resolution.

More: The Old Testament offers positive examples of people who resolved issues constructively. Among them were the daughters of Zelophehad (Num. 27:1–5), the tribe of Joseph (36:1–5; Josh. 17:14–18), and Caleb (14:6–13).

Twisting the Facts

Num. 16:13, 14

Twisting facts to make a point almost guarantees a speaker is in the wrong. Dathan, Abiram, and Korah demonstrated a prime example of this when they made outlandish claims to advance their agenda:

Claims	Truth
All the people were holy, so Moses and Aaron were nothing special (Num. 16:3).	God called Israel to be "holy to the LORD" (Deut. 7:6; 14:2), but the people had no holiness apart from Him. And God had appointed Moses as His representative (Ex. 3:13–15; Num. 12:6–8).
Moses and Aaron exalted themselves above the people and acted like princes (Num. 16:3, 13).	Moses and Aaron were doing their jobs. They had abused no one (Num. 16:15), and Moses had shown enormous patience (11:11–15; 12:3; 16:20–22).
Egypt flowed with milk and honey (Num. 16:13).	Egypt flowed with torture and misery for the Israelites. The Egyptians treated their Hebrew slaves cruelly (Ex. 1:8–14; 3:7).
Moses brought the Israelites into the wilderness to die (Num. 16:13).	Moses led the Israelites out of bondage and toward the Promised Land (Ex. 15:22). God provided for their every need as they traversed the desert (Deut. 29:5, 6).
Moses broke his promise to bring the people into a land flowing with milk and honey (Num. 16:14).	When Moses brought the people to the edge of the Promised Land at Kadesh Barnea, it was the people who lost faith and refused to enter (Num. 13–14).
Moses was dishonest and planned to blind his enemies (Num. 16:14).	Moses repeatedly proved both his honesty and his openness to critique (Ex. 18:24; Lev. 10:16–20; Num. 12:9–13).

When we face conflict, we need to watch our words, making sure we stick to the facts and avoid exaggerations and other manipulations of the truth. Healthy relationships are built on truth and reality—even the freeing reality that we might be wrong.

The Advocate

Num. 17:10, 11

The Lord's relationship with Israel broke down again and again as the masses violated His commands and complained bitterly against Him. Sometimes the offenses were so substantial that God immediately punished the offenders (Num. 14:40–45; 15:32–36; 16:31–35).

At other times Moses and Aaron intervened for the people, and the Lord held back well-deserved judgment (16:22, 46–48).

After Korah's punishment, the people seemed to quickly forget whom God had placed in charge. So the Lord devised a plan to remind everyone that one group—the sons of Aaron—would serve as intermediaries between Him and the rebellious nation. The budding of Aaron's rod made clear who would stand between God and the people (17:1–11).

Jesus Christ is now the one intermediary between God and sinful people. All who depend on Christ's atoning work on their behalf have direct access to God (Heb. 10:19–25). Christ has become our High Priest (8:1–6; 9:11–15), a permanent advocate fully worthy to intercede for our sin and rebellion (1 John 2:1).

We recognize Christ as our advocate whenever we enter God's presence. And we can follow His pattern and mediate whenever our families, communities, or workplaces need a reasoned and compassionate third party to help adversaries hear each other. We can be the go-betweens who help people reconcile.

Share the Wealth

Num. 18:20–24

God set up a system to provide for the material needs of the Levites and their families. He instructed the other eleven tribes to take the tithes (10 percent of their produce) that were due to Him and give them to the Levites as their "inheritance" in lieu of land (Num. 18:21). In exchange, the Levites carried out the work of the tabernacle.

The Levites were to tithe to the Lord from the tithes they received from the people (18:26), so ultimately one percent of the nation's produce ended up being offered directly to God. Obviously God did not need these goods. The purpose of the offerings was to remind worshipers that God was the source of their abundance.

God created humans with the capacity to experience heartfelt gratitude as well as to help meet the needs of others. The law of the tithe challenges us to celebrate God's goodness by giving away a portion of our material wealth to those who need it. And it shows us to care for the needs of people who watch over our spiritual well-being.

More: God intended the tithe not as a burden but as a celebration of His blessing. See "Celebrating Abundance" at Deut. 14:22–26 and "A Ten Percent Tax" at Deut. 26:12–15. For more on paying people engaged in ministry, see "Professional Christian Workers" at 1 Cor. 9:1–23.

Hygiene and Holiness

Num. 19:11–16

The laws pertaining to the handling of corpses and the other hygienic statutes don't say that cleanliness is next to godliness, but they do suggest a strong connection between standards of health, ritualistic purity, and the requirements for worshiping a holy God. To learn more about this relationship, see "Clean v. Unclean" at Leviticus 11:29 and "Good Health" at Leviticus 13:1–59.

Kadesh: Backdrop to Death and Disaster

Num. 20:1

Kadesh was a place where Moses had to contend with severe crises of morale and discipline. A barrage of misfortunes challenged his hope for the survival of Israel:

- Spies returned from the Promised Land with a discouraging report (Num. 13:26–33).
- When the people refused to enter the land, God sentenced them to wander in the wilderness and die there (14:1–4, 11, 12, 22–38).
- A foolhardy attempt to penetrate the land ended in disaster (14:39–44).
- A Levite named Korah led an unsuccessful rebellion of more than two hundred leaders (16:1–35).
- An outbreak of plague killed nearly fifteen thousand people (16:41–50).
- Moses' sister Miriam died (20:1).
- A lack of water and complaints from the people led Moses to disobey God and thus forfeit his entry into the Promised Land (20:2–13).
- Moses received word that the Edomites refused to let Israel pass (20:14–21).

No wonder Moses would write, "We have been consumed by [God's] anger, and by [His] wrath we are terrified" (Ps. 90:7). The stay at Kadesh must have been a major low point in Moses' career, perhaps the lowest he had ever faced.

Today nothing remains of Kadesh except a green field and several small tombs. Apart from the biblical record, no visitor would know that the site was a base camp for Israel and a scene of profound suffering for one of the greatest prophets who ever lived.

More: In Moses' day, Kadesh was probably little more than the site of a well or spring and a small settlement.

Think About It: How will what you do, and refuse to do, in the community where you live contribute to what people say about that place generations from now?

Overcome Impulses

Num. 20:10–13

God commanded Moses to draw water from a rock by speaking to it. In a rare display of anger, Moses struck the rock instead. This might not seem like a significant sin, but it had lifelong consequences. Moses was forever banned from entering the Promised Land.

Why did Moses lash out in this moment? One school of thought is that he was releasing long pent-up frustration. For years Moses had patiently endured the Israelites' grumbling. Instead of retaliating, he repeatedly pleaded for the Lord to show His people mercy. Perhaps it was only a matter of time before Moses' anger boiled over.

Perhaps it was this same inner tension that had led Moses during his early life to murder an Egyptian who was mistreating a Hebrew. Moses had been born to an enslaved minority people. He had emerged from the womb with a death sentence on his head (Ex. 2:1–10). No one can say if this conflicted background permanently scarred Moses. All we do know is that such incidents as this and the striking of the rock show a usually mild-mannered and self-disciplined man lashing out suddenly, doing long-term harm to his future.

The Bible describes Moses as the most humble man on the face of the earth (Num. 12:3) and the greatest prophet of Israel (Deut. 34:10). If such a man could fall so far and so quickly, the rest of us are surely at risk for making sudden choices that cause us lifelong regret.

Unresolved emotions may leave us vulnerable to impetuous choices. We may be able to keep ourselves in line most of the time, but some circumstances may trigger us to act out impulsively. The problem isn't just our past but our failure to bring the past to the Lord for perspective and healing.

The Lord judged Moses because he failed to believe God and honor Him before the people (Num. 20:12). We should search our own souls to uncover and work through anything that may keep us from obeying and having faith in God. We can't let anything keep us from serving Him with all that we are (Deut. 6:5).

Pain That Leads to Prejudice

Num. 20:14–21

Anyone hurt by a member of a different ethnic or racial group is at risk for developing prejudice against all members of that group. Even slight offenses may powerfully reinforce old biases, as the conflict between Israel and Edom shows.

The king of Edom refused to open the King's Highway to Moses and his people, a hostile act that likely grew out of a prejudice with roots going back hundreds of years to a feud between two brothers: Jacob, the ancestor of Israel, and Esau, the ancestor of the Edomites. Jacob obtained Esau's birthright and cheated him out of their father's blessing (Gen. 27:36). Esau swore he would get even (27:41, 42).

Years later the brothers reconciled (33:4, 10, 11). But until this incident in Numbers 20, the Bible doesn't again mention Esau's descendants, the Edomites. Apparently those descendants never forgot the wrongs that Jacob had committed against their ancestor. As the Israelites struggled to traverse the desert, the king of Edom perhaps saw an opportunity for payback.

Refusing Moses' request made life difficult for the Hebrews. Had Edom let Israel pass, the Israelites may have escaped the fiery serpents (Num. 21:4–9; see also "Symbol of Healing" at Num. 21:8, 9). Worse yet, the Edomites' action perpetuated hostility between the two ethnic groups. Even though God commanded His people not to "abhor" an Edomite (Deut. 23:7, 8), the Israelites did not stop nursing their hurt feelings. Later, Saul harassed the Edomites (1 Sam. 14:47). David slaughtered thousands of Edomites (2 Sam. 8:13, 14, according to some manuscripts) and turned their land into a military possession. David's general Joab then carried out a campaign of genocide against them (1 Kin. 11:15, 16).

The cycle of hate continued for centuries. Even the baby Jesus felt its impact: King Herod, who ordered the slaughter of infants at Bethlehem (Matt. 2:16–18), was descended from the Edomites.

Whatever our race or ethnic group, as Christ's followers we are called to break the cycle of prejudice. If we are offended or attacked by someone of another race or nationality, we gain nothing by amplifying our pain into general mistrust and hatred of an entire group of people. Rather than furthering stereotypes, we can reach out and seek better understanding.

More: Christians aren't immune to racial and ethnic biases. So Christ wants us to guard against prejudice to keep it from compromising our integrity as His people.

Think About It: What friendship or bond will you build to break the cycle of prejudice?

Leadership Changes

Num. 20:22–29

Transferring power is always a delicate task. A change in leadership can stress even the most vibrant organizations as old alliances vie with new forces to determine who will shape the future.

Aaron's death was a major event in Israel's life. Moses' brother had been his primary spokesman (Ex. 4:16; 7:1). He was not only high priest for the nation but the nation's first high priest.

Aaron's successor, Eleazar, was his third son. Aaron's two older sons Nadab and Abihu had been consumed in the Lord's anger after offering "profane fire" (Lev. 10:1–3). Thus Eleazar was, in effect, the third choice for high priest. But despite many potential issues, the transition from Aaron to Eleazar went smoothly, perhaps because God Himself oversaw the transfer of power. Scripture tells of several other transitions, not all of which went as smoothly.

Leadership Transitions

Record: Deut. 31:1–8
Result: Continuity was preserved from one generation to the next. The nation entered and conquered the Promised Land.

From: Joshua
To: The judges
Record: Judg. 2:7–12, 16
Result: Judges assumed power, and the people followed. But within a generation they abandoned God for idols.

From: Samuel
To: Saul
Record: 1 Sam. 8–10
Result: Because of Samuel's corrupt sons, the people demanded a king. Saul was a disappointment.

From: Saul
To: David
Record: 1 Sam. 15:10–16:13
Result: Before David became king he had to endure Saul's wrath.

From: David
To: Solomon
Record: 1 Kin. 1–2
Result: An orderly transition took place when David named Solomon as his successor and charged him to follow God.

From: Solomon
To: Rehoboam
Record: 1 Kin. 12–14
Result: By rejecting wise counsel, Rehoboam alienated his subjects. The kingdom split when Jeroboam exploited the situation.

From: Zedekiah
To: Nebuchadnezzar and the Babylonians
Record: 2 Chr. 36:11–23 Result: Already under Babylonian dominion, the kingdom of Judah was completely destroyed when Zedekiah continued to rebel against God.

From: Artaxerxes

Symbol of Healing

Num. 21:8, 9

Discouraged in a Desolate Land

When God instructed Moses to raise a bronze serpent on a pole, He offered the Israelites a symbol of His healing. The incident happened on a highway called the Way of the Sea during a season of great discouragement (21:4). Miriam and Aaron had died (20:1, 22–29). Moses had disobeyed God (20:2–13). Edom had denied the Israelites access to the direct route to Canaan (20:14–21). And a fierce campaign had been waged against a Canaanite tribe (21:1–3).

In skirting Edom, the Israelites had to travel through a desolate wilderness known for oppressive heat. The region probably offered little water and no food to supplement the bread-like manna that God provided (21:5). In the midst of these hardships, morale collapsed.

The Fiery Serpents

Once again, the people complained against God and Moses. God responded by sending "fiery serpents" (21:6), likely poisonous vipers whose bites caused intense fever, thirst, swelling, and eventual death. The snakes may also have appeared fiery: one highly poisonous local species displays bright red spots and wavy stripes.

Bitten by snakes, the people had bigger worries than water, food, or anything else beyond their immediate circumstances. They had facetiously suggested they would die in the wilderness, but now their lives were actually at stake (21:5). So they acknowledged their sin and cried out for mercy and deliverance (21:7).

In response, the Lord told Moses to fashion a fiery serpent on a pole as a means of healing (21:8). Perhaps Moses turned to the skilled craftsmen who had worked on the tabernacle (Ex. 31:1–6) to quickly design this emblem. A bronze serpent would give off a fiery appearance in the sunlight, making a highly visible standard.

Symbol of Idolatry—and Salvation

The Book of Numbers offers no additional details about the bronze serpent or the incident that prompted its creation. Moses may have alluded to the snake in his final remarks before the people entered the Promised Land (Deut. 8:15). Scripture remains silent about the incident until generations later when King Hezekiah of Judah destroyed the bronze serpent, which apparently had been kept and turned into an object of idolatry (2 Kin. 18:4). Jesus later told Nicodemus that He would have to be "lifted up" just as the bronze serpent had been, to bring eternal life to those who believe in Him (John 3:14, 15).

Faith and Focus

Commanding Moses to create the bronze serpent may appear as if God overturned His prohibition against graven images (Ex. 20:4–6). We might wonder why God did not eradicate the snakes or simply heal the people outright.

One thing is clear: God—not the bronze serpent—was the source of healing. The serpent was merely a symbol pointing toward the Lord. God required the afflicted to look upon the serpent (Num. 21:9), perhaps the only thing an incapacitated person could do. Likely the patient wasn't fit to visit the tabernacle to offer a sacrifice or consult a priest.

Looking toward the snake meant exercising faith, desperate as it may have been. To live, the Israelites had to turn to the only means that God had provided for deliverance. To refuse was to choose death. No wonder Jesus used this incident as an analogy to His work on the cross.

Symbolic objects of religious veneration can help people encounter God. But when a helpful aid becomes an object of worship, it must be destroyed. It invites people to violate not only the second commandment, the prohibition against graven images, but the first commandment as well: "You shall have no other gods before Me" (Ex. 20:3). God alone is our source of healing and help. Ultimately we must look to Him in faith to meet our needs—physical, emotional, and spiritual.

More: King Solomon built copper smelting and refining furnaces in the vicinity of the incident with the fiery serpents. Apparently ore was plentiful in that region.

Balak

Num. 22:2

Name means: "Devastator" or "Destroyer."

Home: The land of Moab, east of the Dead Sea.

Family: Son of Zippor.

Occupation: King of the Moabites.

Best known for: Attempting to hire Balaam the seer to curse the Israelites using divination. Instead of cursing God's people, Balaam blessed them (Num. 22–24). Balak still partially succeeded in ensnaring the Israelites by using Moabite women to entice them into idolatrous sexual immorality (25:1–3).

More: Balak's strategy against the Israelites brought judgment on his own people in the form of a permanent ban on any Moabite becoming a member of Israel. Hebrews were forbidden even to enter into a friendship treaty with Moabites (Deut. 23:3–6).

Balaam

Num. 22:5

Name means: "Destroyer of the People."

Home: Pethor, several miles south of Carchemish on the Euphrates River.

Family: Son of Beor.

Occupation: A soothsayer who used magical arts in attempts to discover information about the future.

Of special interest: The cattle and sheep Balaam received from the Moabite king may have been part of a plan to divine the future. The occult practice of studying the color and configuration of animal livers was common among Babylonian sorcerers (compare Ezek. 21:21). Balaam abandoned the ritual when he realized that God was determined to bless Israel (Num. 23:23; 24:1).

Best known for: The incident when God caused his donkey to speak, leading Balaam to communicate only what the Lord directed him to say.

Think About It: Don't depend on God to overcome your rebelliousness. But has there been a time He has done so, perhaps through a caring person who counseled you?

The Unscrupulous Prophet

Num. 22:6, 7

Balaam is one of the most intriguing characters in Scripture:

- He was a priest or seer who could bless or curse people (Num. 22:6).
- Although he wasn't a Hebrew, he communicated with God (22:8–12).
- His services were for sale (22:7, 16–18).
- He lived at Pethor, a town on the Euphrates River in Mesopotamia, yet his fame was so widespread that King Balak of Moab and his Midianite allies requested his help (22:4, 5).
- When God prevented him from cursing the Israelites, he kept trying to satisfy the Moabites' request, perhaps to earn a substantial fee (22:12, 20, 21).
- His eventual success in bringing trouble on Israel cost him his life (see "Playing with Fire" at Num. 31:15, 16).

Although Balaam was a Gentile, he knew and to some extent served the living God, like some other priests from outside the people of God, including Melchizedek (Gen. 14:18), Moses' father-in-law Reuel (also known as Jethro; Ex. 2:16–18), and possibly Job (Job 42:8, 9).

Balaam's ability to bless or curse shows the extreme importance of blessings and curses in Scripture, especially in the Old Testament (see "The Blessing" at Gen. 49:28). The blessing that Isaac gave to Jacob rather than Esau had far-reaching consequences, as did Noah's cursing of his grandson Canaan (see "Pain That Leads to Prejudice" at Num. 20:14–21).

Balaam had little choice but to bless Israel. God had already pronounced His blessing on Abraham's descendants (22:12), and Balaam could not thwart that (22:18; 24:12, 13).

Think About It: Why do people risk disobeying God? When do you do it?

The Better Story

Num. 23:11, 12

This humorous exchange between Balak and Balaam is the result of the political struggle between Balaam, a non-Hebrew prophet; Balak, the Moabite king; and God, the Lord of all creation. Caught between Balak and God, Balaam had little choice but to follow the Lord's command, blessing Israel "bountifully" rather than cursing them as Balak had hired him to do.

What if we were to choose to have the same response when pressured to speak badly of others? At this point Balaam could not escape God's charge to him (Num. 22:12). But we have a choice. We can live our stories like Balaam's would have been if he had cursed Israel from the mountaintops—but isn't what actually happened the better story?

As Christians we are not bound by anyone's expectations but God's. We can choose to ignore that, or we can choose to live the better story. God's story for us may not always go as we expect it to, but it is guaranteed to have a happy ending—happier than we can even imagine (1 Cor. 2:9; Eph. 3:20; Rev. 21:4).

No Amount of Money

Num. 24:10–13

Fearing the Israelites, King Balak twice offered the seer Balaam a generous fee to curse God's people (Num. 22:1–17). After consulting with God, Balaam could not comply with Balak's request. Yet the lure of money and important friends caused Balaam to waver. His continued attempts to do business with Balak provoked the Lord to use Balaam's own donkey to force him to do right (22:22–35).

Balaam's stubborn obsession with money and power made him difficult to deter from opposing God's people. As a result, his name eventually became synonymous with greed (2 Pet. 2:15; Jude 11). Like Balaam, we may be tempted to go against God's will when it proves too costly to obey. But no amount of money is worth turning away from the One who loves us.

Phinehas

Num. 25:7

Name means: "The Nubian."

Not to be confused with: The younger son of Eli (1 Sam. 1:3); a priest in the days of Ezra (Ezra 8:33).

Home: Probably born in Egypt, given the probable Egyptian origin of his name; one of the generation that entered Canaan (Josh. 22:13; Judg. 20:28).

Family: Son of Eleazar; grandson of Aaron and Elisheba; born to a line of priests that extended until A.D. 70.

Occupation: Priest.

Best known for: His moral integrity and zealous passion, seen when he used a javelin to kill a fellow Israelite and his consort from Midian (Num. 25:7–9).

The Midianites

Num. 25:17

The Lord's command to "harass the Midianites" must have been an emotionally wrenching assignment for Moses to carry out. His wife Zipporah was a Midianite, and her father Reuel (also known as Jethro) and brother Hobab were trusted friends. Aside from these personal connections, however, Israel shared a long, largely negative history with Midian:

- The Midianites were distant relatives of the Israelites through Abraham's concubine Keturah (Gen. 25:1–4).
- The Midianites had long been nomadic residents of the desert area southeast of Canaan (25:6).
- Midianite traders had purchased young Joseph from his brothers and taken him to Egypt (37:28).
- Moses fled to Midian after murdering an Egyptian, where he herded sheep for the man who became his father-in-law (Ex. 2:15–21).
- Fearing the Israelites as a threat to their economy and lands, the Midianites partnered with the Moabites to hire the seer Balaam to curse the Hebrews (Num. 22:3–6).
- Eventually the Hebrews gave in to idolatry by worshiping the Midianite and Moabite god Baal of Peor, inviting God's wrath (25:1–15).

- After the Israelites settled in Canaan, the Midianites invaded and oppressed them for seven years (Judg. 6–8).
- Hebrew prophets looked back on Midian as a model for corrupt civilizations that God would crush (for example, Is. 9:4).

The idolatry involving Baal of Peor prompted the Lord's command to wage war against the Midianites (Num. 25:18). Moses sent an army of twelve thousand men to destroy them, plundering their goods and burning their cities (31:2–8).

New Laws for a New World

Num. 27:1–11

As Israel prepared to enter the "land of milk and honey," the daughters of Zelophehad listened intently while Moses reviewed the inheritance laws allotting land to each family (Num. 26:53–56). Land would be divided among each clan's sons (Deut. 21:15–17). This kept the land within the family over the generations. Daughters, more likely to marry outside the clan, were excluded from the estates, a practice shared by surrounding cultures. Rather than inheriting land, daughters received dowries at the time of marriage (Judg. 1:13–15; 1 Kin. 9:16).

The daughters of Zelophehad appealed to Moses because their father had died without leaving sons to inherit land, and fairness demanded that they be given their father's allotment (Num. 26:33; 27:4). Moses responded by enacting a new law, and the daughters received land.

The story of Zelophehad's daughters encourages us to keep pace with our rapidly changing world and evaluate whether long-established practices still serve people's best interests. In some cases the answer may be yes. In others we may be led to revisit our old assumptions and make adjustments or even start anew. If we are ever unsure about whether we ought to make a change or stand our ground, we can ask God to send us clear conviction.

Family Responsibilities

Num. 27:4

Ancient Hebrew culture had high expectations of family members. The complaint lodged by Zelophehad's daughters concerning their inheritance illustrates one of many responsibilities placed on relatives. Some key duties included:

Redeeming relative (Lev. 25:25)	Family members—especially males—had both the right and responsibility to buy relatives out of slavery or repurchase family lands lost through poverty.
Inheritance (Num. 27:1–11)	A man's estate passed to (in order of priority) his sons, daughters, brothers, uncles, or next nearest relative.
Vengeance (Num. 35:9–34)	In cases of manslaughter, a son, brother, or next of kin was expected to avenge the death.
Levirate marriage (Deut. 25:5–10)	If a man died without leaving an heir, his nearest male relative—usually a brother—was expected to father an heir with his widow.

Learn to Pray with Moses

Num. 27:15–17

For all who find prayer awkward or scary, Scripture encourages us with stories that show that prayer is an everyday activity for everyday people. Moses, for example, toiled through at least three different careers—privileged ruler in Egypt, forgotten shepherd in Midian, and national liberator of the Israelites (see "Moses Matures" at Ex. 32:10). Throughout these pursuits, Moses regularly turned to God in prayer.

- He debated with God about his fitness to lead Israel out of Egypt (Ex. 3:11–4:17; 6:28–7:7).
- He interceded on behalf of the Egyptians (8:9–13).
- He asked for water for his thirsty nation of refugees (15:24, 25).
- He pleaded with God about the sinful Hebrews and what God would do to them (32:11–13, 31–34).
- He implored God to heal his sister's leprosy (Num. 12:4–15).
- He prayed for a smooth leadership transition to Joshua (27:15–17).
- He appealed to God to let him to join the people as they entered the Promised Land (Deut. 3:23–25; 34:1–4).

Moses demonstrated the often forgotten truth that God is more than ready to hear our complaints, appeals, and frustrations. We can approach God in prayer about our most difficult dilemmas—and our most everyday concerns.

A Habit of Worship

Num. 28:2

Unlike the New Testament, the Old Testament prescribed a detailed regimen of times, places, and ceremonies for worship. Yet whether worship involved the highly formalized rituals of the ancient Hebrews or the simpler and apparently more spontaneous forms of the early Christians, God's people throughout the ages have worshiped for essentially the same reasons.

The word for worship in both Hebrew and Greek come from words suggesting "service." Thus worshipers are God's servants who not only carry out His will but also fall before Him in holy wonder. The English term worship originally meant "worthiness" and in time came to mean "respect or reverence." And it is true that to worship God means to offer Him the respect He is due for His unsurpassable worth and honor.

Old Ways and New

The Law's instructions for worship prescribed a regular discipline:

- daily offerings of food and drink (Num. 28:3–8);
- weekly offerings on the Sabbath (28:9, 10);
- monthly offerings at the beginning of each month (28:11–15);
- annual feasts, such as Passover, the Feast of Weeks, the Feast of Trumpets, the Feast of Tabernacles, and the Day of Atonement (28:16–31; 29:1–38).

These patterns changed with the emergence of the early church. The need for sacrifices—merely a "shadow of the good things to come" (Heb. 10:1)—ended with the supreme sacrifice of Christ, whose death atoned for sins once and for all (10:1–18). The sacrificial system ended altogether when the Romans destroyed the temple at Jerusalem.

Worship among early Christians became more important than ever because God's people now had a "new and living way" to approach Him (Heb. 10:19–22). The early Christians may have looked to the synagogue as a model for worship (Acts 17:1–3), but nowhere does the New Testament outline anything like the exhaustive instructions found in Exodus, Leviticus, Numbers, and Deuteronomy.

Worshiping in Spirit and Truth

Although Christians developed different forms of honoring God and entering His presence, there are numerous parallels between Hebrew and Christian understandings of worship.

- God lives among us, and we are His people.
- We are sinners who need forgiveness.
- Forgiveness is available.
- God offers guidance and instruction for life.
- We belong to a community of believers.
- We are called to demonstrate God's character before a watching world.
- We have a future hope that rests on God's promises.

As we celebrate these truths, we choose to actually live according to God's guidance and instructions for life. We invest time and attention in our community of believers. We demonstrate God's character before a watching world. God does not want us to engage in empty ritual. He desires heartfelt praise, repentance, love, and honor, as He has repeatedly made clear.

- True sacrifice involves "a broken and a contrite heart" (Ps. 51:17).
- Worship offered by the wicked is an "abomination" to God. But He "delight[s]" in the prayer of the upright (Prov. 15:8).
- God cares little for empty ceremony; He requires character and obedience: justice, mercy, and humility (Mic. 6:8).
- God expects His followers to worship Him "in spirit and truth" (John 4:24).

God invites us to make a habit of gathering with other followers to praise Him, to share life together, to learn from His Word, and to reach out to others with His love. We are never to forsake "the assembling of ourselves together" (Heb. 10:25).

Watch the Promises You Make

Num. 30:2

God warned the Hebrews to honor their commitments both to Him and to others, reminding them that whatever came out of their mouths was binding. The Lord knows well how empty promises can be. He hears endless desperate vows: "If only You'll help me, God, then I'll do this or that." Many people in Scripture made similar promises:

Promises Made to God

Who Said It	What Was Promised
Jacob (Gen. 28:20–22)	Promised to make the Lord his God and to tithe his possessions if God would supply his needs.
The nation of Israel (Num. 21:2)	Promised complete destruction of the Canaanite city of Hormah if God would guarantee victory.
Jephthah (Judg. 11:30, 31)	Promised to sacrifice whatever came out of his house to meet him if God would grant him victory over the Ammonites.
Hannah (1 Sam. 1:10, 11)	Promised to dedicate her son to God's service if He would enable her to conceive.
David (Ps. 132:1–5)	Promised not to sleep until he "found a dwelling place" for the Lord.
Absalom (2 Sam. 15:7, 8)	Promised untruthfully that he would serve the Lord if He would bring him back to Jerusalem.

These biblical characters counted on God for concrete help—food and housing, victory in war, the conception of a child—in exchange for their vows—to tithe possessions, to fight valiantly, to dedicate a child to God. These may seem like reasonable commitments, but although our prayers and actions can have an impact, God is far above bargaining.

In addition, these biblical examples and our own experience show that people often make long-term promises to obtain short-term benefits. This may be why Scripture delivers strong cautions about the promises we make.

- Actions count more than words. Delightful and delighted are those Christians whose lives don't contradict their words. Our words mean nothing if we do not put our faith into action by caring for the poor and disadvantaged and treating others with fairness and mercy (James 1:27–2:26).

- Watch what you say. It is easy to swear a thoughtless oath without considering the commitment. But God holds us responsible for what we have said (Lev. 5:4, 5; Prov. 20:25).
- Deliver on your promise. Abstaining from making promises is not wrong. But breaking or delaying a vow to God is sin. It would be better to avoid making promises at all (Deut. 23:21–23).
- Be cautious about rash promises. Our enthusiasm might lead us to say foolish things we cannot live up to. Rash talk and hasty promises are the "sacrifice of fools" (Eccl. 5:1–7). Our mouths can destroy our lives, hence the warning, "Let your words be few" (5:2).

In Psalm 19, David asks the Lord to keep him from "presumptuous sins" and to help him craft his words in a way that is pleasing to God (19:13, 14). If ever we find ourselves in the habit of trying to bargain with God or make promises we know we cannot keep, we can turn to Psalm 19 as a prayer to the Almighty, who can teach our hearts how to call up the right words for every moment, free of empty promises.

Playing with Fire

Num. 31:15, 16

The seer Balaam blessed the Israelites—but he ended up bringing a curse upon them and on himself. Balaam had been tempted by Balak, king of Moab to curse Israel (Num. 22:16, 17), but the priest instead blessed God's people three times (23:7–11, 18–25; 24:3–10). Still, Balaam apparently never forgot Balak's offer. After returning home, he came up with a clever idea. God had forbidden him from cursing Israel, but perhaps the Israelites could bring a curse upon themselves. Thus Balaam incited the Moabite women to tempt Israel's men into immorality and idolatry (25:1–3; 31:15, 16).

Israel fell into sin and aroused God's anger, causing a plague that killed twenty-four thousand people (25:3, 8, 9). We do not know if Balaam received payment for concocting his diabolical scheme, but when Israel eventually overran Midian, Balaam was considered an enemy and was slain (31:8). Likewise, the Moabites and Midianites suffered military defeat at the hands of the Israelites (25:16–18; 31:1–18).

Toying with sin is like playing with fire. Even when we think we are safe because our sin is aimed at others—or when we fall prey to the misconception that our sin is not causing any harm at all—we will get burned.

But there is a fire that wounds, and a fire that redeems. Rather than becoming seduced by the former, we should seek God's consuming fire (Heb. 12:29) to enliven our hearts and souls with His compassion.

Faith Is a Risk Worth Taking

Num. 32:6–15

As Israel again approached the Promised Land, two of the twelve tribes made a proposal to Moses. They wanted to settle right where they were, in the verdant pasturelands east of the Jordan River, rather than enter the Promised Land. But Moses corrected them.

Burned in Moses' mind was the incident that had occurred at Kadesh Barnea forty years earlier (Num. 13–14). The Israelites, alarmed by the report of ten faint-hearted spies who said they would never survive the end of their journey, resolved either to die where they were or return to Egyptian slavery (14:1–4). Only two of Moses' twelve spies saw opportunity in God's command to enter the land and drive out the Canaanites.

That lack of faith left Israel wandering in the wilderness for forty years, until all who had rejected God's promise had died. In reminding Reuben and Gad of this history, Moses shamed them into sticking with their brothers, as if to say, "Here we go again! You are just like your forefathers, resisting God's opportunity" (32:6–8).

Fortunately, the two tribes listened to him and a compromise was reached (32:16–24).

Many people resist taking risks. After all, taking chances can lead to failure. But faith always involves probable delights as well as potential hazards, and the Bible is full of examples of God blessing risk-takers who trusted Him.

- Noah was called to the odd task of building a huge ship in preparation for a flood that would surpass any other in history. His belief in God's instructions meant that his family survived an unprecedented natural disaster (Gen. 6–10).
- Abraham and Sarah left their home to go to an unknown land, bringing great blessing to their descendants (12:1–9).
- Elijah was called to the dangerous task of opposing wicked King Ahab and Queen Jezebel. Because of his obedience, the prophets of Baal were destroyed and a revival came to Israel (1 Kin. 18).
- Jonah attempted to avoid preaching to the despicable Ninevites. But ultimately his message of repentance caused the entire city to respond in faith (Jon. 1–3).
- Ruth, a widow, joined her mother-in-law in returning to Israel, where Ruth's ethnic heritage would be a disadvantage to her. Yet she ended up happily remarrying. She also became the grandmother of Israel's most famous king and an ancestor of the Messiah (Ruth 1–4).
- Esther put her life on the line to speak up before King Ahasuerus. Her boldness saved her people from genocide (Esth.).
- Elizabeth and Mary managed pregnancies in awkward situations. Elizabeth gave birth to John the Baptist, and Mary gave birth to Jesus (Luke 1–2).
- Peter and Andrew left their family's fishing business to follow an unknown leader (John 1:35–42). As a result of their passion for Jesus, they became leaders of a movement that eventually spread across the Roman empire.
- Ananias was prompted to visit the chief enemy of early Christians. Because of Ananias's obedience, Saul the persecutor became Paul the apostle (Acts 9:1–22).

The choices of these heroes of faith challenge us to look past our own comfort and reach for great opportunity.

Cities of Refuge

Num. 35:11

A person charged with manslaughter in ancient Israel could flee to the nearest of six settlements designated as “cities of refuge.” The cities of refuge uniquely brought together issues of civil planning, justice, and religion.

After the Israelites entered the Promised Land, they set apart forty-eight towns as Levitical cities where priests and their families could live (see “The Levitical Cities” at Josh. 21:1–3). Of those forty-eight cities, six were set aside as places of refuge for “the manslayer who kills any person accidentally.” Refuge was given only in cases of unintentional death; willful murderers were executed (Num. 35:30).

The six cities were strategically located for reasonable accessibility: three east of the Jordan River, including Bezer, Ramoth Gilead, and Golan (Deut. 4:41–43; Josh. 20:8), and three to the west, Kedesh in Galilee, Shechem, and Kirjath Arba (also known as Hebron; Josh. 20:7).

Refuge from revenge was necessary because Hebrew customs gave the next of kin the right—if not the outright obligation—to avenge a victim’s death (see “Family Responsibilities” at Num. 27:4). If a manslayer entered a city of refuge, he was safe from immediate harm. The elders of the manslayer’s hometown would investigate the matter and let the congregation decide whether the killing was intentional. An offender found guilty of murder was brought back and handed over to the avenging blood relative for execution (35:24; Deut. 19:11, 12).

A manslayer granted asylum in the city of refuge had to remain there until the death of the high priest (Num. 35:25). This kept him safe from revenge but not immune to consequences. Years might pass before the high priest died, and a prolonged stay was something of an exile, little better than house arrest.

Think About It: How might the city-of-refuge approach play out today? Should believers instigate it as a solution? Why or why not?

The Jubilee Factor

Num. 36:4

Old Testament law was given by God. Yet cases arose that required special consideration. The division of the Promised Land was one such situation. The daughters of Zelophehad brought a complaint that their family would receive no land because their father had died without leaving sons. After Moses deliberated with God, the women won their argument and received land (see "New Laws for a New World" at Num. 27:1–11).

This decision was revisited when relatives of Zelophehad of the tribe of Manasseh pointed out that the law of the Jubilee year could cause the tribe to lose land (see "The Year of Jubilee" at Lev. 25:8–17). In observance of the Jubilee year, lands were to be returned to the families to which they were originally given. But ownership of the land was determined through male heirs. If women born to Zelophehad's daughters married outside the tribe, the lands would be lost.

In this complex legal problem, three parts of the Law were in tension: the division of the Promised Land, the laws of inheritance, and the law of the Jubilee year. As before, Moses consulted God and a compromise was struck: Zelophehad's daughters could keep the land, but only by marrying within the tribe of Manasseh (Num. 36:6–9). It was a decision that preserved the Law while also giving the daughters a way to keep the land.

The solution of this technical matter may seem like an odd end to the Book of Numbers. It may seem irrelevant to modern Bible readers. But the decision shows that God cares about justice. He listens, and He helps us find solutions that are righteous, fair, and compassionate.

Deuteronomy means “Second Law,” a name related to an instruction given in Deuteronomy 17:18 stating that future kings should make “a copy of this law.” The “first” Law was given at Mount Sinai (Ex. 19–31, 35–40; Lev. 1–7, 11–27), and the Book of Deuteronomy is believed to contain “this law,” or the second copy of the Law, which kings were to reproduce so that they, their subjects, and future generations would always have a faithful record of God’s commandments by which to govern their lives.

In spite of its name, however, Deuteronomy does not merely repeat previous material. It does review the Israelites’ travels through the desert and restate the Ten Commandments—but it also offers a fresh summary of a godly heritage, a record of God’s faithfulness during difficult years, and the final speech of an eminent leader.

As the days of this book unfolded, only Moses, Joshua, and Caleb remained alive among their generation. The other adults who had witnessed the establishment of God’s covenant with the Israelites at Mount Sinai forty years earlier had died: because of their rebellion at Kadesh Barnea, they had been sentenced to wander and perish in the wilderness (Num. 14:26–35). It would be their children who would finally set foot in the Land of Promise.

Knowing that the people would soon enter Canaan without him (see “Overcome Impulses” at Num. 20:10–13), Moses reviewed the covenant that had been made between their parents and the Lord. Many who listened to Moses had not yet been born when the events at Mount Sinai took place. Now adults, they needed to make their own agreement with the Lord before entering the Promised Land. Cast in terms of a treaty between God and His people (see "Deuteronomy as a Treaty" at Deut. 1:1), three points stand out in this version of the Law:

- The necessity of a heart commitment. The codes of Deuteronomy—and the rest of the Law—required more than conforming to the letter of God's commands. Cold compliance would lead to legalism and empty ritual. Moses urged his listeners to instead pursue the spirit of the Law, summed up in what Jesus called the greatest of all commandments: to "love the LORD your God with all your heart, with all your soul, and with all your strength" (Deut. 6:5; Matt. 22:37).
- The importance of telling future generations about the works and words of God. Deuteronomy instructs parents and grandparents to take pains to ensure that their offspring are brought up in the ways of the Lord (see "The Faith of Our Children" at Deut. 6:7–9).
- The connection between spiritual commitment and social responsibility. God's people were not only to stay spiritually pure (Deut. 7:6–10; 8:6; 26:18, 19) but also to extend His blessings and justice to the humble. This included . . .
- strangers, or sojourners (Deut. 1:16, 17; 5:14; 10:18, 19; 24:17–22; 26:12, 13; 27:19; 29:11; 31:12),
- widows and orphans (Deut. 10:18; 24:17–22; 25:5–10; 26:12, 13; 27:19),
- priests and Levites (Deut. 14:27–29; 18:1–8; 26:12, 13),
- slaves (Deut. 15:12–18; 23:15, 16),
- rape victims (Deut. 22:23–29),
- debtors (Deut. 15:1–3),
- the poor (Deut. 15:4–11),
- the blind (Deut. 27:18),

- female prisoners of war (Deut. 21:10–14), and
- low-wage earners (Deut. 24:14, 15).

Despite Moses' warning to carefully preserve the Law, Deuteronomy was eventually lost, probably during the early days of the divided kingdom. Not until Josiah's reign much later in Israel's history (640–609 B.C.) did workers repairing the temple find a copy of "the Book of the Law" (2 Kin. 22:3–13). Josiah had it read publicly, and it sparked a revival among his people.

Deuteronomy is ascribed to Moses (Deut. 1:1; see also Moses' profile at Ex. 2:10); the postscript regarding Moses' death (Deut. 34:1–12) is believed to have been added later. The events of the book took place on the plains of Moab, east of the Jordan River opposite Jericho (Num. 36:13; Deut. 1:1). Moses addressed the people just prior to his death and their entry into Canaan, probably around 1400 B.C.

Key Events in Deuteronomy

- Moses proclaims the Ten Commandments a second time (Deut. 5:6–21).
- Moses delivers what Jesus called the greatest of all commandments—to love God with all you have and all you are (Deut. 6:4, 5).
- Moses pronounces the curses and blessings of the covenant (Deut. 27–28).
- Moses dies on Mount Nebo (Deut. 34).

Deuteronomy 1

The Previous Command to Enter Canaan

1These are the words which Moses spoke to all Israel on this side of the Jordan in the wilderness, in the plain[a] opposite Suph,[b] between Paran, Tophel, Laban, Hazeroth, and Dizahab. Deuteronomy as a Treaty

2*It is* eleven days' journey from Horeb by way of Mount Seir to Kadesh Barnea.

3Now it came to pass in the fortieth year, in the eleventh month, on the first day of the month, that Moses spoke to the children of Israel according to all that the LORD had given him as commandments to them,

4after he had killed Sihon king of the Amorites, who dwelt in Heshbon, and Og king of Bashan, who dwelt at Ashtaroth in[c] Edrei.

5On this side of the Jordan in the land of Moab, Moses began to explain this law, saying,

6"The LORD our God spoke to us in Horeb, saying: 'You have dwelt long enough at this mountain.

7'Turn and take your journey, and go to the mountains of the Amorites, to all the neighboring places in the plain,[d] in the mountains and in the lowland, in the South and on the seacoast, to the land of the Canaanites and to Lebanon, as far as the great river, the River Euphrates.

8'See, I have set the land before you; go in and possess the land which the LORD swore to your fathers—to Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob—to give to them and their descendants after them.'

Tribal Leaders Appointed

9 “And I spoke to you at that time, saying: ‘I alone am not able to bear you.
10 ‘The LORD your God has multiplied you, and here you are today, as the stars of heaven in multitude.
11 ‘May the LORD God of your fathers make you a thousand times more numerous than you are, and bless you as He has promised you!
12 ‘How can I alone bear your problems and your burdens and your complaints?
13 ‘Choose wise, understanding, and knowledgeable men from among your tribes, and I will make them heads over
you.’
14 “And you answered me and said, ‘The thing which you have told us to do is good.’ 15 “So I took the heads of your tribes, wise and knowledgeable men, and made them heads over you, leaders of thousands, leaders of hundreds, leaders of fifties,
leaders of tens, and officers for your tribes.
16 “Then I commanded your judges at that time, saying, ‘Hear the cases between your brethren, and judge righteously between a man and his brother or the stranger who is with him.
17 ‘You shall not show partiality in judgment; you shall hear the small as well as the great; you shall not be afraid in any man’s presence, for the judgment is God’s. The case that is too hard for you, bring to me, and I will hear it.’ 18 “And I commanded you at that time all the things which you should do.

Israel’s Refusal to Enter the Land

19 “So we departed from Horeb, and went through all that great and terrible wilderness which you saw on the way to the mountains of the Amorites, as the LORD our God had commanded us. Then we came to Kadesh Barnea.

20 “And I said to you, ‘You have come to the mountains of the Amorites, which the LORD our God is giving us.
21 ‘Look, the LORD your God has set the land before you; go up and possess it, as the LORD God of your fathers has spoken to you; do not fear or be discouraged.’ 22 “And every one of you came near to me and said, ‘Let us send men before us, and let them search out the land for us, and bring back word to us of the way by which we should go up, and of the cities into which we shall come.’ 23 “The plan pleased me well; so I took twelve of your men, one man from each tribe.
24 “And they departed and went up into the mountains, and came to the Valley of Eshcol, and spied it out.
25 “They also took some of the fruit of the land in their hands and brought it down to us; and they brought back word to us, saying, ‘It is a good land which the LORD our God is giving us.’
26 “Nevertheless you would not go up, but rebelled against the command of the LORD your God; 27 “and you complained in your tents, and said, ‘Because the LORD hates us, He has brought us out of the land of Egypt to deliver us into the hand of the Amorites, to destroy us.
28 ‘Where can we go up? Our brethren have discouraged our hearts, saying, “The people are greater and taller than we; the cities are great and fortified up to heaven;
moreover we have seen the sons of the Anakim there.” ’ What Happens When We Exaggerate Facts 29 “Then I said to you, ‘Do not be terrified, or afraid of
them.
30 ‘The LORD your God, who goes before you, He will fight for you, according to all He did for you in Egypt
before your eyes,

31‘and in the wilderness where you saw how the LORD your God carried you, as a man carries his son, in all the way that you went until you came to this place.’ 32“Yet, for all that, you did not believe the LORD your God,
33“who went in the way before you to search out a place for you to pitch your tents, to show you the way you should go, in the fire by night and in the cloud by day.

The Penalty for Israel’s Rebellion

34“And the LORD heard the sound of your words, and was angry, and took an oath, saying, 35‘Surely not one of these men of this evil generation shall see that good land of which I swore to give to your fathers,
36‘except Caleb the son of Jephunneh; he shall see it, and to him and his children I am giving the land on which he walked, because he wholly followed the LORD.’
37“The LORD was also angry with me for your sakes, saying, ‘Even you shall not go in there.
38‘Joshua the son of Nun, who stands before you, he shall go in there. Encourage him, for he shall cause Israel to inherit it.
39‘Moreover your little ones and your children, who you say will be victims, who today have no knowledge of good and evil, they shall go in there; to them I will give it, and they shall possess it.
40‘But as for you, turn and take your journey into the wilderness by the Way of the Red Sea.’ 41“Then you answered and said to me, ‘We have sinned against the LORD; we will go up and fight, just as the LORD our God commanded us.’ And when everyone of you had girded on his weapons of war, you were ready to go up into the mountain.

42 “And the LORD said to me, ‘Tell them, “Do not go up nor fight, for I am not among you; lest you be defeated before your enemies.”’ 43 “So I spoke to you; yet you would not listen, but rebelled against the command of the LORD, and presumptuously went up into the mountain.
44 “And the Amorites who dwelt in that mountain came out against you and chased you as bees do, and drove you back from Seir to Hormah.
45 “Then you returned and wept before the LORD, but the LORD would not listen to your voice nor give ear to you.
46 “So you remained in Kadesh many days, according to the days that you spent there.

Deuteronomy 2

The Desert Years

1 “Then we turned and journeyed into the wilderness of the Way of the Red Sea, as the LORD spoke to me, and we skirted Mount Seir for many days.
2 “And the LORD spoke to me, saying:
3 ‘You have skirted this mountain long enough; turn northward.
4 ‘And command the people, saying, “You are about to pass through the territory of your brethren, the descendants of Esau, who live in Seir; and they will be afraid of you. Therefore watch yourselves carefully.
5 “Do not meddle with them, for I will not give you any of their land, no, not so much as one footstep, because I have given Mount Seir to Esau as a possession.
6 “You shall buy food from them with money, that you may eat; and you shall also buy water from them with money, that you may drink.
7 “For the LORD your God has blessed you in all the work of your hand. He knows your trudging through this great wilderness. These forty years the LORD your God has been with you; you have lacked nothing.” ’ God Knows 8 “And when we passed beyond our brethren, the descendants of Esau who dwell in Seir, away from the road of the plain, away from Elath and Ezion Geber, we turned and passed by way of the Wilderness of Moab. Let Go of Grudges 9 “Then the LORD said to me, ‘Do not harass Moab, nor contend with them in battle, for I will not give you any of their land as a possession, because I have given Ar to the descendants of Lot as a possession.’ ”

10(The Emim had dwelt there in times past, a people as great and numerous and tall as the Anakim.
11They were also regarded as giants,[a] like the Anakim, but the Moabites call them Emim.
12The Horites formerly dwelt in Seir, but the descendants of Esau dispossessed them and destroyed them from before them, and dwelt in their place, just as Israel did to the land of their possession which the LORD gave them.) 13" 'Now rise and cross over the Valley of the Zered.' So we crossed over the Valley of the Zered.
14"And the time we took to come from Kadesh Barnea until we crossed over the Valley of the Zered was thirty-eight years, until all the generation of the men of war was consumed from the midst of the camp, just as the LORD had sworn to them.
15"For indeed the hand of the LORD was against them, to destroy them from the midst of the camp until they were consumed.
16"So it was, when all the men of war had finally perished from among the people, 17"that the LORD spoke to me, saying:
18'This day you are to cross over at Ar, the boundary of Moab.
19'And when you come near the people of Ammon, do not harass them or meddle with them, for I will not give you any of the land of the people of Ammon as a possession, because I have given it to the descendants of Lot as a possession.' "
20(That was also regarded as a land of giants;[b] giants formerly dwelt there. But the Ammonites call them Zamzummim,
21a people as great and numerous and tall as the Anakim.
But the LORD destroyed them before them, and they dispossessed them and dwelt in their place,

22 just as He had done for the descendants of Esau, who dwelt in Seir, when He destroyed the Horites from before them. They dispossessed them and dwelt in their place, even to this day.
23 And the Avim, who dwelt in villages as far as Gaza—the Caphtorim, who came from Caphtor, destroyed them and dwelt in their place.)
24 " 'Rise, take your journey, and cross over the River Arnon. Look, I have given into your hand Sihon the Amorite, king of Heshbon, and his land. Begin to possess it, and engage him in battle.
25 'This day I will begin to put the dread and fear of you upon the nations under the whole heaven, who shall hear the report of you, and shall tremble and be in anguish because of you.'

King Sihon Defeated

26 "And I sent messengers from the Wilderness of Kedemoth to Sihon king of Heshbon, with words of peace,
saying,
27 'Let me pass through your land; I will keep strictly to the road, and I will turn neither to the right nor to the left.
28 'You shall sell me food for money, that I may eat, and give me water for money, that I may drink; only let me pass through on foot, 29 'just as the descendants of Esau who dwell in Seir and the Moabites who dwell in Ar did for me, until I cross the Jordan to the land which the LORD our God is giving us.'
30 "But Sihon king of Heshbon would not let us pass through, for the LORD your God hardened his spirit and made his heart obstinate, that He might deliver him into your hand, as it is this day.
31 "And the LORD said to me, 'See, I have begun to give Sihon and his land over to you. Begin to possess it, that you may inherit his land.’ 32“Then Sihon and all his people came out against us to fight at Jahaz.

33“And the LORD our God delivered him over to us; so we defeated him, his sons, and all his people.
34“We took all his cities at that time, and we utterly destroyed the men, women, and little ones of every city; we left none remaining.
35“We took only the livestock as plunder for ourselves, with the spoil of the cities which we took.
36“From Aroer, which is on the bank of the River Arnon, and from the city that is in the ravine, as far as Gilead, there was not one city too strong for us; the LORD our God delivered all to us.
37“Only you did not go near the land of the people of Ammon—anywhere along the River Jabbok, or to the cities of the mountains, or wherever the LORD our God had forbidden us.

Deuteronomy 3

King Og Defeated

1 “Then we turned and went up the road to Bashan; and Og king of Bashan came out against us, he and all his people, to battle at Edrei.
2 “And the LORD said to me, ‘Do not fear him, for I have delivered him and all his people and his land into your hand; you shall do to him as you did to Sihon king of the Amorites, who dwelt at Heshbon.’
3 “So the LORD our God also delivered into our hands Og king of Bashan, with all his people, and we attacked him until he had no survivors remaining.
4 “And we took all his cities at that time; there was not a city which we did not take from them: sixty cities, all the region of Argob, the kingdom of Og in Bashan.
5 “All these cities were fortified with high walls, gates, and bars, besides a great many rural towns.
6 “And we utterly destroyed them, as we did to Sihon king of Heshbon, utterly destroying the men, women, and children of every city.
7 “But all the livestock and the spoil of the cities we took as booty for ourselves.
8 “And at that time we took the land from the hand of the two kings of the Amorites who were on this side of the Jordan, from the River Arnon to Mount Hermon 9 “(the Sidonians call Hermon Sirion, and the Amorites call it Senir), 10 “all the cities of the plain, all Gilead, and all Bashan, as far as Salcah and Edrei, cities of the kingdom of Og in Bashan.

11 “For only Og king of Bashan remained of the remnant of the giants.[a] Indeed his bedstead was an iron bedstead.
(Is it not in Rabbah of the people of Ammon?) Nine cubits is its length and four cubits its width, according to the standard cubit.

The Land East of the Jordan Divided

12 “And this land, which we possessed at that time, from Aroer, which is by the River Arnon, and half the mountains of Gilead and its cities, I gave to the Reubenites and the Gadites.
13 “The rest of Gilead, and all Bashan, the kingdom of Og, I gave to half the tribe of Manasseh. (All the region of Argob, with all Bashan, was called the land of the giants.[b] 14 “Jair the son of Manasseh took all the region of Argob, as far as the border of the Geshurites and the Maachathites, and called Bashan after his own name, Havoth Jair,[c] to this day.)
15 “Also I gave Gilead to Machir.
16 “And to the Reubenites and the Gadites I gave from Gilead as far as the River Arnon, the middle of the river as the border, as far as the River Jabbok, the border of the people of Ammon;
17 “the plain also, with the Jordan as the border, from Chinnereth as far as the east side of the Sea of the Arabah
(the Salt Sea), below the slopes of Pisgah.
18 “Then I commanded you at that time, saying: ‘The LORD your God has given you this land to possess. All you men of valor shall cross over armed before your brethren,
the children of Israel.
19 ‘But your wives, your little ones, and your livestock (I know that you have much livestock) shall stay in your cities which I have given you,

20 ‘until the LORD has given rest to your brethren as to you, and they also possess the land which the LORD your God is giving them beyond the Jordan. Then each of you may return to his possession which I have given you.’ 21 “And I commanded Joshua at that time, saying, ‘Your eyes have seen all that the LORD your God has done to these two kings; so will the LORD do to all the kingdoms through which you pass.
22 ‘You must not fear them, for the LORD your God Himself fights for you.’

Moses Forbidden to Enter the Land

23 “Then I pleaded with the LORD at that time, saying:
24 ‘O Lord GOD, You have begun to show Your servant
Your greatness and Your mighty hand, for what god is there in heaven or on earth who can do anything like Your works and Your mighty deeds?
25 ‘I pray, let me cross over and see the good land beyond the Jordan, those pleasant mountains, and Lebanon.’ 26 “But the LORD was angry with me on your account, and would not listen to me. So the LORD said to me:
‘Enough of that! Speak no more to Me of this matter.
27 ‘Go up to the top of Pisgah, and lift your eyes toward the west, the north, the south, and the east; behold it with your eyes, for you shall not cross over this Jordan.
28 ‘But command Joshua, and encourage him and strengthen him; for he shall go over before this people, and he shall cause them to inherit the land which you will see.’

To Have or to Hold

29 “So we stayed in the valley opposite Beth Peor.

Deuteronomy 4

Moses Commands Obedience

1 “Now, O Israel, listen to the statutes and the judgments which I teach you to observe, that you may live, and go in and possess the land which the LORD God of your fathers is giving you.
2 “You shall not add to the word which I command you, nor take from it, that you may keep the commandments of the LORD your God which I command you.
3 “Your eyes have seen what the LORD did at Baal Peor; for the LORD your God has destroyed from among you all the men who followed Baal of Peor.
4 “But you who held fast to the LORD your God are alive today, every one of you.
5 “Surely I have taught you statutes and judgments, just as the LORD my God commanded me, that you should act according to them in the land which you go to possess.

Empower, Not Overpower

6 “Therefore be careful to observe them; for this is your wisdom and your understanding in the sight of the peoples who will hear all these statutes, and say, ‘Surely this great nation is a wise and understanding people.’ 7 “For what great nation is there that has God so near to it, as the LORD our God is to us, for whatever reason we may call upon Him?
8 “And what great nation is there that has such statutes and righteous judgments as are in all this law which I set before you this day?
9 “Only take heed to yourself, and diligently keep yourself, lest you forget the things your eyes have seen, and lest they depart from your heart all the days of your life. And teach them to your children and your grandchildren,

10 “especially concerning the day you stood before the LORD your God in Horeb, when the LORD said to me, ‘Gather the people to Me, and I will let them hear My words, that they may learn to fear Me all the days they live on the earth, and that they may teach their children.’

11 “Then you came near and stood at the foot of the mountain, and the mountain burned with fire to the midst of heaven, with darkness, cloud, and thick darkness.

12 “And the LORD spoke to you out of the midst of the fire. You heard the sound of the words, but saw no form; you only heard a voice.

13 “So He declared to you His covenant which He commanded you to perform, the Ten Commandments; and He wrote them on two tablets of stone.

14 “And the LORD commanded me at that time to teach you statutes and judgments, that you might observe them in the land which you cross over to possess.

Beware of Idolatry

15 “Take careful heed to yourselves, for you saw no form when the LORD spoke to you at Horeb out of the midst of the fire,

16 “lest you act corruptly and make for yourselves a carved image in the form of any figure: the likeness of male or female,

17 “the likeness of any animal that is on the earth or the likeness of any winged bird that flies in the air,

18 “the likeness of anything that creeps on the ground or the likeness of any fish that is in the water beneath the earth.

19 “And take heed, lest you lift your eyes to heaven, and when you see the sun, the moon, and the stars, all the host of heaven, you feel driven to worship them and serve them, which the LORD your God has given to all the peoples under the whole heaven as a heritage.

20 “But the LORD has taken you and brought you out of the iron furnace, out of Egypt, to be His people, an inheritance, as you are this day.

21 “Furthermore the LORD was angry with me for your sakes, and swore that I would not cross over the Jordan, and that I would not enter the good land which the LORD your God is giving you as an inheritance.

22 “But I must die in this land, I must not cross over the Jordan; but you shall cross over and possess that good land.

23 “Take heed to yourselves, lest you forget the covenant of the LORD your God which He made with you, and make for yourselves a carved image in the form of anything which the LORD your God has forbidden you.

24 “For the LORD your God is a consuming fire, a jealous God.

25 “When you beget children and grandchildren and have grown old in the land, and act corruptly and make a carved image in the form of anything, and do evil in the sight of the LORD your God to provoke Him to anger,

26 “I call heaven and earth to witness against you this day, that you will soon utterly perish from the land which you cross over the Jordan to possess; you will not prolong your days in it, but will be utterly destroyed.

27 “And the LORD will scatter you among the peoples, and you will be left few in number among the nations where the LORD will drive you.

28 “And there you will serve gods, the work of men’s hands, wood and stone, which neither see nor hear nor eat nor smell.

29 “But from there you will seek the LORD your God, and you will find Him if you seek Him with all your heart and with all your soul.

30 “When you are in distress, and all these things come upon you in the latter days, when you turn to the LORD your God and obey His voice

31 “(for the LORD your God is a merciful God), He will not forsake you nor destroy you, nor forget the covenant of your fathers which He swore to them.

32 “For ask now concerning the days that are past, which were before you, since the day that God created man on the earth, and ask from one end of heaven to the other, whether any great thing like this has happened, or anything like it has been heard.

33 “Did any people ever hear the voice of God speaking out of the midst of the fire, as you have heard, and live?

34 “Or did God ever try to go and take for Himself a nation from the midst of another nation, by trials, by signs, by wonders, by war, by a mighty hand and an outstretched arm, and by great terrors, according to all that the LORD your God did for you in Egypt before your eyes?

35 “To you it was shown, that you might know that the LORD Himself is God; there is none other besides Him. There Is None Other

36 “Out of heaven He let you hear His voice, that He might instruct you; on earth He showed you His great fire, and you heard His words out of the midst of the fire.

37 “And because He loved your fathers, therefore He chose their descendants after them; and He brought you out of Egypt with His Presence, with His mighty power, 38 “driving out from before you nations greater and mightier than you, to bring you in, to give you their land as an inheritance, as it is this day.

39 “Therefore know this day, and consider it in your heart, that the LORD Himself is God in heaven above and on the earth beneath; there is no other.

40 “You shall therefore keep His statutes and His commandments which I command you today, that it may go well with you and with your children after you, and that you may prolong your days in the land which the LORD your God is giving you for all time.”

Cities of Refuge East of the Jordan

41 Then Moses set apart three cities on this side of the Jordan, toward the rising of the sun, The City 42 that the manslayer might flee there, who kills his neighbor unintentionally, without having hated him in time past, and that by fleeing to one of these cities he might live:
43 Bezer in the wilderness on the plateau for the Reubenites, Ramoth in Gilead for the Gadites, and Golan in Bashan for the Manassites.

Introduction to God’s Law

44 Now this is the law which Moses set before the children of Israel.
45 These are the testimonies, the statutes, and the judgments which Moses spoke to the children of Israel
after they came out of Egypt, 46 on this side of the Jordan, in the valley opposite Beth Peor, in the land of Sihon king of the Amorites, who dwelt at Heshbon, whom Moses and the children of Israel defeated after they came out of Egypt.
47 And they took possession of his land and the land of Og king of Bashan, two kings of the Amorites, who were on this side of the Jordan, toward the rising of the sun, 48 from Aroer, which is on the bank of the River Arnon, even to Mount Sion[a] (that is, Hermon), 49 and all the plain on the east side of the Jordan as far as the Sea of the Arabah, below the slopes of Pisgah.

Deuteronomy 5

The Ten Commandments Reviewed

1 And Moses called all Israel, and said to them: “Hear, O Israel, the statutes and judgments which I speak in your hearing today, that you may learn them and be careful to observe them. Staying Focused

2 “The LORD our God made a covenant with us in Horeb.

3 “The LORD did not make this covenant with our fathers, but with us, those who are here today, all of us who are alive.

4 “The LORD talked with you face to face on the mountain from the midst of the fire.

5 “I stood between the LORD and you at that time, to declare to you the word of the LORD; for you were afraid because of the fire, and you did not go up the mountain. He said:

6 ‘I am the LORD your God who brought you out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of bondage. Love God, Love
People

7 ‘You shall have no other gods before Me.

8 ‘You shall not make for yourself a carved image—any likeness of anything that is in heaven above, or that is in the earth beneath, or that is in the water under the earth;

9 you shall not bow down to them nor serve them. For I, the LORD your God, am a jealous God, visiting the iniquity of the fathers upon the children to the third and fourth generations of those who hate Me,

10 but showing mercy to thousands, to those who love Me and keep My commandments.

11 ‘You shall not take the name of the LORD your God in vain, for the LORD will not hold him guiltless who takes His name in vain.
12 ‘Observe the Sabbath day, to keep it holy, as the LORD your God commanded you. The Blessings of the Sabbath
13 Six days you shall labor and do all your work, 14 but the seventh day is the Sabbath of the LORD your God. In it you shall do no work: you, nor your son, nor your daughter, nor your male servant, nor your female servant, nor your ox, nor your donkey, nor any of your cattle, nor your stranger who is within your gates, that your male servant and your female servant may rest as well as you.
15 And remember that you were a slave in the land of Egypt, and the LORD your God brought you out from there by a mighty hand and by an outstretched arm; therefore the LORD your God commanded you to keep the Sabbath day.
16 ‘Honor your father and your mother, as the LORD your God has commanded you, that your days may be long, and that it may be well with you in the land which the LORD your God is giving you. Obey Your Parents for a Long and Prosperous Life
17 ‘You shall not murder.
18 ‘You shall not commit adultery.
19 ‘You shall not steal.
20 ‘You shall not bear false witness against your neighbor.
21 ‘You shall not covet your neighbor’s wife; and you shall not desire your neighbor’s house, his field, his male servant, his female servant, his ox, his donkey, or anything that is your neighbor’s.’

22 “These words the LORD spoke to all your assembly, in the mountain from the midst of the fire, the cloud, and the thick darkness, with a loud voice; and He added no more.

And He wrote them on two tablets of stone and gave them to me.

The People Afraid of God's Presence

23 "So it was, when you heard the voice from the midst of the darkness, while the mountain was burning with fire, that you came near to me, all the heads of your tribes and your elders.

24 "And you said: 'Surely the LORD our God has shown us His glory and His greatness, and we have heard His voice from the midst of the fire. We have seen this day that God speaks with man; yet he still lives.

25 'Now therefore, why should we die? For this great fire will consume us; if we hear the voice of the LORD our God anymore, then we shall die.

26 'For who is there of all flesh who has heard the voice of the living God speaking from the midst of the fire, as we have, and lived?

27 'You go near and hear all that the LORD our God may say, and tell us all that the LORD our God says to you, and we will hear and do it.'

28 "Then the LORD heard the voice of your words when you spoke to me, and the LORD said to me: 'I have heard the voice of the words of this people which they have spoken to you. They are right in all that they have spoken.

29 'Oh, that they had such a heart in them that they would fear Me and always keep all My commandments, that it might be well with them and with their children forever! Out of Sight, Out of Mind

30 'Go and say to them, "Return to your tents."

31 'But as for you, stand here by Me, and I will speak to you all the commandments, the statutes, and the judgments which you shall teach them, that they may observe them in the land which I am giving them to possess.'

32 “Therefore you shall be careful to do as the LORD your God has commanded you; you shall not turn aside to the right hand or to the left.
33 “You shall walk in all the ways which the LORD your God has commanded you, that you may live and that it may be well with you, and that you may prolong your days in the land which you shall possess.

Deuteronomy 6

The Greatest Commandment

1 “Now this is the commandment, and these are the statutes and judgments which the LORD your God has commanded to teach you, that you may observe them in the land which you are crossing over to possess, 2 “that you may fear the LORD your God, to keep all His statutes and His commandments which I command you, you and your son and your grandson, all the days of your life, and that your days may be prolonged.
3 “Therefore hear, O Israel, and be careful to observe it, that it may be well with you, and that you may multiply greatly as the LORD God of your fathers has promised you —‘a land flowing with milk and honey.’[a] 4 “Hear, O Israel: The LORD our God, the LORD is one![b]

Monotheism

5 “You shall love the LORD your God with all your heart, with all your soul, and with all your strength.
6 “And these words which I command you today shall be in your heart.
7 “You shall teach them diligently to your children, and shall talk of them when you sit in your house, when you walk by the way, when you lie down, and when you rise up.

The Faith of Our Children

8 “You shall bind them as a sign on your hand, and they shall be as frontlets between your eyes.
9 “You shall write them on the doorposts of your house and on your gates.

Caution Against Disobedience

10 “So it shall be, when the LORD your God brings you into the land of which He swore to your fathers, to Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, to give you large and beautiful cities which you did not build, Following God in the City 11 “houses full of all good things, which you did not fill, hewn-out wells which you did not dig, vineyards and olive trees which you did not plant—when you have eaten and are full—12 “then beware, lest you forget the LORD who brought you out of the land of Egypt, from the house of bondage.
13 “You shall fear the LORD your God and serve Him, and shall take oaths in His name.
14 “You shall not go after other gods, the gods of the peoples who are all around you 15 “(for the LORD your God is a jealous God among you), lest the anger of the LORD your God be aroused against you and destroy you from the face of the earth.
16 “You shall not tempt the LORD your God as you tempted Him in Massah.
17 “You shall diligently keep the commandments of the LORD your God, His testimonies, and His statutes which He has commanded you.
18 “And you shall do what is right and good in the sight of the LORD, that it may be well with you, and that you may go in and possess the good land of which the LORD swore to your fathers, 19 “to cast out all your enemies from before you, as the LORD has spoken.
20 “When your son asks you in time to come, saying, ‘What is the meaning of the testimonies, the statutes, and the judgments which the LORD our God has commanded
you?’
21 “then you shall say to your son: ‘We were slaves of Pharaoh in Egypt, and the LORD brought us out of Egypt

with a mighty hand;
22 ‘and the LORD showed signs and wonders before our eyes, great and severe, against Egypt, Pharaoh, and all his household.
23 ‘Then He brought us out from there, that He might bring us in, to give us the land of which He swore to our fathers.
24 ‘And the LORD commanded us to observe all these statutes, to fear the LORD our God, for our good always, that He might preserve us alive, as it is this day.
25 ‘Then it will be righteousness for us, if we are careful to observe all these commandments before the LORD our God, as He has commanded us.’

Deuteronomy 7

A Chosen People

1 “When the LORD your God brings you into the land which you go to possess, and has cast out many nations before you, the Hittites and the Girgashites and the Amorites and the Canaanites and the Perizzites and the Hivites and the Jebusites, seven nations greater and mightier than you, 2 “and when the LORD your God delivers them over to you, you shall conquer them and utterly destroy them. You shall make no covenant with them nor show mercy to them.
3 “Nor shall you make marriages with them. You shall not give your daughter to their son, nor take their daughter for your son.
4 “For they will turn your sons away from following Me, to serve other gods; so the anger of the LORD will be aroused against you and destroy you suddenly.
5 “But thus you shall deal with them: you shall destroy their altars, and break down their sacred pillars, and cut down their wooden images,[a] and burn their carved images with fire.
6 “For you are a holy people to the LORD your God; the LORD your God has chosen you to be a people for Himself, a special treasure above all the peoples on the face of the earth.
7 “The LORD did not set His love on you nor choose you because you were more in number than any other people, for you were the least of all peoples;
8 “but because the LORD loves you, and because He would keep the oath which He swore to your fathers, the LORD has brought you out with a mighty hand, and redeemed you from the house of bondage, from the hand of Pharaoh king of Egypt.

9 “Therefore know that the LORD your God, He is God, the faithful God who keeps covenant and mercy for a thousand generations with those who love Him and keep His commandments; Imitate the God of Mercy

10 “and He repays those who hate Him to their face, to destroy them. He will not be slack with him who hates Him; He will repay him to his face. Tough Love

11 “Therefore you shall keep the commandment, the statutes, and the judgments which I command you today, to observe them.

Blessings of Obedience

12 “Then it shall come to pass, because you listen to these judgments, and keep and do them, that the LORD your God will keep with you the covenant and the mercy which He swore to your fathers.

13 “And He will love you and bless you and multiply you; He will also bless the fruit of your womb and the fruit of your land, your grain and your new wine and your oil, the increase of your cattle and the offspring of your flock, in the land of which He swore to your fathers to give you.

14 “You shall be blessed above all peoples; there shall not be a male or female barren among you or among your livestock.

15 “And the LORD will take away from you all sickness, and will afflict you with none of the terrible diseases of Egypt which you have known, but will lay them on all those who hate you.

16 “Also you shall destroy all the peoples whom the LORD your God delivers over to you; your eye shall have no pity on them; nor shall you serve their gods, for that will be a snare to you.

17 “If you should say in your heart, ‘These nations are greater than I; how can I dispossess them?’— 18 “you shall not be afraid of them, but you shall remember well what the LORD your God did to Pharaoh and to all Egypt:
19 “the great trials which your eyes saw, the signs and the wonders, the mighty hand and the outstretched arm, by which the LORD your God brought you out. So shall the LORD your God do to all the peoples of whom you are afraid.
20 “Moreover the LORD your God will send the hornet among them until those who are left, who hide themselves from you, are destroyed.
21 “You shall not be terrified of them; for the LORD your God, the great and awesome God, is among you.
22 “And the LORD your God will drive out those nations before you little by little; you will be unable to destroy them at once, lest the beasts of the field become too numerous
for you.
23 “But the LORD your God will deliver them over to you, and will inflict defeat upon them until they are destroyed.
24 “And He will deliver their kings into your hand, and you will destroy their name from under heaven; no one shall be able to stand against you until you have destroyed them.
25 “You shall burn the carved images of their gods with fire; you shall not covet the silver or gold that is on them, nor take it for yourselves, lest you be snared by it; for it is an abomination to the LORD your God.
26 “Nor shall you bring an abomination into your house, lest you be doomed to destruction like it. You shall utterly detest it and utterly abhor it, for it is an accursed thing.

Deuteronomy 8

Remember the LORD Your God

1 “Every commandment which I command you today you must be careful to observe, that you may live and multiply, and go in and possess the land of which the LORD swore to your fathers.
2 “And you shall remember that the LORD your God led you all the way these forty years in the wilderness, to humble you and test you, to know what was in your heart, whether you would keep His commandments or not.
3 “So He humbled you, allowed you to hunger, and fed you with manna which you did not know nor did your fathers know, that He might make you know that man shall not live by bread alone; but man lives by every word that proceeds from the mouth of the LORD.
4 “Your garments did not wear out on you, nor did your foot swell these forty years.
5 “You should know in your heart that as a man chastens his son, so the LORD your God chastens you.
6 “Therefore you shall keep the commandments of the LORD your God, to walk in His ways and to fear Him.
7 “For the LORD your God is bringing you into a good land, a land of brooks of water, of fountains and springs, that flow out of valleys and hills;
8 “a land of wheat and barley, of vines and fig trees and pomegranates, a land of olive oil and honey; 9 “a land in which you will eat bread without scarcity, in which you will lack nothing; a land whose stones are iron and out of whose hills you can dig copper.
10 “When you have eaten and are full, then you shall bless the LORD your God for the good land which He has given

you.

11 “Beware that you do not forget the LORD your God by not keeping His commandments, His judgments, and His statutes which I command you today,

12 “lest—when you have eaten and are full, and have built beautiful houses and dwell in them;

13 “and when your herds and your flocks multiply, and your silver and your gold are multiplied, and all that you have is multiplied;

14 “when your heart is lifted up, and you forget the LORD your God who brought you out of the land of Egypt, from the house of bondage;

15 “who led you through that great and terrible wilderness, in which were fiery serpents and scorpions and thirsty land where there was no water; who brought water for you out of the flinty rock;

16 “who fed you in the wilderness with manna, which your fathers did not know, that He might humble you and that He might test you, to do you good in the end—

17 “then you say in your heart, ‘My power and the might of my hand have gained me this wealth.’

18 “And you shall remember the LORD your God, for it is
He who gives you power to get wealth, that He may establish His covenant which He swore to your fathers, as it is this day. God Gives Wealth and Treasures the Poor

19 “Then it shall be, if you by any means forget the LORD your God, and follow other gods, and serve them and worship them, I testify against you this day that you shall surely perish.

20 “As the nations which the LORD destroys before you, so you shall perish, because you would not be obedient to the voice of the LORD your God.

Deuteronomy 9

Israel's Rebellions Reviewed

1 "Hear, O Israel: You are to cross over the Jordan today, and go in to dispossess nations greater and mightier than yourself, cities great and fortified up to heaven, 2 "a people great and tall, the descendants of the Anakim, whom you know, and of whom you heard it said, 'Who can stand before the descendants of Anak?'
3 "Therefore understand today that the LORD your God is He who goes over before you as a consuming fire. He will destroy them and bring them down before you; so you shall drive them out and destroy them quickly, as the LORD has said to you.
4 "Do not think in your heart, after the LORD your God has cast them out before you, saying, 'Because of my righteousness the LORD has brought me in to possess this land'; but it is because of the wickedness of these nations that the LORD is driving them out from before you.
5 "It is not because of your righteousness or the uprightness of your heart that you go in to possess their land, but because of the wickedness of these nations that the LORD your God drives them out from before you, and that He may fulfill the word which the LORD swore to your fathers, to Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob.
6 "Therefore understand that the LORD your God is not giving you this good land to possess because of your righteousness, for you are a stiff-necked people.
7 "Remember! Do not forget how you provoked the LORD your God to wrath in the wilderness. From the day that you departed from the land of Egypt until you came to this place, you have been rebellious against the LORD.

8 “Also in Horeb you provoked the LORD to wrath, so that the LORD was angry enough with you to have destroyed
you.
9 “When I went up into the mountain to receive the tablets of stone, the tablets of the covenant which the LORD made with you, then I stayed on the mountain forty days and forty nights. I neither ate bread nor drank water.
10 “Then the LORD delivered to me two tablets of stone written with the finger of God, and on them were all the words which the LORD had spoken to you on the mountain from the midst of the fire in the day of the assembly.
11 “And it came to pass, at the end of forty days and forty nights, that the LORD gave me the two tablets of stone, the tablets of the covenant.
12 “Then the LORD said to me, ‘Arise, go down quickly from here, for your people whom you brought out of Egypt have acted corruptly; they have quickly turned aside from the way which I commanded them; they have made themselves a molded image.’
13 “Furthermore the LORD spoke to me, saying, ‘I have seen this people, and indeed they are a stiff-necked people.
14 ‘Let Me alone, that I may destroy them and blot out their name from under heaven; and I will make of you a nation mightier and greater than they.’
15 “So I turned and came down from the mountain, and the mountain burned with fire; and the two tablets of the covenant were in my two hands.
16 “And I looked, and behold, you had sinned against the LORD your God—had made for yourselves a molded calf!
You had turned aside quickly from the way which the LORD had commanded you.
17 “Then I took the two tablets and threw them out of my two hands and broke them before your eyes.

18 “And I fell down before the LORD, as at the first, forty days and forty nights; I neither ate bread nor drank water, because of all your sin which you committed in doing wickedly in the sight of the LORD, to provoke Him to anger.
19 “For I was afraid of the anger and hot displeasure with which the LORD was angry with you, to destroy you. But the LORD listened to me at that time also.
20 “And the LORD was very angry with Aaron and would have destroyed him; so I prayed for Aaron also at the same time.
21 “Then I took your sin, the calf which you had made, and burned it with fire and crushed it and ground it very small, until it was as fine as dust; and I threw its dust into the brook that descended from the mountain.
22 “Also at Taberah and Massah and Kibroth Hattaavah you provoked the LORD to wrath.
23 “Likewise, when the LORD sent you from Kadesh Barnea, saying, ‘Go up and possess the land which I have given you,’ then you rebelled against the commandment of the LORD your God, and you did not believe Him nor obey His voice.
24 “You have been rebellious against the LORD from the day that I knew you.
25 “Thus I prostrated myself before the LORD; forty days and forty nights I kept prostrating myself, because the LORD had said He would destroy you.
26 “Therefore I prayed to the LORD, and said: ‘O Lord GOD, do not destroy Your people and Your inheritance whom You have redeemed through Your greatness, whom
You have brought out of Egypt with a mighty hand.
27 ‘Remember Your servants, Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob; do not look on the stubbornness of this people, or on their wickedness or their sin,

28 ‘lest the land from which You brought us should say, “Because the LORD was not able to bring them to the land which He promised them, and because He hated them, He has brought them out to kill them in the wilderness.” 29 ‘Yet they are Your people and Your inheritance, whom You brought out by Your mighty power and by Your outstretched arm.’

Deuteronomy 10

The Second Pair of Tablets

1 “At that time the LORD said to me, ‘Hew for yourself two tablets of stone like the first, and come up to Me on the mountain and make yourself an ark of wood.
2 ‘And I will write on the tablets the words that were on the first tablets, which you broke; and you shall put them in the ark.’
3 “So I made an ark of acacia wood, hewed two tablets of stone like the first, and went up the mountain, having the two tablets in my hand.
4 “And He wrote on the tablets according to the first writing, the Ten Commandments, which the LORD had spoken to you in the mountain from the midst of the fire in the day of the assembly; and the LORD gave them to me.
5 “Then I turned and came down from the mountain, and put the tablets in the ark which I had made; and there they are, just as the LORD commanded me.” 6 (Now the children of Israel journeyed from the wells of Bene Jaakan to Moserah, where Aaron died, and where he was buried; and Eleazar his son ministered as priest in his stead.
7 From there they journeyed to Gudgodah, and from Gudgodah to Jotbathah, a land of rivers of water.
8 At that time the LORD separated the tribe of Levi to bear the ark of the covenant of the LORD, to stand before the LORD to minister to Him and to bless in His name, to this day.
9 Therefore Levi has no portion nor inheritance with his brethren; the LORD is his inheritance, just as the LORD your God promised him.)

10 “As at the first time, I stayed in the mountain forty days and forty nights; the LORD also heard me at that time, and the LORD chose not to destroy you.
11 “Then the LORD said to me, ‘Arise, begin your journey before the people, that they may go in and possess the land which I swore to their fathers to give them.’

The Essence of the Law

12 “And now, Israel, what does the LORD your God require of you, but to fear the LORD your God, to walk in all His ways and to love Him, to serve the LORD your God with all your heart and with all your soul, The Meaning of Fear 13 “and to keep the commandments of the LORD and His statutes which I command you today for your good?
14 “Indeed heaven and the highest heavens belong to the LORD your God, also the earth with all that is in it.
15 “The LORD delighted only in your fathers, to love them;
and He chose their descendants after them, you above all peoples, as it is this day.
16 “Therefore circumcise the foreskin of your heart, and be stiff-necked no longer.
17 “For the LORD your God is God of gods and Lord of lords, the great God, mighty and awesome, who shows no partiality nor takes a bribe.
18 “He administers justice for the fatherless and the widow, and loves the stranger, giving him food and clothing.
19 “Therefore love the stranger, for you were strangers in the land of Egypt.
20 “You shall fear the LORD your God; you shall serve Him, and to Him you shall hold fast, and take oaths in His name.
21 “He is your praise, and He is your God, who has done for you these great and awesome things which your eyes have seen.

22 “Your fathers went down to Egypt with seventy persons, and now the LORD your God has made you as the stars of heaven in multitude.

Deuteronomy 11

Love and Obedience Rewarded

1 “Therefore you shall love the LORD your God, and keep His charge, His statutes, His judgments, and His commandments always.
2 “Know today that I do not speak with your children, who have not known and who have not seen the chastening of the LORD your God, His greatness and His mighty hand and His outstretched arm—
3 “His signs and His acts which He did in the midst of Egypt, to Pharaoh king of Egypt, and to all his land; 4 “what He did to the army of Egypt, to their horses and their chariots: how He made the waters of the Red Sea overflow them as they pursued you, and how the LORD has destroyed them to this day;
5 “what He did for you in the wilderness until you came to this place;
6 “and what He did to Dathan and Abiram the sons of Eliab, the son of Reuben: how the earth opened its mouth and swallowed them up, their households, their tents, and all the substance that was in their possession, in the midst of all Israel—
7 “but your eyes have seen every great act of the LORD which He did.
8 “Therefore you shall keep every commandment which I command you today, that you may be strong, and go in and possess the land which you cross over to possess, 9 “and that you may prolong your days in the land which the LORD swore to give your fathers, to them and their descendants, ‘a land flowing with milk and honey.’[a]

10 “For the land which you go to possess is not like the land of Egypt from which you have come, where you sowed your seed and watered it by foot, as a vegetable garden; 11 “but the land which you cross over to possess is a land of hills and valleys, which drinks water from the rain of heaven,
12 “a land for which the LORD your God cares; the eyes of the LORD your God are always on it, from the beginning of the year to the very end of the year.
13 ‘And it shall be that if you earnestly obey My commandments which I command you today, to love the LORD your God and serve Him with all your heart and with all your soul, National Prosperity 14 ‘then I[b] will give you the rain for your land in its season, the early rain and the latter rain, that you may gather in your grain, your new wine, and your oil.
15 ‘And I will send grass in your fields for your livestock, that you may eat and be filled.’
16 Take heed to yourselves, lest your heart be deceived, and you turn aside and serve other gods and worship them, 17 “lest the LORD’s anger be aroused against you, and He shut up the heavens so that there be no rain, and the land yield no produce, and you perish quickly from the good land which the LORD is giving you.
18 “Therefore you shall lay up these words of mine in your heart and in your soul, and bind them as a sign on your hand, and they shall be as frontlets between your eyes.
19 “You shall teach them to your children, speaking of them when you sit in your house, when you walk by the way, when you lie down, and when you rise up. At Home with the Faith 20 “And you shall write them on the doorposts of your house and on your gates,

21 “that your days and the days of your children may be multiplied in the land of which the LORD swore to your fathers to give them, like the days of the heavens above the earth.
22 “For if you carefully keep all these commandments which I command you to do—to love the LORD your God, to walk in all His ways, and to hold fast to Him—23 “then the LORD will drive out all these nations from before you, and you will dispossess greater and mightier nations than yourselves.
24 “Every place on which the sole of your foot treads shall be yours: from the wilderness and Lebanon, from the river, the River Euphrates, even to the Western Sea,[c] shall be your territory.
25 “No man shall be able to stand against you; the LORD your God will put the dread of you and the fear of you upon all the land where you tread, just as He has said to you.
26 “Behold, I set before you today a blessing and a curse:
27 “the blessing, if you obey the commandments of the LORD your God which I command you today;
28 “and the curse, if you do not obey the commandments of the LORD your God, but turn aside from the way which I command you today, to go after other gods which you have not known.
29 “Now it shall be, when the LORD your God has brought you into the land which you go to possess, that you shall put the blessing on Mount Gerizim and the curse on Mount Ebal.
30 “Are they not on the other side of the Jordan, toward the setting sun, in the land of the Canaanites who dwell in the plain opposite Gilgal, beside the terebinth trees of Moreh?
31 “For you will cross over the Jordan and go in to possess the land which the LORD your God is giving you, and you will possess it and dwell in it.

32 “And you shall be careful to observe all the statutes and judgments which I set before you today.

Deuteronomy 12

A Prescribed Place of Worship

1 “These are the statutes and judgments which you shall be careful to observe in the land which the LORD God of your fathers is giving you to possess, all the days that you live on the earth.
2 “You shall utterly destroy all the places where the nations which you shall dispossess served their gods, on the high mountains and on the hills and under every green tree.
3 “And you shall destroy their altars, break their sacred pillars, and burn their wooden images with fire; you shall cut down the carved images of their gods and destroy their names from that place.
4 “You shall not worship the LORD your God with such things.
5 “But you shall seek the place where the LORD your God chooses, out of all your tribes, to put His name for His dwelling place; and there you shall go.
6 “There you shall take your burnt offerings, your sacrifices, your tithes, the heave offerings of your hand, your vowed offerings, your freewill offerings, and the firstborn of your herds and flocks.
7 “And there you shall eat before the LORD your God, and you shall rejoice in all to which you have put your hand, you and your households, in which the LORD your God has blessed you.
8 “You shall not at all do as we are doing here today—
every man doing whatever is right in his own eyes— Do-It-Yourself Religion

9 “for as yet you have not come to the rest and the inheritance which the LORD your God is giving you.
10 “But when you cross over the Jordan and dwell in the land which the LORD your God is giving you to inherit, and He gives you rest from all your enemies round about, so that you dwell in safety, 11 “then there will be the place where the LORD your God chooses to make His name abide. There you shall bring all that I command you: your burnt offerings, your sacrifices, your tithes, the heave offerings of your hand, and all your choice offerings which you vow to the LORD.
12 “And you shall rejoice before the LORD your God, you and your sons and your daughters, your male and female servants, and the Levite who is within your gates, since he has no portion nor inheritance with you.
13 “Take heed to yourself that you do not offer your burnt offerings in every place that you see; 14 “but in the place which the LORD chooses, in one of your tribes, there you shall offer your burnt offerings, and there you shall do all that I command you.
15 “However, you may slaughter and eat meat within all your gates, whatever your heart desires, according to the blessing of the LORD your God which He has given you; the unclean and the clean may eat of it, of the gazelle and the deer alike.
16 “Only you shall not eat the blood; you shall pour it on the earth like water.
17 “You may not eat within your gates the tithe of your grain or your new wine or your oil, of the firstborn of your herd or your flock, of any of your offerings which you vow, of your freewill offerings, or of the heave offering of your
hand.
18 “But you must eat them before the LORD your God in the place which the LORD your God chooses, you and your son and your daughter, your male servant and your female servant, and the Levite who is within your gates; and you shall rejoice before the LORD your God in all to which you put your hands.

19 "Take heed to yourself that you do not forsake the Levite as long as you live in your land.

20 "When the LORD your God enlarges your border as He has promised you, and you say, 'Let me eat meat,' because you long to eat meat, you may eat as much meat as your heart desires.

21 "If the place where the LORD your God chooses to put His name is too far from you, then you may slaughter from your herd and from your flock which the LORD has given you, just as I have commanded you, and you may eat within your gates as much as your heart desires.

22 "Just as the gazelle and the deer are eaten, so you may eat them; the unclean and the clean alike may eat them.

23 "Only be sure that you do not eat the blood, for the blood is the life; you may not eat the life with the meat.

24 "You shall not eat it; you shall pour it on the earth like water.

25 "You shall not eat it, that it may go well with you and your children after you, when you do what is right in the sight of the LORD.

26 "Only the holy things which you have, and your vowed offerings, you shall take and go to the place which the LORD chooses.

27 "And you shall offer your burnt offerings, the meat and the blood, on the altar of the LORD your God; and the blood of your sacrifices shall be poured out on the altar of the LORD your God, and you shall eat the meat.

28 "Observe and obey all these words which I command you, that it may go well with you and your children after you forever, when you do what is good and right in the sight of the LORD your God.

Beware of False Gods

29 “When the LORD your God cuts off from before you the nations which you go to dispossess, and you displace them and dwell in their land,

30 “take heed to yourself that you are not ensnared to follow them, after they are destroyed from before you, and that you do not inquire after their gods, saying, ‘How did these nations serve their gods? I also will do likewise.’

31 “You shall not worship the LORD your God in that way; for every abomination to the LORD which He hates they have done to their gods; for they burn even their sons and daughters in the fire to their gods.

32 “Whatever I command you, be careful to observe it; you shall not add to it nor take away from it.

Deuteronomy 13

Punishment of Apostates

1 “If there arises among you a prophet or a dreamer of dreams, and he gives you a sign or a wonder, 2 “and the sign or the wonder comes to pass, of which he spoke to you, saying, ‘Let us go after other gods’—which you have not known—‘and let us serve them,’ 3 “you shall not listen to the words of that prophet or that dreamer of dreams, for the LORD your God is testing you to know whether you love the LORD your God with all your heart and with all your soul.
4 “You shall walk after the LORD your God and fear Him, and keep His commandments and obey His voice; you shall serve Him and hold fast to Him.
5 “But that prophet or that dreamer of dreams shall be put to death, because he has spoken in order to turn you away from the LORD your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt and redeemed you from the house of bondage, to entice you from the way in which the LORD your God commanded you to walk. So you shall put away the evil from your midst.
6 “If your brother, the son of your mother, your son or your daughter, the wife of your bosom, or your friend who is as your own soul, secretly entices you, saying, ‘Let us go and serve other gods,’ which you have not known, neither you nor your fathers, 7 “of the gods of the people which are all around you, near to you or far off from you, from one end of the earth to the other end of the earth, 8 “you shall not consent to him or listen to him, nor shall your eye pity him, nor shall you spare him or conceal him;

9 “but you shall surely kill him; your hand shall be first against him to put him to death, and afterward the hand of all the people.
10 “And you shall stone him with stones until he dies, because he sought to entice you away from the LORD your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt, from the house of bondage.
11 “So all Israel shall hear and fear, and not again do such wickedness as this among you.
12 “If you hear someone in one of your cities, which the LORD your God gives you to dwell in, saying, 13 ‘Corrupt men have gone out from among you and enticed the inhabitants of their city, saying, “Let us go and serve other gods” ’—which you have not known—14 “then you shall inquire, search out, and ask diligently.
And if it is indeed true and certain that such an abomination was committed among you, 15 “you shall surely strike the inhabitants of that city with the edge of the sword, utterly destroying it, all that is in it and its livestock—with the edge of the sword.
16 “And you shall gather all its plunder into the middle of the street, and completely burn with fire the city and all its plunder, for the LORD your God. It shall be a heap forever;
it shall not be built again.
17 “So none of the accursed things shall remain in your hand, that the LORD may turn from the fierceness of His anger and show you mercy, have compassion on you and multiply you, just as He swore to your fathers, 18 “because you have listened to the voice of the LORD your God, to keep all His commandments which I command you today, to do what is right in the eyes of the LORD your God.

Deuteronomy 14

Improper Mourning

1 “You are the children of the LORD your God; you shall not cut yourselves nor shave the front of your head for the dead.
2 “For you are a holy people to the LORD your God, and the LORD has chosen you to be a people for Himself, a special treasure above all the peoples who are on the face of the earth.

Clean and Unclean Meat

3 “You shall not eat any detestable thing.
4 “These are the animals which you may eat: the ox, the sheep, the goat,
5 “the deer, the gazelle, the roe deer, the wild goat, the mountain goat,[a] the antelope, and the mountain sheep.
6 “And you may eat every animal with cloven hooves, having the hoof split into two parts, and that chews the cud, among the animals.
7 “Nevertheless, of those that chew the cud or have cloven hooves, you shall not eat, such as these: the camel, the hare, and the rock hyrax; for they chew the cud but do not have cloven hooves; they are unclean for you.
8 “Also the swine is unclean for you, because it has cloven hooves, yet does not chew the cud; you shall not eat their flesh or touch their dead carcasses.
9 “These you may eat of all that are in the waters: you may eat all that have fins and scales.
10 “And whatever does not have fins and scales you shall not eat; it is unclean for you.
11 “All clean birds you may eat.

12 “But these you shall not eat: the eagle, the vulture, the buzzard,
13 “the red kite, the falcon, and the kite after their kinds;
14 “every raven after its kind;
15 “the ostrich, the short-eared owl, the sea gull, and the hawk after their kinds;
16 “the little owl, the screech owl, the white owl,
17 “the jackdaw, the carrion vulture, the fisher owl, 18 “the stork, the heron after its kind, and the hoopoe and the bat.
19 “Also every creeping thing that flies is unclean for you;
they shall not be eaten.
20 “You may eat all clean birds.
21 “You shall not eat anything that dies of itself; you may give it to the alien who is within your gates, that he may eat it, or you may sell it to a foreigner; for you are a holy people to the LORD your God. You shall not boil a young goat in its mother’s milk.

Tithing Principles

22 “You shall truly tithe all the increase of your grain that the field produces year by year. Celebrating Abundance 23 “And you shall eat before the LORD your God, in the place where He chooses to make His name abide, the tithe of your grain and your new wine and your oil, of the firstborn of your herds and your flocks, that you may learn to fear the LORD your God always.
24 “But if the journey is too long for you, so that you are not able to carry the tithe, or if the place where the LORD your God chooses to put His name is too far from you, when the LORD your God has blessed you, 25 “then you shall exchange it for money, take the money in your hand, and go to the place which the LORD your God chooses.

26 “And you shall spend that money for whatever your heart desires: for oxen or sheep, for wine or similar drink, for whatever your heart desires; you shall eat there before the LORD your God, and you shall rejoice, you and your household.

27 “You shall not forsake the Levite who is within your gates, for he has no part nor inheritance with you.

28 “At the end of every third year you shall bring out the tithe of your produce of that year and store it up within your gates. The Third-Year Tithe and Government Aid 29 “And the Levite, because he has no portion nor inheritance with you, and the stranger and the fatherless and the widow who are within your gates, may come and eat and be satisfied, that the LORD your God may bless you in all the work of your hand which you do.

Deuteronomy 15

Debts Canceled Every Seven Years

1 “At the end of every seven years you shall grant a release of debts.
2 “And this is the form of the release: Every creditor who has lent anything to his neighbor shall release it; he shall not require it of his neighbor or his brother, because it is called the LORD’s release. Banking in the Old Testament
3 “Of a foreigner you may require it; but you shall give up your claim to what is owed by your brother, 4 “except when there may be no poor among you; for the LORD will greatly bless you in the land which the LORD your God is giving you to possess as an inheritance—5 “only if you carefully obey the voice of the LORD your God, to observe with care all these commandments which I command you today.
6 “For the LORD your God will bless you just as He promised you; you shall lend to many nations, but you shall not borrow; you shall reign over many nations, but they shall not reign over you.

Generosity to the Poor

7 “If there is among you a poor man of your brethren, within any of the gates in your land which the LORD your God is giving you, you shall not harden your heart nor shut your hand from your poor brother, 8 “but you shall open your hand wide to him and willingly lend him sufficient for his need, whatever he needs.
9 “Beware lest there be a wicked thought in your heart, saying, ‘The seventh year, the year of release, is at hand,’ and your eye be evil against your poor brother and you give him nothing, and he cry out to the LORD against you, and it become sin among you.

10 “You shall surely give to him, and your heart should not be grieved when you give to him, because for this thing the LORD your God will bless you in all your works and in all to which you put your hand.

11 “For the poor will never cease from the land; therefore I command you, saying, ‘You shall open your hand wide to your brother, to your poor and your needy, in your land.’

The Law Concerning Bondservants

12 “If your brother, a Hebrew man, or a Hebrew woman, is sold to you and serves you six years, then in the seventh year you shall let him go free from you.

13 “And when you send him away free from you, you shall not let him go away empty-handed;

14 “you shall supply him liberally from your flock, from your threshing floor, and from your winepress. From what the LORD has blessed you with, you shall give to him.

15 “You shall remember that you were a slave in the land of Egypt, and the LORD your God redeemed you; therefore I command you this thing today. Remember Where You Started

16 “And if it happens that he says to you, ‘I will not go away from you,’ because he loves you and your house, since he prospers with you,

17 “then you shall take an awl and thrust it through his ear to the door, and he shall be your servant forever. Also to your female servant you shall do likewise.

18 “It shall not seem hard to you when you send him away free from you; for he has been worth a double hired servant in serving you six years. Then the LORD your God will bless you in all that you do.

The Law Concerning Firstborn Animals

19 “All the firstborn males that come from your herd and your flock you shall sanctify to the LORD your God; you shall do no work with the firstborn of your herd, nor shear the firstborn of your flock.
20 “You and your household shall eat it before the LORD your God year by year in the place which the LORD chooses.
21 “But if there is a defect in it, if it is lame or blind or has any serious defect, you shall not sacrifice it to the LORD your God.
22 “You may eat it within your gates; the unclean and the clean person alike may eat it, as if it were a gazelle or a deer.
23 “Only you shall not eat its blood; you shall pour it on the ground like water.

Deuteronomy 16

The Passover Reviewed

1 “Observe the month of Abib, and keep the Passover to the LORD your God, for in the month of Abib the LORD your God brought you out of Egypt by night.
2 “Therefore you shall sacrifice the Passover to the LORD your God, from the flock and the herd, in the place where the LORD chooses to put His name.
3 “You shall eat no leavened bread with it; seven days you shall eat unleavened bread with it, that is, the bread of affliction (for you came out of the land of Egypt in haste), that you may remember the day in which you came out of the land of Egypt all the days of your life.
4 “And no leaven shall be seen among you in all your territory for seven days, nor shall any of the meat which you sacrifice the first day at twilight remain overnight until morning.
5 “You may not sacrifice the Passover within any of your gates which the LORD your God gives you; 6 “but at the place where the LORD your God chooses to make His name abide, there you shall sacrifice the Passover at twilight, at the going down of the sun, at the time you came out of Egypt.
7 “And you shall roast and eat it in the place which the LORD your God chooses, and in the morning you shall turn and go to your tents.
8 “Six days you shall eat unleavened bread, and on the seventh day there shall be a sacred assembly to the LORD your God. You shall do no work on it.

The Feast of Weeks Reviewed

9 “You shall count seven weeks for yourself; begin to count the seven weeks from the time you begin to put the sickle to the grain.
10 “Then you shall keep the Feast of Weeks to the LORD your God with the tribute of a freewill offering from your hand, which you shall give as the LORD your God blesses
you.
11 “You shall rejoice before the LORD your God, you and your son and your daughter, your male servant and your female servant, the Levite who is within your gates, the stranger and the fatherless and the widow who are among you, at the place where the LORD your God chooses to make His name abide.
12 “And you shall remember that you were a slave in Egypt, and you shall be careful to observe these statutes.

The Feast of Tabernacles Reviewed

13 “You shall observe the Feast of Tabernacles seven days, when you have gathered from your threshing floor and from your winepress.
14 “And you shall rejoice in your feast, you and your son and your daughter, your male servant and your female servant and the Levite, the stranger and the fatherless and the widow, who are within your gates.
15 “Seven days you shall keep a sacred feast to the LORD your God in the place which the LORD chooses, because the LORD your God will bless you in all your produce and in all the work of your hands, so that you surely rejoice.
16 “Three times a year all your males shall appear before the LORD your God in the place which He chooses: at the Feast of Unleavened Bread, at the Feast of Weeks, and at the Feast of Tabernacles; and they shall not appear before the LORD empty-handed.

17 “Every man shall give as he is able, according to the blessing of the LORD your God which He has given you.

Justice Must Be Administered

18 “You shall appoint judges and officers in all your gates, which the LORD your God gives you, according to your tribes, and they shall judge the people with just judgment.
19 “You shall not pervert justice; you shall not show partiality, nor take a bribe, for a bribe blinds the eyes of the wise and twists the words of the righteous.
20 “You shall follow what is altogether just, that you may live and inherit the land which the LORD your God is giving
you.
21 “You shall not plant for yourself any tree, as a wooden image, near the altar which you build for yourself to the LORD your God.
22 “You shall not set up a sacred pillar, which the LORD your God hates.

Deuteronomy 17

1 “You shall not sacrifice to the LORD your God a bull or sheep which has any blemish or defect, for that is an abomination to the LORD your God.
2 “If there is found among you, within any of your gates which the LORD your God gives you, a man or a woman who has been wicked in the sight of the LORD your God, in transgressing His covenant, 3 “who has gone and served other gods and worshiped them, either the sun or moon or any of the host of heaven, which I have not commanded, 4 “and it is told you, and you hear of it, then you shall inquire diligently. And if it is indeed true and certain that such an abomination has been committed in Israel, 5 “then you shall bring out to your gates that man or woman who has committed that wicked thing, and shall stone to death that man or woman with stones.
6 “Whoever is deserving of death shall be put to death on the testimony of two or three witnesses; he shall not be put to death on the testimony of one witness.
7 “The hands of the witnesses shall be the first against him to put him to death, and afterward the hands of all the people. So you shall put away the evil from among you.

Casting the First Stone

8 “If a matter arises which is too hard for you to judge, between degrees of guilt for bloodshed, between one judgment or another, or between one punishment or another, matters of controversy within your gates, then you shall arise and go up to the place which the LORD your God chooses.
9 “And you shall come to the priests, the Levites, and to the judge there in those days, and inquire of them; they shall pronounce upon you the sentence of judgment.

10 “You shall do according to the sentence which they pronounce upon you in that place which the LORD chooses.
And you shall be careful to do according to all that they order you.
11 “According to the sentence of the law in which they instruct you, according to the judgment which they tell you, you shall do; you shall not turn aside to the right hand or to the left from the sentence which they pronounce upon you.
12 “Now the man who acts presumptuously and will not heed the priest who stands to minister there before the LORD your God, or the judge, that man shall die. So you shall put away the evil from Israel.
13 “And all the people shall hear and fear, and no longer act presumptuously.

Principles Governing Kings

14 “When you come to the land which the LORD your God is giving you, and possess it and dwell in it, and say, ‘I will set a king over me like all the nations that are around me,’

Criteria for a King

15 “you shall surely set a king over you whom the LORD your God chooses; one from among your brethren you shall set as king over you; you may not set a foreigner over you, who is not your brother.
16 “But he shall not multiply horses for himself, nor cause the people to return to Egypt to multiply horses, for the LORD has said to you, ‘You shall not return that way again.’ 17 “Neither shall he multiply wives for himself, lest his heart turn away; nor shall he greatly multiply silver and gold for himself.
18 “Also it shall be, when he sits on the throne of his kingdom, that he shall write for himself a copy of this law in a book, from the one before the priests, the Levites.

19 “And it shall be with him, and he shall read it all the days of his life, that he may learn to fear the LORD his God and be careful to observe all the words of this law and these statutes, 20 “that his heart may not be lifted above his brethren, that he may not turn aside from the commandment to the right hand or to the left, and that he may prolong his days in his kingdom, he and his children in the midst of Israel.

Deuteronomy 18

The Portion of the Priests and Levites

1 “The priests, the Levites—all the tribe of Levi—shall have no part nor inheritance with Israel; they shall eat the offerings of the LORD made by fire, and His portion.
2 “Therefore they shall have no inheritance among their brethren; the LORD is their inheritance, as He said to
them.
3 “And this shall be the priest’s due from the people, from those who offer a sacrifice, whether it is bull or sheep: they shall give to the priest the shoulder, the cheeks, and the stomach. A Position of Honor 4 “The firstfruits of your grain and your new wine and your oil, and the first of the fleece of your sheep, you shall give him.
5 “For the LORD your God has chosen him out of all your tribes to stand to minister in the name of the LORD, him and his sons forever.
6 “So if a Levite comes from any of your gates, from where he dwells among all Israel, and comes with all the desire of his mind to the place which the LORD chooses, 7 “then he may serve in the name of the LORD his God as all his brethren the Levites do, who stand there before the LORD.
8 “They shall have equal portions to eat, besides what comes from the sale of his inheritance.

Avoid Wicked Customs

9 “When you come into the land which the LORD your God is giving you, you shall not learn to follow the abominations of those nations. The Seduction of Spirits

10 “There shall not be found among you anyone who makes his son or his daughter pass through the fire, or one who practices witchcraft, or a soothsayer, or one who interprets omens, or a sorcerer, 11 “or one who conjures spells, or a medium, or a spiritist, or one who calls up the dead.
12 “For all who do these things are an abomination to the LORD, and because of these abominations the LORD your God drives them out from before you.
13 “You shall be blameless before the LORD your God.
14 “For these nations which you will dispossess listened to soothsayers and diviners; but as for you, the LORD your God has not appointed such for you.

A New Prophet Like Moses

15 “The LORD your God will raise up for you a Prophet like me from your midst, from your brethren. Him you shall hear,
16 “according to all you desired of the LORD your God in Horeb in the day of the assembly, saying, ‘Let me not hear again the voice of the LORD my God, nor let me see this great fire anymore, lest I die.’ 17 “And the LORD said to me: ‘What they have spoken is good.
18 ‘I will raise up for them a Prophet like you from among their brethren, and will put My words in His mouth, and He shall speak to them all that I command Him.
19 ‘And it shall be that whoever will not hear My words, which He speaks in My name, I will require it of him.
20 ‘But the prophet who presumes to speak a word in My name, which I have not commanded him to speak, or who speaks in the name of other gods, that prophet shall die.’ 21 “And if you say in your heart, ‘How shall we know the word which the LORD has not spoken?’—

22 “when a prophet speaks in the name of the LORD, if the thing does not happen or come to pass, that is the thing which the LORD has not spoken; the prophet has spoken it presumptuously; you shall not be afraid of him.

Deuteronomy 19

Three Cities of Refuge

1 “When the LORD your God has cut off the nations whose land the LORD your God is giving you, and you dispossess them and dwell in their cities and in their houses, 2 “you shall separate three cities for yourself in the midst of your land which the LORD your God is giving you to possess.
3 “You shall prepare roads for yourself, and divide into three parts the territory of your land which the LORD your God is giving you to inherit, that any manslayer may flee
there.
4 “And this is the case of the manslayer who flees there, that he may live: Whoever kills his neighbor unintentionally, not having hated him in time past—5 “as when a man goes to the woods with his neighbor to cut timber, and his hand swings a stroke with the ax to cut down the tree, and the head slips from the handle and strikes his neighbor so that he dies—he shall flee to one of these cities and live;
6 “lest the avenger of blood, while his anger is hot, pursue the manslayer and overtake him, because the way is long, and kill him, though he was not deserving of death, since he had not hated the victim in time past.
7 “Therefore I command you, saying, ‘You shall separate three cities for yourself.’
8 “Now if the LORD your God enlarges your territory, as He swore to your fathers, and gives you the land which He promised to give to your fathers, 9 “and if you keep all these commandments and do them, which I command you today, to love the LORD your God and to walk always in His ways, then you shall add three more cities for yourself besides these three,

10 “lest innocent blood be shed in the midst of your land which the LORD your God is giving you as an inheritance, and thus guilt of bloodshed be upon you.

11 “But if anyone hates his neighbor, lies in wait for him, rises against him and strikes him mortally, so that he dies, and he flees to one of these cities,

12 “then the elders of his city shall send and bring him from there, and deliver him over to the hand of the avenger of blood, that he may die.

13 “Your eye shall not pity him, but you shall put away the guilt of innocent blood from Israel, that it may go well with you.

Property Boundaries

14 “You shall not remove your neighbor’s landmark, which the men of old have set, in your inheritance which you will inherit in the land that the LORD your God is giving you to possess.

The Law Concerning Witnesses

15 “One witness shall not rise against a man concerning any iniquity or any sin that he commits; by the mouth of two or three witnesses the matter shall be established.

16 “If a false witness rises against any man to testify against him of wrongdoing, 17 “then both men in the controversy shall stand before the LORD, before the priests and the judges who serve in those days.

18 “And the judges shall make careful inquiry, and indeed, if the witness is a false witness, who has testified falsely against his brother,

19 “then you shall do to him as he thought to have done to his brother; so you shall put away the evil from among you.
20 “And those who remain shall hear and fear, and hereafter they shall not again commit such evil among you.
21 “Your eye shall not pity: life shall be for life, eye for eye, tooth for tooth, hand for hand, foot for foot.

Deuteronomy 20

Principles Governing Warfare

1 “When you go out to battle against your enemies, and see horses and chariots and people more numerous than you, do not be afraid of them; for the LORD your God is with you, who brought you up from the land of Egypt.
2 “So it shall be, when you are on the verge of battle, that the priest shall approach and speak to the people.
3 “And he shall say to them, ‘Hear, O Israel: Today you are on the verge of battle with your enemies. Do not let your heart faint, do not be afraid, and do not tremble or be terrified because of them;
4 ‘for the LORD your God is He who goes with you, to fight for you against your enemies, to save you.’
5 “Then the officers shall speak to the people, saying:
‘What man is there who has built a new house and has not dedicated it? Let him go and return to his house, lest he die in the battle and another man dedicate it.
6 ‘Also what man is there who has planted a vineyard and has not eaten of it? Let him go and return to his house, lest he die in the battle and another man eat of it.
7 ‘And what man is there who is betrothed to a woman and has not married her? Let him go and return to his house, lest he die in the battle and another man marry her.’
8 “The officers shall speak further to the people, and say, ‘What man is there who is fearful and fainthearted? Let him go and return to his house, lest the heart of his brethren faint[a] like his heart.’
9 “And so it shall be, when the officers have finished speaking to the people, that they shall make captains of the armies to lead the people.

10 “When you go near a city to fight against it, then proclaim an offer of peace to it.
11 “And it shall be that if they accept your offer of peace, and open to you, then all the people who are found in it shall be placed under tribute to you, and serve you.
12 “Now if the city will not make peace with you, but war against you, then you shall besiege it. The Rules of War 13 “And when the LORD your God delivers it into your hands, you shall strike every male in it with the edge of the sword.
14 “But the women, the little ones, the livestock, and all that is in the city, all its spoil, you shall plunder for yourself; and you shall eat the enemies’ plunder which the LORD your God gives you.
15 “Thus you shall do to all the cities which are very far from you, which are not of the cities of these nations.
16 “But of the cities of these peoples which the LORD your God gives you as an inheritance, you shall let nothing that breathes remain alive, Holy War 17 “but you shall utterly destroy them: the Hittite and the Amorite and the Canaanite and the Perizzite and the Hivite and the Jebusite, just as the LORD your God has commanded you,
18 “lest they teach you to do according to all their abominations which they have done for their gods, and you sin against the LORD your God.
19 “When you besiege a city for a long time, while making war against it to take it, you shall not destroy its trees by wielding an ax against them; if you can eat of them, do not cut them down to use in the siege, for the tree of the field is man’s food.
20 “Only the trees which you know are not trees for food you may destroy and cut down, to build siegeworks against the city that makes war with you, until it is subdued.

Deuteronomy 21

The Law Concerning Unsolved Murder

1 “If anyone is found slain, lying in the field in the land which the LORD your God is giving you to possess, and it is not known who killed him, 2 “then your elders and your judges shall go out and measure the distance from the slain man to the surrounding cities.
3 “And it shall be that the elders of the city nearest to the slain man will take a heifer which has not been worked and which has not pulled with a yoke.
4 “The elders of that city shall bring the heifer down to a valley with flowing water, which is neither plowed nor sown, and they shall break the heifer’s neck there in the valley.
5 “Then the priests, the sons of Levi, shall come near, for the LORD your God has chosen them to minister to Him and to bless in the name of the LORD; by their word every controversy and every assault shall be settled.
6 “And all the elders of that city nearest to the slain man shall wash their hands over the heifer whose neck was broken in the valley.
7 “Then they shall answer and say, ‘Our hands have not shed this blood, nor have our eyes seen it.
8 ‘Provide atonement, O LORD, for Your people Israel, whom You have redeemed, and do not lay innocent blood to the charge of Your people Israel.’ And atonement shall be provided on their behalf for the blood.
9 “So you shall put away the guilt of innocent blood from among you when you do what is right in the sight of the LORD.

Female Captives

10 “When you go out to war against your enemies, and the LORD your God delivers them into your hand, and you take them captive,
11 “and you see among the captives a beautiful woman,
and desire her and would take her for your wife, 12 “then you shall bring her home to your house, and she shall shave her head and trim her nails.
13 “She shall put off the clothes of her captivity, remain in your house, and mourn her father and her mother a full month; after that you may go in to her and be her husband, and she shall be your wife.
14 “And it shall be, if you have no delight in her, then you shall set her free, but you certainly shall not sell her for money; you shall not treat her brutally, because you have humbled her.

Firstborn Inheritance Rights

15 “If a man has two wives, one loved and the other unloved, and they have borne him children, both the loved and the unloved, and if the firstborn son is of her who is unloved, 16 “then it shall be, on the day he bequeaths his possessions to his sons, that he must not bestow firstborn status on the son of the loved wife in preference to the son of the unloved, the true firstborn.
17 “But he shall acknowledge the son of the unloved wife as the firstborn by giving him a double portion of all that he has, for he is the beginning of his strength; the right of the firstborn is his.

The Rebellious Son

18 “If a man has a stubborn and rebellious son who will not obey the voice of his father or the voice of his mother, and who, when they have chastened him, will not heed them, Juvenile Delinquents
19 “then his father and his mother shall take hold of him and bring him out to the elders of his city, to the gate of his city.
20 “And they shall say to the elders of his city, ‘This son of ours is stubborn and rebellious; he will not obey our voice;
he is a glutton and a drunkard.’
21 “Then all the men of his city shall stone him to death with stones; so you shall put away the evil from among you, and all Israel shall hear and fear.

Miscellaneous Laws

22 “If a man has committed a sin deserving of death, and he is put to death, and you hang him on a tree, 23 “his body shall not remain overnight on the tree, but you shall surely bury him that day, so that you do not defile the land which the LORD your God is giving you as an inheritance; for he who is hanged is accursed of God.

Deuteronomy 22

1 “You shall not see your brother’s ox or his sheep going astray, and hide yourself from them; you shall certainly bring them back to your brother.
2 “And if your brother is not near you, or if you do not know him, then you shall bring it to your own house, and it shall remain with you until your brother seeks it; then you shall restore it to him.
3 “You shall do the same with his donkey, and so shall you do with his garment; with any lost thing of your brother’s, which he has lost and you have found, you shall do likewise; you must not hide yourself.
4 “You shall not see your brother’s donkey or his ox fall down along the road, and hide yourself from them; you shall surely help him lift them up again.
5 “A woman shall not wear anything that pertains to a man, nor shall a man put on a woman’s garment, for all who do so are an abomination to the LORD your God.
6 “If a bird’s nest happens to be before you along the way, in any tree or on the ground, with young ones or eggs, with the mother sitting on the young or on the eggs, you shall not take the mother with the young;
7 “you shall surely let the mother go, and take the young for yourself, that it may be well with you and that you may prolong your days.
8 “When you build a new house, then you shall make a parapet for your roof, that you may not bring guilt of bloodshed on your household if anyone falls from it.
9 “You shall not sow your vineyard with different kinds of seed, lest the yield of the seed which you have sown and the fruit of your vineyard be defiled.

10 “You shall not plow with an ox and a donkey together.

11 “You shall not wear a garment of different sorts, such as wool and linen mixed together.

12 “You shall make tassels on the four corners of the clothing with which you cover yourself.

Laws of Sexual Morality

13 “If any man takes a wife, and goes in to her, and detests her, Marriage Is a Community Choice

14 “and charges her with shameful conduct, and brings a bad name on her, and says, ‘I took this woman, and when I came to her I found she was not a virgin,’

15 “then the father and mother of the young woman shall take and bring out the evidence of the young woman’s virginity to the elders of the city at the gate.

16 “And the young woman’s father shall say to the elders, ‘I gave my daughter to this man as wife, and he detests her.

17 ‘Now he has charged her with shameful conduct, saying, “I found your daughter was not a virgin,” and yet these are the evidences of my daughter’s virginity.’ And they shall spread the cloth before the elders of the city.

18 “Then the elders of that city shall take that man and punish him;

19 “and they shall fine him one hundred shekels of silver and give them to the father of the young woman, because he has brought a bad name on a virgin of Israel. And she shall be his wife; he cannot divorce her all his days.

20 “But if the thing is true, and evidences of virginity are not found for the young woman,

21 “then they shall bring out the young woman to the door of her father’s house, and the men of her city shall stone her to death with stones, because she has done a disgraceful thing in Israel, to play the harlot in her father's house. So you shall put away the evil from among you.

22 "If a man is found lying with a woman married to a husband, then both of them shall die—the man that lay with the woman, and the woman; so you shall put away the evil from Israel.

23 "If a young woman who is a virgin is betrothed to a husband, and a man finds her in the city and lies with her,

Answer Cries for Help

24 "then you shall bring them both out to the gate of that city, and you shall stone them to death with stones, the young woman because she did not cry out in the city, and the man because he humbled his neighbor's wife; so you shall put away the evil from among you.

25 "But if a man finds a betrothed young woman in the countryside, and the man forces her and lies with her, then only the man who lay with her shall die.

26 "But you shall do nothing to the young woman; there is in the young woman no sin deserving of death, for just as when a man rises against his neighbor and kills him, even so is this matter.

27 "For he found her in the countryside, and the betrothed young woman cried out, but there was no one to save her.

28 "If a man finds a young woman who is a virgin, who is not betrothed, and he seizes her and lies with her, and they are found out, 29 "then the man who lay with her shall give to the young woman's father fifty shekels of silver, and she shall be his wife because he has humbled her; he shall not be permitted to divorce her all his days.

30 "A man shall not take his father's wife, nor uncover his father's bed.

Deuteronomy 23

Those Excluded from the Congregation

1 “He who is emasculated by crushing or mutilation shall not enter the assembly of the LORD.

2 “One of illegitimate birth shall not enter the assembly of the LORD; even to the tenth generation none of his descendants shall enter the assembly of the LORD.

3 “An Ammonite or Moabite shall not enter the assembly of the LORD; even to the tenth generation none of his descendants shall enter the assembly of the LORD forever,

4 “because they did not meet you with bread and water on the road when you came out of Egypt, and because they hired against you Balaam the son of Beor from Pethor of Mesopotamia,[a] to curse you.

5 “Nevertheless the LORD your God would not listen to Balaam, but the LORD your God turned the curse into a blessing for you, because the LORD your God loves you.

6 “You shall not seek their peace nor their prosperity all your days forever.

7 “You shall not abhor an Edomite, for he is your brother.
You shall not abhor an Egyptian, because you were an alien in his land.

8 “The children of the third generation born to them may enter the assembly of the LORD.

Cleanliness of the Campsite

9 “When the army goes out against your enemies, then keep yourself from every wicked thing.

10 “If there is any man among you who becomes unclean by some occurrence in the night, then he shall go outside the camp; he shall not come inside the camp.

11 “But it shall be, when evening comes, that he shall wash with water; and when the sun sets, he may come into the camp.
12 “Also you shall have a place outside the camp, where you may go out; Sanitation and the Sacred 13 “and you shall have an implement among your equipment, and when you sit down outside, you shall dig with it and turn and cover your refuse.
14 “For the LORD your God walks in the midst of your camp, to deliver you and give your enemies over to you;
therefore your camp shall be holy, that He may see no
unclean thing among you, and turn away from you.

Miscellaneous Laws

15 “You shall not give back to his master the slave who has escaped from his master to you.
16 “He may dwell with you in your midst, in the place which he chooses within one of your gates, where it seems best to him; you shall not oppress him.
17 “There shall be no ritual harlot[b] of the daughters of Israel, or a perverted[c] one of the sons of Israel. Ritual Prostitution
18 “You shall not bring the wages of a harlot or the price of a dog to the house of the LORD your God for any vowed offering, for both of these are an abomination to the LORD your God. The Price of a Dog 19 “You shall not charge interest to your brother—interest on money or food or anything that is lent out at interest.
20 “To a foreigner you may charge interest, but to your brother you shall not charge interest, that the LORD your God may bless you in all to which you set your hand in the land which you are entering to possess.
21 “When you make a vow to the LORD your God, you shall not delay to pay it; for the LORD your God will surely require it of you, and it would be sin to you. Your Word Is Your Bond

22 “But if you abstain from vowing, it shall not be sin to
you.

23 “That which has gone from your lips you shall keep and perform, for you voluntarily vowed to the LORD your God what you have promised with your mouth.

24 “When you come into your neighbor’s vineyard, you may eat your fill of grapes at your pleasure, but you shall not put any in your container.

25 “When you come into your neighbor’s standing grain, you may pluck the heads with your hand, but you shall not use a sickle on your neighbor’s standing grain.

Deuteronomy 24

Law Concerning Divorce

1 “When a man takes a wife and marries her, and it happens that she finds no favor in his eyes because he has found some uncleanness in her, and he writes her a certificate of divorce, puts it in her hand, and sends her out of his house,

Marriage and Divorce

2 “when she has departed from his house, and goes and becomes another man’s wife, 3 “if the latter husband detests her and writes her a certificate of divorce, puts it in her hand, and sends her out of his house, or if the latter husband dies who took her as his wife,
4 “then her former husband who divorced her must not take her back to be his wife after she has been defiled; for that is an abomination before the LORD, and you shall not bring sin on the land which the LORD your God is giving you as an inheritance.

Miscellaneous Laws

5 “When a man has taken a new wife, he shall not go out to war or be charged with any business; he shall be free at home one year, and bring happiness to his wife whom he has taken.
6 “No man shall take the lower or the upper millstone in pledge, for he takes one’s living in pledge.
7 “If a man is found kidnapping any of his brethren of the children of Israel, and mistreats him or sells him, then that kidnapper shall die; and you shall put away the evil from among you.

8 “Take heed in an outbreak of leprosy, that you carefully observe and do according to all that the priests, the Levites, shall teach you; just as I commanded them, so you shall be careful to do.
9 “Remember what the LORD your God did to Miriam on the way when you came out of Egypt!
10 “When you lend your brother anything, you shall not go into his house to get his pledge.
11 “You shall stand outside, and the man to whom you lend shall bring the pledge out to you.
12 “And if the man is poor, you shall not keep his pledge overnight.
13 “You shall in any case return the pledge to him again when the sun goes down, that he may sleep in his own garment and bless you; and it shall be righteousness to you before the LORD your God.
14 “You shall not oppress a hired servant who is poor and needy, whether one of your brethren or one of the aliens who is in your land within your gates.
15 “Each day you shall give him his wages, and not let the sun go down on it, for he is poor and has set his heart on it; lest he cry out against you to the LORD, and it be sin to
you.
16 “Fathers shall not be put to death for their children, nor shall children be put to death for their fathers; a person shall be put to death for his own sin.
17 “You shall not pervert justice due the stranger or the fatherless, nor take a widow’s garment as a pledge.
18 “But you shall remember that you were a slave in Egypt, and the LORD your God redeemed you from there;
therefore I command you to do this thing.
19 “When you reap your harvest in your field, and forget a sheaf in the field, you shall not go back to get it; it shall be for the stranger, the fatherless, and the widow, that the LORD your God may bless you in all the work of your hands. The Stranger, the Fatherless, and the Widow

20 “When you beat your olive trees, you shall not go over the boughs again; it shall be for the stranger, the fatherless, and the widow.

21 “When you gather the grapes of your vineyard, you shall not glean it afterward; it shall be for the stranger, the fatherless, and the widow.

22 “And you shall remember that you were a slave in the land of Egypt; therefore I command you to do this thing.

Deuteronomy 25

1 “If there is a dispute between men, and they come to court, that the judges may judge them, and they justify the righteous and condemn the wicked, 2 “then it shall be, if the wicked man deserves to be beaten, that the judge will cause him to lie down and be beaten in his presence, according to his guilt, with a certain number of blows.
3 “Forty blows he may give him and no more, lest he should exceed this and beat him with many blows above
these, and your brother be humiliated in your sight.
4 “You shall not muzzle an ox while it treads out the grain.

Marriage Duty of the Surviving Brother

5 “If brothers dwell together, and one of them dies and has no son, the widow of the dead man shall not be married to a stranger outside the family; her husband’s brother shall go in to her, take her as his wife, and perform the duty of a husband’s brother to her.
6 “And it shall be that the firstborn son which she bears will succeed to the name of his dead brother, that his name may not be blotted out of Israel.
7 “But if the man does not want to take his brother’s wife, then let his brother’s wife go up to the gate to the elders, and say, ‘My husband’s brother refuses to raise up a name to his brother in Israel; he will not perform the duty of my husband’s brother.’
8 “Then the elders of his city shall call him and speak to him. But if he stands firm and says, ‘I do not want to take her,’

9 “then his brother’s wife shall come to him in the presence of the elders, remove his sandal from his foot, spit in his face, and answer and say, ‘So shall it be done to the man who will not build up his brother’s house.’ 10 “And his name shall be called in Israel, ‘The house of him who had his sandal removed.’

Miscellaneous Laws

11 “If two men fight together, and the wife of one draws near to rescue her husband from the hand of the one attacking him, and puts out her hand and seizes him by the genitals,
12 “then you shall cut off her hand; your eye shall not pity
her.
13 “You shall not have in your bag differing weights, a heavy and a light.
14 “You shall not have in your house differing measures, a large and a small.
15 “You shall have a perfect and just weight, a perfect and just measure, that your days may be lengthened in the land which the LORD your God is giving you.
16 “For all who do such things, all who behave unrighteously, are an abomination to the LORD your God.

Destroy the Amalekites

17 “Remember what Amalek did to you on the way as you were coming out of Egypt, 18 “how he met you on the way and attacked your rear ranks, all the stragglers at your rear, when you were tired and weary; and he did not fear God.
19 “Therefore it shall be, when the LORD your God has given you rest from your enemies all around, in the land which the LORD your God is giving you to possess as an inheritance, that you will blot out the remembrance of Amalek from under heaven. You shall not forget.

Deuteronomy 26

Offerings of Firstfruits and Tithes

1 “And it shall be, when you come into the land which the LORD your God is giving you as an inheritance, and you possess it and dwell in it, First and Foremost

2 “that you shall take some of the first of all the produce of the ground, which you shall bring from your land that the LORD your God is giving you, and put it in a basket and go to the place where the LORD your God chooses to make His name abide.

3 “And you shall go to the one who is priest in those days, and say to him, ‘I declare today to the LORD your[a] God that I have come to the country which the LORD swore to our fathers to give us.’

4 “Then the priest shall take the basket out of your hand and set it down before the altar of the LORD your God.

5 “And you shall answer and say before the LORD your God: ‘My father was a Syrian,[b] about to perish, and he went down to Egypt and dwelt there, few in number; and there he became a nation, great, mighty, and populous.

6 ‘But the Egyptians mistreated us, afflicted us, and laid hard bondage on us.

7 ‘Then we cried out to the LORD God of our fathers, and the LORD heard our voice and looked on our affliction and our labor and our oppression.

8 ‘So the LORD brought us out of Egypt with a mighty hand and with an outstretched arm, with great terror and with signs and wonders.

9 ‘He has brought us to this place and has given us this land, “a land flowing with milk and honey”;[c]

10 ‘and now, behold, I have brought the firstfruits of the land which you, O LORD, have given me.’ Then you shall set it before the LORD your God, and worship before the LORD your God.

11 “So you shall rejoice in every good thing which the LORD your God has given to you and your house, you and the Levite and the stranger who is among you.

12 “When you have finished laying aside all the tithe of your increase in the third year—the year of tithing—and have given it to the Levite, the stranger, the fatherless, and the widow, so that they may eat within your gates and be filled, A Ten Percent Tax

13 “then you shall say before the LORD your God: ‘I have removed the holy tithe from my house, and also have given them to the Levite, the stranger, the fatherless, and the widow, according to all Your commandments which You have commanded me; I have not transgressed Your commandments, nor have I forgotten them.

14 ‘I have not eaten any of it when in mourning, nor have I removed any of it for an unclean use, nor given any of it for the dead. I have obeyed the voice of the LORD my God, and have done according to all that You have commanded me.

15 ‘Look down from Your holy habitation, from heaven, and bless Your people Israel and the land which You have given us, just as You swore to our fathers, “a land flowing with milk and honey.” ’[d]

A Special People of God

16 “This day the LORD your God commands you to observe these statutes and judgments; therefore you shall be careful to observe them with all your heart and with all your soul.

17 “Today you have proclaimed the LORD to be your God, and that you will walk in His ways and keep His statutes,

His commandments, and His judgments, and that you will obey His voice.

18 “Also today the LORD has proclaimed you to be His special people, just as He promised you, that you should keep all His commandments,

19 “and that He will set you high above all nations which He has made, in praise, in name, and in honor, and that you may be a holy people to the LORD your God, just as He has spoken.”

Deuteronomy 27

The Law Inscribed on Stones

1 Now Moses, with the elders of Israel, commanded the people, saying: “Keep all the commandments which I command you today. The Value of Symbols

2 “And it shall be, on the day when you cross over the Jordan to the land which the LORD your God is giving you, that you shall set up for yourselves large stones, and whitewash them with lime.

3 “You shall write on them all the words of this law, when you have crossed over, that you may enter the land which the LORD your God is giving you, ‘a land flowing with milk and honey,’[a] just as the LORD God of your fathers promised
you.

4 “Therefore it shall be, when you have crossed over the Jordan, that on Mount Ebal you shall set up these stones, which I command you today, and you shall whitewash them with lime.

5 “And there you shall build an altar to the LORD your God, an altar of stones; you shall not use an iron tool on
them.

6 “You shall build with whole stones the altar of the LORD your God, and offer burnt offerings on it to the LORD your God.

7 “You shall offer peace offerings, and shall eat there, and rejoice before the LORD your God.

8 “And you shall write very plainly on the stones all the words of this law.”

9 Then Moses and the priests, the Levites, spoke to all Israel, saying, “Take heed and listen, O Israel: This day you have become the people of the LORD your God.

10 “Therefore you shall obey the voice of the LORD your God, and observe His commandments and His statutes which I command you today.”

Curses Pronounced from Mount Ebal

11 And Moses commanded the people on the same day,
saying,
12 “These shall stand on Mount Gerizim to bless the people, when you have crossed over the Jordan: Simeon, Levi, Judah, Issachar, Joseph, and Benjamin;
13 “and these shall stand on Mount Ebal to curse: Reuben, Gad, Asher, Zebulun, Dan, and Naphtali.
14 “And the Levites shall speak with a loud voice and say to all the men of Israel:
15 ‘Cursed is the one who makes a carved or molded image, an abomination to the LORD, the work of the hands of the craftsman, and sets it up in secret.’
“And all the people shall answer and say, ‘Amen!’
16 ‘Cursed is the one who treats his father or his mother with contempt.’
“And all the people shall say, ‘Amen!’
17 ‘Cursed is the one who moves his neighbor’s landmark.’
“And all the people shall say, ‘Amen!’
18 ‘Cursed is the one who makes the blind to wander off the road.’
“And all the people shall say, ‘Amen!’
19 ‘Cursed is the one who perverts the justice due the stranger, the fatherless, and widow.’
“And all the people shall say, ‘Amen!’
20 ‘Cursed is the one who lies with his father’s wife, because he has uncovered his father’s bed.’
“And all the people shall say, ‘Amen!’
21 ‘Cursed is the one who lies with any kind of animal.’
“And all the people shall say, ‘Amen!’

22 ‘Cursed is the one who lies with his sister, the daughter of his father or the daughter of his mother.’

“And all the people shall say, ‘Amen!’

23 ‘Cursed is the one who lies with his mother-in-law.’

“And all the people shall say, ‘Amen!’

24 ‘Cursed is the one who attacks his neighbor secretly.’

“And all the people shall say, ‘Amen!’

25 ‘Cursed is the one who takes a bribe to slay an innocent person.’

“And all the people shall say, ‘Amen!’

26 ‘Cursed is the one who does not confirm all the words of this law.’

“And all the people shall say, ‘Amen!’”

Deuteronomy 28

Blessings on Obedience

1 “Now it shall come to pass, if you diligently obey the voice of the LORD your God, to observe carefully all His commandments which I command you today, that the LORD your God will set you high above all nations of the earth.
2 “And all these blessings shall come upon you and overtake you, because you obey the voice of the LORD your God:
3 “Blessed shall you be in the city, and blessed shall you be in the country.
4 “Blessed shall be the fruit of your body, the produce of your ground and the increase of your herds, the increase of your cattle and the offspring of your flocks.
5 “Blessed shall be your basket and your kneading bowl.
6 “Blessed shall you be when you come in, and blessed shall you be when you go out.
7 “The LORD will cause your enemies who rise against you to be defeated before your face; they shall come out against you one way and flee before you seven ways.
8 “The LORD will command the blessing on you in your storehouses and in all to which you set your hand, and He will bless you in the land which the LORD your God is giving you.
9 “The LORD will establish you as a holy people to Himself, just as He has sworn to you, if you keep the commandments of the LORD your God and walk in His ways.
10 “Then all peoples of the earth shall see that you are called by the name of the LORD, and they shall be afraid of
you.

11 “And the LORD will grant you plenty of goods, in the fruit of your body, in the increase of your livestock, and in the produce of your ground, in the land of which the LORD swore to your fathers to give you.
12 “The LORD will open to you His good treasure, the heavens, to give the rain to your land in its season, and to bless all the work of your hand. You shall lend to many nations, but you shall not borrow.
13 “And the LORD will make you the head and not the tail;
you shall be above only, and not be beneath, if you heed the commandments of the LORD your God, which I command you today, and are careful to observe them.
14 “So you shall not turn aside from any of the words which I command you this day, to the right or the left, to go after other gods to serve them.

Curses on Disobedience

15 “But it shall come to pass, if you do not obey the voice of the LORD your God, to observe carefully all His commandments and His statutes which I command you today, that all these curses will come upon you and overtake you:
16 “Cursed shall you be in the city, and cursed shall you be in the country.
17 “Cursed shall be your basket and your kneading bowl.
18 “Cursed shall be the fruit of your body and the produce of your land, the increase of your cattle and the offspring of your flocks.
19 “Cursed shall you be when you come in, and cursed shall you be when you go out.
20 “The LORD will send on you cursing, confusion, and rebuke in all that you set your hand to do, until you are destroyed and until you perish quickly, because of the wickedness of your doings in which you have forsaken Me.

21 “The LORD will make the plague cling to you until He has consumed you from the land which you are going to possess.
22 “The LORD will strike you with consumption, with fever, with inflammation, with severe burning fever, with the sword, with scorching, and with mildew; they shall pursue you until you perish.
23 “And your heavens which are over your head shall be bronze, and the earth which is under you shall be iron.
24 “The LORD will change the rain of your land to powder and dust; from the heaven it shall come down on you until you are destroyed.
25 “The LORD will cause you to be defeated before your enemies; you shall go out one way against them and flee seven ways before them; and you shall become troublesome to all the kingdoms of the earth.
26 “Your carcasses shall be food for all the birds of the air and the beasts of the earth, and no one shall frighten them away.
27 “The LORD will strike you with the boils of Egypt, with tumors, with the scab, and with the itch, from which you cannot be healed.
28 “The LORD will strike you with madness and blindness and confusion of heart.
29 “And you shall grope at noonday, as a blind man gropes in darkness; you shall not prosper in your ways; you shall be only oppressed and plundered continually, and no one shall save you.
30 “You shall betroth a wife, but another man shall lie with her; you shall build a house, but you shall not dwell in it;
you shall plant a vineyard, but shall not gather its grapes.
31 “Your ox shall be slaughtered before your eyes, but you shall not eat of it; your donkey shall be violently taken away from before you, and shall not be restored to you; your sheep shall be given to your enemies, and you shall have no one to rescue them.

32 “Your sons and your daughters shall be given to another people, and your eyes shall look and fail with longing for them all day long; and there shall be no strength in your hand.

33 “A nation whom you have not known shall eat the fruit of your land and the produce of your labor, and you shall be only oppressed and crushed continually.

34 “So you shall be driven mad because of the sight which your eyes see.

35 “The LORD will strike you in the knees and on the legs with severe boils which cannot be healed, and from the sole of your foot to the top of your head.

36 “The LORD will bring you and the king whom you set over you to a nation which neither you nor your fathers have known, and there you shall serve other gods—wood and stone.

37 “And you shall become an astonishment, a proverb, and a byword among all nations where the LORD will drive you.

38 “You shall carry much seed out to the field but gather little in, for the locust shall consume it.

39 “You shall plant vineyards and tend them, but you shall neither drink of the wine nor gather the grapes; for the worms shall eat them.

40 “You shall have olive trees throughout all your territory, but you shall not anoint yourself with the oil; for your olives shall drop off.

41 “You shall beget sons and daughters, but they shall not be yours; for they shall go into captivity.

42 “Locusts shall consume all your trees and the produce of your land.

43 “The alien who is among you shall rise higher and higher above you, and you shall come down lower and lower.

44 “He shall lend to you, but you shall not lend to him; he shall be the head, and you shall be the tail.
45 “Moreover all these curses shall come upon you and pursue and overtake you, until you are destroyed, because you did not obey the voice of the LORD your God, to keep His commandments and His statutes which He commanded
you.
46 “And they shall be upon you for a sign and a wonder,
and on your descendants forever.
47 “Because you did not serve the LORD your God with joy and gladness of heart, for the abundance of everything, 48 “therefore you shall serve your enemies, whom the LORD will send against you, in hunger, in thirst, in nakedness, and in need of everything; and He will put a yoke of iron on your neck until He has destroyed you.
49 “The LORD will bring a nation against you from afar, from the end of the earth, as swift as the eagle flies, a nation whose language you will not understand, 50 “a nation of fierce countenance, which does not respect the elderly nor show favor to the young.
51 “And they shall eat the increase of your livestock and the produce of your land, until you are destroyed; they shall not leave you grain or new wine or oil, or the increase of your cattle or the offspring of your flocks, until they have destroyed you.
52 “They shall besiege you at all your gates until your high and fortified walls, in which you trust, come down throughout all your land; and they shall besiege you at all your gates throughout all your land which the LORD your God has given you.
53 “You shall eat the fruit of your own body, the flesh of your sons and your daughters whom the LORD your God has given you, in the siege and desperate straits in which your enemy shall distress you.

54 “The sensitive and very refined man among you will be hostile toward his brother, toward the wife of his bosom, and toward the rest of his children whom he leaves behind,

55 “so that he will not give any of them the flesh of his children whom he will eat, because he has nothing left in the siege and desperate straits in which your enemy shall distress you at all your gates.

56 “The tender and delicate woman among you, who would not venture to set the sole of her foot on the ground because of her delicateness and sensitivity, will refuse[a] to the husband of her bosom, and to her son and her daughter,

57 “her placenta which comes out from between her feet and her children whom she bears; for she will eat them secretly for lack of everything in the siege and desperate straits in which your enemy shall distress you at all your gates.

58 “If you do not carefully observe all the words of this law that are written in this book, that you may fear this glorious and awesome name, THE LORD YOUR GOD, 59 “then the LORD will bring upon you and your descendants extraordinary plagues—great and prolonged plagues—and serious and prolonged sicknesses.

60 “Moreover He will bring back on you all the diseases of Egypt, of which you were afraid, and they shall cling to you.

61 “Also every sickness and every plague, which is not written in this Book of the Law, will the LORD bring upon you until you are destroyed.

62 “You shall be left few in number, whereas you were as the stars of heaven in multitude, because you would not obey the voice of the LORD your God.

63 “And it shall be, that just as the LORD rejoiced over you to do you good and multiply you, so the LORD will rejoice over you to destroy you and bring you to nothing; and you shall be plucked from off the land which you go to possess.
64 “Then the LORD will scatter you among all peoples, from one end of the earth to the other, and there you shall serve other gods, which neither you nor your fathers have known—wood and stone.
65 “And among those nations you shall find no rest, nor shall the sole of your foot have a resting place; but there the LORD will give you a trembling heart, failing eyes, and anguish of soul.
66 “Your life shall hang in doubt before you; you shall fear day and night, and have no assurance of life.
67 “In the morning you shall say, ‘Oh, that it were evening!’ And at evening you shall say, ‘Oh, that it were morning!’ because of the fear which terrifies your heart, and because of the sight which your eyes see.
68 “And the LORD will take you back to Egypt in ships, by the way of which I said to you, ‘You shall never see it again.’ And there you shall be offered for sale to your enemies as male and female slaves, but no one will buy
you.”

Deuteronomy 29

The Covenant Renewed in Moab

1 These are the words of the covenant which the LORD commanded Moses to make with the children of Israel in the land of Moab, besides the covenant which He made with them in Horeb.

2 Now Moses called all Israel and said to them: "You have seen all that the LORD did before your eyes in the land of Egypt, to Pharaoh and to all his servants and to all his land

3 "the great trials which your eyes have seen, the signs, and those great wonders.

4 "Yet the LORD has not given you a heart to perceive and eyes to see and ears to hear, to this very day.

5 "And I have led you forty years in the wilderness. Your clothes have not worn out on you, and your sandals have not worn out on your feet.

6 "You have not eaten bread, nor have you drunk wine or similar drink, that you may know that I am the LORD your God.

7 "And when you came to this place, Sihon king of Heshbon and Og king of Bashan came out against us to battle, and we conquered them.

8 "We took their land and gave it as an inheritance to the Reubenites, to the Gadites, and to half the tribe of Manasseh.

9 "Therefore keep the words of this covenant, and do them, that you may prosper in all that you do.

10 "All of you stand today before the LORD your God: your leaders and your tribes and your elders and your officers, all the men of Israel,

11 “your little ones and your wives—also the stranger who is in your camp, from the one who cuts your wood to the one who draws your water—12 “that you may enter into covenant with the LORD your God, and into His oath, which the LORD your God makes with you today,
13 “that He may establish you today as a people for Himself, and that He may be God to you, just as He has spoken to you, and just as He has sworn to your fathers, to Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob.
14 “I make this covenant and this oath, not with you alone,
15 “but with him who stands here with us today before the LORD our God, as well as with him who is not here with us today
16 (for you know that we dwelt in the land of Egypt and that we came through the nations which you passed by, 17 and you saw their abominations and their idols which were among them—wood and stone and silver and gold); 18 “so that there may not be among you man or woman or family or tribe, whose heart turns away today from the LORD our God, to go and serve the gods of these nations, and that there may not be among you a root bearing bitterness or wormwood;
19 “and so it may not happen, when he hears the words of this curse, that he blesses himself in his heart, saying, ‘I shall have peace, even though I follow the dictates[a] of my heart’—as though the drunkard could be included with the sober.
20 “The LORD would not spare him; for then the anger of the LORD and His jealousy would burn against that man, and every curse that is written in this book would settle on him, and the LORD would blot out his name from under heaven.

21 “And the LORD would separate him from all the tribes of Israel for adversity, according to all the curses of the covenant that are written in this Book of the Law, 22 “so that the coming generation of your children who rise up after you, and the foreigner who comes from a far land, would say, when they see the plagues of that land and the sicknesses which the LORD has laid on it: 23 ‘The whole land is brimstone, salt, and burning; it is not sown, nor does it bear, nor does any grass grow there, like the overthrow of Sodom and Gomorrah, Admah, and Zeboiim, which the LORD overthrew in His anger and His wrath.’
24 All nations would say, ‘Why has the LORD done so to this land? What does the heat of this great anger mean?’ 25 “Then people would say: ‘Because they have forsaken the covenant of the LORD God of their fathers, which He made with them when He brought them out of the land of Egypt;
26 ‘for they went and served other gods and worshiped them, gods that they did not know and that He had not given to them.
27 ‘Then the anger of the LORD was aroused against this land, to bring on it every curse that is written in this book.
28 ‘And the LORD uprooted them from their land in anger, in wrath, and in great indignation, and cast them into another land, as it is this day.’ 29 “The secret things belong to the LORD our God, but those things which are revealed belong to us and to our children forever, that we may do all the words of this law.

Deuteronomy 30

The Blessing of Returning to God

1 “Now it shall come to pass, when all these things come upon you, the blessing and the curse which I have set before you, and you call them to mind among all the nations where the LORD your God drives you, 2 “and you return to the LORD your God and obey His voice, according to all that I command you today, you and your children, with all your heart and with all your soul, 3 “that the LORD your God will bring you back from captivity, and have compassion on you, and gather you again from all the nations where the LORD your God has scattered you.
4 “If any of you are driven out to the farthest parts under heaven, from there the LORD your God will gather you, and from there He will bring you.
5 “Then the LORD your God will bring you to the land which your fathers possessed, and you shall possess it. He will prosper you and multiply you more than your fathers.
6 “And the LORD your God will circumcise your heart and the heart of your descendants, to love the LORD your God with all your heart and with all your soul, that you may live.
7 “Also the LORD your God will put all these curses on your enemies and on those who hate you, who persecuted
you.
8 “And you will again obey the voice of the LORD and do all His commandments which I command you today.
9 “The LORD your God will make you abound in all the work of your hand, in the fruit of your body, in the increase of your livestock, and in the produce of your land for good.

For the LORD will again rejoice over you for good as He rejoiced over your fathers, 10 “if you obey the voice of the LORD your God, to keep His commandments and His statutes which are written in this Book of the Law, and if you turn to the LORD your God with all your heart and with all your soul.

The Choice of Life or Death

11 “For this commandment which I command you today is not too mysterious for you, nor is it far off. God’s Word Is Not a Mystery
12 “It is not in heaven, that you should say, ‘Who will ascend into heaven for us and bring it to us, that we may hear it and do it?’
13 “Nor is it beyond the sea, that you should say, ‘Who will go over the sea for us and bring it to us, that we may hear it and do it?’
14 “But the word is very near you, in your mouth and in your heart, that you may do it.
15 “See, I have set before you today life and good, death and evil, 16 “in that I command you today to love the LORD your God, to walk in His ways, and to keep His commandments, His statutes, and His judgments, that you may live and multiply; and the LORD your God will bless you in the land which you go to possess.
17 “But if your heart turns away so that you do not hear, and are drawn away, and worship other gods and serve them, 18 “I announce to you today that you shall surely perish; you shall not prolong your days in the land which you cross over the Jordan to go in and possess.
19 “I call heaven and earth as witnesses today against you, that I have set before you life and death, blessing and cursing; therefore choose life, that both you and your descendants may live;

20 “that you may love the LORD your God, that you may obey His voice, and that you may cling to Him, for He is your life and the length of your days; and that you may dwell in the land which the LORD swore to your fathers, to Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, to give them.”

Deuteronomy 31

Joshua the New Leader of Israel

1 Then Moses went and spoke these words to all Israel.

2 And he said to them: “I am one hundred and twenty years old today. I can no longer go out and come in. Also the LORD has said to me, ‘You shall not cross over this Jordan.’

3 “The LORD your God Himself crosses over before you;
He will destroy these nations from before you, and you shall dispossess them. Joshua himself crosses over before you, just as the LORD has said.

4 “And the LORD will do to them as He did to Sihon and Og, the kings of the Amorites and their land, when He destroyed them.

5 “The LORD will give them over to you, that you may do to them according to every commandment which I have commanded you.

6 “Be strong and of good courage, do not fear nor be afraid of them; for the LORD your God, He is the One who goes with you. He will not leave you nor forsake you.”

7 Then Moses called Joshua and said to him in the sight of all Israel, “Be strong and of good courage, for you must go with this people to the land which the LORD has sworn to their fathers to give them, and you shall cause them to inherit it. The Lord of Salvation

8 “And the LORD, He is the One who goes before you. He will be with you, He will not leave you nor forsake you; do not fear nor be dismayed.”

The Law to Be Read Every Seven Years

9So Moses wrote this law and delivered it to the priests, the sons of Levi, who bore the ark of the covenant of the LORD, and to all the elders of Israel.
10And Moses commanded them, saying: “At the end of every seven years, at the appointed time in the year of release, at the Feast of Tabernacles, 11“when all Israel comes to appear before the LORD your God in the place which He chooses, you shall read this law before all Israel in their hearing.
12“Gather the people together, men and women and little ones, and the stranger who is within your gates, that they may hear and that they may learn to fear the LORD your God and carefully observe all the words of this law, 13“and that their children, who have not known it, may hear and learn to fear the LORD your God as long as you live in the land which you cross the Jordan to possess.”

Prediction of Israel’s Rebellion

14Then the LORD said to Moses, “Behold, the days approach when you must die; call Joshua, and present yourselves in the tabernacle of meeting, that I may inaugurate him.” So Moses and Joshua went and presented themselves in the tabernacle of meeting.
15Now the LORD appeared at the tabernacle in a pillar of cloud, and the pillar of cloud stood above the door of the tabernacle.
16And the LORD said to Moses: “Behold, you will rest with your fathers; and this people will rise and play the harlot with the gods of the foreigners of the land, where they go to be among them, and they will forsake Me and break My covenant which I have made with them.
17“Then My anger shall be aroused against them in that day, and I will forsake them, and I will hide My face from them, and they shall be devoured. And many evils and troubles shall befall them, so that they will say in that day, ‘Have not these evils come upon us because our God is not among us?’

18 “And I will surely hide My face in that day because of all the evil which they have done, in that they have turned to other gods.

19 “Now therefore, write down this song for yourselves, and teach it to the children of Israel; put it in their mouths, that this song may be a witness for Me against the children of Israel.

20 “When I have brought them to the land flowing with milk and honey, of which I swore to their fathers, and they have eaten and filled themselves and grown fat, then they will turn to other gods and serve them; and they will provoke Me and break My covenant.

21 “Then it shall be, when many evils and troubles have come upon them, that this song will testify against them as a witness; for it will not be forgotten in the mouths of their descendants, for I know the inclination of their behavior today, even before I have brought them to the land of which I swore to give them.”

22 Therefore Moses wrote this song the same day, and taught it to the children of Israel.

23 Then He inaugurated Joshua the son of Nun, and said, “Be strong and of good courage; for you shall bring the children of Israel into the land of which I swore to them, and I will be with you.”

24 So it was, when Moses had completed writing the words of this law in a book, when they were finished,

25 that Moses commanded the Levites, who bore the ark of the covenant of the LORD, saying:

26 “Take this Book of the Law, and put it beside the ark of the covenant of the LORD your God, that it may be there as a witness against you;

27 “for I know your rebellion and your stiff neck. If today, while I am yet alive with you, you have been rebellious against the LORD, then how much more after my death?
28 “Gather to me all the elders of your tribes, and your officers, that I may speak these words in their hearing and call heaven and earth to witness against them. Preserving Our Legacy 29 “For I know that after my death you will become utterly corrupt, and turn aside from the way which I have commanded you. And evil will befall you in the latter days, because you will do evil in the sight of the LORD, to provoke Him to anger through the work of your hands.”

The Song of Moses

30 Then Moses spoke in the hearing of all the assembly of Israel the words of this song until they were ended:

Deuteronomy 32

1 “Give ear, O heavens, and I will speak;
And hear, O earth, the words of my mouth.
2 Let my teaching drop as the rain,
My speech distill as the dew,
As raindrops on the tender herb,
And as showers on the grass.
3 For I proclaim the name of the LORD:
Ascribe greatness to our God.
4 He is the Rock, His work is perfect;
For all His ways are justice,
A God of truth and without injustice;
Righteous and upright is He.

5 “They have corrupted themselves;
They are not His children,
Because of their blemish:
A perverse and crooked generation.
6 Do you thus deal with the LORD,
O foolish and unwise people?
Is He not your Father, who bought you?
Has He not made you and established you?

7 “Remember the days of old,
Consider the years of many generations.
Ask your father, and he will show you;
Your elders, and they will tell you:
8 When the Most High divided their inheritance to the nations,
When He separated the sons of Adam,
He set the boundaries of the peoples

According to the number of the children of Israel.
9For the LORD’s portion is His people;
Jacob is the place of His inheritance.

10“He found him in a desert land
And in the wasteland, a howling wilderness;
He encircled him, He instructed him,
He kept him as the apple of His eye.
11As an eagle stirs up its nest,
Hovers over its young,
Spreading out its wings, taking them up,
Carrying them on its wings,
12*So* the LORD alone led him,
And there was no foreign god with him.

13“He made him ride in the heights of the earth,
That he might eat the produce of the fields;
He made him draw honey from the rock,
And oil from the flinty rock;
14Curds from the cattle, and milk of the flock,
With fat of lambs;
And rams of the breed of Bashan, and goats,
With the choicest wheat;
And you drank wine, the blood of the grapes.

15“But Jeshurun grew fat and kicked;
You grew fat, you grew thick,
You are obese!
Then he forsook God who made him,
And scornfully esteemed the Rock of his salvation.

16 They provoked Him to jealousy with foreign gods;
With abominations they provoked Him to anger.
17 They sacrificed to demons, not to God,
To gods they did not know,
To new gods, new arrivals
That your fathers did not fear.
18 Of the Rock who begot you, you are unmindful,
And have forgotten the God who fathered
you.

19 "And when the LORD saw it, He spurned
them,
Because of the provocation of His sons and His daughters.
20 And He said: 'I will hide My face from
them,
I will see what their end will be,
For they are a perverse generation,
Children in whom is no faith.
21 They have provoked Me to jealousy by what is not God;
They have moved Me to anger by their foolish idols.
But I will provoke them to jealousy by those who are not a nation;
I will move them to anger by a foolish nation.
22 For a fire is kindled in My anger,
And shall burn to the lowest hell;
It shall consume the earth with her increase,
And set on fire the foundations of the mountains.

23 ‘I will heap disasters on them;
I will spend My arrows on them.
24 They shall be wasted with hunger,
Devoured by pestilence and bitter destruction;
I will also send against them the teeth of beasts,
With the poison of serpents of the dust.
25 The sword shall destroy outside;
There shall be terror within
For the young man and virgin,
The nursing child with the man of gray hairs.
26 I would have said, “I will dash them in pieces, I will make the memory of them to cease from among men,”
27 Had I not feared the wrath of the enemy,
Lest their adversaries should misunderstand,
Lest they should say, “Our hand is high;
And it is not the LORD who has done all this.” ’

28 “For they are a nation void of counsel,
Nor is there any understanding in them.
29 Oh, that they were wise, that they understood this,
That they would consider their latter end!
30 How could one chase a thousand,
And two put ten thousand to flight,
Unless their Rock had sold them,
And the LORD had surrendered them?
31 For their rock is not like our Rock,
Even our enemies themselves being judges.

32For their vine is of the vine of Sodom
And of the fields of Gomorrah;
Their grapes are grapes of gall,
Their clusters are bitter.
33Their wine is the poison of serpents,
And the cruel venom of cobras.

34‘Is this not laid up in store with Me,
Sealed up among My treasures?
35Vengeance is Mine, and recompense;
Their foot shall slip in due time;
For the day of their calamity is at hand,
And the things to come hasten upon them.’

36“For the LORD will judge His people
And have compassion on His servants,
When He sees that their power is gone,
And there is no one remaining, bond or free.
37He will say: ‘Where are their gods,
The rock in which they sought refuge?
38Who ate the fat of their sacrifices,
And drank the wine of their drink offering?
Let them rise and help you,
And be your refuge.

39‘Now see that I, even I, am He,
And there is no God besides Me;
I kill and I make alive;
I wound and I heal;
Nor is there any who can deliver from My hand. The Gods of the Canaanites 40For I raise My hand to heaven,
And say, “As I live forever,
41If I whet My glittering sword,
And My hand takes hold on judgment,

I will render vengeance to My enemies,
And repay those who hate Me.
42 I will make My arrows drunk with blood,
And My sword shall devour flesh,
With the blood of the slain and the captives,
From the heads of the leaders of the enemy.” ’

43 “Rejoice, O Gentiles, with His people;[a]
For He will avenge the blood of His servants,
And render vengeance to His adversaries;
He will provide atonement for His land and His people.”

44 So Moses came with Joshua[b] the son of Nun and spoke all the words of this song in the hearing of the people.
45 Moses finished speaking all these words to all Israel,
46 and he said to them: “Set your hearts on all the words which I testify among you today, which you shall command your children to be careful to observe—all the words of this law.
47 “For it is not a futile thing for you, because it is your life, and by this word you shall prolong your days in the land which you cross over the Jordan to possess.”

Moses to Die on Mount Nebo

48 Then the LORD spoke to Moses that very same day, saying: The Consequences of Sin
49 “Go up this mountain of the Abarim, Mount Nebo, which is in the land of Moab, across from Jericho; view the land of Canaan, which I give to the children of Israel as a possession;
50 “and die on the mountain which you ascend, and be gathered to your people, just as Aaron your brother died on

Mount Hor and was gathered to his people;
51 “because you trespassed against Me among the children of Israel at the waters of Meribah Kadesh, in the Wilderness of Zin, because you did not hallow Me in the midst of the children of Israel.
52 “Yet you shall see the land before you, though you shall not go there, into the land which I am giving to the children of Israel.”

Deuteronomy 33

Moses' Final Blessing on Israel

1 Now this is the blessing with which Moses the man of God blessed the children of Israel before his death.
2 And he said:

"The LORD came from Sinai,
And dawned on them from Seir;
He shone forth from Mount Paran,
And He came with ten thousands of saints;
From His right hand
Came a fiery law for them.
3 Yes, He loves the people;
All His saints are in Your hand;
They sit down at Your feet;
Everyone receives Your words.
4 Moses commanded a law for us,
A heritage of the congregation of Jacob.
5 And He was King in Jeshurun, When the leaders of the people were gathered,
All the tribes of Israel together.

6 "Let Reuben live, and not die, Nor let his men be few."

7 And this he said of Judah:

"Hear, LORD, the voice of Judah,
And bring him to his people;
Let his hands be sufficient for him,
And may You be a help against his enemies."

8And of Levi he said:

"Let Your Thummim and Your Urim be with Your holy one,
Whom You tested at Massah,
And with whom You contended at the waters of Meribah, 9Who says of his father and mother,
'I have not seen them';
Nor did he acknowledge his brothers,
Or know his own children;
For they have observed Your word
And kept Your covenant.
10They shall teach Jacob Your judgments,
And Israel Your law.
They shall put incense before You,
And a whole burnt sacrifice on Your altar.
11Bless his substance, LORD,
And accept the work of his hands;
Strike the loins of those who rise against
him,
And of those who hate him, that they rise not again."

12Of Benjamin he said:

"The beloved of the LORD shall dwell in safety by Him,
Who shelters him all the day long;
And he shall dwell between His shoulders."

13And of Joseph he said:

"Blessed of the LORD is his land,

With the precious things of heaven, with the dew,
And the deep lying beneath,
14 With the precious fruits of the sun,
With the precious produce of the months,
15 With the best things of the ancient mountains,
With the precious things of the everlasting hills,
16 With the precious things of the earth and its fullness,
And the favor of Him who dwelt in the bush.
Let the blessing come ‘on the head of Joseph,
And on the crown of the head of him who was separate from his brothers.’[a] 17 His glory is like a firstborn bull,
And his horns like the horns of the wild ox;
Together with them
He shall push the peoples
To the ends of the earth;
They are the ten thousands of Ephraim,
And they are the thousands of Manasseh.”

18 And of Zebulun he said:

“Rejoice, Zebulun, in your going out,
And Issachar in your tents!
19 They shall call the peoples to the mountain;
There they shall offer sacrifices of righteousness;
For they shall partake of the abundance of the seas
And of treasures hidden in the sand.”

20And of Gad he said:

"Blessed is he who enlarges Gad;
He dwells as a lion,
And tears the arm and the crown of his head.
[21]He provided the first part for himself,
Because a lawgiver's portion was reserved there.
He came with the heads of the people;
He administered the justice of the LORD,
And His judgments with Israel."

22And of Dan he said:

"Dan is a lion's whelp;
He shall leap from Bashan."

23And of Naphtali he said:

"O Naphtali, satisfied with favor,
And full of the blessing of the LORD,
Possess the west and the south."

24And of Asher he said:

"Asher is most blessed of sons;
Let him be favored by his brothers,
And let him dip his foot in oil.
[25]Your sandals shall be iron and bronze;
As your days, so shall your strength be.

[26]"There is no one like the God of Jeshurun,
Who rides the heavens to help you,
And in His excellency on the clouds.
[27]The eternal God is your refuge,

And underneath are the everlasting arms;
He will thrust out the enemy from before you,
And will say, ‘Destroy!’
28Then Israel shall dwell in safety,
The fountain of Jacob alone,
In a land of grain and new wine;
His heavens shall also drop dew.
29Happy are you, O Israel!
Who is like you, a people saved by the LORD,
The shield of your help
And the sword of your majesty!
Your enemies shall submit to you,
And you shall tread down their high places.”

Deuteronomy 34

Moses Dies on Mount Nebo

1 Then Moses went up from the plains of Moab to Mount Nebo, to the top of Pisgah, which is across from Jericho.
And the LORD showed him all the land of Gilead as far as Dan,
2 all Naphtali and the land of Ephraim and Manasseh, all the land of Judah as far as the Western Sea,[a] 3 the South, and the plain of the Valley of Jericho, the city of palm trees, as far as Zoar.
4 Then the LORD said to him, "This is the land of which I swore to give Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, saying, 'I will give it to your descendants.' I have caused you to see it with your eyes, but you shall not cross over there."
5 So Moses the servant of the LORD died there in the land of Moab, according to the word of the LORD.
6 And He buried him in a valley in the land of Moab, opposite Beth Peor; but no one knows his grave to this day.
7 Moses was one hundred and twenty years old when he died. His eyes were not dim nor his natural vigor diminished.
8 And the children of Israel wept for Moses in the plains of Moab thirty days. So the days of weeping and mourning for Moses ended.
9 Now Joshua the son of Nun was full of the spirit of wisdom, for Moses had laid his hands on him; so the children of Israel heeded him, and did as the LORD had commanded Moses.
10 But since then there has not arisen in Israel a prophet like Moses, whom the LORD knew face to face,

[11]in all the signs and wonders which the LORD sent him to do in the land of Egypt, before Pharaoh, before all his servants, and in all his land, [12]and by all that mighty power and all the great terror which Moses performed in the sight of all Israel.

Deuteronomy as a Treaty

Deut. 1:1

Deuteronomy renews the covenant made between God and Israel at Mount Sinai (Ex. 20–31). Later, the covenant was again renewed at Shechem (Josh. 24). All three records of the covenant reflect to some degree the treaty style shown in the table below. This style is consistent with the structure of treaties dating from the period between 1400 and 1200 B.C.

Treaty Form	Where to Find It
Title	Deut. 1:1–4, 6
Indicates the ruler making the treaty or laws.	Identifies Moses as the speaker but notes that he represents the Lord (compare Ex. 19:21–25).
Prologue	Deut. 1:5–4:43
Reviews the history between the ruler and those with whom he makes the treaty, and its bearing on the laws that follow.	Reviews the history between the Lord and the Israelites, from Mount Horeb (Num. 10:11–13) to the present.
Laws	Deut. 4:44–26:19
Sets forth the ruler's binding expectations for those with whom he makes the treaty.	Reviews the general laws (4:44–11:32) and specific laws (chs. 12–26) by which the Israelites were to live in the Promised Land.
Deposition	Deut. 10:1–5; 31:24–26
Establishes terms for the treaty to be preserved.	Calls for the preservation of the stone tablets on which the Law was written, in the ark of the covenant.
Reading	Deut. 6:6–9; 17:18–20
Requires the treaty to be regularly read in	Requires the people to constantly review the Law at home, and the king to record and read

public lest its terms be forgotten.	the Law publicly.
Witnesses Calls on the gods of the ruler and of those with whom he makes the treaty as witnesses to the agreement.	Deut. 4:26; 31:19, 26, 28 As the Lord is the only true God, He is the only witness needed. However, Moses calls on other forms of witness from God's creation.
Blessings and curses Lists the benefits of keeping the treaty and the consequences of breaking it.	Deut. 27–28 Lists the benefits of keeping the Law and the consequences of breaking it.
Oath and ceremony Requires parties to the agreement to ratify it by swearing an oath at a formal ceremony.	Deut. 27:1–8; 29:10–15 Calls for the erection of memorial stones containing the Law once the people have entered the Promised Land and for a ratification ceremony at Mount Ebal; commits the people and their descendants to a binding oath of loyalty to God's faithful covenant.

Think About It: How will you choose blessings instead of curses according to verses in Deuteronomy? How would you articulate the benefits of keeping God's law? How would this change when talking to someone who didn't believe in God?

What Happens When We Exaggerate Facts

Deut. 1:28

The spies who scouted the Promised Land reported that Canaan's cities were "fortified up to heaven" with towering walls. This discouraging news exaggerated some real facts: Canaanite cities were well-defended, especially Jericho, with its nearly impregnable double wall (see "The Wall of Jericho" at Josh. 6:20). High walls were the primary means of defense for ancient cities—but they weren't infallible. See "Five Ways to Capture a Walled City" at 2 Kings 25:1–4.

Think About It: How can you tell if a report is accurate? If it's exaggerated—for better or for worse—what should you do?

God Knows

Deut. 2:7

Some people spend their whole lives working behind the scenes, toiling away to the best of their abilities but with little to show for their efforts. The Hebrews trudged through the wilderness for forty years, and many of them may have felt unnoticed, undervalued, and discouraged. This decades-long detour on the way to the Holy Land resulted from their crisis of faith at Kadesh Barnea (see "Seeing Beyond the Hurdles" at Num. 13:27–33). Everyone twenty years of age and older was condemned to die in the wilderness, except for Joshua and Caleb (14:29, 30). Those who had been children when Israel fled Egypt were now in their forties and fifties. Yet what had they done with their lives but wander through desert wastes, waiting for their parents' generation to expire?

Moses' assurance that "the LORD your God . . . knows your trudging through this great wilderness" (Deut. 2:7, emphasis added) must have come as a much-needed word of encouragement. God had not forgotten this new generation. He knew the "work of [their] hand," the difficult task of surviving the wilderness journey.

God also sees us when we work without reward or recognition. He knows our good times and bad times. He has been and will be with us every step of the way.

Let Go of Grudges

Deut. 2:8

As Moses reviewed the history of Israel's wilderness journey, he briefly mentioned "our brethren, the descendants of Esau." This passing reference to the Edomites was a kind gesture given the trouble that the Hebrews' cousins had caused.

The king of Edom had refused the Israelites access to the King's Highway, a major thoroughfare that passed through Edomite territory and the most natural route to take from Kadesh to the plains of Moab (Num. 20:14–21). This discourtesy forced Israel to travel around Edom, and the people grew discouraged and complained. God punished their rebellion by sending fiery serpents (21:4–9; see also "Symbol of Healing" at Num. 21:8, 9). The incident likely would not have occurred if not for Jacob's trickery and the obstinacy of Israel's Edomite "brethren."

Moses may have overlooked the slight, but the rest of nation did not. During the reigns of Saul and David, military campaigns against the Edomites resulted in mass extermination (see "Pain That Leads to Prejudice" at Num. 20:14–21).

Holding a grudge can lead to tragedy that far outweighs the original offense. Forgiveness not only helps to avoid such tragedy but also paves the way for blessings that might otherwise have been missed.

To Have or to Hold

Deut. 3:28

Moses labored his entire life, leading Israel through extreme spiritual highs and lows until they arrived at the brink of receiving their great inheritance. Yet the fruit of his labors would go to someone else. Despite a lifetime of leadership, he would pass the reins to Joshua, who would finally take the people into the Promised Land.

Moses accepted the transition with remarkable goodwill. Perhaps because Moses was a humble man (Num. 12:3), he refused to assume that the authority and position he enjoyed were his to keep. They were temporary gifts from God to be held in trust during his brief life on earth.

We often cling to possessions or positions of power, suspicious of any who might take them away. But, like Moses, we can gain the humility to hold them with a light touch, mindful that everything we have is a gift from God (1 Cor. 4:7), given to us to use—and even to give away—but not to own.

More: Moses was called the humblest man on the face of the earth (see "The Humblest Man on the Face of the Earth" at Num. 12:3). But in a moment of weakness, Moses forfeited the opportunity to enter the Promised Land. See "Overcome Impulses" at Num. 20:10–13.

Empower, Not Overpower

Deut. 4:5, 6

Moses carried out one of the key tasks of a leader when he taught the Israelites. By teaching them to understand and follow God's laws, he empowered them to act responsibly, wisely, and independently, unleashing their potential to become "a great nation" of "wise and understanding people."

If we think authority means merely telling others what to do, then we will inevitably train others to become passively dependent, waiting for their next orders. And many will rebel, or give in to discouragement.

If we instead view authority as an opportunity to invest in others and help them develop their own expertise, then we empower them to use their gifts and later become leaders for a new generation.

There Is None Other

Deut. 4:35

The declaration that the Lord is uniquely God, that "there is none other besides Him," is especially remarkable in the context of the cultures surrounding the Hebrews. Israel's monotheism was unique among the Egyptians, Moabites, Edomites, and Canaanites, who all worshiped numerous gods. God's nature as the one true God also negates the popular modern view that "all religions are basically the same" and that Christianity is just one among many equally valid belief systems. See "No Other Name" at Acts 4:12. Find out more about Canaanite deities in "The Gods of the Canaanites" at Deuteronomy 32:39.

Think About It: We often think our situation is unique because we are surrounded by people who rebel against God, ignore God, or worship other gods. But believers in the Bible struggled similarly. What encouragement and strategy can we draw from the ancient Hebrews?

The City
Deut. 4:41

Contrary to popular belief, urban centers do not inherently act as breeding grounds for danger and violence. In fact, the Bible presents the city as a place of safety and lawfulness. Israel's cities of refuge represent this perspective. God set aside these cities to shelter people who had committed accidental manslaughter. Rather than running away from a community, the suspect was encouraged to run toward one. Citizens of the city were to protect the suspect and ensure a fair hearing rather than leave him in the open to be preyed upon by the dead person's relatives.

The hazards of modern life in cities (or anywhere) are often a result of the loss of community. The answer to urban crime is not to flee to the suburbs but to reclaim the benefits of living alongside one's neighbors in peace, without fear or prejudice but with meaningful interaction and generosity. God yearns for us to live in fellowship with one another (see "Love Every Neighbor" at Luke 10:27–37; see also Matt. 18:20).

More: The apostle Paul realized that God was at work in the city. See "Paul's Urban Strategy" at Acts 16:4.

Staying Focused
Deut. 5:1

Some tend to imagine the past as a simpler time, but Scripture indicates that many things vied for people's attention in the ancient world as they do today—so much so that Moses went out of his way to help the Israelites put off distractions and focus on what really mattered.

After briefly reviewing how God had rescued them from Egypt and watched over them during their desert journeys, Moses challenged the nation to focus on the Lord's "statutes and judgments." He urged them . . .

- to "hear" the statutes and judgments—to listen to them attentively and repeatedly,
- to "learn" them—to go beyond simple memorization to personal ownership, and
- to "be careful to observe" them—to make them a way of life.

After Moses reviewed the Ten Commandments (Deut. 5:6–21), the core of the Law, he repeated his call for a three-part response to the Law (5:32, 33):

- "Be careful to do" them—a response of obedience.
- "You shall not turn aside" from them—a response of focus.
- "You shall walk in all the ways"—a response of integrating the Law into everyday life.

This emphasis on staying attentive to what God says is repeated throughout Deuteronomy (for example, "Hear, O Israel," 6:4; 9:1; 20:3; 27:9). It is also echoed throughout Scripture (for example, Ps. 19:7–11; 119:9, 11; Matt. 4:4, 7, 10; Rom. 12:2). God's people should always live according to what really matters: amid the many demands that confront us, we must maintain a single-minded focus on obeying the Lord and His words.

More: The Ten Commandments summarized the Law for Israel. Christians have also developed helpful summaries of belief and practice. See "Creeds and Confessions" at 2 Chr. 15:14, 15.

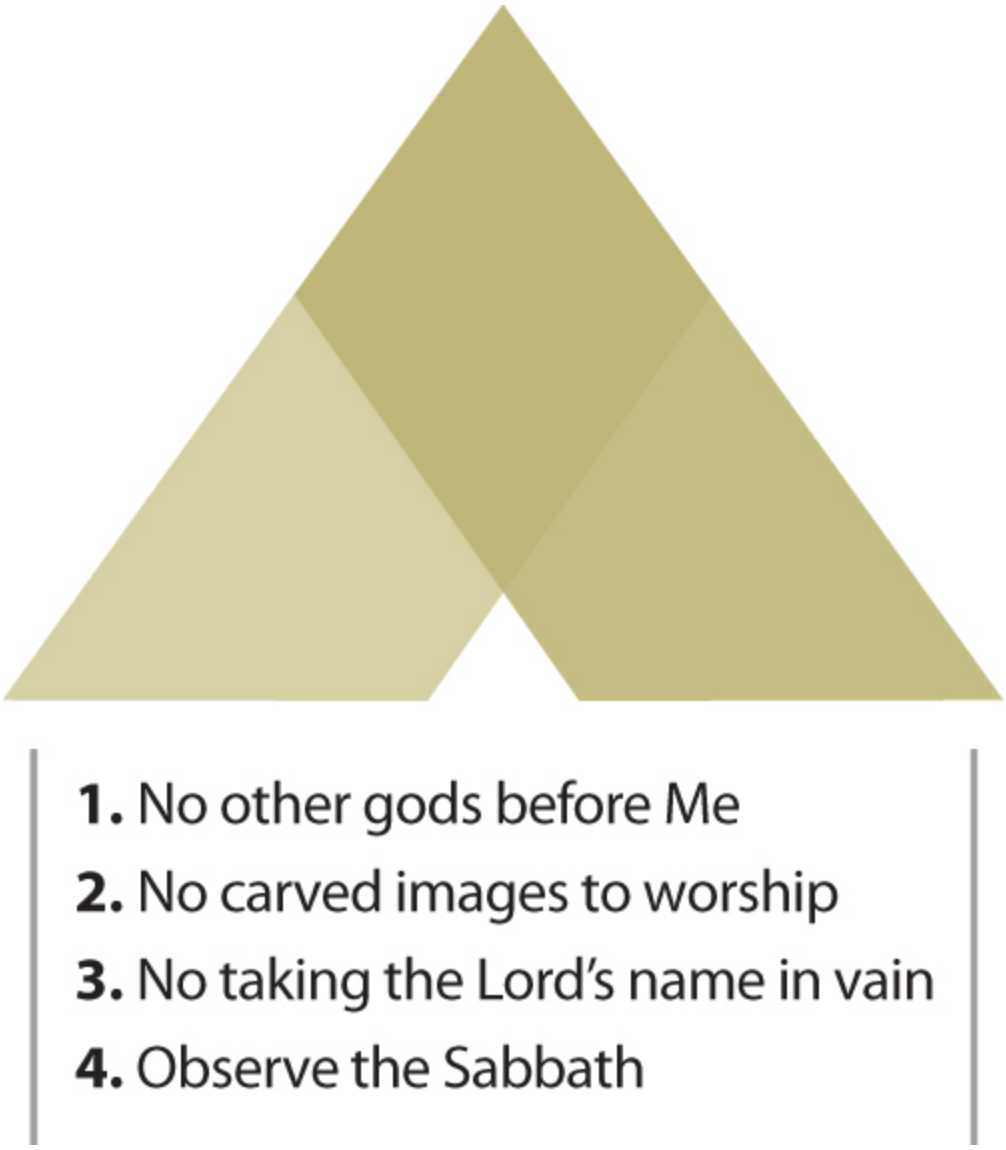
Love God, Love People

Deut. 5:6–21

Jesus said that the entire Law rests on two preeminent commandments: loving God and loving our neighbors as we love ourselves (Matt. 22:36–40; compare Deut. 6:5; Lev. 19:18). The Ten Commandments (Deut. 5:6–21), which summarize the Law, speak to practical ways we should fulfill our duty to love God and others.

The first four commandments (5:6–15) address our love for God.



The last six commandments (5:16–21) concern our love for others.

Loving God and loving others are interdependent in that we cannot do one without the other (James 2:10; 1 John 4:7, 8). The more we love God, the more we must engage in serving others' needs. And if we want to sustain our love for people, we must continually draw on God's love for us.

Christians throughout history have often emphasized one love or the other, sometimes to the near exclusion of the other. But real life, and the Ten Commandments do not allow for an either/or approach to love. God's people must love Him and love others. The two cannot be separated (1 John 4:7–16; 5:2, 3).

The Blessings of the Sabbath

Deut. 5:12

The commandment to keep the Sabbath holy did not render other days of the week and their activities unholy. It prepares us for those days, so we can live them as holy days also.

God designed the Sabbath to remind Israel that human beings are His creatures, ultimately dependent not on themselves but on Him for their livelihood and well-being. Like the Hebrews, our observance of Sunday as the Lord's Day can help temper our feelings of ambition and self-reliance. People have a tendency to overdo good things, including work (see "Modern-Day Idols" at Is. 46:5–10), but God's invitation to a regular day of rest can liberate us from this self-inflicted bondage.

More: A day off is God's gift to us. See "Take a Break" at Ex. 35:1–3.

Obey Your Parents for a Long and Prosperous Life

Deut. 5:16

The command to honor our parents is the "first commandment with promise," as Paul pointed out (Eph. 6:2, 3). The promise is a long and prosperous life.

If we willfully disobey our parents and reject their authority—and if as grown children we dishonor them—we are likely to suffer hardship. This hardship comes as a natural consequence of such behavior. Who better has your interest at heart than good and godly parents?

The ancient Hebrews took this commandment so seriously that they regarded chronic rebellion as a capital offense. Unyieldingly disobedient young men were eventually stoned to death. See "Juvenile Delinquents" at Deuteronomy 21:18–21.

Out of Sight, Out of Mind

Deut. 5:29

The Israelites displayed deep reverence for God when they stood before Him at Mount Sinai. They were terrified of the lightning and fire that marked the Lord's presence, so they begged Moses to climb the mountain and act as their spokesperson while they stayed below (Deut. 5:23–27; compare Ex. 19:14–16; 20:18–21).

Yet God knew their hearts. As long as the people stood before Him, they might fear and obey Him, but once they departed, they would readily forsake His ways.

Out of sight, out of mind! Thus God's sobering comment to Moses: "Oh, that they had such a heart in them that they would fear Me and always keep all My commandments" (Deut. 5:29, emphasis added).

Why always keep God's commands? Because therein lies the secret to life and joy.

God longs for faithfulness. He wants us to be committed to Him not only when we feel Him watching but even when it seems as though our actions go unseen. We tend to imagine that righteousness coincides with encountering God's presence. But it is what we do when we feel apart from God that defines our faithfulness.

More: Even as the Lord spoke with Moses on the mountain, the people turned to idolatry, worshiping a golden calf as their deliverer from Egypt. See "We Need More Than Seeing to Believe" at Ex. 32:1–4. The delivery of the Ten Commandments was momentous. But still people rebelled against God.

Monotheism
Deut. 6:4

The Hebrews were different from many ancient peoples in their belief in only one God. Most surrounding cultures were polytheistic, worshiping multiple gods. For example, the Canaanites had at least seventy deities (see "The Gods of the Canaanites" at Deut. 32:39). Likewise, the Egyptians had a large pantheon of gods and they also considered their pharaohs divine. Throughout the Middle East, it was common for cities to have their own "local" gods in addition to more widely recognized gods.

The Israelites stood apart. Abraham and his family originally lived in Ur (Gen. 11:27–30), a Sumerian city-state dedicated to the moon god Ninna (later called Sin) and the goddess Ningal. In the midst of this polytheistic society, the Lord spoke to Abraham, instructing him to leave his home and country behind (12:1–3; Acts 7:2, 3). It appears that Abraham believed in only one God from that point forward—the God who continued to reveal Himself over many years to this man and his descendants. By Moses' day, the Lord referred to Himself as the God of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob (Ex. 3:15).

The distinction between monotheism and polytheism lies not only in the number of gods but also in their natures.

Polytheism v. Biblical Monotheism

Polytheism	Monotheism
Belief in many gods.	Belief in one God.
Usually a chief god reigns over the other gods.	The Lord God is the one and only God.
Rivalries exist within the pantheon. Gods can be assimilated into other religions if their nations or cities are conquered in war.	The Lord God has no rivals. His enemies (Satan and demons) are not gods but created beings. God's existence and nature do not change even if people choose to believe otherwise.
Polytheistic gods are often identified with natural phenomena, such as storms, fire, and the planets.	The Lord God is separate from His creation, which He made not out of Himself but out of nothing. God sometimes causes natural phenomena to occur, but they are not any part of His being.
Polytheistic gods are usually as prone to moral failure as human beings, if not more so.	The Lord God is holy, the absolute standard of moral purity and goodness.

Although the Israelites had a monotheistic religion, they often lapsed into idolatry. Their false worship only reaffirmed the Lord as supreme, because each time they turned from Him, He reasserted Himself, exposing the futility of their idols and the necessity of His sovereignty.

The God of Scripture is not the same as other gods. He is not merely some "higher power" or local idol. He is not merely one member of a throng of deities. He alone is Lord over all the heavens and the earth. He alone is worthy of our devotion. He alone loves us with a perfect love. He is the only real God.

More: Moses' declaration that "the LORD our God, the LORD is one" (Deut. 6:4) was echoed centuries later by another Old Testament prophet who called people to unwavering commitment. See "Moses and Elijah" at 1 Kin. 19:11. For more on the uniqueness of God, see "No Other Name" at Acts 4:12.

Think About It: How similar to polytheism is the culture in which you live? Why serve the one God when so many people don't? How is the real God different in nature from other gods?

The Faith of Our Children

Deut. 6:7–9

Faith is always one generation away from extinction. No matter how much one generation embraces religion, belief is an individual decision. God has no grandchildren. Yet although Christians cannot believe on behalf of their children, they can help them take their first steps toward faith.

Moses urged the Israelites to teach the Law to their children (Deut. 4:9, 10; 6:7–9, 20, 21; 11:19). The people already had a rich legacy of stories to draw upon in explaining God's ways to new generations: the creation narrative, the lessons of the patriarchs, the Exodus account, and the memory of the wilderness journey (6:20–25). Now the Law would help the Israelites talk about concrete ways to obey God, and Moses offered suggestions for imparting these statutes to young people, principles still useful today.

1. Know God's Word. Moses challenged the Israelites to be a "wise and understanding people" who were educated and discerning about the Law (4:6). He instructed them . . .

   - not to add anything to the words of the Law (4:2);
   - to speak from experience by putting the commandments into practice (4:5, 6);
   - not to forget anything God had said or done for them in the past (4:9);
   - not to forget the Lord or substitute anything or anyone for Him (4:15–19, 23, 24).

Moses' words challenge parents to read and study the Bible for themselves, to follow God's commandments, to put Him first, and to hold dear the remembrance of His actions. Truly knowing the Word requires active involvement. If we try to teach our children through only secondhand information, our lessons will fall flat.

2. Grow in passion for God. Moses exhorted the people to seek personal experience with God (6:1–9). He told them . . .

- to fear the Lord all the days of their life (6:2);
- to love the Lord with all their being—heart, soul, and strength (6:5);
- to establish habits for recalling and rehearsing stories of God's dealings in their own lives and in the histories of their ancestors (6:7–9);
- to live with gratitude, because every good thing was a gift from God and not the result of their own efforts (6:10, 11).

Parents cannot inspire their children toward a faith that they themselves do not possess. And for the Christian, to truly possess faith is to engage in a vibrant relationship with the living God.

3. Teach by example. Moses urged the Israelites to practice the Law so their children could see it in action rather than simply hear it recited (10:12, 13; 11:1, 2, 7, 8). He reminded them . . .

   - to live with the perspective that God owns everything (10:14);
   - to maintain integrity by refusing bribes, ensuring justice for orphans and widows, and showing loving care for strangers (10:17, 18);
   - to worship the Lord regularly through fasting, praise, and remembering His dealings with Israel (10:20–22);
   - to live out their faith in front of their children, who lacked the experience their parents had with Him (11:2);
   - to stay singularly focused on the Lord and avoid faith-destroying loyalties, especially to idols (11:13, 16);
   - to talk about truths of God during the routines of day-to-day life (11:19, 20).

Children pick up on unspoken cues and know intuitively what their parents truly believe and where their loyalties lie. We need to actually model Christlikeness before our children if we want to see them take God seriously.

4. Be creative. Moses wrote a song to declare God's ways to Israel (32:1–47), using the arts to celebrate the Lord and encourage children toward faith in Him (31:9–13, 19, 22, 30). Likewise, Moses advised the people . . .

   - to rehearse the Law every seventh year for the whole community, including children and aliens (31:10–13);
   - to develop music to honor the Lord and declare His mighty acts (31:19, 22);

- to teach the children music that praised God (32:46, 47).

A famous youth pastor once said, “It’s a sin to bore a kid with the gospel.” Unfortunately, that’s what happens if we don’t make the effort to be creative teachers. Children need to learn about God in a way that reflects how interesting He is, or else we risk losing their interest altogether.

What more could we wish for our children than love, protection, and forgiveness from the Creator of the universe, who will be a Parent to them no matter what else may happen? What more than the one relationship that will never fail them, the one pursuit wherein lies their future hope and joy? We can help our children see that God will guide them and fulfill their needs along the way they travel with Him.

Think About It: Choose three or four of the above actions to do with your children over the next ten days. Then expand into other actions. What actions does your family need most at this juncture?

Following God in the City

Deut. 6:10

There are some who claim that cities are inherently more corrupt than the country, but the biblical record seems to negate this. Just as God placed His people in an early urban society to live out His commandments, we too can follow Him in the midst of the city. Wherever we may be, in the heart of a metropolis or at the far edges of a wilderness, we need never be far from God.

When Israel moved into Canaan, they discovered more than farms, forests, and fields. The land contained many “large and beautiful cities” that were “great and fortified up to heaven” (Deut. 6:10; 1:28). The Israelites took possession of a patchwork of city-states that included dozens of settlements listed in Joshua (Josh. 15:21–63; 18:21–19:48; 21:1–40). They continued to conquer Canaanite cities into the period of the judges (Judg. 1:8–26).

So God gave His people a land complete with walled cities, houses, water systems, cisterns, courtyards, terraces, temples, and palaces. These urban assets came with conditions spelled out by Moses (Deut. 6:12–19). The main stipulation was faithfulness to the Lord: if Israel continued to follow God after they took possession of the cities, then it would "be righteousness" for them (6:25).

More: *The only major city believed to have been originally founded by the Israelites is Samaria, capital of the northern kingdom (1 Kin. 16:24). Christianity eventually prevailed as the dominant worldview of the Roman empire because early believers planted churches in dozens of major cities. Imitate the God of Mercy

The biblical word translated here as mercy (Hebrew: chesed) did not suggest that God ignored, excused, or indulged wrongdoing. It conveyed that a person could be counted on to carry out promises made in a covenant or agreement. Thus God kept "covenant and mercy" with His people by showing them loyalty even when they did not deserve it.

God calls those who fear Him to show this sort of mercy in every aspect of life. Some examples:

- Governments show mercy when they enforce laws that prevent oppression of the vulnerable.
- Husbands and wives show mercy when they live out their vows of marital faithfulness, love, and service.
- Employers show mercy when they follow through on agreements, written or spoken, regardless of their profit margins.
- Employees show mercy when they give work their best efforts despite fatigue and competing demands on their attention.

- Businesses show mercy when they provide customers with the quality of merchandise and service that has been advertised and paid for, even if the business must take a loss (Ps. 15:4).

Mercy should define our relationships with others. We emulate God's mercy when we follow through on our words just as He does.

Tough Love

Deut. 7:10

If we think of mercy as the act of overlooking wrongdoing, then we are likely to view justice as its opposite, as if mercy moves to limit punishment, whereas justice demands full payment. This is not how God defines or practices mercy and justice. They are actually two sides of the same coin. They express the same purpose—to bring people to loving action. We sometimes struggle to balance the two, but to God they are never at odds.

God is "of purer eyes than to behold evil, and cannot look on wickedness" (Hab. 1:13). He chooses to withhold punishment not out of indulgence but because He patiently works for repentance, allowing us ample time to change our ways (Is. 30:18; 2 Pet. 3:9, 15). Yet if repentance never comes, the Lord's mercy moves to enforce justice (Deut. 5:9; 7:9–11).

God's response is similar to what we mean by "tough love." Genuine love entails commitment to another's welfare. Watching out for someone else's welfare does not always mean making them happy. God loves us too much to let us hurt one another and ourselves, to stay captive to sin. His infinite love sometimes moves Him to exact judgment when we refuse to do the right thing.

More: As you exercise leadership over others, consider how God exercises mercy and judgment. You have been given power to build others up, to equip them to do rightly. See "Spiritual Authority" at 2 Cor. 13:10.

God Gives Wealth and Treasures the Poor

Deut. 8:18

Moses' word to the Israelites that "God . . . gives you power to get wealth" shows that wealth ultimately comes from God. Many Scriptures reinforce that God deserves credit and thanks for whatever we possess (for example, 1 Sam. 3:7; Hos. 2:8).

On the other hand, the Bible does not teach that financial riches are a reward for good behavior or what God desires for all of His followers. So the lesson of this verse is twofold: abundance is a blessing, but need is not a punishment.

The fact that the Lord is the ultimate source of prosperity proves that wealth in itself is not evil (compare James 1:17). Moses' statement also shows the importance of human responsibility in obtaining wealth. God did not give wealth directly so much as give His people the ability to work their fields and develop their resources so that they could prosper.

On the other hand, the Lord's repeated commands to act charitably and generously toward those less fortunate (for example, Ex. 22:21, 22; Deut. 24:17–21; Ps. 82:3, 4; Heb. 13:1–3; James 1:27) show that God cares deeply for those who have been brought low—the poor, the widowed, the orphaned, the outsider, the ill, the imprisoned. And He not only commanded us to watch out for them but even identified them with Himself, proclaiming that those who are kind to the humble are also showing kindness to Him (Matt. 25:31–46).

All that we have ultimately comes from God. We should never expect God to give us financial gain, especially without effort, yet we can continually turn to Him for wisdom and strength if we are in need.

The Meaning of Fear
Deut. 10:12

Of all the information and stories in the Bible, one point captures what God wants from us as individuals: “Fear the LORD.” That is, we should respect Him, keep His commandments, love Him, and serve Him with all that we are and have. Nothing else is more important.

More: No clearer statement of God’s intentions can be found in Scripture than the formula to fear Him and love Him completely, a statement frequently repeated throughout the Bible (for example, Deut. 6:5; Eccl. 12:13; Mic. 6:8; Matt. 22:36–40).

National Prosperity
Deut. 11:13–17

Israel’s national prosperity was directly connected to its moral and spiritual health, measured by its adherence to the Law. If the people obeyed God and followed His ways, He promised to bless their lands with abundance. If they abandoned Him and turned to other gods, He threatened to bring drought and economic ruin.

The relationship between obedience and national prosperity is less exact today. The promises of Deuteronomy reflect a special covenant between God and a people of His choosing, and the Lord has never entered into a similar agreement with any other nation. Nevertheless, a nation that respects God will experience definite benefits, whether material or otherwise. All nations ultimately answer to Him (see “God is the Ultimate Authority” at Ps. 2:4–6). He therefore monitors the actions of governments and their citizens. He does not allow evil to go unchecked, nor does He reward faith and obedience with unmitigated disaster.

More: The guarantee of national prosperity in the often-quoted 2 Chr. 7:14 is a specific promise for Israel. But it is more than words. Humility and calling upon God show themselves in actual life change. See "National Renewal" at 2 Chr. 7:14. We imperil our faith when we adopt God's promises to Israel as guarantees to us as individuals. See "Giving to Get" at 1 Tim. 6:3–6.

At Home with the Faith

Deut. 11:19–21

Moses frequently reminded the Israelites to teach the Law to their children. The new generation had not witnessed God's works during the Exodus or wilderness journey. They had no firsthand experience of the Lord's deliverance and provision of food, water, protection, and guidance. They were not present during His appearance at Mount Sinai. They depended on their parents to describe and explain these things to them.

Little ones still largely depend on their parents' worldview while developing their own, so modern parents must find ways to convey the Lord's goodness and greatness to the next generation. Some ideas:

- Explain how you came to know God.
- Tell stories of how God has worked in your life.
- Share how difficulties have caused you to grow spiritually.
- Pray together at meals, bedtime, or when significant events are taking place.
- Invite your children into your joys, sorrows, successes, and failures as you journey with God through life.

Our children need to see us as real people with real faith. By making God part of our daily conversations and daily actions, we give our kids a concrete perception of faith, which they can build on as they develop their own relationship with Him.

Do-It-Yourself Religion

Deut. 12:8–14

When individuals become the ultimate authorities in religion, people feel free to reject any demand that feels limiting or imposing and instead develop self-styled beliefs and habits. Some pick and choose from established Christianity. Others invent outlandish ideas about God and indulge in eccentric lifestyles.

A similar attitude characterized the Israelites as they prepared to enter the Promised Land. Apparently they had made up their own minds about how to go about religious observances. They would not say they had turned away from God, but the lack of a permanent worship center seems to have fostered laxness regarding ritual obligations.

Moses warned that such latitude should end once the people entered the land and God designated a site for worship. The Lord expected the Israelites to follow the Law's detailed instructions for sacrifices, holy days, tithes and offerings, and other religious habits.

The New Testament's instructions for worship are not nearly as detailed as those of the Old Testament law. But the heart-purposes are the same. The new covenant offers more freedom to individual believers and communities of faith. Yet that liberty does not permit a do-it-yourself approach to religion. Scripture outlines objective truths and behaviors for believers. There may be room within those boundaries for cultural, ethnic, and geographic expressions, but we fall into sin when we move outside Jesus' clear delineation of right and wrong.

However we worship God, we are still called to worship Him "in spirit and truth" (John 4:23).

Celebrating Abundance

Deut. 14:22–26

God commanded the Israelites to periodically offer a “tithe” or “tenth part” of their produce or income for three reasons: to celebrate the abundance that He had provided; to provide for the Levites, who owned no land because they were responsible for the tabernacle and worship (Deut. 14:27; Num. 18:20–24); and to provide for the poor (Deut. 14:28, 29).

Christians are not bound by this law of the tithe, but its principles still apply: Jesus told His followers to “freely give” just as they had “freely received” from the Lord (Matt. 10:8). And when asked by a wealthy man what he must do to gain eternal life, Jesus replied that he should keep the commandments and “go, sell what you have and give to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven; and come, and follow Me” (Matt. 19:21).

God invites us to feast and be joyful in light of His provision and goodness. We should express our thankfulness for the blessings we have received by making the most of our financial resources to celebrate God’s abundance, support vocational Christian workers, and provide for the poor.

The Third-Year Tithe and Government Aid

Deut. 14:28, 29

Every government debates about what to do for the impoverished living within its domain. One view insists that the poor should fend for themselves or that helping them would make them an intolerable burden on society. Another holds it is inhumane not to give aid to any member of the populace who is unable to provide for his or her own needs.

Christians question whether the Bible endorses government-sponsored assistance or whether that assistance should come from another source.

The debate is not easily settled. But we can consider God's instructions to the Israelites. The Law assumed that certain types of people in Hebrew society would be at an economic disadvantage: Levites, orphans, widows, and "strangers," or non-Hebrew foreigners. Thus the Law mandated that a tithe (or 10 percent) of every third year's produce should be set aside for these groups. It was to be stored "within [the] gates," indicating that the aid should be collected and administered not by individual households but by municipalities.

The system of the third-year tithe was designed to prevent laziness or chronic dependence. The poor were welcome to eat what they needed from the supplies, with regulated distribution preventing abuse. And since beneficiaries of this aid were neighbors living within the community, it was impossible for someone to travel from town to town freeloading.

The regularity of the third-year tithe, which was collected and distributed in the third and sixth years of every seven-year cycle (Lev. 25:4), made it an effective program of relief, but its infrequency ensured that no one could shirk all work and survive purely on charity.

More: Israel's poor also obtained assistance by gleaning, going over a field or vineyard after the harvest to collect leftover produce. See "Gleaning and the Poor" at Lev. 19:9, 10. The New Testament instructs churches to implement systematic relief for the disadvantaged. See 2 Cor. 8–9 and "Effective Care for the Needy" at 1 Tim. 5:3–16.

Banking in the Old Testament

Deut. 15:2

The "creditor" mentioned in Deuteronomy was not an ancient counterpart of a modern banker or credit institution. He was merely a neighbor who had loaned something to another. Institutional banking was unknown in ancient Israel until the Babylonian captivity (587–538 B.C.).

The absence of banks resulted in part from laws against charging interest on loans, a traditional function of banks, when lending to fellow Israelites (Ex. 22:25; Deut. 23:19, 20).

As for the protection of valuables, people either hid them (Josh. 7:21; Matt. 13:44; Luke 19:20), left them with a neighbor (Ex. 22:7), or, in Solomon's time, deposited them at the temple or palace, where the national wealth was stored (1 Kin. 14:26). By New Testament times, however, banking had become an established institution.

Think About It: What elements of today's banking practices would God affirm? Why? What elements would He change or eliminate? Why?

Remember Where You Started

Deut. 15:15

Success always comes with the danger of forgetting what we have left behind—the drudgery of low-status jobs, the difficulties of learning a new culture, the fear of wondering how the future will turn out.

To keep the Israelites from forgetting their humble past, Moses repeated again and again, "Remember that you were a slave in the land of Egypt" (Deut. 5:15; 15:15; 16:12; 24:18, 22). That history gave the Hebrews every reason to show kindness to their own slaves and servants (15:12–14).

We need a habit of remembering our beginnings—where our families came from, what we lacked, how we were treated, how we dreamed of more. If we want our hearts to beat with compassion for others, these are things we cannot forget.

More: Paul called Christians at Ephesus to a discipline of remembering. The first half of his letter to them has only one appeal for action, a verb of exhortation: "remember" (Eph. 2:11).

Casting the First Stone

Deut. 17:7

Requiring the witnesses against a person accused of a capital crime to be the first to begin a fatal stoning was definitely not a perfect arrangement of justice, but it probably did help prevent unfair punishment as a result of petty differences. It's one thing to bring charges against someone but quite another to take the leading role in his or her execution. Yet there was at least one circumstance in which accusers were not required to cast the first stone: when parents brought a rebellious son before the elders. See "Juvenile Delinquents" at Deuteronomy 21:18–21.

Think About It: What does this principle guide you to do, or not do, in the situations of injustice you currently face? What other Bible principles speak to your situation of injustice?

Criteria for a King

Deut. 17:14–20

Throughout the wilderness journey, Moses was Israel's appointed leader. Under him ranked the elders of the twelve tribes. But God knew that sooner or later the nation would cry out for a king. Anticipating that desire, the Lord defined criteria that should characterize any ruler of Israel. He provided guidelines to teach the people to value a monarch who would exercise godly control and resist the abuses for which neighboring nations' leaders were notorious. Israel's king should be . . .

1. Chosen by God (Deut. 17:15). God would choose a king from among the Israelites, a determination made not by popular election but by a divine call to serve the nation (17:20).
2. Devoted to the Law (17:18, 19). The king was to make his own copy of the Law, perhaps in his own handwriting. He was to read the Law daily and observe it diligently so he would remain humble, follow God's ways, prolong his life, and sustain the kingdom through his children.
3. Not dependent on the military (17:16). The king was not to "multiply horses." Ancient kings imposed exorbitant taxes to secure horse-drawn chariots, the prized battlefield technology of the day. A ruler obsessed with war would drain the nation of its economic resources and male population in order to build an army.
4. Not allied with superpowers like Egypt (17:16). Asking Egypt for horses or troops would lead Israel back to the pagan values it had left behind. Egypt counted on chariots, but Israel was to rely on the power of its covenant relationship with God (Ps. 20:7).
5. Careful about marriage (Deut. 17:17). A king's many wives signified power, sexual prowess, and alliances with other nations. The Lord warned against these ties, knowing they would turn the king's heart from God.
6. Not excessively wealthy (17:17). Rulers could multiply wealth by imposing taxes, engaging in trade, and carrying out other profitable schemes. But riches could seduce a king into pride and make him forget that everything belongs to God.

The books of 1 and 2 Samuel, 1 and 2 Kings, and 1 and 2 Chronicles show that these guidelines were honored incompletely as Israel established its monarchy, and less and less as time passed.

More: For more of the Lord's warnings about Israel becoming like other nations and begging for a king, see Samuel's words in 1 Sam. 8:10–22.

A Position of Honor

Deut. 18:3–5

Priests in ancient Israel were to receive gifts from among the firstfruits of the people's produce. This privilege stemmed from two factors: Levi's descendants were not allowed to own land and were therefore without a practical means of support (Deut. 14:27; Num. 18:20–24). Also, priests were to be honored because God chose them to represent the people in worship (Deut. 18:5). See how this applies to ministers receiving pay and benefits today in "Professional Christian Workers" at 1 Corinthians 9:1–23.

The Seduction of Spirits

Deut. 18:9–14

A longing for power or just plain curiosity can result in an unhealthy fascination with the real or apparent use of supernatural forces. Every culture surrounding Israel practiced magic. Scripture specifically names the Egyptians (Ex. 7:11), the Assyrians (Nah. 3:4), the Babylonians (Dan. 2:2), and the Canaanites (Deut. 18:14). There is no denying the strong seduction of magic and the occult.

God's law speaks clearly against divination, witchcraft, mediums, oracles, and soothsayers, calling them "abominations" (18:9–12). Yet despite these strong warnings in Deuteronomy and elsewhere in Scripture, Israel and its leaders turned to sorcerers and other spiritists for help during several times of crisis (2 Kin. 17:17; 2 Chr. 33:6; Mic. 5:12).

God never employs magic or other dark arts to reveal His will or exercise power. His people have no need to rely on any sort of magic, witchcraft, necromancy, fortune-telling, ritual drug use, or any spiritual practices not solely founded on godly principles as defined by Scripture.

Occult Arts Condemned in Scripture

Practice	Description
Casting spells or enchantments (Deut. 18:11; Is. 47:9, 12)	Attempting to bind people with spells through chants or wailing.
Consulting mediums (1 Sam. 28:3, 9)	Conducting a séance to conjure the spirit of a dead person (Is. 8:19; 29:4).
Divination (Deut. 18:10; Jer. 14:14)	Attempting to forecast the future.
Magic (Gen. 41:8; Ex. 7:8–13; Dan. 1:20; 2:2; Acts 8:9–25)	An occult art practiced by Egyptians and Babylonian advisors and by Elymas the sorcerer; involves the manipulation of the physical world in ways that seem impossible to observers.
Passing a son or daughter through the fire (Deut. 18:10)	Child sacrifice (see "The Valley of Hinnom" at Josh. 18:16).
Soothsaying (Deut. 18:10, 14; Lev. 19:26; 2 Kin. 21:6)	A form of divination, possibly cloud reading.
Sorcery or witchcraft (Ex. 22:18; Deut. 18:10; Is. 47:9, 12; Jer. 27:9; Acts 8:9, 11; 13:6, 8)	Attempting to extract information or guidance from a pagan god by means such as interpreting the shape of a puddle of oil in a cup (compare Gen. 44:5), throwing down arrows to see which way they pointed, or "reading" the livers of sacrificial animals (Ezek. 21:21).

More: For more on the dangers and evils of magical practices, see Is. 3:1–3, 18–23; 42:9–13. Magic severely distorted the values of Simon the Magician, endangering his relationship with Christ (Acts 8:9).

The Rules of War

Deut. 20:12–15

God's policies on warfare presupposed that Israel would one day be at war with remote peoples since there are rules about besieged cities described as being far from Israel's borders. The cities of the Canaanites were to be utterly destroyed (Deut. 20:16–18), but a scorched earth policy did not apply outside the borders of the Promised Land.

God did not intend for Israel to become imperialist like Assyria or Babylon, which were both known for devouring foreign territories, demolishing their cities, and exiling their people. The Israelites instead were to occupy the land promised to them and generally remain within its assigned borders (Num. 34:1–12). As much as possible, they were to live at peace with their neighbors.

Nevertheless, Israel would at times be threatened or attacked. Staging a counteroffensive against these foreign enemies might require Israel's army to strike into enemy territory. When the Israelites encountered walled cities, they were to offer a truce (Deut. 20:10). A city's response determined whether the Israelites should spare the city or besiege it (20:11, 12). Yet even if the Israelites attacked, foreign cities were to be treated with a measure of mercy and restraint not reserved for the cities of the Canaanites (20:14).

Think About It: How do these principles apply to current conflicts on the world stage?

Holy War
Deut. 20:16

The Israelites waged war against the Canaanites because the Lord sent them to fight. That meets the definition of a “holy war,” a war that God declares, fights, leads, and wins. Similar engagements were carried out against the Amorites (Ex. 17:16) and Midianites (Num. 31:1–3).

Unlike the Egyptians, Assyrians, or Babylonians, ancient Israel did not maintain a standing army. Prior to the monarchy, it lacked chariots, horses, or sophisticated weaponry. The Israelites were to rely on the Lord, who promised to fight on their behalf. Even after Israel acquired military hardware and expertise, the nation was still to trust God to bring victory.

The Lord Himself was Israel’s defender. Although the nation’s men were often mustered to battle, the Lord fought through and for them. For this reason, Israelite warriors consecrated themselves to God, in part by abstaining from specific activities such as drinking or having sexual relations. Those who were distracted by fear, a recent marriage, a new house, or a newly planted vineyard were ordered to remain at home (Deut. 20:5–9).

The Lord set rules of engagement for His holy war. If a besieged city surrendered, the occupants were to be spared, though they would become servants of the Israelites (20:10, 11). Warriors were also to refrain from cutting down any trees that might serve as a source of food for the local people (20:19, 20). At times the Lord commanded utter destruction of Israel’s enemies (20:16). Once friends and neighbors of the patriarchs, these idolatrous tribes now faced the Lord’s purifying judgment.

The holy war against the Canaanites fulfilled God’s promises to Abraham (Gen. 15:18–21). But this was a unique campaign in human history; God never again called for His people to exterminate a society. Throughout history, political and religious leaders have claimed that God was commanding them and their followers to fight a holy war, but those declarations have always proven false. Holy war is no longer an option. The Lord uses other means to bring about change in the world’s societies—primarily the influence of changed individuals (Rom. 12:2; 1 Thess. 1:6–10).

Juvenile Delinquents

Deut. 21:18–21

The Israelites had a method of dealing with a chronically stubborn young man: "stone him to death with stones." A law that prescribes capital punishment of a disobedient juvenile seems cruel and violent today. Yet perhaps obedience to and trust in parents is more foundational than we realize. While we cannot always fully comprehend the concept of justice from a cosmic standpoint, here are a few considerations that can help us grapple with this part of the biblical record:

- The law prescribed an extreme punishment for an extreme situation. The offender was a thoroughly incorrigible youth—perhaps a teenage or young adult male, certainly not a child—who engaged in repeated rebellion. He had turned his back on his parents despite their ongoing attempts at correction.
- The law assumed families with parents exercising responsibility and leadership. Parents were responsible for raising their children to know and follow the Law (see "The Faith of Our Children" at Deut. 6:7–9).
- The law of stoning expands on the fifth commandment to honor one's parents. (5:16). Having been instructed in the Lord's commandments, when a youth dishonored his parents he was in effect turning his back not only on his family but also on God.
- The law assumed community participation in conviction and punishment. Turning to the elders of the community meant that the parents had no other recourse. The elders, not the parents, made the final decision and passed sentence on the son (21:19, 20). If the charges were found to be true, all the men of the city were to stone him to death (21:21). In capital cases the accuser usually cast the first stone (17:7), but in this case the offender's father was not asked to initiate the punishment. It was a shared responsibility, a dreaded burden shared by many rather than forced on the man who dreaded it most. The shared responsibility of carrying out the sentence also strongly suggests that the entire community probably shared in the attempts to correct the son's behavior, doing everything possible to avoid taking part in the final penalty.

- The law assumed individual independence. Young adults must make their own decisions. Although parents can point them down God's path, sooner or later children must choose for themselves how to live, and parents must recognize their independence. And for better or for worse, with free will comes consequences for one's actions.

It is unknown how often this remedy for rebellion was enforced by the Israelites, and this law by no means gives parents today any license to abuse their children or punish them by life-threatening means. Such behavior completely contradicts Scripture, and our society rightly enforces laws against it.

What this law does do is remind parents of their responsibility for their children's spiritual and moral training (compare Eph. 6:4). It also implies that society at large and the community of faith especially must help parents do their job, backing them up with resources and support. The goal of all discipline should not be punishment and control but rather encouragement toward true life and the freedom that comes from living responsibly.

Marriage Is a Community Choice

Deut. 22:13–21

Ever since the time of Cain (Gen. 4:17), human communities and the rule of law have aimed at keeping the family delighting rather than disintegrating, a goal that lies behind Mosaic laws concerning marital purity.

After a wedding celebration that lasted eight days, a groom and bride retreated to their home to consummate their marriage. If the husband then alleged that his wife was not a virgin—whether as a legitimate complaint or as an excuse to annul the marriage—he could not simply divorce her, abandon her, or take revenge on his in-laws. He had to take his case before the elders, who placed the woman's parents—not the woman—on trial (Deut. 22:15). The elders would consider evidence of the bride's sexual activity prior to marriage and render a ruling (22:17–21).

This guarantee of due process for women set ancient Israel apart from other Middle Eastern cultures. Marriage was more than a private covenant between two adults. It was a legal commitment publicly honored by the community. Because the nation had a vested interest in healthy marriages and families, the Lord commanded that women's rights be upheld by society, its leaders, and its legal system.

More: God intended the institutions of family, state, and church to reinforce each other. See "Social Institutions: Family, State, and Church" at Gen. 2:23.

Think About It: What is your personal role in: (1) helping couples decide who and when to marry; (2) preparing couples for marriage; (3) nurturing the marriages in your community? How will you work in concert with your community in each of these areas?

Answer Cries for Help

Deut. 22:23–29

Popular opinion today tends to assume that cities offer a lower quality of life than do suburbs, small towns, or rural areas. But the Bible spurns the idea that life is always better away from city lights. In fact, Scripture seems to hold city dwellers to a remarkably high standard of morality and justice.

Old Testament law held that in the country, if a man and a woman betrothed to another were found to have had premarital sex (possibly as a result of rape), the man should be put to death. But if the same situation occurred in the city, the woman was seen as having shared in the guilty act and therefore deserved the same punishment. The law held that rape was possible in the country, where a woman might cry out for help but go unheard, whereas in the city a woman's neighbors would hear her cries and come to her rescue. It was so unacceptable for a city's inhabitants not to defend their neighbors that the possibility simply did not factor into this statute.

No matter where we live, we have a responsibility to stand up for what is right. If we hear a cry for help, protection, or justice, it is our duty to respond (see "Love Every Neighbor" at Luke 10:27–37). Whether we make our home in the city or the country, God wants us to fill that place with His presence. He urges us to act against evil rather than let it destroy the people He loves.

Sanitation and the Sacred

Deut. 23:12, 13

Most people do not connect sewage with sacred things. But for the Israelites, who lived in a world without sophisticated plumbing or medical knowledge, God intervened, offering the Israelites a spiritual reason to properly dispose of their waste: "the LORD your God walks in the midst of your camp . . . therefore your camp shall be holy" (Deut. 23:14).

The Lord promulgated laws concerning not only sanitation but also diet, leprosy, skin diseases, boils, burns, and sores. All of these laws contributed to the well-being of Hebrew society. This tells us that God cares about health and safety, topics that should concern us as well. Issues like waste disposal, clean air and water, toxic chemicals, climate change, and other environmental matters deserve our attention and faithful management.

Ritual Prostitution
Deut. 23:17, 18

The religions of Canaanite tribes and neighboring nations were largely fertility cults. Ritualized sexual intercourse was a major part of these religions, which employed both male prostitutes ("perverted one," or "dog") and female prostitutes ("harlot"). To learn more about God's view on ritual prostitution, see "Abominations: How Not to Act" at Leviticus 18:24–30 and "Prostitutes in the Ancient World" at Judges 16:1.

The Price of a Dog
Deut. 23:18

The law that prohibited offering "the price of a dog" for a vow used the term dog as a figure of speech for a male temple prostitute. The Canaanites routinely practiced prostitution as a part of their religion (see "Abominations: How Not to Act" at Lev. 18:24–30).

Despite God's commandment, the Israelites eventually also engaged in ritual prostitution. During King Rehoboam's reign, centers of idolatry became common, and Scripture records that there were "perverted persons" in the land, another reference to male temple prostitutes (Hebrew: qadesh; 1 Kin. 14:24; compare 15:12; 22:46; 2 Kin. 23:7).

More: When Paul called the Judaizers "dogs" (Phil. 3:2), he may have been paying them an insult by comparing them to male temple prostitutes common in the Greek and Roman world. To learn more about first-century views on prostitution, see "Harlots Enter the Kingdom" at Matt. 21:31, 32.

Your Word Is Your Bond

Deut. 23:21–23

God does not subscribe to the opinion that contracts are made to be broken. He expects people to fulfill their vows and promises, especially pledges made before Him. As the Law pointed out, there is no sin in not making promises. But once we commit ourselves to a good vow, we sin against God if we fail to follow through (see "Watch the Promises You Make" at Num. 30:2).

Marriage and Divorce

Divorce was not uncommon in the ancient world. In fact, it may have been easier to procure a divorce during Bible times than during some other periods of history, though the procedures and outcomes usually favored men. The advent of the Law did not prohibit divorce but did seek to prevent God's people from treating marriage casually.

An Israelite husband could initiate an official "certificate of divorce" to dissolve his marriage on the grounds of a wife's "uncleanness" (literally "a thing of nakedness"). Scholars are not sure what "uncleanness" entailed in this situation, but whatever it was, it was considered sufficient cause for divorce. The Law spoke less about divorce in general than about whether a previously divorced couple could remarry after the wife had married and divorced a second time. The statute seems to have been aimed at preventing people from moving in and out of marriages in a way that trivialized the institution (compare Jer. 3:1).

Various traditions disagree as to whether Christians are permitted to divorce, or to remarry after divorce. But several biblical principles suggest that settling questions about divorce should begin with a proper understanding of marriage.

1. Marriage is a holy institution established by God. When God created the world, he designed male and female to be united in marriage (Gen. 1:27; 2:24). The marital union should be characterized by God's guidance. One feature of this institution is singular faithfulness to this most sacred of human bonds.
2. Marriage is fed by loving action and steady commitment. Whether partners marry for love or follow customs of arranged marriage, God expects husbands and wives to honor their union with steadily loving actions, and exclusive, lifelong commitment (Matt. 19:6). The blessing of the community is instrumental to beginning a marriage, and the help of the community contributes to the growth of a marriage (Titus 2:1–4).
3. God hates unfaithfulness. A primary cause of divorce is unfaithfulness—not only sexual infidelity but also allowing wandering affections to destroy trust, commitment, and communication. In some cases the men of Israel consorted with prostitutes, divorced in order to take pagan wives, and even divorced and remarried in order to collect dowries. God's hatred of divorce (Mal. 2:16) flows from His hatred of unfaithfulness.
4. Divorce is a concession. Divorce had become routine in the cultures surrounding Israel. The Law limited the abuse of divorce among the Hebrews. As Jesus explained, God hates divorce, but He permits it as a concession to humanity's fallen nature (Matt. 19:8). Sometimes it really is the merciful action to take.
5. Grounds for divorce are few. The Bible offers few instances when divorce is permissible. (It was mandated when Ezra commanded certain Jews returning from the Exile to end their marriages to pagans; Ezra 9–10.) The New Testament cites two reasons for divorce: adultery (Matt. 5:32; 19:9) and a Christian's desertion by an unbelieving spouse (1 Cor. 7:12–16). There may be other valid circumstances not explicitly stated in Scripture, such as persistent physical, emotional, or spiritual abuse.

6. Those who have been through divorce need compassion. As much as God hates unfaithfulness and divorce, He offers compassion to any who divorce. He readily forgives and restores people who seek His pardon.
7. Divorce, whatever the grounds, is neither a decision to take lightly nor an unforgiveable sin. Wisdom for what to do is available, most of all, from God Himself. He knows how to form, nurture, and assess a marriage. Godly members of the community can also help. (See Marriage Is a Community Choice at Deut. 22:13–21.)

Sin wreaks havoc on God's design. Yet despite this reality, divorce should not be the first or only response to a troubled relationship. Marriage is so important that partners should pursue every means possible to wisely solve what's wrong. Friends, churches, and professional counselors can assist struggling couples.

The Stranger, the Fatherless, and the Widow

Deut. 24:19–22

Developed nations generally administer economic assistance for the poor through networks of government agencies and nonprofit organizations. In ancient Israel, private citizens were responsible for helping the poor. Gleaning was a primary mechanism for caring for the needy (see "Gleaning and the Poor" at Lev. 19:9, 10).

Gleaning allowed the poor to enter a field, orchard, or vineyard after the main harvest and gather whatever the harvesters had missed or intentionally left for them. The Law encouraged landowners not to be overly zealous in gathering produce from their fields but to purposely leave food behind.

Deuteronomy names three classes of people likely to be poor: the stranger, the fatherless, and the widow. Strangers, or sojourners, were non-Hebrews who came to live in Canaan. Foreigners were given many rights among the Israelites, but they could not own land and often slid into poverty. The fatherless and widows tended to be poor because they lacked a patriarch to provide for their needs and defend their rights.

The Israelites' emphasis on assisting the poor provides a compelling argument for us to help the disadvantaged today. We may debate the best means of delivering help, but the ends are clear: to create ways for people to work to provide for their basic needs.

More: Allowing the poor to glean fields and vineyards was a form of charity suited to ancient Israel's economy. See "Modern Gleaning" at Lev. 19:10. The Israelites' own humble beginnings created an obligation to show compassion and justice to the disadvantaged. See "Remember Where You Started" at Deut. 15:15.

First and Foremost

Deut. 26:1, 2

When the Israelites eventually entered the Promised Land, the first thing they were commanded to do was to worship God with produce from their first harvest. Likewise, Christians today are commanded to place Jesus, the Lord of all of life, at the top of their priorities. No matter what else occupies our days, we are to let Him guide those elements. Every aspect of life offers opportunities to honor our Savior:

- At home: how we communicate with our spouse, our approach to resolving conflict, how we demonstrate love to our children.
- In our work: how we perform our jobs, the way we deal with coworkers and customers, our priorities in spending our earnings.
- Among our neighbors: our manner of debating issues of public policy, the projects we champion, our allocation of resources, our treatment of others, the justice we show to the powerless.

Others can tell our values by what we put first and foremost in life. Putting Christ first is the only way to achieve true balance.

A Ten Percent Tax
Deut. 26:12–15

The Israelites were obligated to pay ten percent of their income every third year to provide material assistance to the Levites and the poor. Neither group owned any land, leaving them no access to the means of production. The tithe provided for their needs (compare Deut. 14:28, 29). After presenting the tithe, the Hebrews were to declare before the Lord that they had fulfilled their obligation. In exchange, God committed to blessing their land with abundance. A cycle of obedience and blessing would ensure that no one experienced deprivation.

Over the centuries, countless complications were added to the law of the tithe, so that by Jesus' day, tithing had become a corrupted ritual with no resemblance to the original law (Matt. 23:23, 24; see also "Anonymous Givers" at Matt. 6:1–4).

More: Tithing was intended not as a burden but as a joyful celebration of God's blessing. See "Celebrating Abundance" at Deut. 14:22–26. The tithe was in effect a ten percent tax. To find out more about taxes in the ancient world, see "Taxes" at Mark 12:14.

The Value of Symbols
Deut. 27:1–4

The monument on Mount Ebal was part of an elaborate set of symbols designed to remind Israel that following the Law was a life-and-death matter. Like the successors of Moses, leaders now can use symbols to communicate meaning and values. Symbols help achieve several objectives:

- Celebrating the history of an organization, along with the values and people that shaped it;
- Orienting newcomers by showing what matters and why;
- Communicating core values by emphasizing, explaining, and enacting fundamental beliefs and principles; and
- Setting standards that establish identity, measure progress, and enforce accountability.

Every group—family, company, community, and church—has symbols. Sometimes symbols should be carefully preserved, and sometimes a change may be needed. Symbols are powerful creative expressions that remind us of what matters most, so leaders should be vigilant in guarding their significance.

God's Word Is Not a Mystery

Deut. 30:11–14

For many modern readers, the Bible remains a closed book. Some mistakenly regard the Bible as a collection of mystifying teachings that only a few particularly holy people can interpret. But God's Word is not hidden from us. It never has been. From the beginning of time, God has spoken in terms that humans can understand (Heb. 1:1, 2).

As the Israelites prepared to enter the Promised Land, Moses reminded them of this fact. God had given them the Law at Sinai (Deut. 5:4, 5, 22), so there was no need to go searching to find out what He wanted (30:11–14). The Lord had already made His will evident. He even made a permanent record of His law, written on stone tablets.

Christians also have a written record of God's Word—the Bible. Although portions of Scripture may be difficult to understand

(2 Pet. 3:15, 16), its core teaching is not a mystery. Subjective revelations or other mystical practices are not required to interpret its meaning.

The Bible's message becomes clear when we read it according to generally straightforward principles of communication. Yet Scripture is not simply for reading or study. God intends that we act on it (James 1:22). He did not give His Word merely to inform us but to change us.

The Lord of Salvation

Deut. 31:7, 8

It is significant that Moses left the leadership of Israel in the hands of Joshua. The name Joshua—which is the same as Yeshua, or Jesus—means "The Lord Is Salvation." Centuries later, the prophet Elijah transferred spiritual authority to his successor Elisha, whose name means "God Is Salvation" (2 Kin. 2:12–14). For more on the parallels between Moses and Elijah, see "Moses and Elijah" at 1 Kings 19:11.

Preserving Our Legacy

Deut. 31:28, 29

As Moses came to the end of his life, he gathered the elders of Israel together to offer some parting words. It seems he had real doubts as to whether the people would remain faithful to God after he was gone. Like so many leaders and parents, Moses likely wondered how the crucial values and vision he honored would be maintained after his departure.

Later, King Solomon felt even greater doubts than Moses over the same issue (Eccl. 2:18–21). He realized he could not guarantee that his successors would act with wisdom or impart valuable principles to future generations. Nevertheless, Scripture illustrates how leaders can best maximize their impact.

1. Articulate values and dreams frequently. Moses spelled out the Law twice, first in Exodus and again in Deuteronomy. He also caused it to be written on a memorial for all to see. Wise leaders recognize their followers can easily become distracted and forget the fundamental reasons for their work, so it is important to firmly instill expectations and values.
2. Be a mentor. Moses mentored Joshua to leave behind a highly qualified leader. Mentoring involves working transparently, letting others see not only what we do but also why—the underlying motivations and passions that sustain our energy.
3. Delegate to others. Delegation is not simply passing off work to someone else. It involves giving others tasks for which they are qualified, providing the resources and authority necessary to accomplish those tasks, monitoring progress, and providing feedback and evaluation during and after the assignment. Delegation is an investment, not an assignment. Moses would have worn himself out—and done a disservice to his followers—had he not delegated authority to qualified leaders carefully chosen from among the people (see "Practical Principles for Leadership" at Ex. 18:13–23).

More: Scripture mentions several leadership transitions. See "Leadership Changes" at Num. 20:22–29. The New Testament shows the value and dynamics of mentoring. See "Barnabas: A Model of Mentoring" at Acts 9:27.

The Gods of the Canaanites

Deut. 32:39

The Lord declared that "there is no God besides Me," a claim repeated frequently in Scripture (for example, Ex. 8:10; Deut. 4:35; 6:4; Mark 12:32). The Israelites were unusual among the peoples of the ancient world in preserving their belief in one God. Nearly all others had come to believe in numerous gods. The Canaanites worshiped more than seventy deities.

Principal Canaanite Deities

Name	Description
El	Highest of the gods but remained in the shadows; conferred power and authority on lesser gods.
Baal	Name means "Lord" or "Master"; a nature and fertility god; often designated Hadad, the storm god; also a name for other local gods such as Baal-Berith ("Lord of Covenant"; Judg. 8:33) and Baal of Peor.
Dagon	Few details known, but served by the Philistines (1 Sam. 5), who paraded blind, chained Samson in a temple dedicated to Dagon (Judg. 16:21–24).
Asherah	Wife of El (and sometimes of Baal) and mother of the other gods; goddess of the sea; often a favorite deity of women (for example, probably Jezebel, 1 Kin. 18:19); often depicted by a wooden pole or cult pillar (15:13).
Astarte or Ashtoreth	A goddess of the moon, sexuality, and fertility; sometimes worshiped as an idol by the Hebrews (Judg. 2:13; 1 Sam. 7:3, 4; 1 Kin. 11:5).
Anath	Baal's mistress; goddess of war, love, and fertility; may be the "queen of heaven" to whom Jews offered incense in Jeremiah's day (Jer. 7:18).

More: Worship of Canaanite gods involved ritual prostitution, witchcraft, and even child sacrifice, practices that earned the Canaanites their destruction. See "Abominations: How Not to Act" at Lev. 18:24–30.

The Consequences of Sin

Deut. 32:48–52

God hates sin, but He delights in our turning from it so He can forgive us (John 3:16–18; 1 John 1:9). God has promised to remove His followers' guilt "as far as the east is from the west" (Ps. 103:12). Yet even though Christ's death did away with the wages of sin (Rom. 6:23), the Lord often leaves us to face its consequences.

Moses and Aaron committed transgressions that cost them their entry into the "land of milk and honey" (Deut. 32:48–52). They doubtless confessed their sins and offered atoning sacrifices, but they still faced the consequences of their disobedience.

This is a sobering lesson for us all. Like Moses and Aaron, we can find forgiveness from God. But we are not exempt from the practical effects of our sin. Recovery may require us to live under rigorous self-discipline to avoid repeating our mistakes. Some sins produce indelible physical or emotional marks. Or we may be required, either by law or conscience, to make costly restitution to those we have wronged (see "Startling Change" at Luke 19:1–10; "Making Restitution" at Lev. 6:1–7; and "A Law for Criminals—and Their Victims" at Num. 5:7). In some cases, we may have to let go of certain relationships that our actions have broken beyond repair, at least in this world (compare Rev. 21:4).

Sin has a price. Christ paid the ultimate penalty for our sin on the cross. But when it comes to the practical consequences of our actions, we can often expect to pay those ourselves.

Deuteronomy 34

a 34:2 That is, the Mediterranean

Centuries before the Israelites entered Canaan, God promised to give the land to Abraham's descendants (Gen. 15:12–20). The Lord repeated this pledge when He called Moses to lead the Israelites out of slavery in Egypt (Ex. 3:8). Even when the Israelites turned back from entering Canaan at Kadesh Barnea, God again vowed to bring His people into the land (Num. 14:30, 31).

The Book of Joshua tells the story of God making good on His commitment. As Joshua said of the Lord's promises to the people shortly before his death, "All have come to pass for you; not one word of them has failed" (Josh. 23:14).

God told the Israelites to drive out or destroy the tribes already inhabiting Canaan. Canaanite culture was highly advanced, with the land organized into city-states. The Canaanites were among the Middle East's most active merchants and traders, but they also chose idolatrous religious practices. This brought them under God's judgment. The Israelite invasion was God's means of judging these pagan tribes (see "The Canaanites" at Josh. 3:10).

Joshua was Israel's leader throughout this era of conquest (see his profile at Josh. 1:1). His name means "The Lord Is Salvation," essentially an equivalent of the New Testament name Jesus. Joshua was born in Egypt but fled in the Exodus with the rest of his people. Apparently Moses quickly recognized this young man's leadership aptitude because he soon appointed Joshua as his general in a battle against the Amalekites (Ex. 17:8, 9). Joshua later became Moses' personal assistant (24:13) and ultimately his successor (Deut. 34:9).

The campaign to capture the Promised Land was a personal victory for Joshua. At Kadesh Barnea, he and Caleb had stood against ten other spies sent to scout the land. When the ten claimed it would be impossible to capture Canaan, Joshua and Caleb insisted that the people would succeed with the Lord's help. God said that because of their faith, Joshua and Caleb would be the only adults to live to enter the Promised Land (Num. 14:29, 30; see also "Caleb's Mountain" at Josh. 14:12). The Book of Joshua outlines major events of the conquest, including:

- The entry into the Promised Land (Josh. 1–5).
- The capture of the first city, Jericho (Josh. 6–7).
- The southern campaign (Josh. 9–10).
- The northern campaign (Josh. 11–12).
- The division of the land among the twelve tribes (Josh. 13–21).
- The renewal of the covenant at Shechem and Joshua's farewell address (Josh. 22–24).

This is a story of risk and faith. Much of Israel's population had not been born at the time of the Exodus or the giving of the Law at Sinai. Israel had spent at least forty years wandering in the wilderness. Now that God had commanded them to conquer and settle a new land, many felt fearful. But as God told Joshua, they were to "be strong and of good courage" (Josh. 1:6, 7). The Lord was with them. He would keep His promises.

The Old Testament's historical books (Joshua through Esther) are largely organized around key leaders and national figures. Yet a number of people who were unknown or had little power played prominent roles. The Book of Joshua takes its name from its lead character and the man regarded as its author.

The book covers a span of about thirty years, from just after the death of Moses (Josh. 1:1) to the death of Joshua (24:29; Judg. 1:1), sometime around 1400 B.C. The book begins with the Israelites in the plains of Moab, but they soon cross the Jordan River and move north and south throughout the territory of Canaan.

Key People in Joshua

- Joshua, Moses' successor, a superb general whose wise leadership and courageous faith enabled the Israelites to begin taking possession of Canaan (Josh. 1:1).
- Rahab, a Canaanite prostitute who exercised faith in Israel's God by aiding Israelite spies preparing their attack of the well-defended city of Jericho (Josh. 2:1).
- Achan, a man whose greed and willful disobedience cost the lives of thirty-six warriors (Josh. 7:19).
- Caleb, a dauntless leader who in his old age took on a tribe of giants who lived in Hebron (Josh. 14:6).
- Phinehas, grandson of Aaron, who resolved a potentially deadly tribal dispute (Josh. 22:13).

Key Events in Joshua

- God tells Joshua that he and his people should meditate on Scripture "day and night" (Josh. 1:8).
- Rahab the prostitute helps the Hebrew spies, an act that saves her and her family from destruction (Josh. 2:1–24; 6:22–25).
- The Israelites cross the Jordan River on dry ground (Josh. 3:7–4:18).
- The wall of Jericho falls down (Josh. 6:1–21).
- The sun stands still (Josh. 10:12–14).

Joshua 1

God's Commission to Joshua

1 After the death of Moses the servant of the LORD, it came to pass that the LORD spoke to Joshua the son of Nun, Moses' assistant, saying: Joshua

2 "Moses My servant is dead. Now therefore, arise, go over this Jordan, you and all this people, to the land which I am giving to them—the children of Israel.

3 "Every place that the sole of your foot will tread upon I have given you, as I said to Moses.

4 "From the wilderness and this Lebanon as far as the great river, the River Euphrates, all the land of the Hittites, and to the Great Sea toward the going down of the sun,
shall be your territory.

5 "No man shall be able to stand before you all the days of your life; as I was with Moses, so I will be with you. I will not leave you nor forsake you.

6 "Be strong and of good courage, for to this people you shall divide as an inheritance the land which I swore to their fathers to give them. Standing Strong

7 "Only be strong and very courageous, that you may observe to do according to all the law which Moses My servant commanded you; do not turn from it to the right hand or to the left, that you may prosper wherever you go.

8 "This Book of the Law shall not depart from your mouth, but you shall meditate in it day and night, that you may observe to do according to all that is written in it. For then you will make your way prosperous, and then you will have good success. Success and Prosperity

9 "Have I not commanded you? Be strong and of good courage; do not be afraid, nor be dismayed, for the LORD your God is with you wherever you go.”

The Order to Cross the Jordan

10Then Joshua commanded the officers of the people, saying, Survival, Success, and Salvation

11“Pass through the camp and command the people, saying, ‘Prepare provisions for yourselves, for within three days you will cross over this Jordan, to go in to possess the land which the LORD your God is giving you to possess.’ ”

12And to the Reubenites, the Gadites, and half the tribe of Manasseh Joshua spoke, saying,

13“Remember the word which Moses the servant of the LORD commanded you, saying, ‘The LORD your God is giving you rest and is giving you this land.’

14“Your wives, your little ones, and your livestock shall remain in the land which Moses gave you on this side of the Jordan. But you shall pass before your brethren armed, all your mighty men of valor, and help them,

15“until the LORD has given your brethren rest, as He gave you, and they also have taken possession of the land which the LORD your God is giving them. Then you shall return to the land of your possession and enjoy it, which Moses the LORD’s servant gave you on this side of the Jordan toward the sunrise.”

16So they answered Joshua, saying, “All that you command us we will do, and wherever you send us we will go.

17“Just as we heeded Moses in all things, so we will heed you. Only the LORD your God be with you, as He was with Moses.

18“Whoever rebels against your command and does not heed your words, in all that you command him, shall be put to death. Only be strong and of good courage.”

Joshua 2

Rahab Hides the Spies

1 Now Joshua the son of Nun sent out two men from Acacia Grove[a] to spy secretly, saying, “Go, view the land, especially Jericho.” So they went, and came to the house of a harlot named Rahab, and lodged there.

2 And it was told the king of Jericho, saying, “Behold, men have come here tonight from the children of Israel to search out the country.”

3 So the king of Jericho sent to Rahab, saying, “Bring out the men who have come to you, who have entered your house, for they have come to search out all the country.”

Rahab

4 Then the woman took the two men and hid them. So she said, “Yes, the men came to me, but I did not know where they were from.

5 “And it happened as the gate was being shut, when it was dark, that the men went out. Where the men went I do not know; pursue them quickly, for you may overtake them.”

6 (But she had brought them up to the roof and hidden them with the stalks of flax, which she had laid in order on the roof.)

7 Then the men pursued them by the road to the Jordan, to the fords. And as soon as those who pursued them had gone out, they shut the gate.

8 Now before they lay down, she came up to them on the roof,

9 and said to the men: “I know that the LORD has given you the land, that the terror of you has fallen on us, and that all the inhabitants of the land are fainthearted because of you.

10 “For we have heard how the LORD dried up the water of the Red Sea for you when you came out of Egypt, and what you did to the two kings of the Amorites who were on the other side of the Jordan, Sihon and Og, whom you utterly destroyed.

11 “And as soon as we heard these things, our hearts melted; neither did there remain any more courage in anyone because of you, for the LORD your God, He is God in heaven above and on earth beneath.

12 “Now therefore, I beg you, swear to me by the LORD, since I have shown you kindness, that you also will show kindness to my father’s house, and give me a true token,

13 “and spare my father, my mother, my brothers, my sisters, and all that they have, and deliver our lives from death.”

14 So the men answered her, “Our lives for yours, if none of you tell this business of ours. And it shall be, when the LORD has given us the land, that we will deal kindly and truly with you.”

15 Then she let them down by a rope through the window, for her house was on the city wall; she dwelt on the wall.

Four Types of Houses

16 And she said to them, “Get to the mountain, lest the pursuers meet you. Hide there three days, until the pursuers have returned. Afterward you may go your way.”

17 So the men said to her: “We will be blameless of this oath of yours which you have made us swear, 18 “unless, when we come into the land, you bind this line of scarlet cord in the window through which you let us down, and unless you bring your father, your mother, your brothers, and all your father’s household to your own home.

19 “So it shall be that whoever goes outside the doors of your house into the street, his blood shall be on his own head, and we will be guiltless. And whoever is with you in the house, his blood shall be on our head if a hand is laid on
him.
20 “And if you tell this business of ours, then we will be free from your oath which you made us swear.” 21 Then she said, “According to your words, so be it.” And she sent them away, and they departed. And she bound the scarlet cord in the window.
22 They departed and went to the mountain, and stayed there three days until the pursuers returned. The pursuers sought them all along the way, but did not find them.
23 So the two men returned, descended from the mountain, and crossed over; and they came to Joshua the son of Nun, and told him all that had befallen them.
24 And they said to Joshua, “Truly the LORD has delivered all the land into our hands, for indeed all the inhabitants of the country are fainthearted because of us.”

Joshua 3

Israel Crosses the Jordan

1 Then Joshua rose early in the morning; and they set out from Acacia Grove[a] and came to the Jordan, he and all the children of Israel, and lodged there before they crossed over.
2 So it was, after three days, that the officers went through the camp;
3 and they commanded the people, saying, "When you see the ark of the covenant of the LORD your God, and the priests, the Levites, bearing it, then you shall set out from your place and go after it.
4 "Yet there shall be a space between you and it, about two thousand cubits by measure. Do not come near it, that you may know the way by which you must go, for you have not passed this way before." 5 And Joshua said to the people, "Sanctify yourselves, for tomorrow the LORD will do wonders among you." 6 Then Joshua spoke to the priests, saying, "Take up the ark of the covenant and cross over before the people." So they took up the ark of the covenant and went before the people.
7 And the LORD said to Joshua, "This day I will begin to exalt you in the sight of all Israel, that they may know that, as I was with Moses, so I will be with you.
8 "You shall command the priests who bear the ark of the covenant, saying, 'When you have come to the edge of the water of the Jordan, you shall stand in the Jordan.' " 9 So Joshua said to the children of Israel, "Come here, and hear the words of the LORD your God."

10 And Joshua said, “By this you shall know that the living God is among you, and that He will without fail drive out from before you the Canaanites and the Hittites and the Hivites and the Perizzites and the Girgashites and the Amorites and the Jebusites: The Canaanites 11 “Behold, the ark of the covenant of the Lord of all the earth is crossing over before you into the Jordan.
12 “Now therefore, take for yourselves twelve men from the tribes of Israel, one man from every tribe.
13 “And it shall come to pass, as soon as the soles of the feet of the priests who bear the ark of the LORD, the Lord of all the earth, shall rest in the waters of the Jordan, that the waters of the Jordan shall be cut off, the waters that come down from upstream, and they shall stand as a heap.” 14 So it was, when the people set out from their camp to cross over the Jordan, with the priests bearing the ark of the covenant before the people, The Parting of the Jordan 15 and as those who bore the ark came to the Jordan, and the feet of the priests who bore the ark dipped in the edge of the water (for the Jordan overflows all its banks during the whole time of harvest), 16 that the waters which came down from upstream stood still, and rose in a heap very far away at Adam, the city that is beside Zaretan. So the waters that went down into the Sea of the Arabah, the Salt Sea, failed, and were cut off;
and the people crossed over opposite Jericho.
17 Then the priests who bore the ark of the covenant of the LORD stood firm on dry ground in the midst of the Jordan; and all Israel crossed over on dry ground, until all the people had crossed completely over the Jordan.

Joshua 4

The Memorial Stones

1 And it came to pass, when all the people had completely crossed over the Jordan, that the LORD spoke to Joshua,
saying:
2 "Take for yourselves twelve men from the people, one man from every tribe,
3 "and command them, saying, 'Take for yourselves twelve stones from here, out of the midst of the Jordan, from the place where the priests' feet stood firm. You shall carry them over with you and leave them in the lodging place where you lodge tonight.' " 4 Then Joshua called the twelve men whom he had appointed from the children of Israel, one man from every tribe;
5 and Joshua said to them: "Cross over before the ark of the LORD your God into the midst of the Jordan, and each one of you take up a stone on his shoulder, according to the number of the tribes of the children of Israel, 6 "that this may be a sign among you when your children ask in time to come, saying, 'What do these stones mean to
you?'
7 "Then you shall answer them that the waters of the Jordan were cut off before the ark of the covenant of the LORD; when it crossed over the Jordan, the waters of the Jordan were cut off. And these stones shall be for a memorial to the children of Israel forever." 8 And the children of Israel did so, just as Joshua commanded, and took up twelve stones from the midst of the Jordan, as the LORD had spoken to Joshua, according to the number of the tribes of the children of Israel, and carried them over with them to the place where they lodged, and laid them down there.

9 Then Joshua set up twelve stones in the midst of the Jordan, in the place where the feet of the priests who bore the ark of the covenant stood; and they are there to this day.

10 So the priests who bore the ark stood in the midst of the Jordan until everything was finished that the LORD had commanded Joshua to speak to the people, according to all that Moses had commanded Joshua; and the people hurried and crossed over.

11 Then it came to pass, when all the people had completely crossed over, that the ark of the LORD and the priests crossed over in the presence of the people.

12 And the men of Reuben, the men of Gad, and half the tribe of Manasseh crossed over armed before the children of Israel, as Moses had spoken to them.

13 About forty thousand prepared for war crossed over before the LORD for battle, to the plains of Jericho.

14 On that day the LORD exalted Joshua in the sight of all Israel; and they feared him, as they had feared Moses, all the days of his life.

15 Then the LORD spoke to Joshua, saying,

16 "Command the priests who bear the ark of the Testimony to come up from the Jordan."

17 Joshua therefore commanded the priests, saying, "Come up from the Jordan."

18 And it came to pass, when the priests who bore the ark of the covenant of the LORD had come from the midst of the Jordan, and the soles of the priests' feet touched the dry land, that the waters of the Jordan returned to their place and overflowed all its banks as before.

19 Now the people came up from the Jordan on the tenth day of the first month, and they camped in Gilgal on the east border of Jericho.

[20]And those twelve stones which they took out of the Jordan, Joshua set up in Gilgal.

[21]Then he spoke to the children of Israel, saying: “When your children ask their fathers in time to come, saying, ‘What are these stones?’

[22]“then you shall let your children know, saying, ‘Israel crossed over this Jordan on dry land’;

[23]“for the LORD your God dried up the waters of the Jordan before you until you had crossed over, as the LORD your God did to the Red Sea, which He dried up before us until we had crossed over,

[24]“that all the peoples of the earth may know the hand of the LORD, that it is mighty, that you may fear the LORD your God forever.”

Joshua 5

The Second Generation Circumcised

1 So it was, when all the kings of the Amorites who were on the west side of the Jordan, and all the kings of the Canaanites who were by the sea, heard that the LORD had dried up the waters of the Jordan from before the children of Israel until we[a] had crossed over, that their heart melted;
and there was no spirit in them any longer because of the children of Israel.

2 At that time the LORD said to Joshua, "Make flint knives for yourself, and circumcise the sons of Israel again the second time."

3 So Joshua made flint knives for himself, and circumcised
the sons of Israel at the hill of the foreskins.[b]

4 And this is the reason why Joshua circumcised them: All the people who came out of Egypt who were males, all the men of war, had died in the wilderness on the way, after they had come out of Egypt.

5 For all the people who came out had been circumcised, but all the people born in the wilderness, on the way as they came out of Egypt, had not been circumcised.

6 For the children of Israel walked forty years in the wilderness, till all the people who were men of war, who came out of Egypt, were consumed, because they did not obey the voice of the LORD—to whom the LORD swore that He would not show them the land which the LORD had sworn to their fathers that He would give us, "a land flowing with milk and honey."[c]

7 Then Joshua circumcised their sons whom He raised up in their place; for they were uncircumcised, because they had not been circumcised on the way.

[8]So it was, when they had finished circumcising all the people, that they stayed in their places in the camp till they were healed.

[9]Then the LORD said to Joshua, “This day I have rolled away the reproach of Egypt from you.” Therefore the name of the place is called Gilgal[d] to this day. Gilgal

10Now the children of Israel camped in Gilgal, and kept the Passover on the fourteenth day of the month at twilight on the plains of Jericho.

[11]And they ate of the produce of the land on the day after the Passover, unleavened bread and parched grain, on the very same day.

[12]Then the manna ceased on the day after they had eaten the produce of the land; and the children of Israel no longer had manna, but they ate the food of the land of Canaan that year.

The Commander of the Army of the LORD

13And it came to pass, when Joshua was by Jericho, that he lifted his eyes and looked, and behold, a Man stood opposite him with His sword drawn in His hand. And Joshua went to Him and said to Him, “Are You for us or for our adversaries?” The Commander

[14]So He said, “No, but as Commander of the army of the LORD I have now come.” And Joshua fell on his face to the earth and worshiped, and said to Him, “What does my Lord say to His servant?”

[15]Then the Commander of the LORD’s army said to Joshua, “Take your sandal off your foot, for the place where you stand is holy.” And Joshua did so.

Joshua 6

The Destruction of Jericho

1 Now Jericho was securely shut up because of the children of Israel; none went out, and none came in. Jericho

2 And the LORD said to Joshua: “See! I have given Jericho into your hand, its king, and the mighty men of valor.

3 “You shall march around the city, all you men of war;
you shall go all around the city once. This you shall do six days. Joshua’s Praise March

4 “And seven priests shall bear seven trumpets of rams’ horns before the ark. But the seventh day you shall march around the city seven times, and the priests shall blow the trumpets.

5 “It shall come to pass, when they make a long blast with the ram’s horn, and when you hear the sound of the trumpet, that all the people shall shout with a great shout;
then the wall of the city will fall down flat. And the people shall go up every man straight before him.”

6 Then Joshua the son of Nun called the priests and said to them, “Take up the ark of the covenant, and let seven priests bear seven trumpets of rams’ horns before the ark
of the LORD.”

7 And he said to the people, “Proceed, and march around the city, and let him who is armed advance before the ark
of the LORD.”

8 So it was, when Joshua had spoken to the people, that the seven priests bearing the seven trumpets of rams’ horns before the LORD advanced and blew the trumpets, and the ark of the covenant of the LORD followed them.

9 The armed men went before the priests who blew the trumpets, and the rear guard came after the ark, while the priests continued blowing the trumpets.

10 Now Joshua had commanded the people, saying, “You shall not shout or make any noise with your voice, nor shall a word proceed out of your mouth, until the day I say to you, ‘Shout!’ Then you shall shout.”

11 So he had the ark of the LORD circle the city, going around it once. Then they came into the camp and lodged in the camp.

12 And Joshua rose early in the morning, and the priests took up the ark of the LORD.

13 Then seven priests bearing seven trumpets of rams’ horns before the ark of the LORD went on continually and blew with the trumpets. And the armed men went before them. But the rear guard came after the ark of the LORD, while the priests continued blowing the trumpets.

14 And the second day they marched around the city once and returned to the camp. So they did six days.

15 But it came to pass on the seventh day that they rose early, about the dawning of the day, and marched around the city seven times in the same manner. On that day only they marched around the city seven times.

16 And the seventh time it happened, when the priests blew the trumpets, that Joshua said to the people: “Shout, for the LORD has given you the city!

17 “Now the city shall be doomed by the LORD to destruction, it and all who are in it. Only Rahab the harlot shall live, she and all who are with her in the house, because she hid the messengers that we sent.

18 “And you, by all means abstain from the accursed things, lest you become accursed when you take of the accursed things, and make the camp of Israel a curse, and trouble it.

19 “But all the silver and gold, and vessels of bronze and iron, are consecrated to the LORD; they shall come into the treasury of the LORD.”

20So the people shouted when the priests blew the trumpets. And it happened when the people heard the sound of the trumpet, and the people shouted with a great shout, that the wall fell down flat. Then the people went up into the city, every man straight before him, and they took the city. The Wall of Jericho

21And they utterly destroyed all that was in the city, both man and woman, young and old, ox and sheep and donkey, with the edge of the sword.

22But Joshua had said to the two men who had spied out the country, “Go into the harlot’s house, and from there bring out the woman and all that she has, as you swore to her.”

23And the young men who had been spies went in and brought out Rahab, her father, her mother, her brothers, and all that she had. So they brought out all her relatives and left them outside the camp of Israel.

24But they burned the city and all that was in it with fire. Only the silver and gold, and the vessels of bronze and iron, they put into the treasury of the house of the LORD.

25And Joshua spared Rahab the harlot, her father’s household, and all that she had. So she dwells in Israel to this day, because she hid the messengers whom Joshua sent to spy out Jericho.

26Then Joshua charged them at that time, saying, “Cursed be the man before the LORD who rises up and builds this city Jericho; he shall lay its foundation with his firstborn, and with his youngest he shall set up its gates.”

27So the LORD was with Joshua, and his fame spread throughout all the country.

Joshua 7

Defeat at Ai

1 But the children of Israel committed a trespass regarding the accursed things, for Achan the son of Carmi, the son of Zabdi,[a] the son of Zerah, of the tribe of Judah, took of the accursed things; so the anger of the LORD burned against the children of Israel.

2 Now Joshua sent men from Jericho to Ai, which is beside Beth Aven, on the east side of Bethel, and spoke to them, saying, "Go up and spy out the country." So the men went up and spied out Ai.

3 And they returned to Joshua and said to him, "Do not let all the people go up, but let about two or three thousand men go up and attack Ai. Do not weary all the people there, for the people of Ai are few."

4 So about three thousand men went up there from the people, but they fled before the men of Ai.

5 And the men of Ai struck down about thirty-six men, for they chased them from before the gate as far as Shebarim, and struck them down on the descent; therefore the hearts of the people melted and became like water.

6 Then Joshua tore his clothes, and fell to the earth on his face before the ark of the LORD until evening, he and the elders of Israel; and they put dust on their heads.

7 And Joshua said, "Alas, Lord GOD, why have You brought this people over the Jordan at all—to deliver us into the hand of the Amorites, to destroy us? Oh, that we had been content, and dwelt on the other side of the Jordan!

8 "O Lord, what shall I say when Israel turns its back before its enemies?

9 “For the Canaanites and all the inhabitants of the land will hear it, and surround us, and cut off our name from the earth. Then what will You do for Your great name?”

The Sin of Achan

10 So the LORD said to Joshua: “Get up! Why do you lie thus on your face?
11 “Israel has sinned, and they have also transgressed My covenant which I commanded them. For they have even taken some of the accursed things, and have both stolen and deceived; and they have also put it among their own stuff.
12 “Therefore the children of Israel could not stand before their enemies, but turned their backs before their enemies, because they have become doomed to destruction. Neither will I be with you anymore, unless you destroy the accursed from among you.
13 “Get up, sanctify the people, and say, ‘Sanctify yourselves for tomorrow, because thus says the LORD God of Israel: “There is an accursed thing in your midst, O Israel; you cannot stand before your enemies until you take away the accursed thing from among you.” 14 ‘In the morning therefore you shall be brought according to your tribes. And it shall be that the tribe which the LORD takes shall come according to families;
and the family which the LORD takes shall come by households; and the household which the LORD takes shall come man by man.
15 ‘Then it shall be that he who is taken with the accursed thing shall be burned with fire, he and all that he has,
because he has transgressed the covenant of the LORD, and because he has done a disgraceful thing in Israel.’ ” 16 So Joshua rose early in the morning and brought Israel by their tribes, and the tribe of Judah was taken.

17 He brought the clan of Judah, and he took the family of the Zarhites; and he brought the family of the Zarhites man by man, and Zabdi was taken.
18 Then he brought his household man by man, and Achan the son of Carmi, the son of Zabdi, the son of Zerah, of the tribe of Judah, was taken.
19 Now Joshua said to Achan, “My son, I beg you, give glory to the LORD God of Israel, and make confession to Him, and tell me now what you have done; do not hide it from me.” Achan
20 And Achan answered Joshua and said, “Indeed I have sinned against the LORD God of Israel, and this is what I have done: Admitting Sin
21 “When I saw among the spoils a beautiful Babylonian garment, two hundred shekels of silver, and a wedge of gold weighing fifty shekels, I coveted them and took them.
And there they are, hidden in the earth in the midst of my tent, with the silver under it.” I Saw, I Wanted, I Took 22 So Joshua sent messengers, and they ran to the tent;
and there it was, hidden in his tent, with the silver under it.
23 And they took them from the midst of the tent, brought them to Joshua and to all the children of Israel, and laid them out before the LORD.
24 Then Joshua, and all Israel with him, took Achan the son of Zerah, the silver, the garment, the wedge of gold, his sons, his daughters, his oxen, his donkeys, his sheep, his tent, and all that he had, and they brought them to the Valley of Achor.
25 And Joshua said, “Why have you troubled us? The LORD will trouble you this day.” So all Israel stoned him with stones; and they burned them with fire after they had stoned them with stones.
26 Then they raised over him a great heap of stones, still there to this day. So the LORD turned from the fierceness of His anger. Therefore the name of that place has been called the Valley of Achor[b] to this day.

Joshua 8

The Fall of Ai

1 Now the LORD said to Joshua: “Do not be afraid, nor be dismayed; take all the people of war with you, and arise, go up to Ai. See, I have given into your hand the king of Ai, his people, his city, and his land.
2 “And you shall do to Ai and its king as you did to Jericho and its king. Only its spoil and its cattle you shall take as booty for yourselves. Lay an ambush for the city behind it.”
3 So Joshua arose, and all the people of war, to go up against Ai; and Joshua chose thirty thousand mighty men of valor and sent them away by night.
4 And he commanded them, saying: “Behold, you shall lie in ambush against the city, behind the city. Do not go very far from the city, but all of you be ready.
5 “Then I and all the people who are with me will approach the city; and it will come about, when they come out against us as at the first, that we shall flee before them.
6 “For they will come out after us till we have drawn them from the city, for they will say, ‘They are fleeing before us as at the first.’ Therefore we will flee before them.
7 “Then you shall rise from the ambush and seize the city, for the LORD your God will deliver it into your hand.
8 “And it will be, when you have taken the city, that you shall set the city on fire. According to the commandment of the LORD you shall do. See, I have commanded you.” 9 Joshua therefore sent them out; and they went to lie in ambush, and stayed between Bethel and Ai, on the west side of Ai; but Joshua lodged that night among the people.
10 Then Joshua rose up early in the morning and mustered the people, and went up, he and the elders of Israel, before the people to Ai.

11 And all the people of war who were with him went up and drew near; and they came before the city and camped on the north side of Ai. Now a valley lay between them and Ai.

12 So he took about five thousand men and set them in ambush between Bethel and Ai, on the west side of the city.

13 And when they had set the people, all the army that was on the north of the city, and its rear guard on the west of the city, Joshua went that night into the midst of the valley.

14 Now it happened, when the king of Ai saw it, that the men of the city hurried and rose early and went out against Israel to battle, he and all his people, at an appointed place before the plain. But he did not know that there was an ambush against him behind the city.

15 And Joshua and all Israel made as if they were beaten before them, and fled by the way of the wilderness.

16 So all the people who were in Ai were called together to pursue them. And they pursued Joshua and were drawn away from the city.

17 There was not a man left in Ai or Bethel who did not go out after Israel. So they left the city open and pursued Israel.

18 Then the LORD said to Joshua, “Stretch out the spear that is in your hand toward Ai, for I will give it into your hand.” And Joshua stretched out the spear that was in his hand toward the city.

19 So those in ambush arose quickly out of their place; they ran as soon as he had stretched out his hand, and they entered the city and took it, and hurried to set the city on fire.

20 And when the men of Ai looked behind them, they saw, and behold, the smoke of the city ascended to heaven. So they had no power to flee this way or that way, and the people who had fled to the wilderness turned back on the pursuers.

21 Now when Joshua and all Israel saw that the ambush had taken the city and that the smoke of the city ascended, they turned back and struck down the men of Ai.

22 Then the others came out of the city against them; so they were caught in the midst of Israel, some on this side and some on that side. And they struck them down, so that they let none of them remain or escape.

23 But the king of Ai they took alive, and brought him to Joshua.

24 And it came to pass when Israel had made an end of slaying all the inhabitants of Ai in the field, in the wilderness where they pursued them, and when they all had fallen by the edge of the sword until they were consumed, that all the Israelites returned to Ai and struck it with the edge of the sword.

25 So it was that all who fell that day, both men and women, were twelve thousand—all the people of Ai.

26 For Joshua did not draw back his hand, with which he stretched out the spear, until he had utterly destroyed all the inhabitants of Ai.

27 Only the livestock and the spoil of that city Israel took as booty for themselves, according to the word of the LORD which He had commanded Joshua.

28 So Joshua burned Ai and made it a heap forever, a desolation to this day.

29 And the king of Ai he hanged on a tree until evening. And as soon as the sun was down, Joshua commanded that they should take his corpse down from the tree, cast it at the entrance of the gate of the city, and raise over it a great heap of stones that remains to this day.

Joshua Renews the Covenant

30 Now Joshua built an altar to the LORD God of Israel in Mount Ebal, A Done Deal
31 as Moses the servant of the LORD had commanded the children of Israel, as it is written in the Book of the Law of Moses: “an altar of whole stones over which no man has wielded an iron tool.”[a] And they offered on it burnt offerings to the LORD, and sacrificed peace offerings.
32 And there, in the presence of the children of Israel, he wrote on the stones a copy of the law of Moses, which he had written.
33 Then all Israel, with their elders and officers and judges, stood on either side of the ark before the priests, the Levites, who bore the ark of the covenant of the LORD, the stranger as well as he who was born among them. Half of them were in front of Mount Gerizim and half of them in front of Mount Ebal, as Moses the servant of the LORD had commanded before, that they should bless the people of Israel.
34 And afterward he read all the words of the law, the blessings and the cursings, according to all that is written in the Book of the Law.
35 There was not a word of all that Moses had commanded which Joshua did not read before all the assembly of Israel, with the women, the little ones, and the strangers who were living among them.

Joshua 9

The Treaty with the Gibeonites

1 And it came to pass when all the kings who were on this side of the Jordan, in the hills and in the lowland and in all the coasts of the Great Sea toward Lebanon—the Hittite, the Amorite, the Canaanite, the Perizzite, the Hivite, and the Jebusite—heard about it,
2 that they gathered together to fight with Joshua and Israel with one accord.
3 But when the inhabitants of Gibeon heard what Joshua had done to Jericho and Ai, 4 they worked craftily, and went and pretended to be ambassadors. And they took old sacks on their donkeys, old wineskins torn and mended, 5 old and patched sandals on their feet, and old garments on themselves; and all the bread of their provision was dry and moldy.
6 And they went to Joshua, to the camp at Gilgal, and said to him and to the men of Israel, "We have come from a far country; now therefore, make a covenant with us." 7 Then the men of Israel said to the Hivites, "Perhaps you dwell among us; so how can we make a covenant with
you?"
8 But they said to Joshua, "We are your servants." And Joshua said to them, "Who are you, and where do you come from?"
9 So they said to him: "From a very far country your servants have come, because of the name of the LORD your God; for we have heard of His fame, and all that He did in Egypt,

10 “and all that He did to the two kings of the Amorites who were beyond the Jordan—to Sihon king of Heshbon, and Og king of Bashan, who was at Ashtaroth.
11 “Therefore our elders and all the inhabitants of our country spoke to us, saying, ‘Take provisions with you for the journey, and go to meet them, and say to them, “We are your servants; now therefore, make a covenant with us.” ’ 12 “This bread of ours we took hot for our provision from our houses on the day we departed to come to you. But now look, it is dry and moldy.
13 “And these wineskins which we filled were new, and see, they are torn; and these our garments and our sandals have become old because of the very long journey.” 14 Then the men of Israel took some of their provisions;
but they did not ask counsel of the LORD. Peace at Any Price 15 So Joshua made peace with them, and made a covenant with them to let them live; and the rulers of the congregation swore to them. A Peace Treaty 16 And it happened at the end of three days, after they had made a covenant with them, that they heard that they were their neighbors who dwelt near them.
17 Then the children of Israel journeyed and came to their cities on the third day. Now their cities were Gibeon, Chephirah, Beeroth, and Kirjath Jearim.
18 But the children of Israel did not attack them, because the rulers of the congregation had sworn to them by the LORD God of Israel. And all the congregation complained against the rulers.
19 Then all the rulers said to all the congregation, “We have sworn to them by the LORD God of Israel; now therefore, we may not touch them.
20 “This we will do to them: We will let them live, lest wrath be upon us because of the oath which we swore to
them.”

21 And the rulers said to them, “Let them live, but let them be woodcutters and water carriers for all the congregation, as the rulers had promised them.” 22 Then Joshua called for them, and he spoke to them, saying, “Why have you deceived us, saying, ‘We are very far from you,’ when you dwell near us?
23 “Now therefore, you are cursed, and none of you shall be freed from being slaves—woodcutters and water carriers for the house of my God.” 24 So they answered Joshua and said, “Because your servants were clearly told that the LORD your God commanded His servant Moses to give you all the land, and to destroy all the inhabitants of the land from before you; therefore we were very much afraid for our lives because of you, and have done this thing.
25 “And now, here we are, in your hands; do with us as it seems good and right to do to us.”
26 So he did to them, and delivered them out of the hand of the children of Israel, so that they did not kill them.
27 And that day Joshua made them woodcutters and water carriers for the congregation and for the altar of the LORD, in the place which He would choose, even to this day.

Joshua 10

The Sun Stands Still

1 Now it came to pass when Adoni-Zedek king of Jerusalem heard how Joshua had taken Ai and had utterly destroyed it —as he had done to Jericho and its king, so he had done to Ai and its king—and how the inhabitants of Gibeon had made peace with Israel and were among them, 2 that they feared greatly, because Gibeon was a great city, like one of the royal cities, and because it was greater than Ai, and all its men were mighty.
3 Therefore Adoni-Zedek king of Jerusalem sent to Hoham king of Hebron, Piram king of Jarmuth, Japhia king of Lachish, and Debir king of Eglon, saying,
4 "Come up to me and help me, that we may attack Gibeon, for it has made peace with Joshua and with the children of Israel."
5 Therefore the five kings of the Amorites, the king of Jerusalem, the king of Hebron, the king of Jarmuth, the king of Lachish, and the king of Eglon, gathered together and went up, they and all their armies, and camped before Gibeon and made war against it.
6 And the men of Gibeon sent to Joshua at the camp at Gilgal, saying, "Do not forsake your servants; come up to us quickly, save us and help us, for all the kings of the Amorites who dwell in the mountains have gathered together against us."
7 So Joshua ascended from Gilgal, he and all the people of war with him, and all the mighty men of valor.
8 And the LORD said to Joshua, "Do not fear them, for I have delivered them into your hand; not a man of them shall stand before you."

9 Joshua therefore came upon them suddenly, having marched all night from Gilgal.
10 So the LORD routed them before Israel, killed them with a great slaughter at Gibeon, chased them along the road that goes to Beth Horon, and struck them down as far as Azekah and Makkedah.
11 And it happened, as they fled before Israel and were on the descent of Beth Horon, that the LORD cast down large hailstones from heaven on them as far as Azekah, and they died. There were more who died from the hailstones than the children of Israel killed with the sword.
12 Then Joshua spoke to the LORD in the day when the LORD delivered up the Amorites before the children of Israel, and he said in the sight of Israel:

> "Sun, stand still over Gibeon;
> And Moon, in the Valley of Aijalon." > 13 So the sun stood still,
> And the moon stopped,
> Till the people had revenge
> Upon their enemies.

Is this not written in the Book of Jasher? So the sun stood still in the midst of heaven, and did not hasten to go down for about a whole day.
14 And there has been no day like that, before it or after it, that the LORD heeded the voice of a man; for the LORD fought for Israel.
15 Then Joshua returned, and all Israel with him, to the camp at Gilgal.

The Amorite Kings Executed

16 But these five kings had fled and hidden themselves in a cave at Makkedah.

17 And it was told Joshua, saying, “The five kings have been found hidden in the cave at Makkedah.” 18 So Joshua said, “Roll large stones against the mouth of the cave, and set men by it to guard them.
19 “And do not stay there yourselves, but pursue your enemies, and attack their rear guard. Do not allow them to enter their cities, for the LORD your God has delivered them into your hand.”
20 Then it happened, while Joshua and the children of Israel made an end of slaying them with a very great slaughter, till they had finished, that those who escaped entered fortified cities.
21 And all the people returned to the camp, to Joshua at Makkedah, in peace. No one moved his tongue against any of the children of Israel.
22 Then Joshua said, “Open the mouth of the cave, and bring out those five kings to me from the cave.” 23 And they did so, and brought out those five kings to him from the cave: the king of Jerusalem, the king of Hebron, the king of Jarmuth, the king of Lachish, and the king of Eglon.
24 So it was, when they brought out those kings to Joshua, that Joshua called for all the men of Israel, and said to the captains of the men of war who went with him, “Come near, put your feet on the necks of these kings.” And they drew near and put their feet on their necks.
25 Then Joshua said to them, “Do not be afraid, nor be dismayed; be strong and of good courage, for thus the LORD will do to all your enemies against whom you fight.” 26 And afterward Joshua struck them and killed them, and hanged them on five trees; and they were hanging on the trees until evening.
27 So it was at the time of the going down of the sun that Joshua commanded, and they took them down from the trees, cast them into the cave where they had been hidden, and laid large stones against the cave's mouth, which remain until this very day.

Conquest of the Southland

28On that day Joshua took Makkedah, and struck it and its king with the edge of the sword. He utterly destroyed them[a]—all the people who were in it. He let none remain. He also did to the king of Makkedah as he had done to the king of Jericho.

29Then Joshua passed from Makkedah, and all Israel with him, to Libnah; and they fought against Libnah.

30And the LORD also delivered it and its king into the hand of Israel; he struck it and all the people who were in it with the edge of the sword. He let none remain in it, but did to its king as he had done to the king of Jericho.

31Then Joshua passed from Libnah, and all Israel with him, to Lachish; and they encamped against it and fought against it.

32And the LORD delivered Lachish into the hand of Israel, who took it on the second day, and struck it and all the people who were in it with the edge of the sword, according to all that he had done to Libnah.

33Then Horam king of Gezer came up to help Lachish; and Joshua struck him and his people, until he left him none remaining.

34From Lachish Joshua passed to Eglon, and all Israel with him; and they encamped against it and fought against it.

35They took it on that day and struck it with the edge of the sword; all the people who were in it he utterly destroyed that day, according to all that he had done to Lachish.

36So Joshua went up from Eglon, and all Israel with him, to Hebron; and they fought against it.

37And they took it and struck it with the edge of the sword—its king, all its cities, and all the people who were in it; he left none remaining, according to all that he had done to Eglon, but utterly destroyed it and all the people who were in it.

38Then Joshua returned, and all Israel with him, to Debir; and they fought against it.

39And he took it and its king and all its cities; they struck them with the edge of the sword and utterly destroyed all the people who were in it. He left none remaining; as he had done to Hebron, so he did to Debir and its king, as he had done also to Libnah and its king.

40So Joshua conquered all the land: the mountain country and the South[b] and the lowland and the wilderness slopes, and all their kings; he left none remaining, but utterly destroyed all that breathed, as the LORD God of Israel had commanded.

41And Joshua conquered them from Kadesh Barnea as far as Gaza, and all the country of Goshen, even as far as Gibeon.

42All these kings and their land Joshua took at one time, because the LORD God of Israel fought for Israel.

43Then Joshua returned, and all Israel with him, to the camp at Gilgal.

Joshua 11

The Northern Conquest

1 And it came to pass, when Jabin king of Hazor heard these things, that he sent to Jobab king of Madon, to the king of Shimron, to the king of Achshaph,

2 and to the kings who were from the north, in the mountains, in the plain south of Chinneroth, in the lowland, and in the heights of Dor on the west,

3 to the Canaanites in the east and in the west, the Amorite, the Hittite, the Perizzite, the Jebusite in the mountains, and the Hivite below Hermon in the land of Mizpah.

4 So they went out, they and all their armies with them, as many people as the sand that is on the seashore in multitude, with very many horses and chariots.

5 And when all these kings had met together, they came and camped together at the waters of Merom to fight against Israel.

6 But the LORD said to Joshua, “Do not be afraid because of them, for tomorrow about this time I will deliver all of them slain before Israel. You shall hamstring their horses and burn their chariots with fire.”

7 So Joshua and all the people of war with him came against them suddenly by the waters of Merom, and they attacked them.

8 And the LORD delivered them into the hand of Israel, who defeated them and chased them to Greater Sidon, to the Brook Misrephoth,[a] and to the Valley of Mizpah eastward; they attacked them until they left none of them remaining.

9 So Joshua did to them as the LORD had told him: he hamstrung their horses and burned their chariots with fire.
10 Joshua turned back at that time and took Hazor, and struck its king with the sword; for Hazor was formerly the head of all those kingdoms.
11 And they struck all the people who were in it with the edge of the sword, utterly destroying them. There was none left breathing. Then he burned Hazor with fire.
12 So all the cities of those kings, and all their kings, Joshua took and struck with the edge of the sword. He utterly destroyed them, as Moses the servant of the LORD had commanded.
13 But as for the cities that stood on their mounds,[b] Israel burned none of them, except Hazor only, which Joshua burned.
14 And all the spoil of these cities and the livestock, the children of Israel took as booty for themselves; but they struck every man with the edge of the sword until they had destroyed them, and they left none breathing.
15 As the LORD had commanded Moses His servant, so Moses commanded Joshua, and so Joshua did. He left nothing undone of all that the LORD had commanded Moses.

Summary of Joshua's Conquests

16 Thus Joshua took all this land: the mountain country, all the South, all the land of Goshen, the lowland, and the Jordan plain[c]—the mountains of Israel and its lowlands, 17 from Mount Halak and the ascent to Seir, even as far as Baal Gad in the Valley of Lebanon below Mount Hermon.
He captured all their kings, and struck them down and killed them.
18 Joshua made war a long time with all those kings.

19 There was not a city that made peace with the children of Israel, except the Hivites, the inhabitants of Gibeon. All the others they took in battle.
20 For it was of the LORD to harden their hearts, that they should come against Israel in battle, that He might utterly destroy them, and that they might receive no mercy, but that He might destroy them, as the LORD had commanded Moses.
21 And at that time Joshua came and cut off the Anakim from the mountains: from Hebron, from Debir, from Anab, from all the mountains of Judah, and from all the mountains of Israel; Joshua utterly destroyed them with their cities.
22 None of the Anakim were left in the land of the children of Israel; they remained only in Gaza, in Gath, and in Ashdod.
23 So Joshua took the whole land, according to all that the LORD had said to Moses; and Joshua gave it as an inheritance to Israel according to their divisions by their tribes. Then the land rested from war.

Joshua 12

The Kings Conquered by Moses

1 These are the kings of the land whom the children of Israel defeated, and whose land they possessed on the other side of the Jordan toward the rising of the sun, from the River Arnon to Mount Hermon, and all the eastern Jordan plain:
2 One king was Sihon king of the Amorites, who dwelt in Heshbon and ruled half of Gilead, from Aroer, which is on the bank of the River Arnon, from the middle of that river, even as far as the River Jabbok, which is the border of the Ammonites,
3 and the eastern Jordan plain from the Sea of Chinneroth as far as the Sea of the Arabah (the Salt Sea), the road to Beth Jeshimoth, and southward below the slopes of Pisgah.
4 The other king was Og king of Bashan and his territory, who was of the remnant of the giants, who dwelt at Ashtaroth and at Edrei,
5 and reigned over Mount Hermon, over Salcah, over all Bashan, as far as the border of the Geshurites and the Maachathites, and over half of Gilead to the border of Sihon king of Heshbon.
6 These Moses the servant of the LORD and the children of Israel had conquered; and Moses the servant of the LORD had given it as a possession to the Reubenites, the Gadites, and half the tribe of Manasseh.

The Kings Conquered by Joshua

7 And these are the kings of the country which Joshua and the children of Israel conquered on this side of the Jordan, on the west, from Baal Gad in the Valley of Lebanon as far as Mount Halak and the ascent to Seir, which Joshua gave to the tribes of Israel as a possession according to their divisions,

[8]in the mountain country, in the lowlands, in the Jordan plain, in the slopes, in the wilderness, and in the South—the Hittites, the Amorites, the Canaanites, the Perizzites, the Hivites, and the Jebusites:

[9]the king of Jericho, one; the king of Ai, which is beside Bethel, one;

[10]the king of Jerusalem, one; the king of Hebron, one;

[11]the king of Jarmuth, one; the king of Lachish, one;

[12]the king of Eglon, one; the king of Gezer, one;

[13]the king of Debir, one; the king of Geder, one;

[14]the king of Hormah, one; the king of Arad, one;

[15]the king of Libnah, one; the king of Adullam, one;

[16]the king of Makkedah, one; the king of Bethel, one;

[17]the king of Tappuah, one; the king of Hepher, one;

[18]the king of Aphek, one; the king of Lasharon, one;

[19]the king of Madon, one; the king of Hazor, one;

[20]the king of Shimron Meron, one; the king of Achshaph, one;

[21]the king of Taanach, one; the king of Megiddo, one;

[22]the king of Kedesh, one; the king of Jokneam in Carmel, one;

[23]the king of Dor in the heights of Dor, one; the king of the people of Gilgal, one;

[24]the king of Tirzah, one—all the kings, thirty-one.

Joshua 13

Remaining Land to Be Conquered

1 Now Joshua was old, advanced in years. And the LORD said to him: “You are old, advanced in years, and there remains very much land yet to be possessed.
2 “This is the land that yet remains: all the territory of the Philistines and all that of the Geshurites, 3 “from Sihor, which is east of Egypt, as far as the border of Ekron northward (which is counted as Canaanite); the five lords of the Philistines—the Gazites, the Ashdodites, the Ashkelonites, the Gittites, and the Ekronites; also the Avites;
4 “from the south, all the land of the Canaanites, and Mearah that belongs to the Sidonians as far as Aphek, to the border of the Amorites;
5 “the land of the Gebalites,[a] and all Lebanon, toward the sunrise, from Baal Gad below Mount Hermon as far as the entrance to Hamath;
6 “all the inhabitants of the mountains from Lebanon as far as the Brook Misrephoth,[b] and all the Sidonians—them I will drive out from before the children of Israel; only divide it by lot to Israel as an inheritance, as I have commanded
you.
7 “Now therefore, divide this land as an inheritance to the nine tribes and half the tribe of Manasseh.”

The Land Divided East of the Jordan

8 With the other half-tribe the Reubenites and the Gadites received their inheritance, which Moses had given them, beyond the Jordan eastward, as Moses the servant of the LORD had given them:

9 from Aroer which is on the bank of the River Arnon, and the town that is in the midst of the ravine, and all the plain of Medeba as far as Dibon;
10 all the cities of Sihon king of the Amorites, who reigned in Heshbon, as far as the border of the children of Ammon; 11 Gilead, and the border of the Geshurites and Maachathites, all Mount Hermon, and all Bashan as far as Salcah;
12 all the kingdom of Og in Bashan, who reigned in Ashtaroth and Edrei, who remained of the remnant of the giants; for Moses had defeated and cast out these.
13 Nevertheless the children of Israel did not drive out the Geshurites or the Maachathites, but the Geshurites and the Maachathites dwell among the Israelites until this day.
14 Only to the tribe of Levi he had given no inheritance;
the sacrifices of the LORD God of Israel made by fire are their inheritance, as He said to them.

The Land of Reuben

15 And Moses had given to the tribe of the children of Reuben an inheritance according to their families.
16 Their territory was from Aroer, which is on the bank of the River Arnon, and the city that is in the midst of the ravine, and all the plain by Medeba;
17 Heshbon and all its cities that are in the plain: Dibon, Bamoth Baal, Beth Baal Meon,
18 Jahaza, Kedemoth, Mephaath, 19 Kirjathaim, Sibmah, Zereth Shahar on the mountain of the valley,
20 Beth Peor, the slopes of Pisgah, and Beth Jeshimoth—
21 all the cities of the plain and all the kingdom of Sihon king of the Amorites, who reigned in Heshbon, whom Moses had struck with the princes of Midian: Evi, Rekem,

Zur, Hur, and Reba, who were princes of Sihon dwelling in the country.

22 The children of Israel also killed with the sword Balaam the son of Beor, the soothsayer, among those who were killed by them. Balaam the Soothsayer

23 And the border of the children of Reuben was the bank of the Jordan. This was the inheritance of the children of Reuben according to their families, the cities and their villages.

The Land of Gad

24 Moses also had given an inheritance to the tribe of Gad, to the children of Gad according to their families.

25 Their territory was Jazer, and all the cities of Gilead, and half the land of the Ammonites as far as Aroer, which is before Rabbah,

26 and from Heshbon to Ramath Mizpah and Betonim, and from Mahanaim to the border of Debir, 27 and in the valley Beth Haram, Beth Nimrah, Succoth, and Zaphon, the rest of the kingdom of Sihon king of Heshbon, with the Jordan as its border, as far as the edge of the Sea of Chinnereth, on the other side of the Jordan eastward.

28 This is the inheritance of the children of Gad according to their families, the cities and their villages.

Half the Tribe of Manasseh (East)

29 Moses also had given an inheritance to half the tribe of Manasseh; it was for half the tribe of the children of Manasseh according to their families:

30 Their territory was from Mahanaim, all Bashan, all the kingdom of Og king of Bashan, and all the towns of Jair which are in Bashan, sixty cities;

[31]half of Gilead, and Ashtaroth and Edrei, cities of the kingdom of Og in Bashan, were for the children of Machir the son of Manasseh, for half of the children of Machir according to their families.

[32]These are the areas which Moses had distributed as an inheritance in the plains of Moab on the other side of the Jordan, by Jericho eastward.

[33]But to the tribe of Levi Moses had given no inheritance; the LORD God of Israel was their inheritance, as He had said to them.

Joshua 14

The Land Divided West of the Jordan

1These are the areas which the children of Israel inherited in the land of Canaan, which Eleazar the priest, Joshua the son of Nun, and the heads of the fathers of the tribes of the children of Israel distributed as an inheritance to them.
2Their inheritance was by lot, as the LORD had commanded by the hand of Moses, for the nine tribes and the half-tribe.
3For Moses had given the inheritance of the two tribes and the half-tribe on the other side of the Jordan; but to the Levites he had given no inheritance among them.
4For the children of Joseph were two tribes: Manasseh and Ephraim. And they gave no part to the Levites in the land, except cities to dwell in, with their common-lands for their livestock and their property.
5As the LORD had commanded Moses, so the children of Israel did; and they divided the land.

Caleb Inherits Hebron

6Then the children of Judah came to Joshua in Gilgal. And Caleb the son of Jephunneh the Kenizzite said to him: “You know the word which the LORD said to Moses the man of God concerning you and me in Kadesh Barnea. Caleb 7“I was forty years old when Moses the servant of the LORD sent me from Kadesh Barnea to spy out the land, and I brought back word to him as it was in my heart.
8“Nevertheless my brethren who went up with me made the heart of the people melt, but I wholly followed the LORD my God.

9 “So Moses swore on that day, saying, ‘Surely the land where your foot has trodden shall be your inheritance and your children’s forever, because you have wholly followed the LORD my God.’
10 “And now, behold, the LORD has kept me alive, as He said, these forty-five years, ever since the LORD spoke this word to Moses while Israel wandered in the wilderness;
and now, here I am this day, eighty-five years old.
11 “As yet I am as strong this day as on the day that Moses sent me; just as my strength was then, so now is my strength for war, both for going out and for coming in.
12 “Now therefore, give me this mountain of which the LORD spoke in that day; for you heard in that day how the Anakim were there, and that the cities were great and fortified. It may be that the LORD will be with me, and I shall be able to drive them out as the LORD said.” Caleb’s Mountain 13 And Joshua blessed him, and gave Hebron to Caleb the son of Jephunneh as an inheritance.
14 Hebron therefore became the inheritance of Caleb the son of Jephunneh the Kenizzite to this day, because he wholly followed the LORD God of Israel.
15 And the name of Hebron formerly was Kirjath Arba (Arba was the greatest man among the Anakim). Then the land had rest from war.

Joshua 15

The Land of Judah

1 So this was the lot of the tribe of the children of Judah according to their families: The border of Edom at the Wilderness of Zin southward was the extreme southern boundary.
2 And their southern border began at the shore of the Salt Sea, from the bay that faces southward. The Dead Sea
3 Then it went out to the southern side of the Ascent of Akrabbim, passed along to Zin, ascended on the south side of Kadesh Barnea, passed along to Hezron, went up to Adar, and went around to Karkaa.
4 From there it passed toward Azmon and went out to the Brook of Egypt; and the border ended at the sea. This shall be your southern border.
5 The east border was the Salt Sea as far as the mouth of the Jordan. And the border on the northern quarter began at the bay of the sea at the mouth of the Jordan.
6 The border went up to Beth Hoglah and passed north of Beth Arabah; and the border went up to the stone of Bohan
the son of Reuben.
7 Then the border went up toward Debir from the Valley of Achor, and it turned northward toward Gilgal, which is before the Ascent of Adummim, which is on the south side of the valley. The border continued toward the waters of En Shemesh and ended at En Rogel.
8 And the border went up by the Valley of the Son of Hinnom to the southern slope of the Jebusite city (which is Jerusalem). The border went up to the top of the mountain that lies before the Valley of Hinnom westward, which is at the end of the Valley of Rephaim[a] northward.

9 Then the border went around from the top of the hill to the fountain of the water of Nephtoah, and extended to the cities of Mount Ephron. And the border went around to Baalah (which is Kirjath Jearim).
10 Then the border turned westward from Baalah to Mount Seir, passed along to the side of Mount Jearim on the north (which is Chesalon), went down to Beth Shemesh, and passed on to Timnah.
11 And the border went out to the side of Ekron northward. Then the border went around to Shicron, passed along to Mount Baalah, and extended to Jabneel;
and the border ended at the sea.
12 The west border was the coastline of the Great Sea.
This is the boundary of the children of Judah all around according to their families.

Caleb Occupies Hebron and Debir

13 Now to Caleb the son of Jephunneh he gave a share among the children of Judah, according to the commandment of the LORD to Joshua, namely, Kirjath Arba, which is Hebron (Arba was the father of Anak).
14 Caleb drove out the three sons of Anak from there:
Sheshai, Ahiman, and Talmai, the children of Anak.
15 Then he went up from there to the inhabitants of Debir (formerly the name of Debir was Kirjath Sepher).
16 And Caleb said, "He who attacks Kirjath Sepher and takes it, to him I will give Achsah my daughter as wife." 17 So Othniel the son of Kenaz, the brother of Caleb, took it; and he gave him Achsah his daughter as wife.
18 Now it was so, when she came to him, that she persuaded him to ask her father for a field. So she dismounted from her donkey, and Caleb said to her, "What do you wish?"

19 She answered, “Give me a blessing; since you have given me land in the South, give me also springs of water.”
So he gave her the upper springs and the lower springs.

The Cities of Judah

20 This was the inheritance of the tribe of the children of Judah according to their families:
21 The cities at the limits of the tribe of the children of Judah, toward the border of Edom in the South, were Kabzeel, Eder, Jagur,
22 Kinah, Dimonah, Adadah,
23 Kedesh, Hazor, Ithnan,
24 Ziph, Telem, Bealoth,
25 Hazor, Hadattah, Kerioth, Hezron (which is Hazor), 26 Amam, Shema, Moladah,
27 Hazar Gaddah, Heshmon, Beth Pelet,
28 Hazar Shual, Beersheba, Bizjothjah,
29 Baalah, Ijim, Ezem,
30 Eltolad, Chesil, Hormah,
31 Ziklag, Madmannah, Sansannah, 32 Lebaoth, Shilhim, Ain, and Rimmon: all the cities are twenty-nine, with their villages.
33 In the lowland: Eshtaol, Zorah, Ashnah,
34 Zanoah, En Gannim, Tappuah, Enam,
35 Jarmuth, Adullam, Socoh, Azekah, 36 Sharaim, Adithaim, Gederah, and Gederothaim:
fourteen cities with their villages;
37 Zenan, Hadashah, Migdal Gad, 38 Dilean, Mizpah, Joktheel,
39 Lachish, Bozkath, Eglon,
40 Cabbon, Lahmas,[b] Kithlish,

41 Gederoth, Beth Dagon, Naamah, and Makkedah:
sixteen cities with their villages;
42 Libnah, Ether, Ashan,
43 Jiphtah, Ashnah, Nezib, 44 Keilah, Achzib, and Mareshah: nine cities with their villages;
45 Ekron, with its towns and villages;
46 from Ekron to the sea, all that lay near Ashdod, with their villages;
47 Ashdod with its towns and villages, Gaza with its towns and villages—as far as the Brook of Egypt and the Great Sea with its coastline. A Thorn in Judah's Side
48 And in the mountain country: Shamir, Jattir, Sochoh, 49 Dannah, Kirjath Sannah (which is Debir), 50 Anab, Eshtemoh, Anim, 51 Goshen, Holon, and Giloh: eleven cities with their
villages;
52 Arab, Dumah, Eshean,
53 Janum, Beth Tappuah, Aphekah,
54 Humtah, Kirjath Arba (which is Hebron), and Zior: nine cities with their villages;
55 Maon, Carmel, Ziph, Juttah,
56 Jezreel, Jokdeam, Zanoah,
57 Kain, Gibeah, and Timnah: ten cities with their villages;
58 Halhul, Beth Zur, Gedor, 59 Maarath, Beth Anoth, and Eltekon: six cities with their
villages;
60 Kirjath Baal (which is Kirjath Jearim) and Rabbah: two cities with their villages.
61 In the wilderness: Beth Arabah, Middin, Secacah, 62 Nibshan, the City of Salt, and En Gedi: six cities with their villages.

63As for the Jebusites, the inhabitants of Jerusalem, the children of Judah could not drive them out; but the Jebusites dwell with the children of Judah at Jerusalem to this day.

Joshua 16

Ephraim and West Manasseh

1The lot fell to the children of Joseph from the Jordan, by Jericho, to the waters of Jericho on the east, to the wilderness that goes up from Jericho through the mountains to Bethel, 2then went out from Bethel to Luz,[a] passed along to the border of the Archites at Ataroth, 3and went down westward to the boundary of the Japhletites, as far as the boundary of Lower Beth Horon to Gezer; and it ended at the sea.
4So the children of Joseph, Manasseh and Ephraim, took their inheritance.

The Land of Ephraim

5The border of the children of Ephraim, according to their families, was thus: The border of their inheritance on the east side was Ataroth Addar as far as Upper Beth Horon.
6And the border went out toward the sea on the north side of Michmethath; then the border went around eastward to Taanath Shiloh, and passed by it on the east of Janohah.
7Then it went down from Janohah to Ataroth and Naarah,[b] reached to Jericho, and came out at the Jordan.
8The border went out from Tappuah westward to the Brook Kanah, and it ended at the sea. This was the inheritance of the tribe of the children of Ephraim
according to their families.
9The separate cities for the children of Ephraim were among the inheritance of the children of Manasseh, all the cities with their villages.

10 And they did not drive out the Canaanites who dwelt in Gezer; but the Canaanites dwell among the Ephraimites to this day and have become forced laborers.

Joshua 17

The Other Half-Tribe of Manasseh (West)

1There was also a lot for the tribe of Manasseh, for he was the firstborn of Joseph: namely for Machir the firstborn of Manasseh, the father of Gilead, because he was a man of war; therefore he was given Gilead and Bashan.

2And there was a lot for the rest of the children of Manasseh according to their families: for the children of Abiezer,[a] the children of Helek, the children of Asriel, the children of Shechem, the children of Hepher, and the children of Shemida; these were the male children of Manasseh the son of Joseph according to their families.

3But Zelophehad the son of Hepher, the son of Gilead, the son of Machir, the son of Manasseh, had no sons, but only daughters. And these are the names of his daughters: Mahlah, Noah, Hoglah, Milcah, and Tirzah.

4And they came near before Eleazar the priest, before Joshua the son of Nun, and before the rulers, saying, “The LORD commanded Moses to give us an inheritance among our brothers.” Therefore, according to the commandment of the LORD, he gave them an inheritance among their father’s brothers.

5Ten shares fell to Manasseh, besides the land of Gilead and Bashan, which were on the other side of the Jordan, 6because the daughters of Manasseh received an inheritance among his sons; and the rest of Manasseh’s sons had the land of Gilead.

7And the territory of Manasseh was from Asher to Michmethath, that lies east of Shechem; and the border went along south to the inhabitants of En Tappuah.

[8]Manasseh had the land of Tappuah, but Tappuah on the border of Manasseh belonged to the children of Ephraim.

[9]And the border descended to the Brook Kanah, southward to the brook. These cities of Ephraim are among the cities of Manasseh. The border of Manasseh was on the north side of the brook; and it ended at the sea.

[10]Southward it was Ephraim's, northward it was Manasseh's, and the sea was its border. Manasseh's territory was adjoining Asher on the north and Issachar on the east.

[11]And in Issachar and in Asher, Manasseh had Beth Shean and its towns, Ibleam and its towns, the inhabitants of Dor and its towns, the inhabitants of En Dor and its towns, the inhabitants of Taanach and its towns, and the inhabitants of Megiddo and its towns—three hilly regions.

[12]Yet the children of Manasseh could not drive out the inhabitants of those cities, but the Canaanites were determined to dwell in that land.

[13]And it happened, when the children of Israel grew strong, that they put the Canaanites to forced labor, but did not utterly drive them out.

More Land for Ephraim and Manasseh

14Then the children of Joseph spoke to Joshua, saying, "Why have you given us only one lot and one share to inherit, since we are a great people, inasmuch as the LORD has blessed us until now?"

[15]So Joshua answered them, "If you are a great people, then go up to the forest country and clear a place for yourself there in the land of the Perizzites and the giants, since the mountains of Ephraim are too confined for you."

[16]But the children of Joseph said, "The mountain country is not enough for us; and all the Canaanites who dwell in the land of the valley have chariots of iron, both those who are of Beth Shean and its towns and those who are of the Valley of Jezreel.”

17 And Joshua spoke to the house of Joseph—to Ephraim and Manasseh—saying, “You are a great people and have great power; you shall not have only one lot,

18 “but the mountain country shall be yours. Although it is wooded, you shall cut it down, and its farthest extent shall be yours; for you shall drive out the Canaanites, though they have iron chariots and are strong.”

Joshua 18

The Remainder of the Land Divided

1 Now the whole congregation of the children of Israel assembled together at Shiloh, and set up the tabernacle of meeting there. And the land was subdued before them.
2 But there remained among the children of Israel seven tribes which had not yet received their inheritance.
3 Then Joshua said to the children of Israel: "How long will you neglect to go and possess the land which the LORD God of your fathers has given you?
4 "Pick out from among you three men for each tribe, and I will send them; they shall rise and go through the land, survey it according to their inheritance, and come back to me.
5 "And they shall divide it into seven parts. Judah shall remain in their territory on the south, and the house of Joseph shall remain in their territory on the north.
6 "You shall therefore survey the land in seven parts and bring the survey here to me, that I may cast lots for you here before the LORD our God.
7 "But the Levites have no part among you, for the priesthood of the LORD is their inheritance. And Gad, Reuben, and half the tribe of Manasseh have received their inheritance beyond the Jordan on the east, which Moses the servant of the LORD gave them."
8 Then the men arose to go away; and Joshua charged those who went to survey the land, saying, "Go, walk through the land, survey it, and come back to me, that I may cast lots for you here before the LORD in Shiloh." Casting Lots

9So the men went, passed through the land, and wrote the survey in a book in seven parts by cities; and they came to Joshua at the camp in Shiloh.

10Then Joshua cast lots for them in Shiloh before the LORD, and there Joshua divided the land to the children of Israel according to their divisions.

The Land of Benjamin

11Now the lot of the tribe of the children of Benjamin came up according to their families, and the territory of their lot came out between the children of Judah and the children of Joseph.

12Their border on the north side began at the Jordan, and the border went up to the side of Jericho on the north, and went up through the mountains westward; it ended at the Wilderness of Beth Aven.

13The border went over from there toward Luz, to the side of Luz (which is Bethel) southward; and the border descended to Ataroth Addar, near the hill that lies on the south side of Lower Beth Horon.

14Then the border extended around the west side to the south, from the hill that lies before Beth Horon southward; and it ended at Kirjath Baal (which is Kirjath Jearim), a city of the children of Judah. This was the west side.

15The south side began at the end of Kirjath Jearim, and the border extended on the west and went out to the spring of the waters of Nephtoah.

16Then the border came down to the end of the mountain that lies before the Valley of the Son of Hinnom, which is in the Valley of the Rephaim[a] on the north, descended to the Valley of Hinnom, to the side of the Jebusite city on the south, and descended to En Rogel. The Valley of Hinnom

17And it went around from the north, went out to En Shemesh, and extended toward Geliloth, which is before the Ascent of Adummim, and descended to the stone of Bohan the son of Reuben.

18 Then it passed along toward the north side of Arabah,[b] and went down to Arabah.

19 And the border passed along to the north side of Beth Hoglah; then the border ended at the north bay at the Salt Sea, at the south end of the Jordan. This was the southern boundary.

20 The Jordan was its border on the east side. This was the inheritance of the children of Benjamin, according to its boundaries all around, according to their families.

21 Now the cities of the tribe of the children of Benjamin, according to their families, were Jericho, Beth Hoglah, Emek Keziz,

22 Beth Arabah, Zemaraim, Bethel,

23 Avim, Parah, Ophrah,

24 Chephar Haammoni, Ophni, and Gaba: twelve cities with their villages;

25 Gibeon, Ramah, Beeroth,

26 Mizpah, Chephirah, Mozah,

27 Rekem, Irpeel, Taralah,

28 Zelah, Eleph, Jebus (which is Jerusalem), Gibeath, and Kirjath: fourteen cities with their villages. This was the inheritance of the children of Benjamin according to their families.

Joshua 19

Simeon's Inheritance with Judah

1 The second lot came out for Simeon, for the tribe of the children of Simeon according to their families. And their inheritance was within the inheritance of the children of Judah.
2 They had in their inheritance Beersheba (Sheba), Moladah,
3 Hazar Shual, Balah, Ezem,
4 Eltolad, Bethul, Hormah,
5 Ziklag, Beth Marcaboth, Hazar Susah, 6 Beth Lebaoth, and Sharuhen: thirteen cities and their
villages;
7 Ain, Rimmon, Ether, and Ashan: four cities and their
villages;
8 and all the villages that were all around these cities as far as Baalath Beer, Ramah of the South. This was the inheritance of the tribe of the children of Simeon according to their families.
9 The inheritance of the children of Simeon was included in the share of the children of Judah, for the share of the children of Judah was too much for them. Therefore the children of Simeon had their inheritance within the inheritance of that people.

The Land of Zebulun

10 The third lot came out for the children of Zebulun according to their families, and the border of their inheritance was as far as Sarid.
11 Their border went toward the west and to Maralah, went to Dabbasheth, and extended along the brook that is east of Jokneam.

12Then from Sarid it went eastward toward the sunrise along the border of Chisloth Tabor, and went out toward Daberath, bypassing Japhia.

13And from there it passed along on the east of Gath Hepher, toward Eth Kazin, and extended to Rimmon, which borders on Neah.

14Then the border went around it on the north side of Hannathon, and it ended in the Valley of Jiphthah El.

15Included were Kattath, Nahallal, Shimron, Idalah, and Bethlehem: twelve cities with their villages.

16This was the inheritance of the children of Zebulun
according to their families, these cities with their villages.

The Land of Issachar

17The fourth lot came out to Issachar, for the children of Issachar according to their families.

18And their territory went to Jezreel, and included Chesulloth, Shunem,

19Haphraim, Shion, Anaharath,

20Rabbith, Kishion, Abez,

21Remeth, En Gannim, En Haddah, and Beth Pazzez.

22And the border reached to Tabor, Shahazimah, and Beth Shemesh; their border ended at the Jordan: sixteen cities with their villages.

23This was the inheritance of the tribe of the children of Issachar according to their families, the cities and their villages.

The Land of Asher

24The fifth lot came out for the tribe of the children of Asher according to their families.

25 And their territory included Helkath, Hali, Beten, Achshaph,
26 Alammelech, Amad, and Mishal; it reached to Mount Carmel westward, along the Brook Shihor Libnath.
27 It turned toward the sunrise to Beth Dagon; and it reached to Zebulun and to the Valley of Jiphthah El, then northward beyond Beth Emek and Neiel, bypassing Cabul which was on the left, 28 including Ebron,[a] Rehob, Hammon, and Kanah, as far as Greater Sidon.
29 And the border turned to Ramah and to the fortified city of Tyre; then the border turned to Hosah, and ended at the sea by the region of Achzib.
30 Also Ummah, Aphek, and Rehob were included: twenty-two cities with their villages.
31 This was the inheritance of the tribe of the children of Asher according to their families, these cities with their villages.

The Land of Naphtali

32 The sixth lot came out to the children of Naphtali, for the children of Naphtali according to their families.
33 And their border began at Heleph, enclosing the territory from the terebinth tree in Zaanannim, Adami Nekeb, and Jabneel, as far as Lakkum; it ended at the Jordan.
34 From Heleph the border extended westward to Aznoth
Tabor, and went out from there toward Hukkok; it adjoined Zebulun on the south side and Asher on the west side, and ended at Judah by the Jordan toward the sunrise.
35 And the fortified cities are Ziddim, Zer, Hammath, Rakkath, Chinnereth, 36 Adamah, Ramah, Hazor,
37 Kedesh, Edrei, En Hazor,

38 Iron, Migdal El, Horem, Beth Anath, and Beth Shemesh: nineteen cities with their villages.
39 This was the inheritance of the tribe of the children of Naphtali according to their families, the cities and their villages.

The Land of Dan

40 The seventh lot came out for the tribe of the children of Dan according to their families.
41 And the territory of their inheritance was Zorah, Eshtaol, Ir Shemesh,
42 Shaalabbin, Aijalon, Jethlah,
43 Elon, Timnah, Ekron,
44 Eltekeh, Gibbethon, Baalath,
45 Jehud, Bene Berak, Gath Rimmon,
46 Me Jarkon, and Rakkon, with the region near Joppa.
47 And the border of the children of Dan went beyond these, because the children of Dan went up to fight against Leshem and took it; and they struck it with the edge of the sword, took possession of it, and dwelt in it. They called Leshem, Dan, after the name of Dan their father.
48 This is the inheritance of the tribe of the children of Dan according to their families, these cities with their villages.

Joshua's Inheritance

49 When they had made an end of dividing the land as an inheritance according to their borders, the children of Israel gave an inheritance among them to Joshua the son of Nun. Use Inheritance as a Trustee 50 According to the word of the LORD they gave him the city which he asked for, Timnath Serah in the mountains of Ephraim; and he built the city and dwelt in it.

51These were the inheritances which Eleazar the priest, Joshua the son of Nun, and the heads of the fathers of the tribes of the children of Israel divided as an inheritance by lot in Shiloh before the LORD, at the door of the tabernacle of meeting. So they made an end of dividing the country.

Joshua 20

The Cities of Refuge

1 The LORD also spoke to Joshua, saying,

2 “Speak to the children of Israel, saying: ‘Appoint for yourselves cities of refuge, of which I spoke to you through Moses, Neutral Zones

3 ‘that the slayer who kills a person accidentally or unintentionally may flee there; and they shall be your refuge from the avenger of blood.

4 ‘And when he flees to one of those cities, and stands at the entrance of the gate of the city, and declares his case in the hearing of the elders of that city, they shall take him into the city as one of them, and give him a place, that he may dwell among them.

5 ‘Then if the avenger of blood pursues him, they shall not deliver the slayer into his hand, because he struck his neighbor unintentionally, but did not hate him beforehand.

6 ‘And he shall dwell in that city until he stands before the congregation for judgment, and until the death of the one who is high priest in those days. Then the slayer may return and come to his own city and his own house, to the city from which he fled.’ ”

7 So they appointed Kedesh in Galilee, in the mountains of Naphtali, Shechem in the mountains of Ephraim, and Kirjath Arba (which is Hebron) in the mountains of Judah.

8 And on the other side of the Jordan, by Jericho eastward, they assigned Bezer in the wilderness on the plain, from the tribe of Reuben, Ramoth in Gilead, from the tribe of Gad, and Golan in Bashan, from the tribe of Manasseh.

9 These were the cities appointed for all the children of Israel and for the stranger who dwelt among them, that whoever killed a person accidentally might flee there, and not die by the hand of the avenger of blood until he stood before the congregation.

Joshua 21

Cities of the Levites

1 Then the heads of the fathers' houses of the Levites came near to Eleazar the priest, to Joshua the son of Nun, and to the heads of the fathers' houses of the tribes of the children of Israel. The Levitical Cities
2 And they spoke to them at Shiloh in the land of Canaan, saying, "The LORD commanded through Moses to give us cities to dwell in, with their common-lands for our livestock."
3 So the children of Israel gave to the Levites from their inheritance, at the commandment of the LORD, these cities and their common-lands:
4 Now the lot came out for the families of the Kohathites.
And the children of Aaron the priest, who were of the Levites, had thirteen cities by lot from the tribe of Judah, from the tribe of Simeon, and from the tribe of Benjamin.
5 The rest of the children of Kohath had ten cities by lot from the families of the tribe of Ephraim, from the tribe of Dan, and from the half-tribe of Manasseh.
6 And the children of Gershon had thirteen cities by lot from the families of the tribe of Issachar, from the tribe of Asher, from the tribe of Naphtali, and from the half-tribe of Manasseh in Bashan.
7 The children of Merari according to their families had twelve cities from the tribe of Reuben, from the tribe of Gad, and from the tribe of Zebulun.
8 And the children of Israel gave these cities with their common-lands by lot to the Levites, as the LORD had commanded by the hand of Moses.

9So they gave from the tribe of the children of Judah and from the tribe of the children of Simeon these cities which are designated by name, 10which were for the children of Aaron, one of the families of the Kohathites, who were of the children of Levi; for the lot was theirs first.

11And they gave them Kirjath Arba (Arba was the father of Anak), which is Hebron, in the mountains of Judah, with the common-land surrounding it.

12But the fields of the city and its villages they gave to Caleb the son of Jephunneh as his possession.

13Thus to the children of Aaron the priest they gave Hebron with its common-land (a city of refuge for the slayer), Libnah with its common-land,

14Jattir with its common-land, Eshtemoa with its common-land,

15Holon with its common-land, Debir with its common-land,

16Ain with its common-land, Juttah with its common-land, and Beth Shemesh with its common-land: nine cities from those two tribes;

17and from the tribe of Benjamin, Gibeon with its common-land, Geba with its common-land, 18Anathoth with its common-land, and Almon with its common-land: four cities.

19All the cities of the children of Aaron, the priests, were thirteen cities with their common-lands.

20And the families of the children of Kohath, the Levites, the rest of the children of Kohath, even they had the cities of their lot from the tribe of Ephraim.

21For they gave them Shechem with its common-land in the mountains of Ephraim (a city of refuge for the slayer), Gezer with its common-land,

[22]Kibzaim with its common-land, and Beth Horon with its common-land: four cities;
[23]and from the tribe of Dan, Eltekeh with its common-land, Gibbethon with its common-land, [24]Aijalon with its common-land, and Gath Rimmon with its common-land: four cities;
[25]and from the half-tribe of Manasseh, Tanach with its common-land and Gath Rimmon with its common-land: two cities.
[26]All the ten cities with their common-lands were for the rest of the families of the children of Kohath.
27Also to the children of Gershon, of the families of the Levites, from the other half-tribe of Manasseh, they gave Golan in Bashan with its common-land (a city of refuge for the slayer), and Be Eshterah with its common-land: two cities;
[28]and from the tribe of Issachar, Kishion with its common-land, Daberath with its common-land, [29]Jarmuth with its common-land, and En Gannim with its common-land: four cities;
[30]and from the tribe of Asher, Mishal with its common-land, Abdon with its common-land, [31]Helkath with its common-land, and Rehob with its common-land: four cities;
[32]and from the tribe of Naphtali, Kedesh in Galilee with its common-land (a city of refuge for the slayer), Hammoth Dor with its common-land, and Kartan with its common-land: three cities.
[33]All the cities of the Gershonites according to their families were thirteen cities with their common-lands.
34And to the families of the children of Merari, the rest of the Levites, from the tribe of Zebulun, Jokneam with its common-land, Kartah with its common-land,

35 Dimnah with its common-land, and Nahalal with its common-land: four cities;
36 and from the tribe of Reuben, Bezer with its common-land, Jahaz with its common-land, 37 Kedemoth with its common-land, and Mephaath with its common-land: four cities;[a] 38 and from the tribe of Gad, Ramoth in Gilead with its common-land (a city of refuge for the slayer), Mahanaim with its common-land, 39 Heshbon with its common-land, and Jazer with its common-land: four cities in all.
40 So all the cities for the children of Merari according to their families, the rest of the families of the Levites, were by their lot twelve cities.
41 All the cities of the Levites within the possession of the children of Israel were forty-eight cities with their common-lands.
42 Every one of these cities had its common-land surrounding it; thus were all these cities.

The Promise Fulfilled

43 So the LORD gave to Israel all the land of which He had sworn to give to their fathers, and they took possession of it and dwelt in it.
44 The LORD gave them rest all around, according to all that He had sworn to their fathers. And not a man of all their enemies stood against them; the LORD delivered all their enemies into their hand.
45 Not a word failed of any good thing which the LORD had spoken to the house of Israel. All came to pass.

Joshua 22

Eastern Tribes Return to Their Lands

1 Then Joshua called the Reubenites, the Gadites, and half the tribe of Manasseh, 2 and said to them: “You have kept all that Moses the servant of the LORD commanded you, and have obeyed my voice in all that I commanded you.
3 “You have not left your brethren these many days, up to this day, but have kept the charge of the commandment of the LORD your God.
4 “And now the LORD your God has given rest to your brethren, as He promised them; now therefore, return and go to your tents and to the land of your possession, which Moses the servant of the LORD gave you on the other side of the Jordan.
5 “But take careful heed to do the commandment and the law which Moses the servant of the LORD commanded you, to love the LORD your God, to walk in all His ways, to keep His commandments, to hold fast to Him, and to serve Him with all your heart and with all your soul.” 6 So Joshua blessed them and sent them away, and they went to their tents.
7 Now to half the tribe of Manasseh Moses had given a possession in Bashan, but to the other half of it Joshua gave a possession among their brethren on this side of the Jordan, westward. And indeed, when Joshua sent them away to their tents, he blessed them, 8 and spoke to them, saying, “Return with much riches to your tents, with very much livestock, with silver, with gold, with bronze, with iron, and with very much clothing. Divide the spoil of your enemies with your brethren.”

9So the children of Reuben, the children of Gad, and half the tribe of Manasseh returned, and departed from the children of Israel at Shiloh, which is in the land of Canaan, to go to the country of Gilead, to the land of their possession, which they had obtained according to the word of the LORD by the hand of Moses.

An Altar by the Jordan

10And when they came to the region of the Jordan which is in the land of Canaan, the children of Reuben, the children of Gad, and half the tribe of Manasseh built an altar there by the Jordan—a great, impressive altar.

11Now the children of Israel heard someone say, "Behold, the children of Reuben, the children of Gad, and half the tribe of Manasseh have built an altar on the frontier of the land of Canaan, in the region of the Jordan—on the children of Israel's side." The Power of Listening

12And when the children of Israel heard of it, the whole congregation of the children of Israel gathered together at Shiloh to go to war against them.

13Then the children of Israel sent Phinehas the son of Eleazar the priest to the children of Reuben, to the children of Gad, and to half the tribe of Manasseh, into the land of Gilead, A No-Nonsense Negotiator

14and with him ten rulers, one ruler each from the chief house of every tribe of Israel; and each one was the head of the house of his father among the divisions[a] of Israel.

15Then they came to the children of Reuben, to the children of Gad, and to half the tribe of Manasseh, to the land of Gilead, and they spoke with them, saying,

16"Thus says the whole congregation of the LORD: 'What treachery is this that you have committed against the God of Israel, to turn away this day from following the LORD, in that you have built for yourselves an altar, that you might rebel this day against the LORD?

17 ‘Is the iniquity of Peor not enough for us, from which we are not cleansed till this day, although there was a plague in the congregation of the LORD,

18 ‘but that you must turn away this day from following the LORD? And it shall be, if you rebel today against the LORD, that tomorrow He will be angry with the whole congregation of Israel.

19 ‘Nevertheless, if the land of your possession is unclean, then cross over to the land of the possession of the LORD, where the LORD’s tabernacle stands, and take possession among us; but do not rebel against the LORD, nor rebel against us, by building yourselves an altar besides the altar of the LORD our God.

20 ‘Did not Achan the son of Zerah commit a trespass in the accursed thing, and wrath fell on all the congregation of Israel? And that man did not perish alone in his iniquity.’ ”

21 Then the children of Reuben, the children of Gad, and half the tribe of Manasseh answered and said to the heads of the divisions[b] of Israel:

22 “The LORD God of gods, the LORD God of gods, He knows, and let Israel itself know—if it is in rebellion, or if in treachery against the LORD, do not save us this day.

23 “If we have built ourselves an altar to turn from following the LORD, or if to offer on it burnt offerings or grain offerings, or if to offer peace offerings on it, let the LORD Himself require an account.

24 “But in fact we have done it for fear, for a reason, saying, ‘In time to come your descendants may speak to our descendants, saying, “What have you to do with the LORD God of Israel?

25 “For the LORD has made the Jordan a border between you and us, you children of Reuben and children of Gad.
You have no part in the LORD.” So your descendants would make our descendants cease fearing the LORD.’ 26 “Therefore we said, ‘Let us now prepare to build ourselves an altar, not for burnt offering nor for sacrifice, 27 ‘but that it may be a witness between you and us and our generations after us, that we may perform the service of the LORD before Him with our burnt offerings, with our sacrifices, and with our peace offerings; that your descendants may not say to our descendants in time to come, “You have no part in the LORD.” ’ 28 “Therefore we said that it will be, when they say this to us or to our generations in time to come, that we may say, ‘Here is the replica of the altar of the LORD which our fathers made, though not for burnt offerings nor for sacrifices; but it is a witness between you and us.’ 29 “Far be it from us that we should rebel against the LORD, and turn from following the LORD this day, to build an altar for burnt offerings, for grain offerings, or for sacrifices, besides the altar of the LORD our God which is before His tabernacle.” 30 Now when Phinehas the priest and the rulers of the congregation, the heads of the divisions[c] of Israel who were with him, heard the words that the children of Reuben, the children of Gad, and the children of Manasseh spoke, it pleased them.
31 Then Phinehas the son of Eleazar the priest said to the children of Reuben, the children of Gad, and the children of Manasseh, “This day we perceive that the LORD is among us, because you have not committed this treachery against the LORD. Now you have delivered the children of Israel out of the hand of the LORD.”

32And Phinehas the son of Eleazar the priest, and the rulers, returned from the children of Reuben and the children of Gad, from the land of Gilead to the land of Canaan, to the children of Israel, and brought back word to them.

33So the thing pleased the children of Israel, and the children of Israel blessed God; they spoke no more of going against them in battle, to destroy the land where the children of Reuben and Gad dwelt.

34The children of Reuben and the children of Gad[d] called the altar, Witness, "For it is a witness between us that the LORD is God."

Joshua 23

Joshua's Farewell Address

1 Now it came to pass, a long time after the LORD had given rest to Israel from all their enemies round about, that Joshua was old, advanced in age.
2 And Joshua called for all Israel, for their elders, for their heads, for their judges, and for their officers, and said to them: "I am old, advanced in age. Joshua and Paul: Profiles in Leadership 3 "You have seen all that the LORD your God has done to all these nations because of you, for the LORD your God is
He who has fought for you.
4 "See, I have divided to you by lot these nations that remain, to be an inheritance for your tribes, from the Jordan, with all the nations that I have cut off, as far as the Great Sea westward.
5 "And the LORD your God will expel them from before you and drive them out of your sight. So you shall possess their land, as the LORD your God promised you.
6 "Therefore be very courageous to keep and to do all that is written in the Book of the Law of Moses, lest you turn aside from it to the right hand or to the left, 7 "and lest you go among these nations, these who remain among you. You shall not make mention of the name of their gods, nor cause anyone to swear by them; you shall not serve them nor bow down to them, 8 "but you shall hold fast to the LORD your God, as you have done to this day.
9 "For the LORD has driven out from before you great and strong nations; but as for you, no one has been able to stand against you to this day.

10 “One man of you shall chase a thousand, for the LORD your God is He who fights for you, as He promised you.
11 “Therefore take careful heed to yourselves, that you love the LORD your God.
12 “Or else, if indeed you do go back, and cling to the remnant of these nations—these that remain among you—and make marriages with them, and go in to them and they
to you,
13 “know for certain that the LORD your God will no longer drive out these nations from before you. But they shall be snares and traps to you, and scourges on your sides and thorns in your eyes, until you perish from this good land which the LORD your God has given you.
14 “Behold, this day I am going the way of all the earth.
And you know in all your hearts and in all your souls that not one thing has failed of all the good things which the LORD your God spoke concerning you. All have come to pass for you; not one word of them has failed.
15 “Therefore it shall come to pass, that as all the good things have come upon you which the LORD your God promised you, so the LORD will bring upon you all harmful things, until He has destroyed you from this good land which the LORD your God has given you.
16 “When you have transgressed the covenant of the LORD your God, which He commanded you, and have gone and served other gods, and bowed down to them, then the anger of the LORD will burn against you, and you shall perish quickly from the good land which He has given you.”

Joshua 24

The Covenant at Shechem

1 Then Joshua gathered all the tribes of Israel to Shechem and called for the elders of Israel, for their heads, for their judges, and for their officers; and they presented themselves before God.
2 And Joshua said to all the people, “Thus says the LORD God of Israel: ‘Your fathers, including Terah, the father of Abraham and the father of Nahor, dwelt on the other side of the River[a] in old times; and they served other gods.
3 ‘Then I took your father Abraham from the other side of the River, led him throughout all the land of Canaan, and multiplied his descendants and gave him Isaac.
4 ‘To Isaac I gave Jacob and Esau. To Esau I gave the mountains of Seir to possess, but Jacob and his children went down to Egypt.
5 ‘Also I sent Moses and Aaron, and I plagued Egypt, according to what I did among them. Afterward I brought you out.
6 ‘Then I brought your fathers out of Egypt, and you came to the sea; and the Egyptians pursued your fathers with chariots and horsemen to the Red Sea.
7 ‘So they cried out to the LORD; and He put darkness between you and the Egyptians, brought the sea upon them, and covered them. And your eyes saw what I did in Egypt. Then you dwelt in the wilderness a long time.
8 ‘And I brought you into the land of the Amorites, who dwelt on the other side of the Jordan, and they fought with you. But I gave them into your hand, that you might possess their land, and I destroyed them from before you.

9 ‘Then Balak the son of Zippor, king of Moab, arose to make war against Israel, and sent and called Balaam the son of Beor to curse you.
10 ‘But I would not listen to Balaam; therefore he continued to bless you. So I delivered you out of his hand.
11 ‘Then you went over the Jordan and came to Jericho.
And the men of Jericho fought against you—also the Amorites, the Perizzites, the Canaanites, the Hittites, the Girgashites, the Hivites, and the Jebusites. But I delivered them into your hand.
12 ‘I sent the hornet before you which drove them out from before you, also the two kings of the Amorites, but not with your sword or with your bow.
13 ‘I have given you a land for which you did not labor, and cities which you did not build, and you dwell in them;
you eat of the vineyards and olive groves which you did not plant.’ Real Ownership
14 “Now therefore, fear the LORD, serve Him in sincerity and in truth, and put away the gods which your fathers served on the other side of the River and in Egypt. Serve
the LORD!
15 “And if it seems evil to you to serve the LORD, choose for yourselves this day whom you will serve, whether the gods which your fathers served that were on the other side of the River, or the gods of the Amorites, in whose land you dwell. But as for me and my house, we will serve the LORD.”
16 So the people answered and said: “Far be it from us that we should forsake the LORD to serve other gods; 17 “for the LORD our God is He who brought us and our fathers up out of the land of Egypt, from the house of bondage, who did those great signs in our sight, and preserved us in all the way that we went and among all the people through whom we passed.

18 “And the LORD drove out from before us all the people, including the Amorites who dwelt in the land. We also will serve the LORD, for He is our God.” 19 But Joshua said to the people, “You cannot serve the LORD, for He is a holy God. He is a jealous God; He will not forgive your transgressions nor your sins.
20 “If you forsake the LORD and serve foreign gods, then He will turn and do you harm and consume you, after He has done you good.” 21 And the people said to Joshua, “No, but we will serve
the LORD!”
22 So Joshua said to the people, “You are witnesses against yourselves that you have chosen the LORD for yourselves, to serve Him.” And they said, “We are witnesses!”
23 “Now therefore,” he said, “put away the foreign gods which are among you, and incline your heart to the LORD God of Israel.”
24 And the people said to Joshua, “The LORD our God we will serve, and His voice we will obey!” 25 So Joshua made a covenant with the people that day, and made for them a statute and an ordinance in Shechem.
26 Then Joshua wrote these words in the Book of the Law of God. And he took a large stone, and set it up there under the oak that was by the sanctuary of the LORD.
27 And Joshua said to all the people, “Behold, this stone shall be a witness to us, for it has heard all the words of the LORD which He spoke to us. It shall therefore be a witness to you, lest you deny your God.” 28 So Joshua let the people depart, each to his own inheritance.

Death of Joshua and Eleazar

29Now it came to pass after these things that Joshua the son of Nun, the servant of the LORD, died, being one hundred and ten years old.
30And they buried him within the border of his inheritance at Timnath Serah, which is in the mountains of Ephraim, on the north side of Mount Gaash.
31Israel served the LORD all the days of Joshua, and all the days of the elders who outlived Joshua, who had known all the works of the LORD which He had done for Israel.
32The bones of Joseph, which the children of Israel had brought up out of Egypt, they buried at Shechem, in the plot of ground which Jacob had bought from the sons of Hamor the father of Shechem for one hundred pieces of silver, and which had become an inheritance of the children of Joseph.
33And Eleazar the son of Aaron died. They buried him in a hill belonging to Phinehas his son, which was given to him in the mountains of Ephraim. God Has Helped

Joshua
Josh. 1:1

Name means: “The Lord Is Salvation”; essentially the same name as Jesus.

Also known as: Hoshea (Num. 13:8, 16).

Home: Timnath Serah, about 17 miles southwest of Shechem, in the mountains of Ephraim (Josh. 19:49, 50).

Family: Son of Nun of the tribe of Ephraim.

Occupation: Military commander.

Best known as: The spy who stood up for God’s promises (Num. 14:6–9) and who later succeeded Moses as chief leader of Israel.

Think About It: Where will you courageously obey God, in a way similar to Joshua?

Standing Strong
Josh. 1:6–9

Three times God reminded Joshua to be strong and courageous. The Hebrew word for strong refers to “sound legs,” while the word for courage refers to "having a secure grasp." Joshua's success as a leader depended on standing strong and holding on tight.

Joshua had already proven his ability to stand against opposition. Forty years earlier when the Israelites were poised to enter Canaan, only Joshua and Caleb insisted that the nation move forward under God's power (Num. 13:1–14:45). As the people again prepared to enter the land, Joshua's next steps required a secure grasp of God's plans and values as explained in the Book of the Law (Josh. 1:8). God's message to Joshua urges us to consider whether, where, and when we firmly commit ourselves to the right things and hold tight to God's purposes.

Success and Prosperity

Josh. 1:8

As Joshua prepared to lead his people into Canaan, God told him how to experience success. Some people today point to God's words to Joshua as support for the claim that the Lord promises material prosperity to believers. But the text includes important qualifications:

- God made a conditional promise specifically to Joshua and Israel. As the Lord commissioned Joshua to conquer the Promised Land, He gave His commander a stipulation and an assurance: if he held unswervingly to the Law, then he would succeed at taking Canaan and settling the land. It was a specific promise for a specific occasion.
- The emphasis was on the blessing that comes from obedience. Some interpret Joshua 1:8 as a general principle that God confers success and prosperity as rewards for obedience. But the emphasis is not on the blessing but on the act of living the Law. Following God's ways is inherently good for us, with benefits that naturally result from keeping His commands, not as payoff for good behavior.

- The Bible does not promise earthly riches. The Bible's overall teaching about wealth does not support the idea that God has promised His children success and wealth. Scripture actually discourages us from seeking material prosperity as an end in itself (see "Giving to Get" at 1 Tim. 6:3–6). God may allow us to have health and wealth, but we should not expect them (Eccl. 7:14; see also "Struggle Is a Part of All Life" at 2 Cor. 5:2–5).

Joshua 1:8 defines true success as faithfully following God wherever He guides. Joshua's responsibility was to lead Israel into the land. God assigns each of us unique tasks. Our greatest joy is to fully carry them out.

More: Scripture has a great deal to say about how God's people should approach financial matters. See "Christians and Money" at 1 Tim. 6:6–19.

Survival, Success, and Salvation

Josh. 1:10

Scholars estimate that approximately two million people left Egypt at the start of the Exodus. Of all the grown men who began the journey, only Joshua and Caleb made it to Canaan (Num. 13:30–33; 14:6, 29, 30, 38). Their trust in God after surveying Canaan resulted in their exemption from the sentence passed on their peers: every other Hebrew age twenty and older would wander in the wilderness until death took them.

Even Moses was not to reach Canaan (Deut. 34:1–6). Shortly before his death, he passed military, political, and spiritual leadership to Joshua (31:7, 8), who was "full of the spirit of wisdom" (34:9). In his elevated role, Joshua continued to model the faithfulness he had shown forty years earlier, readily submitting to God's authority and putting worship before war and conquest (Josh. 5:13–15; 8:30–35; 11:15). As a result, the Lord was with him, and he enjoyed success in carrying out God's purposes (6:27; 24:31).

It seems appropriate that Joshua's name was the same as that of Jesus (see Joshua's profile at Josh. 1:1). Just as Jesus completed the work of salvation, so Joshua completed the work that Moses began by rescuing God's people from slavery and leading them to the Promised Land. By his name and life, Joshua serves as a reminder of the salvation that comes from the Lord.

Think About It: What expressions of obedience to God make you one of two in two million? How well do you show your confidence that obeying God is inherently good for us?

Rahab

Josh. 2:3

Home: Jericho, until it was conquered by the Israelites and she settled with them.

Family: Uncertain, but known to have survived the fall of Jericho and been spared from execution; became the wife of an Israelite, Salmon; mother of Boaz; great-great-grandmother of David; ancestor of Jesus (see "The Women in Jesus' Genealogy" at Matt. 1:3–6).

Occupation: Prostitute.

Best known for: Exercising faith in the Lord by hiding two Israelite spies (Heb. 11:31), an act that saved her and her family.

More: Rahab may have been a ritual prostitute in Canaanite religious observances. See "Prostitutes in the Ancient World" at Judg. 16:1.

Josh. 2:15

The location of Rahab's house on the city wall was not unusual for ancient dwellings. A city wall provided not only a strong defense against invaders but also a solid foundation for home construction. The wall of Jericho was especially well suited for this purpose (see "The Wall of Jericho" at Josh. 6:20). Houses in biblical times varied in kind and size, but four types were common.

Caves

During every period of biblical history, at least some people lived in caves—in the limestone hills of central Israel, for example, and in the Qumran region where the Dead Sea Scrolls were discovered (see "The Dead Sea" at Josh. 15:2). Cave dwellings required little maintenance, and they were cool in summer and warm in winter. Caves were also used as livestock stables. Early Christian tradition held that the Bethlehem stable where Jesus was born was actually a cave.

Tents

People whose livelihood depended on moving livestock from place to place usually lived in portable tents. In the patriarchal era, tents were probably made from animal skins. Later they were sewn from goat hair fabric, which was waterproof and resilient. Some people lived in tents for part of the year and in permanent houses during the rest. Farmers might live in tents close to their fields during the growing season, then move back into the city. Tents were still common in the first century A.D. The early church leaders Priscilla, Aquila, and Paul were tentmakers (Acts 18:2, 3), and Paul's hometown of Tarsus was famed as a center of the tentmaking trade.

Mud Houses

The Canaanite city-states were class-oriented societies. A few large houses existed, but most citizens lived in small one-room homes of mud brick built on top of one another. The plaster used to cover the mud bricks gave them a beehive-like appearance.

The Four-Room House

After settling in Canaan, the Israelites developed a common style of house that had four rooms arranged around an open courtyard. Entrance into the home was through a door leading into the courtyard. Sometimes one or both of the long rooms flanking the courtyard were open on the side facing the courtyard, with several stone pillars supporting the roof.

These rectangular-shaped houses averaged nine hundred to a thousand square feet, with about one-fourth of that area given to the courtyard. Many houses had second stories, almost doubling their size.

The roof was usually constructed with logs or beams laid across the top of the walls. Branches and thatch were laid on top of the beams and covered with a layer of clay. The flat roof became a vital part of the house. An outside staircase gave easy access, and a low wall around the edge kept family members safe. In a crowded city, the roof provided open space to dry fruit and grains, wash clothes, and catch a cool evening breeze. Sometimes an extra room on the roof served as a spare bedroom (2 Kin. 4:8–11).

Think About It: How do you serve God well in your dwelling—the way you treat your family, the way you do your chores, the way you treat your neighbors, and more?

The Canaanites

Josh. 3:10

For several centuries the Canaanites had been the dominant civilization of all the peoples that God promised to drive out of the Promised Land. Sometimes the Bible lists the Canaanites along with related tribes, including the Hittites, Jebusites, Amorites, Hivites, and Girgashites (Gen. 10:15–19). More often, the term Canaanites denotes all the groups inhabiting Canaan at the time of Israel's conquest.

The Canaanites descended from Canaan, the fourth son of Ham and the grandson of Noah (see Noah's profile at Gen. 6:9). While Ham's other descendants probably settled Egypt and parts of Africa, Canaan's family migrated to Phoenicia and Palestine, where they developed a highly advanced culture.

Canaanite society was organized into city-states, each ruled by a king. Some cities were large, important commercial centers such as Hazor, Megiddo, Jericho, Jebus (Jerusalem), and Debir. All were surrounded by walls, and some had extremely effective fortifications (see "The Wall of Jericho" at Josh. 6:20).

With access to the two most important trade routes of the ancient Middle East—the Via Maris and the King's Highway—as well as the Great (Mediterranean) Sea, the Canaanites developed a thriving trade economy. In fact, the term Canaanite eventually became synonymous with merchant or trader (Job 41:6; Is. 23:11). One of Canaan's key exports was an extremely costly dye called purple, which was made from the murex shellfish found along the coast.

Canaan's prosperous economy possibly contributed to a sharply divided two-class society. The lower class were virtually slaves and enjoyed few rights. The upper class was organized by occupational guilds, including: farmers, ranchers, and other food producers and processors; silversmiths, ironsmiths, and other metalworkers; craftspeople such as potters, sculptors, chariot builders, and even houseboat builders; merchants; priests and other religious figures; and military personnel.

This was the culture that God promised to drive out and replace with His people. Scripture provides at least three reasons for this upheaval.

1. The curse of Canaan. The Canaanites lived under a curse that Noah had delivered centuries earlier. Noah declared that Ham's son Canaan and his descendants would serve the offspring of Noah's other two sons, Shem and Japheth, because Ham had seen "the nakedness of his father" (Gen. 9:20–27). This curse was fulfilled when Shem's descendants, the Hebrews, entered the land of Canaan and either destroyed the Canaanites or made them their slaves.

2. The promise to Abraham. God told Abraham that He would give the land of Canaan "to you and your descendants forever" (Gen. 13:15; 17:8; Ex. 6:2–8). This could not happen without dispossessing the Canaanites. However, neither Abraham nor his immediate descendants would inherit the land, because the Lord was not yet ready to judge Canaanite iniquity.
3. The abominations of the Canaanites. God sent Israel against the Canaanites as judgment of their idolatrous fertility rites and moral degradation (see "Abominations: How Not to Act" at Lev. 18:24–30). Israel inherited the land because God sovereignly elected to destroy a nation of idolaters and give their land to the people He chose.

More: The Old Testament frequently uses the term Amorites as a synonym for Canaanites in general. Purple was a popular luxury product in the ancient world. See "The Trade in Purple" and Lydia's profile at Acts 16:14.

Think About It: Actions are contagious. What moral uprightness, or moral degradation, are you choosing? If everyone in your community acted as you do, how would your community be like or unlike Canaan?

The Parting of the Jordan
Josh. 3:14–17

The miracle of the parting of the Jordan River so that the people could enter Canaan on dry land recalled the miracle of the parting of the Red Sea (Ex. 14:21–31). It also helped to confirm Joshua as Moses' successor. Centuries later, a similar miracle would confirm Elisha as the successor to the prophet Elijah. See "Moses and Elijah" at 1 Kings 19:11.

Think About It: God confirms leadership and presence through the Bible. What characteristics of leadership are you choosing in the areas where you have influence?

Gilgal

Josh. 5:9

- Site possibly a mile northeast of Jericho where Israel first camped after crossing the Jordan River (Josh. 4:19).
- Name means “Circle” or “Wheel,” appropriate to important events that took place there: the establishment of a monument built with 12 stones from the Jordan, possibly set up in a circle (4:20), and the circumcision of uncircumcised Hebrews who “rolled away the reproach of Egypt” (5:8, 9).
- Place where Israel held its first Passover in Canaan and the manna ceased (5:10–12).
- Israel’s base of military operations during the conquest of Canaan.

- Place where many important events took place: where Joshua allotted territories to the tribes (14:6), Saul was crowned king (1 Sam. 11:14, 15), God rejected Saul (13:4–12; 15:12–35), David was welcomed back as king following Absalom's revolt (2 Sam. 19:15, 40), and Elijah prepared to be translated to heaven (2 Kin. 2:1, 2).

The Commander

Josh. 5:13–15

As a general who fearlessly engaged battlefield enemies, it was natural for Joshua to challenge a stranger who had drawn his sword. But he discovered that the "Man" outside Jericho had not come to fight. He came to lead. He was the "Commander of the army of the LORD."

So it is today. God will not settle for serving as a low-ranking soldier in our personal campaigns, whatever they may be. He does not give us His resources so we can pursue our own agendas. He comes as the Lord, the Sovereign One, the supreme Commander. To give Him our allegiance does not mean we give up all control or personal responsibility, but it does demand we deal with Him as He truly is—the Lord God, our Creator, Savior, and Commander.

Jericho

Josh. 6:1

- One of Palestine's oldest cities, located on the west bank of the Jordan River almost 10 miles north of the Dead Sea.
- Known as the city of palm trees (Deut. 34:3).
- Site of a perennial spring that has drawn settlers since prehistoric times.
- First Canaanite city taken by the Israelites after they crossed the Jordan (Josh. 6:1–21).
- Virtually abandoned until the time of King Ahab, when Hiel the Bethelite rebuilt it at the cost of his two sons, fulfilling Joshua's curse (6:26; 1 Kin. 16:34).
- Notorious in Jesus' day for thieves who plundered travelers along the narrow winding mountain road up to Jerusalem (Luke 10:30).

Joshua's Praise March

Josh. 6:3

Joshua and the Israelites besieged Jericho by employing a tactic still useful today—the praise march. The biblical text simply calls it a "march," but elements of praise permeated the effort.

Joshua's army marched around the city for seven days. The only sound allowed was the blowing of the priests' trumpets as they preceded the ark (Josh. 6:9, 10). On the seventh day, when everyone's pent-up emotions must have been aching for release,

Joshua signaled the army to shout and a roar erupted, a sound exceeded only by the crashing walls (6:16, 20).

Joshua was convinced that God would win this battle, for he knew he waged a holy war—a war that God declared, took responsibility for, and resolved (see "Holy War" at Deut. 20:16). Confident that God would fulfill His promise, Joshua marched his troops around Jericho in an act of public praise that peaked with a victory cry: "Shout, for the LORD has given you the city!" (Josh. 6:16).

In our day and age, holy war is no longer an option, at least in the way of the old covenant. Today many believers take action through more peaceful means, such as a worship march.

- Some groups organize marches and demonstrations to support or oppose a particular policy. People march, play instruments, shout, wave banners and signs—there is nothing subtle about this approach. The point is to stand up and be counted as God's people.
- Other groups take a quieter approach, a prayer walk. Christians agree to pray daily or weekly for a specific area—a block, neighborhood, or city. They might pray while walking or commuting. As they pass through the area, they pray for the homes, businesses, and people they see. Their experience often dramatically increases their insight into a community and compassion for the people who live there.
- Some Christians undertake a marathon of community development. Nehemiah began by praying for Jerusalem in response to distressing news. After arriving at the city, he quietly inspected its walls, devised a plan, recruited personnel, and gathered everything necessary for rebuilding. He overcame opposition and obstacles as he redeveloped the city. By committing to a long-term process, he finished by saying, "This work was done by our God" (Neh. 6:16). The rebuilding was a work of worship.

Methods of ministering are vast and varied. Some use a praise march like Joshua. Others prefer a prayer walk, just as Abraham prayed for Sodom (Gen. 18:23–33). Still others commit themselves to a work of worship, like Nehemiah. God has a strategy that fits our situation no matter what walls we may face. He always has the power to bring them crumbling down.

The Wall of Jericho

Josh. 6:20

The Bible presents the fall of Jericho's wall as a miracle. The more we learn about the wall, the more readily we see why it required God's intervention to breach. Excavations of ancient Jericho show that a double wall ringed the city. The wall was built on top of a massive earth mound more than forty feet tall. At the bottom was a stone wall and at the top was a brick wall. The dirt bank was covered with a slippery plaster that made the wall almost impossible for attackers to scale.

God may have used an earthquake to topple the walls, since the city was located at the north end of the Dead Sea in the Jordan River Valley, situated on a major fault line. The movement of an entire geological formation, not just the city's walls, would require an even bigger miracle. Either way, God accomplished His purposes.

Achan

Josh. 7:19

Name means: "Troublesome"; Joshua asked him, "Why have you troubled us? The LORD will trouble you this day" (Josh. 7:25); Achan's burial place was named the Valley of Achor ("Valley of Trouble"; 7:26).

Family: Descendant of Judah; he had several sons and daughters who were also punished.

Best known as: The man who disobeyed God by stealing plunder from Jericho, resulting in Israel's initial defeat at Ai (6:18; 7:1, 12, 20, 21).

Admitting Sin

Josh. 7:20, 21

Achan's confession was straightforward. Rather than try to hide what he had done, he openly declared not only the fact of his sin but also exactly what he had done wrong. He and his family suffered the required punishment for his transgression (Josh. 7:24, 25), but his confession cleansed the nation. While sin always has consequences, Scripture nevertheless urges us to confess our sins, which often brings profound benefits. See "Confessions That Bring Healing" at 1 Samuel 15:24.

I Saw, I Wanted, I Took

Josh. 7:21

Whenever we sin, we repeat Adam and Eve's offense, a fact Achan's situation makes clear. Not only is similar language used to describe both incidents, but both brought devastating social consequences.

Achan's Sin

Similar biblical language

"When I saw among the spoils a beautiful Babylonian garment, two hundred shekels of silver, and a wedge of gold weighing fifty shekels, I coveted them and took them" (Josh. 7:21, emphasis added).

Individual sin with social consequences

Achan's sin destroyed him and his family (Josh. 7:24, 25) and exacted a heavy toll from Israel as a nation (7:11, 12).

Adam and Eve's Sin

Similar biblical language

"So when the woman saw that the tree was good for food, that it was pleasant to the eyes, and a tree desirable to make one wise, she took of its fruit and ate. She also gave to her husband with her, and he ate" (Gen. 3:6, emphasis added).

Individual sin with social consequences

Adam's sin passed from father to son (Cain killed Abel, and so on), thus polluting the whole human race (Gen. 3:14–19; 4:5–8; Rom. 5:12).

The three verbs used—I saw, I coveted (desired), I took—correspond exactly, showing that Achan acted as Adam and Eve had acted long before. Each coveted what belonged to God, took it, and broke a covenant. In both cases, sin destroyed relationships, not only for those committing the sin but also for generations to come.

A Done Deal

Josh. 8:30–35

People use diverse means to signal when a significant agreement has been reached—a handshake, a formal gathering of signatures, an exchange of gifts, a ceremony. The Israelites ratified their covenant with God by assembling at Mount Gerizim and Mount Ebal in central Canaan. Half the people stood on one hill and half on the other while Joshua and the Levites reviewed the conditions of the Law. The people voiced their commitment to the terms by shouting, "Amen!" It must have been an unforgettable experience.

Peace at Any Price

Josh. 9:14, 15

God instructed Israel to destroy the Canaanites, yet by making peace with the Gibeonites Joshua failed in that assignment. Three prime lessons emerge:

1. The decision was based on appearances rather than careful reflection and investigation. The text suggests that Joshua and the elders of Israel reached a hasty decision, failing to check the facts. Had they sought more than circumstantial evidence, they could have avoided being fooled.
2. The decision was made without seeking the Lord's counsel. This was Israel's gravest mistake. Joshua usually moved ahead only after worshiping God and seeking His direction (Josh. 5:13–15; 8:30–35; 11:15). Acting apart from the Lord locked him into a bad bargain.
3. The Israelites nevertheless honored their decision (9:18–20). To the nation's credit, it kept its commitment to spare the Gibeonites.

The Gibeon incident challenges us to examine the basis of our own decision-making and honestly evaluate how well we seek God's guidance and follow through on our agreements, even when they come at a cost.

A Peace Treaty
Josh. 9:15

Caleb
Josh. 14:6

Name means: "Dog."

Home: Given Hebron in Judah as his inheritance (Josh. 14:6–15).

Best known as: One of two spies sent to the Promised Land who advocated conquest rather than retreat (Num. 13:30). For his trust in God he was allowed to survive the wilderness years and enter Canaan (14:6, 29, 30).

Caleb's Mountain
Josh. 14:12

Nearly alone among an unbelieving nation, Caleb displayed unflinching devotion and seasoned courage. When the mass of escaped slaves wanted to return to Egypt, only he and Joshua stood against them, convinced that God would keep His promise to give them the land of Canaan (Num. 13:30; 14:6–9). Though the older Caleb was likely the spokesperson, Joshua later became Moses' successor.

As a result of his faithfulness, Caleb survived to enter Canaan and helped Moses divide the land (34:16–19). He led his people, Judah, as they took control of their territory.

The Lord seemed to prolong Caleb's life to remind a younger generation that He fulfills His word. When eighty-five-year-old Caleb gazed at Hebron, he cried, "Give me this mountain!" Granted his request, he fearlessly drove out the Anakim living there—a response to the timidity of his peers, who forty years earlier wailed about giants in the land (Num. 13:31–33; Josh. 14:12; 15:13, 14). In the end, Caleb's persevering faith triumphed over both the size of his enemies and his friends' fears.

The Dead Sea

Josh. 15:2

At various times in Scripture the Dead Sea of southern Palestine was known as the Salt Sea (Gen. 14:3; Josh. 15:2), the Sea of the Arabah (Deut. 3:17), and the eastern sea (Joel 2:20; Zech. 14:8). The Arabic name is Bahr Lut, meaning "Sea of Lot." Since the second century A.D. this unusual body of water has been most commonly known as the Dead Sea.

Middle Eastern topography is dominated by a geologic fault extending from Syria south through Palestine all the way to Nyasa Lake in east-central Africa. The Dead Sea lies at southern end of the Jordan Valley, the deepest depression of this geologic fault. The surface of the Dead Sea is the lowest point on earth, approximately 1,300 feet below sea level. The lake's deepest point—another 1,300 feet—is on the northeast corner at the foot of the Moab mountains. The Dead Sea measures about fifty miles long and nine to ten miles wide, but its surface area varies from year to year depending on rainfall and irrigation.

The Lisan ("Tongue") Peninsula is a large spit of land that once separated the northern and southern basins of the Dead Sea, with a channel flowing in between. During the reign of King Jehoshaphat, a coalition of Moabites and Ammonites used this geographical feature to stage a surprise attack on Judah (2 Chr. 20:1, 2). Some believe that the ruins of Sodom and Gomorrah (see the cities' profile at Gen. 18:20 and "The Legacy of Sodom and Gomorrah" at Gen. 19:29) lie in the extremely shallow waters south of the Lisan Peninsula.

The Dead Sea is almost entirely surrounded by hills and cliffs. The Jordan River, hillside streams, and seasonal rivers bring millions of gallons of water into the Dead Sea each day, but the water has no natural exits. Extreme heat and sparse rainfall result in an extremely high evaporation rate that keeps the water level from rising. Due to its salinity—the Dead Sea is 8.6 times saltier than the ocean—fish and plants cannot live in its waters.

These harsh conditions are what make the sea “dead.” Yet this body of water still has valuable properties. Tributaries flowing through nitrous soil and sulfur springs arrive with abundant deposits, and over millennia this has created an enormous concentration not only of salt but also potash, bromine, magnesium chloride, and other minerals, making the Dead Sea the richest mineral deposit on earth.

A Thorn in Judah's Side
Josh. 15:47

Judah was allotted a number of towns once occupied by the Anakim, the so-called giants of Canaan, but subsequently inhabited by the Philistines. The most important of these was Gaza. The people of Judah failed to drive out Gaza's residents and lived to regret it. Gaza and its neighbors were a thorn in Judah's side for centuries. Similarly decisions we've made may continue to affect us for dozens of years.

Think About It: What action did you take, or not take, that seemed right at the time but has since created incredible pain? What do you do with the regret? What are God's next steps for this situation?

Casting Lots
Josh. 18:8–10

At Joshua's direction, seven tribes who had not yet received their inheritance sent surveyors to inspect their allotted territories. Joshua used their feedback to help divide Canaan proportionately. To make his final decisions, Joshua elected to cast lots. Scripture does not detail his exact method, but it apparently involved an element of chance.

It may seem odd that Joshua left the outcome of a decision with long-term consequences up to chance. We might assume he would rely on more direct communication from God. But the text explains that Joshua cast the lots "before the LORD in Shiloh," where the tabernacle was erected. Thus God may have superintended the outcome, as some believe the Urim and Thummim were used (see "Seeking Guidance Through the Urim and Thummim" at Ex. 28:30). Joshua may also have cast lots "before the LORD" to demonstrate that the division of land proceeded according to the Lord's command and was carried out with integrity.

The text does not explain whether God determined the outcome. But it clearly shows that the results were out of Joshua's hands. Even if the land was divided purely by chance, no one could blame Joshua for unfair behavior.

Christians might wonder if this scene implies that we should draw straws, flip a coin, or roll the dice to make difficult decisions. While Joshua's example raises this possibility, however, it also demonstrates several principles worth keeping in mind:

- No decision-making process should attempt to avoid human responsibility. God expects us to make choices and accept consequences. Just as Joshua sent surveyors to evaluate the land, we need to gather information and seek counsel to make informed decisions. And just as the Hebrews agreed to abide by the results of casting lots, we should stick by our vows.
- No approach to decision-making should negate God's clearly revealed will. The Bible plainly reveals the core facts we need in order to follow God. Our methods and outcomes must never violate Scripture's express teachings.
- The point of casting lots and similar methods of decision-making is to ensure fairness, integrity, and objectivity. Whatever our method, we must ensure it is indeed fair and free of manipulation. An evenhanded approach will avoid and even end conflicts (Prov. 18:18). Nonetheless, leaving a decision to chance is probably best used for deciding among essentially equal alternatives.

Scripture records several occasions when lots were cast for evil purposes (for example, Esth. 3:7; Matt. 27:35). Yet as Joshua showed, casting lots can bring about good (see also 1 Chr. 24:5; Acts 1:15–26). At times God Himself commanded lots to be cast (Lev. 16:8). The most important thing to remember is that no matter what process of decision-making is adopted, we should seek to fulfill God's will.

The Valley of Hinnom
Josh. 18:16

A deep, narrow ravine south of Jebus (later named Jerusalem) called the Valley of Hinnom, or the Valley of the Son of Hinnom, marked the boundary between the territories of Benjamin and Judah. This once unremarkable location later became highly significant.

During the divided monarchy, the valley was the site of a pagan altar or high place known as Tophet ("Fireplace"). There parents sacrificed their children to the god Molech. The Bible singles out Ahaz and Manasseh, kings of Judah, as having led this disturbing ritual (2 Chr. 28:3; 33:6). Scripture praises King Josiah for destroying this idolatrous altar during his reforms (2 Kin. 23:10).

Jeremiah, who prophesied during Josiah's reign, foretold that God would judge Israel for committing the awful abominations of human sacrifice as well as other evils, causing such destruction that the Valley of Hinnom would become a cemetery known as the Valley of Slaughter (Jer. 7:31, 32; 19:1–6; 32:35). This prediction began to be fulfilled when the Babylonians destroyed Jerusalem in 587 B.C.

The Valley of Hinnom later became Jerusalem's city dump. Residents used the site to burn refuse and the dead bodies of criminals and animals, so fires continually smoldered there. The valley was so noxious that its name became a synonym for hell. The Hebrew phrase ge ("valley of") hinnom eventually became the Greek Gehenna (translated as "hell" in Matt. 5:22; Mark 9:43, 45, 47). Jewish tradition held that hell's entrance began at that valley.

More: The fires that smoldered at Gehenna fouled the air of Jerusalem in Jesus' day, contrary to the city's image as the Holy City.

Use Inheritance as a Trustee

Josh. 19:49, 50

An inheritance can bless a family, but it can also become a terrible curse that drives a rift between its members. When the goal is to divide an estate without dividing the family, much depends on who disburses the assets and how well they do their job.

When Israel divided Canaan, Joshua functioned as the trustee of an estate, ensuring each tribe received the lands to which it was entitled. Undertaking this delicate job with anything less than the highest integrity would leave him open to charges of unfairness or of neglecting commitments made by Moses.

Joshua discharged his responsibility by seeking the welfare of the twelve tribes above his own. He ran the risk of getting the leftover lands of Canaan, but he avoided any question of impropriety.

This policy strongly contrasted with the practices of Canaanite and Amorite kings of the city-states that the Israelites inherited. Pagan kings lorded over their people, seizing the first and the best for themselves. Joshua assumed the posture of a servant-leader, forsaking greed and self-interest to seek his people's highest good (see "Leaders Serve" at Matt. 20:25–28).

We can emulate Joshua's example. As we make decisions that impact others, we can do right by seeking their benefit before our own, trusting the details of our own welfare to God.

More: The Bible addresses not only family inheritance but our inheritance in Christ (see "What's In It for Us?" at Eph. 1:11) and Christ's inheritance of the redeemed children of God (see "A Perfect Inheritance" at Eph. 1:18).

The Levitical Cities
Josh. 21:1–3

Unlike Israel's other eleven tribes, Levi was not allotted land in Canaan. (See "Share the Wealth" at Num. 18:20–24.) Because God considered the Levites a gift to His people to facilitate worship and sacrifice (Num. 18:5, 6), He commanded each tribe to set aside a proportionate number of cities for the Levites (35:1–8).

The Levites were probably not the only people who inhabited the forty-eight Levitical cities scattered throughout Israel, but they enjoyed special status alongside the other citizens. For example, Levites were allowed to graze livestock on lands near their cities. Much of their support came from a 10 percent national tax collected every three years (see "A Ten Percent Tax" at Deut. 26:12–15). Mosaic law protected Levites from dispossession (Lev. 25:32–34), and unlike other tribes, they were granted an unlimited right of redemption. Yet because of their dependence on their communities for sustenance and protection, Levites were accountable to local residents.

Levitical cities were often on the borders between tribes rather than at their centers, with the result that Levites were distributed relatively evenly throughout the country. Their cities became mission stations for their God-appointed task of teaching the tribes (Deut. 33:8–10; 2 Chr. 35:3–6). Their cities were not meant to be sites for shrines but bases for equipping every city and tribe to understand and follow the Law. Levitical cities also became centers of justice and political influence, where Levitical teaching shaped not only religious but also civil and political policies, as evidenced by King Jehoshaphat's reforms. He sent Levites along with governmental officials to teach the Law so that peace would prevail over rebellion (2 Chr. 17:7–10).

Six of the Levitical cities were also designated as cities of refuge (see "Cities of Refuge" at Num. 35:11) where persons accused of manslaughter could flee for protection until city elders investigated and rendered judgment. This put the Levites in a position to influence issues of justice. These influential responsibilities made some Levitical cities major centers for Israel's cultural and religious life, notably Gibeon, Bethel, and Gilgal.

The Power of Listening

Josh. 22:11, 12

When God told Israel to erect the tabernacle and initiate a system of sacrifices, He clearly commanded that all burnt offerings were to be presented at the door of the tabernacle (Lev. 17:8, 9). The altar set up east of the Jordan River by the tribes of Gad and Reuben and the half tribe of Manasseh therefore appeared to violate a divine directive. The rest of the tribes reacted by preparing for civil war (Josh. 22:10–12).

However, the "great, impressive altar" (22:10) turned out to be nothing more than a monument (22:26, 27). Rather than evidence that the tribes had forsaken the Lord's commandments, the monument was set up so that the tribes and their children would not abandon God. They even named the monument "Witness" as a sign of their commitment (22:34).

This incident illustrates our need for open communication. The young nation came to the brink of civil war as a result of mere hearsay, but when both sides took the time to listen to the other's perspective, hostilities dissipated. Sharing a commitment to listening can help us remember to ask questions and elicit peaceful discussion rather than provoke needless conflicts.

Real Ownership

Josh. 24:13

The Lord told Israel, "I have given you a land" (compare Josh. 1:3, 11, 15). His remark indicates that the land ultimately belonged to God; Israel took possession of Canaan as a gift from His hand, a resource to be treasured and managed wisely.

Scripture includes many affirmations that all of our possessions ultimately come from a good God:

- The earth itself, with all of its resources, is a gift from God (Gen. 1:29–31; 2:15; 9:2, 3; Ps. 8:6–8).

- The ability to work and earn a living flows from God (Deut. 8:18; see also "Work Itself Is a Gift from God" at Gen. 3:17–19 and "People at Work" at Ps. 8:6).
- The capacity to enjoy the basics of life—food, family, work—comes from God (Eccl. 3:13; 5:19).

These gifts do not come without condition. Like everything else in this world, God's gifts are temporary. Someday we will give an account for how we have used them for His glory (Gen. 9:5; Rom. 14:12; 2 Cor. 5:10). And like Israel in its new land, God invites all of us to a life of thankful dependence on Him and careful stewardship of the resources He has given us.

God Has Helped

Josh. 24:33

The name that Aaron gave to his son Eleazar means "God Has Helped." The named turned out to be highly appropriate. Eleazar likely came out of Egypt as a boy, stood at Mount Sinai when the Law was given, watched the tragedy unfold at Kadesh Barnea, trudged through the wilderness for forty years while his parents' generation died off, and watched the Lord deliver Canaan into Israel's hands. It was an extraordinary set of experiences. Through it all, God stayed faithful to His promises, helping His people at every turn, often despite their grumbling and rebellion. Following impressive victories during the military conquest of Canaan, God's people began to settle the land that the Lord had promised to Abraham long before. Yet the new nation faced serious vulnerabilities. As citizens put their wartime vigilance behind them, they exposed themselves to military attack and spiritual decay.

The Book of Judges makes for troubling reading because it shows a nation in moral and spiritual decline. After Joshua and his generation passed away, Israel succumbed to moral and civil anarchy. This period of Israelite history was plagued by chronic disobedience and repeated departure from the Lord. It was an era when "everyone did what was right in his own eyes" (Judg. 21:25).

The narrative of this book is built around a recurring cycle of spiritual rebellion, judgment by the Lord, a cry for help, and the Lord's response of raising up leaders, called judges, who ushered in periods of revival (see "Twelve Heroes" at Judg. 2:18). As this cycle of rebellion and deliverance repeats itself throughout the book, Israel spirals further and further downward. Leaders become less godly, and ordinary people habitually abandon God. By the end of the book, the nation reaches a new low.

The judges for whom this book is named were not legislative officials but national leaders who served as spiritual authorities as well as political mobilizers and military heroes (see "The Judges" at Judg. 2:16). The book mentions twelve judges, including Gideon (6:11–8:32) and Samson (chs. 13–16). Samson's story epitomizes the larger context of the book. He frequently turned his back on God, with tragic outcomes, yet the Lord nevertheless remained faithful to His chosen leader—and His people—whether in judgment or in grace.

Judges also presents another figure prominent in ancient Israel, the Canaanite god Baal, a deity worshiped in the hopes of promoting fertility. Baal worship involved occult rites, ritual sex acts, and even child sacrifice (see "Abominations: How Not to Act" at Lev. 18:24–30). When the Israelites joined in the evil deeds of their neighbors, they brought judgment on themselves according to the terms of their covenant with God.

Many of this book's most well-known events are troubling, including Jephthah's vow (Judg. 11:29–40), Samson's immorality (16:1–4), and an incident involving a Levite's concubine (19:1–30). It is important to remember that the Bible's reporting of these happenings does not imply approval. These were dark days for Israel, and Scripture faithfully relates what happens when people abandon God and follow their own sinful inclinations.

The writer of Judges is unknown. The book may have been compiled during the early days of the monarchy, and ancient tradition held that Samuel was the author, a possibility that remains uncertain. Judges spans the history of Israel from after Joshua's death (Judg. 1:1) to the time of Samuel, the last of the judges—roughly 1380 to 1050 B.C. All of the book's events took place in Israel (see the map at "Fulfill God's Expectations" at Judg. 1:27–36).

Key People in Judges

A table at Judges 2:18 lists the twelve judges of Israel listed in this book. But many other people enter into the narrative, which presents them as side characters in the judges' stories. Some of these other people worth noticing include . . .

- Sisera, a Canaanite general defeated by one of Israel's female judges (Judg. 4:2).
- Jael, a homemaker who earned renown through her cunning assassination of a fleeing commander (Judg. 4:21).
- Abimelech, a son of Gideon who aspired to be king of Israel and had himself crowned king of Shechem (Judg. 9:1).
- Jephthah's daughter, a young woman who shared her father's uncompromising reverence for God, even at the cost of her marriage, children, or life itself (Judg. 11:29–40).
- Manoah, a man who joined his wife in giving God their only son; this son grew up to become one of Israel's most famed judges (Judg. 13).
- Delilah, a Philistine temptress who wore down Samson's resolve and ultimately betrayed him to his enemies (Judg. 16:4).
- Micah, a man who used his mother's wealth to create an idolatrous shrine that brought destruction to an entire city (Judg. 17–18).
- The Levite's concubine, a woman whose faithlessness led to her tragic death and resulted in civil war (Judg. 19–20).
- Phinehas, a grandson of Aaron who displayed a zeal for the Lord until the day of his death (Judg. 20:28).

Key Events in Judges

- Gideon uses a fleece to make sure of God's will (Judg. 6:36–40).
- Gideon's army of three hundred defeats the Midianites (Judg. 7:1–25).
- Samson kills a lion with his bare hands (Judg. 14:5, 6).

- Samson gives in to Delilah, who betrays him to the Philistines (Judg. 16:1–21).

Judges 1

The Continuing Conquest of Canaan

1 Now after the death of Joshua it came to pass that the children of Israel asked the LORD, saying, “Who shall be first to go up for us against the Canaanites to fight against them?” Israel’s Ups and Downs

2 And the LORD said, “Judah shall go up. Indeed I have delivered the land into his hand.”

3 So Judah said to Simeon his brother, “Come up with me to my allotted territory, that we may fight against the Canaanites; and I will likewise go with you to your allotted territory.” And Simeon went with him.

4 Then Judah went up, and the LORD delivered the Canaanites and the Perizzites into their hand; and they killed ten thousand men at Bezek.

5 And they found Adoni-Bezek in Bezek, and fought against him; and they defeated the Canaanites and the Perizzites.

6 Then Adoni-Bezek fled, and they pursued him and caught him and cut off his thumbs and big toes.

7 And Adoni-Bezek said, “Seventy kings with their thumbs and big toes cut off used to gather scraps under my table;
as I have done, so God has repaid me.” Then they brought him to Jerusalem, and there he died.

8 Now the children of Judah fought against Jerusalem and took it; they struck it with the edge of the sword and set the city on fire.

9 And afterward the children of Judah went down to fight against the Canaanites who dwelt in the mountains, in the South,[a] and in the lowland.

10 Then Judah went against the Canaanites who dwelt in Hebron. (Now the name of Hebron was formerly Kirjath Arba.) And they killed Sheshai, Ahiman, and Talmai.
11 From there they went against the inhabitants of Debir.
(The name of Debir was formerly Kirjath Sepher.) 12 Then Caleb said, “Whoever attacks Kirjath Sepher and takes it, to him I will give my daughter Achsah as wife.” 13 And Othniel the son of Kenaz, Caleb’s younger brother, took it; so he gave him his daughter Achsah as wife.
14 Now it happened, when she came to him, that she urged him[b] to ask her father for a field. And she dismounted from her donkey, and Caleb said to her, “What do you wish?”
15 So she said to him, “Give me a blessing; since you have given me land in the South, give me also springs of water.” And Caleb gave her the upper springs and the lower springs.
16 Now the children of the Kenite, Moses’ father-in-law, went up from the City of Palms with the children of Judah into the Wilderness of Judah, which lies in the South near Arad; and they went and dwelt among the people.
17 And Judah went with his brother Simeon, and they attacked the Canaanites who inhabited Zephath, and utterly destroyed it. So the name of the city was called Hormah.
18 Also Judah took Gaza with its territory, Ashkelon with its territory, and Ekron with its territory.
19 So the LORD was with Judah. And they drove out the mountaineers, but they could not drive out the inhabitants of the lowland, because they had chariots of iron.
20 And they gave Hebron to Caleb, as Moses had said.
Then he expelled from there the three sons of Anak.
21 But the children of Benjamin did not drive out the Jebusites who inhabited Jerusalem; so the Jebusites dwell with the children of Benjamin in Jerusalem to this day.

22And the house of Joseph also went up against Bethel, and the LORD was with them.

23So the house of Joseph sent men to spy out Bethel. (The name of the city was formerly Luz.)

24And when the spies saw a man coming out of the city, they said to him, “Please show us the entrance to the city, and we will show you mercy.”

25So he showed them the entrance to the city, and they struck the city with the edge of the sword; but they let the man and all his family go.

26And the man went to the land of the Hittites, built a city, and called its name Luz, which is its name to this day.

Incomplete Conquest of the Land

27However, Manasseh did not drive out the inhabitants of Beth Shean and its villages, or Taanach and its villages, or the inhabitants of Dor and its villages, or the inhabitants of Ibleam and its villages, or the inhabitants of Megiddo and its villages; for the Canaanites were determined to dwell in that land. Fulfill God’s Expectations

28And it came to pass, when Israel was strong, that they put the Canaanites under tribute, but did not completely drive them out.

29Nor did Ephraim drive out the Canaanites who dwelt in Gezer; so the Canaanites dwelt in Gezer among them.

30Nor did Zebulun drive out the inhabitants of Kitron or the inhabitants of Nahalol; so the Canaanites dwelt among them, and were put under tribute.

31Nor did Asher drive out the inhabitants of Acco or the inhabitants of Sidon, or of Ahlab, Achzib, Helbah, Aphik, or Rehob.

32So the Asherites dwelt among the Canaanites, the inhabitants of the land; for they did not drive them out.

33Nor did Naphtali drive out the inhabitants of Beth Shemesh or the inhabitants of Beth Anath; but they dwelt among the Canaanites, the inhabitants of the land. Nevertheless the inhabitants of Beth Shemesh and Beth Anath were put under tribute to them.

34And the Amorites forced the children of Dan into the mountains, for they would not allow them to come down to the valley;

35and the Amorites were determined to dwell in Mount Heres, in Aijalon, and in Shaalbim;[c] yet when the strength of the house of Joseph became greater, they were put under tribute.

36Now the boundary of the Amorites was from the Ascent of Akrabbim, from Sela, and upward.

Judges 2

Israel's Disobedience

1 Then the Angel of the LORD came up from Gilgal to Bochim, and said: "I led you up from Egypt and brought you to the land of which I swore to your fathers; and I said,
'I will never break My covenant with you. Thorns and Tears
2 'And you shall make no covenant with the inhabitants of this land; you shall tear down their altars.' But you have not obeyed My voice. Why have you done this?
3 "Therefore I also said, 'I will not drive them out before you; but they shall be thorns in your side,[a] and their gods shall be a snare to you.' "
4 So it was, when the Angel of the LORD spoke these words to all the children of Israel, that the people lifted up their voices and wept.
5 Then they called the name of that place Bochim;[b] and they sacrificed there to the LORD.
6 And when Joshua had dismissed the people, the children of Israel went each to his own inheritance to possess the land.

Death of Joshua

7 So the people served the LORD all the days of Joshua, and all the days of the elders who outlived Joshua, who had seen all the great works of the LORD which He had done for Israel.
8 Now Joshua the son of Nun, the servant of the LORD, died when he was one hundred and ten years old.
9 And they buried him within the border of his inheritance at Timnath Heres, in the mountains of Ephraim, on the north side of Mount Gaash.

10 When all that generation had been gathered to their fathers, another generation arose after them who did not know the LORD nor the work which He had done for Israel.

Israel's Unfaithfulness

11 Then the children of Israel did evil in the sight of the LORD, and served the Baals; Other Gods 12 and they forsook the LORD God of their fathers, who had brought them out of the land of Egypt; and they followed other gods from among the gods of the people who were all around them, and they bowed down to them;
and they provoked the LORD to anger.
13 They forsook the LORD and served Baal and the Ashtoreths.[c]
14 And the anger of the LORD was hot against Israel. So He delivered them into the hands of plunderers who despoiled them; and He sold them into the hands of their enemies all around, so that they could no longer stand before their enemies.
15 Wherever they went out, the hand of the LORD was against them for calamity, as the LORD had said, and as the LORD had sworn to them. And they were greatly distressed.
16 Nevertheless, the LORD raised up judges who delivered them out of the hand of those who plundered them. The Judges
17 Yet they would not listen to their judges, but they played the harlot with other gods, and bowed down to them. They turned quickly from the way in which their fathers walked, in obeying the commandments of the LORD; they did not do so.
18 And when the LORD raised up judges for them, the LORD was with the judge and delivered them out of the hand of their enemies all the days of the judge; for the LORD was moved to pity by their groaning because of those who oppressed them and harassed them. Twelve Heroes

19 And it came to pass, when the judge was dead, that they reverted and behaved more corruptly than their fathers, by following other gods, to serve them and bow down to them. They did not cease from their own doings nor from their stubborn way.

20 Then the anger of the LORD was hot against Israel; and He said, “Because this nation has transgressed My covenant which I commanded their fathers, and has not heeded My voice,

21 “I also will no longer drive out before them any of the nations which Joshua left when he died,

22 “so that through them I may test Israel, whether they will keep the ways of the LORD, to walk in them as their fathers kept them, or not.”

23 Therefore the LORD left those nations, without driving them out immediately; nor did He deliver them into the hand of Joshua.

Judges 3

The Nations Remaining in the Land

1 Now these are the nations which the LORD left, that He might test Israel by them, that is, all who had not known any of the wars in Canaan Problem People

2 (this was only so that the generations of the children of Israel might be taught to know war, at least those who had not formerly known it),

3 namely, five lords of the Philistines, all the Canaanites, the Sidonians, and the Hivites who dwelt in Mount Lebanon, from Mount Baal Hermon to the entrance of Hamath.

4 And they were left, that He might test Israel by them, to know whether they would obey the commandments of the LORD, which He had commanded their fathers by the hand of Moses.

5 Thus the children of Israel dwelt among the Canaanites, the Hittites, the Amorites, the Perizzites, the Hivites, and the Jebusites.

6 And they took their daughters to be their wives, and gave their daughters to their sons; and they served their gods.

Othniel

7 So the children of Israel did evil in the sight of the LORD. They forgot the LORD their God, and served the Baals and Asherahs.[a]

8 Therefore the anger of the LORD was hot against Israel, and He sold them into the hand of Cushan-Rishathaim king of Mesopotamia; and the children of Israel served Cushan-Rishathaim eight years.

9When the children of Israel cried out to the LORD, the LORD raised up a deliverer for the children of Israel, who delivered them: Othniel the son of Kenaz, Caleb's younger brother. Othniel
10The Spirit of the LORD came upon him, and he judged Israel. He went out to war, and the LORD delivered Cushan-Rishathaim king of Mesopotamia into his hand; and his hand prevailed over Cushan-Rishathaim.
11So the land had rest for forty years. Then Othniel the son of Kenaz died.

Ehud

12And the children of Israel again did evil in the sight of the LORD. So the LORD strengthened Eglon king of Moab against Israel, because they had done evil in the sight of the LORD.
13Then he gathered to himself the people of Ammon and Amalek, went and defeated Israel, and took possession of the City of Palms.
14So the children of Israel served Eglon king of Moab eighteen years.
15But when the children of Israel cried out to the LORD, the LORD raised up a deliverer for them: Ehud the son of Gera, the Benjamite, a left-handed man. By him the children of Israel sent tribute to Eglon king of Moab. Ehud 16Now Ehud made himself a dagger (it was double-edged and a cubit in length) and fastened it under his clothes on his right thigh.
17So he brought the tribute to Eglon king of Moab. (Now Eglon was a very fat man.) 18And when he had finished presenting the tribute, he sent away the people who had carried the tribute.
19But he himself turned back from the stone images that were at Gilgal, and said, "I have a secret message for you,

O king.” He said, “Keep silence!” And all who attended him went out from him.

20So Ehud came to him (now he was sitting upstairs in his cool private chamber). Then Ehud said, “I have a message from God for you.” So he arose from his seat.

22Even the hilt went in after the blade, and the fat closed over the blade, for he did not draw the dagger out of his belly; and his entrails came out.

23Then Ehud went out through the porch and shut the doors of the upper room behind him and locked them.

24When he had gone out, Eglon’s[b] servants came to look, and to their surprise, the doors of the upper room were locked. So they said, “He is probably attending to his needs in the cool chamber.”

25So they waited till they were embarrassed, and still he had not opened the doors of the upper room. Therefore they took the key and opened them. And there was their master, fallen dead on the floor.

26But Ehud had escaped while they delayed, and passed beyond the stone images and escaped to Seirah.

27And it happened, when he arrived, that he blew the trumpet in the mountains of Ephraim, and the children of Israel went down with him from the mountains; and he led them.

28Then he said to them, “Follow me, for the LORD has delivered your enemies the Moabites into your hand.” So they went down after him, seized the fords of the Jordan leading to Moab, and did not allow anyone to cross over.

29And at that time they killed about ten thousand men of Moab, all stout men of valor; not a man escaped.

30So Moab was subdued that day under the hand of Israel. And the land had rest for eighty years.

Shamgar

31After him was Shamgar the son of Anath, who killed six hundred men of the Philistines with an ox goad; and he also delivered Israel.

Judges 4

Deborah

1When Ehud was dead, the children of Israel again did evil in the sight of the LORD.
2So the LORD sold them into the hand of Jabin king of Canaan, who reigned in Hazor. The commander of his army was Sisera, who dwelt in Harosheth Hagoyim.
3And the children of Israel cried out to the LORD; for Jabin had nine hundred chariots of iron, and for twenty years he had harshly oppressed the children of Israel.
4Now Deborah, a prophetess, the wife of Lapidoth, was judging Israel at that time. Deborah 5And she would sit under the palm tree of Deborah between Ramah and Bethel in the mountains of Ephraim.
And the children of Israel came up to her for judgment.
6Then she sent and called for Barak the son of Abinoam from Kedesh in Naphtali, and said to him, “Has not the LORD God of Israel commanded, ‘Go and deploy troops at Mount Tabor; take with you ten thousand men of the sons of Naphtali and of the sons of Zebulun; Barak 7‘and against you I will deploy Sisera, the commander of Jabin’s army, with his chariots and his multitude at the River Kishon; and I will deliver him into your hand’?” 8And Barak said to her, “If you will go with me, then I will go; but if you will not go with me, I will not go!” 9So she said, “I will surely go with you; nevertheless there will be no glory for you in the journey you are taking, for the LORD will sell Sisera into the hand of a woman.”
Then Deborah arose and went with Barak to Kedesh.
10And Barak called Zebulun and Naphtali to Kedesh; he went up with ten thousand men under his command,[a] and Deborah went up with him.

11Now Heber the Kenite, of the children of Hobab the father-in-law of Moses, had separated himself from the Kenites and pitched his tent near the terebinth tree at Zaanaim, which is beside Kedesh.

12And they reported to Sisera that Barak the son of Abinoam had gone up to Mount Tabor.

13So Sisera gathered together all his chariots, nine hundred chariots of iron, and all the people who were with him, from Harosheth Hagoyim to the River Kishon.

14Then Deborah said to Barak, “Up! For this is the day in which the LORD has delivered Sisera into your hand. Has not the LORD gone out before you?” So Barak went down from Mount Tabor with ten thousand men following him.

15And the LORD routed Sisera and all his chariots and all his army with the edge of the sword before Barak; and Sisera alighted from his chariot and fled away on foot.

16But Barak pursued the chariots and the army as far as Harosheth Hagoyim, and all the army of Sisera fell by the edge of the sword; not a man was left.

17However, Sisera had fled away on foot to the tent of Jael, the wife of Heber the Kenite; for there was peace between Jabin king of Hazor and the house of Heber the Kenite.

18And Jael went out to meet Sisera, and said to him, “Turn aside, my lord, turn aside to me; do not fear.” And when he had turned aside with her into the tent, she covered him with a blanket.

19Then he said to her, “Please give me a little water to drink, for I am thirsty.” So she opened a jug of milk, gave him a drink, and covered him.

20And he said to her, “Stand at the door of the tent, and if any man comes and inquires of you, and says, ‘Is there any man here?’ you shall say, ‘No.’ ”

21 Then Jael, Heber’s wife, took a tent peg and took a hammer in her hand, and went softly to him and drove the peg into his temple, and it went down into the ground; for he was fast asleep and weary. So he died.
22 And then, as Barak pursued Sisera, Jael came out to meet him, and said to him, “Come, I will show you the man whom you seek.” And when he went into her tent, there lay Sisera, dead with the peg in his temple.
23 So on that day God subdued Jabin king of Canaan in the presence of the children of Israel.
24 And the hand of the children of Israel grew stronger and stronger against Jabin king of Canaan, until they had destroyed Jabin king of Canaan.

Judges 5

The Song of Deborah

1 Then Deborah and Barak the son of Abinoam sang on that day, saying:

2 "When leaders lead in Israel,
When the people willingly offer themselves,
Bless the LORD! Willing and Able to Lead

3 "Hear, O kings! Give ear, O princes!
I, even I, will sing to the LORD;
I will sing praise to the LORD God of Israel.

4 "LORD, when You went out from Seir,
When You marched from the field of Edom,
The earth trembled and the heavens poured,
The clouds also poured water;
5 The mountains gushed before the LORD,
This Sinai, before the LORD God of Israel.

6 "In the days of Shamgar, son of Anath,
In the days of Jael,
The highways were deserted,
And the travelers walked along the byways.
7 Village life ceased, it ceased in Israel,
Until I, Deborah, arose, Arose a mother in Israel.
8 They chose new gods;
Then there was war in the gates;
Not a shield or spear was seen among forty thousand in Israel.
9 My heart is with the rulers of Israel

Who offered themselves willingly with the people.
Bless the LORD!

10 "Speak, you who ride on white donkeys,
Who sit in judges' attire,
And who walk along the road.
11 Far from the noise of the archers, among the watering places,
There they shall recount the righteous acts
of the LORD,
The righteous acts for His villagers in Israel;
Then the people of the LORD shall go down to the gates.

12 "Awake, awake, Deborah!
Awake, awake, sing a song!
Arise, Barak, and lead your captives away,
O son of Abinoam!

13 "Then the survivors came down, the people against the nobles;
The LORD came down for me against the mighty.
14 From Ephraim were those whose roots were in Amalek.
After you, Benjamin, with your peoples,
From Machir rulers came down,
And from Zebulun those who bear the recruiter's staff.
15 And the princes of Issachar[a] were with Deborah;
As Issachar, so was Barak
Sent into the valley under his command;[b]
Among the divisions of Reuben

There were great resolves of heart.
16 Why did you sit among the sheepfolds,
To hear the pipings for the flocks?
The divisions of Reuben have great searchings of heart.
17 Gilead stayed beyond the Jordan,
And why did Dan remain on ships?[c]
Asher continued at the seashore,
And stayed by his inlets.
18 Zebulun is a people who jeopardized their lives to the point of death, Naphtali also, on the heights of the battlefield.

19 "The kings came and fought,
Then the kings of Canaan fought
In Taanach, by the waters of Megiddo;
They took no spoils of silver.
20 They fought from the heavens;
The stars from their courses fought against Sisera.
21 The torrent of Kishon swept them away,
That ancient torrent, the torrent of Kishon.
O my soul, march on in strength!
22 Then the horses' hooves pounded,
The galloping, galloping of his steeds.
23 'Curse Meroz,' said the angel[d] of the LORD,
'Curse its inhabitants bitterly,
Because they did not come to the help of the
LORD,
To the help of the LORD against the mighty.'

24 "Most blessed among women is Jael,
The wife of Heber the Kenite;

Blessed is she among women in tents.
25 He asked for water, she gave milk;
She brought out cream in a lordly bowl.
26 She stretched her hand to the tent peg,
Her right hand to the workmen’s hammer;
She pounded Sisera, she pierced his head,
She split and struck through his temple.
27 At her feet he sank, he fell, he lay still;
At her feet he sank, he fell;
Where he sank, there he fell dead.

28 “The mother of Sisera looked through the window,
And cried out through the lattice,
‘Why is his chariot so long in coming?
Why tarries the clatter of his chariots?’
29 Her wisest ladies answered her,
Yes, she answered herself,
30 ‘Are they not finding and dividing the spoil:
To every man a girl or two;
For Sisera, plunder of dyed garments,
Plunder of garments embroidered and dyed,
Two pieces of dyed embroidery for the neck of the looter?’

31 “Thus let all Your enemies perish, O LORD!
But let those who love Him be like the sun
When it comes out in full strength.”

So the land had rest for forty years.

Judges 6

Midianites Oppress Israel

1 Then the children of Israel did evil in the sight of the LORD. So the LORD delivered them into the hand of Midian for seven years,
2 and the hand of Midian prevailed against Israel. Because of the Midianites, the children of Israel made for themselves the dens, the caves, and the strongholds which are in the mountains.
3 So it was, whenever Israel had sown, Midianites would come up; also Amalekites and the people of the East would come up against them.
4 Then they would encamp against them and destroy the produce of the earth as far as Gaza, and leave no sustenance for Israel, neither sheep nor ox nor donkey.
5 For they would come up with their livestock and their tents, coming in as numerous as locusts; both they and their camels were without number; and they would enter the land to destroy it.
6 So Israel was greatly impoverished because of the Midianites, and the children of Israel cried out to the LORD.
7 And it came to pass, when the children of Israel cried out to the LORD because of the Midianites, 8 that the LORD sent a prophet to the children of Israel, who said to them, “Thus says the LORD God of Israel: ‘I brought you up from Egypt and brought you out of the house of bondage;
9 ‘and I delivered you out of the hand of the Egyptians and out of the hand of all who oppressed you, and drove them out before you and gave you their land.

10 ‘Also I said to you, “I am the LORD your God; do not fear the gods of the Amorites, in whose land you dwell.”
But you have not obeyed My voice.’ ”

Gideon

11 Now the Angel of the LORD came and sat under the terebinth tree which was in Ophrah, which belonged to Joash the Abiezrite, while his son Gideon threshed wheat in the winepress, in order to hide it from the Midianites. Gideon 12 And the Angel of the LORD appeared to him, and said to him, “The LORD is with you, you mighty man of valor!” 13 Gideon said to Him, “O my lord,[a] if the LORD is with us, why then has all this happened to us? And where are all His miracles which our fathers told us about, saying, ‘Did not the LORD bring us up from Egypt?’ But now the LORD has forsaken us and delivered us into the hands of the Midianites.”
14 Then the LORD turned to him and said, “Go in this might of yours, and you shall save Israel from the hand of the Midianites. Have I not sent you?” 15 So he said to Him, “O my Lord,[b] how can I save Israel?
Indeed my clan is the weakest in Manasseh, and I am the least in my father’s house.” 16 And the LORD said to him, “Surely I will be with you, and you shall defeat the Midianites as one man.” 17 Then he said to Him, “If now I have found favor in Your sight, then show me a sign that it is You who talk with me.
18 “Do not depart from here, I pray, until I come to You and bring out my offering and set it before You.” And He said, “I will wait until you come back.” 19 So Gideon went in and prepared a young goat, and unleavened bread from an ephah of flour. The meat he put in a basket, and he put the broth in a pot; and he brought them out to Him under the terebinth tree and presented them.

20 The Angel of God said to him, “Take the meat and the unleavened bread and lay them on this rock, and pour out the broth.” And he did so.

21 Then the Angel of the LORD put out the end of the staff that was in His hand, and touched the meat and the unleavened bread; and fire rose out of the rock and consumed the meat and the unleavened bread. And the Angel of the LORD departed out of his sight.

22 Now Gideon perceived that He was the Angel of the LORD. So Gideon said, “Alas, O Lord GOD! For I have seen the Angel of the LORD face to face.”

23 Then the LORD said to him, “Peace be with you; do not fear, you shall not die.”

24 So Gideon built an altar there to the LORD, and called it The-LORD-Is-Peace.[c] To this day it is still in Ophrah of the Abiezrites.

25 Now it came to pass the same night that the LORD said to him, “Take your father’s young bull, the second bull of seven years old, and tear down the altar of Baal that your father has, and cut down the wooden image[d] that is beside it;

26 “and build an altar to the LORD your God on top of this rock in the proper arrangement, and take the second bull and offer a burnt sacrifice with the wood of the image which you shall cut down.”

27 So Gideon took ten men from among his servants and did as the LORD had said to him. But because he feared his father’s household and the men of the city too much to do it by day, he did it by night.

Gideon Destroys the Altar of Baal

28And when the men of the city arose early in the morning, there was the altar of Baal, torn down; and the wooden image that was beside it was cut down, and the second bull was being offered on the altar which had been built.

29So they said to one another, “Who has done this thing?” And when they had inquired and asked, they said, “Gideon the son of Joash has done this thing.”

30Then the men of the city said to Joash, “Bring out your son, that he may die, because he has torn down the altar of Baal, and because he has cut down the wooden image that was beside it.”

31But Joash said to all who stood against him, “Would you plead for Baal? Would you save him? Let the one who would plead for him be put to death by morning! If he is a god, let him plead for himself, because his altar has been torn down!”

32Therefore on that day he called him Jerubbaal,[e] saying, “Let Baal plead against him, because he has torn down his altar.”

33Then all the Midianites and Amalekites, the people of the East, gathered together; and they crossed over and encamped in the Valley of Jezreel.

34But the Spirit of the LORD came upon Gideon; then he blew the trumpet, and the Abiezrites gathered behind him.

35And he sent messengers throughout all Manasseh, who also gathered behind him. He also sent messengers to Asher, Zebulun, and Naphtali; and they came up to meet them.

The Sign of the Fleece

36So Gideon said to God, “If You will save Israel by my hand as You have said— Fleece? Only One Believer Used It

37 “look, I shall put a fleece of wool on the threshing floor;
if there is dew on the fleece only, and it is dry on all the ground, then I shall know that You will save Israel by my hand, as You have said.”
38 And it was so. When he rose early the next morning and squeezed the fleece together, he wrung the dew out of the fleece, a bowlful of water.
39 Then Gideon said to God, “Do not be angry with me, but let me speak just once more: Let me test, I pray, just once more with the fleece; let it now be dry only on the fleece, but on all the ground let there be dew.” 40 And God did so that night. It was dry on the fleece only, but there was dew on all the ground.

Judges 7

Gideon's Valiant Three Hundred

1 Then Jerubbaal (that is, Gideon) and all the people who were with him rose early and encamped beside the well of Harod, so that the camp of the Midianites was on the north side of them by the hill of Moreh in the valley.

2 And the LORD said to Gideon, "The people who are with you are too many for Me to give the Midianites into their hands, lest Israel claim glory for itself against Me, saying,
'My own hand has saved me.'

3 "Now therefore, proclaim in the hearing of the people, saying, 'Whoever is fearful and afraid, let him turn and depart at once from Mount Gilead.' " And twenty-two thousand of the people returned, and ten thousand remained.

4 But the LORD said to Gideon, "The people are still too many; bring them down to the water, and I will test them for you there. Then it will be, that of whom I say to you,
'This one shall go with you,' the same shall go with you;
and of whomever I say to you, 'This one shall not go with you,' the same shall not go."

5 So he brought the people down to the water. And the LORD said to Gideon, "Everyone who laps from the water with his tongue, as a dog laps, you shall set apart by himself; likewise everyone who gets down on his knees to drink."

6 And the number of those who lapped, putting their hand to their mouth, was three hundred men; but all the rest of the people got down on their knees to drink water.

7 Then the LORD said to Gideon, "By the three hundred men who lapped I will save you, and deliver the Midianites into your hand. Let all the other people go, every man to his place."

8So the people took provisions and their trumpets in their hands. And he sent away all the rest of Israel, every man to his tent, and retained those three hundred men. Now the camp of Midian was below him in the valley.

9It happened on the same night that the LORD said to him, "Arise, go down against the camp, for I have delivered it into your hand.

10"But if you are afraid to go down, go down to the camp with Purah your servant,

11"and you shall hear what they say; and afterward your hands shall be strengthened to go down against the camp." Then he went down with Purah his servant to the outpost of the armed men who were in the camp.

12Now the Midianites and Amalekites, all the people of the East, were lying in the valley as numerous as locusts; and their camels were without number, as the sand by the seashore in multitude.

13And when Gideon had come, there was a man telling a dream to his companion. He said, "I have had a dream: To my surprise, a loaf of barley bread tumbled into the camp of Midian; it came to a tent and struck it so that it fell and overturned, and the tent collapsed."

14Then his companion answered and said, "This is nothing else but the sword of Gideon the son of Joash, a man of Israel! Into his hand God has delivered Midian and the whole camp."

15And so it was, when Gideon heard the telling of the dream and its interpretation, that he worshiped. He returned to the camp of Israel, and said, "Arise, for the LORD has delivered the camp of Midian into your hand."

16Then he divided the three hundred men into three companies, and he put a trumpet into every man's hand, with empty pitchers, and torches inside the pitchers.

17 And he said to them, “Look at me and do likewise; watch, and when I come to the edge of the camp you shall do as I do:

18 “When I blow the trumpet, I and all who are with me, then you also blow the trumpets on every side of the whole camp, and say, ‘The sword of the LORD and of Gideon!’ ”

19 So Gideon and the hundred men who were with him came to the outpost of the camp at the beginning of the middle watch, just as they had posted the watch; and they blew the trumpets and broke the pitchers that were in their hands.

20 Then the three companies blew the trumpets and broke the pitchers—they held the torches in their left hands and the trumpets in their right hands for blowing—and they cried, “The sword of the LORD and of Gideon!”

21 And every man stood in his place all around the camp;
and the whole army ran and cried out and fled.

22 When the three hundred blew the trumpets, the LORD set every man’s sword against his companion throughout the whole camp; and the army fled to Beth Acacia,[a] toward Zererah, as far as the border of Abel Meholah, by Tabbath.

23 And the men of Israel gathered together from Naphtali, Asher, and all Manasseh, and pursued the Midianites.

24 Then Gideon sent messengers throughout all the mountains of Ephraim, saying, “Come down against the Midianites, and seize from them the watering places as far as Beth Barah and the Jordan.” Then all the men of Ephraim gathered together and seized the watering places as far as Beth Barah and the Jordan.

25 And they captured two princes of the Midianites, Oreb and Zeeb. They killed Oreb at the rock of Oreb, and Zeeb they killed at the winepress of Zeeb. They pursued Midian and brought the heads of Oreb and Zeeb to Gideon on the other side of the Jordan.

Judges 8

Gideon Subdues the Midianites

1 Now the men of Ephraim said to him, “Why have you done this to us by not calling us when you went to fight with the Midianites?” And they reprimanded him sharply.

2 So he said to them, “What have I done now in comparison with you? Is not the gleaning of the grapes of Ephraim better than the vintage of Abiezer? A Shrewd Politician

3 “God has delivered into your hands the princes of Midian, Oreb and Zeeb. And what was I able to do in comparison with you?” Then their anger toward him subsided when he said that.

4 When Gideon came to the Jordan, he and the three hundred men who were with him crossed over, exhausted
but still in pursuit.

5 Then he said to the men of Succoth, “Please give loaves of bread to the people who follow me, for they are exhausted, and I am pursuing Zebah and Zalmunna, kings of Midian.”

6 And the leaders of Succoth said, “Are the hands of Zebah and Zalmunna now in your hand, that we should give bread to your army?”

7 So Gideon said, “For this cause, when the LORD has delivered Zebah and Zalmunna into my hand, then I will tear your flesh with the thorns of the wilderness and with briers!”

8 Then he went up from there to Penuel and spoke to them in the same way. And the men of Penuel answered him as the men of Succoth had answered.

9 So he also spoke to the men of Penuel, saying, “When I come back in peace, I will tear down this tower!”

10Now Zebah and Zalmunna were at Karkor, and their armies with them, about fifteen thousand, all who were left of all the army of the people of the East; for one hundred and twenty thousand men who drew the sword had fallen.

11Then Gideon went up by the road of those who dwell in tents on the east of Nobah and Jogbehah; and he attacked the army while the camp felt secure.

12When Zebah and Zalmunna fled, he pursued them; and he took the two kings of Midian, Zebah and Zalmunna, and routed the whole army.

13Then Gideon the son of Joash returned from battle, from the Ascent of Heres.

14And he caught a young man of the men of Succoth and interrogated him; and he wrote down for him the leaders of Succoth and its elders, seventy-seven men.

15Then he came to the men of Succoth and said, “Here are Zebah and Zalmunna, about whom you ridiculed me, saying, ‘Are the hands of Zebah and Zalmunna now in your hand, that we should give bread to your weary men?’ ”

16And he took the elders of the city, and thorns of the wilderness and briers, and with them he taught the men of Succoth.

17Then he tore down the tower of Penuel and killed the men of the city.

18And he said to Zebah and Zalmunna, “What kind of men were they whom you killed at Tabor?” So they answered, “As you are, so were they; each one resembled the son of a king.”

19Then he said, “They were my brothers, the sons of my mother. As the LORD lives, if you had let them live, I would not kill you.”

20And he said to Jether his firstborn, “Rise, kill them!” But the youth would not draw his sword; for he was afraid, because he was still a youth.

21So Zebah and Zalmunna said, “Rise yourself, and kill us; for as a man is, so is his strength.” So Gideon arose and killed Zebah and Zalmunna, and took the crescent ornaments that were on their camels’ necks.

Gideon’s Ephod

22Then the men of Israel said to Gideon, “Rule over us, both you and your son, and your grandson also; for you have delivered us from the hand of Midian.”

23But Gideon said to them, “I will not rule over you, nor shall my son rule over you; the LORD shall rule over you.”

24Then Gideon said to them, “I would like to make a request of you, that each of you would give me the earrings from his plunder.” For they had golden earrings, because they were Ishmaelites.

25So they answered, “We will gladly give them.” And they spread out a garment, and each man threw into it the earrings from his plunder.

26Now the weight of the gold earrings that he requested was one thousand seven hundred shekels of gold, besides the crescent ornaments, pendants, and purple robes which were on the kings of Midian, and besides the chains that were around their camels’ necks.

27Then Gideon made it into an ephod and set it up in his city, Ophrah. And all Israel played the harlot with it there. It became a snare to Gideon and to his house.

28Thus Midian was subdued before the children of Israel, so that they lifted their heads no more. And the country was quiet for forty years in the days of Gideon.

Death of Gideon

29Then Jerubbaal the son of Joash went and dwelt in his own house.

30 Gideon had seventy sons who were his own offspring, for he had many wives.
31 And his concubine who was in Shechem also bore him a son, whose name he called Abimelech. Gideon's Compromise 32 Now Gideon the son of Joash died at a good old age, and was buried in the tomb of Joash his father, in Ophrah of the Abiezrites.
33 So it was, as soon as Gideon was dead, that the children of Israel again played the harlot with the Baals, and made Baal-Berith their god.
34 Thus the children of Israel did not remember the LORD their God, who had delivered them from the hands of all their enemies on every side;
35 nor did they show kindness to the house of Jerubbaal (Gideon) in accordance with the good he had done for Israel.

Judges 9

Abimelech's Conspiracy

1 Then Abimelech the son of Jerubbaal went to Shechem, to his mother's brothers, and spoke with them and with all the family of the house of his mother's father, saying, Abimelech

2 "Please speak in the hearing of all the men of Shechem:
'Which is better for you, that all seventy of the sons of Jerubbaal reign over you, or that one reign over you?' Remember that I am your own flesh and bone." The Man Who Would Be King

3 And his mother's brothers spoke all these words concerning him in the hearing of all the men of Shechem;
and their heart was inclined to follow Abimelech, for they said, "He is our brother."

4 So they gave him seventy shekels of silver from the temple of Baal-Berith, with which Abimelech hired worthless and reckless men; and they followed him.

5 Then he went to his father's house at Ophrah and killed his brothers, the seventy sons of Jerubbaal, on one stone.
But Jotham the youngest son of Jerubbaal was left, because he hid himself.

6 And all the men of Shechem gathered together, all of Beth Millo, and they went and made Abimelech king beside the terebinth tree at the pillar that was in Shechem.

The Parable of the Trees

7 Now when they told Jotham, he went and stood on top of Mount Gerizim, and lifted his voice and cried out. And he said to them:

"Listen to me, you men of Shechem,

That God may listen to you!

8 “The trees once went forth to anoint a king over them.
And they said to the olive tree,
‘Reign over us!’
9 But the olive tree said to them,
‘Should I cease giving my oil,
With which they honor God and men,
And go to sway over trees?’

10 “Then the trees said to the fig tree,
‘You come and reign over us!’
11 But the fig tree said to them,
‘Should I cease my sweetness and my good fruit,
And go to sway over trees?’

12 “Then the trees said to the vine,
‘You come and reign over us!’
13 But the vine said to them,
‘Should I cease my new wine,
Which cheers both God and men,
And go to sway over trees?’

14 “Then all the trees said to the bramble,
‘You come and reign over us!’
15 And the bramble said to the trees,
‘If in truth you anoint me as king over you,
Then come and take shelter in my shade;
But if not, let fire come out of the bramble
And devour the cedars of Lebanon!’

16 “Now therefore, if you have acted in truth and sincerity in making Abimelech king, and if you have dealt well with

Jerubbaal and his house, and have done to him as he deserves—
17“for my father fought for you, risked his life, and delivered you out of the hand of Midian;
18“but you have risen up against my father’s house this day, and killed his seventy sons on one stone, and made Abimelech, the son of his female servant, king over the men of Shechem, because he is your brother—
19“if then you have acted in truth and sincerity with Jerubbaal and with his house this day, then rejoice in Abimelech, and let him also rejoice in you.
20“But if not, let fire come from Abimelech and devour the men of Shechem and Beth Millo; and let fire come from the men of Shechem and from Beth Millo and devour Abimelech!”
21And Jotham ran away and fled; and he went to Beer and dwelt there, for fear of Abimelech his brother.

Downfall of Abimelech

22After Abimelech had reigned over Israel three years,
23God sent a spirit of ill will between Abimelech and the men of Shechem; and the men of Shechem dealt treacherously with Abimelech, 24that the crime done to the seventy sons of Jerubbaal might be settled and their blood be laid on Abimelech their brother, who killed them, and on the men of Shechem, who aided him in the killing of his brothers.
25And the men of Shechem set men in ambush against him on the tops of the mountains, and they robbed all who passed by them along that way; and it was told Abimelech.
26Now Gaal the son of Ebed came with his brothers and went over to Shechem; and the men of Shechem put their confidence in him.

27So they went out into the fields, and gathered grapes from their vineyards and trod them, and made merry. And they went into the house of their god, and ate and drank, and cursed Abimelech.

28Then Gaal the son of Ebed said, “Who is Abimelech, and who is Shechem, that we should serve him? Is he not the son of Jerubbaal, and is not Zebul his officer? Serve the men of Hamor the father of Shechem; but why should we serve him?

29“If only this people were under my authority![a] Then I would remove Abimelech.” So he[b] said to Abimelech, “Increase your army and come out!”

30When Zebul, the ruler of the city, heard the words of Gaal the son of Ebed, his anger was aroused.

31And he sent messengers to Abimelech secretly, saying, “Take note! Gaal the son of Ebed and his brothers have come to Shechem; and here they are, fortifying the city against you.

32“Now therefore, get up by night, you and the people who are with you, and lie in wait in the field.

33“And it shall be, as soon as the sun is up in the morning, that you shall rise early and rush upon the city; and when he and the people who are with him come out against you, you may then do to them as you find opportunity.”

34So Abimelech and all the people who were with him rose by night, and lay in wait against Shechem in four companies.

35When Gaal the son of Ebed went out and stood in the entrance to the city gate, Abimelech and the people who were with him rose from lying in wait.

36And when Gaal saw the people, he said to Zebul, “Look, people are coming down from the tops of the mountains!”

But Zebul said to him, “You see the shadows of the mountains as if they were men.”

37So Gaal spoke again and said, “See, people are coming down from the center of the land, and another company is coming from the Diviners’[c] Terebinth Tree.”

38Then Zebul said to him, “Where indeed is your mouth now, with which you said, ‘Who is Abimelech, that we should serve him?’ Are not these the people whom you despised? Go out, if you will, and fight with them now.”

39So Gaal went out, leading the men of Shechem, and fought with Abimelech.

40And Abimelech chased him, and he fled from him; and many fell wounded, to the very entrance of the gate.

41Then Abimelech dwelt at Arumah, and Zebul drove out Gaal and his brothers, so that they would not dwell in Shechem.

42And it came about on the next day that the people went out into the field, and they told Abimelech.

43So he took his people, divided them into three companies, and lay in wait in the field. And he looked, and there were the people, coming out of the city; and he rose against them and attacked them.

44Then Abimelech and the company that was with him rushed forward and stood at the entrance of the gate of the city; and the other two companies rushed upon all who were in the fields and killed them.

45So Abimelech fought against the city all that day; he took the city and killed the people who were in it; and he demolished the city and sowed it with salt.

46Now when all the men of the tower of Shechem had heard that, they entered the stronghold of the temple of the god Berith.

47And it was told Abimelech that all the men of the tower of Shechem were gathered together.

48 Then Abimelech went up to Mount Zalmon, he and all the people who were with him. And Abimelech took an ax in his hand and cut down a bough from the trees, and took it and laid it on his shoulder; then he said to the people who were with him, “What you have seen me do, make haste and do as I have done.”
49 So each of the people likewise cut down his own bough and followed Abimelech, put them against the stronghold, and set the stronghold on fire above them, so that all the people of the tower of Shechem died, about a thousand men and women.
50 Then Abimelech went to Thebez, and he encamped against Thebez and took it.
51 But there was a strong tower in the city, and all the men and women—all the people of the city—fled there and shut themselves in; then they went up to the top of the tower.
52 So Abimelech came as far as the tower and fought against it; and he drew near the door of the tower to burn it with fire.
53 But a certain woman dropped an upper millstone on Abimelech’s head and crushed his skull.
54 Then he called quickly to the young man, his armorbearer, and said to him, “Draw your sword and kill me, lest men say of me, ‘A woman killed him.’ ” So his young man thrust him through, and he died.
55 And when the men of Israel saw that Abimelech was dead, they departed, every man to his place.
56 Thus God repaid the wickedness of Abimelech, which he had done to his father by killing his seventy brothers.
57 And all the evil of the men of Shechem God returned on their own heads, and on them came the curse of Jotham the son of Jerubbaal.

Judges 10

Tola

1 After Abimelech there arose to save Israel Tola the son of Puah, the son of Dodo, a man of Issachar; and he dwelt in Shamir in the mountains of Ephraim.
2 He judged Israel twenty-three years; and he died and was buried in Shamir.

Jair

3 After him arose Jair, a Gileadite; and he judged Israel twenty-two years.
4 Now he had thirty sons who rode on thirty donkeys; they also had thirty towns, which are called "Havoth Jair"[a] to this day, which are in the land of Gilead.
5 And Jair died and was buried in Camon.

Israel Oppressed Again

6 Then the children of Israel again did evil in the sight of the LORD, and served the Baals and the Ashtoreths, the gods of Syria, the gods of Sidon, the gods of Moab, the gods of the people of Ammon, and the gods of the Philistines; and they forsook the LORD and did not serve
Him.
7 So the anger of the LORD was hot against Israel; and He sold them into the hands of the Philistines and into the hands of the people of Ammon.
8 From that year they harassed and oppressed the children of Israel for eighteen years—all the children of Israel who were on the other side of the Jordan in the land of the Amorites, in Gilead.

9 Moreover the people of Ammon crossed over the Jordan to fight against Judah also, against Benjamin, and against the house of Ephraim, so that Israel was severely distressed.
10 And the children of Israel cried out to the LORD, saying, “We have sinned against You, because we have both forsaken our God and served the Baals!” 11 So the LORD said to the children of Israel, “Did I not deliver you from the Egyptians and from the Amorites and from the people of Ammon and from the Philistines?
12 “Also the Sidonians and Amalekites and Maonites[b] oppressed you; and you cried out to Me, and I delivered you from their hand.
13 “Yet you have forsaken Me and served other gods.
Therefore I will deliver you no more.
14 “Go and cry out to the gods which you have chosen; let them deliver you in your time of distress.” 15 And the children of Israel said to the LORD, “We have sinned! Do to us whatever seems best to You; only deliver us this day, we pray.”
16 So they put away the foreign gods from among them and served the LORD. And His soul could no longer endure the misery of Israel.
17 Then the people of Ammon gathered together and encamped in Gilead. And the children of Israel assembled together and encamped in Mizpah.
18 And the people, the leaders of Gilead, said to one another, “Who is the man who will begin the fight against the people of Ammon? He shall be head over all the inhabitants of Gilead.”

Judges 11

Jephthah

1 Now Jephthah the Gileadite was a mighty man of valor, but he was the son of a harlot; and Gilead begot Jephthah.
Jephthah
2 Gilead's wife bore sons; and when his wife's sons grew up, they drove Jephthah out, and said to him, "You shall have no inheritance in our father's house, for you are the son of another woman." Overcoming a Rough Start 3 Then Jephthah fled from his brothers and dwelt in the land of Tob; and worthless men banded together with Jephthah and went out raiding with him.
4 It came to pass after a time that the people of Ammon made war against Israel.
5 And so it was, when the people of Ammon made war against Israel, that the elders of Gilead went to get Jephthah from the land of Tob.
6 Then they said to Jephthah, "Come and be our commander, that we may fight against the people of Ammon."
7 So Jephthah said to the elders of Gilead, "Did you not hate me, and expel me from my father's house? Why have you come to me now when you are in distress?" 8 And the elders of Gilead said to Jephthah, "That is why we have turned again to you now, that you may go with us and fight against the people of Ammon, and be our head over all the inhabitants of Gilead." 9 So Jephthah said to the elders of Gilead, "If you take me back home to fight against the people of Ammon, and the LORD delivers them to me, shall I be your head?"

10 And the elders of Gilead said to Jephthah, “The LORD will be a witness between us, if we do not do according to your words.”
11 Then Jephthah went with the elders of Gilead, and the people made him head and commander over them; and Jephthah spoke all his words before the LORD in Mizpah.
12 Now Jephthah sent messengers to the king of the people of Ammon, saying, “What do you have against me, that you have come to fight against me in my land?” 13 And the king of the people of Ammon answered the messengers of Jephthah, “Because Israel took away my land when they came up out of Egypt, from the Arnon as far as the Jabbok, and to the Jordan. Now therefore, restore those lands peaceably.”
14 So Jephthah again sent messengers to the king of the people of Ammon,
15 and said to him, “Thus says Jephthah: ‘Israel did not take away the land of Moab, nor the land of the people of Ammon;
16 ‘for when Israel came up from Egypt, they walked through the wilderness as far as the Red Sea and came to Kadesh.
17 ‘Then Israel sent messengers to the king of Edom, saying, “Please let me pass through your land.” But the king of Edom would not heed. And in like manner they sent to the king of Moab, but he would not consent. So Israel remained in Kadesh.
18 ‘And they went along through the wilderness and bypassed the land of Edom and the land of Moab, came to the east side of the land of Moab, and encamped on the other side of the Arnon. But they did not enter the border of Moab, for the Arnon was the border of Moab.
19 ‘Then Israel sent messengers to Sihon king of the Amorites, king of Heshbon; and Israel said to him, “Please let us pass through your land into our place.”

20 ‘But Sihon did not trust Israel to pass through his territory. So Sihon gathered all his people together, encamped in Jahaz, and fought against Israel.

21 ‘And the LORD God of Israel delivered Sihon and all his people into the hand of Israel, and they defeated them. Thus Israel gained possession of all the land of the Amorites, who inhabited that country.

22 ‘They took possession of all the territory of the Amorites, from the Arnon to the Jabbok and from the wilderness to the Jordan.

23 ‘And now the LORD God of Israel has dispossessed the Amorites from before His people Israel; should you then possess it?

24 ‘Will you not possess whatever Chemosh your god gives you to possess? So whatever the LORD our God takes possession of before us, we will possess.

25 ‘And now, are you any better than Balak the son of Zippor, king of Moab? Did he ever strive against Israel? Did he ever fight against them?

26 ‘While Israel dwelt in Heshbon and its villages, in Aroer and its villages, and in all the cities along the banks of the Arnon, for three hundred years, why did you not recover them within that time?

27 ‘Therefore I have not sinned against you, but you wronged me by fighting against me. May the LORD, the Judge, render judgment this day between the children of Israel and the people of Ammon.’ ”

28 However, the king of the people of Ammon did not heed the words which Jephthah sent him.

Jephthah’s Vow and Victory

29 Then the Spirit of the LORD came upon Jephthah, and he passed through Gilead and Manasseh, and passed through Mizpah of Gilead; and from Mizpah of Gilead he advanced toward the people of Ammon.

30 And Jephthah made a vow to the LORD, and said, “If You will indeed deliver the people of Ammon into my hands,

The Tragedy of Jephthah’s Daughter

31 “then it will be that whatever comes out of the doors of my house to meet me, when I return in peace from the people of Ammon, shall surely be the LORD’s, and I will offer it up as a burnt offering.”

32 So Jephthah advanced toward the people of Ammon to fight against them, and the LORD delivered them into his hands.

33 And he defeated them from Aroer as far as Minnith—twenty cities—and to Abel Keramim,[a] with a very great slaughter. Thus the people of Ammon were subdued before the children of Israel.

Jephthah’s Daughter

34 When Jephthah came to his house at Mizpah, there was his daughter, coming out to meet him with timbrels and dancing; and she was his only child. Besides her he had neither son nor daughter.

35 And it came to pass, when he saw her, that he tore his clothes, and said, “Alas, my daughter! You have brought me very low! You are among those who trouble me! For I have given my word to the LORD, and I cannot go back on it.”

36 So she said to him, “My father, if you have given your word to the LORD, do to me according to what has gone out of your mouth, because the LORD has avenged you of your enemies, the people of Ammon.”

37 Then she said to her father, “Let this thing be done for me: let me alone for two months, that I may go and wander on the mountains and bewail my virginity, my friends and I.”

[38]So he said, “Go.” And he sent her away for two months; and she went with her friends, and bewailed her virginity on the mountains.

[39]And it was so at the end of two months that she returned to her father, and he carried out his vow with her which he had vowed. She knew no man. And it became a custom in Israel

[40]that the daughters of Israel went four days each year to lament the daughter of Jephthah the Gileadite.

Judges 12

Jephthah's Conflict with Ephraim

1 Then the men of Ephraim gathered together, crossed over toward Zaphon, and said to Jephthah, "Why did you cross over to fight against the people of Ammon, and did not call us to go with you? We will burn your house down on you
with fire!"

2 And Jephthah said to them, "My people and I were in a great struggle with the people of Ammon; and when I called you, you did not deliver me out of their hands.

3 "So when I saw that you would not deliver me, I took my life in my hands and crossed over against the people of Ammon; and the LORD delivered them into my hand. Why then have you come up to me this day to fight against me?"

4 Now Jephthah gathered together all the men of Gilead and fought against Ephraim. And the men of Gilead defeated Ephraim, because they said, "You Gileadites are fugitives of Ephraim among the Ephraimites and among the Manassites."

5 The Gileadites seized the fords of the Jordan before the Ephraimites arrived. And when any Ephraimite who escaped said, "Let me cross over," the men of Gilead would say to him, "Are you an Ephraimite?" If he said, "No,"

6 then they would say to him, "Then say, 'Shibboleth'!"
And he would say, "Sibboleth," for he could not pronounce it right. Then they would take him and kill him at the fords of the Jordan. There fell at that time forty-two thousand Ephraimites.

7 And Jephthah judged Israel six years. Then Jephthah the Gileadite died and was buried among the cities of Gilead.

Ibzan, Elon, and Abdon

8After him, Ibzan of Bethlehem judged Israel.

9He had thirty sons. And he gave away thirty daughters in marriage, and brought in thirty daughters from elsewhere for his sons. He judged Israel seven years.

10Then Ibzan died and was buried at Bethlehem.

11After him, Elon the Zebulunite judged Israel. He judged Israel ten years.

12And Elon the Zebulunite died and was buried at Aijalon in the country of Zebulun.

13After him, Abdon the son of Hillel the Pirathonite judged Israel.

14He had forty sons and thirty grandsons, who rode on seventy young donkeys. He judged Israel eight years. Donkeys: A Mark of Royalty

15Then Abdon the son of Hillel the Pirathonite died and was buried in Pirathon in the land of Ephraim, in the mountains of the Amalekites.

Judges 13

The Birth of Samson

1 Again the children of Israel did evil in the sight of the LORD, and the LORD delivered them into the hand of the Philistines for forty years.

2 Now there was a certain man from Zorah, of the family of the Danites, whose name was Manoah; and his wife was barren and had no children.

3 And the Angel of the LORD appeared to the woman and said to her, “Indeed now, you are barren and have borne no children, but you shall conceive and bear a son.

4 “Now therefore, please be careful not to drink wine or similar drink, and not to eat anything unclean.

5 “For behold, you shall conceive and bear a son. And no razor shall come upon his head, for the child shall be a Nazirite to God from the womb; and he shall begin to deliver Israel out of the hand of the Philistines.”

6 So the woman came and told her husband, saying, “A Man of God came to me, and His countenance was like the countenance of the Angel of God, very awesome; but I did not ask Him where He was from, and He did not tell me His name.

7 “And He said to me, ‘Behold, you shall conceive and bear a son. Now drink no wine or similar drink, nor eat anything unclean, for the child shall be a Nazirite to God from the womb to the day of his death.’ ”

8 Then Manoah prayed to the LORD, and said, “O my Lord, please let the Man of God whom You sent come to us again and teach us what we shall do for the child who will be born.”

9 And God listened to the voice of Manoah, and the Angel of God came to the woman again as she was sitting in the field; but Manoah her husband was not with her.
10 Then the woman ran in haste and told her husband, and said to him, “Look, the Man who came to me the other day has just now appeared to me!” 11 So Manoah arose and followed his wife. When he came to the Man, he said to Him, “Are You the Man who spoke to this woman?” And He said, “I am.” 12 Manoah said, “Now let Your words come to pass! What will be the boy’s rule of life, and his work?” 13 So the Angel of the LORD said to Manoah, “Of all that I said to the woman let her be careful.
14 “She may not eat anything that comes from the vine, nor may she drink wine or similar drink, nor eat anything unclean. All that I commanded her let her observe.” 15 Then Manoah said to the Angel of the LORD, “Please let us detain You, and we will prepare a young goat for
You.”
16 And the Angel of the LORD said to Manoah, “Though you detain Me, I will not eat your food. But if you offer a burnt offering, you must offer it to the LORD.” (For Manoah did not know He was the Angel of the LORD.) 17 Then Manoah said to the Angel of the LORD, “What is Your name, that when Your words come to pass we may honor You?”
18 And the Angel of the LORD said to him, “Why do you ask My name, seeing it is wonderful?” 19 So Manoah took the young goat with the grain offering, and offered it upon the rock to the LORD. And He did a wondrous thing while Manoah and his wife looked on—20 it happened as the flame went up toward heaven from the altar—the Angel of the LORD ascended in the flame of the altar! When Manoah and his wife saw this, they fell on their faces to the ground.

21 When the Angel of the LORD appeared no more to Manoah and his wife, then Manoah knew that He was the Angel of the LORD.

22 And Manoah said to his wife, “We shall surely die, because we have seen God!”

23 But his wife said to him, “If the LORD had desired to kill us, He would not have accepted a burnt offering and a grain offering from our hands, nor would He have shown us all these things, nor would He have told us such things as these at this time.”

24 So the woman bore a son and called his name Samson; and the child grew, and the LORD blessed him. Samson

25 And the Spirit of the LORD began to move upon him at Mahaneh Dan[a] between Zorah and Eshtaol. God’s Gifts Without God’s Blessing

Judges 14

Samson's Philistine Wife

1 Now Samson went down to Timnah, and saw a woman in Timnah of the daughters of the Philistines.
2 So he went up and told his father and mother, saying, "I have seen a woman in Timnah of the daughters of the Philistines; now therefore, get her for me as a wife."
3 Then his father and mother said to him, "Is there no woman among the daughters of your brethren, or among all my people, that you must go and get a wife from the uncircumcised Philistines?" And Samson said to his father,
"Get her for me, for she pleases me well."
4 But his father and mother did not know that it was of the LORD—that He was seeking an occasion to move against the Philistines. For at that time the Philistines had dominion over Israel.
5 So Samson went down to Timnah with his father and mother, and came to the vineyards of Timnah.
Now to his surprise, a young lion came roaring against
him.
6 And the Spirit of the LORD came mightily upon him, and he tore the lion apart as one would have torn apart a young goat, though he had nothing in his hand. But he did not tell his father or his mother what he had done.
7 Then he went down and talked with the woman; and she pleased Samson well.
8 After some time, when he returned to get her, he turned aside to see the carcass of the lion. And behold, a swarm of bees and honey were in the carcass of the lion.
9 He took some of it in his hands and went along, eating.
When he came to his father and mother, he gave some to them, and they also ate. But he did not tell them that he had taken the honey out of the carcass of the lion.

10So his father went down to the woman. And Samson gave a feast there, for young men used to do so.

11And it happened, when they saw him, that they brought thirty companions to be with him.

12Then Samson said to them, “Let me pose a riddle to you. If you can correctly solve and explain it to me within the seven days of the feast, then I will give you thirty linen garments and thirty changes of clothing.

13“But if you cannot explain it to me, then you shall give me thirty linen garments and thirty changes of clothing.” And they said to him, “Pose your riddle, that we may hear it.”

14So he said to them:

> “Out of the eater came something to eat,
> And out of the strong came something sweet.”

Now for three days they could not explain the riddle.

15But it came to pass on the seventh[a] day that they said to Samson’s wife, “Entice your husband, that he may explain the riddle to us, or else we will burn you and your father’s house with fire. Have you invited us in order to take what is ours? Is that not so?”

16Then Samson’s wife wept on him, and said, “You only hate me! You do not love me! You have posed a riddle to the sons of my people, but you have not explained it to me.” And he said to her, “Look, I have not explained it to my father or my mother; so should I explain it to you?”

17Now she had wept on him the seven days while their feast lasted. And it happened on the seventh day that he told her, because she pressed him so much. Then she explained the riddle to the sons of her people.

[18]So the men of the city said to him on the seventh day before the sun went down:

> “What is sweeter than honey?
> And what is stronger than a lion?”

And he said to them:

> “If you had not plowed with my heifer,
> You would not have solved my riddle!”

19Then the Spirit of the LORD came upon him mightily, and he went down to Ashkelon and killed thirty of their men, took their apparel, and gave the changes of clothing to those who had explained the riddle. So his anger was aroused, and he went back up to his father’s house.
[20]And Samson’s wife was given to his companion, who had been his best man.

Judges 15

Samson Defeats the Philistines

1 After a while, in the time of wheat harvest, it happened that Samson visited his wife with a young goat. And he said, “Let me go in to my wife, into her room.” But her father would not permit him to go in.
2 Her father said, “I really thought that you thoroughly hated her; therefore I gave her to your companion. Is not her younger sister better than she? Please, take her instead.”
3 And Samson said to them, “This time I shall be blameless regarding the Philistines if I harm them!” 4 Then Samson went and caught three hundred foxes; and he took torches, turned the foxes tail to tail, and put a torch between each pair of tails.
5 When he had set the torches on fire, he let the foxes go into the standing grain of the Philistines, and burned up both the shocks and the standing grain, as well as the vineyards and olive groves.
6 Then the Philistines said, “Who has done this?” And they answered, “Samson, the son-in-law of the Timnite, because he has taken his wife and given her to his companion.” So the Philistines came up and burned her and her father with fire.
7 Samson said to them, “Since you would do a thing like this, I will surely take revenge on you, and after that I will cease.”
8 So he attacked them hip and thigh with a great slaughter; then he went down and dwelt in the cleft of the rock of Etam.

9Now the Philistines went up, encamped in Judah, and deployed themselves against Lehi.
10And the men of Judah said, “Why have you come up against us?” So they answered, “We have come up to arrest Samson, to do to him as he has done to us.” 11Then three thousand men of Judah went down to the cleft of the rock of Etam, and said to Samson, “Do you not know that the Philistines rule over us? What is this you have done to us?” And he said to them, “As they did to me, so I have done to them.”
12But they said to him, “We have come down to arrest you, that we may deliver you into the hand of the Philistines.” Then Samson said to them, “Swear to me that you will not kill me yourselves.” 13So they spoke to him, saying, “No, but we will tie you securely and deliver you into their hand; but we will surely not kill you.” And they bound him with two new ropes and brought him up from the rock.
14When he came to Lehi, the Philistines came shouting against him. Then the Spirit of the LORD came mightily upon him; and the ropes that were on his arms became like flax that is burned with fire, and his bonds broke loose from his hands.
15He found a fresh jawbone of a donkey, reached out his hand and took it, and killed a thousand men with it.
16Then Samson said:

“With the jawbone of a donkey,
Heaps upon heaps,
With the jawbone of a donkey
I have slain a thousand men!”

17And so it was, when he had finished speaking, that he threw the jawbone from his hand, and called that place Ramath Lehi.[a]

18Then he became very thirsty; so he cried out to the LORD and said, “You have given this great deliverance by the hand of Your servant; and now shall I die of thirst and fall into the hand of the uncircumcised?”

19So God split the hollow place that is in Lehi,[b] and water came out, and he drank; and his spirit returned, and he revived. Therefore he called its name En Hakkore,[c] which is in Lehi to this day.

20And he judged Israel twenty years in the days of the Philistines.

Judges 16

Samson and Delilah

1 Now Samson went to Gaza and saw a harlot there, and went in to her. Prostitutes in the Ancient World
2 When the Gazites were told, "Samson has come here!"
they surrounded the place and lay in wait for him all night at the gate of the city. They were quiet all night, saying, "In the morning, when it is daylight, we will kill him." 3 And Samson lay low till midnight; then he arose at midnight, took hold of the doors of the gate of the city and the two gateposts, pulled them up, bar and all, put them on his shoulders, and carried them to the top of the hill that faces Hebron.
4 Afterward it happened that he loved a woman in the Valley of Sorek, whose name was Delilah. Delilah
5 And the lords of the Philistines came up to her and said to her, "Entice him, and find out where his great strength lies, and by what means we may overpower him, that we may bind him to afflict him; and every one of us will give you eleven hundred pieces of silver." 6 So Delilah said to Samson, "Please tell me where your great strength lies, and with what you may be bound to afflict you."
7 And Samson said to her, "If they bind me with seven fresh bowstrings, not yet dried, then I shall become weak, and be like any other man."
8 So the lords of the Philistines brought up to her seven fresh bowstrings, not yet dried, and she bound him with
them.
9 Now men were lying in wait, staying with her in the room. And she said to him, "The Philistines are upon you, Samson!” But he broke the bowstrings as a strand of yarn breaks when it touches fire. So the secret of his strength was not known.

10Then Delilah said to Samson, “Look, you have mocked me and told me lies. Now, please tell me what you may be bound with.”

11So he said to her, “If they bind me securely with new ropes that have never been used, then I shall become weak, and be like any other man.”

12Therefore Delilah took new ropes and bound him with them, and said to him, “The Philistines are upon you, Samson!” And men were lying in wait, staying in the room. But he broke them off his arms like a thread.

13Delilah said to Samson, “Until now you have mocked me and told me lies. Tell me what you may be bound with.” And he said to her, “If you weave the seven locks of my head into the web of the loom”—

14So she wove it tightly with the batten of the loom, and said to him, “The Philistines are upon you, Samson!” But he awoke from his sleep, and pulled out the batten and the web from the loom.

15Then she said to him, “How can you say, ‘I love you,’ when your heart is not with me? You have mocked me these three times, and have not told me where your great strength lies.”

16And it came to pass, when she pestered him daily with her words and pressed him, so that his soul was vexed to death,

17that he told her all his heart, and said to her, “No razor has ever come upon my head, for I have been a Nazirite to God from my mother’s womb. If I am shaven, then my strength will leave me, and I shall become weak, and be like any other man.” The Secret of Samson’s Strength

18When Delilah saw that he had told her all his heart, she sent and called for the lords of the Philistines, saying, “Come up once more, for he has told me all his heart.” So the lords of the Philistines came up to her and brought the money in their hand.

19Then she lulled him to sleep on her knees, and called for a man and had him shave off the seven locks of his head. Then she began to torment him,[a] and his strength left him.

20And she said, “The Philistines are upon you, Samson!” So he awoke from his sleep, and said, “I will go out as before, at other times, and shake myself free!” But he did not know that the LORD had departed from him.

21Then the Philistines took him and put out his eyes, and brought him down to Gaza. They bound him with bronze fetters, and he became a grinder in the prison.

22However, the hair of his head began to grow again after it had been shaven.

Samson Dies with the Philistines

23Now the lords of the Philistines gathered together to offer a great sacrifice to Dagon their god, and to rejoice. And they said:

> “Our god has delivered into our hands
> Samson our enemy!”

24When the people saw him, they praised their god; for they said:

> “Our god has delivered into our hands our > enemy,
> The destroyer of our land,
> And the one who multiplied our dead.”

25 So it happened, when their hearts were merry, that they said, “Call for Samson, that he may perform for us.”
So they called for Samson from the prison, and he performed for them. And they stationed him between the pillars.
26 Then Samson said to the lad who held him by the hand, “Let me feel the pillars which support the temple, so that I can lean on them.”
27 Now the temple was full of men and women. All the lords of the Philistines were there—about three thousand men and women on the roof watching while Samson performed.
28 Then Samson called to the LORD, saying, “O Lord GOD, remember me, I pray! Strengthen me, I pray, just this once, O God, that I may with one blow take vengeance on the Philistines for my two eyes!” 29 And Samson took hold of the two middle pillars which supported the temple, and he braced himself against them, one on his right and the other on his left.
30 Then Samson said, “Let me die with the Philistines!”
And he pushed with all his might, and the temple fell on the lords and all the people who were in it. So the dead that he killed at his death were more than he had killed in his life.
31 And his brothers and all his father’s household came down and took him, and brought him up and buried him between Zorah and Eshtaol in the tomb of his father Manoah. He had judged Israel twenty years.

Judges 17

Micah's Idolatry

1 Now there was a man from the mountains of Ephraim, whose name was Micah.
2 And he said to his mother, "The eleven hundred shekels of silver that were taken from you, and on which you put a curse, even saying it in my ears—here is the silver with me;
I took it." And his mother said, "May you be blessed by the LORD, my son!"
3 So when he had returned the eleven hundred shekels of silver to his mother, his mother said, "I had wholly dedicated the silver from my hand to the LORD for my son, to make a carved image and a molded image; now therefore, I will return it to you." 4 Thus he returned the silver to his mother. Then his mother took two hundred shekels of silver and gave them to the silversmith, and he made it into a carved image and a molded image; and they were in the house of Micah.
5 The man Micah had a shrine, and made an ephod and household idols;[a] and he consecrated one of his sons, who became his priest.
6 In those days there was no king in Israel; everyone did what was right in his own eyes.
7 Now there was a young man from Bethlehem in Judah, of the family of Judah; he was a Levite, and was staying
there.
8 The man departed from the city of Bethlehem in Judah to stay wherever he could find a place. Then he came to the mountains of Ephraim, to the house of Micah, as he journeyed.

[9]And Micah said to him, “Where do you come from?” So he said to him, “I am a Levite from Bethlehem in Judah, and I am on my way to find a place to stay.”

[10]Micah said to him, “Dwell with me, and be a father and a priest to me, and I will give you ten shekels of silver per year, a suit of clothes, and your sustenance.” So the Levite went in.

[11]Then the Levite was content to dwell with the man; and the young man became like one of his sons to him.

[12]So Micah consecrated the Levite, and the young man became his priest, and lived in the house of Micah.

[13]Then Micah said, “Now I know that the LORD will be good to me, since I have a Levite as priest!”

Judges 18

The Danites Adopt Micah's Idolatry

1 In those days there was no king in Israel. And in those days the tribe of the Danites was seeking an inheritance for itself to dwell in; for until that day their inheritance among the tribes of Israel had not fallen to them.

2 So the children of Dan sent five men of their family from their territory, men of valor from Zorah and Eshtaol, to spy out the land and search it. They said to them, "Go, search the land." So they went to the mountains of Ephraim, to the house of Micah, and lodged there.

3 While they were at the house of Micah, they recognized the voice of the young Levite. They turned aside and said to him, "Who brought you here? What are you doing in this place? What do you have here?"

4 He said to them, "Thus and so Micah did for me. He has hired me, and I have become his priest."

5 So they said to him, "Please inquire of God, that we may know whether the journey on which we go will be prosperous."

6 And the priest said to them, "Go in peace. The presence of the LORD be with you on your way."

7 So the five men departed and went to Laish. They saw the people who were there, how they dwelt safely, in the manner of the Sidonians, quiet and secure. There were no rulers in the land who might put them to shame for anything. They were far from the Sidonians, and they had no ties with anyone.[a]

8 Then the spies came back to their brethren at Zorah and Eshtaol, and their brethren said to them, "What is your report?"

9So they said, “Arise, let us go up against them. For we have seen the land, and indeed it is very good. Would you do nothing? Do not hesitate to go, and enter to possess the land.

10“When you go, you will come to a secure people and a large land. For God has given it into your hands, a place where there is no lack of anything that is on the earth.”

11And six hundred men of the family of the Danites went from there, from Zorah and Eshtaol, armed with weapons of war.

12Then they went up and encamped in Kirjath Jearim in Judah. (Therefore they call that place Mahaneh Dan[b] to this day. There it is, west of Kirjath Jearim.)

13And they passed from there to the mountains of Ephraim, and came to the house of Micah.

14Then the five men who had gone to spy out the country of Laish answered and said to their brethren, “Do you know that there are in these houses an ephod, household idols, a carved image, and a molded image? Now therefore, consider what you should do.”

15So they turned aside there, and came to the house of the young Levite man—to the house of Micah—and greeted him.

16The six hundred men armed with their weapons of war, who were of the children of Dan, stood by the entrance of the gate.

17Then the five men who had gone to spy out the land went up. Entering there, they took the carved image, the ephod, the household idols, and the molded image. The priest stood at the entrance of the gate with the six hundred men who were armed with weapons of war.

18When these went into Micah’s house and took the carved image, the ephod, the household idols, and the molded image, the priest said to them, “What are you doing?”

19 And they said to him, “Be quiet, put your hand over your mouth, and come with us; be a father and a priest to us. Is it better for you to be a priest to the household of one man, or that you be a priest to a tribe and a family in Israel?”

20 So the priest’s heart was glad; and he took the ephod, the household idols, and the carved image, and took his place among the people.

21 Then they turned and departed, and put the little ones, the livestock, and the goods in front of them.

22 When they were a good way from the house of Micah, the men who were in the houses near Micah’s house gathered together and overtook the children of Dan.

23 And they called out to the children of Dan. So they turned around and said to Micah, “What ails you, that you have gathered such a company?”

24 So he said, “You have taken away my gods which I made, and the priest, and you have gone away. Now what more do I have? How can you say to me, ‘What ails you?’ ”

25 And the children of Dan said to him, “Do not let your voice be heard among us, lest angry men fall upon you, and you lose your life, with the lives of your household!”

26 Then the children of Dan went their way. And when Micah saw that they were too strong for him, he turned and went back to his house.

Danites Settle in Laish

27 So they took the things Micah had made, and the priest who had belonged to him, and went to Laish, to a people quiet and secure; and they struck them with the edge of the sword and burned the city with fire.

28 There was no deliverer, because it was far from Sidon, and they had no ties with anyone. It was in the valley that belongs to Beth Rehob. So they rebuilt the city and dwelt
there.
29 And they called the name of the city Dan, after the name of Dan their father, who was born to Israel. However, the name of the city formerly was Laish.
30 Then the children of Dan set up for themselves the carved image; and Jonathan the son of Gershom, the son of Manasseh,[c] and his sons were priests to the tribe of Dan until the day of the captivity of the land.
31 So they set up for themselves Micah's carved image which he made, all the time that the house of God was in Shiloh.

Judges 19

The Levite's Concubine

1 And it came to pass in those days, when there was no king in Israel, that there was a certain Levite staying in the remote mountains of Ephraim. He took for himself a concubine from Bethlehem in Judah.
2 But his concubine played the harlot against him, and went away from him to her father's house at Bethlehem in Judah, and was there four whole months.
3 Then her husband arose and went after her, to speak kindly to her and bring her back, having his servant and a couple of donkeys with him. So she brought him into her father's house; and when the father of the young woman saw him, he was glad to meet him.
4 Now his father-in-law, the young woman's father, detained him; and he stayed with him three days. So they ate and drank and lodged there.
5 Then it came to pass on the fourth day that they arose early in the morning, and he stood to depart; but the young woman's father said to his son-in-law, "Refresh your heart with a morsel of bread, and afterward go your way."
6 So they sat down, and the two of them ate and drank together. Then the young woman's father said to the man,
"Please be content to stay all night, and let your heart be merry."
7 And when the man stood to depart, his father-in-law urged him; so he lodged there again.
8 Then he arose early in the morning on the fifth day to depart, but the young woman's father said, "Please refresh your heart." So they delayed until afternoon; and both of them ate.

9 And when the man stood to depart—he and his concubine and his servant—his father-in-law, the young woman's father, said to him, "Look, the day is now drawing toward evening; please spend the night. See, the day is coming to an end; lodge here, that your heart may be merry. Tomorrow go your way early, so that you may get home."
10 However, the man was not willing to spend that night;
so he rose and departed, and came to opposite Jebus (that is, Jerusalem). With him were the two saddled donkeys; his concubine was also with him.
11 They were near Jebus, and the day was far spent; and the servant said to his master, "Come, please, and let us turn aside into this city of the Jebusites and lodge in it." 12 But his master said to him, "We will not turn aside here into a city of foreigners, who are not of the children of Israel; we will go on to Gibeah." 13 So he said to his servant, "Come, let us draw near to one of these places, and spend the night in Gibeah or in Ramah."
14 And they passed by and went their way; and the sun went down on them near Gibeah, which belongs to Benjamin.
15 They turned aside there to go in to lodge in Gibeah.
And when he went in, he sat down in the open square of the city, for no one would take them into his house to spend the night.
16 Just then an old man came in from his work in the field at evening, who also was from the mountains of Ephraim;
he was staying in Gibeah, whereas the men of the place were Benjamites.
17 And when he raised his eyes, he saw the traveler in the open square of the city; and the old man said, "Where are you going, and where do you come from?"

18So he said to him, “We are passing from Bethlehem in Judah toward the remote mountains of Ephraim; I am from there. I went to Bethlehem in Judah; now I am going to the house of the LORD. But there is no one who will take me into his house,

19“although we have both straw and fodder for our donkeys, and bread and wine for myself, for your female servant, and for the young man who is with your servant; there is no lack of anything.”

20And the old man said, “Peace be with you! However, let all your needs be my responsibility; only do not spend the night in the open square.”

21So he brought him into his house, and gave fodder to the donkeys. And they washed their feet, and ate and drank.

Gibeah’s Crime

22As they were enjoying themselves, suddenly certain men of the city, perverted men,[a] surrounded the house and beat on the door. They spoke to the master of the house, the old man, saying, “Bring out the man who came to your house, that we may know him carnally!”

23But the man, the master of the house, went out to them and said to them, “No, my brethren! I beg you, do not act so wickedly! Seeing this man has come into my house, do not commit this outrage.

24“Look, here is my virgin daughter and the man’s[b] concubine; let me bring them out now. Humble them, and do with them as you please; but to this man do not do such a vile thing!”

25But the men would not heed him. So the man took his concubine and brought her out to them. And they knew her and abused her all night until morning; and when the day began to break, they let her go. Moral Decadence in the Book of Judges

26 Then the woman came as the day was dawning, and fell down at the door of the man's house where her master was,
till it was light.

27 When her master arose in the morning, and opened the doors of the house and went out to go his way, there was his concubine, fallen at the door of the house with her hands on the threshold.

28 And he said to her, "Get up and let us be going." But there was no answer. So the man lifted her onto the donkey; and the man got up and went to his place.

29 When he entered his house he took a knife, laid hold of his concubine, and divided her into twelve pieces, limb by limb,[c] and sent her throughout all the territory of Israel.

30 And so it was that all who saw it said, "No such deed has been done or seen from the day that the children of Israel came up from the land of Egypt until this day.
Consider it, confer, and speak up!"

Judges 20

Israel's War with the Benjamites

1So all the children of Israel came out, from Dan to Beersheba, as well as from the land of Gilead, and the congregation gathered together as one man before the LORD at Mizpah. From Dan to Beersheba

2And the leaders of all the people, all the tribes of Israel, presented themselves in the assembly of the people of God, four hundred thousand foot soldiers who drew the sword.

3(Now the children of Benjamin heard that the children of Israel had gone up to Mizpah.) Then the children of Israel said, "Tell us, how did this wicked deed happen?"

4So the Levite, the husband of the woman who was murdered, answered and said, "My concubine and I went into Gibeah, which belongs to Benjamin, to spend the night.

5"And the men of Gibeah rose against me, and surrounded the house at night because of me. They intended to kill me, but instead they ravished my concubine so that she died.

6"So I took hold of my concubine, cut her in pieces, and sent her throughout all the territory of the inheritance of Israel, because they committed lewdness and outrage in Israel.

7"Look! All of you are children of Israel; give your advice and counsel here and now!"

8So all the people arose as one man, saying, "None of us will go to his tent, nor will any turn back to his house;

9"but now this is the thing which we will do to Gibeah: We will go up against it by lot.

10"We will take ten men out of every hundred throughout all the tribes of Israel, a hundred out of every thousand, and a thousand out of every ten thousand, to make provisions for the people, that when they come to Gibeah in Benjamin, they may repay all the vileness that they have done in Israel."

11 So all the men of Israel were gathered against the city, united together as one man.

12 Then the tribes of Israel sent men through all the tribe of Benjamin, saying, "What is this wickedness that has occurred among you?

13 "Now therefore, deliver up the men, the perverted men[a] who are in Gibeah, that we may put them to death and remove the evil from Israel!" But the children of Benjamin would not listen to the voice of their brethren, the children of Israel.

14 Instead, the children of Benjamin gathered together from their cities to Gibeah, to go to battle against the children of Israel.

15 And from their cities at that time the children of Benjamin numbered twenty-six thousand men who drew the sword, besides the inhabitants of Gibeah, who numbered seven hundred select men.

16 Among all this people were seven hundred select men who were left-handed; every one could sling a stone at a hair's breadth and not miss.

17 Now besides Benjamin, the men of Israel numbered four hundred thousand men who drew the sword; all of these were men of war.

18 Then the children of Israel arose and went up to the house of God[b] to inquire of God. They said, "Which of us shall go up first to battle against the children of Benjamin?" The LORD said, "Judah first!"

19 So the children of Israel rose in the morning and encamped against Gibeah.

20 And the men of Israel went out to battle against Benjamin, and the men of Israel put themselves in battle array to fight against them at Gibeah.
21 Then the children of Benjamin came out of Gibeah, and on that day cut down to the ground twenty-two thousand men of the Israelites.
22 And the people, that is, the men of Israel, encouraged themselves and again formed the battle line at the place where they had put themselves in array on the first day.
23 Then the children of Israel went up and wept before the LORD until evening, and asked counsel of the LORD, saying, “Shall I again draw near for battle against the children of my brother Benjamin?” And the LORD said, “Go up against him.”
24 So the children of Israel approached the children of Benjamin on the second day.
25 And Benjamin went out against them from Gibeah on the second day, and cut down to the ground eighteen thousand more of the children of Israel; all these drew the sword.
26 Then all the children of Israel, that is, all the people, went up and came to the house of God[c] and wept. They sat there before the LORD and fasted that day until evening;
and they offered burnt offerings and peace offerings before the LORD. A Day of Fasting and Weeping
27 So the children of Israel inquired of the LORD (the ark of the covenant of God was there in those days, 28 and Phinehas the son of Eleazar, the son of Aaron, stood before it in those days), saying, “Shall I yet again go out to battle against the children of my brother Benjamin, or shall I cease?” And the LORD said, “Go up, for tomorrow
I will deliver them into your hand.” Phinehas the Brave
29 Then Israel set men in ambush all around Gibeah.

30 And the children of Israel went up against the children of Benjamin on the third day, and put themselves in battle array against Gibeah as at the other times.
31 So the children of Benjamin went out against the people, and were drawn away from the city. They began to strike down and kill some of the people, as at the other times, in the highways (one of which goes up to Bethel and the other to Gibeah) and in the field, about thirty men of Israel.
32 And the children of Benjamin said, “They are defeated before us, as at first.” But the children of Israel said, “Let us flee and draw them away from the city to the highways.” 33 So all the men of Israel rose from their place and put themselves in battle array at Baal Tamar. Then Israel’s men in ambush burst forth from their position in the plain of Geba.
34 And ten thousand select men from all Israel came against Gibeah, and the battle was fierce. But the Benjamites[d] did not know that disaster was upon them.
35 The LORD defeated Benjamin before Israel. And the children of Israel destroyed that day twenty-five thousand one hundred Benjamites; all these drew the sword.
36 So the children of Benjamin saw that they were defeated. The men of Israel had given ground to the Benjamites, because they relied on the men in ambush whom they had set against Gibeah.
37 And the men in ambush quickly rushed upon Gibeah;
the men in ambush spread out and struck the whole city with the edge of the sword.
38 Now the appointed signal between the men of Israel and the men in ambush was that they would make a great cloud of smoke rise up from the city, 39 whereupon the men of Israel would turn in battle. Now Benjamin had begun to strike and kill about thirty of the men of Israel. For they said, “Surely they are defeated before us, as in the first battle.”

40 But when the cloud began to rise from the city in a column of smoke, the Benjamites looked behind them, and there was the whole city going up in smoke to heaven.

41 And when the men of Israel turned back, the men of Benjamin panicked, for they saw that disaster had come upon them.

42 Therefore they turned their backs before the men of Israel in the direction of the wilderness; but the battle overtook them, and whoever came out of the cities they destroyed in their midst.

43 They surrounded the Benjamites, chased them, and easily trampled them down as far as the front of Gibeah toward the east.

44 And eighteen thousand men of Benjamin fell; all these were men of valor.

45 Then they[e] turned and fled toward the wilderness to the rock of Rimmon; and they cut down five thousand of them on the highways. Then they pursued them relentlessly up to Gidom, and killed two thousand of them.

46 So all who fell of Benjamin that day were twenty-five thousand men who drew the sword; all these were men of valor.

47 But six hundred men turned and fled toward the wilderness to the rock of Rimmon, and they stayed at the rock of Rimmon for four months.

48 And the men of Israel turned back against the children of Benjamin, and struck them down with the edge of the sword—from every city, men and beasts, all who were found. They also set fire to all the cities they came to.

Judges 21

Wives Provided for the Benjamites

1 Now the men of Israel had sworn an oath at Mizpah, saying, “None of us shall give his daughter to Benjamin as a wife.”
2 Then the people came to the house of God,[a] and remained there before God till evening. They lifted up their voices and wept bitterly, 3 and said, “O LORD God of Israel, why has this come to pass in Israel, that today there should be one tribe missing in Israel?”
4 So it was, on the next morning, that the people rose early and built an altar there, and offered burnt offerings and peace offerings.
5 The children of Israel said, “Who is there among all the tribes of Israel who did not come up with the assembly to the LORD?” For they had made a great oath concerning anyone who had not come up to the LORD at Mizpah, saying, “He shall surely be put to death.” 6 And the children of Israel grieved for Benjamin their brother, and said, “One tribe is cut off from Israel today.
7 “What shall we do for wives for those who remain, seeing we have sworn by the LORD that we will not give them our daughters as wives?”
8 And they said, “What one is there from the tribes of Israel who did not come up to Mizpah to the LORD?” And, in fact, no one had come to the camp from Jabesh Gilead to the assembly.
9 For when the people were counted, indeed, not one of the inhabitants of Jabesh Gilead was there.

10So the congregation sent out there twelve thousand of their most valiant men, and commanded them, saying, “Go and strike the inhabitants of Jabesh Gilead with the edge of the sword, including the women and children.

11“And this is the thing that you shall do: You shall utterly destroy every male, and every woman who has known a man intimately.”

12So they found among the inhabitants of Jabesh Gilead four hundred young virgins who had not known a man intimately; and they brought them to the camp at Shiloh, which is in the land of Canaan.

13Then the whole congregation sent word to the children of Benjamin who were at the rock of Rimmon, and announced peace to them.

14So Benjamin came back at that time, and they gave them the women whom they had saved alive of the women of Jabesh Gilead; and yet they had not found enough for them. The Women of Judges: Acclaimed and Abused

15And the people grieved for Benjamin, because the LORD had made a void in the tribes of Israel.

16Then the elders of the congregation said, “What shall we do for wives for those who remain, since the women of Benjamin have been destroyed?”

17And they said, “There must be an inheritance for the survivors of Benjamin, that a tribe may not be destroyed from Israel.

18“However, we cannot give them wives from our daughters, for the children of Israel have sworn an oath, saying, ‘Cursed be the one who gives a wife to Benjamin.’ ”

19Then they said, “In fact, there is a yearly feast of the LORD in Shiloh, which is north of Bethel, on the east side of the highway that goes up from Bethel to Shechem, and south of Lebonah.”

[20]Therefore they instructed the children of Benjamin, saying, “Go, lie in wait in the vineyards, [21]“and watch; and just when the daughters of Shiloh come out to perform their dances, then come out from the vineyards, and every man catch a wife for himself from the daughters of Shiloh; then go to the land of Benjamin.
[22]“Then it shall be, when their fathers or their brothers come to us to complain, that we will say to them, ‘Be kind to them for our sakes, because we did not take a wife for any of them in the war; for it is not as though you have given the women to them at this time, making yourselves guilty of your oath.’ ”
23And the children of Benjamin did so; they took enough wives for their number from those who danced, whom they caught. Then they went and returned to their inheritance, and they rebuilt the cities and dwelt in them.
[24]So the children of Israel departed from there at that time, every man to his tribe and family; they went out from there, every man to his inheritance.
25In those days there was no king in Israel; everyone did what was right in his own eyes.

Israel's Ups and Downs
Judg. 1:1

Judges opens with the Israelites asking God which of their tribes should "go up" into battle against the Canaanites. The book ends with the nation descending into sin, chaos, and leaderless anarchy several generations later (Judg. 21:25). At the beginning of this account, the Canaanites are the villains. By the end, however, the Israelites have become as corrupt as their immoral neighbors. Find out more about these influencers in "The Canaanites" at Joshua 3:10.

Think About It: What hints of corruption threaten to invade your life? First Peter 5:8 reminds us the devil crouches at the door ready to devour us. How will you keep him out?

Fulfill God's Expectations
Judg. 1:27–36

The Israelites exited Egypt with high hopes, setting out on a journey to a land "flowing with milk and honey" (Ex. 13:5). Yet their first exposure to Canaan went very badly (Num. 13–14). A new generation under Joshua finally crossed the Jordan River to take possession of Canaan (Josh. 1:11), but by the end of Joshua's life, major portions of the Promised Land remained unconquered, and many of the Canaanites and Amorites whom Israel was commanded to displace remained in the cities.

This failure meant that Israel would suffer several generations of civil, political, and spiritual unrest (Judg. 2:11–23). It was not until God finally raised up David as a unifying king that the extent of Israel's borders began to match the expectations originally laid out by God (Num. 34:1–12). God always has good reasons for His expectations. By fulfilling those, we show we trust Him, as well as invest in the good He has planned.

Thorns and Tears
Judg. 2:1–5

God told the Israelites to drive the Canaanites out of the land by taking over their cities, destroying their idols and altars, and refusing to enter into agreements with them. Apparently the citizens of Bochim failed to carry out those instructions. Their offense was serious enough for the Angel of the Lord to come up from Gilgal to this village near Bethel and cry against it.

The timing of this sermon was crucial. The days of Israel's conquest of Canaan were drawing to a close, yet many cities remained under the sway of the Canaanites (Judg. 1:27–35). Joshua's life was over (2:8), and a new generation was coming into power (2:10).

Bochim's spiritual failures set a dangerous precedent of idolatry that persisted from that day forward. Apparently the people of Bochim tearfully repented of their wrongs and offered a sacrifice to atone for their sins (2:5, 6). But the pattern of spiritual adultery was established, and its consequences would be like a thorn in the people's side.

In modern American society, unbelievers are free to worship whatever gods they wish. But God's people cannot adopt their ways. Like Israel, Christians must preserve their own faith, letting nothing distract them from unswerving allegiance to the Lord. Otherwise they invite a legacy of thorns and tears.

Other Gods
Judg. 2:11–13

The Lord's first commandment was, "You shall have no other gods before Me" (Ex. 20:3). Yet within a generation after entering the Promised Land, the Israelites began following other gods, specifically the deities of the Canaanites.

Think About It: How do you suppose this following of other gods began? Was it to please a girlfriend, pacify a boss, or what? Did it happen with awareness or by accident? What protections will keep you from going after something God does not bless?

The Judges
Judg. 2:16

For more than three hundred years—approximately from 1380 to 1050 B.C.—Israel was led by a succession of national leaders called judges. These male and female heroes rallied the people against oppressive enemies and led them in spiritual revival.

The judges derived their authority from the days of the Exodus, when Moses almost exhausted himself trying to settle the many cases brought before him (Ex. 18). Following the advice of his father-in-law Jethro, Moses appointed judges over the people to handle all but the most important questions. The Law later commanded that judges be appointed city by city when the people entered the Promised Land (Deut. 16:18). The most difficult cases were heard in conjunction with the priests, who served as custodians of the Law (17:8–13).

The Israelites apparently followed this pattern during the days of the conquest (Josh. 8:33; 24:1), but after the death of Joshua, the rule of law disintegrated and the people hastened their rebellion. Lacking a human king to guide them, "everyone did what was right in his own eyes" (Judg. 17:6; 21:25). Just as God had warned (Lev. 26:14–17), spiritual apostasy soon led to military defeat and political oppression by outsiders (Judg. 2:11–15).

Nevertheless, God raised up judges (2:16) to deliver His people from their enemies and turn them back to Him. Early judges largely succeeded, but over time the call for revival became less effective. Samson, the last judge mentioned in this book, indulged in pride and sexual sin and managed to deliver his people from their Philistine enemies only by taking his own life (16:28–30). The final chapters of Judges tell of ever-increasing idolatry, immorality, and civil war—marks of a dying nation.

Eli, the next-to-last judge, failed both as a father and as a national leader (1 Sam. 2:22–25; 3:11–18; 4:1–18). Samuel, his successor, was immeasurably more effective, but even under his capable leadership the people rebelled, insisting on a king of their own choosing (8:4–9, 19–22).

Think About It: What deliberate leadership actions and accountability protections would keep rebellion from starting and continuing?

Twelve Heroes

Judg. 2:18

The Book of Judges reveals a cycle often repeated during the early years of Israel's history in Canaan: the people fell into sin (Judg. 2:11–13); God sent judgment on them (2:14); the people cried for deliverance (2:15); God raised up a deliverer to rescue them from their enemies and bring spiritual renewal (2:16–18); and eventually the people fell into sin again after the passing of the judge (2:19). The table below lists the twelve judges mentioned in this book.

Judge	Duration of Leadership	Major Accomplishments
Othniel (Judg. 3:7–11)	40 years	Caleb's nephew; defeated a king of Mesopotamia.
Ehud (Judg. 3:12–30)	80 years	Killed Eglon, king of Moab, and subdued the Moabites.

Shamgar (Judg. 3:31)	Unknown	Killed 600 Philistines.
Deborah (Judg. 4:4–5:31)	40 years	Recruited Barak to lead Israelite warriors to victory over the Canaanite king Jabin and his general Sisera.
Gideon (Judg. 6:11–8:32)	40 years	With a force of only 300 men, defeated the Midianites.
Tola (Judg. 10:1, 2)	23 years	Unknown.

Problem People

Judg. 3:1–4

The Israelites lived in constant conflict with the nations they were supposed to drive out during the conquest of Canaan (Deut. 7). Many Canaanites remained in the land, and during the era of the judges, God used these people to challenge the Israelites, punish them for violating His laws, and turn them back toward Him.

We may find similar people in our paths—an insensitive relative, unreasonable supervisor, irritating neighbor, or annoying classmate. Our clashes with these problem people may become opportunities for God to guide us to grow in faith action.

Willing and Able to Lead

Judg. 5:2

The era of the judges was marked by a chronic leadership crisis. In a time and place when "everyone did what was right in his own eyes" (Judg. 21:25), few were willing or able to offer moral and spiritual direction, a sure reason why Deborah celebrated willing leaders and willing people in her song of praise for Israel's victory over Jabin and Sisera (5:2, 9). The people were glad to follow leaders who led rather than despots who dominated. Deborah and Barak possessed ability and integrity that inspired ordinary people like the woman Jael to fight boldly and strike down their oppressors (4:17–22; 5:24–27).

Many people are eager to be in charge, but people of character and ability who will step into roles of leadership are rare. God invites us to be His willing leaders. Whatever our sphere of influence—our home, church, community, or work—we can accept the challenge to stand for God's ways and encourage others to follow.

Fleece? Only One Believer Used It

Judg. 6:36–40

Many Christians look to Gideon as a model for making godly decisions. As Gideon carefully weighed whether the Lord wanted him to rally an army and attack the Midianites, he twice set out a clump of wool to ascertain God's wishes. Some Christians seeking guidance believe they should follow Gideon's example and expect tangible signs indicating God's will.

This is the only instance in Scripture when God revealed His plans through a fleece, and Gideon's actions were steered by extreme hesitation, doubt, and fear.

The Lord had already told him what to do through the Angel of the Lord (Judg. 6:11–16). The Angel had even given Gideon a confirming sign (6:17–22).

So Gideon's fleece appears to demonstrate more about his lack of faith than a zeal to be certain of God's will. The Lord patiently granted his request for yet more confirmations, but using a fleece to determine God's intentions does not seem to be the best pattern for leaning on God for guidance.

God has objectively told us throughout the Bible what He wants. The Ten Commandments, for example, give straightforward instructions for our behavior in major areas of life. Likewise, a New Testament passage says plainly, "This is the will of God" (1 Thess. 4:3), then outlines God's will regarding sexuality.

When it comes to making choices, God calls us to engage in deliberation based on our relationship with Him and our allegiance to the principles and values He has clearly spelled out in Scripture. God has designed us as analytical and discerning beings responsible for making our way through life consistent with His general plans and purposes. He challenges us to investigate everything we can about any situation, relationship, responsibility, or opportunity, weigh our findings in light of His precepts and principles, and then act. We can move ahead with confidence that He works in us "both to will and to do for His good pleasure" (Phil. 2:13).

A Shrewd Politician
Judg. 8:2

Whatever fear Gideon felt prior to the battle with the Midianites, he displayed shrewd political instincts in calming the Ephraimites. His allusion to gleaning after a quality harvest was designed to soothe resentment that the men of Ephraim were not mustered for the main battle but only given a mop-up operation (Judg. 7:24–8:1)—what one might consider a form of military gleaning.

Gleaning was an Israelite custom that required landowners to leave a portion of their harvests behind for the benefit of the poor. After the harvesters had completed their work, the poor were encouraged to go through the fields and vineyards to gather what was left (see "Gleaning and the Poor" at Lev. 19:9, 10). Gideon praised the men of Ephraim by saying that the leftovers of their vineyards were superior to the best fruits of his own clan of Abiezer. This was an extreme compliment since the Abiezrites' vineyards in the Valley of Jezreel were among the most productive in all of Israel.

Think About It: Are words or tone more important in solving human hostility?

Gideon's Compromise
Judg. 8:31

Gideon's many wives bore him many sons (Judg. 8:30), but it was Abimelech, his son by his concubine, who became one of the most notorious figures in the days of the judges (8:31). Concubines were usually female slaves with whom a male owner was free to have sexual relations as though they were wives. They were not considered full wives but enjoyed rights that common slaves did not (see "Concubines" at Gen. 30:3–13).

The fact that Gideon's concubine was from Shechem may mean that she was an Israelite born to an impoverished family that sold her into slavery (compare Judg. 9:1–3, 18). Or she may have been a Canaanite taken by Gideon as a female servant. Some Canaanites remained in Shechem during that era, and the city was a center for Baal worship (9:4).

The Israelites were forbidden to marry Canaanites (Deut. 7:1–6). Gideon, despite his apparent trust in God and victory over the Midianites, might not have been above skirting the Law, as he had demonstrated by fashioning an ephod, a sacred garment, from the Midian plunder (see "Seeking Guidance Through the Urim and Thummim" at Ex. 28:30). The object became a spiritual snare for him and his family (Judg. 8:24–27) and aided Israel in reverting to idolatry after his passing (8:33). The result of Gideon's union with his concubine was bloodshed and civil disorder (9:1–57).

It is up to us to learn from Gideon's mistakes and identify potential snares in our own lives. To avoid being trapped, we must search our lives and identify and forsake anything that has even the potential of keeping us from full obedience.

Think About It: Laws are in place for our happiness. So why do we tend to think it's better to break rules? Why would any rule apply to others but not to us?

Family: Son of Gideon by a concubine from Shechem; had 70 half brothers.

Occupation: Self-appointed king of Shechem and Beth Millo (Judg. 9:6).

Best known as: An assassin who murdered his 70 half brothers and later was mortally wounded after a woman dropped a millstone on his head (9:50–54).

Think About It: What is the appeal of being king? How would this convince us that murder or deception is OK?

The Man Who Would Be King
Judg. 9:2

When the people of Israel tried to crown Gideon king after he defeated the Midianites, he refused the title (Judg. 8:22, 23). His son Abimelech was not so humble. Although his ascent required the brutal murder of his seventy half brothers, Abimelech arranged to have himself crowned king of Shechem.

Abimelech’s glory was limited in scope and duration. Even though he was said to have reigned over Israel (9:22), his influence probably never extended more than ten miles. After three years he was driven from Shechem by the same people who aided his rise to power and he sought safety several miles south at Arumah (9:39–41).

As Abimelech's grasp on the region began to slip, he inflicted more violence in a desperate effort to retain control (9:42–52). Rejected by Gideon's family, his mother's family, and the citizens of his tiny kingdom, he found himself dying in shame. He made a final, misguided attempt to preserve his dignity by compelling one of his men to run him through with a sword (9:53, 54).

Occupation: Leader of a band of raiders that probably protected Israelite towns from the Ammonites.

Best known for: His rash vow that resulted in the loss of his daughter. The text does not confirm that she was sacrificed as a burnt offering, but human sacrifice was practiced at the time and the text presents Jephthah as man of his word (compare Judg. 12:1–6).

Think About It: What are the cures for rash behavior in your own life?

Overcoming a Rough Start
Judg. 11:2, 3

The product of his father's liaison with a prostitute, Jephthah was expelled from the rest of his family. He took up a criminal life, though his gang of raiders may have harassed Ammonites more than Israelites. Ironically, when Israel faced war with Ammon, Jephthah's hometown leaders expected him to deliver them. They offered no apology but merely appealed for help. Jephthah agreed to help them after negotiating his terms (Judg. 11:9–11), and God gave him the victory (11:33).

The Tragedy of Jephthah's Daughter
Judg. 11:30–40

Modern readers may find the incident of Jephthah's daughter profoundly cruel. Though the Bible records the events as they actually occurred, this does not imply that God approved of them.

Rather, it shows the poor state of Israel's spiritual well-being at this point in history.

Jephthah vowed to sacrifice as a burnt offering whatever came out of his door if he returned victorious from battle. Many commentators think Jephthah had human sacrifice in mind, probably an intention to offer a slave. It was common for warriors to make vows to their gods to secure their assistance in warfare. Child sacrifice was common among the Ammonites and Moabites (2 Kin. 3:27), but the Israelites were banned from making human sacrifices (Lev. 18:21; Deut. 12:31).

We may puzzle over why Jephthah would make such a vow or why he would decide to keep his pledge once he realized his daughter had become an unintentional victim. Our answer may lie in how steeply Israel's moral and spiritual condition had declined by this time. The Mosaic covenant was violated more often than it was honored, and spiritual abandonment had overtaken the land. God used the Ammonites to bring His people to their knees (Judg. 11:4). Though they had not turned back to Him, they recruited Jephthah to lead them (4:5–11).

Jephthah was no spiritual giant. But he at least remembered the history between Israel and Ammon, and how God had rescued His people during the Exodus (11:14–28). He viewed the Lord as the supreme "Judge" (11:27) who would decide the current conflict between Ammon and Israel.

Jephthah perceived correctly that God would indeed judge between the two peoples. Neither group was without sin. The Israelites had forsaken the Lord for idols (10:6) yet repented (10:10–16). The Ammonites had long practiced abominations such as child sacrifice (see "Abominations: How Not to Act" at Lev. 18:24–30) without rejecting their sin. Now they had claimed territory that was not theirs (Judg. 11:13).

God decided the matter by empowering Jephthah to recruit an army to carry out His judgment on the Ammonites (11:29). At this point, filled with zealous energy, Jephthah made his rash vow (11:30, 31), maybe based on an inadequate view of God. Although Jephthah correctly understood God as Judge, he may have incorrectly likened Him to the god Chemosh of the Ammonites (11:24). If Chemosh's help was enlisted through human sacrifice, perhaps Jephthah assumed that Lord's help must be gained in the same way.

Jephthah appears to have followed through on his vow, first giving his daughter time to grieve that she would never marry and have children (11:37–39). He said he kept the vow because he deeply feared what God might do if he did not (compare Num. 30:2; Deut. 23:21–23). From our perspective, his fear seems primitive, superstitious, and tragically mistaken.

The daughter's statement of submission is one of the Bible's most touching speeches (Judg. 11:36). She shared her father's extreme reverence for God, even at the cost of marriage, children, and life itself. No wonder the young women of Israel honored her ever after (11:40).

This incident warns us to beware of our decisions, what we follow through with (after making a poor decision), and how we are affected by spiritual decline in our culture. Our neighbors' disobedience can warp our perspective, leading us to speak and do things unworthy of our Lord. This incident also reminds us how seriously we should take our own commitments to Him.

Donkeys: A Mark of Royalty

Judg. 12:14

We might laugh as we picture Abdon's sons and grandsons riding seventy young donkeys—or similar reports about Jair's sons (Judg. 10:4) and an unnamed Levite (19:3). But the donkey was the preferred means of transportation for the rich and royal (compare 5:10). Donkeys signaled power. They were also a sign of peace. During the Old Testament era, it was a breach of etiquette for royalty to ride horses except in war. Large number of donkeys in the days of Jair and Abdon tell us that they had delivered Israel from its enemies and the land once again enjoyed peace.

God's Gifts Without God's Blessing
Judg. 13:25

The Book of Hebrews lists Samson as a hero of the faith (Heb. 11:32), an honor that seems to conflict with his behavior in the Book of Judges. His infamous involvement with Delilah led to his downfall.

As a Nazirite Samson was obligated to refrain from touching a dead body, to abstain from alcohol and other products of the vine, and to avoid the use of a razor. He clearly violated the first commitment (Judg. 14:8, 9, 19; 15:8, 15), likely ignored the second, and ended up betraying the third (16:13–17).

These failures must be seen in the context of the appallingly low moral and spiritual condition of Samson's day (13:1; 21:25). Samson did act in faith when he asked God for strength to pull down a roof on his enemies (16:28–30). He destroyed a temple of Dagon and killed many Philistines, likely members of the ruling class.

Samson proves that it is possible to experience God's gifts and power without enjoying God's blessing. God sometimes grants the ability to accomplish His purposes without requiring that recipients follow His ways. God empowered Balaam to bless Israel, for example, yet Balaam remained spiritually deficient (see "Playing with Fire" at Num. 31:15, 16).

Immense abilities are not the same as immense obedience. As the apostle Paul pointed out, one can "speak with the tongues of men and of angels" yet behave in ways that are empty and loveless (1 Cor. 13:1). To experience the true gift of a relationship with God, we must obey Him in our way of life, not only relying on His ability to work through us but in us.

Prostitutes in the Ancient World

Judg. 16:1

Prostitutes like the woman whom Samson visited at Gaza were common in the ancient world. Sadly, prostitution has been a part of religious rites since at least 3000 B.C.

Engaging in intercourse with a temple prostitute in places like Babylon, Syria, Canaan, Arabia, and Phoenicia was believed to promote fertility among humans, animals, and crops. The historian Herodotus reports a Babylonian custom that required every woman to sit in the temple of the goddess Ishtar until a stranger chose her for sexual relations. A man would toss a coin in a woman's lap, and if she accepted the coin and his sexual advances, she met her obligation to the goddess and was free to return to her normal life.

In Israel, however, ritual prostitution was forbidden (Deut. 23:17). Laws prevented priests from marrying prostitutes (Lev. 21:7), and prostitutes' earnings were not accepted as payment of temple vows (Deut. 23:18).

Nevertheless, commercial prostitutes worked freely in Israel, easily recognized by their hairstyle, head ornaments, or a special forehead mark. Clothing and jewelry signaled their availability, and they frequented particular locales. They accepted payments in money, grain, wine, or livestock, and often accepted pledges until payment could be fulfilled.

Samson used his God-given strength to escape the Philistines after spending an evening with a prostitute (Judg. 16:3), but God did not overlook his immorality. Samson's next choice—taking up with the woman Delilah (16:4)—led to his betrayal and capture (16:18–21). Samson's morality reached a low point when he visited the prostitute at Gaza, and soon he paid the price of ignoring God's commands.

The Secret of Samson's Strength
Judg. 16:17

Samson's strength was connected with the Nazirite vow that his parents made for him before he was born (compare Judg. 13:3–7). This vow prohibited him from using a razor (see "The Nazirite Vow" at Num. 6:2). His hair was the secret of his strength. Long hair on a man was also perceived as a sign of vitality. Moral Decadence in the Book of Judges
Judg. 19:25

The Book of Judges begins on a high note, with the people of Israel continuing Joshua's legacy, taking possession of more and more territory in the Promised Land (Judg. 1). Yet the book ends at a low point in Israel's history, with the nation sinking into depravity, anarchy, and a civil war touched off by the rape of a Levite's concubine (19:25).

This widespread and rapid decline is difficult to fathom in light of the lofty standards of the Law envisioned in Exodus, Leviticus, and Deuteronomy. Romans 7 provides one explanation; there Paul points out that the Law is powerless to produce righteousness and the war of sin rages within us (Rom. 7:7–25).

This is a crucial fact as we watch our own society's moral decline. Laws alone cannot change behavior, even though they help to distinguish right from wrong. People must choose whether or not they will do what is right. Only Jesus Christ can equip us to do so.

The phrase indicated the entire nation of Israel, from north (Dan) to south (Beersheba). The distance between the two cities was about 145 miles.

The Women of Judges: Acclaimed and Abused
Judg. 21:14

The Book of Judges illustrates a wide range of women's choices in history, as the following table shows.

Women	Experience
Achsah	Caleb gave away his daughter Achsah as a reward for success in war (Judg. 1:12, 13). He also gave her land, unusual because few Hebrew women owned land (1:14–16).
Deborah	The nation's judge for 40 years, she enlisted Barak to lead the people to victory over the Canaanite general Sisera (Judg. 4:1–5:31).
Jael	The wife of Heber the Kenite became a war hero by assassinating the general Sisera (Judg. 4:17–22).
An Unnamed Concubine	Gideon's concubine gave birth to Abimelech (Judg. 8:31), who brought disaster on the nation.
An Unnamed Prostitute	She gave birth to a son, Jephthah, who was rejected by his half brothers but later recruited to rescue Israel from the Ammonites (Judg. 11:1–33).
An Unnamed Daughter	Jephthah's daughter was presumably sacrificed as a burnt offering because of her father's rash vow (Judg. 11:29–40).
An Unnamed, Barren Wife	Manoah's wife was chosen by God to be the mother of Samson, Israel's savior from the Philistines (Judg. 13:2–25).
An Unnamed Philistine Wife	Samson's marriage to his wife from Timnah lasted only one week before she was given to his best man (Judg. 14:1–20).
An Unnamed Prostitute	She tried to trap Samson in a Philistine ambush, but his physical strength confounded her efforts (Judg. 16:1–3).
Delilah	Having attracted Samson's affections, she wore him down until he revealed the secret of his strength (Judg. 16:4–31).
An Unnamed Mother	Her son Micah stole 1,100 shekels of silver from her but returned it. Together they fashioned idols that became a spiritual trap for a foolish Levite (Judg. 17:1–13). The incident led to civil war in Israel (Judg. 19:1–30).
400	Captured as prizes in a civil war, they were given as wives

Virgins of to the wayward Benjamites (Judg. 21:1–25).

Judges 21

a 21:2 Or Bethel

Against the dark spiritual backdrop of Judges, Ruth's faith shines as a brilliant point of light. Her story encourages us that no matter how bad things get, God never abandons us and He always carries out His purposes. Even when our faithfulness in following the Lord feels futile and insignificant, the Lord is using us, sometimes in ways we cannot see.

The Book of Ruth opens with a story that seems headed for an unhappy ending. A famine has struck Bethlehem. A man named Elimelech ("My God Is King") journeys to the foreign land of Moab to find bread, only to die there. His wife Naomi is left a single parent to two sons, who eventually marry Moabite women, Orpah and Ruth. After ten years the sons also die, leaving the three women to fend for themselves.

Naomi resolves to return to Bethlehem. Orpah stays behind in Moab while Ruth follows Naomi, declaring her steadfast devotion to her mother-in-law and to the Lord. Once in Israel, Ruth meets Boaz, who takes her as his wife. Through their union a son is born, the grandfather of David, God's answer to Israel's need for a king. And through David the King of kings will one day descend, God's answer to the world's need for a Savior.

Ancient tradition held that Samuel wrote the Book of Ruth, but an exact identification of the author cannot be made. The brief genealogy at Ruth 4:18–22 sets the book's events around 1050 B.C., toward the end of the period of the judges. David's father Jesse was old enough to have fathered several military-age sons by the time Samuel had ended his role as judge of Israel and Saul was installed as king (1 Sam. 16:5–11). This suggests that Jesse's father Obed was perhaps Samuel's age or slightly older, so that Boaz and Ruth may have been contemporaries of Samuel's parents Elkanah and Hannah.

The story of Ruth begins in Moab, a land on the eastern shore of the Dead Sea, and ends in Bethlehem, a city of Judah five miles south of Jebus, later known as Jerusalem.

Key People in Ruth

- Elimelech ("My God Is King"), a Hebrew from Bethlehem who journeys to Moab with his family (Ruth 1:2).
- Naomi ("Pleasant"), Elimelech's wife, who endures the deaths of her husband and two sons (Ruth 1:2).
- Mahlon ("Sickly"), Elimelech and Naomi's older son, who dies in a foreign land (Ruth 1:2).
- Chilion ("Wasting Away"), their younger son, who joins his brother in death (Ruth 1:2).
- Orpah ("Neck"), a woman of Moab and the wife of Chilion (Ruth 1:4), who chooses to remain in her home country.
- Ruth ("Friendship"), a woman of Moab and the wife of Mahlon, who leaves her home country to cling to Naomi, her people, and her God (Ruth 1:4).
- Boaz ("Strength"), a male relative of Elimelech who provides for and marries Ruth (Ruth 2:1).

Ruth 1

Elimelech's Family Goes to Moab

1 Now it came to pass, in the days when the judges ruled, that there was a famine in the land. And a certain man of Bethlehem, Judah, went to dwell in the country of Moab, he and his wife and his two sons.
2 The name of the man was Elimelech, the name of his wife was Naomi, and the names of his two sons were Mahlon and Chilion—Ephrathites of Bethlehem, Judah. And they went to the country of Moab and remained there. Naomi 3 Then Elimelech, Naomi's husband, died; and she was left, and her two sons.
4 Now they took wives of the women of Moab: the name of the one was Orpah, and the name of the other Ruth. And they dwelt there about ten years. Ruth Good After Bad
5 Then both Mahlon and Chilion also died; so the woman survived her two sons and her husband.

Naomi Returns with Ruth

6 Then she arose with her daughters-in-law that she might return from the country of Moab, for she had heard in the country of Moab that the LORD had visited His people by giving them bread.
7 Therefore she went out from the place where she was,
and her two daughters-in-law with her; and they went on the way to return to the land of Judah.
8 And Naomi said to her two daughters-in-law, "Go, return each to her mother's house. The LORD deal kindly with you, as you have dealt with the dead and with me.
9 "The LORD grant that you may find rest, each in the house of her husband." So she kissed them, and they lifted up their voices and wept.

10 And they said to her, “Surely we will return with you to your people.”
11 But Naomi said, “Turn back, my daughters; why will you go with me? Are there still sons in my womb, that they may be your husbands?
12 “Turn back, my daughters, go—for I am too old to have a husband. If I should say I have hope, if I should have a husband tonight and should also bear sons, 13 “would you wait for them till they were grown? Would you restrain yourselves from having husbands? No, my daughters; for it grieves me very much for your sakes that the hand of the LORD has gone out against me!” 14 Then they lifted up their voices and wept again; and Orpah kissed her mother-in-law, but Ruth clung to her.
15 And she said, “Look, your sister-in-law has gone back to her people and to her gods; return after your sister-in-law.”
16 But Ruth said:

> “Entreat me not to leave you,
> Or to turn back from following after you;
> For wherever you go, I will go;
> And wherever you lodge, I will lodge;
> Your people shall be my people,
> And your God, my God.
> 17 Where you die, I will die,
> And there will I be buried.
> The LORD do so to me, and more also,
> If anything but death parts you and me.”

18 When she saw that she was determined to go with her,
she stopped speaking to her.
19 Now the two of them went until they came to Bethlehem. And it happened, when they had come to Bethlehem, that all the city was excited because of them; and the women said, “Is this Naomi?”

20 But she said to them, “Do not call me Naomi;[a] call me Mara,[b] for the Almighty has dealt very bitterly with me.

21 “I went out full, and the LORD has brought me home again empty. Why do you call me Naomi, since the LORD has testified against me, and the Almighty has afflicted me?”

22 So Naomi returned, and Ruth the Moabitess her daughter-in-law with her, who returned from the country of Moab. Now they came to Bethlehem at the beginning of barley harvest. Ruth Journeys to Israel

Ruth 2

Ruth Meets Boaz

1There was a relative of Naomi's husband, a man of great wealth, of the family of Elimelech. His name was Boaz. A Web of Technicalities

2So Ruth the Moabitess said to Naomi, "Please let me go to the field, and glean heads of grain after him in whose sight I may find favor." And she said to her, "Go, my daughter."

3Then she left, and went and gleaned in the field after the reapers. And she happened to come to the part of the field belonging to Boaz, who was of the family of Elimelech.

4Now behold, Boaz came from Bethlehem, and said to the reapers, "The LORD be with you!" And they answered him, "The LORD bless you!"

5Then Boaz said to his servant who was in charge of the reapers, "Whose young woman is this?"

6So the servant who was in charge of the reapers answered and said, "It is the young Moabite woman who came back with Naomi from the country of Moab.

7"And she said, 'Please let me glean and gather after the reapers among the sheaves.' So she came and has continued from morning until now, though she rested a little in the house."

8Then Boaz said to Ruth, "You will listen, my daughter, will you not? Do not go to glean in another field, nor go from here, but stay close by my young women.

9"Let your eyes be on the field which they reap, and go after them. Have I not commanded the young men not to touch you? And when you are thirsty, go to the vessels and drink from what the young men have drawn."

10 So she fell on her face, bowed down to the ground, and said to him, “Why have I found favor in your eyes, that you should take notice of me, since I am a foreigner?” 11 And Boaz answered and said to her, “It has been fully reported to me, all that you have done for your mother-in-law since the death of your husband, and how you have left your father and your mother and the land of your birth, and have come to a people whom you did not know before.
12 “The LORD repay your work, and a full reward be given you by the LORD God of Israel, under whose wings you have come for refuge.”
13 Then she said, “Let me find favor in your sight, my lord; for you have comforted me, and have spoken kindly to your maidservant, though I am not like one of your maidservants.”
14 Now Boaz said to her at mealtime, “Come here, and eat of the bread, and dip your piece of bread in the vinegar.” So she sat beside the reapers, and he passed parched grain to her; and she ate and was satisfied, and kept some back.
15 And when she rose up to glean, Boaz commanded his young men, saying, “Let her glean even among the sheaves, and do not reproach her.
16 “Also let grain from the bundles fall purposely for her;
leave it that she may glean, and do not rebuke her.” 17 So she gleaned in the field until evening, and beat out what she had gleaned, and it was about an ephah of barley.
18 Then she took it up and went into the city, and her mother-in-law saw what she had gleaned. So she brought out and gave to her what she had kept back after she had been satisfied.
19 And her mother-in-law said to her, “Where have you gleaned today? And where did you work? Blessed be the one who took notice of you.” So she told her mother-in-law with whom she had worked, and said, “The man’s name with whom I worked today is Boaz.”

20 Then Naomi said to her daughter-in-law, “Blessed be he of the LORD, who has not forsaken His kindness to the living and the dead!” And Naomi said to her, “This man is a relation of ours, one of our close relatives.”

21 Ruth the Moabitess said, “He also said to me, ‘You shall stay close by my young men until they have finished all my harvest.’ ”

22 And Naomi said to Ruth her daughter-in-law, “It is good, my daughter, that you go out with his young women, and that people do not meet you in any other field.”

23 So she stayed close by the young women of Boaz, to glean until the end of barley harvest and wheat harvest; and she dwelt with her mother-in-law.

Ruth 3

Ruth's Redemption Assured

1 Then Naomi her mother-in-law said to her, "My daughter, shall I not seek security for you, that it may be well with
you?
2 "Now Boaz, whose young women you were with, is he not our relative? In fact, he is winnowing barley tonight at the threshing floor. Boaz
3 "Therefore wash yourself and anoint yourself, put on your best garment and go down to the threshing floor; but do not make yourself known to the man until he has finished eating and drinking.
4 "Then it shall be, when he lies down, that you shall notice the place where he lies; and you shall go in, uncover his feet, and lie down; and he will tell you what you should do."
5 And she said to her, "All that you say to me I will do."
6 So she went down to the threshing floor and did according to all that her mother-in-law instructed her.
7 And after Boaz had eaten and drunk, and his heart was cheerful, he went to lie down at the end of the heap of grain; and she came softly, uncovered his feet, and lay down.
8 Now it happened at midnight that the man was startled, and turned himself; and there, a woman was lying at his feet.
9 And he said, "Who are you?" So she answered, "I am Ruth, your maidservant. Take your maidservant under your wing,[a] for you are a close relative." Under His Wing 10 Then he said, "Blessed are you of the LORD, my daughter! For you have shown more kindness at the end than at the beginning, in that you did not go after young men, whether poor or rich.

11 “And now, my daughter, do not fear. I will do for you all that you request, for all the people of my town know that you are a virtuous woman.

12 “Now it is true that I am a close relative; however, there is a relative closer than I.

13 “Stay this night, and in the morning it shall be that if he will perform the duty of a close relative for you—good; let him do it. But if he does not want to perform the duty for you, then I will perform the duty for you, as the LORD lives! Lie down until morning.”

14 So she lay at his feet until morning, and she arose before one could recognize another. Then he said, “Do not let it be known that the woman came to the threshing floor.”

15 Also he said, “Bring the shawl that is on you and hold it.” And when she held it, he measured six ephahs of barley, and laid it on her. Then she[b] went into the city.

16 When she came to her mother-in-law, she said, “Is that you, my daughter?” Then she told her all that the man had done for her.

17 And she said, “These six ephahs of barley he gave me; for he said to me, ‘Do not go empty-handed to your mother-in-law.’ ”

18 Then she said, “Sit still, my daughter, until you know how the matter will turn out; for the man will not rest until he has concluded the matter this day.”

Ruth 4

Boaz Redeems Ruth

1 Now Boaz went up to the gate and sat down there; and behold, the close relative of whom Boaz had spoken came by. So Boaz said, “Come aside, friend,[a] sit down here.” So he came aside and sat down.

2 And he took ten men of the elders of the city, and said, “Sit down here.” So they sat down.

3 Then he said to the close relative, “Naomi, who has come back from the country of Moab, sold the piece of land which belonged to our brother Elimelech.

4 “And I thought to inform you, saying, ‘Buy it back in the presence of the inhabitants and the elders of my people. If you will redeem it, redeem it; but if you[b] will not redeem it, then tell me, that I may know; for there is no one but you to redeem it, and I am next after you.’ ” And he said, “I will redeem it.”

5 Then Boaz said, “On the day you buy the field from the hand of Naomi, you must also buy it from Ruth the Moabitess, the wife of the dead, to perpetuate[c] the name of the dead through his inheritance.”

6 And the close relative said, “I cannot redeem it for myself, lest I ruin my own inheritance. You redeem my right of redemption for yourself, for I cannot redeem it.”

7 Now this was the custom in former times in Israel concerning redeeming and exchanging, to confirm anything: one man took off his sandal and gave it to the other, and this was a confirmation in Israel.

8 Therefore the close relative said to Boaz, “Buy it for yourself.” So he took off his sandal.

9 And Boaz said to the elders and all the people, “You are witnesses this day that I have bought all that was Elimelech’s, and all that was Chilion’s and Mahlon’s, from the hand of Naomi.

10 “Moreover, Ruth the Moabitess, the widow of Mahlon, I have acquired as my wife, to perpetuate the name of the dead through his inheritance, that the name of the dead may not be cut off from among his brethren and from his position at the gate.[d] You are witnesses this day.”

11 And all the people who were at the gate, and the elders, said, “We are witnesses. The LORD make the woman who is coming to your house like Rachel and Leah, the two who built the house of Israel; and may you prosper in Ephrathah and be famous in Bethlehem.

12 “May your house be like the house of Perez, whom Tamar bore to Judah, because of the offspring which the LORD will give you from this young woman.”

Descendants of Boaz and Ruth

13 So Boaz took Ruth and she became his wife; and when he went in to her, the LORD gave her conception, and she bore a son. The Family of Ruth and Boaz

14 Then the women said to Naomi, “Blessed be the LORD, who has not left you this day without a close relative; and may his name be famous in Israel!

15 “And may he be to you a restorer of life and a nourisher of your old age; for your daughter-in-law, who loves you, who is better to you than seven sons, has borne him.”

16 Then Naomi took the child and laid him on her bosom, and became a nurse to him. Naomi the Nurse

17 Also the neighbor women gave him a name, saying, “There is a son born to Naomi.” And they called his name Obed. He is the father of Jesse, the father of David.

18Now this is the genealogy of Perez: Perez begot Hezron; 19Hezron begot Ram, and Ram begot Amminadab;
20Amminadab begot Nahshon, and Nahshon begot Salmon;[e]
21Salmon begot Boaz, and Boaz begot Obed; 22Obed begot Jesse, and Jesse begot David.

Good After Bad
Ruth 1:4

The name Moab brings to mind a pair of unpleasant incidents from Israel’s past: the unseemly conception of Moab and the trouble his descendants caused Israel during their wilderness journey to the Promised Land.

Moab was born in the aftermath of Sodom and Gomorrah. Lot fled from Sodom with his family, in effect taking the sin of the city with him into the wilderness. His wife disobeyed God’s instructions and died as a pillar of salt (Gen. 19:26). Lot’s daughters got their father drunk so that he would lay with them and father their children. One daughter gave birth to Moab, the other to Ammon (19:30–38). Their descendants grew into nations that long plagued Israel.

The nation of Moab committed one of its most grievous offenses while Israel wandered in the wilderness. Moab’s king attempted to hire Balaam the seer to curse the Israelites, but Balaam, compelled by the Lord, blessed them instead (Num. 22–24). Later, however, the seer proposed using Moabite women to seduce God's people into idolatry. The plan resulted in the death of twenty-four thousand Israelites (see "Playing with Fire" at Num. 31:15, 16). As a result, Mosaic law banned Moabites and Ammonites from ever becoming members of God's community (Deut. 23:3).

Yet in spite of this history, from Moab came Ruth—and from Ruth, Obed; from Obed, Jesse; from Jesse, David (Ruth 4:18–22); and through David came Jesus Christ (Matt. 1:1, 5, 6). No matter what your history, God can still accomplish His purposes through you and those who follow you. Your obedience, similar to Ruth's, could change your family tree.

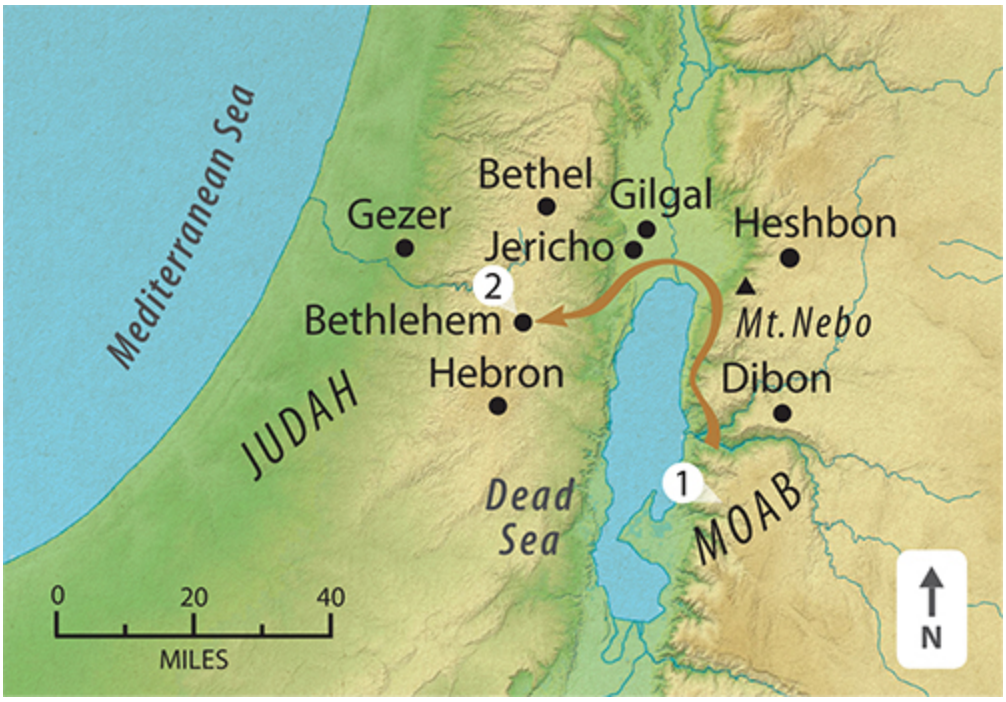
Ruth Journeys to Israel

Ruth 1:22



1. Naomi, a Jewish woman, and Orpah and Ruth, her Moabite daughters-in-law, outlive their Jewish husbands (Ruth 1:1–5). Naomi returns to Israel and Ruth insists on accompanying her (Ruth 1:6–18). Probable route of Naomi and Ruth is shown above.

2. Naomi and Ruth settle in Naomi's hometown of Bethlehem, where Ruth meets and marries Boaz (Ruth 1:19–4:13).

A Web of Technicalities

Ruth 2:1

On the surface, the Book of Ruth appears to be a simple love story between Ruth, an impoverished widow, and Boaz, a wealthy landowner and presumed bachelor. But when considering the historical context, we can see that their relationship was subject to complex local customs and legal technicalities.

Gleaning

Gleaning was the process of going back over a field, orchard, or vineyard after the main harvest to gather every last bit of remaining produce. The Law commanded that the poor be given the right of gathering any produce left behind after the harvest (see "Gleaning and the Poor" at Lev. 19:9, 10). As a just man, Boaz was committed to following the Law and allowed Ruth, an impoverished widow with no other means of support, to glean from his fields (Ruth 2).

The Law of the Redeeming Relative

After the Promised Land was divided among Israel's tribes, each family endeavored to ensure that its portion remained in the family. Land was sometimes lost through poverty, but the Law solved this problem by giving family members the right to repurchase land their relatives had been forced to sell. The nearest relative of the land seller was called the "redeeming relative" or "kinsman-redeemer."

Naomi had sold the family's land (Ruth 4:3), possibly to support herself and Ruth. That put Elimelech's nearest male relative in Bethlehem in position to act as the redeeming relative (3:12; 4:4). This man, who initially agreed to repurchase the land (4:4), changed his mind when he learned that he would also have to marry Ruth—a requirement of the law of levirate marriage. The transaction would have jeopardized his immediate family's financial situation and inheritance (see below).

That left Boaz, as the next closest male relative to Elimelech, with the choice to act as the redeeming relative (2:1, 20; 3:12; 4:4) and to marry Ruth. The decision probably cost him dearly; he would have had to consider not only the value of the land but also the loss of a potential dowry that could have come through a different match.

The Law of Inheritance

Ownership of land in Israel was determined through male heirs. Because Elimelech's sons had died without fathering children, he had no heirs (Ruth 1:5). So when Naomi sold the family's land, she sold its inheritance. Unless a redeeming relative repurchased the land, it would be lost to another family, at least until the next Jubilee year, when it was scheduled to revert to its original owner (see "The Year of Jubilee" at Lev. 25:8–17).

The initial, unnamed redeeming relative was glad to repurchase Elimelech's land (Ruth 4:4). But when he realized that doing so would also mean taking Ruth as his wife, he changed his mind (4:6). Any male children that he fathered by Ruth would be legally considered the sons of Ruth's first husband. (This was known as the law of levirate marriage; see below.) The land would never pass into his own family's possession, and he would ruin his family's inheritance by spending his wealth to repurchase Elimelech's land.

The Law of Levirate Marriage

Without the law of levirate marriage, a man's dying without sons would have created at least two potential problems. If a widow remarried outside the family, her family's inheritance passed to her new family. Yet without remarrying, the widow might have no male family members to support her.

The law of levirate marriage addressed these issues. If a man died without leaving children, the man's brother or nearest male relative was expected to marry the man's widow and father an heir. The child was legally considered the child of the deceased man.

Naomi was presumably past her childbearing years, so the law of levirate marriage no longer applied to her. But it evidently still applied to Ruth, who by marrying into Elimelech's family could provide an heir. The unnamed redeeming relative was not aware of his responsibility to Ruth until Boaz pointed it out (Ruth 4:5). At that point, the relative declined to buy the land.

As the next closest relative, Boaz had the responsibility to marry Ruth, and he fulfilled his levirate duty by fathering Obed (4:13, 21). According to the Law, Obed was counted as the son of Ruth's first husband and was therefore the heir of Elimelech. The women of Bethlehem acknowledged this fact by referring to Obed as "a son born to Naomi" (4:17).

The Elders at the Gate

The transaction between the unnamed redeeming relative and Boaz took place in the presence of Bethlehem's elders at the city's gates (Ruth 4:1), the customary setting for civic and economic deliberations (Deut. 25:7; Judg. 5:8, 11; 2 Sam. 19:8). A city's gates functioned much like courts or other public forums today.

Betrothal

A private transaction took place between Boaz and Ruth before his meeting with the elders. Following her mother-in-law's advice, Ruth approached Boaz at night and asked him to take her "under [his] wing" as her redeeming relative (Ruth 3:9). In effect, she asked Boaz to marry her by alerting him of his responsibility to give her and her deceased husband an heir. She was likely unaware that there was a closer male relative.

Boaz informed Ruth that another man had the first right of refusal to become her husband (3:12). If he declined, however, Boaz would be able to marry her (3:13). It was this circumstance that prompted Boaz to approach the elders at the gate.

The Law of the Sojourner

Ruth's situation was complicated by the fact that she was from Moab (Ruth 1:4). Her status as a sojourner, or foreigner, gave her privileges such as the right to glean fields, as long as she followed the Law (Lev. 19:10).

Yet the Law also declared that no Moabite could "enter the assembly of the LORD . . . forever" (Deut. 23:3), a consequence of Moabite hostility toward Israel during the wilderness journey (Num. 22–25; see also "Playing with Fire" at Num. 31:15, 16). Moabites were so abhorred that the Israelites were forbidden to "seek their peace [or] their prosperity" (Deut. 23:6).

Ruth had no reason to believe that she would fare well in Israel. Yet she insisted on traveling to Bethlehem with Naomi. She was reaching out to the Hebrews' God, if He would have her (Ruth 1:16–18). She was surprised when Boaz showed her kindness (2:10). In her behavior in the fields and toward her mother-in-law, Boaz recognized her reverence for the Lord and chose to extend grace to her (2:11, 12).

Think About It: How aware, do you suppose, was Ruth of the goodness of God? Name several present-day cultural technicalities that give you opportunity to express godly actions. What cultural technicalities challenge obedience to God? What might Ruth teach you about how, specifically, you can obey amidst these cultural details?

Boaz

Ruth 3:2

Name means: "Strength."

Home: Bethlehem in Judea (Ruth 1:19).

Family: Relative of Elimelech, Naomi's late husband; son of Salmon; Ruth's second husband; father of Obed, the grandfather of David.

Occupation: Wealthy wheat farmer with many hired hands.

Best known for: His kindness, generosity, and fairness toward the widow Ruth, whom he eventually married as her "kinsman-redeemer."

Think About It: Boaz demonstrates that love is most frequently an action rather than a feeling. What caring action do you do toward your spouse simply because it's the caring thing to do?

Naomi the Nurse

Ruth 4:16

Naomi's bitter years ended in joy when her daughter-in-law gave birth to Obed. Naomi became a nurse to the infant, a function taken on by many older women in ancient Hebrew society. Some family nurses were highly honored and served over multiple generations (for example, Gen. 24:59; 35:8).

Think About It: No matter what has troubled your past, what joy is God bringing into this year for you? How does He want you to be His agent of joy to someone else?

The Christian faith rests on actual events that happened to real people whose experiences are recorded in a reliable document, the Bible. The books of 1 and 2 Samuel relate a crucial development in this history as Israel transitioned into a kingdom and God installed David as His choice for the nation's king. They demonstrate that the Lord reigns over the events of human existence. History is neither random nor irrelevant. God has a plan.

Given the centuries of decline described in the Book of Judges, God's appointment of a king over His people might seem long overdue. But the Lord often works through the choices of people and nations.

Israel's demand for a king was based on the chronic moral and spiritual breakdowns that occurred under the judges (see "Twelve Heroes" at Judg. 2:18). As 1 Samuel opens, we find Israel struggling once again under ineffective leadership. Disaster strikes when the Philistines capture the ark of the covenant (see the map at "The Capture and Return of the Ark" at 1 Sam. 5:11).

Though God graciously returned the ark to His people and established Samuel as their judge, the Israelites continued to debate about whether they should become a monarchy. Samuel's sons were unworthy to take his place, and there were no other obvious successors. The people consequently insisted that they have a king, a wish the Lord finally granted. Yet Scripture calls this request a "great wickedness" because it denied God's right to directly rule over His people (12:17; compare 8:7; 10:19; 12:12, 18–20). The problem was not the people's lack of a king but their unwillingness to serve the king they already had—the Lord. If the Israelites couldn't live in obedience to a perfect king, they were unlikely to follow a human king who had faults and failures.

Ironically, God was already working to elevate His choice of ruler to the throne. He allowed Saul to be anointed and reign temporarily, but soon David emerged. Though Saul endeavored to suppress him, David rose to power as the people's rightful leader.

The author of 1 and 2 Samuel is unknown. If Samuel himself wrote 1 Samuel, another writer must have completed the portion after Samuel's death at 1 Samuel 25:1. The events of these books take place in Israel and various adjoining territories (see the maps at "Mapping the Life of Samuel" at 1 Sam. 7:15; and "We Truly Do Influence History" at 2 Sam. 2:9–20). The Book of 1 Samuel begins with the birth of Samuel, the last of Israel's judges, probably around 1050 B.C., and ends with Saul's death around 1007 B.C.

Key People in 1 Samuel

- Hannah, a woman cruelly taunted for her barrenness by her husband's other wife. When God rewarded Hannah with a son, she gave him back to the Lord as a sign of gratitude (1 Sam. 1:2).
- Eli, a priest of Shiloh and inept leader whose failure brought about some of Israel's darkest days, including the capture of the ark of the covenant by the Philistines (1 Sam. 1:9).
- Samuel, the judge and prophet who anointed King Saul and King David (1 Sam. 3:1).
- Joel and Abijah, Samuel's two sons whose injustices sparked a movement to draft a king (1 Sam. 8:2).
- Saul, Israel's first king. He was an impressive man and the people's choice as ruler, but he was prone to follow his own path rather than the Lord's (1 Sam. 9:2).

- David, a young shepherd boy chosen by God to govern His people as Israel's first great king (1 Sam. 16:12).
- Goliath, the giant champion of the Philistines. He didn't realize that God was with the boy David, who attacked him with nothing but a slingshot, resulting in a rout of the Philistines and the beginning of David's rise to power (1 Sam. 17:4).
- Michal, Saul's daughter who loved David despite Saul's hatred of him. Saul hoped his treacherous requirements would kill off his nemesis, but the plan backfired and Saul ended up with David as a son-in-law (1 Sam. 18:20).
- Jonathan, son of Saul and David's best and most loyal friend (1 Sam. 19:1).
- Nabal ("Fool"), a man who lived up to his name in his dealings with David. His wife Abigail's wisdom saved her family from violence (1 Sam. 25:3).
- The medium of Endor, a sorceress that Saul consulted to summon Samuel from the dead, an encounter that revealed how far Saul had fallen (1 Sam. 28:7).

Key Events in 1 Samuel

- The boy Samuel hears God's voice during the night (1 Sam. 3).
- The Israelites demand a king (1 Sam. 8).
- David is anointed king (1 Sam. 16:1–13).
- David kills the Philistine champion Goliath (1 Sam. 17).
- David and Jonathan become close friends (1 Sam. 18–20).

- Saul and his sons die in battle (1 Sam. 31).

1 Samuel 1

The Family of Elkanah

1 Now there was a certain man of Ramathaim Zophim, of the mountains of Ephraim, and his name was Elkanah the son of Jeroham, the son of Elihu,[a] the son of Tohu,[b] the son of Zuph, an Ephraimite.

2 And he had two wives: the name of one was Hannah, and the name of the other Peninnah. Peninnah had children, but Hannah had no children. Hannah

3 This man went up from his city yearly to worship and sacrifice to the LORD of hosts in Shiloh. Also the two sons of Eli, Hophni and Phinehas, the priests of the LORD, were
there.

4 And whenever the time came for Elkanah to make an offering, he would give portions to Peninnah his wife and to all her sons and daughters.

5 But to Hannah he would give a double portion, for he loved Hannah, although the LORD had closed her womb.

6 And her rival also provoked her severely, to make her miserable, because the LORD had closed her womb.

7 So it was, year by year, when she went up to the house of the LORD, that she provoked her; therefore she wept and did not eat.

Hannah's Vow

8 Then Elkanah her husband said to her, "Hannah, why do you weep? Why do you not eat? And why is your heart grieved? Am I not better to you than ten sons?"

9 So Hannah arose after they had finished eating and drinking in Shiloh. Now Eli the priest was sitting on the seat by the doorpost of the tabernacle[c] of the LORD. Eli

10 And she was in bitterness of soul, and prayed to the LORD and wept in anguish.
11 Then she made a vow and said, “O LORD of hosts, if You will indeed look on the affliction of Your maidservant and remember me, and not forget Your maidservant, but will give Your maidservant a male child, then I will give him to the LORD all the days of his life, and no razor shall come upon his head.”
12 And it happened, as she continued praying before the LORD, that Eli watched her mouth.
13 Now Hannah spoke in her heart; only her lips moved, but her voice was not heard. Therefore Eli thought she was drunk.
14 So Eli said to her, “How long will you be drunk? Put your wine away from you!” 15 But Hannah answered and said, “No, my lord, I am a woman of sorrowful spirit. I have drunk neither wine nor intoxicating drink, but have poured out my soul before the LORD.
16 “Do not consider your maidservant a wicked woman,[d] for out of the abundance of my complaint and grief I have spoken until now.”
17 Then Eli answered and said, “Go in peace, and the God of Israel grant your petition which you have asked of Him.” 18 And she said, “Let your maidservant find favor in your sight.” So the woman went her way and ate, and her face was no longer sad.

Samuel Is Born and Dedicated

19 Then they rose early in the morning and worshiped before the LORD, and returned and came to their house at Ramah. And Elkanah knew Hannah his wife, and the LORD remembered her.

20 So it came to pass in the process of time that Hannah conceived and bore a son, and called his name Samuel,[e] saying, "Because I have asked for him from the LORD." 21 Now the man Elkanah and all his house went up to offer to the LORD the yearly sacrifice and his vow.
22 But Hannah did not go up, for she said to her husband,
"Not until the child is weaned; then I will take him, that he may appear before the LORD and remain there forever." 23 So Elkanah her husband said to her, "Do what seems best to you; wait until you have weaned him. Only let the LORD establish His[f] word." Then the woman stayed and nursed her son until she had weaned him.
24 Now when she had weaned him, she took him up with her, with three bulls,[g] one ephah of flour, and a skin of wine, and brought him to the house of the LORD in Shiloh.
And the child was young.
25 Then they slaughtered a bull, and brought the child to Eli.
26 And she said, "O my lord! As your soul lives, my lord, I am the woman who stood by you here, praying to the
LORD.
27 "For this child I prayed, and the LORD has granted me my petition which I asked of Him.
28 "Therefore I also have lent him to the LORD; as long as he lives he shall be lent to the LORD." So they worshiped the LORD there.

1 Samuel 2

Hannah's Prayer

1 And Hannah prayed and said:

"My heart rejoices in the LORD;
My horn[a] is exalted in the LORD.
I smile at my enemies,
Because I rejoice in Your salvation. Hannah's Song: Praise for the Real King

2 "No one is holy like the LORD,
For there is none besides You,
Nor is there any rock like our God.

3 "Talk no more so very proudly;
Let no arrogance come from your mouth,
For the LORD is the God of knowledge;
And by Him actions are weighed.

4 "The bows of the mighty men are broken,
And those who stumbled are girded with strength.
5 Those who were full have hired themselves out for bread,
And the hungry have ceased to hunger.
Even the barren has borne seven,
And she who has many children has become feeble.

6 "The LORD kills and makes alive;
He brings down to the grave and brings up.
7 The LORD makes poor and makes rich;

He brings low and lifts up.
8He raises the poor from the dust
And lifts the beggar from the ash heap,
To set them among princes
And make them inherit the throne of glory.

"For the pillars of the earth are the LORD's,
And He has set the world upon them.
9He will guard the feet of His saints,
But the wicked shall be silent in darkness.

"For by strength no man shall prevail.
10The adversaries of the LORD shall be broken in pieces;
From heaven He will thunder against them.
The LORD will judge the ends of the earth.

"He will give strength to His king,
And exalt the horn of His anointed."

11Then Elkanah went to his house at Ramah. But the child ministered to the LORD before Eli the priest.

The Wicked Sons of Eli

12Now the sons of Eli were corrupt;[b] they did not know the LORD. Eli, the Failed Leader of Shiloh

13And the priests' custom with the people was that when any man offered a sacrifice, the priest's servant would come with a three-pronged fleshhook in his hand while the meat was boiling.

14Then he would thrust it into the pan, or kettle, or caldron, or pot; and the priest would take for himself all that the fleshhook brought up. So they did in Shiloh to all the Israelites who came there.

15 Also, before they burned the fat, the priest's servant would come and say to the man who sacrificed, "Give meat for roasting to the priest, for he will not take boiled meat from you, but raw."
16 And if the man said to him, "They should really burn the fat first; then you may take as much as your heart desires," he would then answer him, "No, but you must give it now; and if not, I will take it by force." 17 Therefore the sin of the young men was very great before the LORD, for men abhorred the offering of the LORD.

Samuel's Childhood Ministry

18 But Samuel ministered before the LORD, even as a child, wearing a linen ephod.
19 Moreover his mother used to make him a little robe, and bring it to him year by year when she came up with her husband to offer the yearly sacrifice.
20 And Eli would bless Elkanah and his wife, and say, "The LORD give you descendants from this woman for the loan that was given to the LORD." Then they would go to their own home.
21 And the LORD visited Hannah, so that she conceived and bore three sons and two daughters. Meanwhile the child Samuel grew before the LORD.

Prophecy Against Eli's Household

22 Now Eli was very old; and he heard everything his sons did to all Israel,[c] and how they lay with the women who assembled at the door of the tabernacle of meeting.
23 So he said to them, "Why do you do such things? For I hear of your evil dealings from all the people.
24 "No, my sons! For it is not a good report that I hear.
You make the LORD's people transgress.

25 “If one man sins against another, God will judge him.
But if a man sins against the LORD, who will intercede for him?” Nevertheless they did not heed the voice of their father, because the LORD desired to kill them.
26 And the child Samuel grew in stature, and in favor both with the LORD and men.
27 Then a man of God came to Eli and said to him, “Thus says the LORD: ‘Did I not clearly reveal Myself to the house of your father when they were in Egypt in Pharaoh’s house?

Coming Judgment

28 ‘Did I not choose him out of all the tribes of Israel to be My priest, to offer upon My altar, to burn incense, and to wear an ephod before Me? And did I not give to the house of your father all the offerings of the children of Israel
made by fire?
29 ‘Why do you kick at My sacrifice and My offering which I have commanded in My dwelling place, and honor your sons more than Me, to make yourselves fat with the best of all the offerings of Israel My people?’ Is It Love or Indulgence?
30 “Therefore the LORD God of Israel says: ‘I said indeed that your house and the house of your father would walk before Me forever.’ But now the LORD says: ‘Far be it from Me; for those who honor Me I will honor, and those who despise Me shall be lightly esteemed.
31 ‘Behold, the days are coming that I will cut off your arm and the arm of your father’s house, so that there will not be an old man in your house.
32 ‘And you will see an enemy in My dwelling place, despite all the good which God does for Israel. And there shall not be an old man in your house forever.
33 ‘But any of your men whom I do not cut off from My altar shall consume your eyes and grieve your heart. And all the descendants of your house shall die in the flower of their age.

34 ‘Now this shall be a sign to you that will come upon your two sons, on Hophni and Phinehas: in one day they shall die, both of them.
35 ‘Then I will raise up for Myself a faithful priest who shall do according to what is in My heart and in My mind. I will build him a sure house, and he shall walk before My anointed forever.
36 ‘And it shall come to pass that everyone who is left in your house will come and bow down to him for a piece of silver and a morsel of bread, and say, “Please, put me in one of the priestly positions, that I may eat a piece of bread.” ’ ”

1 Samuel 3

Samuel's First Prophecy

1 Now the boy Samuel ministered to the LORD before Eli.
And the word of the LORD was rare in those days; there was no widespread revelation. Samuel All Christians Are Called, in All of Life

2 And it came to pass at that time, while Eli was lying down in his place, and when his eyes had begun to grow so dim that he could not see,

3 and before the lamp of God went out in the tabernacle[a] of the LORD where the ark of God was, and while Samuel was lying down,

4 that the LORD called Samuel. And he answered, "Here I am!"

5 So he ran to Eli and said, "Here I am, for you called me."
And he said, "I did not call; lie down again." And he went and lay down.

6 Then the LORD called yet again, "Samuel!" So Samuel arose and went to Eli, and said, "Here I am, for you called me." He answered, "I did not call, my son; lie down again."

7 (Now Samuel did not yet know the LORD, nor was the word of the LORD yet revealed to him.)

8 And the LORD called Samuel again the third time. So he arose and went to Eli, and said, "Here I am, for you did call me." Then Eli perceived that the LORD had called the boy.

9 Therefore Eli said to Samuel, "Go, lie down; and it shall be, if He calls you, that you must say, 'Speak, LORD, for Your servant hears.' " So Samuel went and lay down in his place.

10 Now the LORD came and stood and called as at other times, "Samuel! Samuel!" And Samuel answered, "Speak, for Your servant hears.”

11 Then the LORD said to Samuel: “Behold, I will do something in Israel at which both ears of everyone who hears it will tingle.

12 “In that day I will perform against Eli all that I have spoken concerning his house, from beginning to end.

13 “For I have told him that I will judge his house forever for the iniquity which he knows, because his sons made themselves vile, and he did not restrain them. A Lack of Restraint

14 “And therefore I have sworn to the house of Eli that the iniquity of Eli’s house shall not be atoned for by sacrifice or offering forever.”

15 So Samuel lay down until morning,[b] and opened the doors of the house of the LORD. And Samuel was afraid to tell Eli the vision.

16 Then Eli called Samuel and said, “Samuel, my son!” He answered, “Here I am.”

17 And he said, “What is the word that the LORD spoke to you? Please do not hide it from me. God do so to you, and more also, if you hide anything from me of all the things that He said to you.”

18 Then Samuel told him everything, and hid nothing from him. And he said, “It is the LORD. Let Him do what seems good to Him.”

19 So Samuel grew, and the LORD was with him and let none of his words fall to the ground.

20 And all Israel from Dan to Beersheba knew that Samuel had been established as a prophet of the LORD.

21 Then the LORD appeared again in Shiloh. For the LORD revealed Himself to Samuel in Shiloh by the word of the LORD. Faithful Service

1 Samuel 4

1 And the word of Samuel came to all Israel.[a]

The Ark of God Captured

Now Israel went out to battle against the Philistines, and encamped beside Ebenezer; and the Philistines encamped in Aphek.

2 Then the Philistines put themselves in battle array against Israel. And when they joined battle, Israel was defeated by the Philistines, who killed about four thousand men of the army in the field.

3 And when the people had come into the camp, the elders of Israel said, “Why has the LORD defeated us today before the Philistines? Let us bring the ark of the covenant of the LORD from Shiloh to us, that when it comes among us it may save us from the hand of our enemies.”

4 So the people sent to Shiloh, that they might bring from there the ark of the covenant of the LORD of hosts, who dwells between the cherubim. And the two sons of Eli, Hophni and Phinehas, were there with the ark of the covenant of God.

5 And when the ark of the covenant of the LORD came into the camp, all Israel shouted so loudly that the earth shook.

6 Now when the Philistines heard the noise of the shout, they said, “What does the sound of this great shout in the camp of the Hebrews mean?” Then they understood that the ark of the LORD had come into the camp.

7 So the Philistines were afraid, for they said, “God has come into the camp!” And they said, “Woe to us! For such a thing has never happened before.

8 “Woe to us! Who will deliver us from the hand of these mighty gods? These are the gods who struck the Egyptians with all the plagues in the wilderness.
9 “Be strong and conduct yourselves like men, you Philistines, that you do not become servants of the Hebrews, as they have been to you. Conduct yourselves like men, and fight!”
10 So the Philistines fought, and Israel was defeated, and every man fled to his tent. There was a very great slaughter, and there fell of Israel thirty thousand foot soldiers.
11 Also the ark of God was captured; and the two sons of Eli, Hophni and Phinehas, died.

Death of Eli

12 Then a man of Benjamin ran from the battle line the same day, and came to Shiloh with his clothes torn and dirt on his head.
13 Now when he came, there was Eli, sitting on a seat by the wayside watching,[b] for his heart trembled for the ark of God. And when the man came into the city and told it, all the city cried out.
14 When Eli heard the noise of the outcry, he said, “What does the sound of this tumult mean?” And the man came quickly and told Eli.
15 Eli was ninety-eight years old, and his eyes were so dim that he could not see.
16 Then the man said to Eli, “I am he who came from the battle. And I fled today from the battle line.” And he said, “What happened, my son?”
17 So the messenger answered and said, “Israel has fled before the Philistines, and there has been a great slaughter among the people. Also your two sons, Hophni and Phinehas, are dead; and the ark of God has been captured.”

18 Then it happened, when he made mention of the ark of God, that Eli fell off the seat backward by the side of the gate; and his neck was broken and he died, for the man was old and heavy. And he had judged Israel forty years.

Ichabod

19 Now his daughter-in-law, Phinehas' wife, was with child, due to be delivered; and when she heard the news that the ark of God was captured, and that her father-in-law and her husband were dead, she bowed herself and gave birth, for her labor pains came upon her.
20 And about the time of her death the women who stood by her said to her, "Do not fear, for you have borne a son."
But she did not answer, nor did she regard it.
21 Then she named the child Ichabod,[c] saying, "The glory has departed from Israel!" because the ark of God had been captured and because of her father-in-law and her husband.
22 And she said, "The glory has departed from Israel, for the ark of God has been captured."

1 Samuel 5

The Philistines and the Ark

1 Then the Philistines took the ark of God and brought it from Ebenezer to Ashdod.
2 When the Philistines took the ark of God, they brought it into the house of Dagon[a] and set it by Dagon.
3 And when the people of Ashdod arose early in the morning, there was Dagon, fallen on its face to the earth before the ark of the LORD. So they took Dagon and set it in its place again.
4 And when they arose early the next morning, there was Dagon, fallen on its face to the ground before the ark of the LORD. The head of Dagon and both the palms of its hands were broken off on the threshold; only Dagon's torso[b] was left of it.
5 Therefore neither the priests of Dagon nor any who come into Dagon's house tread on the threshold of Dagon in Ashdod to this day.
6 But the hand of the LORD was heavy on the people of Ashdod, and He ravaged them and struck them with tumors,[c] both Ashdod and its territory.
7 And when the men of Ashdod saw how it was, they said,
"The ark of the God of Israel must not remain with us, for His hand is harsh toward us and Dagon our god." 8 Therefore they sent and gathered to themselves all the lords of the Philistines, and said, "What shall we do with the ark of the God of Israel?" And they answered, "Let the ark of the God of Israel be carried away to Gath." So they carried the ark of the God of Israel away.
9 So it was, after they had carried it away, that the hand of the LORD was against the city with a very great destruction; and He struck the men of the city, both small and great, and tumors broke out on them.

10 Therefore they sent the ark of God to Ekron. So it was, as the ark of God came to Ekron, that the Ekronites cried out, saying, “They have brought the ark of the God of Israel to us, to kill us and our people!”

11 So they sent and gathered together all the lords of the Philistines, and said, “Send away the ark of the God of Israel, and let it go back to its own place, so that it does not kill us and our people.” For there was a deadly destruction throughout all the city; the hand of God was very heavy there. The Capture and Return of the Ark

12 And the men who did not die were stricken with the tumors, and the cry of the city went up to heaven.

1 Samuel 6

The Ark Returned to Israel

1 Now the ark of the LORD was in the country of the Philistines seven months.

2 And the Philistines called for the priests and the diviners, saying, “What shall we do with the ark of the LORD? Tell us how we should send it to its place.”

3 So they said, “If you send away the ark of the God of Israel, do not send it empty; but by all means return it to Him with a trespass offering. Then you will be healed, and it will be known to you why His hand is not removed from
you.”

4 Then they said, “What is the trespass offering which we shall return to Him?” They answered, “Five golden tumors and five golden rats, according to the number of the lords of the Philistines. For the same plague was on all of you and on your lords.

5 “Therefore you shall make images of your tumors and images of your rats that ravage the land, and you shall give glory to the God of Israel; perhaps He will lighten His hand from you, from your gods, and from your land.

6 “Why then do you harden your hearts as the Egyptians and Pharaoh hardened their hearts? When He did mighty things among them, did they not let the people go, that they might depart?

7 “Now therefore, make a new cart, take two milk cows which have never been yoked, and hitch the cows to the cart; and take their calves home, away from them.

8 “Then take the ark of the LORD and set it on the cart;
and put the articles of gold which you are returning to Him as a trespass offering in a chest by its side. Then send it away, and let it go.

9 “And watch: if it goes up the road to its own territory, to Beth Shemesh, then He has done us this great evil. But if not, then we shall know that it is not His hand that struck us—it happened to us by chance.”
10 Then the men did so; they took two milk cows and hitched them to the cart, and shut up their calves at home.
11 And they set the ark of the LORD on the cart, and the chest with the gold rats and the images of their tumors.
12 Then the cows headed straight for the road to Beth Shemesh, and went along the highway, lowing as they went, and did not turn aside to the right hand or the left.
And the lords of the Philistines went after them to the border of Beth Shemesh.
13 Now the people of Beth Shemesh were reaping their wheat harvest in the valley; and they lifted their eyes and saw the ark, and rejoiced to see it.
14 Then the cart came into the field of Joshua of Beth Shemesh, and stood there; a large stone was there. So they split the wood of the cart and offered the cows as a burnt offering to the LORD.
15 The Levites took down the ark of the LORD and the chest that was with it, in which were the articles of gold, and put them on the large stone. Then the men of Beth Shemesh offered burnt offerings and made sacrifices the same day to the LORD.
16 So when the five lords of the Philistines had seen it,
they returned to Ekron the same day.
17 These are the golden tumors which the Philistines returned as a trespass offering to the LORD: one for Ashdod, one for Gaza, one for Ashkelon, one for Gath, one for Ekron;
18 and the golden rats, according to the number of all the cities of the Philistines belonging to the five lords, both fortified cities and country villages, even as far as the large stone of Abel on which they set the ark of the LORD, which stone remains to this day in the field of Joshua of Beth Shemesh.

19 Then He struck the men of Beth Shemesh, because they had looked into the ark of the LORD. He struck fifty thousand and seventy men[a] of the people, and the people lamented because the LORD had struck the people with a great slaughter.

The Ark at Kirjath Jearim

20 And the men of Beth Shemesh said, “Who is able to stand before this holy LORD God? And to whom shall it go up from us?”

21 So they sent messengers to the inhabitants of Kirjath Jearim, saying, “The Philistines have brought back the ark of the LORD; come down and take it up with you.”

1 Samuel 7

1Then the men of Kirjath Jearim came and took the ark of the LORD, and brought it into the house of Abinadab on the hill, and consecrated Eleazar his son to keep the ark of the LORD.

Samuel Judges Israel

2So it was that the ark remained in Kirjath Jearim a long time; it was there twenty years. And all the house of Israel lamented after the LORD.

3Then Samuel spoke to all the house of Israel, saying, "If you return to the LORD with all your hearts, then put away the foreign gods and the Ashtoreths[a] from among you, and prepare your hearts for the LORD, and serve Him only; and He will deliver you from the hand of the Philistines."

4So the children of Israel put away the Baals and the Ashtoreths,[b] and served the LORD only.

5And Samuel said, "Gather all Israel to Mizpah, and I will pray to the LORD for you." Samuel's Wise Planning

6So they gathered together at Mizpah, drew water, and poured it out before the LORD. And they fasted that day, and said there, "We have sinned against the LORD." And Samuel judged the children of Israel at Mizpah.

7Now when the Philistines heard that the children of Israel had gathered together at Mizpah, the lords of the Philistines went up against Israel. And when the children of Israel heard of it, they were afraid of the Philistines.

8So the children of Israel said to Samuel, "Do not cease to cry out to the LORD our God for us, that He may save us from the hand of the Philistines."

9And Samuel took a suckling lamb and offered it as a whole burnt offering to the LORD. Then Samuel cried out to the LORD for Israel, and the LORD answered him.

10Now as Samuel was offering up the burnt offering, the Philistines drew near to battle against Israel. But the LORD thundered with a loud thunder upon the Philistines that day, and so confused them that they were overcome before Israel.

11And the men of Israel went out of Mizpah and pursued the Philistines, and drove them back as far as below Beth Car.

12Then Samuel took a stone and set it up between Mizpah and Shen, and called its name Ebenezer,[c] saying, "Thus far the LORD has helped us."

13So the Philistines were subdued, and they did not come anymore into the territory of Israel. And the hand of the LORD was against the Philistines all the days of Samuel.

14Then the cities which the Philistines had taken from Israel were restored to Israel, from Ekron to Gath; and Israel recovered its territory from the hands of the Philistines. Also there was peace between Israel and the Amorites.

15And Samuel judged Israel all the days of his life. Mapping the Life of Samuel

16He went from year to year on a circuit to Bethel, Gilgal, and Mizpah, and judged Israel in all those places.

17But he always returned to Ramah, for his home was there. There he judged Israel, and there he built an altar to the LORD. Judging Israel

1 Samuel 8

Israel Demands a King

1 Now it came to pass when Samuel was old that he made his sons judges over Israel.
2 The name of his firstborn was Joel, and the name of his second, Abijah; they were judges in Beersheba. The Risks of Raising Children
3 But his sons did not walk in his ways; they turned aside after dishonest gain, took bribes, and perverted justice.
4 Then all the elders of Israel gathered together and came to Samuel at Ramah, The Kingmaker
5 and said to him, "Look, you are old, and your sons do not walk in your ways. Now make us a king to judge us like all the nations."
6 But the thing displeased Samuel when they said, "Give us a king to judge us." So Samuel prayed to the LORD.
7 And the LORD said to Samuel, "Heed the voice of the people in all that they say to you; for they have not rejected you, but they have rejected Me, that I should not reign over
them.
8 "According to all the works which they have done since the day that I brought them up out of Egypt, even to this day—with which they have forsaken Me and served other gods—so they are doing to you also.
9 "Now therefore, heed their voice. However, you shall solemnly forewarn them, and show them the behavior of the king who will reign over them." 10 So Samuel told all the words of the LORD to the people who asked him for a king.
11 And he said, "This will be the behavior of the king who will reign over you: He will take your sons and appoint them for his own chariots and to be his horsemen, and some will run before his chariots.

12 “He will appoint captains over his thousands and captains over his fifties, will set some to plow his ground and reap his harvest, and some to make his weapons of war and equipment for his chariots.

13 “He will take your daughters to be perfumers, cooks, and bakers.

14 “And he will take the best of your fields, your vineyards, and your olive groves, and give them to his servants.

15 “He will take a tenth of your grain and your vintage, and give it to his officers and servants.

16 “And he will take your male servants, your female servants, your finest young men,[a] and your donkeys, and put them to his work.

17 “He will take a tenth of your sheep. And you will be his servants.

18 “And you will cry out in that day because of your king whom you have chosen for yourselves, and the LORD will not hear you in that day.”

19 Nevertheless the people refused to obey the voice of Samuel; and they said, “No, but we will have a king over us,

20 “that we also may be like all the nations, and that our king may judge us and go out before us and fight our battles.”

21 And Samuel heard all the words of the people, and he repeated them in the hearing of the LORD.

22 So the LORD said to Samuel, “Heed their voice, and make them a king.” And Samuel said to the men of Israel, “Every man go to his city.”

1 Samuel 9

Saul Chosen to Be King

1There was a man of Benjamin whose name was Kish the son of Abiel, the son of Zeror, the son of Bechorath, the son of Aphiah, a Benjamite, a mighty man of power.

2And he had a choice and handsome son whose name was Saul. There was not a more handsome person than he among the children of Israel. From his shoulders upward he was taller than any of the people. Saul

3Now the donkeys of Kish, Saul's father, were lost. And Kish said to his son Saul, "Please take one of the servants with you, and arise, go and look for the donkeys."

4So he passed through the mountains of Ephraim and through the land of Shalisha, but they did not find them.
Then they passed through the land of Shaalim, and they were not there. Then he passed through the land of the Benjamites, but they did not find them.

5When they had come to the land of Zuph, Saul said to his servant who was with him, "Come, let us return, lest my father cease caring about the donkeys and become worried about us."

6And he said to him, "Look now, there is in this city a man of God, and he is an honorable man; all that he says surely comes to pass. So let us go there; perhaps he can show us the way that we should go."

7Then Saul said to his servant, "But look, if we go, what shall we bring the man? For the bread in our vessels is all gone, and there is no present to bring to the man of God.
What do we have?"

8And the servant answered Saul again and said, "Look, I have here at hand one-fourth of a shekel of silver. I will give that to the man of God, to tell us our way."

9(Formerly in Israel, when a man went to inquire of God, he spoke thus: "Come, let us go to the seer"; for he who is now called a prophet was formerly called a seer.)

10Then Saul said to his servant, "Well said; come, let us go." So they went to the city where the man of God was.

11As they went up the hill to the city, they met some young women going out to draw water, and said to them, "Is the seer here?"

12And they answered them and said, "Yes, there he is, just ahead of you. Hurry now; for today he came to this city, because there is a sacrifice of the people today on the high place.

13"As soon as you come into the city, you will surely find him before he goes up to the high place to eat. For the people will not eat until he comes, because he must bless the sacrifice; afterward those who are invited will eat. Now therefore, go up, for about this time you will find him."

14So they went up to the city. As they were coming into the city, there was Samuel, coming out toward them on his way up to the high place.

15Now the LORD had told Samuel in his ear the day before Saul came, saying,

16"Tomorrow about this time I will send you a man from the land of Benjamin, and you shall anoint him commander over My people Israel, that he may save My people from the hand of the Philistines; for I have looked upon My people, because their cry has come to Me."

17So when Samuel saw Saul, the LORD said to him, "There he is, the man of whom I spoke to you. This one shall reign over My people."

18Then Saul drew near to Samuel in the gate, and said, "Please tell me, where is the seer's house?"

19 Samuel answered Saul and said, “I am the seer. Go up before me to the high place, for you shall eat with me today; and tomorrow I will let you go and will tell you all that is in your heart.
20 “But as for your donkeys that were lost three days ago, do not be anxious about them, for they have been found.
And on whom is all the desire of Israel? Is it not on you and on all your father’s house?” 21 And Saul answered and said, “Am I not a Benjamite, of the smallest of the tribes of Israel, and my family the least of all the families of the tribe[a] of Benjamin? Why then do you speak like this to me?”
22 Now Samuel took Saul and his servant and brought them into the hall, and had them sit in the place of honor among those who were invited; there were about thirty persons.
23 And Samuel said to the cook, “Bring the portion which I gave you, of which I said to you, ‘Set it apart.’ ” 24 So the cook took up the thigh with its upper part and set it before Saul. And Samuel said, “Here it is, what was kept back. It was set apart for you. Eat; for until this time it has been kept for you, since I said I invited the people.” So Saul ate with Samuel that day.
25 When they had come down from the high place into the city, Samuel spoke with Saul on the top of the house.[b] 26 They arose early; and it was about the dawning of the day that Samuel called to Saul on the top of the house, saying, “Get up, that I may send you on your way.” And Saul arose, and both of them went outside, he and Samuel.

Saul Anointed King

27 As they were going down to the outskirts of the city,
Samuel said to Saul, “Tell the servant to go on ahead of us.”

And he went on. “But you stand here awhile, that I may announce to you the word of God.”

1 Samuel 10

1 Then Samuel took a flask of oil and poured it on his head, and kissed him and said: "Is it not because the LORD has anointed you commander over His inheritance?[a] 2 "When you have departed from me today, you will find two men by Rachel's tomb in the territory of Benjamin at Zelzah; and they will say to you, 'The donkeys which you went to look for have been found. And now your father has ceased caring about the donkeys and is worrying about you, saying, "What shall I do about my son?" ' 3 "Then you shall go on forward from there and come to the terebinth tree of Tabor. There three men going up to God at Bethel will meet you, one carrying three young goats, another carrying three loaves of bread, and another carrying a skin of wine.
4 "And they will greet you and give you two loaves of bread, which you shall receive from their hands.
5 "After that you shall come to the hill of God where the Philistine garrison is. And it will happen, when you have come there to the city, that you will meet a group of prophets coming down from the high place with a stringed instrument, a tambourine, a flute, and a harp before them;
and they will be prophesying.
6 "Then the Spirit of the LORD will come upon you, and you will prophesy with them and be turned into another man.
7 "And let it be, when these signs come to you, that you do as the occasion demands; for God is with you.
8 "You shall go down before me to Gilgal; and surely I will come down to you to offer burnt offerings and make sacrifices of peace offerings. Seven days you shall wait, till I come to you and show you what you should do."

9So it was, when he had turned his back to go from Samuel, that God gave him another heart; and all those signs came to pass that day.

10When they came there to the hill, there was a group of prophets to meet him; then the Spirit of God came upon him, and he prophesied among them.

11And it happened, when all who knew him formerly saw that he indeed prophesied among the prophets, that the people said to one another, “What is this that has come upon the son of Kish? Is Saul also among the prophets?”

12Then a man from there answered and said, “But who is their father?” Therefore it became a proverb: “Is Saul also among the prophets?”

13And when he had finished prophesying, he went to the high place.

14Then Saul’s uncle said to him and his servant, “Where did you go?” So he said, “To look for the donkeys. When we saw that they were nowhere to be found, we went to Samuel.”

15And Saul’s uncle said, “Tell me, please, what Samuel said to you.”

16So Saul said to his uncle, “He told us plainly that the donkeys had been found.” But about the matter of the kingdom, he did not tell him what Samuel had said.

Saul Proclaimed King

17Then Samuel called the people together to the LORD at Mizpah,

18and said to the children of Israel, “Thus says the LORD God of Israel: ‘I brought up Israel out of Egypt, and delivered you from the hand of the Egyptians and from the hand of all kingdoms and from those who oppressed you.’

19“But you have today rejected your God, who Himself saved you from all your adversities and your tribulations;

and you have said to Him, ‘No, set a king over us!’ Now therefore, present yourselves before the LORD by your tribes and by your clans.”[b]

20And when Samuel had caused all the tribes of Israel to come near, the tribe of Benjamin was chosen.

21When he had caused the tribe of Benjamin to come near by their families, the family of Matri was chosen. And Saul the son of Kish was chosen. But when they sought him, he could not be found.

22Therefore they inquired of the LORD further, “Has the man come here yet?” And the LORD answered, “There he is, hidden among the equipment.”

23So they ran and brought him from there; and when he stood among the people, he was taller than any of the people from his shoulders upward.

24And Samuel said to all the people, “Do you see him whom the LORD has chosen, that there is no one like him among all the people?” So all the people shouted and said, “Long live the king!”

25Then Samuel explained to the people the behavior of royalty, and wrote it in a book and laid it up before the LORD. And Samuel sent all the people away, every man to his house.

26And Saul also went home to Gibeah; and valiant men went with him, whose hearts God had touched.

27But some rebels said, “How can this man save us?” So they despised him, and brought him no presents. But he held his peace.

1 Samuel 11

Saul Saves Jabesh Gilead

1 Then Nahash the Ammonite came up and encamped against Jabesh Gilead; and all the men of Jabesh said to Nahash, “Make a covenant with us, and we will serve you.”
2 And Nahash the Ammonite answered them, “On this condition I will make a covenant with you, that I may put out all your right eyes, and bring reproach on all Israel.” 3 Then the elders of Jabesh said to him, “Hold off for seven days, that we may send messengers to all the territory of Israel. And then, if there is no one to save us, we will come out to you.”
4 So the messengers came to Gibeah of Saul and told the news in the hearing of the people. And all the people lifted up their voices and wept.
5 Now there was Saul, coming behind the herd from the field; and Saul said, “What troubles the people, that they weep?” And they told him the words of the men of Jabesh.
6 Then the Spirit of God came upon Saul when he heard this news, and his anger was greatly aroused.
7 So he took a yoke of oxen and cut them in pieces, and sent them throughout all the territory of Israel by the hands of messengers, saying, “Whoever does not go out with Saul and Samuel to battle, so it shall be done to his oxen.” And the fear of the LORD fell on the people, and they came out with one consent.
8 When he numbered them in Bezek, the children of Israel were three hundred thousand, and the men of Judah thirty thousand.
9 And they said to the messengers who came, “Thus you shall say to the men of Jabesh Gilead: ‘Tomorrow, by the time the sun is hot, you shall have help.' " Then the messengers came and reported it to the men of Jabesh, and they were glad.

10 Therefore the men of Jabesh said, "Tomorrow we will come out to you, and you may do with us whatever seems good to you."

11 So it was, on the next day, that Saul put the people in three companies; and they came into the midst of the camp in the morning watch, and killed Ammonites until the heat of the day. And it happened that those who survived were scattered, so that no two of them were left together.

12 Then the people said to Samuel, "Who is he who said, 'Shall Saul reign over us?' Bring the men, that we may put them to death."

13 But Saul said, "Not a man shall be put to death this day, for today the LORD has accomplished salvation in Israel."

14 Then Samuel said to the people, "Come, let us go to Gilgal and renew the kingdom there."

15 So all the people went to Gilgal, and there they made Saul king before the LORD in Gilgal. There they made sacrifices of peace offerings before the LORD, and there Saul and all the men of Israel rejoiced greatly.

1 Samuel 12

Samuel's Address at Saul's Coronation

1 Now Samuel said to all Israel: "Indeed I have heeded your voice in all that you said to me, and have made a king over
you.
2 "And now here is the king, walking before you; and I am old and grayheaded, and look, my sons are with you. I have walked before you from my childhood to this day.
3 "Here I am. Witness against me before the LORD and before His anointed: Whose ox have I taken, or whose donkey have I taken, or whom have I cheated? Whom have I oppressed, or from whose hand have I received any bribe with which to blind my eyes? I will restore it to you." 4 And they said, "You have not cheated us or oppressed us, nor have you taken anything from any man's hand." 5 Then he said to them, "The LORD is witness against you, and His anointed is witness this day, that you have not found anything in my hand." And they answered, "He is witness."
6 Then Samuel said to the people, "It is the LORD who raised up Moses and Aaron, and who brought your fathers up from the land of Egypt.
7 "Now therefore, stand still, that I may reason with you before the LORD concerning all the righteous acts of the LORD which He did to you and your fathers:
8 "When Jacob had gone into Egypt,[a] and your fathers cried out to the LORD, then the LORD sent Moses and Aaron, who brought your fathers out of Egypt and made them dwell in this place.
9 "And when they forgot the LORD their God, He sold them into the hand of Sisera, commander of the army of Hazor, into the hand of the Philistines, and into the hand of the king of Moab; and they fought against them.

10 “Then they cried out to the LORD, and said, ‘We have sinned, because we have forsaken the LORD and served the Baals and Ashtoreths;[b] but now deliver us from the hand of our enemies, and we will serve You.’

11 “And the LORD sent Jerubbaal, [c]Bedan,[d] Jephthah, and Samuel,[e] and delivered you out of the hand of your enemies on every side; and you dwelt in safety. Learn from Your History

12 “And when you saw that Nahash king of the Ammonites came against you, you said to me, ‘No, but a king shall reign over us,’ when the LORD your God was your king.

13 “Now therefore, here is the king whom you have chosen and whom you have desired. And take note, the LORD has set a king over you.

14 “If you fear the LORD and serve Him and obey His voice, and do not rebel against the commandment of the LORD, then both you and the king who reigns over you will continue following the LORD your God.

15 “However, if you do not obey the voice of the LORD, but rebel against the commandment of the LORD, then the hand of the LORD will be against you, as it was against your fathers.

16 “Now therefore, stand and see this great thing which the LORD will do before your eyes:

17 “Is today not the wheat harvest? I will call to the LORD, and He will send thunder and rain, that you may perceive and see that your wickedness is great, which you have done in the sight of the LORD, in asking a king for yourselves.”

18 So Samuel called to the LORD, and the LORD sent thunder and rain that day; and all the people greatly feared the LORD and Samuel.

19 And all the people said to Samuel, “Pray for your servants to the LORD your God, that we may not die; for we have added to all our sins the evil of asking a king for ourselves.”

20 Then Samuel said to the people, “Do not fear. You have done all this wickedness; yet do not turn aside from following the LORD, but serve the LORD with all your heart.

21 “And do not turn aside; for then you would go after empty things which cannot profit or deliver, for they are nothing.

22 “For the LORD will not forsake His people, for His great name’s sake, because it has pleased the LORD to make you His people.

23 “Moreover, as for me, far be it from me that I should sin against the LORD in ceasing to pray for you; but I will teach you the good and the right way.

24 “Only fear the LORD, and serve Him in truth with all your heart; for consider what great things He has done for you.

25 “But if you still do wickedly, you shall be swept away, both you and your king.”

1 Samuel 13

Saul's Unlawful Sacrifice

1 Saul reigned one year; and when he had reigned two years over Israel,[a]
2 Saul chose for himself three thousand men of Israel.
Two thousand were with Saul in Michmash and in the mountains of Bethel, and a thousand were with Jonathan in Gibeah of Benjamin. The rest of the people he sent away, every man to his tent.
3 And Jonathan attacked the garrison of the Philistines that was in Geba, and the Philistines heard of it. Then Saul blew the trumpet throughout all the land, saying, "Let the Hebrews hear!"
4 Now all Israel heard it said that Saul had attacked a garrison of the Philistines, and that Israel had also become an abomination to the Philistines. And the people were called together to Saul at Gilgal.
5 Then the Philistines gathered together to fight with Israel, thirty[b] thousand chariots and six thousand horsemen, and people as the sand which is on the seashore in multitude. And they came up and encamped in Michmash, to the east of Beth Aven.
6 When the men of Israel saw that they were in danger (for the people were distressed), then the people hid in caves, in thickets, in rocks, in holes, and in pits.
7 And some of the Hebrews crossed over the Jordan to the land of Gad and Gilead. As for Saul, he was still in Gilgal, and all the people followed him trembling.
8 Then he waited seven days, according to the time set by Samuel. But Samuel did not come to Gilgal; and the people were scattered from him. Results at Any Price? No

9So Saul said, “Bring a burnt offering and peace offerings here to me.” And he offered the burnt offering.

10Now it happened, as soon as he had finished presenting the burnt offering, that Samuel came; and Saul went out to meet him, that he might greet him.

11And Samuel said, “What have you done?” Saul said, “When I saw that the people were scattered from me, and that you did not come within the days appointed, and that the Philistines gathered together at Michmash,

12“then I said, ‘The Philistines will now come down on me at Gilgal, and I have not made supplication to the LORD.’ Therefore I felt compelled, and offered a burnt offering.”

13And Samuel said to Saul, “You have done foolishly. You have not kept the commandment of the LORD your God, which He commanded you. For now the LORD would have established your kingdom over Israel forever.

14“But now your kingdom shall not continue. The LORD has sought for Himself a man after His own heart, and the LORD has commanded him to be commander over His people, because you have not kept what the LORD commanded you.”

15Then Samuel arose and went up from Gilgal to Gibeah of Benjamin.[c] And Saul numbered the people present with him, about six hundred men.

No Weapons for the Army

16Saul, Jonathan his son, and the people present with them remained in Gibeah of Benjamin. But the Philistines encamped in Michmash.

17Then raiders came out of the camp of the Philistines in three companies. One company turned onto the road to Ophrah, to the land of Shual,

18another company turned to the road to Beth Horon, and another company turned to the road of the border that overlooks the Valley of Zeboim toward the wilderness.

19 Now there was no blacksmith to be found throughout all the land of Israel, for the Philistines said, “Lest the Hebrews make swords or spears.”

20 But all the Israelites would go down to the Philistines to sharpen each man’s plowshare, his mattock, his ax, and his sickle;

21 and the charge for a sharpening was a pim[d] for the plowshares, the mattocks, the forks, and the axes, and to set the points of the goads.

22 So it came about, on the day of battle, that there was neither sword nor spear found in the hand of any of the people who were with Saul and Jonathan. But they were found with Saul and Jonathan his son. Valiant Warrior, Loyal Friend

23 And the garrison of the Philistines went out to the pass of Michmash.

1 Samuel 14

Jonathan Defeats the Philistines

1 Now it happened one day that Jonathan the son of Saul said to the young man who bore his armor, “Come, let us go over to the Philistines’ garrison that is on the other side.”
But he did not tell his father.
2 And Saul was sitting in the outskirts of Gibeah under a pomegranate tree which is in Migron. The people who were with him were about six hundred men.
3 Ahijah the son of Ahitub, Ichabod’s brother, the son of Phinehas, the son of Eli, the LORD’s priest in Shiloh, was wearing an ephod. But the people did not know that Jonathan had gone.
4 Between the passes, by which Jonathan sought to go over to the Philistines’ garrison, there was a sharp rock on one side and a sharp rock on the other side. And the name of one was Bozez, and the name of the other Seneh.
5 The front of one faced northward opposite Michmash, and the other southward opposite Gibeah.
6 Then Jonathan said to the young man who bore his armor, “Come, let us go over to the garrison of these uncircumcised; it may be that the LORD will work for us.
For nothing restrains the LORD from saving by many or by few.” By Many or by Few 7 So his armorbearer said to him, “Do all that is in your heart. Go then; here I am with you, according to your heart.”
8 Then Jonathan said, “Very well, let us cross over to these men, and we will show ourselves to them.
9 “If they say thus to us, ‘Wait until we come to you,’ then we will stand still in our place and not go up to them.

10 “But if they say thus, ‘Come up to us,’ then we will go up. For the LORD has delivered them into our hand, and this will be a sign to us.” 11 So both of them showed themselves to the garrison of the Philistines. And the Philistines said, “Look, the Hebrews are coming out of the holes where they have hidden.”
12 Then the men of the garrison called to Jonathan and his armorbearer, and said, “Come up to us, and we will show you something.” Jonathan said to his armorbearer, “Come up after me, for the LORD has delivered them into the hand of Israel.”
13 And Jonathan climbed up on his hands and knees with his armorbearer after him; and they fell before Jonathan.
And as he came after him, his armorbearer killed them.
14 That first slaughter which Jonathan and his armorbearer made was about twenty men within about half an acre of land.[a] 15 And there was trembling in the camp, in the field, and among all the people. The garrison and the raiders also trembled; and the earth quaked, so that it was a very great trembling.
16 Now the watchmen of Saul in Gibeah of Benjamin looked, and there was the multitude, melting away; and they went here and there.
17 Then Saul said to the people who were with him, “Now call the roll and see who has gone from us.” And when they had called the roll, surprisingly, Jonathan and his armorbearer were not there.
18 And Saul said to Ahijah, “Bring the ark[b] of God here”
(for at that time the ark[c] of God was with the children of Israel).
19 Now it happened, while Saul talked to the priest, that the noise which was in the camp of the Philistines

continued to increase; so Saul said to the priest, “Withdraw your hand.”

20 Then Saul and all the people who were with him assembled, and they went to the battle; and indeed every man’s sword was against his neighbor, and there was very great confusion.

21 Moreover the Hebrews who were with the Philistines before that time, who went up with them into the camp from the surrounding country, they also joined the Israelites who were with Saul and Jonathan.

22 Likewise all the men of Israel who had hidden in the mountains of Ephraim, when they heard that the Philistines fled, they also followed hard after them in the battle.

23 So the LORD saved Israel that day, and the battle shifted to Beth Aven.

Saul’s Rash Oath

24 And the men of Israel were distressed that day, for Saul had placed the people under oath, saying, “Cursed is the man who eats any food until evening, before I have taken vengeance on my enemies.” So none of the people tasted food. Isolate Bravado

25 Now all the people of the land came to a forest; and there was honey on the ground.

26 And when the people had come into the woods, there was the honey, dripping; but no one put his hand to his mouth, for the people feared the oath.

27 But Jonathan had not heard his father charge the people with the oath; therefore he stretched out the end of the rod that was in his hand and dipped it in a honeycomb, and put his hand to his mouth; and his countenance brightened.

28 Then one of the people said, “Your father strictly charged the people with an oath, saying, ‘Cursed is the man who eats food this day.’ ” And the people were faint.

29But Jonathan said, “My father has troubled the land. Look now, how my countenance has brightened because I tasted a little of this honey.

30“How much better if the people had eaten freely today of the spoil of their enemies which they found! For now would there not have been a much greater slaughter among the Philistines?”

31Now they had driven back the Philistines that day from Michmash to Aijalon. So the people were very faint.

32And the people rushed on the spoil, and took sheep, oxen, and calves, and slaughtered them on the ground; and the people ate them with the blood.

33Then they told Saul, saying, “Look, the people are sinning against the LORD by eating with the blood!” So he said, “You have dealt treacherously; roll a large stone to me this day.”

34Then Saul said, “Disperse yourselves among the people, and say to them, ‘Bring me here every man’s ox and every man’s sheep, slaughter them here, and eat; and do not sin against the LORD by eating with the blood.’ ” So every one of the people brought his ox with him that night, and slaughtered it there.

35Then Saul built an altar to the LORD. This was the first altar that he built to the LORD.

36Now Saul said, “Let us go down after the Philistines by night, and plunder them until the morning light; and let us not leave a man of them.” And they said, “Do whatever seems good to you.” Then the priest said, “Let us draw near to God here.”

37So Saul asked counsel of God, “Shall I go down after the Philistines? Will You deliver them into the hand of Israel?” But He did not answer him that day.

38 And Saul said, “Come over here, all you chiefs of the people, and know and see what this sin was today.
39 “For as the LORD lives, who saves Israel, though it be in Jonathan my son, he shall surely die.” But not a man among all the people answered him.
40 Then he said to all Israel, “You be on one side, and my son Jonathan and I will be on the other side.” And the people said to Saul, “Do what seems good to you.” 41 Therefore Saul said to the LORD God of Israel, “Give a perfect lot.”[d] So Saul and Jonathan were taken, but the people escaped.
42 And Saul said, “Cast lots between my son Jonathan and me.” So Jonathan was taken.
43 Then Saul said to Jonathan, “Tell me what you have done.” And Jonathan told him, and said, “I only tasted a little honey with the end of the rod that was in my hand. So now I must die!”
44 Saul answered, “God do so and more also; for you shall surely die, Jonathan.”
45 But the people said to Saul, “Shall Jonathan die, who has accomplished this great deliverance in Israel? Certainly not! As the LORD lives, not one hair of his head shall fall to the ground, for he has worked with God this day.” So the people rescued Jonathan, and he did not die.
46 Then Saul returned from pursuing the Philistines, and the Philistines went to their own place.

Saul’s Continuing Wars

47 So Saul established his sovereignty over Israel, and fought against all his enemies on every side, against Moab, against the people of Ammon, against Edom, against the kings of Zobah, and against the Philistines. Wherever he turned, he harassed them.[e] The Harassment of the Edomites

[48]And he gathered an army and attacked the Amalekites, and delivered Israel from the hands of those who plundered them.

[49]The sons of Saul were Jonathan, Jishui,[f] and Malchishua. And the names of his two daughters were these: the name of the firstborn Merab, and the name of the younger Michal.

[50]The name of Saul's wife was Ahinoam the daughter of Ahimaaz. And the name of the commander of his army was Abner the son of Ner, Saul's uncle.

[51]Kish was the father of Saul, and Ner the father of Abner was the son of Abiel.

52Now there was fierce war with the Philistines all the days of Saul. And when Saul saw any strong man or any valiant man, he took him for himself.

1 Samuel 15

Saul Spares King Agag

1 Samuel also said to Saul, “The LORD sent me to anoint you king over His people, over Israel. Now therefore, heed the voice of the words of the LORD.

2 “Thus says the LORD of hosts: ‘I will punish Amalek for what he did to Israel, how he ambushed him on the way when he came up from Egypt.

3 ‘Now go and attack Amalek, and utterly destroy all that they have, and do not spare them. But kill both man and woman, infant and nursing child, ox and sheep, camel and donkey.’ ”

4 So Saul gathered the people together and numbered them in Telaim, two hundred thousand foot soldiers and ten thousand men of Judah.

5 And Saul came to a city of Amalek, and lay in wait in the valley.

6 Then Saul said to the Kenites, “Go, depart, get down from among the Amalekites, lest I destroy you with them.
For you showed kindness to all the children of Israel when they came up out of Egypt.” So the Kenites departed from among the Amalekites.

7 And Saul attacked the Amalekites, from Havilah all the way to Shur, which is east of Egypt.

8 He also took Agag king of the Amalekites alive, and utterly destroyed all the people with the edge of the sword.

9 But Saul and the people spared Agag and the best of the sheep, the oxen, the fatlings, the lambs, and all that was good, and were unwilling to utterly destroy them. But everything despised and worthless, that they utterly destroyed.

Saul Rejected as King

10Now the word of the LORD came to Samuel, saying,

11"I greatly regret that I have set up Saul as king, for he has turned back from following Me, and has not performed My commandments." And it grieved Samuel, and he cried out to the LORD all night.

12So when Samuel rose early in the morning to meet Saul, it was told Samuel, saying, "Saul went to Carmel, and indeed, he set up a monument for himself; and he has gone on around, passed by, and gone down to Gilgal."

13Then Samuel went to Saul, and Saul said to him, "Blessed are you of the LORD! I have performed the commandment of the LORD."

14But Samuel said, "What then is this bleating of the sheep in my ears, and the lowing of the oxen which I hear?"

15And Saul said, "They have brought them from the Amalekites; for the people spared the best of the sheep and the oxen, to sacrifice to the LORD your God; and the rest we have utterly destroyed."

16Then Samuel said to Saul, "Be quiet! And I will tell you what the LORD said to me last night." And he said to him, "Speak on."

17So Samuel said, "When you were little in your own eyes, were you not head of the tribes of Israel? And did not the LORD anoint you king over Israel?

18"Now the LORD sent you on a mission, and said, 'Go, and utterly destroy the sinners, the Amalekites, and fight against them until they are consumed.'

19"Why then did you not obey the voice of the LORD? Why did you swoop down on the spoil, and do evil in the sight of the LORD?"

20And Saul said to Samuel, "But I have obeyed the voice of the LORD, and gone on the mission on which the LORD sent me, and brought back Agag king of Amalek; I have utterly destroyed the Amalekites.

21 “But the people took of the plunder, sheep and oxen, the best of the things which should have been utterly destroyed, to sacrifice to the LORD your God in Gilgal.”
22 So Samuel said:

“Has the LORD as great delight in burnt offerings and sacrifices,
As in obeying the voice of the LORD?
Behold, to obey is better than sacrifice,
And to heed than the fat of rams.
23 For rebellion is as the sin of witchcraft,
And stubbornness is as iniquity and idolatry.
Because you have rejected the word of the LORD,
He also has rejected you from being king.”

24 Then Saul said to Samuel, “I have sinned, for I have transgressed the commandment of the LORD and your words, because I feared the people and obeyed their voice.

Confessions That Bring Healing

25 “Now therefore, please pardon my sin, and return with me, that I may worship the LORD.”
26 But Samuel said to Saul, “I will not return with you, for you have rejected the word of the LORD, and the LORD has rejected you from being king over Israel.”
27 And as Samuel turned around to go away, Saul seized the edge of his robe, and it tore.
28 So Samuel said to him, “The LORD has torn the kingdom of Israel from you today, and has given it to a neighbor of yours, who is better than you.
29 “And also the Strength of Israel will not lie nor relent. For He is not a man, that He should relent.”

30 Then he said, “I have sinned; yet honor me now, please, before the elders of my people and before Israel, and return with me, that I may worship the LORD your God.” 31 So Samuel turned back after Saul, and Saul worshiped
the LORD.
32 Then Samuel said, “Bring Agag king of the Amalekites here to me.” So Agag came to him cautiously. And Agag said, “Surely the bitterness of death is past.” 33 But Samuel said, “As your sword has made women childless, so shall your mother be childless among women.” And Samuel hacked Agag in pieces before the LORD in Gilgal.
34 Then Samuel went to Ramah, and Saul went up to his house at Gibeah of Saul.
35 And Samuel went no more to see Saul until the day of his death. Nevertheless Samuel mourned for Saul, and the LORD regretted that He had made Saul king over Israel.

1 Samuel 16

David Anointed King

1 Now the LORD said to Samuel, “How long will you mourn for Saul, seeing I have rejected him from reigning over Israel? Fill your horn with oil, and go; I am sending you to Jesse the Bethlehemite. For I have provided Myself a king among his sons.” Jesse

2 And Samuel said, “How can I go? If Saul hears it, he will kill me.” But the LORD said, “Take a heifer with you, and say, ‘I have come to sacrifice to the LORD.’

3 “Then invite Jesse to the sacrifice, and I will show you what you shall do; you shall anoint for Me the one I name
to you.”

4 So Samuel did what the LORD said, and went to Bethlehem. And the elders of the town trembled at his coming, and said, “Do you come peaceably?”

5 And he said, “Peaceably; I have come to sacrifice to the LORD. Sanctify yourselves, and come with me to the sacrifice.” Then he consecrated Jesse and his sons, and invited them to the sacrifice.

6 So it was, when they came, that he looked at Eliab and said, “Surely the LORD’s anointed is before Him!”

7 But the LORD said to Samuel, “Do not look at his appearance or at his physical stature, because I have refused him. For the LORD does not see as man sees;[a] for man looks at the outward appearance, but the LORD looks at the heart.”

8 So Jesse called Abinadab, and made him pass before Samuel. And he said, “Neither has the LORD chosen this one.”

9 Then Jesse made Shammah pass by. And he said, “Neither has the LORD chosen this one.”
10 Thus Jesse made seven of his sons pass before Samuel.
And Samuel said to Jesse, “The LORD has not chosen
these.”
11 And Samuel said to Jesse, “Are all the young men here?” Then he said, “There remains yet the youngest, and there he is, keeping the sheep.” And Samuel said to Jesse, “Send and bring him. For we will not sit down[b] till he comes here.”
12 So he sent and brought him in. Now he was ruddy, with bright eyes, and good-looking. And the LORD said, “Arise, anoint him; for this is the one!” David 13 Then Samuel took the horn of oil and anointed him in the midst of his brothers; and the Spirit of the LORD came upon David from that day forward. So Samuel arose and went to Ramah. A Man After God’s Own Heart

A Distressing Spirit Troubles Saul

14 But the Spirit of the LORD departed from Saul, and a distressing spirit from the LORD troubled him.
15 And Saul’s servants said to him, “Surely, a distressing spirit from God is troubling you.
16 “Let our master now command your servants, who are before you, to seek out a man who is a skillful player on the harp. And it shall be that he will play it with his hand when the distressing spirit from God is upon you, and you shall be well.”
17 So Saul said to his servants, “Provide me now a man who can play well, and bring him to me.” 18 Then one of the servants answered and said, “Look, I have seen a son of Jesse the Bethlehemite, who is skillful in playing, a mighty man of valor, a man of war, prudent in speech, and a handsome person; and the LORD is with him.”

19Therefore Saul sent messengers to Jesse, and said, “Send me your son David, who is with the sheep.”

20And Jesse took a donkey loaded with bread, a skin of wine, and a young goat, and sent them by his son David to Saul.

21So David came to Saul and stood before him. And he loved him greatly, and he became his armorbearer.

22Then Saul sent to Jesse, saying, “Please let David stand before me, for he has found favor in my sight.”

23And so it was, whenever the spirit from God was upon Saul, that David would take a harp and play it with his hand. Then Saul would become refreshed and well, and the distressing spirit would depart from him.

1 Samuel 17

David and Goliath

1 Now the Philistines gathered their armies together to battle, and were gathered at Sochoh, which belongs to Judah; they encamped between Sochoh and Azekah, in Ephes Dammim.
2 And Saul and the men of Israel were gathered together, and they encamped in the Valley of Elah, and drew up in battle array against the Philistines.
3 The Philistines stood on a mountain on one side, and Israel stood on a mountain on the other side, with a valley between them.
4 And a champion went out from the camp of the Philistines, named Goliath, from Gath, whose height was six cubits and a span. Goliath
5 He had a bronze helmet on his head, and he was armed with a coat of mail, and the weight of the coat was five thousand shekels of bronze.
6 And he had bronze armor on his legs and a bronze javelin between his shoulders.
7 Now the staff of his spear was like a weaver's beam, and his iron spearhead weighed six hundred shekels; and a shield-bearer went before him.
8 Then he stood and cried out to the armies of Israel, and said to them, "Why have you come out to line up for battle?
Am I not a Philistine, and you the servants of Saul? Choose a man for yourselves, and let him come down to me. Corporate Solidarity 9 "If he is able to fight with me and kill me, then we will be your servants. But if I prevail against him and kill him, then you shall be our servants and serve us."

10 And the Philistine said, “I defy the armies of Israel this day; give me a man, that we may fight together.” 11 When Saul and all Israel heard these words of the Philistine, they were dismayed and greatly afraid.
12 Now David was the son of that Ephrathite of Bethlehem Judah, whose name was Jesse, and who had eight sons. And the man was old, advanced in years, in the days of Saul.
13 The three oldest sons of Jesse had gone to follow Saul to the battle. The names of his three sons who went to the battle were Eliab the firstborn, next to him Abinadab, and the third Shammah.
14 David was the youngest. And the three oldest followed Saul.
15 But David occasionally went and returned from Saul to feed his father’s sheep at Bethlehem.
16 And the Philistine drew near and presented himself forty days, morning and evening.
17 Then Jesse said to his son David, “Take now for your brothers an ephah of this dried grain and these ten loaves, and run to your brothers at the camp.
18 “And carry these ten cheeses to the captain of their thousand, and see how your brothers fare, and bring back news of them.”
19 Now Saul and they and all the men of Israel were in the Valley of Elah, fighting with the Philistines.
20 So David rose early in the morning, left the sheep with a keeper, and took the things and went as Jesse had commanded him. And he came to the camp as the army was going out to the fight and shouting for the battle.
21 For Israel and the Philistines had drawn up in battle array, army against army.
22 And David left his supplies in the hand of the supply keeper, ran to the army, and came and greeted his brothers.

23 Then as he talked with them, there was the champion, the Philistine of Gath, Goliath by name, coming up from the armies of the Philistines; and he spoke according to the same words. So David heard them.

24 And all the men of Israel, when they saw the man, fled from him and were dreadfully afraid.

25 So the men of Israel said, “Have you seen this man who has come up? Surely he has come up to defy Israel; and it shall be that the man who kills him the king will enrich with great riches, will give him his daughter, and give his father’s house exemption from taxes in Israel.”

26 Then David spoke to the men who stood by him, saying, “What shall be done for the man who kills this Philistine and takes away the reproach from Israel? For who is this uncircumcised Philistine, that he should defy the armies of the living God?”

27 And the people answered him in this manner, saying, “So shall it be done for the man who kills him.”

28 Now Eliab his oldest brother heard when he spoke to the men; and Eliab’s anger was aroused against David, and he said, “Why did you come down here? And with whom have you left those few sheep in the wilderness? I know your pride and the insolence of your heart, for you have come down to see the battle.”

29 And David said, “What have I done now? Is there not a cause?”

30 Then he turned from him toward another and said the same thing; and these people answered him as the first ones did.

31 Now when the words which David spoke were heard, they reported them to Saul; and he sent for him.

32 Then David said to Saul, “Let no man’s heart fail because of him; your servant will go and fight with this Philistine.”

33And Saul said to David, “You are not able to go against this Philistine to fight with him; for you are a youth, and he a man of war from his youth.”

34But David said to Saul, “Your servant used to keep his father’s sheep, and when a lion or a bear came and took a lamb out of the flock, 35“I went out after it and struck it, and delivered the lamb from its mouth; and when it arose against me, I caught it by its beard, and struck and killed it.

36“Your servant has killed both lion and bear; and this uncircumcised Philistine will be like one of them, seeing he has defied the armies of the living God.”

37Moreover David said, “The LORD, who delivered me from the paw of the lion and from the paw of the bear, He will deliver me from the hand of this Philistine.” And Saul said to David, “Go, and the LORD be with you!”

38So Saul clothed David with his armor, and he put a bronze helmet on his head; he also clothed him with a coat of mail.

39David fastened his sword to his armor and tried to walk, for he had not tested them. And David said to Saul, “I cannot walk with these, for I have not tested them.” So David took them off.

40Then he took his staff in his hand; and he chose for himself five smooth stones from the brook, and put them in a shepherd’s bag, in a pouch which he had, and his sling was in his hand. And he drew near to the Philistine. A Battle of the Gods

41So the Philistine came, and began drawing near to David, and the man who bore the shield went before him.

42And when the Philistine looked about and saw David, he disdained him; for he was only a youth, ruddy and good-looking.

43So the Philistine said to David, “Am I a dog, that you come to me with sticks?” And the Philistine cursed David by his gods.
44And the Philistine said to David, “Come to me, and I will give your flesh to the birds of the air and the beasts of the field!”
45Then David said to the Philistine, “You come to me with a sword, with a spear, and with a javelin. But I come to you in the name of the LORD of hosts, the God of the armies of Israel, whom you have defied.
46“This day the LORD will deliver you into my hand, and I will strike you and take your head from you. And this day I will give the carcasses of the camp of the Philistines to the birds of the air and the wild beasts of the earth, that all the earth may know that there is a God in Israel.
47“Then all this assembly shall know that the LORD does not save with sword and spear; for the battle is the LORD’s, and He will give you into our hands.” 48So it was, when the Philistine arose and came and drew near to meet David, that David hurried and ran toward the army to meet the Philistine.
49Then David put his hand in his bag and took out a stone; and he slung it and struck the Philistine in his forehead, so that the stone sank into his forehead, and he fell on his face to the earth.
50So David prevailed over the Philistine with a sling and a stone, and struck the Philistine and killed him. But there was no sword in the hand of David.
51Therefore David ran and stood over the Philistine, took his sword and drew it out of its sheath and killed him, and cut off his head with it. And when the Philistines saw that their champion was dead, they fled.
52Now the men of Israel and Judah arose and shouted, and pursued the Philistines as far as the entrance of the valley[a] and to the gates of Ekron. And the wounded of the Philistines fell along the road to Shaaraim, even as far as Gath and Ekron.

53 Then the children of Israel returned from chasing the Philistines, and they plundered their tents.

54 And David took the head of the Philistine and brought it to Jerusalem, but he put his armor in his tent.

55 When Saul saw David going out against the Philistine, he said to Abner, the commander of the army, "Abner, whose son is this youth?" And Abner said, "As your soul lives, O king, I do not know."

56 So the king said, "Inquire whose son this young man is."

57 Then, as David returned from the slaughter of the Philistine, Abner took him and brought him before Saul with the head of the Philistine in his hand.

58 And Saul said to him, "Whose son are you, young man?" So David answered, "I am the son of your servant Jesse the Bethlehemite."

1 Samuel 18

Saul Resents David

1 Now when he had finished speaking to Saul, the soul of Jonathan was knit to the soul of David, and Jonathan loved him as his own soul. Faithful Friends

2 Saul took him that day, and would not let him go home to his father's house anymore.

3 Then Jonathan and David made a covenant, because he loved him as his own soul.

4 And Jonathan took off the robe that was on him and gave it to David, with his armor, even to his sword and his bow and his belt.

5 So David went out wherever Saul sent him, and behaved wisely. And Saul set him over the men of war, and he was accepted in the sight of all the people and also in the sight of Saul's servants.

6 Now it had happened as they were coming home, when David was returning from the slaughter of the Philistine, that the women had come out of all the cities of Israel, singing and dancing, to meet King Saul, with tambourines, with joy, and with musical instruments.

7 So the women sang as they danced, and said:

> "Saul has slain his thousands,
> And David his ten thousands."

8 Then Saul was very angry, and the saying displeased him; and he said, "They have ascribed to David ten thousands, and to me they have ascribed only thousands.
Now what more can he have but the kingdom?"

9 So Saul eyed David from that day forward.

10And it happened on the next day that the distressing spirit from God came upon Saul, and he prophesied inside the house. So David played music with his hand, as at other times; but there was a spear in Saul's hand.

11And Saul cast the spear, for he said, "I will pin David to the wall!" But David escaped his presence twice.

12Now Saul was afraid of David, because the LORD was with him, but had departed from Saul.

13Therefore Saul removed him from his presence, and made him his captain over a thousand; and he went out and came in before the people.

14And David behaved wisely in all his ways, and the LORD was with him.

15Therefore, when Saul saw that he behaved very wisely, he was afraid of him.

16But all Israel and Judah loved David, because he went out and came in before them.

David Marries Michal

17Then Saul said to David, "Here is my older daughter Merab; I will give her to you as a wife. Only be valiant for me, and fight the LORD's battles." For Saul thought, "Let my hand not be against him, but let the hand of the Philistines be against him."

18So David said to Saul, "Who am I, and what is my life or my father's family in Israel, that I should be son-in-law to the king?"

19But it happened at the time when Merab, Saul's daughter, should have been given to David, that she was given to Adriel the Meholathite as a wife.

20Now Michal, Saul's daughter, loved David. And they told Saul, and the thing pleased him. Michal

21So Saul said, "I will give her to him, that she may be a snare to him, and that the hand of the Philistines may be against him.” Therefore Saul said to David a second time, “You shall be my son-in-law today.”

22And Saul commanded his servants, “Communicate with David secretly, and say, ‘Look, the king has delight in you, and all his servants love you. Now therefore, become the king’s son-in-law.’ ”

23So Saul’s servants spoke those words in the hearing of David. And David said, “Does it seem to you a light thing to be a king’s son-in-law, seeing I am a poor and lightly esteemed man?”

24And the servants of Saul told him, saying, “In this manner David spoke.”

25Then Saul said, “Thus you shall say to David: ‘The king does not desire any dowry but one hundred foreskins of the Philistines, to take vengeance on the king’s enemies.’ ” But Saul thought to make David fall by the hand of the Philistines.

26So when his servants told David these words, it pleased David well to become the king’s son-in-law. Now the days had not expired;

27therefore David arose and went, he and his men, and killed two hundred men of the Philistines. And David brought their foreskins, and they gave them in full count to the king, that he might become the king’s son-in-law. Then Saul gave him Michal his daughter as a wife.

28Thus Saul saw and knew that the LORD was with David, and that Michal, Saul’s daughter, loved him;

29and Saul was still more afraid of David. So Saul became David’s enemy continually.

30Then the princes of the Philistines went out to war. And so it was, whenever they went out, that David behaved more wisely than all the servants of Saul, so that his name became highly esteemed.

1 Samuel 19

Saul Persecutes David

1 Now Saul spoke to Jonathan his son and to all his servants, that they should kill David; but Jonathan, Saul's son, delighted greatly in David. Jonathan

2 So Jonathan told David, saying, "My father Saul seeks to kill you. Therefore please be on your guard until morning, and stay in a secret place and hide.

3 "And I will go out and stand beside my father in the field where you are, and I will speak with my father about you.
Then what I observe, I will tell you."

4 Thus Jonathan spoke well of David to Saul his father, and said to him, "Let not the king sin against his servant, against David, because he has not sinned against you, and because his works have been very good toward you.

5 "For he took his life in his hands and killed the Philistine, and the LORD brought about a great deliverance for all Israel. You saw it and rejoiced. Why then will you sin against innocent blood, to kill David without a cause?"

6 So Saul heeded the voice of Jonathan, and Saul swore,
"As the LORD lives, he shall not be killed."

7 Then Jonathan called David, and Jonathan told him all these things. So Jonathan brought David to Saul, and he was in his presence as in times past.

8 And there was war again; and David went out and fought with the Philistines, and struck them with a mighty blow, and they fled from him.

9 Now the distressing spirit from the LORD came upon Saul as he sat in his house with his spear in his hand. And David was playing music with his hand.

10 Then Saul sought to pin David to the wall with the spear, but he slipped away from Saul's presence; and he drove the spear into the wall. So David fled and escaped that night.
11 Saul also sent messengers to David's house to watch him and to kill him in the morning. And Michal, David's wife, told him, saying, "If you do not save your life tonight, tomorrow you will be killed." 12 So Michal let David down through a window. And he went and fled and escaped.
13 And Michal took an image and laid it in the bed, put a cover of goats' hair for his head, and covered it with clothes.
14 So when Saul sent messengers to take David, she said,
"He is sick."
15 Then Saul sent the messengers back to see David, saying, "Bring him up to me in the bed, that I may kill him." 16 And when the messengers had come in, there was the image in the bed, with a cover of goats' hair for his head.
17 Then Saul said to Michal, "Why have you deceived me like this, and sent my enemy away, so that he has escaped?" And Michal answered Saul, "He said to me, 'Let me go! Why should I kill you?' " 18 So David fled and escaped, and went to Samuel at Ramah, and told him all that Saul had done to him. And he and Samuel went and stayed in Naioth.
19 Now it was told Saul, saying, "Take note, David is at Naioth in Ramah!" 20 Then Saul sent messengers to take David. And when they saw the group of prophets prophesying, and Samuel standing as leader over them, the Spirit of God came upon the messengers of Saul, and they also prophesied.
21 And when Saul was told, he sent other messengers, and they prophesied likewise. Then Saul sent messengers again the third time, and they prophesied also.

22 Then he also went to Ramah, and came to the great well that is at Sechu. So he asked, and said, “Where are Samuel and David?” And someone said, “Indeed they are at Naioth in Ramah.” Wells

23 So he went there to Naioth in Ramah. Then the Spirit of God was upon him also, and he went on and prophesied until he came to Naioth in Ramah.

24 And he also stripped off his clothes and prophesied before Samuel in like manner, and lay down naked all that day and all that night. Therefore they say, “Is Saul also among the prophets?”[a]

1 Samuel 20

Jonathan's Loyalty to David

1 Then David fled from Naioth in Ramah, and went and said to Jonathan, "What have I done? What is my iniquity, and what is my sin before your father, that he seeks my life?"
2 So Jonathan said to him, "By no means! You shall not die! Indeed, my father will do nothing either great or small without first telling me. And why should my father hide this thing from me? It is not so!"
3 Then David took an oath again, and said, "Your father certainly knows that I have found favor in your eyes, and he has said, 'Do not let Jonathan know this, lest he be grieved.'
But truly, as the LORD lives and as your soul lives, there is but a step between me and death."
4 So Jonathan said to David, "Whatever you yourself desire, I will do it for you."
5 And David said to Jonathan, "Indeed tomorrow is the New Moon, and I should not fail to sit with the king to eat.
But let me go, that I may hide in the field until the third day at evening.
6 "If your father misses me at all, then say, 'David earnestly asked permission of me that he might run over to Bethlehem, his city, for there is a yearly sacrifice there for all the family.'
7 "If he says thus: 'It is well,' your servant will be safe.
But if he is very angry, be sure that evil is determined by
him.
8 "Therefore you shall deal kindly with your servant, for you have brought your servant into a covenant of the LORD with you. Nevertheless, if there is iniquity in me, kill me yourself, for why should you bring me to your father?"

9 But Jonathan said, “Far be it from you! For if I knew certainly that evil was determined by my father to come upon you, then would I not tell you?” 10 Then David said to Jonathan, “Who will tell me, or what if your father answers you roughly?” 11 And Jonathan said to David, “Come, let us go out into the field.” So both of them went out into the field.
12 Then Jonathan said to David: “The LORD God of Israel is witness! When I have sounded out my father sometime tomorrow, or the third day, and indeed there is good toward David, and I do not send to you and tell you, 13 “may the LORD do so and much more to Jonathan. But if it pleases my father to do you evil, then I will report it to you and send you away, that you may go in safety. And the LORD be with you as He has been with my father.
14 “And you shall not only show me the kindness of the LORD while I still live, that I may not die;
15 “but you shall not cut off your kindness from my house forever, no, not when the LORD has cut off every one of the enemies of David from the face of the earth.” 16 So Jonathan made a covenant with the house of David, saying, “Let the LORD require it at the hand of David’s enemies.”
17 Now Jonathan again caused David to vow, because he loved him; for he loved him as he loved his own soul.
18 Then Jonathan said to David, “Tomorrow is the New Moon; and you will be missed, because your seat will be empty.
19 “And when you have stayed three days, go down quickly and come to the place where you hid on the day of the deed; and remain by the stone Ezel.
20 “Then I will shoot three arrows to the side, as though I shot at a target;

21 “and there I will send a lad, saying, ‘Go, find the arrows.’ If I expressly say to the lad, ‘Look, the arrows are on this side of you; get them and come’—then, as the LORD lives, there is safety for you and no harm.
22 “But if I say thus to the young man, ‘Look, the arrows are beyond you’—go your way, for the LORD has sent you away.
23 “And as for the matter which you and I have spoken of, indeed the LORD be between you and me forever.” 24 Then David hid in the field. And when the New Moon had come, the king sat down to eat the feast.
25 Now the king sat on his seat, as at other times, on a seat by the wall. And Jonathan arose,[a] and Abner sat by Saul’s side, but David’s place was empty.
26 Nevertheless Saul did not say anything that day, for he thought, “Something has happened to him; he is unclean, surely he is unclean.”
27 And it happened the next day, the second day of the month, that David’s place was empty. And Saul said to Jonathan his son, “Why has the son of Jesse not come to eat, either yesterday or today?” 28 So Jonathan answered Saul, “David earnestly asked permission of me to go to Bethlehem.
29 “And he said, ‘Please let me go, for our family has a sacrifice in the city, and my brother has commanded me to be there. And now, if I have found favor in your eyes, please let me get away and see my brothers.’ Therefore he has not come to the king’s table.”
30 Then Saul’s anger was aroused against Jonathan, and he said to him, “You son of a perverse, rebellious woman!
Do I not know that you have chosen the son of Jesse to your own shame and to the shame of your mother’s nakedness?
31 “For as long as the son of Jesse lives on the earth, you shall not be established, nor your kingdom. Now therefore, send and bring him to me, for he shall surely die.”

32And Jonathan answered Saul his father, and said to him, “Why should he be killed? What has he done?”

33Then Saul cast a spear at him to kill him, by which Jonathan knew that it was determined by his father to kill David.

34So Jonathan arose from the table in fierce anger, and ate no food the second day of the month, for he was grieved for David, because his father had treated him shamefully.

35And so it was, in the morning, that Jonathan went out into the field at the time appointed with David, and a little lad was with him.

36Then he said to his lad, “Now run, find the arrows which I shoot.” As the lad ran, he shot an arrow beyond him.

37When the lad had come to the place where the arrow was which Jonathan had shot, Jonathan cried out after the lad and said, “Is not the arrow beyond you?”

38And Jonathan cried out after the lad, “Make haste, hurry, do not delay!” So Jonathan’s lad gathered up the arrows and came back to his master.

39But the lad did not know anything. Only Jonathan and David knew of the matter.

40Then Jonathan gave his weapons to his lad, and said to him, “Go, carry them to the city.”

41As soon as the lad had gone, David arose from a place toward the south, fell on his face to the ground, and bowed down three times. And they kissed one another; and they wept together, but David more so. Man-to-Man

42Then Jonathan said to David, “Go in peace, since we have both sworn in the name of the LORD, saying, ‘May the LORD be between you and me, and between your descendants and my descendants, forever.’ ” So he arose and departed, and Jonathan went into the city.

1 Samuel 21

David and the Holy Bread

1 Now David came to Nob, to Ahimelech the priest. And Ahimelech was afraid when he met David, and said to him,
"Why are you alone, and no one is with you?"

2 So David said to Ahimelech the priest, "The king has ordered me on some business, and said to me, 'Do not let anyone know anything about the business on which I send you, or what I have commanded you.' And I have directed my young men to such and such a place. Ahimelech

3 "Now therefore, what have you on hand? Give me five loaves of bread in my hand, or whatever can be found."

4 And the priest answered David and said, "There is no common bread on hand; but there is holy bread, if the young men have at least kept themselves from women."

5 Then David answered the priest, and said to him, "Truly, women have been kept from us about three days since I came out. And the vessels of the young men are holy, and the bread is in effect common, even though it was consecrated in the vessel this day."

6 So the priest gave him holy bread; for there was no bread there but the showbread which had been taken from before the LORD, in order to put hot bread in its place on the day when it was taken away.

7 Now a certain man of the servants of Saul was there that day, detained before the LORD. And his name was Doeg, an Edomite, the chief of the herdsmen who belonged to Saul.

8 And David said to Ahimelech, "Is there not here on hand a spear or a sword? For I have brought neither my sword nor my weapons with me, because the king's business required haste."

9So the priest said, "The sword of Goliath the Philistine, whom you killed in the Valley of Elah, there it is, wrapped in a cloth behind the ephod. If you will take that, take it. For there is no other except that one here." And David said, "There is none like it; give it to me."

David Flees to Gath

10Then David arose and fled that day from before Saul, and went to Achish the king of Gath.

11And the servants of Achish said to him, "Is this not David the king of the land? Did they not sing of him to one another in dances, saying:

> 'Saul has slain his thousands,
> And David his ten thousands'?"[a]

12Now David took these words to heart, and was very much afraid of Achish the king of Gath.

13So he changed his behavior before them, pretended madness in their hands, scratched on the doors of the gate, and let his saliva fall down on his beard. From Madman to Ally

14Then Achish said to his servants, "Look, you see the man is insane. Why have you brought him to me?

15"Have I need of madmen, that you have brought this fellow to play the madman in my presence? Shall this fellow come into my house?"

1 Samuel 22

David's Four Hundred Men

1 David therefore departed from there and escaped to the cave of Adullam. So when his brothers and all his father's house heard it, they went down there to him.
2 And everyone who was in distress, everyone who was in debt, and everyone who was discontented gathered to him.
So he became captain over them. And there were about four hundred men with him. Four Hundred Renegades 3 Then David went from there to Mizpah of Moab; and he said to the king of Moab, "Please let my father and mother come here with you, till I know what God will do for me." 4 So he brought them before the king of Moab, and they dwelt with him all the time that David was in the stronghold.
5 Now the prophet Gad said to David, "Do not stay in the stronghold; depart, and go to the land of Judah." So David departed and went into the forest of Hereth.

Saul Murders the Priests

6 When Saul heard that David and the men who were with him had been discovered—now Saul was staying in Gibeah under a tamarisk tree in Ramah, with his spear in his hand, and all his servants standing about him—
7 then Saul said to his servants who stood about him, "Hear now, you Benjamites! Will the son of Jesse give every one of you fields and vineyards, and make you all captains of thousands and captains of hundreds?
8 "All of you have conspired against me, and there is no one who reveals to me that my son has made a covenant with the son of Jesse; and there is not one of you who is sorry for me or reveals to me that my son has stirred up my servant against me, to lie in wait, as it is this day."

9Then answered Doeg the Edomite, who was set over the servants of Saul, and said, "I saw the son of Jesse going to Nob, to Ahimelech the son of Ahitub.

10"And he inquired of the LORD for him, gave him provisions, and gave him the sword of Goliath the Philistine."

11So the king sent to call Ahimelech the priest, the son of Ahitub, and all his father's house, the priests who were in Nob. And they all came to the king.

12And Saul said, "Hear now, son of Ahitub!" He answered, "Here I am, my lord."

13Then Saul said to him, "Why have you conspired against me, you and the son of Jesse, in that you have given him bread and a sword, and have inquired of God for him, that he should rise against me, to lie in wait, as it is this day?"

14So Ahimelech answered the king and said, "And who among all your servants is as faithful as David, who is the king's son-in-law, who goes at your bidding, and is honorable in your house?

15"Did I then begin to inquire of God for him? Far be it from me! Let not the king impute anything to his servant, or to any in the house of my father. For your servant knew nothing of all this, little or much."

16And the king said, "You shall surely die, Ahimelech, you and all your father's house!" A Watershed Event

17Then the king said to the guards who stood about him, "Turn and kill the priests of the LORD, because their hand also is with David, and because they knew when he fled and did not tell it to me." But the servants of the king would not lift their hands to strike the priests of the LORD.

18 And the king said to Doeg, “You turn and kill the priests!” So Doeg the Edomite turned and struck the priests, and killed on that day eighty-five men who wore a linen ephod.
19 Also Nob, the city of the priests, he struck with the edge of the sword, both men and women, children and nursing infants, oxen and donkeys and sheep—with the edge of the sword.
20 Now one of the sons of Ahimelech the son of Ahitub, named Abiathar, escaped and fled after David. Making Reparations 21 And Abiathar told David that Saul had killed the LORD’s priests.
22 So David said to Abiathar, “I knew that day, when Doeg the Edomite was there, that he would surely tell Saul. I have caused the death of all the persons of your father’s house.
23 “Stay with me; do not fear. For he who seeks my life seeks your life, but with me you shall be safe.”

1 Samuel 23

David Saves the City of Keilah

1 Then they told David, saying, “Look, the Philistines are fighting against Keilah, and they are robbing the threshing floors.”
2 Therefore David inquired of the LORD, saying, “Shall I go and attack these Philistines?” And the LORD said to David, “Go and attack the Philistines, and save Keilah.”
3 But David’s men said to him, “Look, we are afraid here in Judah. How much more then if we go to Keilah against the armies of the Philistines?”
4 Then David inquired of the LORD once again. And the LORD answered him and said, “Arise, go down to Keilah.
For I will deliver the Philistines into your hand.”
5 And David and his men went to Keilah and fought with the Philistines, struck them with a mighty blow, and took away their livestock. So David saved the inhabitants of Keilah.
6 Now it happened, when Abiathar the son of Ahimelech fled to David at Keilah, that he went down with an ephod in his hand.
7 And Saul was told that David had gone to Keilah. So Saul said, “God has delivered him into my hand, for he has shut himself in by entering a town that has gates and bars.” 8 Then Saul called all the people together for war, to go down to Keilah to besiege David and his men.
9 When David knew that Saul plotted evil against him, he said to Abiathar the priest, “Bring the ephod here.” 10 Then David said, “O LORD God of Israel, Your servant has certainly heard that Saul seeks to come to Keilah to destroy the city for my sake.

11 “Will the men of Keilah deliver me into his hand? Will Saul come down, as Your servant has heard? O LORD God of Israel, I pray, tell Your servant.” And the LORD said, “He will come down.”
12 Then David said, “Will the men of Keilah deliver me and my men into the hand of Saul?” And the LORD said, “They will deliver you.”
13 So David and his men, about six hundred, arose and departed from Keilah and went wherever they could go.
Then it was told Saul that David had escaped from Keilah;
so he halted the expedition.

David in Wilderness Strongholds

14 And David stayed in strongholds in the wilderness, and remained in the mountains in the Wilderness of Ziph. Saul sought him every day, but God did not deliver him into his hand.
15 So David saw that Saul had come out to seek his life.
And David was in the Wilderness of Ziph in a forest.[a] 16 Then Jonathan, Saul’s son, arose and went to David in the woods and strengthened his hand in God.
17 And he said to him, “Do not fear, for the hand of Saul my father shall not find you. You shall be king over Israel, and I shall be next to you. Even my father Saul knows that.”
18 So the two of them made a covenant before the LORD.
And David stayed in the woods, and Jonathan went to his own house.
19 Then the Ziphites came up to Saul at Gibeah, saying, “Is David not hiding with us in strongholds in the woods, in the hill of Hachilah, which is on the south of Jeshimon?

Response to Betrayal

20 “Now therefore, O king, come down according to all the desire of your soul to come down; and our part shall be to deliver him into the king’s hand.”

21 And Saul said, “Blessed are you of the LORD, for you have compassion on me.
22 “Please go and find out for sure, and see the place where his hideout is, and who has seen him there. For I am told he is very crafty.
23 “See therefore, and take knowledge of all the lurking places where he hides; and come back to me with certainty, and I will go with you. And it shall be, if he is in the land, that I will search for him throughout all the clans[b] of Judah.”
24 So they arose and went to Ziph before Saul. But David and his men were in the Wilderness of Maon, in the plain on the south of Jeshimon.
25 When Saul and his men went to seek him, they told David. Therefore he went down to the rock, and stayed in the Wilderness of Maon. And when Saul heard that, he pursued David in the Wilderness of Maon.
26 Then Saul went on one side of the mountain, and David and his men on the other side of the mountain. So David made haste to get away from Saul, for Saul and his men were encircling David and his men to take them.
27 But a messenger came to Saul, saying, “Hurry and come, for the Philistines have invaded the land!” 28 Therefore Saul returned from pursuing David, and went against the Philistines; so they called that place the Rock of Escape.[c] 29 Then David went up from there and dwelt in strongholds at En Gedi.

1 Samuel 24

David Spares Saul

1Now it happened, when Saul had returned from following the Philistines, that it was told him, saying, “Take note!
David is in the Wilderness of En Gedi.”

2Then Saul took three thousand chosen men from all Israel, and went to seek David and his men on the Rocks of the Wild Goats.

3So he came to the sheepfolds by the road, where there was a cave; and Saul went in to attend to his needs. (David and his men were staying in the recesses of the cave.)

4Then the men of David said to him, “This is the day of which the LORD said to you, ‘Behold, I will deliver your enemy into your hand, that you may do to him as it seems good to you.’ ” And David arose and secretly cut off a corner of Saul’s robe.

5Now it happened afterward that David’s heart troubled him because he had cut Saul’s robe. Pledging Allegiance

6And he said to his men, “The LORD forbid that I should do this thing to my master, the LORD’s anointed, to stretch out my hand against him, seeing he is the anointed of the LORD.”

7So David restrained his servants with these words, and did not allow them to rise against Saul. And Saul got up from the cave and went on his way.

8David also arose afterward, went out of the cave, and called out to Saul, saying, “My lord the king!” And when Saul looked behind him, David stooped with his face to the earth, and bowed down. David Pleads His Case

9And David said to Saul: “Why do you listen to the words of men who say, ‘Indeed David seeks your harm’?

10 “Look, this day your eyes have seen that the LORD delivered you today into my hand in the cave, and someone urged me to kill you. But my eye spared you, and I said, ‘I will not stretch out my hand against my lord, for he is the LORD’s anointed.’ 11 “Moreover, my father, see! Yes, see the corner of your robe in my hand! For in that I cut off the corner of your robe, and did not kill you, know and see that there is neither evil nor rebellion in my hand, and I have not sinned against you. Yet you hunt my life to take it.
12 “Let the LORD judge between you and me, and let the LORD avenge me on you. But my hand shall not be against
you.
13 “As the proverb of the ancients says, ‘Wickedness proceeds from the wicked.’ But my hand shall not be against you.
14 “After whom has the king of Israel come out? Whom do you pursue? A dead dog? A flea?
15 “Therefore let the LORD be judge, and judge between you and me, and see and plead my case, and deliver me out of your hand.”
16 So it was, when David had finished speaking these words to Saul, that Saul said, “Is this your voice, my son David?” And Saul lifted up his voice and wept.
17 Then he said to David: “You are more righteous than I;
for you have rewarded me with good, whereas I have rewarded you with evil.
18 “And you have shown this day how you have dealt well with me; for when the LORD delivered me into your hand, you did not kill me.
19 “For if a man finds his enemy, will he let him get away safely? Therefore may the LORD reward you with good for what you have done to me this day.

20 “And now I know indeed that you shall surely be king, and that the kingdom of Israel shall be established in your hand.
21 “Therefore swear now to me by the LORD that you will not cut off my descendants after me, and that you will not destroy my name from my father’s house.” 22 So David swore to Saul. And Saul went home, but David and his men went up to the stronghold.

1 Samuel 25

Death of Samuel

1 Then Samuel died; and the Israelites gathered together and lamented for him, and buried him at his home in Ramah. And David arose and went down to the Wilderness of Paran.[a] After the Death of Samuel

David and the Wife of Nabal

2 Now there was a man in Maon whose business was in Carmel, and the man was very rich. He had three thousand sheep and a thousand goats. And he was shearing his sheep in Carmel.
3 The name of the man was Nabal, and the name of his wife Abigail. And she was a woman of good understanding and beautiful appearance; but the man was harsh and evil in his doings. He was of the house of Caleb. Nabal 4 When David heard in the wilderness that Nabal was shearing his sheep,
5 David sent ten young men; and David said to the young men, "Go up to Carmel, go to Nabal, and greet him in my name.
6 "And thus you shall say to him who lives in prosperity:
'Peace be to you, peace to your house, and peace to all that you have!
7 'Now I have heard that you have shearers. Your shepherds were with us, and we did not hurt them, nor was there anything missing from them all the while they were in Carmel.
8 'Ask your young men, and they will tell you. Therefore let my young men find favor in your eyes, for we come on a feast day. Please give whatever comes to your hand to your servants and to your son David.’ ”

9So when David’s young men came, they spoke to Nabal according to all these words in the name of David, and waited.

10Then Nabal answered David’s servants, and said, “Who is David, and who is the son of Jesse? There are many servants nowadays who break away each one from his master.

11“Shall I then take my bread and my water and my meat that I have killed for my shearers, and give it to men when I do not know where they are from?”

12So David’s young men turned on their heels and went back; and they came and told him all these words.

13Then David said to his men, “Every man gird on his sword.” So every man girded on his sword, and David also girded on his sword. And about four hundred men went with David, and two hundred stayed with the supplies.

14Now one of the young men told Abigail, Nabal’s wife, saying, “Look, David sent messengers from the wilderness to greet our master; and he reviled them. Abigail

15“But the men were very good to us, and we were not hurt, nor did we miss anything as long as we accompanied them, when we were in the fields.

16“They were a wall to us both by night and day, all the time we were with them keeping the sheep.

17“Now therefore, know and consider what you will do, for harm is determined against our master and against all his household. For he is such a scoundrel[b] that one cannot speak to him.”

18Then Abigail made haste and took two hundred loaves of bread, two skins of wine, five sheep already dressed, five seahs of roasted grain, one hundred clusters of raisins, and two hundred cakes of figs, and loaded them on donkeys.

19 And she said to her servants, “Go on before me; see, I am coming after you.” But she did not tell her husband Nabal.
20 So it was, as she rode on the donkey, that she went down under cover of the hill; and there were David and his men, coming down toward her, and she met them.
21 Now David had said, “Surely in vain I have protected all that this fellow has in the wilderness, so that nothing was missed of all that belongs to him. And he has repaid me evil for good.
22 “May God do so, and more also, to the enemies of David, if I leave one male of all who belong to him by morning light.”
23 Now when Abigail saw David, she dismounted quickly from the donkey, fell on her face before David, and bowed down to the ground.
24 So she fell at his feet and said: “On me, my lord, on me
let this iniquity be! And please let your maidservant speak in your ears, and hear the words of your maidservant.
25 “Please, let not my lord regard this scoundrel Nabal.
For as his name is, so is he: Nabal[c] is his name, and folly is with him! But I, your maidservant, did not see the young men of my lord whom you sent.
26 “Now therefore, my lord, as the LORD lives and as your soul lives, since the LORD has held you back from coming to bloodshed and from avenging yourself with your own hand, now then, let your enemies and those who seek harm for my lord be as Nabal.
27 “And now this present which your maidservant has brought to my lord, let it be given to the young men who follow my lord.
28 “Please forgive the trespass of your maidservant. For the LORD will certainly make for my lord an enduring house, because my lord fights the battles of the LORD, and evil is not found in you throughout your days.

29 “Yet a man has risen to pursue you and seek your life, but the life of my lord shall be bound in the bundle of the living with the LORD your God; and the lives of your enemies He shall sling out, as from the pocket of a sling.

30 “And it shall come to pass, when the LORD has done for my lord according to all the good that He has spoken concerning you, and has appointed you ruler over Israel,

31 “that this will be no grief to you, nor offense of heart to my lord, either that you have shed blood without cause, or that my lord has avenged himself. But when the LORD has dealt well with my lord, then remember your maidservant.”

32 Then David said to Abigail: “Blessed is the LORD God of Israel, who sent you this day to meet me! Attention and Respect

33 “And blessed is your advice and blessed are you, because you have kept me this day from coming to bloodshed and from avenging myself with my own hand.

34 “For indeed, as the LORD God of Israel lives, who has kept me back from hurting you, unless you had hurried and come to meet me, surely by morning light no males would have been left to Nabal!”

35 So David received from her hand what she had brought him, and said to her, “Go up in peace to your house. See, I have heeded your voice and respected your person.”

36 Now Abigail went to Nabal, and there he was, holding a feast in his house, like the feast of a king. And Nabal’s heart was merry within him, for he was very drunk; therefore she told him nothing, little or much, until morning light.

37 So it was, in the morning, when the wine had gone from Nabal, and his wife had told him these things, that his heart died within him, and he became like a stone.

38 Then it happened, after about ten days, that the LORD struck Nabal, and he died.
39 So when David heard that Nabal was dead, he said, “Blessed be the LORD, who has pleaded the cause of my reproach from the hand of Nabal, and has kept His servant from evil! For the LORD has returned the wickedness of Nabal on his own head.” And David sent and proposed to Abigail, to take her as his wife.
40 When the servants of David had come to Abigail at Carmel, they spoke to her saying, “David sent us to you, to ask you to become his wife.”
41 Then she arose, bowed her face to the earth, and said, “Here is your maidservant, a servant to wash the feet of the servants of my lord.”
42 So Abigail rose in haste and rode on a donkey, attended by five of her maidens; and she followed the messengers of David, and became his wife.
43 David also took Ahinoam of Jezreel, and so both of them were his wives.
44 But Saul had given Michal his daughter, David’s wife, to Palti[d] the son of Laish, who was from Gallim.

1 Samuel 26

David Spares Saul a Second Time

1 Now the Ziphites came to Saul at Gibeah, saying, “Is David not hiding in the hill of Hachilah, opposite Jeshimon?”

2 Then Saul arose and went down to the Wilderness of Ziph, having three thousand chosen men of Israel with him, to seek David in the Wilderness of Ziph.

3 And Saul encamped in the hill of Hachilah, which is opposite Jeshimon, by the road. But David stayed in the wilderness, and he saw that Saul came after him into the wilderness.

4 David therefore sent out spies, and understood that Saul had indeed come.

5 So David arose and came to the place where Saul had encamped. And David saw the place where Saul lay, and Abner the son of Ner, the commander of his army. Now Saul lay within the camp, with the people encamped all around him.

6 Then David answered, and said to Ahimelech the Hittite and to Abishai the son of Zeruiah, brother of Joab, saying, “Who will go down with me to Saul in the camp?” And Abishai said, “I will go down with you.”

7 So David and Abishai came to the people by night; and there Saul lay sleeping within the camp, with his spear stuck in the ground by his head. And Abner and the people lay all around him.

8 Then Abishai said to David, “God has delivered your enemy into your hand this day. Now therefore, please, let me strike him at once with the spear, right to the earth; and I will not have to strike him a second time!”

9 But David said to Abishai, “Do not destroy him; for who can stretch out his hand against the LORD’s anointed, and be guiltless?”
10 David said furthermore, “As the LORD lives, the LORD shall strike him, or his day shall come to die, or he shall go out to battle and perish.
11 “The LORD forbid that I should stretch out my hand against the LORD’s anointed. But please, take now the spear and the jug of water that are by his head, and let us go.”
12 So David took the spear and the jug of water by Saul’s head, and they got away; and no man saw or knew it or awoke. For they were all asleep, because a deep sleep from the LORD had fallen on them.
13 Now David went over to the other side, and stood on the top of a hill afar off, a great distance being between
them.
14 And David called out to the people and to Abner the son of Ner, saying, “Do you not answer, Abner?” Then Abner answered and said, “Who are you, calling out to the king?”
15 So David said to Abner, “Are you not a man? And who is like you in Israel? Why then have you not guarded your lord the king? For one of the people came in to destroy your lord the king.
16 “This thing that you have done is not good. As the LORD lives, you deserve to die, because you have not guarded your master, the LORD’s anointed. And now see where the king’s spear is, and the jug of water that was by his head.”
17 Then Saul knew David’s voice, and said, “Is that your voice, my son David?” David said, “It is my voice, my lord, O king.”

18 And he said, “Why does my lord thus pursue his servant? For what have I done, or what evil is in my hand?
19 “Now therefore, please, let my lord the king hear the words of his servant: If the LORD has stirred you up against me, let Him accept an offering. But if it is the children of men, may they be cursed before the LORD, for they have driven me out this day from sharing in the inheritance of the LORD, saying, ‘Go, serve other gods.’ 20 “So now, do not let my blood fall to the earth before the face of the LORD. For the king of Israel has come out to seek a flea, as when one hunts a partridge in the mountains.”
21 Then Saul said, “I have sinned. Return, my son David.
For I will harm you no more, because my life was precious in your eyes this day. Indeed I have played the fool and erred exceedingly.”
22 And David answered and said, “Here is the king’s spear. Let one of the young men come over and get it.
23 “May the LORD repay every man for his righteousness and his faithfulness; for the LORD delivered you into my hand today, but I would not stretch out my hand against the LORD’s anointed.
24 “And indeed, as your life was valued much this day in my eyes, so let my life be valued much in the eyes of the LORD, and let Him deliver me out of all tribulation.”
25 Then Saul said to David, “May you be blessed, my son David! You shall both do great things and also still prevail.”
So David went on his way, and Saul returned to his place.

1 Samuel 27

David Allied with the Philistines

1 And David said in his heart, “Now I shall perish someday by the hand of Saul. There is nothing better for me than that I should speedily escape to the land of the Philistines; and Saul will despair of me, to seek me anymore in any part of Israel. So I shall escape out of his hand.”

2 Then David arose and went over with the six hundred men who were with him to Achish the son of Maoch, king of Gath.

3 So David dwelt with Achish at Gath, he and his men, each man with his household, and David with his two wives, Ahinoam the Jezreelitess, and Abigail the Carmelitess, Nabal’s widow.

4 And it was told Saul that David had fled to Gath; so he sought him no more.

5 Then David said to Achish, “If I have now found favor in your eyes, let them give me a place in some town in the country, that I may dwell there. For why should your servant dwell in the royal city with you?”

6 So Achish gave him Ziklag that day. Therefore Ziklag has belonged to the kings of Judah to this day.

7 Now the time that David dwelt in the country of the Philistines was one full year and four months.

8 And David and his men went up and raided the Geshurites, the Girzites,[a] and the Amalekites. For those nations were the inhabitants of the land from of old, as you go to Shur, even as far as the land of Egypt.

9 Whenever David attacked the land, he left neither man nor woman alive, but took away the sheep, the oxen, the donkeys, the camels, and the apparel, and returned and came to Achish.

10 Then Achish would say, “Where have you made a raid today?” And David would say, “Against the southern area of Judah, or against the southern area of the Jerahmeelites, or against the southern area of the Kenites.”

11 David would save neither man nor woman alive, to bring news to Gath, saying, “Lest they should inform on us, saying, ‘Thus David did.’ ” And thus was his behavior all the time he dwelt in the country of the Philistines.

12 So Achish believed David, saying, “He has made his people Israel utterly abhor him; therefore he will be my servant forever.”

1 Samuel 28

1 Now it happened in those days that the Philistines gathered their armies together for war, to fight with Israel.
And Achish said to David, “You assuredly know that you will go out with me to battle, you and your men.”
2 So David said to Achish, “Surely you know what your servant can do.” And Achish said to David, “Therefore I will make you one of my chief guardians forever.”

Saul Consults a Medium

3 Now Samuel had died, and all Israel had lamented for him and buried him in Ramah, in his own city. And Saul had put the mediums and the spiritists out of the land.
4 Then the Philistines gathered together, and came and encamped at Shunem. So Saul gathered all Israel together, and they encamped at Gilboa.
5 When Saul saw the army of the Philistines, he was afraid, and his heart trembled greatly.
6 And when Saul inquired of the LORD, the LORD did not answer him, either by dreams or by Urim or by the prophets.
7 Then Saul said to his servants, “Find me a woman who is a medium, that I may go to her and inquire of her.” And his servants said to him, “In fact, there is a woman who is a medium at En Dor.” Warnings Against Witchcraft 8 So Saul disguised himself and put on other clothes, and he went, and two men with him; and they came to the woman by night. And he said, “Please conduct a séance for me, and bring up for me the one I shall name to you.” 9 Then the woman said to him, “Look, you know what Saul has done, how he has cut off the mediums and the spiritists from the land. Why then do you lay a snare for my life, to cause me to die?”

10And Saul swore to her by the LORD, saying, “As the LORD lives, no punishment shall come upon you for this thing.”

11Then the woman said, “Whom shall I bring up for you?” And he said, “Bring up Samuel for me.”

12When the woman saw Samuel, she cried out with a loud voice. And the woman spoke to Saul, saying, “Why have you deceived me? For you are Saul!”

13And the king said to her, “Do not be afraid. What did you see?” And the woman said to Saul, “I saw a spirit[a] ascending out of the earth.”

14So he said to her, “What is his form?” And she said, “An old man is coming up, and he is covered with a mantle.” And Saul perceived that it was Samuel, and he stooped with his face to the ground and bowed down.

15Now Samuel said to Saul, “Why have you disturbed me by bringing me up?” And Saul answered, “I am deeply distressed; for the Philistines make war against me, and God has departed from me and does not answer me anymore, neither by prophets nor by dreams. Therefore I have called you, that you may reveal to me what I should do.”

16Then Samuel said: “So why do you ask me, seeing the LORD has departed from you and has become your enemy?

17“And the LORD has done for Himself[b] as He spoke by me. For the LORD has torn the kingdom out of your hand and given it to your neighbor, David.

18“Because you did not obey the voice of the LORD nor execute His fierce wrath upon Amalek, therefore the LORD has done this thing to you this day.

19“Moreover the LORD will also deliver Israel with you into the hand of the Philistines. And tomorrow you and your sons will be with me. The LORD will also deliver the army of Israel into the hand of the Philistines."

20Immediately Saul fell full length on the ground, and was dreadfully afraid because of the words of Samuel. And there was no strength in him, for he had eaten no food all day or all night.

21And the woman came to Saul and saw that he was severely troubled, and said to him, "Look, your maidservant has obeyed your voice, and I have put my life in my hands and heeded the words which you spoke to me.

22"Now therefore, please, heed also the voice of your maidservant, and let me set a piece of bread before you; and eat, that you may have strength when you go on your way."

23But he refused and said, "I will not eat." So his servants, together with the woman, urged him; and he heeded their voice. Then he arose from the ground and sat on the bed.

24Now the woman had a fatted calf in the house, and she hastened to kill it. And she took flour and kneaded it, and baked unleavened bread from it.

25So she brought it before Saul and his servants, and they ate. Then they rose and went away that night.

1 Samuel 29

The Philistines Reject David

1 Then the Philistines gathered together all their armies at Aphek, and the Israelites encamped by a fountain which is in Jezreel.
2 And the lords of the Philistines passed in review by hundreds and by thousands, but David and his men passed in review at the rear with Achish.
3 Then the princes of the Philistines said, "What are these Hebrews doing here?" And Achish said to the princes of the Philistines, "Is this not David, the servant of Saul king of Israel, who has been with me these days, or these years?
And to this day I have found no fault in him since he defected to me."
4 But the princes of the Philistines were angry with him;
so the princes of the Philistines said to him, "Make this fellow return, that he may go back to the place which you have appointed for him, and do not let him go down with us to battle, lest in the battle he become our adversary. For with what could he reconcile himself to his master, if not with the heads of these men? Complexities of Working and Relating 5 "Is this not David, of whom they sang to one another in dances, saying:

> 'Saul has slain his thousands,
> And David his ten thousands'?"[a]

6 Then Achish called David and said to him, "Surely, as the LORD lives, you have been upright, and your going out and your coming in with me in the army is good in my sight. For to this day I have not found evil in you since the day of your coming to me. Nevertheless the lords do not favor you.

7 “Therefore return now, and go in peace, that you may not displease the lords of the Philistines.”

8 So David said to Achish, “But what have I done? And to this day what have you found in your servant as long as I have been with you, that I may not go and fight against the enemies of my lord the king?”

9 Then Achish answered and said to David, “I know that you are as good in my sight as an angel of God; nevertheless the princes of the Philistines have said, ‘He shall not go up with us to the battle.’

10 “Now therefore, rise early in the morning with your master’s servants who have come with you.[b] And as soon as you are up early in the morning and have light, depart.”

11 So David and his men rose early to depart in the morning, to return to the land of the Philistines. And the Philistines went up to Jezreel.

1 Samuel 30

David's Conflict with the Amalekites

1 Now it happened, when David and his men came to Ziklag, on the third day, that the Amalekites had invaded the South and Ziklag, attacked Ziklag and burned it with fire, 2 and had taken captive the women and those who were there, from small to great; they did not kill anyone, but carried them away and went their way.
3 So David and his men came to the city, and there it was, burned with fire; and their wives, their sons, and their daughters had been taken captive.
4 Then David and the people who were with him lifted up their voices and wept, until they had no more power to weep.
5 And David's two wives, Ahinoam the Jezreelitess, and Abigail the widow of Nabal the Carmelite, had been taken captive.
6 Now David was greatly distressed, for the people spoke of stoning him, because the soul of all the people was grieved, every man for his sons and his daughters. But David strengthened himself in the LORD his God.
7 Then David said to Abiathar the priest, Ahimelech's son,
"Please bring the ephod here to me." And Abiathar brought the ephod to David.
8 So David inquired of the LORD, saying, "Shall I pursue this troop? Shall I overtake them?" And He answered him, "Pursue, for you shall surely overtake them and without fail recover all."
9 So David went, he and the six hundred men who were with him, and came to the Brook Besor, where those stayed who were left behind.

10 But David pursued, he and four hundred men; for two hundred stayed behind, who were so weary that they could not cross the Brook Besor.
11 Then they found an Egyptian in the field, and brought him to David; and they gave him bread and he ate, and they let him drink water.
12 And they gave him a piece of a cake of figs and two clusters of raisins. So when he had eaten, his strength came back to him; for he had eaten no bread nor drunk water for three days and three nights.
13 Then David said to him, "To whom do you belong, and where are you from?" And he said, "I am a young man from Egypt, servant of an Amalekite; and my master left me behind, because three days ago I fell sick.
14 "We made an invasion of the southern area of the Cherethites, in the territory which belongs to Judah, and of the southern area of Caleb; and we burned Ziklag with fire."
15 And David said to him, "Can you take me down to this troop?" So he said, "Swear to me by God that you will neither kill me nor deliver me into the hands of my master, and I will take you down to this troop." 16 And when he had brought him down, there they were, spread out over all the land, eating and drinking and dancing, because of all the great spoil which they had taken from the land of the Philistines and from the land of Judah.
17 Then David attacked them from twilight until the evening of the next day. Not a man of them escaped, except four hundred young men who rode on camels and fled.
18 So David recovered all that the Amalekites had carried away, and David rescued his two wives.
19 And nothing of theirs was lacking, either small or great, sons or daughters, spoil or anything which they had taken from them; David recovered all.

20 Then David took all the flocks and herds they had driven before those other livestock, and said, “This is David’s spoil.”

21 Now David came to the two hundred men who had been so weary that they could not follow David, whom they also had made to stay at the Brook Besor. So they went out to meet David and to meet the people who were with him.
And when David came near the people, he greeted them.

22 Then all the wicked and worthless men[a] of those who went with David answered and said, “Because they did not go with us, we will not give them any of the spoil that we have recovered, except for every man’s wife and children, that they may lead them away and depart.”

23 But David said, “My brethren, you shall not do so with what the LORD has given us, who has preserved us and delivered into our hand the troop that came against us.

24 “For who will heed you in this matter? But as his part is who goes down to the battle, so shall his part be who stays by the supplies; they shall share alike.”

25 So it was, from that day forward; he made it a statute and an ordinance for Israel to this day.

26 Now when David came to Ziklag, he sent some of the spoil to the elders of Judah, to his friends, saying, “Here is a present for you from the spoil of the enemies of the LORD”—

27 to those who were in Bethel, those who were in Ramoth of the South, those who were in Jattir,

28 those who were in Aroer, those who were in Siphmoth, those who were in Eshtemoa,

29 those who were in Rachal, those who were in the cities of the Jerahmeelites, those who were in the cities of the Kenites,

30 those who were in Hormah, those who were in Chorashan,[b] those who were in Athach, 31 those who were in Hebron, and to all the places where David himself and his men were accustomed to rove.

1 Samuel 31

The Tragic End of Saul and His Sons

1 Now the Philistines fought against Israel; and the men of Israel fled from before the Philistines, and fell slain on Mount Gilboa. A Tragic Ending

2 Then the Philistines followed hard after Saul and his sons. And the Philistines killed Jonathan, Abinadab, and Malchishua, Saul's sons.

3 The battle became fierce against Saul. The archers hit him, and he was severely wounded by the archers.

4 Then Saul said to his armorbearer, "Draw your sword, and thrust me through with it, lest these uncircumcised men come and thrust me through and abuse me." But his armorbearer would not, for he was greatly afraid.
Therefore Saul took a sword and fell on it. The Influence of Each Choice

5 And when his armorbearer saw that Saul was dead, he also fell on his sword, and died with him.

6 So Saul, his three sons, his armorbearer, and all his men died together that same day.

7 And when the men of Israel who were on the other side of the valley, and those who were on the other side of the Jordan, saw that the men of Israel had fled and that Saul and his sons were dead, they forsook the cities and fled;
and the Philistines came and dwelt in them.

8 So it happened the next day, when the Philistines came to strip the slain, that they found Saul and his three sons fallen on Mount Gilboa.

9 And they cut off his head and stripped off his armor, and sent word throughout the land of the Philistines, to proclaim it in the temple of their idols and among the people.

10 Then they put his armor in the temple of the Ashtoreths, and they fastened his body to the wall of Beth Shan.[a]

11 Now when the inhabitants of Jabesh Gilead heard what the Philistines had done to Saul,

12 all the valiant men arose and traveled all night, and took the body of Saul and the bodies of his sons from the wall of Beth Shan; and they came to Jabesh and burned them there.

13 Then they took their bones and buried them under the tamarisk tree at Jabesh, and fasted seven days.

Hannah

1 Sam. 1:2

Family: One of two wives of Elkanah of the tribe of Ephraim; mother of Samuel, three other sons, and two daughters.

Occupation: Homemaker.

Best known as: The mother of Samuel, who was conceived after Hannah earnestly prayed for a son, vowing to dedicate him as a Nazirite to the Lord (see "The Nazirite Vow" at Num. 6:2).

More: Hannah endured endless mocking from Elkanah's other wife Peninnah because Hannah was barren (1 Sam. 1:7), a condition viewed as a curse. See "Barrenness" at Gen. 18:11, 12.

Think About It: Hannah's pain of childlessness, was compounded by Peninnah's mocking. What actions from you have made someone's pain worse? What actions from you might ease someone's pain?

Hannah's Song: Praise for the Real King
1 Sam. 2:1–10

The books of 1 and 2 Samuel detail Israel's transition from the rule of judges to the reign of kings. Under the judges, the nation at times experienced periods of political and spiritual vitality. But more often than not, the people turned from God (Judg. 21:25). It was doubtful that they would fare better under a king.

Hannah's song shows that no matter the title or status of Israel's human ruler—judge or king—the Lord was always Israel's true King (1 Sam. 2:3, 10). Salvation comes from Him (2:1). And the Lord's heart reaches to the poor and outsiders, people at the bottom of society (2:4–9). The remainder of 1 and 2 Samuel as well as 1 and 2 Kings reinforces these truths.

- When the people demanded a king (8:4, 5), God understood that they had rejected Him as their King (8:7).
- When the nation encountered challenges, it was not the king who brought deliverance but the Lord (for example, 1 Sam. 11:13; 17:46; 2 Sam. 5:22–25).
- It was not Saul, the people's favorite, who securely established the monarchy. Rather, it was David, the eighth and youngest son of Jesse, a humble shepherd of Bethlehem (1 Sam. 16:7, 9–13; 18:23; 2 Sam. 7:12–16).

Hannah's song highlights the limitations of human rulers. God is the One who knows how to govern with justice and mercy. Governments should imitate Him in seeking justice for all their subjects. Our faith cannot rest in the power of human control but in the power of God's justice, mercy, and salvation.

More: Hannah's song has a counterpart in the New Testament in the song of Mary (Luke 1:46–53), which picks up line-by-line the themes that Hannah raises.

Eli, the Failed Leader of Shiloh

1 Sam. 2:12

Eli served as priest and judge of Israel for forty tumultuous years (1 Sam. 4:18). Israel had no centralized government, and "everyone did what was right in his own eyes" (Judg. 21:25). Eli's own sons, Hophni and Phinehas, abused the sacrificial system for personal gain and committed immoral acts with the women who served at the tabernacle (1 Sam. 2:12–17, 22). Eli was in a position to halt these abuses, but he did not. When Eli neither restrained nor removed his sons from the priesthood, his family suffered God's scathing judgment (2:27–36).

One bright hope emerged from Eli's household: the boy Samuel, who, unlike Eli's wicked sons, followed God and grew up to be one of Israel's greatest judges (2:17, 18; 3:1, 19, 20).

More: Eli's failure as a father and leader helped bring about the capture of the ark of the covenant by the Philistines. See "The Capture and Return of the Ark" at 1 Sam. 5:11.

Think About It: Who in your life can keep you from persisting in patterns like Eli? Like Eli's sons? How will you build a trusting relationship with this wise one?

Coming Judgment
1 Sam. 2:27–36

The warning of the man of God was directed at the ineffectual priest and judge Eli, but the Lord's judgment would also fall on the entire nation. For too long the people had reneged on their commitment to follow the Lord and keep His Law.

Similarly, though our leaders influence us, we cannot blame them. Each of us is ultimately responsible to God.

Think About It: Many of us find it easy to rant about the evils of society or the horrors of politics. The next time you are in group Bible study, deliberately use pronouns like "me" and "we" to keep the focus on behavior we can change= our own.

Is It Love or Indulgence?
1 Sam. 2:29

When Eli chose to overlook the sins of his sons, he was honoring them more than God (1 Sam. 2:30). God responded with a vow to lay low Eli's descendants, beginning with Hophni and Phinehas (2:31–34).

The Lord's judgment may seem harsh until we recall that Eli and his sons abused their priestly position through greed and sexual promiscuity (1 Sam. 2:13–17, 22; compare Lev. 7:31–36; 10:14, 15; Deut. 18:1–5). This behavior is abominable in any believer, but people depended on Hophni and Phinehas for spiritual leadership. Instead these priests of the Shiloh tabernacle devastated people. Allowing them to persist in sin with little more than a scolding (2:23–25) was unacceptable for a man whose priestly turban was inscribed, "HOLINESS TO THE LORD" (Ex. 28:36).

God condemns the behavior of Christians who fail to correct flagrant wrongs. Our divided loyalties become obvious when we refuse to confront the damaging behavior of close friends, associates, and family members.

All Christians Are Called, in All of Life

1 Sam. 3:1–21

Young Samuel's dramatic experience of receiving his calling may prompt us to assume that God calls only a privileged few to do His work. The concept of living out one's calling can be confusing because it touches on the emotionally charged issues of occupation and self-worth. We often talk about our jobs as if that alone defines who we are—introducing ourselves, for example, with our name and occupation. Yet Scripture makes it clear that we are much more than what we do for a living. Wherever God sends us, we have a calling.

A Task Set by God

Work is an essential, God-given part of life, but by itself it cannot describe an individual's significance and identity. Every person is multifaceted, with unique strengths, family backgrounds, cultural heritages, friendships, journeys of faith, and more.

Defining ourselves by our occupation alone is inadequate and tends to place more value on self than on God; more on activity than on character; more on success than on relationships. In short, it equates employment with worth.

The Reformation leader Martin Luther sought to correct this insufficient view of personhood, asserting that a person's entire life was "a task set by God." In whatever we do—work or play, eating or sleeping, worshiping or relaxing—we have a responsibility to honor God as Lord over all of life.

The Bible and Calling

From the Bible's point of view, a calling describes all of the responsibility of all Christians to serve God in all of life.

- Every Christian is called to become like Christ. God calls us to change in order to take on the character of Christ. We are to resist turning from Him even when others encourage us to abandon God (Gal. 1:6–9). We flee evil and pursue good, fighting to maintain our faithfulness (1 Tim. 6:11, 12). Just as Christ is holy, so we are to develop holiness in everything we do (1 Pet. 1:15; 3:9). We pursue Christlikeness with certainty that the Lord helps us, equipping us for every good work (Phil. 2:12, 13; 2 Pet. 1:3–10).
- Every Christian is called to accept Christ's work on our behalf. Though we are sinners deserving judgment, the Cross has justified us, making us able to stand before a holy God and receive His salvation and grace (Rom. 8:28–30; 2 Tim. 1:9).
- Every Christian is called to belong to God. Paul told the Christians at Rome that he and they had the same calling (Rom. 1:1, 6). He taught the disciples in Ephesus that just as there is one Spirit and one body, "you were called in one hope of your calling" (Eph. 4:4).
- Every Christian is called a child of God. God compassionately adopts every believer into His family (1 John 3:1) through faith in Jesus Christ.
- Every Christian is called to serve God and other people. Christ calls us to live out our faith in a way worthy of Him (Eph. 4:1–4). We enjoy the privilege of declaring God's work in everything we do and say (1 Pet. 2:9, 10, 21).
- Every Christian is called as a citizen of a new heaven and new earth. The Christian life leads to the end of being raised to stand with Christ in eternal glory, pure and holy at last (1 Pet. 5:10; 2 Pet. 3:10, 11). We will celebrate in the final gathering of Christ and all His faithful followers (Rev. 19:9, 10), and our obedience now confirms this ultimate calling (Matt. 5:19).

As people who trust in Jesus, we have the same significant calling as every other disciple, no matter our occupation. A calling is more than a job. It is one of the many arenas in which we live as God's child.

A Lack of Restraint
1 Sam. 3:13, 14

God promised to judge Eli for knowingly allowing his sons to continue corrupt acts. The priest had challenged his sons at least once, but they paid no attention (1 Sam. 2:22–25). Yet Eli failed to take decisive action. The Law instructed parents to bring a chronically rebellious son before the elders of their city. The case would end in stoning if the son was unrepentant. See "Juvenile Delinquents" at Deuteronomy 21:18–21.

Faithful Service
1 Sam. 3:21

We can only imagine the uneasiness Hannah must have felt as she left young Samuel in the care of Eli the priest and his two wicked sons (1 Sam. 1:24). Yet she followed through on her vow to dedicate Samuel as a Nazirite (1:11), trusting his future to God. Her trust was rewarded: amid the spiritual ruin of Shiloh and the rest of the nation, the Lord raised Samuel to become the decisive leader that Israel needed (3:1, 19, 20; 4:1; compare Judg. 21:25).

Samuel led his people to renewal through his wise example (1 Sam. 2:11, 18; 3:1; 7:15–17), by ceaseless prayer (12:23; 15:11;

Ps. 99:6), by calling leaders and the people to obedience (1 Sam. 12:6–25; 15:22), and through confirming signs (10:1–7; 12:16–19). Yet Samuel did not live to see his labors fulfilled. At the time he died (25:1), God had rejected Saul, and the king was hunting his anointed successor, David. Even Samuel's own sons, Joel and Abijah, had rejected God's ways (8:1–3).

It's easy to remain faithful when we can see the fruit of our labors. But like Samuel, we can choose not to waver in our commitments even when circumstances seem to go against them. At times we may feel as if our efforts will never make a difference, but we can rest in the knowledge that we serve a good God, and obeying Him is always right.

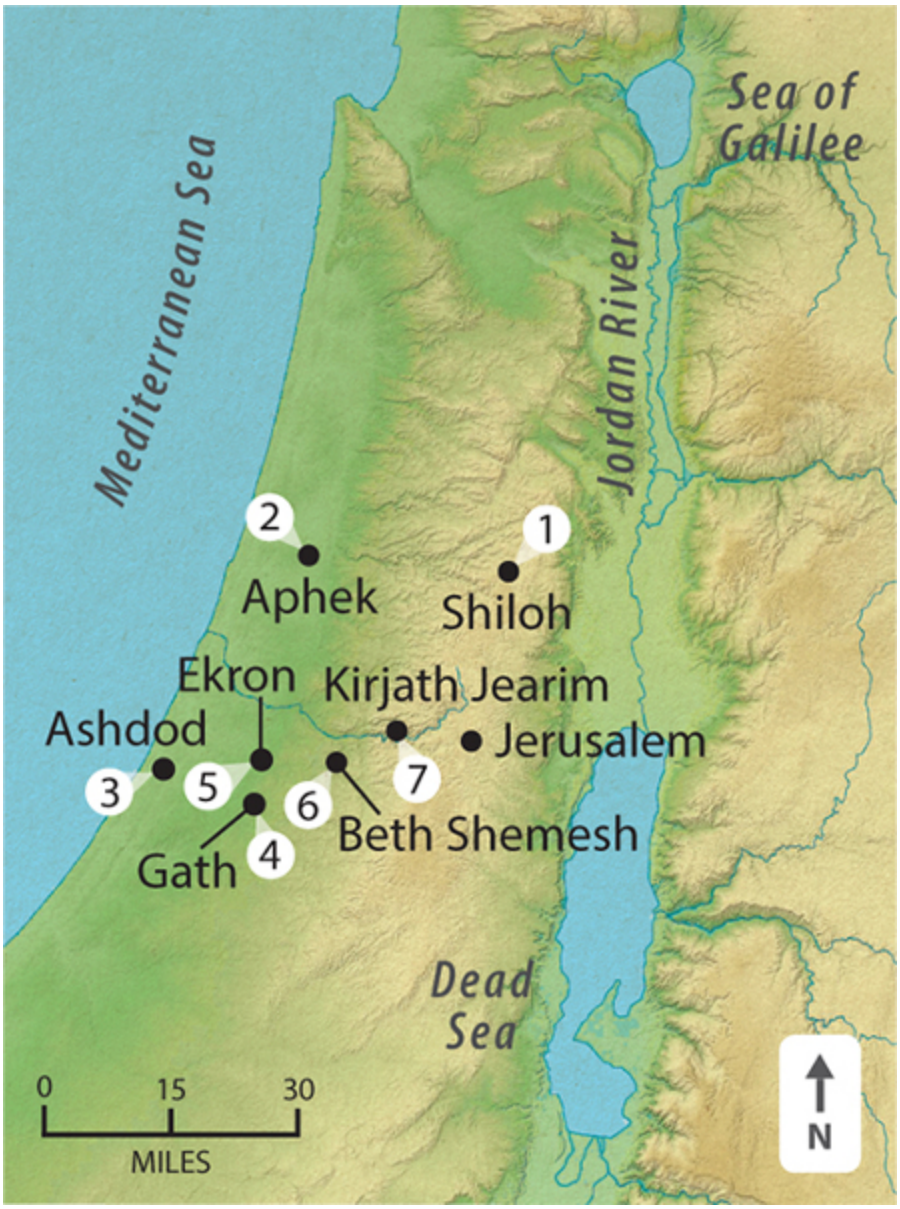
The Capture and Return of the Ark

1 Sam. 5:11

The Philistine capture of the ark of the covenant (1 Sam. 4:11; 5:1–12) was as much a spiritual defeat as a political and military loss. It should have jolted the nation into action after years of spiritual ambivalence, moral anarchy, and civil chaos (Judg. 21:25; 1 Sam. 2:27–36; 3:11–14).



1. The ark stays in the tabernacle at Shiloh until Eli's two sons foolishly carry it into battle (Josh. 18:1; 1 Sam. 4:4).
2. Carried into battle as a good luck charm, the ark is captured by the Philistines near Aphek (1 Sam. 4:1, 10, 11).
3. The ark is placed in the temple of Dagon at Ashdod until the idol is toppled and the people are struck with "tumors" (perhaps bubonic plague). Then it is sent to Gath (1 Sam. 5:1–8).
4. At Gath, "tumors" again strike the people, and the ark is sent to Ekron (1 Sam. 5:9, 10).
5. After a brief stop at Ekron, where it causes more disease and death, the ark is sent on an unmanned cart back to the Israelites (1 Sam. 5:10–6:12).

6. The cart bearing the ark stops briefly in a field near Beth Shemesh but is sent on after people look inside and are struck dead (1 Sam. 6:13–20).
7. The ark is removed to Kirjath Jearim, where it remains for twenty years (1 Sam. 7:1, 2) until David relocates it to Jerusalem (2 Sam. 6).

Samuel's Wise Planning

1 Sam. 7:5–7

When Samuel gathered the Israelites, he chose Mizpah as their meeting place rather than Kirjath Jearim, where the ark was temporarily located. Given that the assembly's purpose was repentance and rededication, the ark's presence would have been particularly meaningful. But Samuel's choice was prudent for several reasons:

- Mizpah had symbolic value as the site of a similar assembly during a previous national crisis, the rape and murder of the Levite's concubine (Judg. 20:1, 2).
- The people needed to keep the ark at a respectful distance. Their toting the ark around as a talisman was the source of their problems (1 Sam. 4:3–5; 6:19).
- Samuel may have rightly expected that the assembly would draw a Philistine attack. Rather than expose the ark to danger, he left it in the fortified city of Kirjath Jearim.

Mapping the Life of Samuel

1 Sam. 7:15

1. During an annual pilgrimage to Shiloh, Hannah prayed for a son. She promised to dedicate the child to the Lord (1 Sam. 1:10–17).
2. Samuel was born at Ramah (1 Sam. 1:20) and lived there in his later life (7:17).
3. Samuel grew up at Shiloh under Eli's care. He served in the tabernacle and at an early age heard God speaking to him as a prophet (1 Sam. 2:11; 3:1–21).

4. Every year Samuel traveled a circuit to Bethel, Gilgal, and Mizpah as a judge of Israel (1 Sam. 7:16, 17).
5. Samuel installed his sons Joel and Abijah as judges in Beersheba. They turned away from the Lord, which caused the elders of Israel to demand a king (1 Sam. 8:1–5).
6. In a private ceremony at Zuph, Samuel anointed Saul as Israel's first king (1 Sam. 9:5, 6, 27; 10:1).
7. After God told him He had rejected Saul as king (1 Sam. 16:1), Samuel anointed David as Israel's king in a private ceremony at Bethlehem (16:12, 13).
8. Samuel died and was buried in his hometown of Ramah (1 Sam. 25:1).

Judging Israel
1 Sam. 7:17

Samuel was the last to serve Israel as judge before the nation transitioned to a monarchy. His role as judge involved more than deciding legal cases. Judges were usually military heroes God called to rally the people against oppressive enemies and motivate them toward spiritual revival. To learn more about the role of the judges, see "The Judges" at Judges 2:16.

The Risks of Raising Children
1 Sam. 8:2

Scripture presents Samuel as a man who followed the Lord right from the womb (1 Sam. 1:11, 22; 2:18; 3:19). Yet his sons, like Eli's offspring before them (2:22–25), chose evil paths (8:3).

No one can say whether Samuel could have done a better job raising his sons. But the fact that he set up the young men as judges in Beersheba raises the possibility that he distanced himself from his sons' issues rather than address them. The city lay at the extreme southern end of Israel's territory, and Samuel may have sent them far away to minimize their impact.

Even so their misdeeds gave Israel an excuse to demand a king (8:4, 5), causing God to grieve their selection of Saul as ruler (15:11).

Things might have played out differently had Samuel confronted his sons and taken them before the elders (see "Juvenile Delinquents" at Deut. 21:18–21). His family's legacy urges parents to face their children's transgressions head-on, gaining help from others as needed. Nevertheless, while Scripture urges parents to raise their children in God's ways (Prov. 22:6; Eph. 6:4), it does not guarantee good results. It is ultimately the responsibility of the individual, not the parents, to seek a life of integrity (see "The Faith of Our Children" at Deut. 6:7–9).

Think About It: When have you used this reality—that individuals must decide for themselves—to excuse your own irresponsibility? Conversely, when have you blamed yourself for actions that were the choices of your adult children? Looking back, and forward, what would God guide you to do differently?

The Kingmaker
1 Sam. 8:4–9

The books of 1 and 2 Samuel describe Israel's transition from the rule of judges to the reign of kings. First Samuel 8 narrates a pivotal scene in this account, with the people pressuring Samuel to appoint a king.

Ancient religious leaders commonly chose kings. In Western Europe a similar practice persisted well into the Middle Ages, with popes presiding over the coronation of monarchs. Once these rulers realized that the person who crowns a king is more powerful than the king himself, however, they sought to diminish the role of religious authorities.

The Israelites would later regret the day when they cried out for a king. But at that moment, they wanted to be like neighboring nations (1 Sam. 8:5, 20). Their insistence amounted to a rejection of theocracy, a form of government with God as King (8:7; see also "Hannah's Song: Praise for the Real King" at 1 Sam. 2:1–10).

Samuel was angered at this rebellious appeal for a new form of government. But despite his misgivings, and at God's direction, he gave them their wish (8:9, 19–22)—though not without warning them of all the ways that kings would abuse the people (8:9–18).

Although modern governments differ in structure from ancient Israel, a basic principle remains for God's people: the Lord is our ultimate authority. Governments come and go, but He remains the One to whom His followers owe final allegiance.

Also, being like neighboring nations is no guarantee of success.

More: The Bible instructs believers to submit to the rule of government and offers helpful perspectives on this directive. See "Governmental Authority" at Rom. 13:1–7.

Results at Any Price? No

1 Sam. 13:8–14

Saul was so intent on defeating the Philistines that he sacrificed a burnt offering, usurping a task that belonged only to priests. He was determined to do things in his way and time rather than keep pace with the Lord. So God found a man "after His own heart" who would obey Him. Saul might have kept his kingdom had he waited for Samuel, trusting God to defend his armies against the chariots and horses of the Philistines. But Saul's impatience and disregard for God's ways contributed to the loss of his kingship.

Authority figures often presume that their chief duty is to make things happen. Leaders may crave results so badly that they abandon other values and seek to accomplish their goals on their own terms. But getting results is not a leader's main job. When God appoints us to lead, our primary task is to create a climate in which others are equipped to accomplish goals, always acting within the boundaries of God's commands. When we concentrate solely on short-term victories, we may find ourselves mourning long-term losses.

Valiant Warrior, Loyal Friend

1 Sam. 13:22

Jonathan's name meant "The Lord Has Given," an appropriate designation for a man who was a true gift to his father Saul—and even more so to his lifelong friend David. Jonathan fought bravely and won numerous victories over the Philistines, Israel's chief enemy. He became a loyal ally to David even though David would rise to the throne in his place. Isolate Bravado
1 Sam. 14:24–26

When Saul ordered his troops to forgo food until they had vanquished the enemy, he probably intended the command as a noble challenge. Why should his men relax and enjoy a good meal when their longtime enemies the Philistines still breathed? Yet his foolish order deprived his men of energy to fight, and it likely lowered morale, especially when Saul tried to enforce his rash oath against his own son, Jonathan (1 Sam. 14:43, 44).

The capricious command seemed based more on Saul's bravado than wise leadership.

Senseless directives followed by demands for rigid conformity create fear and decrease effectiveness in any context. Quite simply, it's repression. But some destructive acts of leadership can be avoided by following a few simple guidelines:

1. Consult with others. Saul often acted on his own (see "Results at Any Price? No." at 1 Sam. 13:8–14). Events might have played out differently at Michmash had he invited others to evaluate his reasoning and share ideas about the potential impact of his plans.
2. Seek God's guidance. God should be the first and last Person any leader consults. Saul habitually ignored the Lord as he led his troops into battle and ultimately lost his crown (15:10, 11) and his life (28:4–8, 16–19; 31:6).
3. Consider exceptions. Enforcing strict rules helps maintain order, but wisdom suggests that exceptions are sometimes wise. Saul's insistence that his policy be enforced at the price of Jonathan's life (14:44) only put distance between Saul and his army (14:45). Saul forgot that rules are meant to serve people—not people to serve rules.
4. End bad policies. Saul's pride prevented him from backing away from his foolish decree. A loss in battle would certainly have turned his men's hearts against him, but his actions were so foolish that even his victory (14:46, 47) cost him favor with his son and the people (14:44, 45).

The Harassment of the Edomites

1 Sam. 14:47

Saul's harassment of the Edomites was more than flexing political muscle. It added yet another chapter to a long history of ethnic hostility that dated to the age of the patriarchs. It also set a precedent that David and his son Solomon would follow. See "Pain

Confessions That Bring Healing

1 Sam. 15:24

Admitting that we have sinned means more than telling God, "I'm sorry." When Samuel confronted Saul about evils he had committed and the responsibilities he had betrayed, Saul acknowledged his specific error and named its source. He confessed that he feared people rather than God's commands (1 Sam. 15:24, 30). Yet despite this honest confession of sin, Saul had to bear long-lasting consequences; because of what he had done, he lost his kingship (15:22–31).

The table below lists other individuals in Scripture who confessed their sins to God, often naming the source. Each offers a lesson about the impact of sin as well as the healing that comes from acknowledging wrongdoing to a God who longs to forgive.

Lessons in Repentance

Name	Lesson
Job	Learned from his sufferings that his proud self-sufficiency offended the Lord. When he repented, God blessed him with abundance by restoring his property and family (Job 42:1–16).
Moses	Interceded for the Hebrews after they bowed to a golden calf. Although Moses was blameless, he appealed to God to forgive the people's sins. The Lord heeded his prayer but promised to punish the people's rebellion (Ex. 32:31–35).

Achan	Confessed to stealing forbidden spoils of war when confronted by Joshua. Achan was stoned to death, but the Lord relented from His fierce anger toward Israel (Josh. 7:16–26).
David	Admitted his adultery with Bathsheba and the murder of her husband Uriah when confronted by Nathan. The child of David and Bathsheba's union died shortly after its birth, even though David pleaded with God for healing. God later gave the couple a son, Solomon (2 Sam. 12).
Shimei	Admitted to King David that he had been wrong to curse the king during his flight from Absalom. Abishai, an officer in David's army, advised that the man should die, but David refused the advice and forgave Shimei (2 Sam. 19:18–23).
Manasseh	Responded to God's severe discipline of his evil ways by humbling himself before God. After the Lord delivered him, he tried to correct the wrongs he had done, with partial success (2 Chr. 33:10–17).
Ezra	Reacted to the Israelites' sin of intermarrying with Gentiles by tearing his garments, pulling out his hair, and grieving for their sins for an entire day. He confronted the people, challenging them to repent and correct their wrongs, and they complied (Ezra 9:1–4; 10:1–44).
Nehemiah	Recognized that the Babylonian exile resulted from his nation's recurring rebelliousness. He prayed, fasted, mourned, and repented. God gave him the opportunity to return to Jerusalem and rebuild the city wall so that His people could live in freedom and security (Neh. 1:4–11; 2–13).

As we consider the experiences of these people, the Lord prompts us to carefully examine our lives and confess where and why we fail to follow His ways. We can be assured that God delights to forgive repentant sinners (1 John 1:9). As we give Him the gift of our brokenness, we receive the refreshment of His forgiveness and acceptance.

Family: Son of Obed; grandson of Boaz and Ruth; father of David and six other sons and two daughters; ancestor of Jesus Christ.

Occupation: Likely a farmer and rancher.

David

1 Sam. 16:12

Name means: “Beloved.”

Home: Bethlehem during his youth (Luke 2:11); probably Gibeah while he served Saul; Ziklag during much of the time while Saul pursued him (1 Sam. 30:1); Hebron during the first seven years of his reign (Gen. 23:19); Jerusalem during the remainder of his reign (1 Chr. 11:4, 5).

Family: Son of Jesse, a descendant of Judah; had seven brothers and two sisters; married numerous wives and concubines, including Saul's daughter Michal, as well as Abigail and Bathsheba; father of numerous sons and daughters, including Absalom and David's successor Solomon; ancestor of Jesus.

Occupation: Shepherd; court musician and military commander under Saul; king of Israel.

Best known as: The king who firmly established the Israelite monarchy; most significant ancestor of Jesus Christ.

Think About It: David was far from perfect. Yet he was known as "a man after [God's] own heart" (1 Sam. 13:14). What do you suppose makes a person who makes mistakes "someone after God's own heart," rather than simply a rebel?

A Man After God's Own Heart

1 Sam. 16:13

Scripture offers such rich detail about David's life and reign that he defies easy description. One of King Saul's servants summed up the shepherd from Judah as . . .

- a son of Jesse the Bethlehemite,
- skillful in playing music,
- a mighty man of valor,
- a man of war,
- prudent in speech,
- handsome, and
- one who enjoyed the Lord's favor (1 Sam. 16:18).

An even better description was Samuel's report of the Lord's own assessment of this intriguing man: David was "a man after [God's] own heart" (1 Sam. 13:14). This description starkly contrasted with patterns seen in Saul, David's predecessor, who repeatedly departed from God's ways.

David was by no means perfect. But despite his flaws, he repeatedly turned toward the Lord for guidance, help, and forgiveness. He was God's choice to solidly establish a monarchy to last forever (2 Sam. 7:12–16). Learn more about this remarkable man and king at "David: Praiseworthy but not Perfect" at 2 Samuel 7:18–22.

Goliath

1 Sam. 17:4

Home: Gath, a Philistine city.

Family: Possibly descended from the Anakim, warriors in Palestine known for their extraordinary height; possibly the father of four sons.

Occupation: Warrior, described as a "champion" (1 Sam. 17:4).

Best known as: The Philistine giant felled by a stone thrown from David's slingshot.

More: The dramatic encounter between David and Goliath was a contest between the gods of the Philistines and the Lord of Israel. See "A Battle of the Gods" at 1 Sam. 17:40–54.

Corporate Solidarity

1 Sam. 17:8–10

When Goliath lumbered out to challenge the Israelites, he called for a champion from their ranks to fight him one-on-one, a common approach to settling disputes in the ancient world (2 Sam. 2:12–17; 1 Chr. 11:22, 23). Goliath would represent the Philistines, with an Israelite man standing for Israel.

This principle of corporate solidarity extends beyond warfare in the Bible. Adam's sin, for example, included the whole world in sin (Rom. 5:12–19). Achan's trespass brought judgment on his family, clan, and nation (Josh. 7:11, 20, 24). Rahab's decision to protect the Hebrew spies delivered her and her family from Jericho's destruction (2:12, 13; 6:17). Jesus became a substitute for all humanity and carried the world's sins to the cross (Rom. 5:15–19; compare Is. 53:11).

Corporate solidarity still has implications today for our participation in families, organizations, communities, and other facets of society. We are not as independent as we often believe. Our decisions impact others, and others' impact our own. When we turn to God—especially if we stand at the head of a family, business, or other group—the results of our actions will ripple outward to our entire community.

More: Corporate solidarity means that a group of people can be held responsible for actions not only as individuals but also as a group.

A Battle of the Gods

1 Sam. 17:40–54

As we read about the encounter between David and Goliath, it is the human drama that catches our attention: a young shepherd with no armor or any battle experience confronts a hardened man of war—and kills him with a single stone. But the real contest took place not between a boy and a giant but between the gods of the Philistines and the Lord of Israel (1 Sam. 17:26, 36, 37, 43, 47).

Ancient military champions often represented their armies in one-on-one combat, with victory awarded to the side of whichever man prevailed. Goliath represented not only the Philistine people but also their gods. David stood not only for the Israelites but also for the Lord. He knew better than anyone that the Lord would enable him to win the contest and defeat Israel's enemies and their false gods.

Goliath's size made the victory all the more extraordinary. The giant stood "six cubits and a span" (17:4), more than nine feet tall. His armor weighed 5,000 shekels, between 150 and 330 pounds, depending on the unit of weight here denoted by the word shekel (see the table "Weights and Measures" in the back matter).

Faithful Friends

1 Sam. 18:1

The friendship between Jonathan and David went far beyond camaraderie. Scripture records that "the soul of Jonathan was knit to the soul of David," denoting an unusually close bond. They formalized their loyalty to each other with a covenant, with David agreeing to show "kindness" (Hebrew: chesed; 1 Sam. 20:11–17; see also "Imitate the God of Mercy" at Deut. 7:9) to Jonathan's descendants. When David became king, he upheld this promise by honoring Jonathan's son Mephibosheth (see "Keeping Kindnesses" at 2 Sam. 9:1–13). Jonathan likewise showed faithfulness to David by repeatedly thwarting the malicious goals of his father Saul (1 Sam. 19:1–7; 20:18–42). This devotion was especially remarkable given that Jonathan would have inherited the throne had God not decided to make David king instead (15:27, 28).

Michal

1 Sam. 18:20

Name means: “Who Is Like God?”

Not to be confused with: Ten men and an archangel in the Bible named Michael.

Home: Probably grew up in Gibeah.

Family: Daughter of King Saul of the tribe of Benjamin; younger sister of Merab; wife of David, who won her hand in marriage by single-handedly killing 100 Philistines; during David’s exile given in marriage to Palti, son of Laish, but later restored to David; childless to the day of her death, although some manuscripts report that she raised five sons.

Occupation: Princess.

Best known as: The wife of David who saved him from being murdered by assassins sent by her father Saul (1 Sam. 19:11–17) but who later despised him as he leaped and danced with joy before God (2 Sam. 6:20–23).

Think About It: What would have been hard about Michal’s life? How do you suppose she honored God through each of her experiences?

1 Sam. 19:1

Name means: “The Lord Has Given.”

Not to be confused with: Thirteen other men in the Bible named Jonathan.

Occupation: As Saul’s heir, a commander in the military (1 Sam. 14:1–23).

Best known for: His devoted friendship with and loyalty to David (18:1–20:42).

Wells
1 Sam. 19:22

Wells like the one at Sechu were critical to the survival of ancient cities and towns. Even in favorable locations, water was scarce during summer months. Without a well tapped into the water table or an underground stream, the people would have perished.

The Bible mentions many types of wells, although English translations tend not to distinguish between dug wells (John 4:11, 12), natural or living springs (Ps. 84:6; Neh. 2:13), and hewn cisterns (Gen. 16:14; 2 Sam. 17:18). Canaan's wells were usually dug through limestone rock, sometimes to a great depth to keep them flowing in the summer. Jacob's well today is seventy-five feet deep and in the past may have been twice that.

Some wells had a low wall of stone around the entrance to keep people and animals from falling in. The lip also formed a brace as users let down their buckets to draw water. Jesus probably sat on a lip of this sort when he talked to the woman at the well in Samaria (John 4:6). If a well was especially large, it was sometimes equipped with descending steps that allowed a person to dip directly from the pool of water at the bottom (Gen. 24:16).

Because of their strategic importance, the ownership and use of wells often became grounds for dispute (21:25; Ex. 2:17–19). Yet wells also brought people together and reminded them of important past events (Gen. 24:11, 20; John 4:6–14).

Think About It: Wells could bring dispute or life change. How will you use possessions and their daily opportunites for thoughtful life change in the ways Jesus did?

Man-to-Man

1 Sam. 20:41

David and Jonathan shared a rare friendship, a valuable bond that models how men today can engage in meaningful friendships with other men.

The companionship David and Jonathan enjoyed was founded on a trust and loyalty so solid that Jonathan, a child of royal privilege, risked much to maintain his friendship with David, a rural shepherd boy who was considered a threat to the royal family. As the two young men became friends, they formalized their commitment to each other with a pledge they honored even when their relationship was severely tested (1 Sam. 18:1–4; 20:1–4).

Many men have numerous acquaintances but few friends, often leaving them feeling isolated and lonely. Even a man who enjoys a healthy marriage can feel misunderstood if no one knows his soul man-to-man, just as women also crave companionship with fellow women. And once a true friend is found, men need not be afraid to enter into a friendship of profound trust and loyalty.

Ahimelech

1 Sam. 21:2

Name means: "My Brother Is King."

Not to be confused with: A Hittite king (1 Sam. 26:6); a grandson also named Ahimelech (see "How David Structured His Government" at 2 Sam. 8:16–18).

Home: Nob, a town two miles northeast of Jerusalem, just north of the Mount of Olives, not far from Saul's hometown of Gibeah.

Family: Son of Ahitub; great-grandson of Eli through Phinehas; father of Abiathar, David's high priest.

Occupation: Priest.

Best known for: Allowing David and his fugitive band of followers to eat consecrated bread (1 Sam. 21:3–6). Ahimelech and 84 other priests at Nob were executed for aiding Saul's enemy (1 Sam. 22:16–22). See "Making Reparations" at 1 Sam. 22:20–23. Jesus later used Ahimelech's example of kindness to condemn the Pharisees' legalism (see "Jesus Confronts the Legalists" at Luke 6:1–11).

From Madman to Ally

1 Sam. 21:13–15

In fear for his life, David played the part of a madman when he visited King Achish at Gath, and Achish wanted nothing to do with him. But the two men later became allies. Achish granted David the city of Ziklag, which became David's headquarters as Saul pursued him.

Four Hundred Renegades

1 Sam. 22:2

David was hardly alone in his troubles with King Saul. Four hundred Israelite renegades joined him and began following him as their leader. They formed the nucleus of a group that eventually became known as David's mighty men.

A Watershed Event
1 Sam. 22:16–19

When Saul instructed his followers to kill Ahimelech and eighty-four of his associates, he showed his true colors. Until that command, most of his subjects followed him out of respect for his position as king even if they disagreed with his policies. But when he directly opposed Israel's religious establishment, even his own guard refused to follow. That day Saul began to lose the loyalty of the Israelites, and the tragic massacre of the priests of Nob proved to be a turning point in the lives of individuals, leaders, and the nation. Word of the slaughter quickly reached David (1 Sam. 22:20–23), who was thereafter perceived as the protector of religion, as opposed to Saul, the destroyer of God's people and priests.

Think About It: How are you perceived? What day-after-day actions led to this perception? How might God want you to deepen, or change, perceptions people have of you?

Making Reparations
1 Sam. 22:20–23

David felt personally responsible for the death of Ahimelech and the other priests of Nob. He felt a sadness that may have never left him. When David rose to power and formed his government, a man named Ahimelech served as one of his chief priests. He was the grandson of Ahimelech of Nob. See "How David Structured His Government" at 2 Samuel 8:16–18, and Ahimelech's profile at 1 Samuel 21:2.

Response to Betrayal
1 Sam. 23:19, 20

Even though David and his men had saved the residents of Keilah from a Philistine attack (1 Sam. 23:1–5), the Ziphites divulged to Saul that his enemy was hiding nearby in the Wilderness of Ziph. David's bitter reaction to this betrayal comes out in the song he composed about the incident, Psalm 54. Read the psalm alongside 1 Samuel 23 to explore David's perspective of the event.

Think About It: Betrayal, especially by someone you know, or someone you have helped, is confusing and heartbreaking. What advice do you have for managing betrayal?

Pledging Allegiance
1 Sam. 24:5, 6

David twice spared Saul's life—once in the cave at En Gedi and again in the Wilderness of Ziph (1 Sam. 26:2, 7–12). Even though Saul was extremely irrational, unfit for office, and bent on destroying David, the future king refused to strike the Lord's anointed. David's conscience troubled him for violating even Saul's garment. To David, even cutting a swatch of cloth from the king's robe was a form of assault.

David's respect for Saul's position models the high respect that God's people today should have for government and its officials. Like David, we may disapprove of officeholders or their actions, yet we should maintain respect for their position, since government is ordained by God (see "Governmental Authority" at Rom. 13:1–7).

All officeholders—even if they do not revere God or follow Christ—deserve our respect and prayers (1 Tim. 2:1, 2). A governmental office that is bathed in the prayers of God's people, anointed by God's representative, and confirmed with an oath invoking God's help—such a position is undeniably God-ordained. And Paul indicated that God has established even secular governments such as the autocratic Roman empire (Rom. 13:1–7).

Governments that refuse to acknowledge God can still be used to carry out His sovereign purposes. The Lord called Cyrus, the pagan king of Persia, His shepherd and His anointed (Is. 44:28–45:1). Pharaohs, Nebuchadnezzars, and Herods may seek to thwart God's purposes, yet God still accomplishes His will. He will always be glorified, even when governments oppose His ways.

God challenges Christians to live above the disrespect of government that is rife in the modern world. David respected even a morally degraded, insanely driven Saul. We should do the same even as we work within our rights to bring about change for the better.

More: For a detailed portrait of a person committed to God while working for a pagan government, see the Book of Daniel.

David Pleads His Case

1 Sam. 24:8–15

Having mercifully spared Saul's life, David cried out to Saul as the king left the cave at En Gedi. David pleaded for a truce, trying to convince the king of his integrity. Given the circumstances, David offered a strong argument. He easily could have assassinated his nemesis had he wanted to. To understand more fully what David was thinking and feeling, read Psalm 57, a song composed during or shortly after this incident.

Nabal
1 Sam. 25:3

Name means: "Fool."

Not to be confused with: Naboth, the vineyard owner whose death was arranged by Jezebel (1 Kin. 21).

Home: Maon, a region in the territory of Judah, southeast of Hebron.

Family: Descendant of Caleb; husband of Abigail.

Occupation: A wealthy rancher with 3,000 sheep and 1,000 goats (1 Sam. 25:2).

Best known for: His insulting and inhospitable treatment of David (25:4–11) that led to his death at God's hand and the marriage of his widow Abigail to David.

Abigail
1 Sam. 25:14

Name means: "Father of Joy."

Not to be confused with: David's sister Abigail (2 Sam. 17:25; 1 Chr. 2:17).

Home: Maon and Carmel in the territory of Judah (1 Sam. 25:2); after marrying David, lived at Gath (27:3) and later Ziklag, where she was temporarily captured by the Amalekites (30:1, 5); settled with David in Hebron (2 Sam. 2:2, 3), and presumably later in Jerusalem.

Family: Wife of Nabal of the tribe of Judah; as a widow married David; mother of David's second son, Chileab, who may also have been called Daniel.

Occupation: 1 Sam. 25 implies that she managed Nabal's large estate.

Noted for: Her intelligence and beauty (1 Sam. 25:3).

Best known for: Appeasing David after Nabal had offended him, saving her household from almost certain destruction (25:14–35).

Think About It: When have you solved a problem caused by someone else? What makes such an action wise rather than enabling?

Attention and Respect

1 Sam. 25:32–35

Abigail rightly anticipated trouble because of her husband's foolish words, so she approached David as an intermediary (1 Sam. 25:18–31). With a sizeable peace offering in hand, she admitted that her husband was wrong and pointed out what David stood to gain or lose through his chosen course of action.

The king could have ignored her counsel in his determination to pay Nabal back for his discourtesy. Or David could have disregarded Abigail because she was a woman. But he proved himself wise and honorable by hearing her out, evaluating her words, and heeding her advice. He took Abigail seriously and he praised her for her good judgment and for preventing him from committing bloodshed.

David gave Abigail the attention and respect she deserved, heeding her words and esteeming her wisdom. If we want others to pay attention to us, our words and actions must command respect. And as others approach us, we must listen to what they have to say and acquiesce to wise counsel.

Warnings Against Witchcraft

1 Sam. 28:7

By consulting a medium, Saul made a poor choice and received evil advice. His reliance on witchcraft violated God's law and ultimately led to Saul's death (1 Chr. 10:13, 14). Throughout Scripture the Lord clearly spoke against seeking spiritual insight or guidance apart from Him. He has given us His Word to guide us and the Spirit to help us, and He surrounds us with wise friends in the faith (Prov. 20:18; 24:6). So there is no need to depend on mediums, oracles, soothsayers, or other occult practices. They will hurt us. We are to have nothing to do with them.

Speaker	Warning
God through Moses (Lev. 19:26–31)	Prohibited eating blood, divination, soothsaying, ritual mutilation, tattoos, and consulting mediums or familiar spirits.
God through Moses (Deut. 18:10, 11)	Prohibited child sacrifice, witchcraft, soothsaying, interpreting omens, sorcery, conjuring and spell-casting, consulting mediums or spiritists, and séances.
Samuel (1 Sam. 15:22, 23)	Declared that rebellion against the Lord was as much a sin as witchcraft or idolatry.
Jeremiah (Jer. 27:9, 10)	Warned against listening to false prophets, diviners, interpreters of dreams, soothsayers, or sorcerers.
Micah (Mic. 5:12–14)	Warned that God would destroy sorcerers, soothsayers, carved images, sacred pillars, and other objects of idol worship.
Paul (Gal. 5:20)	Includes sorcery in a list of evil behaviors that oppose the Holy Spirit.

More: *Scripture uses several terms to identify various forms and elements of magic. See "The Seduction of Spirits" at Deut. 18:9–14. When the gospel of Jesus began to penetrate the city of Ephesus, citizens burned their books of magic in an enormous bonfire. Complexities of Working and Relating

1 Sam. 29:4, 5

The Influence of Each Choice

1 Sam. 31:4

Saul's suicide tragically ended a life of enormous promise marred by foolish decisions and outright disobedience.

Saul's Action	Result
Offered a sacrifice when it was not his role to do so (1 Sam. 13:7–12).	Told that his kingdom would not continue (1 Sam. 13:14).
Made a foolish curse (1 Sam. 14:24, 38, 39).	Curse fell on Jonathan and disunity was created (1 Sam. 14:44, 45).
Spared Agag and the spoils of battle when instructed by God to destroy them (1 Sam. 15:8, 9).	Rejected by God from being king (1 Sam. 15:26–28).
Lost fellowship with God (1 Sam. 24:17; 26:21).	Unanswered prayer (1 Sam. 28:6).
Consulted a medium (1 Sam. 28:7, 8).	Doom predicted (1 Sam. 28:16–20).
Took his own life (1 Sam. 31:4).	End of dynasty (1 Sam. 31:6).

b 30:30 Or Borashan

1 Samuel 31

a 31:10 Spelled Beth Shean in Joshua 17:11 and elsewhere

The books of 1 and 2 Samuel were originally one continuous narrative, a single book detailing the transition between the period of the judges and the monarchy. The book was divided into two parts during the second century B.C. when the Hebrew Bible was translated into Greek. The portion we know as 1 Samuel narrates the Israelites' longing for a king and the failure of their first ruler Saul to live up to the responsibilities of his position. It shows David's long road to the throne, introducing him as a young shepherd boy with a mighty destiny along with his own set of struggles.

At the end of 1 Samuel, Saul and his sons have died, their bodies buried at Jabesh Gilead. David is now poised to become king after having survived Saul's attempts to have him captured and killed. But the Book of 2 Samuel begins on an unexpected note. Rather than erupting into a victory song, David sings a funeral dirge for his enemy, the man who hunted him without mercy even after recognizing David's righteousness and promising not to harm him (1 Sam. 24:16–22; 26:21). David also laments the death of Jonathan, Saul's son and David's closest and most loyal friend.

At first David was king only of Judah, which he ruled for seven and a half years from the city of Hebron; Saul's son Ishbosheth took control of a large northern swath of the nation. During much of this period, David warred with Saul's family until he finally gained control over all of Israel after Ishbosheth's assassination (see "We Truly Do Influence History" at 2 Sam. 2:9–20).

David was the Lord's anointed choice of a king for His people, and the rest of 2 Samuel provides an account of David's reign. David exerted control over the nation's feuding tribes and built a strong centralized monarchy. His military power finally ended Philistine attacks, and his political muscle extended Israel's territory. He founded a kingdom that would last for hundreds of years.

Throughout 2 Samuel, David stands out as a man who loves God. Nevertheless, Scripture does not turn a blind eye to his moral failures. David's most notorious transgression is undoubtedly his affair with Bathsheba and the arranged murder of her husband (see "Admit Early, Don't Cover Up" at 2 Sam. 11:4, 5). Yet it is the Bible's unflinchingly true-to-life portrait of David that makes the story of his faith so valuable. Capable of greatness but sometimes sabotaged by his own imperfections, David stands out as one of the most relatable figures of the Old Testament (see "David: Praiseworthy but Not Perfect" at 2 Sam. 7:18–22).

As we read the accounts of 2 Samuel, we learn that even the celebrated heroes among God's followers were sinful people like us—and that when we do wrong, the way we react to our sin matters deeply. Like David, we should bow before the Lord and come clean about our sins, humbling ourselves in prayerful repentance (see "I Have Sinned" at 2 Sam. 12:13).

No one is certain of the identity of the author of 1 and 2 Samuel. Some scholars argue that Abiathar the priest wrote some portions of 2 Samuel. The book begins with Saul's death around 1007 B.C. and covers the span of David's reign. The events of 1 and 2 Samuel take place in Israel and various adjoining territories (see the maps at "Mapping the Life of Samuel" at 1 Sam. 7:15; and "We Truly Do Influence History" at 2 Sam. 2:9–20).

2 Samuel 1

The Report of Saul's Death

1 Now it came to pass after the death of Saul, when David had returned from the slaughter of the Amalekites, and David had stayed two days in Ziklag, 2 on the third day, behold, it happened that a man came from Saul's camp with his clothes torn and dust on his head. So it was, when he came to David, that he fell to the ground and prostrated himself.
3 And David said to him, "Where have you come from?" So he said to him, "I have escaped from the camp of Israel."
4 Then David said to him, "How did the matter go? Please tell me." And he answered, "The people have fled from the battle, many of the people are fallen and dead, and Saul and Jonathan his son are dead also."
5 So David said to the young man who told him, "How do you know that Saul and Jonathan his son are dead?" 6 Then the young man who told him said, "As I happened by chance to be on Mount Gilboa, there was Saul, leaning on his spear; and indeed the chariots and horsemen followed hard after him.
7 "Now when he looked behind him, he saw me and called to me. And I answered, 'Here I am.'
8 "And he said to me, 'Who are you?' So I answered him, 'I am an Amalekite.'
9 "He said to me again, 'Please stand over me and kill me, for anguish has come upon me, but my life still remains in me.'
10 "So I stood over him and killed him, because I was sure that he could not live after he had fallen. And I took the crown that was on his head and the bracelet that was on his arm, and have brought them here to my lord.”

11Therefore David took hold of his own clothes and tore them, and so did all the men who were with him.

12And they mourned and wept and fasted until evening for Saul and for Jonathan his son, for the people of the LORD and for the house of Israel, because they had fallen by the sword.

13Then David said to the young man who told him, “Where are you from?” And he answered, “I am the son of an alien, an Amalekite.”

14So David said to him, “How was it you were not afraid to put forth your hand to destroy the LORD’s anointed?”

15Then David called one of the young men and said, “Go near, and execute him!” And he struck him so that he died.

16So David said to him, “Your blood is on your own head, for your own mouth has testified against you, saying, ‘I have killed the LORD’s anointed.’ ”

The Song of the Bow

17Then David lamented with this lamentation over Saul and over Jonathan his son,

18and he told them to teach the children of Judah the Song of the Bow; indeed it is written in the Book of Jasher:

19“The beauty of Israel is slain on your high places!
How the mighty have fallen!
20Tell it not in Gath,
Proclaim it not in the streets of Ashkelon—
Lest the daughters of the Philistines rejoice,
Lest the daughters of the uncircumcised triumph.

21 “O mountains of Gilboa,
Let there be no dew nor rain upon you,
Nor fields of offerings.
For the shield of the mighty is cast away
there!
The shield of Saul, not anointed with oil.
22 From the blood of the slain,
From the fat of the mighty,
The bow of Jonathan did not turn back,
And the sword of Saul did not return empty.

23 “Saul and Jonathan were beloved and pleasant in their lives,
And in their death they were not divided;
They were swifter than eagles,
They were stronger than lions.

24 “O daughters of Israel, weep over Saul,
Who clothed you in scarlet, with luxury;
Who put ornaments of gold on your apparel.

25 “How the mighty have fallen in the midst of the battle!
Jonathan was slain in your high places.
26 I am distressed for you, my brother Jonathan;
You have been very pleasant to me;
Your love to me was wonderful,
Surpassing the love of women.

27 “How the mighty have fallen,
And the weapons of war perished!”

2 Samuel 2

David Anointed King of Judah

1 It happened after this that David inquired of the LORD, saying, “Shall I go up to any of the cities of Judah?” And the LORD said to him, “Go up.” David said, “Where shall I go up?” And He said, “To Hebron.” 2 So David went up there, and his two wives also, Ahinoam the Jezreelitess, and Abigail the widow of Nabal
the Carmelite.
3 And David brought up the men who were with him, every man with his household. So they dwelt in the cities of Hebron.
4 Then the men of Judah came, and there they anointed David king over the house of Judah. And they told David, saying, “The men of Jabesh Gilead were the ones who buried Saul.”
5 So David sent messengers to the men of Jabesh Gilead, and said to them, “You are blessed of the LORD, for you have shown this kindness to your lord, to Saul, and have buried him.
6 “And now may the LORD show kindness and truth to you. I also will repay you this kindness, because you have done this thing.
7 “Now therefore, let your hands be strengthened, and be valiant; for your master Saul is dead, and also the house of Judah has anointed me king over them.”

Ishbosheth Made King of Israel

8 But Abner the son of Ner, commander of Saul’s army, took Ishbosheth[a] the son of Saul and brought him over to Mahanaim;

9 and he made him king over Gilead, over the Ashurites, over Jezreel, over Ephraim, over Benjamin, and over all Israel. We Truly Do Influence History

10 Ishbosheth, Saul's son, was forty years old when he began to reign over Israel, and he reigned two years. Only the house of Judah followed David.

11 And the time that David was king in Hebron over the house of Judah was seven years and six months.

Israel and Judah at War

12 Now Abner the son of Ner, and the servants of Ishbosheth the son of Saul, went out from Mahanaim to Gibeon.

13 And Joab the son of Zeruiah, and the servants of David, went out and met them by the pool of Gibeon. So they sat down, one on one side of the pool and the other on the other side of the pool.

14 Then Abner said to Joab, "Let the young men now arise and compete before us." And Joab said, "Let them arise."

15 So they arose and went over by number, twelve from Benjamin, followers of Ishbosheth the son of Saul, and twelve from the servants of David.

16 And each one grasped his opponent by the head and thrust his sword in his opponent's side; so they fell down together. Therefore that place was called the Field of Sharp Swords,[b] which is in Gibeon.

17 So there was a very fierce battle that day, and Abner and the men of Israel were beaten before the servants of David.

18 Now the three sons of Zeruiah were there: Joab and Abishai and Asahel. And Asahel was as fleet of foot as a wild gazelle.

19 So Asahel pursued Abner, and in going he did not turn to the right hand or to the left from following Abner.

[20]Then Abner looked behind him and said, “Are you Asahel?” He answered, “I am.”

[21]And Abner said to him, “Turn aside to your right hand or to your left, and lay hold on one of the young men and take his armor for yourself.” But Asahel would not turn aside from following him.

[22]So Abner said again to Asahel, “Turn aside from following me. Why should I strike you to the ground? How then could I face your brother Joab?”

[23]However, he refused to turn aside. Therefore Abner struck him in the stomach with the blunt end of the spear, so that the spear came out of his back; and he fell down there and died on the spot. So it was that as many as came to the place where Asahel fell down and died, stood still.

24Joab and Abishai also pursued Abner. And the sun was going down when they came to the hill of Ammah, which is before Giah by the road to the Wilderness of Gibeon.

[25]Now the children of Benjamin gathered together behind Abner and became a unit, and took their stand on top of a hill.

[26]Then Abner called to Joab and said, “Shall the sword devour forever? Do you not know that it will be bitter in the latter end? How long will it be then until you tell the people to return from pursuing their brethren?”

[27]And Joab said, “As God lives, unless you had spoken, surely then by morning all the people would have given up pursuing their brethren.”

[28]So Joab blew a trumpet; and all the people stood still and did not pursue Israel anymore, nor did they fight anymore.

[29]Then Abner and his men went on all that night through the plain, crossed over the Jordan, and went through all Bithron; and they came to Mahanaim.

30So Joab returned from pursuing Abner. And when he had gathered all the people together, there were missing of David’s servants nineteen men and Asahel.

31But the servants of David had struck down, of Benjamin and Abner’s men, three hundred and sixty men who died.

32Then they took up Asahel and buried him in his father’s tomb, which was in Bethlehem. And Joab and his men went all night, and they came to Hebron at daybreak.

2 Samuel 3

1 Now there was a long war between the house of Saul and the house of David. But David grew stronger and stronger, and the house of Saul grew weaker and weaker. Giving Birth to Trouble

Sons of David

2 Sons were born to David in Hebron: His firstborn was Amnon by Ahinoam the Jezreelitess;
3 his second, Chileab, by Abigail the widow of Nabal the Carmelite; the third, Absalom the son of Maacah, the daughter of Talmai, king of Geshur;
4 the fourth, Adonijah the son of Haggith; the fifth,
Shephatiah the son of Abital;
5 and the sixth, Ithream, by David's wife Eglah. These were born to David in Hebron.

Abner Joins Forces with David

6 Now it was so, while there was war between the house of Saul and the house of David, that Abner was strengthening his hold on the house of Saul.
7 And Saul had a concubine, whose name was Rizpah, the daughter of Aiah. So Ishbosheth said to Abner, "Why have you gone in to my father's concubine?"
8 Then Abner became very angry at the words of Ishbosheth, and said, "Am I a dog's head that belongs to Judah? Today I show loyalty to the house of Saul your father, to his brothers, and to his friends, and have not delivered you into the hand of David; and you charge me today with a fault concerning this woman?

9“May God do so to Abner, and more also, if I do not do for David as the LORD has sworn to him—10“to transfer the kingdom from the house of Saul, and set up the throne of David over Israel and over Judah, from Dan to Beersheba.” 11And he could not answer Abner another word, because he feared him.
12Then Abner sent messengers on his behalf to David, saying, “Whose is the land?” saying also, “Make your covenant with me, and indeed my hand shall be with you to bring all Israel to you.”
13And David said, “Good, I will make a covenant with you.
But one thing I require of you: you shall not see my face unless you first bring Michal, Saul’s daughter, when you come to see my face.” Political Marriages 14So David sent messengers to Ishbosheth, Saul’s son, saying, “Give me my wife Michal, whom I betrothed to myself for a hundred foreskins of the Philistines.” 15And Ishbosheth sent and took her from her husband, from Paltiel[a] the son of Laish.
16Then her husband went along with her to Bahurim, weeping behind her. So Abner said to him, “Go, return!”
And he returned.
17Now Abner had communicated with the elders of Israel, saying, “In time past you were seeking for David to be king over you.
18“Now then, do it! For the LORD has spoken of David, saying, ‘By the hand of My servant David, I[b] will save My people Israel from the hand of the Philistines and the hand of all their enemies.’ ” 19And Abner also spoke in the hearing of Benjamin. Then Abner also went to speak in the hearing of David in Hebron all that seemed good to Israel and the whole house of Benjamin.

20So Abner and twenty men with him came to David at Hebron. And David made a feast for Abner and the men who were with him.

21Then Abner said to David, “I will arise and go, and gather all Israel to my lord the king, that they may make a covenant with you, and that you may reign over all that your heart desires.” So David sent Abner away, and he went in peace.

Joab Murders Abner

22At that moment the servants of David and Joab came from a raid and brought much spoil with them. But Abner was not with David in Hebron, for he had sent him away, and he had gone in peace.

23When Joab and all the troops that were with him had come, they told Joab, saying, “Abner the son of Ner came to the king, and he sent him away, and he has gone in peace.”

24Then Joab came to the king and said, “What have you done? Look, Abner came to you; why is it that you sent him away, and he has already gone?

25“Surely you realize that Abner the son of Ner came to deceive you, to know your going out and your coming in, and to know all that you are doing.”

26And when Joab had gone from David’s presence, he sent messengers after Abner, who brought him back from the well of Sirah. But David did not know it.

27Now when Abner had returned to Hebron, Joab took him aside in the gate to speak with him privately, and there stabbed him in the stomach, so that he died for the blood of Asahel his brother.

28Afterward, when David heard it, he said, “My kingdom and I are guiltless before the LORD forever of the blood of Abner the son of Ner.

29 “Let it rest on the head of Joab and on all his father’s house; and let there never fail to be in the house of Joab one who has a discharge or is a leper, who leans on a staff or falls by the sword, or who lacks bread.” 30 So Joab and Abishai his brother killed Abner, because he had killed their brother Asahel at Gibeon in the battle.

David’s Mourning for Abner

31 Then David said to Joab and to all the people who were with him, “Tear your clothes, gird yourselves with sackcloth, and mourn for Abner.” And King David followed the coffin.
32 So they buried Abner in Hebron; and the king lifted up his voice and wept at the grave of Abner, and all the people wept.
33 And the king sang a lament over Abner and said:

> “Should Abner die as a fool dies?
> 34 Your hands were not bound
> Nor your feet put into fetters;
> As a man falls before wicked men, so you > fell.”

Then all the people wept over him again.
35 And when all the people came to persuade David to eat food while it was still day, David took an oath, saying, “God do so to me, and more also, if I taste bread or anything else till the sun goes down!”
36 Now all the people took note of it, and it pleased them, since whatever the king did pleased all the people.
37 For all the people and all Israel understood that day that it had not been the king’s intent to kill Abner the son of Ner.

[38]Then the king said to his servants, “Do you not know that a prince and a great man has fallen this day in Israel?
[39]“And I am weak today, though anointed king; and these men, the sons of Zeruiah, are too harsh for me. The LORD shall repay the evildoer according to his wickedness.”

2 Samuel 4

Ishbosheth Is Murdered

1When Saul's son[a] heard that Abner had died in Hebron, he lost heart, and all Israel was troubled.

2Now Saul's son had two men who were captains of troops. The name of one was Baanah and the name of the other Rechab, the sons of Rimmon the Beerothite, of the children of Benjamin. (For Beeroth also was part of Benjamin,

3because the Beerothites fled to Gittaim and have been sojourners there until this day.)

4Jonathan, Saul's son, had a son who was lame in his feet. He was five years old when the news about Saul and Jonathan came from Jezreel; and his nurse took him up and fled. And it happened, as she made haste to flee, that he fell and became lame. His name was Mephibosheth.[b]

5Then the sons of Rimmon the Beerothite, Rechab and Baanah, set out and came at about the heat of the day to the house of Ishbosheth, who was lying on his bed at noon.

6And they came there, all the way into the house, as though to get wheat, and they stabbed him in the stomach.
Then Rechab and Baanah his brother escaped.

7For when they came into the house, he was lying on his bed in his bedroom; then they struck him and killed him, beheaded him and took his head, and were all night escaping through the plain.

8And they brought the head of Ishbosheth to David at Hebron, and said to the king, "Here is the head of Ishbosheth, the son of Saul your enemy, who sought your life; and the LORD has avenged my lord the king this day of Saul and his descendants."

9But David answered Rechab and Baanah his brother, the sons of Rimmon the Beerothite, and said to them, “As the LORD lives, who has redeemed my life from all adversity,

10“when someone told me, saying, ‘Look, Saul is dead,’ thinking to have brought good news, I arrested him and had him executed in Ziklag—the one who thought I would give him a reward for his news.

11“How much more, when wicked men have killed a righteous person in his own house on his bed? Therefore, shall I not now require his blood at your hand and remove you from the earth?”

12So David commanded his young men, and they executed them, cut off their hands and feet, and hanged them by the pool in Hebron. But they took the head of Ishbosheth and buried it in the tomb of Abner in Hebron.

2 Samuel 5

David Reigns over All Israel

1 Then all the tribes of Israel came to David at Hebron and spoke, saying, “Indeed we are your bone and your flesh.
2 “Also, in time past, when Saul was king over us, you were the one who led Israel out and brought them in; and the LORD said to you, ‘You shall shepherd My people Israel, and be ruler over Israel.’ ”
3 Therefore all the elders of Israel came to the king at Hebron, and King David made a covenant with them at Hebron before the LORD. And they anointed David king over Israel.
4 David was thirty years old when he began to reign, and he reigned forty years.
5 In Hebron he reigned over Judah seven years and six months, and in Jerusalem he reigned thirty-three years over all Israel and Judah.

The Conquest of Jerusalem

6 And the king and his men went to Jerusalem against the Jebusites, the inhabitants of the land, who spoke to David, saying, “You shall not come in here; but the blind and the lame will repel you,” thinking, “David cannot come in here.”
7 Nevertheless David took the stronghold of Zion (that is,
the City of David). Zion
8 Now David said on that day, “Whoever climbs up by way of the water shaft and defeats the Jebusites (the lame and the blind, who are hated by David’s soul), he shall be chief and captain.”[a] Therefore they say, “The blind and the lame shall not come into the house.”

9 Then David dwelt in the stronghold, and called it the City of David. And David built all around from the Millo[b] and inward.
10 So David went on and became great, and the LORD
God of hosts was with him.
11 Then Hiram king of Tyre sent messengers to David, and cedar trees, and carpenters and masons. And they built David a house. The Start of a Long Friendship 12 So David knew that the LORD had established him as king over Israel, and that He had exalted His kingdom for the sake of His people Israel.
13 And David took more concubines and wives from Jerusalem, after he had come from Hebron. Also more sons and daughters were born to David.
14 Now these are the names of those who were born to him in Jerusalem: Shammua,[c] Shobab, Nathan, Solomon, 15 Ibhar, Elishua,[d] Nepheg, Japhia,
16 Elishama, Eliada, and Eliphelet.

The Philistines Defeated

17 Now when the Philistines heard that they had anointed David king over Israel, all the Philistines went up to search for David. And David heard of it and went down to the stronghold.
18 The Philistines also went and deployed themselves in the Valley of Rephaim.
19 So David inquired of the LORD, saying, “Shall I go up against the Philistines? Will You deliver them into my hand?” And the LORD said to David, “Go up, for I will doubtless deliver the Philistines into your hand.” 20 So David went to Baal Perazim, and David defeated them there; and he said, “The LORD has broken through my enemies before me, like a breakthrough of water.”
Therefore he called the name of that place Baal Perazim.[e]

21 And they left their images there, and David and his men carried them away.

22 Then the Philistines went up once again and deployed themselves in the Valley of Rephaim.

23 Therefore David inquired of the LORD, and He said, “You shall not go up; circle around behind them, and come upon them in front of the mulberry trees.

24 “And it shall be, when you hear the sound of marching in the tops of the mulberry trees, then you shall advance quickly. For then the LORD will go out before you to strike the camp of the Philistines.”

25 And David did so, as the LORD commanded him; and he drove back the Philistines from Geba[f] as far as Gezer.

2 Samuel 6

The Ark Brought to Jerusalem

1 Again David gathered all the choice men of Israel, thirty thousand.
2 And David arose and went with all the people who were with him from Baale Judah to bring up from there the ark of God, whose name is called by the Name,[a] the LORD of Hosts, who dwells between the cherubim.
3 So they set the ark of God on a new cart, and brought it out of the house of Abinadab, which was on the hill; and Uzzah and Ahio, the sons of Abinadab, drove the new cart.[b] 4 And they brought it out of the house of Abinadab, which was on the hill, accompanying the ark of God; and Ahio went before the ark.
5 Then David and all the house of Israel played music before the LORD on all kinds of instruments of fir wood, on harps, on stringed instruments, on tambourines, on sistrums, and on cymbals.
6 And when they came to Nachon's threshing floor, Uzzah put out his hand to the ark of God and took hold of it, for the oxen stumbled.
7 Then the anger of the LORD was aroused against Uzzah, and God struck him there for his error; and he died there by the ark of God.
8 And David became angry because of the LORD's outbreak against Uzzah; and he called the name of the place Perez Uzzah[c] to this day.
9 David was afraid of the LORD that day; and he said,
"How can the ark of the LORD come to me?"
10 So David would not move the ark of the LORD with him into the City of David; but David took it aside into the house of Obed-Edom the Gittite.

11 The ark of the LORD remained in the house of Obed-Edom the Gittite three months. And the LORD blessed Obed-Edom and all his household.

12 Now it was told King David, saying, “The LORD has blessed the house of Obed-Edom and all that belongs to him, because of the ark of God.” So David went and brought up the ark of God from the house of Obed-Edom to the City of David with gladness.

13 And so it was, when those bearing the ark of the LORD had gone six paces, that he sacrificed oxen and fatted sheep.

14 Then David danced before the LORD with all his might; and David was wearing a linen ephod.

15 So David and all the house of Israel brought up the ark of the LORD with shouting and with the sound of the trumpet.

16 Now as the ark of the LORD came into the City of David, Michal, Saul’s daughter, looked through a window and saw King David leaping and whirling before the LORD; and she despised him in her heart.

17 So they brought the ark of the LORD, and set it in its place in the midst of the tabernacle that David had erected for it. Then David offered burnt offerings and peace offerings before the LORD.

18 And when David had finished offering burnt offerings and peace offerings, he blessed the people in the name of the LORD of hosts.

19 Then he distributed among all the people, among the whole multitude of Israel, both the women and the men, to everyone a loaf of bread, a piece of meat, and a cake of raisins. So all the people departed, everyone to his house.

20 Then David returned to bless his household. And Michal the daughter of Saul came out to meet David, and said, “How glorious was the king of Israel today, uncovering himself today in the eyes of the maids of his servants, as one of the base fellows shamelessly uncovers himself!”

21So David said to Michal, “It was before the LORD, who chose me instead of your father and all his house, to appoint me ruler over the people of the LORD, over Israel. Therefore I will play music before the LORD.

22“And I will be even more undignified than this, and will be humble in my own sight. But as for the maidservants of whom you have spoken, by them I will be held in honor.”

23Therefore Michal the daughter of Saul had no children to the day of her death.

2 Samuel 7

God's Covenant with David

1 Now it came to pass when the king was dwelling in his house, and the LORD had given him rest from all his enemies all around,
2 that the king said to Nathan the prophet, "See now, I dwell in a house of cedar, but the ark of God dwells inside tent curtains."
3 Then Nathan said to the king, "Go, do all that is in your heart, for the LORD is with you."
4 But it happened that night that the word of the LORD came to Nathan, saying,
5 "Go and tell My servant David, 'Thus says the LORD:
"Would you build a house for Me to dwell in?
6 "For I have not dwelt in a house since the time that I brought the children of Israel up from Egypt, even to this day, but have moved about in a tent and in a tabernacle.
7 "Wherever I have moved about with all the children of Israel, have I ever spoken a word to anyone from the tribes of Israel, whom I commanded to shepherd My people Israel, saying, 'Why have you not built Me a house of cedar?' " '
8 "Now therefore, thus shall you say to My servant David,
'Thus says the LORD of hosts: "I took you from the sheepfold, from following the sheep, to be ruler over My people, over Israel.
9 "And I have been with you wherever you have gone, and have cut off all your enemies from before you, and have made you a great name, like the name of the great men who are on the earth.

10 “Moreover I will appoint a place for My people Israel, and will plant them, that they may dwell in a place of their own and move no more; nor shall the sons of wickedness oppress them anymore, as previously, 11 “since the time that I commanded judges to be over My people Israel, and have caused you to rest from all your enemies. Also the LORD tells you that He will make you a house.[a] 12 “When your days are fulfilled and you rest with your fathers, I will set up your seed after you, who will come from your body, and I will establish his kingdom.
13 “He shall build a house for My name, and I will establish the throne of his kingdom forever.
14 “I will be his Father, and he shall be My son. If he commits iniquity, I will chasten him with the rod of men and with the blows of the sons of men.
15 “But My mercy shall not depart from him, as I took it from Saul, whom I removed from before you. Steadfast Mercy 16 “And your house and your kingdom shall be established forever before you.[b] Your throne shall be established forever.” ’ ”
17 According to all these words and according to all this vision, so Nathan spoke to David.

David’s Thanksgiving to God

18 Then King David went in and sat before the LORD; and he said: “Who am I, O Lord GOD? And what is my house, that You have brought me this far? David: Praiseworthy but Not Perfect 19 “And yet this was a small thing in Your sight, O Lord GOD; and You have also spoken of Your servant’s house for a great while to come. Is this the manner of man, O Lord
GOD?
20 “Now what more can David say to You? For You, Lord
GOD, know Your servant.

21 “For Your word’s sake, and according to Your own heart, You have done all these great things, to make Your servant know them.
22 “Therefore You are great, O Lord GOD.[c] For there is none like You, nor is there any God besides You, according to all that we have heard with our ears.
23 “And who is like Your people, like Israel, the one nation on the earth whom God went to redeem for Himself as a people, to make for Himself a name—and to do for Yourself great and awesome deeds for Your land—before Your people whom You redeemed for Yourself from Egypt, the nations, and their gods?
24 “For You have made Your people Israel Your very own people forever; and You, LORD, have become their God.
25 “Now, O LORD God, the word which You have spoken concerning Your servant and concerning his house, establish it forever and do as You have said.
26 “So let Your name be magnified forever, saying, ‘The LORD of hosts is the God over Israel.’ And let the house of Your servant David be established before You.
27 “For You, O LORD of hosts, God of Israel, have revealed this to Your servant, saying, ‘I will build you a house.’
Therefore Your servant has found it in his heart to pray this prayer to You.
28 “And now, O Lord GOD, You are God, and Your words are true, and You have promised this goodness to Your servant.
29 “Now therefore, let it please You to bless the house of Your servant, that it may continue before You forever; for You, O Lord GOD, have spoken it, and with Your blessing let the house of Your servant be blessed forever.”

2 Samuel 8

David's Further Conquests

1 After this it came to pass that David attacked the Philistines and subdued them. And David took Metheg Ammah from the hand of the Philistines.

2 Then he defeated Moab. Forcing them down to the ground, he measured them off with a line. With two lines he measured off those to be put to death, and with one full line those to be kept alive. So the Moabites became David's servants, and brought tribute.

3 David also defeated Hadadezer the son of Rehob, king of Zobah, as he went to recover his territory at the River Euphrates.

4 David took from him one thousand chariots, seven hundred[a] horsemen, and twenty thousand foot soldiers.
Also David hamstrung all the chariot horses, except that he spared enough of them for one hundred chariots.

5 When the Syrians of Damascus came to help Hadadezer king of Zobah, David killed twenty-two thousand of the Syrians.

6 Then David put garrisons in Syria of Damascus; and the Syrians became David's servants, and brought tribute. So the LORD preserved David wherever he went.

7 And David took the shields of gold that had belonged to the servants of Hadadezer, and brought them to Jerusalem.

8 Also from Betah[b] and from Berothai, cities of Hadadezer,
King David took a large amount of bronze.

9 When Toi[c] king of Hamath heard that David had defeated all the army of Hadadezer,

10 then Toi sent Joram[d] his son to King David, to greet him and bless him, because he had fought against Hadadezer and defeated him (for Hadadezer had been at war with Toi); and Joram brought with him articles of silver, articles of gold, and articles of bronze.

11 King David also dedicated these to the LORD, along with the silver and gold that he had dedicated from all the nations which he had subdued—

12 from Syria,[e] from Moab, from the people of Ammon, from the Philistines, from Amalek, and from the spoil of Hadadezer the son of Rehob, king of Zobah.

13 And David made himself a name when he returned from killing eighteen thousand Syrians[f] in the Valley of Salt.

Brutality Repeats Itself

14 He also put garrisons in Edom; throughout all Edom he put garrisons, and all the Edomites became David's servants. And the LORD preserved David wherever he went.

David's Administration

15 So David reigned over all Israel; and David administered judgment and justice to all his people.

16 Joab the son of Zeruiah was over the army; Jehoshaphat the son of Ahilud was recorder; How David Structured His Government

17 Zadok the son of Ahitub and Ahimelech the son of Abiathar were the priests; Seraiah[g] was the scribe;

18 Benaiah the son of Jehoiada was over both the Cherethites and the Pelethites; and David's sons were chief ministers.

2 Samuel 9

David's Kindness to Mephibosheth

1 Now David said, "Is there still anyone who is left of the house of Saul, that I may show him kindness for Jonathan's sake?" Keeping Kindnesses

2 And there was a servant of the house of Saul whose name was Ziba. So when they had called him to David, the king said to him, "Are you Ziba?" He said, "At your service!"

3 Then the king said, "Is there not still someone of the house of Saul, to whom I may show the kindness of God?"
And Ziba said to the king, "There is still a son of Jonathan who is lame in his feet."

4 So the king said to him, "Where is he?" And Ziba said to the king, "Indeed he is in the house of Machir the son of Ammiel, in Lo Debar."

5 Then King David sent and brought him out of the house of Machir the son of Ammiel, from Lo Debar.

6 Now when Mephibosheth the son of Jonathan, the son of Saul, had come to David, he fell on his face and prostrated himself. Then David said, "Mephibosheth?" And he answered, "Here is your servant!" Mephibosheth

7 So David said to him, "Do not fear, for I will surely show you kindness for Jonathan your father's sake, and will restore to you all the land of Saul your grandfather; and you shall eat bread at my table continually."

8 Then he bowed himself, and said, "What is your servant, that you should look upon such a dead dog as I?"

9 And the king called to Ziba, Saul's servant, and said to him, "I have given to your master's son all that belonged to Saul and to all his house.

10 “You therefore, and your sons and your servants, shall work the land for him, and you shall bring in the harvest, that your master’s son may have food to eat. But Mephibosheth your master’s son shall eat bread at my table always.” Now Ziba had fifteen sons and twenty servants.
11 Then Ziba said to the king, “According to all that my lord the king has commanded his servant, so will your servant do.” “As for Mephibosheth,” said the king, “he shall eat at my table[a] like one of the king’s sons.” 12 Mephibosheth had a young son whose name was Micha. And all who dwelt in the house of Ziba were servants of Mephibosheth.
13 So Mephibosheth dwelt in Jerusalem, for he ate continually at the king’s table. And he was lame in both his feet.

2 Samuel 10

The Ammonites and Syrians Defeated

1It happened after this that the king of the people of Ammon died, and Hanun his son reigned in his place.

2Then David said, “I will show kindness to Hanun the son of Nahash, as his father showed kindness to me.” So David sent by the hand of his servants to comfort him concerning his father. And David’s servants came into the land of the people of Ammon.

3And the princes of the people of Ammon said to Hanun their lord, “Do you think that David really honors your father because he has sent comforters to you? Has David not rather sent his servants to you to search the city, to spy it out, and to overthrow it?”

4Therefore Hanun took David’s servants, shaved off half of their beards, cut off their garments in the middle, at their buttocks, and sent them away.

5When they told David, he sent to meet them, because the men were greatly ashamed. And the king said, “Wait at Jericho until your beards have grown, and then return.”

6When the people of Ammon saw that they had made themselves repulsive to David, the people of Ammon sent and hired the Syrians of Beth Rehob and the Syrians of Zoba, twenty thousand foot soldiers; and from the king of Maacah one thousand men, and from Ish-Tob twelve thousand men.

7Now when David heard of it, he sent Joab and all the army of the mighty men. A Man Born to War

8Then the people of Ammon came out and put themselves in battle array at the entrance of the gate. And the Syrians of Zoba, Beth Rehob, Ish-Tob, and Maacah were by themselves in the field.

9When Joab saw that the battle line was against him before and behind, he chose some of Israel's best and put them in battle array against the Syrians.

10And the rest of the people he put under the command of Abishai his brother, that he might set them in battle array against the people of Ammon.

11Then he said, "If the Syrians are too strong for me, then you shall help me; but if the people of Ammon are too strong for you, then I will come and help you.

12"Be of good courage, and let us be strong for our people and for the cities of our God. And may the LORD do what is good in His sight."

13So Joab and the people who were with him drew near for the battle against the Syrians, and they fled before him.

14When the people of Ammon saw that the Syrians were fleeing, they also fled before Abishai, and entered the city. So Joab returned from the people of Ammon and went to Jerusalem.

15When the Syrians saw that they had been defeated by Israel, they gathered together.

16Then Hadadezer[a] sent and brought out the Syrians who were beyond the River,[b] and they came to Helam. And Shobach the commander of Hadadezer's army went before them.

17When it was told David, he gathered all Israel, crossed over the Jordan, and came to Helam. And the Syrians set themselves in battle array against David and fought with him.

18Then the Syrians fled before Israel; and David killed seven hundred charioteers and forty thousand horsemen of the Syrians, and struck Shobach the commander of their army, who died there.

19 And when all the kings who were servants to Hadadezer[c] saw that they were defeated by Israel, they made peace with Israel and served them. So the Syrians were afraid to help the people of Ammon anymore.

2 Samuel 11

David, Bathsheba, and Uriah

1 It happened in the spring of the year, at the time when kings go out to battle, that David sent Joab and his servants with him, and all Israel; and they destroyed the people of Ammon and besieged Rabbah. But David remained at Jerusalem.

2 Then it happened one evening that David arose from his bed and walked on the roof of the king's house. And from the roof he saw a woman bathing, and the woman was very beautiful to behold.

3 So David sent and inquired about the woman. And someone said, "Is this not Bathsheba, the daughter of Eliam, the wife of Uriah the Hittite?"

4 Then David sent messengers, and took her; and she came to him, and he lay with her, for she was cleansed from her impurity; and she returned to her house. Admit Early, Don't Cover Up

5 And the woman conceived; so she sent and told David, and said, "I am with child."

6 Then David sent to Joab, saying, "Send me Uriah the Hittite." And Joab sent Uriah to David.

7 When Uriah had come to him, David asked how Joab was doing, and how the people were doing, and how the war prospered.

8 And David said to Uriah, "Go down to your house and wash your feet." So Uriah departed from the king's house, and a gift of food from the king followed him.

9 But Uriah slept at the door of the king's house with all the servants of his lord, and did not go down to his house.

10So when they told David, saying, “Uriah did not go down to his house,” David said to Uriah, “Did you not come from a journey? Why did you not go down to your house?” 11And Uriah said to David, “The ark and Israel and Judah are dwelling in tents, and my lord Joab and the servants of my lord are encamped in the open fields. Shall I then go to my house to eat and drink, and to lie with my wife? As you live, and as your soul lives, I will not do this thing.” 12Then David said to Uriah, “Wait here today also, and tomorrow I will let you depart.” So Uriah remained in Jerusalem that day and the next.
13Now when David called him, he ate and drank before him; and he made him drunk. And at evening he went out to lie on his bed with the servants of his lord, but he did not go down to his house.
14In the morning it happened that David wrote a letter to Joab and sent it by the hand of Uriah.
15And he wrote in the letter, saying, “Set Uriah in the forefront of the hottest battle, and retreat from him, that he may be struck down and die.”
16So it was, while Joab besieged the city, that he assigned Uriah to a place where he knew there were valiant men.
17Then the men of the city came out and fought with Joab. And some of the people of the servants of David fell;
and Uriah the Hittite died also.
18Then Joab sent and told David all the things concerning the war, 19and charged the messenger, saying, “When you have finished telling the matters of the war to the king, 20“if it happens that the king’s wrath rises, and he says to you: ‘Why did you approach so near to the city when you fought? Did you not know that they would shoot from the wall?

21 ‘Who struck Abimelech the son of Jerubbesheth?[a] Was it not a woman who cast a piece of a millstone on him from the wall, so that he died in Thebez? Why did you go near the wall?’—then you shall say, ‘Your servant Uriah the Hittite is dead also.’ ”

22 So the messenger went, and came and told David all that Joab had sent by him.

23 And the messenger said to David, “Surely the men prevailed against us and came out to us in the field; then we drove them back as far as the entrance of the gate.

24 “The archers shot from the wall at your servants; and some of the king’s servants are dead, and your servant Uriah the Hittite is dead also.”

25 Then David said to the messenger, “Thus you shall say to Joab: ‘Do not let this thing displease you, for the sword devours one as well as another. Strengthen your attack against the city, and overthrow it.’ So encourage him.”

26 When the wife of Uriah heard that Uriah her husband was dead, she mourned for her husband.

27 And when her mourning was over, David sent and brought her to his house, and she became his wife and bore him a son. But the thing that David had done displeased the LORD.

2 Samuel 12

Nathan's Parable and David's Confession

1 Then the LORD sent Nathan to David. And he came to him, and said to him: "There were two men in one city, one rich and the other poor. Nathan

2 "The rich man had exceedingly many flocks and herds.

3 "But the poor man had nothing, except one little ewe lamb which he had bought and nourished; and it grew up together with him and with his children. It ate of his own food and drank from his own cup and lay in his bosom; and it was like a daughter to him.

4 "And a traveler came to the rich man, who refused to take from his own flock and from his own herd to prepare one for the wayfaring man who had come to him; but he took the poor man's lamb and prepared it for the man who had come to him."

5 So David's anger was greatly aroused against the man, and he said to Nathan, "As the LORD lives, the man who has done this shall surely die!

6 "And he shall restore fourfold for the lamb, because he did this thing and because he had no pity."

7 Then Nathan said to David, "You are the man! Thus says the LORD God of Israel: 'I anointed you king over Israel, and I delivered you from the hand of Saul. The Gift of a Prophet

8 'I gave you your master's house and your master's wives into your keeping, and gave you the house of Israel and Judah. And if that had been too little, I also would have given you much more!

9 'Why have you despised the commandment of the LORD, to do evil in His sight? You have killed Uriah the Hittite with the sword; you have taken his wife to be your wife, and have killed him with the sword of the people of Ammon.

10‘Now therefore, the sword shall never depart from your house, because you have despised Me, and have taken the wife of Uriah the Hittite to be your wife.’

11“Thus says the LORD: ‘Behold, I will raise up adversity against you from your own house; and I will take your wives before your eyes and give them to your neighbor, and he shall lie with your wives in the sight of this sun.

12‘For you did it secretly, but I will do this thing before all Israel, before the sun.’ ”

13So David said to Nathan, “I have sinned against the LORD.” And Nathan said to David, “The LORD also has put away your sin; you shall not die. I Have Sinned

14“However, because by this deed you have given great occasion to the enemies of the LORD to blaspheme, the child also who is born to you shall surely die.”

15Then Nathan departed to his house.

The Death of David’s Son

And the LORD struck the child that Uriah’s wife bore to David, and it became ill.

16David therefore pleaded with God for the child, and David fasted and went in and lay all night on the ground.

17So the elders of his house arose and went to him, to raise him up from the ground. But he would not, nor did he eat food with them.

18Then on the seventh day it came to pass that the child died. And the servants of David were afraid to tell him that the child was dead. For they said, “Indeed, while the child was alive, we spoke to him, and he would not heed our voice. How can we tell him that the child is dead? He may do some harm!”

19When David saw that his servants were whispering, David perceived that the child was dead. Therefore David said to his servants, “Is the child dead?” And they said, “He is dead.”
20So David arose from the ground, washed and anointed himself, and changed his clothes; and he went into the house of the LORD and worshiped. Then he went to his own house; and when he requested, they set food before him, and he ate.
21Then his servants said to him, “What is this that you have done? You fasted and wept for the child while he was alive, but when the child died, you arose and ate food.” 22And he said, “While the child was alive, I fasted and wept; for I said, ‘Who can tell whether the LORD[a] will be gracious to me, that the child may live?’ 23“But now he is dead; why should I fast? Can I bring him back again? I shall go to him, but he shall not return to me.”

Solomon Is Born

24Then David comforted Bathsheba his wife, and went in to her and lay with her. So she bore a son, and he[b] called his name Solomon. Now the LORD loved him, 25and He sent word by the hand of Nathan the prophet:
So he[c] called his name Jedidiah,[d] because of the LORD.

Rabbah Is Captured

26Now Joab fought against Rabbah of the people of Ammon, and took the royal city.
27And Joab sent messengers to David, and said, “I have fought against Rabbah, and I have taken the city’s water supply.
28“Now therefore, gather the rest of the people together and encamp against the city and take it, lest I take the city and it be called after my name.”

29So David gathered all the people together and went to Rabbah, fought against it, and took it.

30Then he took their king’s crown from his head. Its weight was a talent of gold, with precious stones. And it was set on David’s head. Also he brought out the spoil of the city in great abundance.

31And he brought out the people who were in it, and put them to work with saws and iron picks and iron axes, and made them cross over to the brick works. So he did to all the cities of the people of Ammon. Then David and all the people returned to Jerusalem.

2 Samuel 13

Amnon and Tamar

1 After this Absalom the son of David had a lovely sister, whose name was Tamar; and Amnon the son of David loved her. Absalom
2 Amnon was so distressed over his sister Tamar that he became sick; for she was a virgin. And it was improper for Amnon to do anything to her.
3 But Amnon had a friend whose name was Jonadab the son of Shimeah, David's brother. Now Jonadab was a very crafty man.
4 And he said to him, "Why are you, the king's son, becoming thinner day after day? Will you not tell me?" Amnon said to him, "I love Tamar, my brother Absalom's sister."
5 So Jonadab said to him, "Lie down on your bed and pretend to be ill. And when your father comes to see you, say to him, 'Please let my sister Tamar come and give me food, and prepare the food in my sight, that I may see it and eat it from her hand.' " 6 Then Amnon lay down and pretended to be ill; and when the king came to see him, Amnon said to the king, "Please let Tamar my sister come and make a couple of cakes for me in my sight, that I may eat from her hand." 7 And David sent home to Tamar, saying, "Now go to your brother Amnon's house, and prepare food for him." 8 So Tamar went to her brother Amnon's house; and he was lying down. Then she took flour and kneaded it, made cakes in his sight, and baked the cakes.
9 And she took the pan and placed them out before him, but he refused to eat. Then Amnon said, "Have everyone go out from me.” And they all went out from him.

10 Then Amnon said to Tamar, “Bring the food into the bedroom, that I may eat from your hand.” And Tamar took the cakes which she had made, and brought them to Amnon her brother in the bedroom.

11 Now when she had brought them to him to eat, he took hold of her and said to her, “Come, lie with me, my sister.”

12 But she answered him, “No, my brother, do not force me, for no such thing should be done in Israel. Do not do this disgraceful thing!

13 “And I, where could I take my shame? And as for you, you would be like one of the fools in Israel. Now therefore, please speak to the king; for he will not withhold me from you.”

14 However, he would not heed her voice; and being stronger than she, he forced her and lay with her.

15 Then Amnon hated her exceedingly, so that the hatred with which he hated her was greater than the love with which he had loved her. And Amnon said to her, “Arise, be gone!”

16 So she said to him, “No, indeed! This evil of sending me away is worse than the other that you did to me.” But he would not listen to her.

17 Then he called his servant who attended him, and said, “Here! Put this woman out, away from me, and bolt the door behind her.”

18 Now she had on a robe of many colors, for the king’s virgin daughters wore such apparel. And his servant put her out and bolted the door behind her.

19 Then Tamar put ashes on her head, and tore her robe of many colors that was on her, and laid her hand on her head and went away crying bitterly.

20 And Absalom her brother said to her, “Has Amnon your brother been with you? But now hold your peace, my sister.

He is your brother; do not take this thing to heart." So Tamar remained desolate in her brother Absalom's house.

21But when King David heard of all these things, he was very angry.

22And Absalom spoke to his brother Amnon neither good nor bad. For Absalom hated Amnon, because he had forced his sister Tamar.

Absalom Murders Amnon

23And it came to pass, after two full years, that Absalom had sheepshearers in Baal Hazor, which is near Ephraim; so Absalom invited all the king's sons.

24Then Absalom came to the king and said, "Kindly note, your servant has sheepshearers; please, let the king and his servants go with your servant."

25But the king said to Absalom, "No, my son, let us not all go now, lest we be a burden to you." Then he urged him, but he would not go; and he blessed him.

26Then Absalom said, "If not, please let my brother Amnon go with us." And the king said to him, "Why should he go with you?"

27But Absalom urged him; so he let Amnon and all the king's sons go with him.

28Now Absalom had commanded his servants, saying, "Watch now, when Amnon's heart is merry with wine, and when I say to you, 'Strike Amnon!' then kill him. Do not be afraid. Have I not commanded you? Be courageous and valiant." Drunkenness in the Bible

29So the servants of Absalom did to Amnon as Absalom had commanded. Then all the king's sons arose, and each one got on his mule and fled.

30And it came to pass, while they were on the way, that news came to David, saying, "Absalom has killed all the king's sons, and not one of them is left!"

31So the king arose and tore his garments and lay on the ground, and all his servants stood by with their clothes torn.

32Then Jonadab the son of Shimeah, David's brother, answered and said, "Let not my lord suppose they have killed all the young men, the king's sons, for only Amnon is dead. For by the command of Absalom this has been determined from the day that he forced his sister Tamar.

33"Now therefore, let not my lord the king take the thing to his heart, to think that all the king's sons are dead. For only Amnon is dead."

Absalom Flees to Geshur

34Then Absalom fled. And the young man who was keeping watch lifted his eyes and looked, and there, many people were coming from the road on the hillside behind him.[a]

35And Jonadab said to the king, "Look, the king's sons are coming; as your servant said, so it is."

36So it was, as soon as he had finished speaking, that the king's sons indeed came, and they lifted up their voice and wept. Also the king and all his servants wept very bitterly.

37But Absalom fled and went to Talmai the son of Ammihud, king of Geshur. And David mourned for his son every day.

38So Absalom fled and went to Geshur, and was there three years.

39And King David[b] longed to go to[c] Absalom. For he had been comforted concerning Amnon, because he was dead.

2 Samuel 14

Absalom Returns to Jerusalem

1 So Joab the son of Zeruiah perceived that the king's heart was concerned about Absalom.
2 And Joab sent to Tekoa and brought from there a wise woman, and said to her, "Please pretend to be a mourner, and put on mourning apparel; do not anoint yourself with oil, but act like a woman who has been mourning a long time for the dead.
3 "Go to the king and speak to him in this manner." So Joab put the words in her mouth.
4 And when the woman of Tekoa spoke[a] to the king, she fell on her face to the ground and prostrated herself, and said, "Help, O king!" 5 Then the king said to her, "What troubles you?" And she answered, "Indeed I am a widow, my husband is dead.
6 "Now your maidservant had two sons; and the two fought with each other in the field, and there was no one to part them, but the one struck the other and killed him.
7 "And now the whole family has risen up against your maidservant, and they said, 'Deliver him who struck his brother, that we may execute him for the life of his brother whom he killed; and we will destroy the heir also.' So they would extinguish my ember that is left, and leave to my husband neither name nor remnant on the earth." 8 Then the king said to the woman, "Go to your house, and I will give orders concerning you." 9 And the woman of Tekoa said to the king, "My lord, O king, let the iniquity be on me and on my father's house, and the king and his throne be guiltless."

10 So the king said, “Whoever says anything to you, bring him to me, and he shall not touch you anymore.” 11 Then she said, “Please let the king remember the LORD your God, and do not permit the avenger of blood to destroy anymore, lest they destroy my son.” And he said, “As the LORD lives, not one hair of your son shall fall to the ground.”
12 Therefore the woman said, “Please, let your maidservant speak another word to my lord the king.” And he said, “Say on.”
13 So the woman said: “Why then have you schemed such a thing against the people of God? For the king speaks this thing as one who is guilty, in that the king does not bring his banished one home again.
14 “For we will surely die and become like water spilled on the ground, which cannot be gathered up again. Yet God does not take away a life; but He devises means, so that His banished ones are not expelled from Him.
15 “Now therefore, I have come to speak of this thing to my lord the king because the people have made me afraid.
And your maidservant said, ‘I will now speak to the king; it may be that the king will perform the request of his maidservant.
16 ‘For the king will hear and deliver his maidservant from the hand of the man who would destroy me and my son together from the inheritance of God.’
17 “Your maidservant said, ‘The word of my lord the king will now be comforting; for as the angel of God, so is my lord the king in discerning good and evil. And may the LORD your God be with you.’ ”
18 Then the king answered and said to the woman, “Please do not hide from me anything that I ask you.” And the woman said, “Please, let my lord the king speak.”

19So the king said, “Is the hand of Joab with you in all this?” And the woman answered and said, “As you live, my lord the king, no one can turn to the right hand or to the left from anything that my lord the king has spoken. For your servant Joab commanded me, and he put all these words in the mouth of your maidservant.

20“To bring about this change of affairs your servant Joab has done this thing; but my lord is wise, according to the wisdom of the angel of God, to know everything that is in the earth.”

21And the king said to Joab, “All right, I have granted this thing. Go therefore, bring back the young man Absalom.”

22Then Joab fell to the ground on his face and bowed himself, and thanked the king. And Joab said, “Today your servant knows that I have found favor in your sight, my lord, O king, in that the king has fulfilled the request of his servant.”

23So Joab arose and went to Geshur, and brought Absalom to Jerusalem.

24And the king said, “Let him return to his own house, but do not let him see my face.” So Absalom returned to his own house, but did not see the king’s face. Fathers and Sons in Conflict

David Forgives Absalom

25Now in all Israel there was no one who was praised as much as Absalom for his good looks. From the sole of his foot to the crown of his head there was no blemish in him.

26And when he cut the hair of his head—at the end of every year he cut it because it was heavy on him—when he cut it, he weighed the hair of his head at two hundred shekels according to the king’s standard. Not Such a Sign of Strength

27To Absalom were born three sons, and one daughter whose name was Tamar. She was a woman of beautiful appearance.

28And Absalom dwelt two full years in Jerusalem, but did not see the king’s face.

29Therefore Absalom sent for Joab, to send him to the king, but he would not come to him. And when he sent again the second time, he would not come.

30So he said to his servants, “See, Joab’s field is near mine, and he has barley there; go and set it on fire.” And Absalom’s servants set the field on fire.

31Then Joab arose and came to Absalom’s house, and said to him, “Why have your servants set my field on fire?”

32And Absalom answered Joab, “Look, I sent to you, saying, ‘Come here, so that I may send you to the king, to say, “Why have I come from Geshur? It would be better for me to be there still.” ’ Now therefore, let me see the king’s face; but if there is iniquity in me, let him execute me.”

33So Joab went to the king and told him. And when he had called for Absalom, he came to the king and bowed himself on his face to the ground before the king. Then the king kissed Absalom.

2 Samuel 15

Absalom's Treason

1 After this it happened that Absalom provided himself with chariots and horses, and fifty men to run before him. Stealing Hearts in the Gates of Justice
2 Now Absalom would rise early and stand beside the way to the gate. So it was, whenever anyone who had a lawsuit came to the king for a decision, that Absalom would call to him and say, "What city are you from?" And he would say,
"Your servant is from such and such a tribe of Israel."
3 Then Absalom would say to him, "Look, your case is good and right; but there is no deputy of the king to hear
you."
4 Moreover Absalom would say, "Oh, that I were made judge in the land, and everyone who has any suit or cause would come to me; then I would give him justice."
5 And so it was, whenever anyone came near to bow down to him, that he would put out his hand and take him and kiss him.
6 In this manner Absalom acted toward all Israel who came to the king for judgment. So Absalom stole the hearts of the men of Israel.
7 Now it came to pass after forty[a] years that Absalom said to the king, "Please, let me go to Hebron and pay the vow which I made to the LORD.
8 "For your servant took a vow while I dwelt at Geshur in Syria, saying, 'If the LORD indeed brings me back to Jerusalem, then I will serve the LORD.' " 9 And the king said to him, "Go in peace." So he arose and went to Hebron.

10Then Absalom sent spies throughout all the tribes of Israel, saying, “As soon as you hear the sound of the trumpet, then you shall say, ‘Absalom reigns in Hebron!’ ”

11And with Absalom went two hundred men invited from Jerusalem, and they went along innocently and did not know anything.

12Then Absalom sent for Ahithophel the Gilonite, David’s counselor, from his city—from Giloh—while he offered sacrifices. And the conspiracy grew strong, for the people with Absalom continually increased in number.

David Escapes from Jerusalem

13Now a messenger came to David, saying, “The hearts of the men of Israel are with Absalom.”

14So David said to all his servants who were with him at Jerusalem, “Arise, and let us flee, or we shall not escape from Absalom. Make haste to depart, lest he overtake us suddenly and bring disaster upon us, and strike the city with the edge of the sword.” Weeping in the Wilderness

15And the king’s servants said to the king, “We are your servants, ready to do whatever my lord the king commands.”

16Then the king went out with all his household after him. But the king left ten women, concubines, to keep the house.

17And the king went out with all the people after him, and stopped at the outskirts.

18Then all his servants passed before him; and all the Cherethites, all the Pelethites, and all the Gittites, six hundred men who had followed him from Gath, passed before the king.

19Then the king said to Ittai the Gittite, “Why are you also going with us? Return and remain with the king. For you are a foreigner and also an exile from your own place.

20 “In fact, you came only yesterday. Should I make you wander up and down with us today, since I go I know not where? Return, and take your brethren back. Mercy and truth be with you.”
21 But Ittai answered the king and said, “As the LORD lives, and as my lord the king lives, surely in whatever place my lord the king shall be, whether in death or life, even there also your servant will be.”
22 So David said to Ittai, “Go, and cross over.” Then Ittai the Gittite and all his men and all the little ones who were with him crossed over.
23 And all the country wept with a loud voice, and all the people crossed over. The king himself also crossed over the Brook Kidron, and all the people crossed over toward the way of the wilderness.
24 There was Zadok also, and all the Levites with him, bearing the ark of the covenant of God. And they set down the ark of God, and Abiathar went up until all the people had finished crossing over from the city.
25 Then the king said to Zadok, “Carry the ark of God back into the city. If I find favor in the eyes of the LORD, He will bring me back and show me both it and His dwelling place.
26 “But if He says thus: ‘I have no delight in you,’ here I am, let Him do to me as seems good to Him.” 27 The king also said to Zadok the priest, “Are you not a seer? Return to the city in peace, and your two sons with you, Ahimaaz your son, and Jonathan the son of Abiathar.
28 “See, I will wait in the plains of the wilderness until word comes from you to inform me.”
29 Therefore Zadok and Abiathar carried the ark of God back to Jerusalem. And they remained there.
30 So David went up by the Ascent of the Mount of Olives, and wept as he went up; and he had his head covered and went barefoot. And all the people who were with him covered their heads and went up, weeping as they went up.

31 Then someone told David, saying, “Ahithophel is among the conspirators with Absalom.” And David said, “O LORD, I pray, turn the counsel of Ahithophel into foolishness!”

32 Now it happened when David had come to the top of the mountain, where he worshiped God—there was Hushai the Archite coming to meet him with his robe torn and dust on his head.

33 David said to him, “If you go on with me, then you will become a burden to me.

34 “But if you return to the city, and say to Absalom, ‘I will be your servant, O king; as I was your father’s servant previously, so I will now also be your servant,’ then you may defeat the counsel of Ahithophel for me.

35 “And do you not have Zadok and Abiathar the priests with you there? Therefore it will be that whatever you hear from the king’s house, you shall tell to Zadok and Abiathar the priests.

36 “Indeed they have there with them their two sons, Ahimaaz, Zadok’s son, and Jonathan, Abiathar’s son; and by them you shall send me everything you hear.”

37 So Hushai, David’s friend, went into the city. And Absalom came into Jerusalem.

2 Samuel 16

Mephibosheth's Servant

1When David was a little past the top of the mountain, there was Ziba the servant of Mephibosheth, who met him with a couple of saddled donkeys, and on them two hundred loaves of bread, one hundred clusters of raisins, one hundred summer fruits, and a skin of wine.

2And the king said to Ziba, "What do you mean to do with these?" So Ziba said, "The donkeys are for the king's household to ride on, the bread and summer fruit for the young men to eat, and the wine for those who are faint in the wilderness to drink."

3Then the king said, "And where is your master's son?" And Ziba said to the king, "Indeed he is staying in Jerusalem, for he said, 'Today the house of Israel will restore the kingdom of my father to me.' "

4So the king said to Ziba, "Here, all that belongs to Mephibosheth is yours." And Ziba said, "I humbly bow before you, that I may find favor in your sight, my lord, O king!"

Shimei Curses David

5Now when King David came to Bahurim, there was a man from the family of the house of Saul, whose name was Shimei the son of Gera, coming from there. He came out, cursing continuously as he came.

6And he threw stones at David and at all the servants of King David. And all the people and all the mighty men were on his right hand and on his left.

7Also Shimei said thus when he cursed: "Come out! Come out! You bloodthirsty man, you rogue!

8 “The LORD has brought upon you all the blood of the house of Saul, in whose place you have reigned; and the LORD has delivered the kingdom into the hand of Absalom your son. So now you are caught in your own evil, because you are a bloodthirsty man!” 9 Then Abishai the son of Zeruiah said to the king, “Why should this dead dog curse my lord the king? Please, let me go over and take off his head!”
10 But the king said, “What have I to do with you, you sons of Zeruiah? So let him curse, because the LORD has said to him, ‘Curse David.’ Who then shall say, ‘Why have you done so?’ ”
11 And David said to Abishai and all his servants, “See how my son who came from my own body seeks my life.
How much more now may this Benjamite? Let him alone, and let him curse; for so the LORD has ordered him.
12 “It may be that the LORD will look on my affliction,[a] and that the LORD will repay me with good for his cursing
this day.”
13 And as David and his men went along the road, Shimei went along the hillside opposite him and cursed as he went, threw stones at him and kicked up dust.
14 Now the king and all the people who were with him became weary; so they refreshed themselves there.

The Advice of Ahithophel

15 Meanwhile Absalom and all the people, the men of Israel, came to Jerusalem; and Ahithophel was with him.
16 And so it was, when Hushai the Archite, David’s friend, came to Absalom, that Hushai said to Absalom, “Long live the king! Long live the king!” 17 So Absalom said to Hushai, “Is this your loyalty to your friend? Why did you not go with your friend?”

18 And Hushai said to Absalom, “No, but whom the LORD and this people and all the men of Israel choose, his I will be, and with him I will remain.
19 “Furthermore, whom should I serve? Should I not serve in the presence of his son? As I have served in your father’s presence, so will I be in your presence.” 20 Then Absalom said to Ahithophel, “Give advice as to what we should do.”
21 And Ahithophel said to Absalom, “Go in to your father’s concubines, whom he has left to keep the house; and all Israel will hear that you are abhorred by your father. Then the hands of all who are with you will be strong.” 22 So they pitched a tent for Absalom on the top of the house, and Absalom went in to his father’s concubines in the sight of all Israel.
23 Now the advice of Ahithophel, which he gave in those days, was as if one had inquired at the oracle of God. So was all the advice of Ahithophel both with David and with Absalom.

2 Samuel 17

1 Moreover Ahithophel said to Absalom, “Now let me choose twelve thousand men, and I will arise and pursue David tonight.
2 “I will come upon him while he is weary and weak, and make him afraid. And all the people who are with him will flee, and I will strike only the king.
3 “Then I will bring back all the people to you. When all return except the man whom you seek, all the people will be at peace.”
4 And the saying pleased Absalom and all the elders of Israel.

The Advice of Hushai

5 Then Absalom said, “Now call Hushai the Archite also,
and let us hear what he says too.” 6 And when Hushai came to Absalom, Absalom spoke to him, saying, “Ahithophel has spoken in this manner. Shall we do as he says? If not, speak up.” 7 So Hushai said to Absalom: “The advice that Ahithophel has given is not good at this time.
8 “For,” said Hushai, “you know your father and his men, that they are mighty men, and they are enraged in their minds, like a bear robbed of her cubs in the field; and your father is a man of war, and will not camp with the people.
9 “Surely by now he is hidden in some pit, or in some other place. And it will be, when some of them are overthrown at the first, that whoever hears it will say, ‘There is a slaughter among the people who follow
Absalom.’

10 “And even he who is valiant, whose heart is like the heart of a lion, will melt completely. For all Israel knows that your father is a mighty man, and those who are with him are valiant men.
11 “Therefore I advise that all Israel be fully gathered to you, from Dan to Beersheba, like the sand that is by the sea for multitude, and that you go to battle in person.
12 “So we will come upon him in some place where he may be found, and we will fall on him as the dew falls on the ground. And of him and all the men who are with him there shall not be left so much as one.
13 “Moreover, if he has withdrawn into a city, then all Israel shall bring ropes to that city; and we will pull it into the river, until there is not one small stone found there.” 14 So Absalom and all the men of Israel said, “The advice of Hushai the Archite is better than the advice of Ahithophel.” For the LORD had purposed to defeat the good advice of Ahithophel, to the intent that the LORD might bring disaster on Absalom. Ahithophel

Hushai Warns David to Escape

15 Then Hushai said to Zadok and Abiathar the priests, “Thus and so Ahithophel advised Absalom and the elders of Israel, and thus and so I have advised.
16 “Now therefore, send quickly and tell David, saying, ‘Do not spend this night in the plains of the wilderness, but speedily cross over, lest the king and all the people who are with him be swallowed up.’ ” 17 Now Jonathan and Ahimaaz stayed at En Rogel, for they dared not be seen coming into the city; so a female servant would come and tell them, and they would go and tell King David.
18 Nevertheless a lad saw them, and told Absalom. But both of them went away quickly and came to a man’s house in Bahurim, who had a well in his court; and they went down into it.

19 Then the woman took and spread a covering over the well's mouth, and spread ground grain on it; and the thing was not known.

20 And when Absalom's servants came to the woman at the house, they said, "Where are Ahimaaz and Jonathan?" So the woman said to them, "They have gone over the water brook." And when they had searched and could not find them, they returned to Jerusalem.

21 Now it came to pass, after they had departed, that they came up out of the well and went and told King David, and said to David, "Arise and cross over the water quickly. For thus has Ahithophel advised against you."

22 So David and all the people who were with him arose and crossed over the Jordan. By morning light not one of them was left who had not gone over the Jordan.

23 Now when Ahithophel saw that his advice was not followed, he saddled a donkey, and arose and went home to his house, to his city. Then he put his household in order, and hanged himself, and died; and he was buried in his father's tomb.

24 Then David went to Mahanaim. And Absalom crossed over the Jordan, he and all the men of Israel with him.

25 And Absalom made Amasa captain of the army instead of Joab. This Amasa was the son of a man whose name was Jithra,[a] an Israelite,[b] who had gone in to Abigail the daughter of Nahash, sister of Zeruiah, Joab's mother.

26 So Israel and Absalom encamped in the land of Gilead.

27 Now it happened, when David had come to Mahanaim, that Shobi the son of Nahash from Rabbah of the people of Ammon, Machir the son of Ammiel from Lo Debar, and Barzillai the Gileadite from Rogelim,

[28]brought beds and basins, earthen vessels and wheat, barley and flour, parched grain and beans, lentils and parched seeds,

[29]honey and curds, sheep and cheese of the herd, for David and the people who were with him to eat. For they said, “The people are hungry and weary and thirsty in the wilderness.”

2 Samuel 18

Absalom's Defeat and Death

1 And David numbered the people who were with him, and set captains of thousands and captains of hundreds over
them.
2 Then David sent out one third of the people under the hand of Joab, one third under the hand of Abishai the son of Zeruiah, Joab's brother, and one third under the hand of Ittai the Gittite. And the king said to the people, "I also will surely go out with you myself." 3 But the people answered, "You shall not go out! For if we flee away, they will not care about us; nor if half of us die, will they care about us. But you are worth ten thousand of us now. For you are now more help to us in the city." 4 Then the king said to them, "Whatever seems best to you I will do." So the king stood beside the gate, and all the people went out by hundreds and by thousands.
5 Now the king had commanded Joab, Abishai, and Ittai, saying, "Deal gently for my sake with the young man Absalom." And all the people heard when the king gave all the captains orders concerning Absalom.
6 So the people went out into the field of battle against Israel. And the battle was in the woods of Ephraim.
7 The people of Israel were overthrown there before the servants of David, and a great slaughter of twenty thousand took place there that day.
8 For the battle there was scattered over the face of the whole countryside, and the woods devoured more people that day than the sword devoured.
9 Then Absalom met the servants of David. Absalom rode on a mule. The mule went under the thick boughs of a great terebinth tree, and his head caught in the terebinth; so he was left hanging between heaven and earth. And the mule which was under him went on.

10 Now a certain man saw it and told Joab, and said, “I just saw Absalom hanging in a terebinth tree!”

11 So Joab said to the man who told him, “You just saw him! And why did you not strike him there to the ground? I would have given you ten shekels of silver and a belt.”

12 But the man said to Joab, “Though I were to receive a thousand shekels of silver in my hand, I would not raise my hand against the king’s son. For in our hearing the king commanded you and Abishai and Ittai, saying, ‘Beware lest anyone touch the young man Absalom!’[a]

13 “Otherwise I would have dealt falsely against my own life. For there is nothing hidden from the king, and you yourself would have set yourself against me.”

14 Then Joab said, “I cannot linger with you.” And he took three spears in his hand and thrust them through Absalom’s heart, while he was still alive in the midst of the terebinth tree.

15 And ten young men who bore Joab’s armor surrounded Absalom, and struck and killed him.

16 So Joab blew the trumpet, and the people returned from pursuing Israel. For Joab held back the people.

17 And they took Absalom and cast him into a large pit in the woods, and laid a very large heap of stones over him. Then all Israel fled, everyone to his tent.

18 Now Absalom in his lifetime had taken and set up a pillar for himself, which is in the King’s Valley. For he said, “I have no son to keep my name in remembrance.” He called the pillar after his own name. And to this day it is called Absalom’s Monument.

David Hears of Absalom’s Death

19Then Ahimaaz the son of Zadok said, “Let me run now and take the news to the king, how the LORD has avenged him of his enemies.”

20And Joab said to him, “You shall not take the news this day, for you shall take the news another day. But today you shall take no news, because the king’s son is dead.”

21Then Joab said to the Cushite, “Go, tell the king what you have seen.” So the Cushite bowed himself to Joab and ran.

22And Ahimaaz the son of Zadok said again to Joab, “But whatever happens, please let me also run after the Cushite.” So Joab said, “Why will you run, my son, since you have no news ready?”

23“But whatever happens,” he said, “let me run.” So he said to him, “Run.” Then Ahimaaz ran by way of the plain, and outran the Cushite.

24Now David was sitting between the two gates. And the watchman went up to the roof over the gate, to the wall, lifted his eyes and looked, and there was a man, running alone.

25Then the watchman cried out and told the king. And the king said, “If he is alone, there is news in his mouth.” And he came rapidly and drew near.

26Then the watchman saw another man running, and the watchman called to the gatekeeper and said, “There is another man, running alone!” And the king said, “He also brings news.”

27So the watchman said, “I think the running of the first is like the running of Ahimaaz the son of Zadok.” And the king said, “He is a good man, and comes with good news.”

28So Ahimaaz called out and said to the king, “All is well!” Then he bowed down with his face to the earth before the king, and said, “Blessed be the LORD your God, who has delivered up the men who raised their hand against my lord the king!”

29The king said, “Is the young man Absalom safe?” Ahimaaz answered, “When Joab sent the king’s servant and me your servant, I saw a great tumult, but I did not know what it was about.”

30And the king said, “Turn aside and stand here.” So he turned aside and stood still.

31Just then the Cushite came, and the Cushite said, “There is good news, my lord the king! For the LORD has avenged you this day of all those who rose against you.”

32And the king said to the Cushite, “Is the young man Absalom safe?” So the Cushite answered, “May the enemies of my lord the king, and all who rise against you to do harm, be like that young man!”

David’s Mourning for Absalom

33Then the king was deeply moved, and went up to the chamber over the gate, and wept. And as he went, he said thus: “O my son Absalom—my son, my son Absalom—if only I had died in your place! O Absalom my son, my son!” A Father’s Anguish

2 Samuel 19

1 And Joab was told, “Behold, the king is weeping and mourning for Absalom.”
2 So the victory that day was turned into mourning for all the people. For the people heard it said that day, “The king is grieved for his son.”
3 And the people stole back into the city that day, as people who are ashamed steal away when they flee in battle.
4 But the king covered his face, and the king cried out with a loud voice, “O my son Absalom! O Absalom, my son, my son!”
5 Then Joab came into the house to the king, and said, “Today you have disgraced all your servants who today have saved your life, the lives of your sons and daughters, the lives of your wives and the lives of your concubines, 6 “in that you love your enemies and hate your friends.
For you have declared today that you regard neither princes nor servants; for today I perceive that if Absalom had lived and all of us had died today, then it would have pleased you well.
7 “Now therefore, arise, go out and speak comfort to your servants. For I swear by the LORD, if you do not go out, not one will stay with you this night. And that will be worse for you than all the evil that has befallen you from your youth until now.”
8 Then the king arose and sat in the gate. And they told all the people, saying, “There is the king, sitting in the gate.”
So all the people came before the king. For everyone of Israel had fled to his tent.

David Returns to Jerusalem

9Now all the people were in a dispute throughout all the tribes of Israel, saying, “The king saved us from the hand of our enemies, he delivered us from the hand of the Philistines, and now he has fled from the land because of Absalom.

10“But Absalom, whom we anointed over us, has died in battle. Now therefore, why do you say nothing about bringing back the king?”

11So King David sent to Zadok and Abiathar the priests, saying, “Speak to the elders of Judah, saying, ‘Why are you the last to bring the king back to his house, since the words of all Israel have come to the king, to his very house?

12‘You are my brethren, you are my bone and my flesh. Why then are you the last to bring back the king?’

13“And say to Amasa, ‘Are you not my bone and my flesh? God do so to me, and more also, if you are not commander of the army before me continually in place of Joab.’ ”

14So he swayed the hearts of all the men of Judah, just as the heart of one man, so that they sent this word to the king: “Return, you and all your servants!”

15Then the king returned and came to the Jordan. And Judah came to Gilgal, to go to meet the king, to escort the king across the Jordan.

16And Shimei the son of Gera, a Benjamite, who was from Bahurim, hurried and came down with the men of Judah to meet King David.

17*There were* a thousand men of Benjamin with him, and Ziba the servant of the house of Saul, and his fifteen sons and his twenty servants with him; and they went over the Jordan before the king.

18Then a ferryboat went across to carry over the king’s household, and to do what he thought good.

David’s Mercy to Shimei

Now Shimei the son of Gera fell down before the king when he had crossed the Jordan.

19 Then he said to the king, “Do not let my lord impute iniquity to me, or remember what wrong your servant did on the day that my lord the king left Jerusalem, that the king should take it to heart.

20 “For I, your servant, know that I have sinned. Therefore here I am, the first to come today of all the house of Joseph to go down to meet my lord the king.”

21 But Abishai the son of Zeruiah answered and said, “Shall not Shimei be put to death for this, because he cursed the LORD’s anointed?”

22 And David said, “What have I to do with you, you sons of Zeruiah, that you should be adversaries to me today? Shall any man be put to death today in Israel? For do I not know that today I am king over Israel?” A Gracious King

23 Therefore the king said to Shimei, “You shall not die.” And the king swore to him.

David and Mephibosheth Meet

24 Now Mephibosheth the son of Saul came down to meet the king. And he had not cared for his feet, nor trimmed his mustache, nor washed his clothes, from the day the king departed until the day he returned in peace.

25 So it was, when he had come to Jerusalem to meet the king, that the king said to him, “Why did you not go with me, Mephibosheth?”

26 And he answered, “My lord, O king, my servant deceived me. For your servant said, ‘I will saddle a donkey for myself, that I may ride on it and go to the king,’ because your servant is lame.

27 “And he has slandered your servant to my lord the king, but my lord the king is like the angel of God. Therefore do what is good in your eyes.

28“For all my father’s house were but dead men before my lord the king. Yet you set your servant among those who eat at your own table. Therefore what right have I still to cry out anymore to the king?” 29So the king said to him, “Why do you speak anymore of your matters? I have said, ‘You and Ziba divide the land.’ ” 30Then Mephibosheth said to the king, “Rather, let him take it all, inasmuch as my lord the king has come back in peace to his own house.”

David’s Kindness to Barzillai

31And Barzillai the Gileadite came down from Rogelim and went across the Jordan with the king, to escort him across the Jordan.
32Now Barzillai was a very aged man, eighty years old.
And he had provided the king with supplies while he stayed at Mahanaim, for he was a very rich man.
33And the king said to Barzillai, “Come across with me, and I will provide for you while you are with me in Jerusalem.”
34But Barzillai said to the king, “How long have I to live, that I should go up with the king to Jerusalem?
35“I am today eighty years old. Can I discern between the good and bad? Can your servant taste what I eat or what I drink? Can I hear any longer the voice of singing men and singing women? Why then should your servant be a further burden to my lord the king?
36“Your servant will go a little way across the Jordan with the king. And why should the king repay me with such a reward?
37“Please let your servant turn back again, that I may die in my own city, near the grave of my father and mother. But here is your servant Chimham; let him cross over with my lord the king, and do for him what seems good to you.”

38 And the king answered, “Chimham shall cross over with me, and I will do for him what seems good to you. Now whatever you request of me, I will do for you.” 39 Then all the people went over the Jordan. And when the king had crossed over, the king kissed Barzillai and blessed him, and he returned to his own place.

The Quarrel About the King

40 Now the king went on to Gilgal, and Chimham[a] went on with him. And all the people of Judah escorted the king, and also half the people of Israel.
41 Just then all the men of Israel came to the king, and said to the king, “Why have our brethren, the men of Judah, stolen you away and brought the king, his household, and all David’s men with him across the Jordan?”
42 So all the men of Judah answered the men of Israel, “Because the king is a close relative of ours. Why then are you angry over this matter? Have we ever eaten at the king’s expense? Or has he given us any gift?” 43 And the men of Israel answered the men of Judah, and said, “We have ten shares in the king; therefore we also have more right to David than you. Why then do you despise us—were we not the first to advise bringing back our king?” Yet the words of the men of Judah were fiercer than the words of the men of Israel.

2 Samuel 20

The Rebellion of Sheba

1 And there happened to be there a rebel,[a] whose name was Sheba the son of Bichri, a Benjamite. And he blew a trumpet, and said:

> “We have no share in David,
> Nor do we have inheritance in the son of > Jesse;
> Every man to his tents, O Israel!”

2 So every man of Israel deserted David, and followed Sheba the son of Bichri. But the men of Judah, from the Jordan as far as Jerusalem, remained loyal to their king.
3 Now David came to his house at Jerusalem. And the king took the ten women, his concubines whom he had left to keep the house, and put them in seclusion and supported them, but did not go in to them. So they were shut up to the day of their death, living in widowhood.
4 And the king said to Amasa, “Assemble the men of Judah for me within three days, and be present here yourself.” 5 So Amasa went to assemble the men of Judah. But he delayed longer than the set time which David had appointed him.
6 And David said to Abishai, “Now Sheba the son of Bichri will do us more harm than Absalom. Take your lord’s servants and pursue him, lest he find for himself fortified cities, and escape us.”
7 So Joab’s men, with the Cherethites, the Pelethites, and all the mighty men, went out after him. And they went out of Jerusalem to pursue Sheba the son of Bichri.

[8]When they were at the large stone which is in Gibeon, Amasa came before them. Now Joab was dressed in battle armor; on it was a belt with a sword fastened in its sheath at his hips; and as he was going forward, it fell out.

[9]Then Joab said to Amasa, "Are you in health, my brother?" And Joab took Amasa by the beard with his right hand to kiss him.

[10]But Amasa did not notice the sword that was in Joab's hand. And he struck him with it in the stomach, and his entrails poured out on the ground; and he did not strike him again. Thus he died. Then Joab and Abishai his brother pursued Sheba the son of Bichri.

[11]Meanwhile one of Joab's men stood near Amasa, and said, "Whoever favors Joab and whoever is for David—follow Joab!"

[12]But Amasa wallowed in his blood in the middle of the highway. And when the man saw that all the people stood still, he moved Amasa from the highway to the field and threw a garment over him, when he saw that everyone who came upon him halted.

[13]When he was removed from the highway, all the people went on after Joab to pursue Sheba the son of Bichri.

14And he went through all the tribes of Israel to Abel and Beth Maachah and all the Berites. So they were gathered together and also went after Sheba.[b]

[15]Then they came and besieged him in Abel of Beth Maachah; and they cast up a siege mound against the city, and it stood by the rampart. And all the people who were with Joab battered the wall to throw it down.

16Then a wise woman cried out from the city, "Hear, hear! Please say to Joab, 'Come nearby, that I may speak with you.' "

[17]When he had come near to her, the woman said, "Are you Joab?" He answered, "I am." Then she said to him,

“Hear the words of your maidservant.” And he answered, “I am listening.”

18So she spoke, saying, “They used to talk in former times, saying, ‘They shall surely seek guidance at Abel,’ and so they would end disputes.

19“I am among the peaceable and faithful in Israel. You seek to destroy a city and a mother in Israel. Why would you swallow up the inheritance of the LORD?”

20And Joab answered and said, “Far be it, far be it from me, that I should swallow up or destroy!

21“That is not so. But a man from the mountains of Ephraim, Sheba the son of Bichri by name, has raised his hand against the king, against David. Deliver him only, and I will depart from the city.” So the woman said to Joab, “Watch, his head will be thrown to you over the wall.”

22Then the woman in her wisdom went to all the people. And they cut off the head of Sheba the son of Bichri, and threw it out to Joab. Then he blew a trumpet, and they withdrew from the city, every man to his tent. So Joab returned to the king at Jerusalem.

David’s Government Officers

23And Joab was over all the army of Israel; Benaiah the son of Jehoiada was over the Cherethites and the Pelethites;

24Adoram was in charge of revenue; Jehoshaphat the son of Ahilud was recorder;

25Sheva was scribe; Zadok and Abiathar were the priests;

26and Ira the Jairite was a chief minister under David.

2 Samuel 21

David Avenges the Gibeonites

1 Now there was a famine in the days of David for three years, year after year; and David inquired of the LORD. And the LORD answered, "It is because of Saul and his bloodthirsty house, because he killed the Gibeonites." A

Spiritual Cause to a Natural Event

2 So the king called the Gibeonites and spoke to them.
Now the Gibeonites were not of the children of Israel, but of the remnant of the Amorites; the children of Israel had sworn protection to them, but Saul had sought to kill them in his zeal for the children of Israel and Judah.

3 Therefore David said to the Gibeonites, "What shall I do for you? And with what shall I make atonement, that you may bless the inheritance of the LORD?"

4 And the Gibeonites said to him, "We will have no silver or gold from Saul or from his house, nor shall you kill any man in Israel for us." So he said, "Whatever you say, I will do for you."

5 Then they answered the king, "As for the man who consumed us and plotted against us, that we should be destroyed from remaining in any of the territories of Israel,

6 "let seven men of his descendants be delivered to us, and we will hang them before the LORD in Gibeah of Saul, whom the LORD chose." And the king said, "I will give
them."

7 But the king spared Mephibosheth the son of Jonathan, the son of Saul, because of the LORD's oath that was between them, between David and Jonathan the son of Saul.

8So the king took Armoni and Mephibosheth, the two sons of Rizpah the daughter of Aiah, whom she bore to Saul, and the five sons of Michal[a] the daughter of Saul, whom she brought up for Adriel the son of Barzillai the Meholathite;

9and he delivered them into the hands of the Gibeonites, and they hanged them on the hill before the LORD. So they fell, all seven together, and were put to death in the days of harvest, in the first days, in the beginning of barley harvest.

10Now Rizpah the daughter of Aiah took sackcloth and spread it for herself on the rock, from the beginning of harvest until the late rains poured on them from heaven. And she did not allow the birds of the air to rest on them by day nor the beasts of the field by night.

11And David was told what Rizpah the daughter of Aiah, the concubine of Saul, had done.

12Then David went and took the bones of Saul, and the bones of Jonathan his son, from the men of Jabesh Gilead who had stolen them from the street of Beth Shan,[b] where the Philistines had hung them up, after the Philistines had struck down Saul in Gilboa.

13So he brought up the bones of Saul and the bones of Jonathan his son from there; and they gathered the bones of those who had been hanged.

14They buried the bones of Saul and Jonathan his son in the country of Benjamin in Zelah, in the tomb of Kish his father. So they performed all that the king commanded. And after that God heeded the prayer for the land.

Philistine Giants Destroyed

15When the Philistines were at war again with Israel, David and his servants with him went down and fought against the Philistines; and David grew faint.

16 Then Ishbi-Benob, who was one of the sons of the giant,
the weight of whose bronze spear was three hundred shekels, who was bearing a new sword, thought he could kill David.
17 But Abishai the son of Zeruiah came to his aid, and struck the Philistine and killed him. Then the men of David swore to him, saying, “You shall go out no more with us to battle, lest you quench the lamp of Israel.” 18 Now it happened afterward that there was again a battle with the Philistines at Gob. Then Sibbechai the Hushathite killed Saph,[c] who was one of the sons of the giant.
19 Again there was war at Gob with the Philistines, where Elhanan the son of Jaare-Oregim[d] the Bethlehemite killed the brother of Goliath the Gittite, the shaft of whose spear was like a weaver’s beam.
20 Yet again there was war at Gath, where there was a man of great stature, who had six fingers on each hand and six toes on each foot, twenty-four in number; and he also was born to the giant.
21 So when he defied Israel, Jonathan the son of Shimea,[e]
David’s brother, killed him.
22 These four were born to the giant in Gath, and fell by the hand of David and by the hand of his servants.

2 Samuel 22

Praise for God's Deliverance

1 Then David spoke to the LORD the words of this song, on the day when the LORD had delivered him from the hand of all his enemies, and from the hand of Saul.
2 And he said:[a]

"The LORD is my rock and my fortress and my deliverer; Songs to Celebrate God's Blessings
3 The God of my strength, in whom I will trust;
My shield and the horn of my salvation,
My stronghold and my refuge;
My Savior, You save me from violence.
4 I will call upon the LORD, who is worthy to be praised;
So shall I be saved from my enemies.

5 "When the waves of death surrounded me,
The floods of ungodliness made me afraid.
6 The sorrows of Sheol surrounded me;
The snares of death confronted me.
7 In my distress I called upon the LORD,
And cried out to my God;
He heard my voice from His temple,
And my cry entered His ears.

8 "Then the earth shook and trembled;
The foundations of heaven[b] quaked and were shaken,
Because He was angry.
9 Smoke went up from His nostrils,

And devouring fire from His mouth;
Coals were kindled by it.
10He bowed the heavens also, and came down
With darkness under His feet.
11He rode upon a cherub, and flew;
And He was seen[c] upon the wings of the wind.
12He made darkness canopies around Him,
Dark waters and thick clouds of the skies.
13From the brightness before Him
Coals of fire were kindled.

14"The LORD thundered from heaven,
And the Most High uttered His voice.
15He sent out arrows and scattered them;
Lightning bolts, and He vanquished them.
16Then the channels of the sea were seen,
The foundations of the world were uncovered,
At the rebuke of the LORD,
At the blast of the breath of His nostrils.

17"He sent from above, He took me,
He drew me out of many waters.
18He delivered me from my strong enemy,
From those who hated me;
For they were too strong for me.
19They confronted me in the day of my calamity,
But the LORD was my support.
20He also brought me out into a broad place;
He delivered me because He delighted in me.

21 “The LORD rewarded me according to my righteousness;
According to the cleanness of my hands
He has recompensed me.
22 For I have kept the ways of the LORD,
And have not wickedly departed from my God.
23 For all His judgments were before me;
And as for His statutes, I did not depart from
them.
24 I was also blameless before Him,
And I kept myself from my iniquity.
25 Therefore the LORD has recompensed me
according to my righteousness,
According to my cleanness in His eyes.[d]

26 “With the merciful You will show Yourself merciful;
With a blameless man You will show Yourself
blameless;
27 With the pure You will show Yourself pure;
And with the devious You will show Yourself shrewd.
28 You will save the humble people;
But Your eyes are on the haughty, that You may bring them down.

29 “For You are my lamp, O LORD;
The LORD shall enlighten my darkness.
30 For by You I can run against a troop;
By my God I can leap over a wall.
31 As for God, His way is perfect;
The word of the LORD is proven;
He is a shield to all who trust in Him.

32 “For who is God, except the LORD?
And who is a rock, except our God?
33 God is my strength and power,[e]
And He makes my[f] way perfect.
34 He makes my[g] feet like the feet of deer,
And sets me on my high places.
35 He teaches my hands to make war,
So that my arms can bend a bow of bronze.

36 “You have also given me the shield of Your salvation;
Your gentleness has made me great.
37 You enlarged my path under me;
So my feet did not slip.

38 “I have pursued my enemies and
destroyed them;
Neither did I turn back again till they were destroyed.
39 And I have destroyed them and wounded
them,
So that they could not rise;
They have fallen under my feet.
40 For You have armed me with strength for the battle;
You have subdued under me those who rose against me.
41 You have also given me the necks of my enemies,
So that I destroyed those who hated me.
42 They looked, but there was none to save;
Even to the LORD, but He did not answer
them.

43 Then I beat them as fine as the dust of the earth;
I trod them like dirt in the streets,
And I spread them out.

44 "You have also delivered me from the strivings of my people;
You have kept me as the head of the nations.
A people I have not known shall serve me.
45 The foreigners submit to me;
As soon as they hear, they obey me.
46 The foreigners fade away,
And come frightened[h] from their hideouts.

47 "The LORD lives!
Blessed be my Rock!
Let God be exalted,
The Rock of my salvation!
48 It is God who avenges me,
And subdues the peoples under me;
49 He delivers me from my enemies.
You also lift me up above those who rise
against me;
You have delivered me from the violent man.
50 Therefore I will give thanks to You, O
LORD, among the Gentiles,
And sing praises to Your name.

51 "He is the tower of salvation to His king,
And shows mercy to His anointed,
To David and his descendants forevermore."

2 Samuel 23

David's Last Words

[1]Now these are the last words of David.

Thus says David the son of Jesse;
Thus says the man raised up on high,
The anointed of the God of Jacob,
And the sweet psalmist of Israel:

[2]"The Spirit of the LORD spoke by me,
And His word was on my tongue.
[3]The God of Israel said,
The Rock of Israel spoke to me:
'He who rules over men must be just,
Ruling in the fear of God.
[4]And he shall be like the light of the morning when the sun rises,
A morning without clouds,
Like the tender grass springing out of the earth,
By clear shining after rain.'

[5]"Although my house is not so with God,
Yet He has made with me an everlasting covenant,
Ordered in all things and secure.
For this is all my salvation and all my desire;
Will He not make it increase?
[6]But the sons of rebellion shall all be as thorns thrust away,
Because they cannot be taken with hands.
[7]But the man who touches them

Must be armed with iron and the shaft of a spear,
And they shall be utterly burned with fire in their place.”

David’s Mighty Men

8These are the names of the mighty men whom David had: Josheb-Basshebeth[a] the Tachmonite, chief among the captains.[b] He was called Adino the Eznite, because he had killed eight hundred men at one time.
9And after him was Eleazar the son of Dodo,[c] the Ahohite, one of the three mighty men with David when they defied the Philistines who were gathered there for battle, and the men of Israel had retreated.
10He arose and attacked the Philistines until his hand was weary, and his hand stuck to the sword. The LORD brought about a great victory that day; and the people returned after him only to plunder.
11And after him was Shammah the son of Agee the Hararite. The Philistines had gathered together into a troop where there was a piece of ground full of lentils. So the people fled from the Philistines.
12But he stationed himself in the middle of the field, defended it, and killed the Philistines. So the LORD brought about a great victory.
13Then three of the thirty chief men went down at harvest time and came to David at the cave of Adullam. And the troop of Philistines encamped in the Valley of Rephaim.
14David was then in the stronghold, and the garrison of the Philistines was then in Bethlehem.
15And David said with longing, “Oh, that someone would give me a drink of the water from the well of Bethlehem, which is by the gate!”

16So the three mighty men broke through the camp of the Philistines, drew water from the well of Bethlehem that was by the gate, and took it and brought it to David. Nevertheless he would not drink it, but poured it out to the LORD.

17And he said, “Far be it from me, O LORD, that I should do this! Is this not the blood of the men who went in jeopardy of their lives?” Therefore he would not drink it. These things were done by the three mighty men.
